Krider Optimistic After Washington Conference

Key Support Given St. Johns Canal

Practical and important support for the St. Johns-Indian River canal, a key development in the surge ahead being felt in Sanford and Seminole County, was gained at the recent meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington.

This is the word from John Krider who attended the convention as an official delegate of the state of Florida.

During the meeting, which started on May 30 and concluded on June 2, Krider met with delegates from all 50 of the United States.

"I have come back feeling optimistic," said Krider in an interview with a Sanford Herald reporter. "This has been a most productive affair." Such opinions coming from the man who is generally rated as having been in the front ranks of those who early saw the possibilities for increased waterborne traffic and the accompanying benefits for Sanford with its Lake Monroe and the St. Johns had solid support.

For instance, Krider recalled the sentiment expressed by Henry Buckman, NR&H president, who termed the canal as one of the most strategic in the United States and urged speed-up of the final plans so that funds could be logically asked for and procured. At the luncheon with Florida senators and representatives he found the climate receptive and encouraging.

In Washington the Florida Waterways Association, Inc., of which Krider is a director-at-large, held a board meeting on May 30. At that time the Sanford executive took the opportunity of inviting the association to come to Sanford for its 1968 convention, to enjoy the marina and motel which would be completed by then, and taste the joys of boating on the St. Johns.

The St. Johns-Indian River canal has been a proposal discussed for several years. At present, however, Krider, chairman of the canal district, feels that changes in length—reduced from 45 to 30 miles—and cost estimate—reduced from $20 million to $14 million—have been helpful. Now, he believes is the time to push for the completion of the preliminary plans. These include the bridges and locks.

Push EDA Aid

City and county officials hope to meet with the state coordinator for the Economic Development Administration here "as soon as possible" to seek ways for North Seminole County to get federal loans "to provide new industry and permanent jobs" for the area.

At an informal City Commission meeting last night, commissioners met with officials of the Port Authority, Chamber and Sanford Industrial Board on ways for the county to acquire federal funds for needed projects.

Monday, the North Seminole area was designated an economically depressed area and was given a high priority for federal study loans.

Chamber of Commerce Executive secretary John Krider emphasized the first step was to "set up the mechanics making the program acceptable to economic development."

He said under the program the city could borrow money to acquire NAS property and have 40 years to pay. He also stressed the city could get a 100 per cent grant for access roads to the base.

A. K. SHOEMAKER JR.

JOHN KRIDER

FRANCIS ROUMILLAT

Krider urged the first step would be to get in touch with Forrest Holland, the state coordinator for EDA.

Port Authority Administrator Francis Roumillat Jr. gave a brief background into the program spelling out its main function was to provide new industry and permanent jobs. He urged a coordinated plan and added the port may apply for a public works grant with the government paying from 50 to 80 per cent for planning.

A. K. Shoemaker Jr., vice chairman of the Industrial Board, urged speedy action on the city's part to get an acceptable workable program and that under EDA, "we could get planning funds for downtown." However, he urged "we must proceed as soon as possible and determine the best route to take."

Sanford has been designated a depressed area because of the anticipated loss of jobs when the Naval base is phased out next year.

'Diamond' Project To Open In July

The Lake Mary Interchange at Interstate 4 will be completed and opened by mid-July, J. C. Lavender, county superintendent reports.

"The limerock base is being finished now and work is proceeding on schedule," Lavender said.

The county road program is still ahead of schedule with completion of improvements on Holiday Drive, Little Wekiva Road, Jackson and North Streets and Dean Road expected within the next 30 days.

Only two or three projects remain to be done during this budget year following completion of these five roads. Budgeted for the fiscal year to the road department was $220,000.

Egypt Shuts Suez Canal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Egypt closed the Suez Canal today and Israel carried the Middle East war, by land or air, into four neighboring countries.

The Israelis struck deeper into Egypt's Sinai Desert — on the road to Suez Israel followed in 1956 — and invaded Jordan, attacked on the Syrian front and bombed an Iraqi airfield.

Iraq and Kuwait cut off delivery of oil to the West after Egypt's high command asserted that U. S. and British naval planes joined the war in support of Israel.

The charge was promptly denied in Britain and the United States, which have declared nonbelligerence in the day-old conflict.

The Soviet Union, backing the Arabs, charged that Israel started the war.

Israel, seemingly with air superiority over the fronts, claimed the destruction of at least 374 Arab planes. Israel admitted losing 19 planes, while the Arab commands claimed 183 were shot down.

An indication of Israel's air superiority came from a Jordanian communique in Amman. It said there was "a huge umbrella of Israeli aircraft over the whole Jordanian front."

As the war intensified, mobs attacked U.S. facilities in Damascus and Baghdad and the consulate in Egypt's Alexandria.

In addition to striking deep into the northern Sinai Desert, the Israeli army announced the virtual occupation of the Gaza Strip on the Mediterranean with the capture of the city of Gaza, Egyptian administrative headquarters.

The strip had been bypassed by Israeli forces striking south and west and Radio Israel called on the strip's residents to surrender. Most of the strip's residents are Arab refugees from the Israeli-Arab war of 1948.

More than 30 miles west of the strip, the Israeli army fanned out from the captured key coastal town of El Arish in the Sinai Peninsula and seized Bir Lachpan to the southeast, an army announcement in Tel Aviv said.

The Israel column at El Arish was in a position to strike due west for Port Said, at the Mediterranean entrance to the Suez Canal. This is one of the major routes followed by the Israeli army in overrunning the Sinai Desert in 1956.

Cairo radio said the canal, one of the world's most vital waterways, had been closed be-

Kirk Will OK Port Measure Wednesday

TALLAHASSEE (Spl) — Gov. Claude Kirk will "do the honors" here tomorrow when he signs into law the primary Seminole County Port Authority legislative measure in the presence of Seminole-Orange legislators and port officials.

The new law will permit the Seminole County Commission to transfer to the Port Authority $60,000 of its race track tax collection. This will permit the Port Authority to pledge the money for loans. In turn, the Port Authority may hand over moneys to the county from its half-mill ad valorem tax receipts, which may not under law be pledged for loans.

Sen. Robert Elrod (R-Windermere), chairman of the Seminole-Orange legislative delegation, pointed out this morning that the Seminole bill is the only legislative measure touching on race track tax moneys to be approved by this legislature. Other such measures, from other parts of the state, and an overall measure to revise the tax allocations, have been introduced but none approved.

Present for the signing tomorrow in Governor Kirk's office will be Senator Elrod, Sen. Kenneth Plante (R-Altamonte Springs) Reps. Jan Fortune (R-English Estates) and E. Pope Bassett (R-Altamonte Springs), and Andrew Carraway and Carl Schilke, Port Authority directors.

FTU Access Roads A Must, County Told

DOUGLAS STENSTROM

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce admonished the County Commission today to take immediate action to "get the access road to Florida Technological University" into the proposed $375 million bond issue of Gov. Claude Kirk.

Douglas Stenstrom, speaking on behalf of the Long Range Planning Committee of the Chamber, reminded the board, "Seminole is the 17th largest county in the state . . . we have every right in the world to holler for the state to include the Lake Jessup Causeway and the county line road in the bond issue."

Stenstrom urged the board to adopt the "strongest possible resolution" to our road board member, our legislative delegation and the Governor letting them know in plain language that we want to be considered in this matter."

John Krider, Chamber executive director, warned, "Gentlemen, if the University opens without access roads north and south, east and west, we will suffer for 25 years.

The County Commission today postponed action on appeal against a board of adjustment decision for a borrow pit North of SR 436 in the Sanlando area.

The commission agreed to view the area before making a decision.

There was a host of objections to the pit citing depreciating of surrounding property.

Manor Paving Action Tabled

Twenty-eight thousand dollars is the estimated cost of materials to pave the 10 to 12 streets in Mobile Manor, Road Superintendent J. C. Lavender told the Board of County Commissioners this morning before they tabled any action on the matter.

Study of the costs of building the streets in the trailer park had been requested several months ago by the residents of Mobile Manor with a view toward the residents there participating with the county on the road construction.

Seek Summary Judgment In Courthouse Row

Action to bring a quick court decision on part of the courthouse injunction suit has been taken by the plaintiffs with the filing by Harlan Tuck, attorney, of a motion for summary judgment by Circuit Judge Roger Dykes of count two in the complaint.

Count two claims the County Commission did not publish notice of its plan to consider building a new courthouse as required by law.

Summary judgment by the court on count two would determine the claim of the plaintiffs is valid. Count three of the petition charging abuse of discretion by the County Commission was dismissed with prejudice by Judge Dykes last week.

Elderly Housing Units Pushed Here

The Sanford Housing Authority will apply for federal funds to build low income housing and units for the elderly in the city, it was disclosed, last night at an informal City Commission meeting.

Commissioners gave the green light to the authority to ask that 150 housing units for the elderly and 150 additional low income units be constructed.

Gordon Bradley, administrator for the authority, stressed the best place for the elderly units would be around the area from Sanford and Second St. He emphasized the low income units be constructed in the areas of 8th and 11th streets near the present projects.

GORDON BRADLEY

Bradley said there was a dire need for increased units here. "There are some 1,300 sub-standard dwellings in the city limits," Bradley said.

Bradley hopes to have more information on how to proceed with plans for the application after returning from a national conference in New Orleans next week. Also expected to attend the conference is City Manager W. E. Knowles.

It was reported that if the U.S. agrees to build the housing units, it would be at least 18 months before construction would get underway.

Recreation Program Off To A 'Flying Start'

Sanford summer recreation program is off to a flood-stage of children, according to Jim Jernigan, director of Recreation and Parks, with opening day Monday having 130 elementary age children in attendance.

"This morning (Tuesday) I look out over the Civic Center patio and see nothing but a sea of children," he said. Parents bring their tots in and leave them in the care of qualified supervisors, for the hours of 8:30 a.m. to Noon.

Advance registration for the Elementary division was up over 200 Monday. For Special Activities for teenagers, over 100 advance registrations have been received. This seems an indication of a successful program for 1967, Jernigan said, with the seven week session running from June 5 through July 21.

The Sack Lunch picnic today is a "sell-out" and Wednesday's Big Toe competition is sure to have hundreds of contestants, while swimming will be for free Thursday. Tour Day is Friday with a visit to a special area of downtown Sanford on tap.

Milwee Praised By Chamber

Plaudits for R. T. Milwee for his service as superintendent of Seminole County schools will be presented to him in a resolution by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at a testimonial dinner this evening at the Sanford Civic Center.

The resolution reads, in part, that the Chamber officials "do hereby express their deep gratitude to R. T. Milwee for the years of devoted service rendered by him as superintendent of public instruction and do hereby express their deep regret upon his resignation."

U. S., Britain Deny Planes In Israeli-Arab War

UN Diplomats Hopeful For Cease Fire

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats are hopeful that the Soviet Union and the United States can agree on the text of a resolution by which the U.N. Security Council could call unanimously for cease-fire and withdrawal in the Middle East war.

The informants said Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko and U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg were pledged to negotiate in advance of today's meetings.

They said the two had promised to seek instructions from their governments that might enable them to settle the remaining issue—the point to which the fighting forces should withdraw.

The two big powers were still deadlocked when the council adjourned Monday night after an hour's public debate and 11 hours' private consultations on what to do about the fighting.

The Russians wanted the resolution to indicate only that the forces should withdraw to the positions they held before the fighting.

The Americans wanted to be able to interpret it as meaning also that the Egyptians should withdraw from the Strait of Tiran where they were blockading Israeli shipping.

The Egyptians occupied Sharm el Sheikh, overlooking the strait, after the U.N. Emergency Force evacuated it about two weeks ago in withdrawing from Egypt by that government's request.

cause of Israeli attacks on ships in the canal.

Baghdad radio said Iraqi President Abdel Rahman Aref has stopped delivery of his country's oil to the West because of "the position of America and Britain."

His action was announced after the Egyptian high command charged that U.S. and British Navy planes had joined the war in support of Israel, a charge that the U.S. and British governments immediately denied.

Cairo radio said the Suez Canal was being closed because a ship might be hit in the waterway and block it "for a long time."

The broadcast did not identify the ships which it said had come under Israeli fire. Egypt charged Monday that Israeli planes had fired on a French tanker in the canal but apparently it was not hit.

Egypt charged that planes from U.S. and British aircraft carriers attacked Arab forces in Jordan and provided an air umbrella over Israel. Despite immediate denials from the U.S. and British governments, which had proclaimed their neutrality in the Arab-Israeli conflict, the Arab Labor Federation appealed to "workers all over the Arab world" to destroy all oilfields, pipelines and other installations to halt the flow of oil to the United States and Britain.

The Arabs countered Israel's victory statements with claims of an Egyptian thrust into Israel's Negev Desert, the downing of more than 165 Israeli planes on all fronts, a Jordanian claim that Israeli penetration of Jordan had been repulsed, and a Syrian claim to have occupied an Israeli settlement which the Israelis said they recaptured.

Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol told a night session of Parliament that Israel had inflicted a "severe beating" on the forces of Egypt, Syria and Jordan."

The Israelis announced that their armor had captured the key eascoast town of El Arish in its sweep into Egypt's Sinai Peninsula. El Arish was a vital objective of the Israelis in their 1956 drive on Suez.

Israel's chief of staff, Gen. Itzhak Rabin said one Israeli column, after reaching El Arish, pushed on to Abu Ageila, another strategic point. In the Gaza Strip jutting to the north of that sector, Israeli troops were reported fighting on the outskirts of the ancient town of Gaza.

Rabin said other Israeli columns had smashed their way into the center and southern sectors of the Sinai Desert.

Damascus radio announced that Syrian forces entered the war at dawn, attacking Israeli positions along the 47-mile border between Israel and Syria. The Syrians claimed occupation of Shaar Yashuv, a frontier farm commune in Galilee, but an Israeli spokesman said a heavy armored attack was driven off after an hour and a half.

The Israeli spokesman said Syrian guns were shelling agricultural settlements along virtually the entire border. A spokesman said Israeli artillery and air force jets hit back at the Syrian positions.

Damascus radio claimed that Syrian forces shot down two Israeli planes which attacked Syrian border positions today.

On the Jordan-Israel front, the Israelis announced the capture of Zur Bahar, just south of Jerusalem, and Sheik Azia, in the Jerusalem corridor, then today claimed capture of three other points in Jordan, the main one Jenin, 30 miles southeast of Haifa.

The Israelis said their forces had also occupied Nebi Samuel, near Jerusalem, and Latrun, 18 miles east of Tel Aviv in the westernmost part of Jordan jutting into Israel.

The Jordanian radio reported the assault on Jenin was a major offensive in division strength supported by armor. The Amman broadcast claimed the assault was hurled back with heavy Israeli losses including destruction of 36 Israeli tanks.

Mordechai Hod, commander of the Israeli air force, told newsmen Monday night his squadrons had destroyed 374 Arab planes as "certains" and 34 as "probables." Israeli losses were given as 19 planes with 8 pilots known killed and 11 missing, some of them known captured.

Rabin hailed the air results as "achievements without precedent" and claimed they gave Israel air superiority over the entire battle area. The Israeli claims indicated they caught most of the planes on the ground.

Gov. Kirk Calls For

Secret Teacher Ballot

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk, calling the leadership of the Florida Education Association "totally irresponsible," today proposed a secret ballot to see where Florida teachers stand.

"If the FEA does represent the teacher, let's find out," Kirk said at a news conference. "What's wrong with a secret ballot to allow the teachers to say what they want to do?"

The governor, calling the FEA leaders propagandists and compared them to dictators.

He also reaffirmed his "no new tax" pledge, criticized the Legislature for not including Republicans on the House-Senate conference committee on appropriations and said he hopes the lawmakers will initiate constitutional revision.

"As long as they war on me, all right," Kirk said of the FEA "but don't try to dictate to the people."

The governor said teachers were "almost coerced to join" the FEA and questioned what right the organization had to use the word "Florida."

"The FEA has never accomplished anything except perhaps a lobbying expense bill," he said.

Kirk said a statewide survey showed that over 69 per cent of the teachers in Florida are being paid more than $5,500 per year. He said the poll, taken through county superintendents, also indicated 22 per cent between $5,000 and $5,500; 6.6 per cent between $4,500 and $5,000 and the remaining 2.4 per cent under $4,500.

Contending that his $1,050 per year four-step pay raise would mean an increase of 26 per cent in teacher salaries, Kirk said "Any family in Florida that could get a 26 per cent increase would be very pleased" although the leadership of the FEA was not satisfied.

Kirk said the FEA sanction which contends Florida is an unsatisfactory place to teach is "a lie" and called FEA President George Dabbs "a Quisling to the teachers and the taught."

The sanction which tells industry not to come to Florida is "the same thing as saying industry should leave Florida," he said, contending that this indicated the FEA leadership did not think teachers had relatives who need jobs.

Asked about specifics of the proposed ballot, Kirk said he had made no plans but would be glad to initiate it in the public interest.

"In order to make it an impartial, total, secret, fair ballot of the teachers," he said, the vote would have to be an uncoerced voting-machine ballot of teachers.

"Before they do any slandering or libeling of Florida, they ought to document how many teachers they represent," the governor said.

Kirk said reports that his tax stance was shifting was the result of a "desire on the part of some to see if I couldn't be forced into a softer position."

"I was elected on a 'no new tax' stand and I stand on 'no new taxes' and a balanced budget," he said.

Kirk said excluding Republicans from the legislative conference committee on appropriations was "certainly abnormal" and he considered it a "slap at the Republican minority."

Refusing to comment on whether he would call a special constitutional revision session after the close of the Legislature, Kirk said he would "hope that they determine that constitutional revision is so important that they will go right ahead with it."

The governor described recent visits to state attorney offices in Miami and Jacksonville as "routine visits to the branch offices of my office."

But he said his visit to Miami was to check on the "gangland slayings and bombings" which have been touched off by "our war on crime and one reason or another."

LADY BIRD Johnson, in a ceremony this afternoon in the White House's east garden, handed out five bronze plaques and 42 certificates of honor for beautification projects in Washington, D. C., and for an airport beauty project at Phoenix, Ariz.

Key Support Given Canal, Krider Says

He is optimistic that in 1968 the canal could get on the finalizing schedule provided there is a session of the state legislature in 1968. If not, then the 1969 session would be the target. Krider likes to point out that this canal is not a federal project but a project which will have the support of federal, state and local resources.

And the opening of this waterway, which would provide a useful, dredged channel from Jacksonville, up the St. Johns south to Lake Monroe, then along the proposed canal to Indian River and the inland waterway, would be the key unlocking the vast resources which such waterways have always produced. Not only barge traffic, using the Port of Sanford facilities, but pleasure sailing south along the rivers to the inland waterway would bring income to all the Sanford, Seminole County area.

South Dakota's Black Hills are not hills but mountains.

News Photog Killed In War

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)— An American news photographer, Paul Schutzer of Life magazine, was killed early today when Egyptian fire hit the Israeli halftrack on which he was riding, Israeli army sources reported. He was the first newsman killed in the new Arab-Israeli war.

Schutzer, 35, lived in New Rochelle, N. Y. with his wife and their two children. He was covering an Israeli-Egyptian armored battle in the Sinai Desert.

Life correspondent Michael Mok, also of New York, was riding in the halftrack but was not hurt, the army sources said.

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC News said Monday one of its producers, Ted Yates, had been reported fatally wounded in Jerusalem.

The 36-year-old Yates, head of a five-man team filming for NBC News in the Middle East, was reported in the Government Hospital in the old City of Jerusalem after being struck by a mortar shell.

NBC said he had left Amman, Jordan, for Jerusalem and was wounded in the Jordanian sector of the divided city.

Yates makes his home in Washington with his wife and three sons. Yates formerly lived in Naples, Fla., where he began his news career as a part-time sports writer on the Collier County News.

Social Security Hike Frowned On By Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee is talking of cutting back slightly Social Security benefit increases proposed by President Johnson.

This was learned as the committee continued today its weeks-long closed sessions on the complex administration legislation. There is little prospect of a House vote earlier than next month.

Johnson's proposals involved a hike in benefits of not less than 15 per cent for any recipient, with some in the lower brackets getting a preportionately much larger increase.

A committee source said discussions now center around an increase averaging perhaps 13 per cent.

Predominant committee sentiment, it was said, is against raising the wage base in which the tax is levied as steeply as the presidential proposal contemplates — from the present $6,600 to $7,800 in 1968, $9,000 in 1971 and $10,800 in 1974.

Combined with tax rate increases, these base stepups would mean, for those earning the maximum, a rise from the present $290.40 annual tax to $343.20 in 1968 and ultimately, by 1987, $626.40.

Without such increases, the full range of increases proposed by Johnson would not be financed by program income.

The committee source said no agreement on an exact benefit increase schedule has been reached yet. But he said this would not be as difficult as resolving other portions of the legislation, such as those dealing with changes in medicare and with limitations on federal participation in state medicaid programs.

Episcopalian's Proposal Under Fire In Churches

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A controversy developed in Christendom today over Episcopal Bishop C. Kilmer Myers' proposal that Anglicans and Protestants unite under the Roman papacy.

The bishop says he was prompted to deliver the sermon at Grace Cathedral Sunday by the threat of war in the Middle East—which is now a fact.

Myers told newsmen later he had been thinking about it for three years, and the blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba dramatized for him mankind's "sinful devotion to disunity."

"The Middle East represents fragmentation basically caused by food problems," he said.

"I do not believe that God will permit his church to lead mankind further into a tribalistic situation," he had said in his sermon to the standing-room-only congregation of 1,500 on Nob Hill.

A spokesman for the bishop said reaction had been mixed.

Although telephone calls and letters have been received from across the country, he said, the only violent protests have come from laymen, predominantly women.

"What the hell does your bishop think he's doing?" the spokesman quoted a woman who called him as saying.

He said lay objections appeared to be based mostly upon traditional fears of papal power and the doctrine of infallibility.

On the pastoral level, the proposal by the successor to the controversial Bishop James Pike as leader of 103,000 Northern Californian Episcopalians met a restrained response both ways.

"Do you want me to register a look of pleasant surprise?" asked Roman Catholic Archbishop Joseph McGuecken Monday as he met reporters and photographers.

He welcomed the Myers proposal, but said he knew many non-Catholics are suspicious of centralized papal power. However, he said, peace, poverty and racial justice "are all fields in which we can come together with a bond of love." He said he had forwarded a copy of Myers' sermon to the Vatican, where sources said the proposal would receive consideration.

In Great Britain, Church of England circles showed no disagreement with the Myers' proposal but it was pointed out that the Anglican position traditionally has been that its chief differences with Rome are in what are regarded as human innovations such as worship of the Virgin Mary and the principle of papal infallibility.

At Stanford University, Dr. Robert McAfee Brown, head of the School of Religion, praised the Myers concept. It may "set certain ecclesiastical teeth on edge," he said, but Myers was only expressing openly "the unspoken yet half-acted impulse" of some Protestants to "use Pope Paul or Pope John as support for our concerns."

"We protestants can see in the papacy, as reconceived by Pope John, an important symbol of a united Christian voice and witness," Brown said.

Gray-Haired 'Middie' Fools Brass

RANDALLSTOWN, Md. (AP)—A middle-aged midshipman for a day, who fooled everyone up to and including the Secretary of the Navy, revealed how he pulled the stunt at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis two years ago.

Each year the graduating middies come up with a new stunt. In 1965, Midshipman Daniel Lee Rumbley and his fellow graduates voted his father "to be one of us at the parade."

The son smuggled a midshipman's uniform, a rifle and bayonet to his father, Daniel E. Rumbley, now 43.

The elder Rumbley, a lieutenant for the Pennsylvania Railroad police, marched in the June Week color parade, gray temples and all.

Rumbley passed his first test when a Marine inspector didn't notice his gray hair.

The real Midshipman Rumbley marched directly behind his father.

"Every other step, he would say, 'watch your step, don't pass out. Don't embarrass me.' He'd ask if I was all right. A couple of guys did pass out that day. Finally I said, 'shut up, and mind your own business,'" said the elder Rumbley.

The father was on the outside line when the group passed the reviewing stand jammed with high-ranking Naval officers, including Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze and the academy superintendent.

Weather News Gets Top Billing

Weather news got top billing when TV-newsmen talked at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club in the civic center yesterday. On hand were news director Nick Pfeifauf, whose electronic reporting goes back to experieince on WTRR, Sanford's radio station, and Charles Sikes, who, in addition to a solid background of news experience, has recently qualified as a meteorolgical scientist, a member of the American Meteorological Society.

It was Sikes who gave the details of the weather news broadcast which comes over the NBC affiliate—WESH-TV— with studios in Winter Park and Daytona Beach.

"What distinguishes our weather operation is that we are entirely independent of the United States Weather Bureau. We have three teletypes, a weather map reader and radar. We have severe weather warning facilities—reports from ships at sea and are able to unscramble the messages from weather satellites," said Sikes.

Charles Stumpf, chief meteorologist, and Paul Cato, weather broadcaster, also are members of the AMS and their TV appearances are in their actual role of weather scientists. Thus these channels of weather information are gathered together and interpreted in their bearing on Florida weather, primarily weather in our central area. Sikes explained that this period of drought has no easy scientific explanation. "It was just that circumstances which produce precipitation did not take place."

The Rotarians were especially interested in weather news as applied to the fun of fishing and the danger of hurricanes. On the former Sikes pointed out that wind and wave conditions can be and are reported. On the latter he frankly admitted that hurricanes are nard to predict and cited a couple of instances when WESH had been more accurate than the official forecasts, hastily adding "but it could be the other way any year."

'Just Another Day'

As the Herald mentioned last week —Memorial Day was "just another day in Sanford."

Federal offices closed and there were some gripes because of no mail deliveries. Banks, schools, stores — they all did business as usual.

A quick turn around Sanford and even Seminole County to count the United States flags on display would have used up considerably less than the fingers on one hand after you ruled out places like schools, post offices and veterans' club buildings.

Too few homes displayed Old Glory. Probably the thoughts of those in the homes or the "business as usual" commercial operations were as barren of thoughts about what the day meant.

There are still some diehards around who sniff at Memorial Day as a "Yankee holiday."

It isn't so. Memorial Day in Florida is officially a "Memorial Day for Veterans of All Wars." That includes both sides in the Civil War, or War between the States, or whatever you want to call it.

One of the several veterans' organizations in Seminole would do well to take the lead right now and begin a campaign to make display flags available to householders.

It would be fitting for Seminole County to break out American flags on every possible occasion. — We have already lost 11 boys in the Vietnam war. It would be nice to remember them.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In testimony to Congress shortly before the outbreak of the Egyptian-Israeli crisis, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's men said they had gone slow in selling arms to Israel.

The reasoning: Such sales might antagonize the Egyptians, upset the uneasy balance in the Middle East and lead to an arms race.

Meanwhile, Egypt and Syria continued importing considerable amounts of arms from the Soviet Union.

The McNamara men finally decided to sell, they said, barely enough arms to Israel just hold its own.

The McNamara policy did not achieve its objectives. Holding back on arms to Israel did not prevent the Soviet Union from selling sizable amounts of arms to the Egyptians and Syrians. It did not prevent Nasser from setting up a partial blockade of Israel. No one can prove, of course, that the furnishing of more arms to Israel would have produced better results. But there's a chance that it could have.

There may be a parallel here in the discussions on setting up a U.S. antiballistic missile system.

In testimony before Congress the past few years, defense men have made it clear that a major McNamara objection to a large U.S. antimissile defense system is that this step-up in U.S. defense would, he believes, make the Russians suspicious, upset the uneasy missle-arms balance, lead to an arms race and leave us no better off.

This is similar to the argument McNamara's aides used in going slow on selling arms to Israel.

This unilateral go-slow defense policy (the hold-down on building additional missiles and the holdup on building antimissile systems) was developed by the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency in a series of research papers over a number of years.

The theory held that if the United States slowed to a stop in building intercontinental ballistic missiles and if the United States refrained from building an antimissile system, the Russians would slow down their production of ICBMs and would not set up an ABM system.

The Russians did not operate according to plan.

Instead, Moscow stepped up the building of ICBMs and the construction of hard-to-penetrate ICBM sites. The Russians are building an ABM system.

The new Pentagon theory is that the United States hasn't given the Russians enough time or enough leeway. these defense men hold, when it has enough missiles to convince its military men they can destroy the United States.

The theory held by these McNamara men is that the Russian missile strength really won't matter. No matter how many missiles got through and no matter how many Americans were killed and how much of the economy destroyed, there would be enough U. S. missiles left to destroy a great deal of the Russian economy and its people.

They are certain that no reasonable Russian would start a war under these circumstances.

The danger is that McNamara could be wrong. It could be that this growing Russian strength will cause Moscow and its allies to take greater risks — risks which could lead to war.

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nuclear bomb didn't end war but it does make the big powers a little more thoughtful and a little less overbearing, which is a good excuse for the smaller ones to take advantage of them.

And, in taking advantage of them, the small ones can dare the big ones and even tangle with them, feeling rather safe when they do since, in a sense, the nuclar bomb has immobilized its owners.

A couple of good examples are Vietnam and the Middle East.

If Ho Chi Minh and his North Vietnamese feared they would be wiped off the map with a nuclear blast if they took on the United States, no doubt there would be no war in Vietnam today.

The North Vietnamese have proved themselves tremendously brave but they are neither lunatics nor suicide-bent and they would have been both if they had felt, when they got into this war, the United States would use the bomb.

But they had several reasons to know the United States would be reluctant to go that far: the inhumanity of it, the scorchingly bad world reaction, and the possibility the Soviets might get in with their nuclear bombs.

On the other hand, the Soviets themselves have avoided getting directly involved. Vietnam is a long way from Soviet territory and it is within the sphere of Chinese influence, not Soviet.

So the Soviets have been reluctant to butt in, knowing that in a world where one thing leads to another they might, before they knew it, be in a nuclear war with the United States, a war in which Vietnam would be only a minor episode.

The Soviets haven't even exerted themselves overmuch in giving other kinds of help to Ho Chi Minh. But, if the United States used nuclear weapons, the Soviets, much as they dreaded it, might feel compelled out of self-consciousness before the Communist world to use nuclear bombs on the United States.

Perhaps Moscow wouldn't have done anything of the kind. But there was always the chance it might. So the United States has limited itself to the so-called traditional bombs in North Vietnam.

And the North Vietnamese, knowing the odds against total destruction for them, took their chance, and while they are not winning they are not losing.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser has played the same kind of game, and no doubt for the same kind of reasons, in bringing the Mideast to the edge of war, closing the Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli shipping, while increasing his prestige in the Arab world to a new high.

The one missing link in this one, which may make it different from Vietnam, is the Soviet Union because no one at this point seems to know whether the Soviets, to smash Western influence in the area while increasing their own, connived with Nasser to do what he did.

The Soviets know the United States know that if it takes military action to break Nasser's back so close to the Soviet homeland, the Soviets may come to his aid and, with one shot leading to another, wind up in an American-Soviet nuclear war.

No wonder the Johnson administration has been working in silence and behind the scenes, without threats. Threats might bring responding threats from Moscow and that in itself might force a showdown.

Like the Soviets with Vietnam, President Johnson with the Middle East has to ask himself: Is the Mideast important enough to the United States and its Western allies to risk a nuclear war to save Israel?

The nuclear bomb has even given the big powers a new perspective, for what may seem dreadfully important today may seem inconsequential tomorrow if, after butting heads, all that is left are a few remnants of life.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Tom's group is grumbling. And well it should, for the older generation will hand Tom and his pals a bill for 325 billion dollars when they reach 21. Yet Tom didn't spend that money or even O.K. the wars and boondoggling for which it went. Over 6,000,000 teenagers will come of voting age between now and the elections in 1968, so be sure you all vote!

CASE C-562: Tom D., aged 18, is president of his high school senior class.

After my talk to his high school convocation, the students wanted a questio-and-answer forum.

"Dr. Crane," Tom began, "do you think it is wrong for 18-year-olds to have the right to vote?"

Teenage Gripes

Remember, most states not only debar those aged 18 from casting their ballots.

But also disfranchise those of 19 and 20.

Yet Uncle Sam drafts 18-year-olds, plus those of 19 and 20, and ships them off to Vietnam or other jungle battlefields.

The Boston Tea Party is supposed to have been justified on the basis of "Taxation without Representation."

Well, isn't the same argument valid regarding drafting 18-year-olds, who didn't even have a chance to vote for the Congressmen who got us into those wars?

Old men in Congress declared the war (or are supposed to, per our Constitution), yet they never fight them!

Yet the teenage cannon fodder for those wars usually didn't even have a chance to vote for those brave old codgers in Congress!

Lowering the voting age to 18, generally just adds more ballots to be counted.

For the Republican-Democratic ratio is seldom altered much.

But it is certainly unfair to the uncoming generation to make them die on foreign battlefields without giving them a chance to vote "Yes" or "No."

So I agreed with the high schoolers that if they are too young to vote for the members of Congress, they are too young to be drafted for cannon fodder.

Either give them the vote or restrict the draft to those past 21.

Deean Manion, former head of Notre Dame's Law School, has also said that young people nowadays are being sabotaged by a dissolute older generation.

For when you young folks reach 21, you will be handed a federal bill for about 325 billion dollars.

Those dollars have been spent. They are gone!

Yet you must pay the bill though you never voted for any of the costly boondoggling that those 325 billion dollars financed.

"Isn't this taxation without representation?" asks Dean Manion.

Supose a boy or girl, aged 10, were left an inheritance of $100,000 by a wealthy aunt.

The youngsters were to come into that estate at the age of 21.

But suppose their father or the executor kept stealing from the estate until it was all gone when the proper heir reached 21.

Wouldn't that be a dastardly act?

Well, Congress and our state governments have been stealing the rightful inheritance from you teenagers!

And exhausting our Mesabi Iron Range, plus the oil and coal fields till you will be left at least half-bankrupt of natural resources and also stuck with that federal debt of 325 billion dollars!

So send for my booklet "How to Save Our Republic," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents and stop this looting of your heritage!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The word "monsoon"—periodic winds in certain latitudes—comes from the arabic word "mausim" which means a time, a season. At first monsoon referred to the winds over the Arabian Sea, which blow six months from the northeast and six months from the southwest, says The World Almanac. Later the word was used to refer to similar winds in other parts of the world. In India, the southwest monsoon is almost synonymous with "rain" which the wind brings.

Helen Fuller Says:

Moon Landing Delayed

WASHINGTON — The 1970 target for a manned U.S. landing on the moon is now a very doubtful date.

The fire that killed three astronauts on the launchpad before the Apollo spacecraft was fired settled that.

Two Congressional committes have completed inquiries into that disaster which indicate, in the words of Sen. Clinton Anderson (D, N.M.), that it is now unlikely that the Apollo project can succeed in a manned moon landing by 1970.

Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration promised throughout the Congressional hearings that they will make management changes which will still make the 1970 target possible.

They defended their choice of North American Aviation to build the faulty vehicle which exploded before launching.

They denied charges that NASA "covered up" expert warnings of defects in the Apollo while it was in construction.

The strongest warning came from Gen. Samuel Phillips, the Apollo project director in 1965. At that time General Phillips pointed out in an official memorandum certain engineering and management faults in North American's handling of the Apollo project.

Nothing happened. At NASA, or at North American. The Phillips memorandum was not available to members of Congress until Rep. William Ryan (D, N.Y.) obtained it through the Washington "underground."

Congress was interested in seeking out the cause of the Apollo disaster. Rep. Olin Teague of Texas spoke for most of the knowledgeable members of the subcommittee conducting the investigation: "We were all to blame," Teague said. "I think we had all been lulled into a false sense of security by a previous string of successes."

Other members of the subcommittee were not so charitable. Several had special criticism for NASA's withholding of information from Congress. A number agreed with Rep. Ken Nechlor (D, W.Va.) that they will now be "much more skeptical" of what the Space Administration tells them.

The Senate has concluded that complacency was at the root of the Apollo tragedy. "An admitted mood of overconfidence by NASA and North American based on past successes proved fatal," Senator Anderson said for the majority.

There will be a delay in getting to the moon, most space scientists agree. But, as Senator Anderson says, while the delay will be regrettable "there is nothing sacred" about the pre-1970 date.

Uncertainty Underlies Economy

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A feeling of caution and uncertainty underlies the American economy today. No matter what is said officially, it is there as it seldom has been in the 1960s.

It is provoked in part by shopworn forecasts out of Washington, Detroit and New York about an imminent upturn in the economy. It is maintained by optimistic cliches so at odds with the facts as to lack credibility.

For months the nation has been fed an official diet of good cheer. Now it is suspicious. Will our high and mighty economy rise to still another peak? Or will it slip into a valley? Or even stay on the plateau?

The consumer, hesitant to commit himself, saves more money than he used to; that is, 6.5 per cent of his take-home pay. He is reluctant to take on more credit. And so retail sales, automobiles included, are sluggish.

The producer is showing contradictory behavior, hoarding credit in some instances but not using it; cautiously cutting production in some instances while his competitor, interpreting the signs differently, expands.

The Vietnam war has been the chief economic troublemaker, but certainly not the only one.

Others that produce the caution and uncertainty include:

The Budget Deficit—The administration originally said it would be $8.1 billion. Later this was advanced to $11 billion. Considerable skepticism arose and now some critics estimate the potential deficit at $30 billion, twice the previous record. Much of this results from Vietnam's costs.

Taxes—This is one of the administration's solutions to the problem. If taxes are raised the deficit might be lessened. But what if taxes depress business so that revenue is less than expected? Present indications are that the administration will press for a 6 per cent surtax on personal and corporate incomes. Some analysts feel it will be larger.

Inflation — A big deficit could be inflationary, producing the classic situation of too many dollars chasing too few goods. With demand exceeding the economy's ability to supply, prices might rise sharply.

B. R. Carroll Wins Trip To Las Vegas, Nev.

MR. & MRS. B. R. CARROLL

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Carroll left by charter jet from Tampa for Las Vegas, Nev., where they will attend the Philco convention, previewing the new 1968 models of the complete line of Philco appliances, radios, stereos, and television. They will stay at the Diamond Dunes Hotel, "the Heart of the Strip."

The Carrolls will return to Sanford Thursday night. They reside at 1909 Oak Avenue. Carroll is owner of Carroll's Furniture, at 116 West First Street.

Because of Carroll's exceeding the sales quota for the past year, this is courtesy of Philco, a subsidary of Ford Motor Company.

Former Pastor To Visit Club

Catholic Women's Club of All Souls Church, Sanford, will have a special guest at the June meeting which was postponed from Monday to 8 p.m. Wednesday, due to high school commencement exercises.

Distinguished visitor will be Father John J. Kellagher who returns to Sanford after an absence of 25 years. Fr. Kellagher arrived in Sanford 35 years ago as pastor of All Souls Church. The "new" church was dedicated 30 years ago.

A covered dish supper will honor all past officers in celebration of the club's 21st anniversary. A crazy hat contest will be preceded by a short business meeting.

All members are urged to attend and bring a friend.

FROSTING is a specialty at Lake Mary Beauty Shop and here operator Hazel Miller adds the glamorous touch to the hair of Mrs. Betty Williams of Sanford. (Herald Photo)

Latest Hair Styles Featured By Hazel

The girls that girl watchers watch have beautiful hair styled by Hazel Miller at Lake Mary Beauty Salon.

Shining hair flowing in a sailing wind; short fluff of curls that stay there while swimming; or a fashion setting in the latest styles for glamorous occasions; all these get the "watched-girl" touch at reasonable prices.

Hazel gives that frosting-look or a custom-blending of colors to flatter your skin tone and personality. She takes special care in permanent waving and offers a free haircut with her shampoo and set. If dry locks call for conditioning Hazel will see that the shine is returned for a healthy crown of glorious hair.

Lake Mary Beauty Salon is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily Tuesday through Saturday and evening appointments may be made for special occasions. The location in downtown Lake Mary on the corner of Wilbur and Country Club Road makes the shop convenient to many surrounding communities.

Fred Hayes Named Mathers' Manager

FRED HAYES

New store manager of Mathers Furniture Store in Downtown Sanford is Fred (Ted) Hayes, formerly furniture department manager of Sears in Titusville.

Hayes replaces M. G. Koonce who is being transferred with the Mathers chain to the Tarpon Springs area.

"We hope to continue the Mathers policy of good quality merchandise at everyday low prices," Hayes said, "and six decades of doing business in Downtown Sanford has drawn many satisfied customers to our store."

He stressed the fact that Downtown Sanford "We Care" Merchants are playing a big role in drawing new friends to the downtown area, stating that Mathers had four winners in the recent Lucky Key promotion.

Hayes came to Clermont in 1949, where he was co-owner and manager of a furniture store. His wife, Frances, still resides there until a move can be made to Sanford. They are the parents of three daughters, Linda, Barbee and Nancy.

Mrs. Snead and her daughter played an organ and piano duet entitled "Tribute To Mother."

Art Exhibit Opens At DeBary Mansion

The month of June ushers in a very fine exhibition by the Florida Federation of Art in the twin galleries of the DeBary Mansion, FFA headquarters.

One room contains an excellent exhibit of marquetry work by John F. Conn of DeLand. Conn came to Florida in 1929 and retired just one year ago from his teaching position at Stetson University where he taught chemistry. Working with wood became a hobby while he was still a young boy when he started with a foot treadle operated jig-saw. He has used a power saw for the past 15 years, however.

Among the pictures hanging in the galleries are two of particular interest—one of geese and another of a pot of flowers both employing the use of color dyed wood. There is also a portrait, an animal picture and several scenics on display.

Rookie Gotay Goes On A Spree

Joe Morgan and Julio Gotay are on two-week reserve tours, but Gotay, unlike Morgan, would like to see his stint stretch through September at least.

Morgan, the Houston Astros' second baseman, is on two-week Army Reserve training, and Gotay has been called up from Oklahoma City to fill in for him.

"They say I'm just up for two weeks," Gotay said Monday night, "but I don't want to go back down again.

If his performance in Houston's 5-2 victory over St. Louis is any indication of what his fill-in tour is going to be like, he might not. Gotay collected a double and two singles, drove in two runs and scored once.

In other National League games Monday night, Los Angeles beat Atlanta 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 13-3.

Tony Cloninger started for Atlanta for the first time since April 26 when he was sidelined with an eye ailment.

The right-hander was touched for all four Los Angeles runs, the big blow being a two-run homer by Len Gabrielson in the second.

The Braves, losing their fifth straight, drove Los Angeles starter Claude Osteen to cover in the ninth when the first two men up—Rico Carty and Clete Boyer—homered. Phil Regan came in to save the victory.

Manager Leo Druocher wasn't around to enjoy his Cubs' romp. Umpire Augie Donatelli thumbed Durocher in the third inning for arguing a strike call.

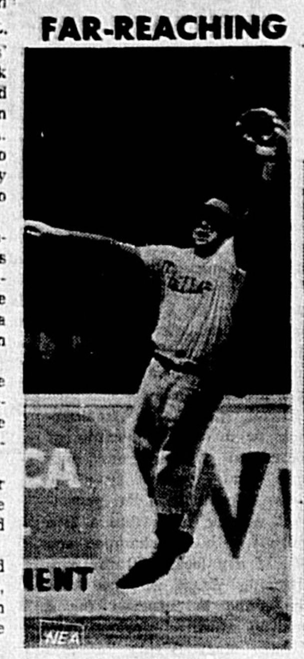
"I invited him for tea and he said he could make it," Durocher said when asked what he had said to Donatelli.

The Cubs started their own Tee Party when Billy Williams hit a solo homer with two out in the fifth to break a 1-1 tie and spark a four-run surge.

Chicago came right back with four in the sixth. This outburst was capped by Ted Savage's pinch hit three-run homer.

Williams also homered in the eighth, and teammates Ron Santo and Ernie Banks connected in the ninth. Bill White hit his first homer of the season for the Phillies.

FAR-REACHING . . . BUT ALSO OUT OF REACH



Cookie Rojas of Phillies, left, and Steve Whitaker of Yankees, right, strain as if they've still got a chance. But Hank Aaron of Braves, center, knows it's useless.

SAM SNEAD

Snead, 'I Don't Believe In Hexes'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The signs were all there. The casualties, including Ed Furgol, were as prominent as the qualifiers in Monday's sectional qualifications for the U. S. Open Golf championship.

But Sam Snead doesn't believe in signs.

"I don't think there's anything to this hex stuff, this business of signs," the old West Virginia mountaineer snorted today as he sought to make his way into his 26th U.S. Open Tournament. He failed to make it last year.

Snead, who has won all of golf's major tournaments—except the Open—is among the field of 68 who will shoot for 24 spots in the sectional qualifications at Detroit today.

Other sectional qualifications in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington, Atlanta, Pittsburgh and Dallas will complete the field of 150 for the finals at Baltusrol in Springfield, N.J., June 15-18.

Sixty-seven made it through sectional qualifications at seven sites Monday and 27 others—including most of the big name touring pros—are exempt from all qualifying rounds.

Furgol, who won his Open title in 1954, the last time the tournament was played at Baltusrol, was bitterly disappointed after his bad rounds on the two courses on Long Island.

He was five over par for 18 holes each on the par 72 Wheatley Hills layout and the par 71 Meadow Brook course for a whopping 153.

"I had seven three-putt greens, which puts me in the ladies class," said Furgol, who had played in 21 consecutive Opens.

Five former PGA champions, Ron Cerrudo and two other members of the U.S. Walker Cup team also fell by the wayside in the qualifications that also were held in Cincinnati, Denver, Chicago, Kansas City, Memphis, Tenn., and Vancouver, Wash.

Former PGA champs eliminated were Lionel (1957) and Jay (1961) Hebert, Jack Burke (1956), Doug Ford (1955) and Dow Finsterwald (1958). Burke and Ford also won Masters championships.

Legion Drops Opener

The Boone Braves of Post 242 topped Sanford Post 53, 4-2, in the opener of the American Legion League last Saturday at McCracken Field at Seminole High School.

Sanford's mound ace Gary Maples hurled eight strikeouts while walking none of the Braves. Tom Bryan was behind the plate catching Maples. Joiner of the Braves struck out four, walking one.

Boone took an early one-run lead over Sanford in the bottom of the second inning. Sanford bounced right back coming home twice in the top of the third inning. Sanford's lead was shortlived as Boone picked up three runs in the bottom of the third which ended all the game's scoring.

Sanford led in the hitting, connecting for seven but erred twice giving Boone the slight edge in the contest. Bill Gracey and Carl Shumaker connected for two hits apiece for Sanford while Tom Bryan, Bill Miller and Gary Maples all connected for base raps.

Beasley and Cash accounted for four of Boone's hits with two apiece and Madagin and Whaley picked up singles for the other two hits of the Braves.

Tomorrow Sanford will travel to Eustis for its second seasonal game and Friday they take to the field against Apopka. Game time will be 7:30 p.m. under the lights tomorrow and 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Benny Brings 'Em Back To The Top

A one-game gap developed again in the top two standings between first and second place in the National Little Major League as Chase won its contest with the Locomotive Engineers and Modern Mobile Homes dropped into second place after losing to Burns Auto Body.

Benny (the Buzzer) Butler uncorked another one of his pitching gems when he limited the Locomotive Engineers to one hit in the Chase 5 to 0 victory. Jim LeCuyer, Pat Crimmins and Bob Baxter led the winners at the plate as Sonny Green was the only Engineer able to solve the slants of Butler.

Steve Burns pitched the Burns Auto Body team to its win over Modern Mobile Homes, 6 to 1, as he struck out 16 batters and also allowed only one hit. Playing the role of the no-hit spoiler was Jess Crawford for the Modern team, as he stroked a single. Charles Manning and Dennis Griffin led the winners at the plate with two hits apiece.

First Federal chomped on Hunt Lincoln 12 to 9 as Jimmy Steffans was credited with the mound victory. He also led his team at the plate in going 4 for 4. Slugging the long ball was Brent Raborn with a solo shot over the fence. Teddy Miller paced the Hunt team with two safeties.

Mike Hickson fanned 15 in leading the Civitans to an 8-3 victory over the Elks in Sanford Junior Baseball. Mark Cochran belted three singles to lead the Civitans at bat, Hickson also contributed from the plate with two doubles. Don Wheaton gave added strength for the Civitans by slubbing a double and a single. Tom Gracey was the Elks leading batter conecting for a double and a single.

In other action in the Junior League, Shrine edged Kiwanis 2-1. Ronnie Barron scattered five hits for the winners while Ron Nobles struck out 11 in the losers' cause. Scott Harris led the Shrine hitting with two hits with Eugene Bertrang slugging a triple.

The Tigers stomped the Rebels 14-1 in the PEE WEE EASTERN LEAGUE. Jeff Patton topped the hitting of the Tigers with a home run with Jimmy Skates adding a three bagger to boot. David Ballard got the Rebels' only hit.

All Souls stopped the Church of God of Prophecy 23-9 with a flurry of runs in the CHURCH SOFTBALL LEAGUE. Nick Constantine was the winning hurler. Dave Dreifuerst led the blanket of hits collected by All Souls with four, David Scott added another three, and Mike Bowes a homer. Lloyd Wall chalked-up three singles and a homer for the losers.

American Oil was forced to forfeit its match with Osteen when they showed up with too few players in the METRO SOFTBALL LEAGUE. The forfeiture gave Osteen a 7-0 victory.

Tonight's action in the AMERICAN LITTLE MAJOR LEAGUE features Navy against Sanford Atlantic (4:30 p.m.) and Florida State Bank against George's (7:30 p.m.) at Ft. Mellon Park and Goodyear is against Strickland - Morrison (4:30 p.m.) at Bay Avenue Park.

Jaycees Plan Special

Let's All Git On Your Hosses, Podners

The South Seminole Jaycees have announced an Amateur Derby to be held on Sunday, June 18, at 2:00 p.m. at the Seminole Downs Race Track at Casselberry. The Jaycees promise a fun-filled afternoon of entertainment with several races between amateur horsemen (and horsewomen) who will be vying for awards in each of the races in various age groups and classifications.

Officials at Seminole Downs are giving the Jaycees their full cooperation in the event and will provide a track announcer for the races as well as officials to assist in classifying the horses and riders into their respective groups. They will also provide official starters for the races. A distinguished panel of judges will be selected for the event.

The highlight of the day will be a challenge race between John Wayne Smith, President of South Seminole Jaycees, and presidents of the other local Jaycee Clubs in District Eight. The participants in this unique race will be riding donkeys. And the winner will be awarded a trophy, which will be called "The President's Cup."

The public is cordially invited to attend this outstanding afternoon of entertainment. Admission price for spectators is nominal. Anyone who wishes to enter the race is requested to contact John Morrison at Morrison's Shoe Repair Shop in Altamonte Springs, Highway 436, for further details.

Hudson Returns To Hawks

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lou Hudson, saying he wanted to play in the prestigious National Basketball Association, has signed a 1967-68 contract with the St. Louis Hawks in another round of the battle for players between the established NBA and the fledgling American Basketball Association.

"I thought about coming back after talking with friends at my home in Greensboro, N.C." Hudson said. "I called Mr. Kerner Sunday and talked about it and we agreed to terms Monday."

Earlier Hudson, who scored 1,471 points as a rookie with the Hawks, had signed a contract with the Minnesota Muskies of the American Basketball Association. The Hawks filed a $3 million damage suit against Hudson, the Minnesota team and the ABA as a result of that contract.

The St. Louis club withdrew the suit Monday before announcing that Hudson had signed his new contract.

Ben Kerner, owner of the Hawks and an elder statesman in the NBA, said, "I have nver had a player jump to another league and I've been through three battles with new leagues."

He said he was pleased that Hudson decided to stay with the Hawks.

General Manager A. E. Holman of the Minnesota team said a call from The Associated Press there was the first he had heard of Hudson's action.

"We have a contract with him," Holman said.

Hudson said when his signing with the ABA club was announced that the offer was too good to turn down. Holman said he had received word earlier Monday that the law suit had been dismissed.

Coach Richie Guerin said Hudson's action was taken on his own initiative and he was glad to have the rookie back.

Hudson admitted that money was the reason he signed the Minnesota contract.

Old Goalies Don't Fade Away—They'll Star In Expansion Plans

MONTREAL (AP)—Some old goalies fade away, but a couple of the oldest—and finest—in the National Hockey League were on their way to fresh starts in today's monumental expansion draft...if they choose to make the trip.

Glenn Hall, Chicago's nine-time All-Star, figured to be one of the top prizes as the NHL stocked six new clubs with two goaltenders apiece, kicking off the two-day draft session in which 120 pros eventually will change addresses.

Coupled with the 35-year-old Hall in pre-draft speculation were Toronto's veteran tandem of Johnny Bower, 42, and Terry Sawchuck, 37, one of whom most likely will be chosen on the first round.

The six expansion franchises—California, Los Angeles, Minnesota, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia—were to select 20 players apiece from lists submitted by their NHL predecessors. Each of the established teams were to lose 20, including two goalkeepers, from their systems, in professional sport's biggest talent turnover ever.

Chicago's regular season champions were expected to top their protective list of 12 players with goalie Denis DeJordy, a cool, 28-year-old performer who shared the job with Hall in 1966-67.

Hall, a first team All-Star six times, retired before the start of the 1966-67 campaign, but changed his mind two months later and helped the Hawks nail their first NHL title. He has not indicated whether he intends to return for his 14th season and could be difficult to sign for the team which drafts him.

On the other hand, both Sawchuk, who backstopped the Leafs to their Stanley Cup triumph with brilliant efforts against Chicago and Montreal, said they'll be happy to play—anywhere—next season.

Stevie Made A Mistake

ANAHEIM (AP) — Pitcher Steve Barber, who walked away from the Baltimore Orioles Sunday, rejoined his teammates here Monday night and was fined an estimated $500 by Manager Hank Bauer.

Barber said he thinks like a lefthander. "I made a left-handed move," he said.

"I realize it was a mistake not asking Bauer for permission to visit my inlaws' farm in Twin Bluffs, Wis.," Barber said.

The 28-year-old lefthander, who has had considerable trouble with his control this season, said he had no complaints about Bauer's plans to demote him to the bullpen. He said he was anxious to determine the cause of his wildness. He has walked 48 batters in 46 innings this season.

Cool Reception 'Destroyed'

NEW YORK (AP)—Cool Reception, who finished second in the Belmont Stakes despite a broken right foreleg, was destroyed Monday night.

The courageous Canadian 3-year-old colt started to weave about a sixteenth of a mile from home in the gruelling 1½-mile final leg of racing's Triple Crown Saturday but gamely hung on to finish 2½ lengths behind winner Damascus.

Because their gangling legs extend from the sides of their bodies, it is easier and faster for crabs to scamper sideways than to walk forward, says the Miami Seaquarium's Capt. Bill Gray.

Unheralded Rookie Making It 'Big'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thad Tillotson looks like a better reward than money to the New York Yankees in payment for helping the Los Angeles Dodgers win the National League pennant last season.

The Yankees, who got the unheralded minor league pitcher and a bundle of cash from the Dodgers for Dick Schofield last September, cashed in another premium on the big right-hander Monday night.

Tillotson, who barely made the roster in spring training, pitched the Yankees to a 4-2 victory over the Washington Senators, his third triumph without loss in his first major league season.

At the same time, the Detroit Tigers were busy cashing in on pitching coach Johnny Sain, a newcomer to the Tigers this season.

Dennis McLain, Tiger right-hander, threw credit toward Sain after throwing sliders by Kansas City for 11 innings as he beat Kansas City 3-2.

In the other American League games, Cesar Tovar scored on a wild pitch with two out in the last of the ninth inning for Minnesota's 5-4 victory over Cleveland and reliever Bill Kelso's five shutout innings helped California past Baltimore 3-2.

Chicago and Boston were not scheduled.

Mickey Mantle made Tillotson's victory possible with his 12th homer in the eighth inning that broke a 2-2 tie. A second run scored in the inning on a sacrifice fly.

Tom Tresh homered earlier with a man on for the deadlock after Mike Epstein made his debut for the Senators with a fluke inside-the-park homer with one on on a pop fly that bounded past Tresh.

McLain allowed only seven hits in his effort and one of the runs off him was unearned when Phil Roof tripled in the ninth inning and scored when Al Kaline bobbled the ball.

Jim Northrup singled and scored on Norm Cash's double for the winning run.

"My good control is back and my slider now is a weapon I have confidence in. I know I can battle the hitters with it," McLain said after evening his record at 6-6.

"Give Johnny Sain the credit. I didn't like the idea when he wanted to teach it (the slider) to me in the spring. Tonight it made all the difference. I threw it 15-20 times."

Steve Bailey's control was not as good for Cleveland. He made the wild pitch that got Tovar home after the reliever walked Tovar, who reached third on Rod Carew's safety.

Bob Allison homered earlier for the Twins and Tony Oliva pulled them into a 4-4 tie in the sixth inning after Fred Whitfield and Max Alvis hit solo shots for the Indians.

Kelso, 3-1, took over in the fifth inning for Nick Willhite, who left with a pulled muscle after giving up both Baltimore runs, one on a homer by Paul Blair.

The Angels led 3-2 at the time with three runs in the second inning as an infield out, a single by Jose Cardenal and a force out drove them home. Kelso allowed only one hit and a walk the rest of the way.

KNEE DEEP in OUTDOORS

By BILL VINCENT JR.

These local showers that we have been havin' lately are going to help the fishin' considerably as far as we can tell now.

The bass are showin' up in their favorite schoolin' spots with a lot of action when they hit.

Blind casting for the bass is pretty good usin' the black and purple worms, and a lot of action from the rod, when retrieving the lure.

It seems like no one is interested in the shad around the country area. There are no bills in the Senate of House of Representatives to cut down the time and number of sport catch on shad. This was received from our Senator Ken Plante in Tallahassee.

There isn't any answer on the request to stop hyacinth sprayin' in the Seminole County area that the County Commission sent to the capital city.

If you are interested in a deep sea fishin' trip, call the JC information booth before Friday. The fees are nominal and the boat is the new Miss Daytona. The trip is this Sunday, June 11, a real good time is planned with a lot of fish to be caught, MAYBE.

If you are lookin' for a good camping location there are plenty on the upper and lower St. Johns River and they are easy to get to within a few minutes.

One trick used to hook more bass with a rubber worm or eel is to let the fish run freely with the lure, but to twitch it now and then. The bass will be more apt to believe that the bait is alive, and the chances of his dropping it are less.

Watch the weather reports, and if it gets cloudy and rainy, this cools the water and the fish start feeding.

Courtesy is the first rule of boating, and one reason why 40 million Americans enjoy fun afloat. Simply stated, it's nice to be with nice people.

For those boatmen who aren't familiar with all the little things that add to everyone's boating fun, the Evinrude News Service offers these suggestions.

Don't be a nautical hot rodder. There's no room for the show-off in boating. Avoid running fast into a pier or float. Keep a safe distance from swimming areas and anchored boats.

Share the waterways. Let other people have room to enjoy these favorite activities, whether it's fishing, water skiing or skin diving.

When anchoring, leave adequate room between boats so lines will not be snarled or the boats bump together. When tying up at a pier, leave room for other boats. Unless you have permission, avoid tying up at private piers.

Government buoys and navigation aids should not be used as tie-up points, except in emergencies.

Don't block a channel. Keep off to one side to avoid causing congestion.

Offer assistance when someone is having trouble. This has been an unwritten law of the sea for hundreds of years. Someday, someone will return the favor, and you'll see how important this rule of courtesy is.

Young Army Shoots Up Court House

CANJILON, N. M. (AP) — National Guardsmen, bolstered by light tanks, machine guns and nearly 80 law officers, trudged through hills of northern New Mexico today in search of an armed band of men who shot up a rural courthouse.

The fugitives were identified by State Police Chief Joe Black as Reies Lopez Tijerina and his followers in a long-threatening militant move to press claims to old Spanish land grant tracts.

Black said 30 to 40 men led by Tijerina were in the forested hills around Canjilon.

They fled Monday after shooting their way into the Rio Arriba County courthouse at Tierra Amarilla, about 15 miles north of Canjilon. Two officers were shot and wounded, about 20 persons were held hostage for two hours and a district judge barricaded himself in the court chambers.

Chief Black and Maj. Gen. John P. Jolly, commanding about 450 Guardsmen, set up headquarters in Canjilon and sent their men into the forest and small rural communities in search of the Tijerina force. Two M42 tanks were brought in. A half dozen trucks and more than 20 Jeeps were used in the search.

About 40 persons, many of them children, were taken into custody in the Canjilon area Monday night and placed under guard at their homes.

Tijerina's wife, was jailed in Santa Fe on a charge of conspiracy to commit a felony. Her 6-month-old daughter was taken to a foster home.

One of those arrested late Monday was identified as Baltazar Apodaca who, Black said, was charged with kidnaping and assault in connection with the armed band's seizing of a deputy sheriff and a newsman as hostages when they left the courthouse.

Deputy Pete Jaramillo and United Press International newsman Larry Calloway were taken out of Tierra Amarilla. Calloway broke loose. Jaramillo was released later.

Critically wounded in the initial rush by Tijerina's group at the courthouse were a state policeman, Nick Sais, and jailer Elugio Salazar. Sais was in an Albuquerque hospital and Salazar in a Santa Fe hospital.

PANTS DRESS HAS SPARKLE

Summer fun can begin with the matching pants dress for mother and daughter. It's a great one-piecer for all the lively outdoor days beginning now. Cotton sailcloth is the most durable and pique, dressy and pretty. Take your choice of solids or prints and you'll be the sparkler on any active day.

If you want to remove sections of rind, one at a time, from citrus fruit, use a small sharp knife to score the fruit. After scoring, you should be able to peel off each section. Rind removed this way may be cut into even strips for use in candying the citrus peel.

Miss Pittard, Mr. Deppen Showered

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Alderman and twin daughters, Glenda and Glynna, hosted an unusual bridal shower honoring Miss Betty Pittard and her fiance, Tom Deppen, Saturday afternoon at their home on Tower Road.

The twins, who are students at the Happy Acres Kindergarten, invited all of their classmates as guests. Miss Pittard and her fiance have been helping Mrs. Pittard with the Kindergarten Class swimming lessons and the groom-elect also has given talks on safety to the children and they are all very fond of the couple.

Glenda and Glynna greeted their young guests at the door, received their gifts for the honored couple and placed them on and around a table in the living room. The gift table was covered with a cloth bordered with small pink, white and gold umbrellas. A large pink umbrella partially covered the table and gifts.

The bride's table, in the living room, was centered with a bride doll and surrounded by arrangements of double white petunias and pink rose petals.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a white lace cloth and the center arrangement was composed of pink and white pom pom daisies, baby's breath and greenery in a milk glass container. Fruit punch and cake were served to the guests. The cake was iced in white and decorated with umbrellas, pale pink roses and the inscription, "Best Wishes."

Miss Pittard received a corsage of white carnations and rose buds and her mother and the groom's mother each received carnation corsages. The honored couple started the party by giving instructions for a treasure hunt. The children found several small kitchen items, hidden in various places. They were then seated in a circle on the floor while the gifts of assorted household items were opened.

The host and hostesses presented the couple with a cake plate as a memento of the party. Guests included both mothers of the honorees, Mrs. George Pittard and Mrs. Robert Deppen, Joe Minter, Lori and Kay Deppen, Mrs. Roy Reel, Alice and Donna Deppen and classmates of the Alderman twins: Joyce Blue, Mark Bose, Gary Beverly, Teresa Brown, Danny Burnham, Robby Cagle, Lindley Dourisit, David Ellinor, James Forster, Scott Goodman, Carol Harris and Linda Hoover.

Bridal Shower Given Shirley Mann

By MRS. H. L. JOHNSON

Bride-elect Shirley Mann was honor guest at a bridal shower given for her by Mrs. James Holt and Mrs. Jack Kanner at the Kanner home on South Sanford Avenue, Tuesday evening.

The dining table was the center of attraction as it was arranged to hold the many beautiful gifts for Shirley. The table was overlaid with a blue linen cloth with a white nylon net overskirt. In the center of the table was a large bride doll in white. Blue snapdragons and fern were placed all around her. Overhead, draped from the center ceiling light, was a large veil of the nylon net which covered the bride doll.

During the evening the guests had the pleasure of trying to make a trousseau for Shirley using her and Barbara Holt as models. The hilarious part of it was the garments made were from old newspapers and straight pins. Winners were Mrs. Eddie Barbour, Mrs. Lynn Giles and Mrs. H. L. Johnson. They presented their prizes to the honoree.

Refreshments consisted of a fresh fruit bowl which was made using half of a watermelon scooped out and the center fresh fruits were placed. Assorted cookies and fruit punch also were served.

The future bride will be married in August to Bobby Barbour.

Invited to be with Shirley were Mrs. Helen Barbour, mother of the future groom, Mrs. Bob Mahan, Mrs. Ellen Dossey, Mrs. Wilma Spears, Mrs. Geneva Humgardner, Mrs. Lynn Giles, Mrs. Eddie Barbour, Mrs. Carl Chorpening Sr., Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Miss Barbara Flynt, Miss Sylvia Giles.

Unable to attend was the mother of the bride, Mrs. Clyde Morgan, who was ill.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: That letter about the sisters in West Virginia who couldn't get their aging mother to bathe regularly hit home with me because I have such a mother.

The poor soul is in her late seventies and is forgetful and somewhat childish. She is very heavy (about 250) so I coax and tease and jolly her while I undress her. Then with the help of my good husband we get her into the tub and give her a good scrubbing. Then we get her out of the tub, dry her, and give her a good going over with some nice-smelling dusting powder.

I'm sure the baths we give her are the only ones she ever has. Even tho they're only once every two weeks, they are better than none.

SAME PROBLEM SOLVED

DEAR ABBY: I was glad to see that someone else had trouble getting their mother to take a bath because I really was ashamed to tell anybody that I had the same problem with my own mother. I guess it was no secret until I learned how to handle her.

Mamma was 74 and as stubborn as a mule. When she'd come to visit me I could smell her coming a block away, and after she left I used a can of spray to freshen the house. Finally I realized she was just like a child so I used the same tactics I'd use on a little kid and it worked.

I made a tub of sudsy water, put little rubber swans and ducks in it, and I said, "Come on now, Mamma, it's wa-wa time." I even got her to let me shampoo her hair. I poured plenty of scented bath oil into the tub, and she loved it.

While she was splashing around in her bath I'd run her clothes thru the automatic and I added bath oil to them, too.

Much to my surprise, every time she came to visit she asked for her "wa-wa time."

HAPPY NOW

DEAR ABBY: As a newly ordained minister, my husband has been asked to officiate at many marriage ceremonies. So why do they send us an invitation to the wedding? They know my husband will be there, but they send an invitation with an RSVP anyway. Do you suppose they expect some sort of a present? I can't figure this out.

MINISTER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I'm sure a present is not expected. You are sent an RSVP invitation because those in charge of arrangements probably want to know whether your husband is bringing you and staying for dinner.

DEAR ABBY: My 14-year-old daughter does a lot of baby sitting, and she wouldn't think of going to sit anywhere if she herself had a cold or wasn't feeling well.

However, parents who call sitters do not mind exposing the sitter to children who are coughing, sneezing, and running a fever.

This is the fourth day my daughter has missed school this week. And all because she was called to sit with a sick child.

Abby, please remind sitter-hiring parents that their sitter is also somebody's child and shouldn't be exposed to sickness.

Jacoby On Bridge

Jacoby and Son

In our recent discussion of "Bridge for Women" we mentioned that female bridge experts are more apt to play hunches than their male counterparts.

We also pointed out that women's hunches are likely to be more good common sense than psychic.

As an example, take this hand played by Jan Stone of New York. East won the heart lead with his king and returned the seven spot. Jan thought awhile and played a low heart. West won with the eight, cashed his heart ace and led a spade. Jan won in her own hand and lost the diamond finesse to East's king but all East could do was to lead a heart to Jan's queen, whereupon Jan took the rest of the tricks.

East asked Jan how she figured out the low heart play at trick two. "Just a hunch," replied Jan.

Later on she explained that it wasn't really a hunch. She realized that if West had led from jack-eight-two her low play would lose and the queen play would win, and that if West had led from eight-five-two then the ten play would be the only winner but Jan went on: "I had played against this East before. He always false-cards against me, so if he had started with ace-king or ace-king-jack he would automatically have played the ace at trick one. There was no point in revealing this to him. I would rather that he kept on treating me like a simple player. It is so much easier to play against him on that basis."

Jan's logic was flawless. If your opponents will be kind enough to underestimate you, they are also going to lose to you.

It also reminds us of a remark made by Mary Clement, one of the great bridge players of the thirties. She had just executed a three-suit squeeze and asked her victim, "Was that actually a squeeze? I never know."

Polly's Pointers

By Polly Cramer

DEAR POLLY—I accidently spilled a whole bottle of iodine on my bedroom rug, nightgown and bedspread. I was told by various cleaning establishments that it is almost impossible to remove iodine stains as it acts as a dye. I remembered a television commercial and tried using my denture cleaner (on my nightgown first) and it worked. There is not a trace of the iodine now. I dissolved three tablets in a pan of warm water and dabbed it on the rug with paper towels. It only took half an hour to do the entire job and none of the colors faded. —MRS. H. R. G.

DEAR GIRLS: When I tried this, every trace of deliberately spilled iodine disappeared but I do want to warn you to first try an inconspicuous place before plunging in on a good rug. Also follow the spot removal with a clear water rinse to remove the cleansing agent. —POLLY

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY—An unlighted kerosene lamp was turned over on my day bed. The cover has been washed with soap but the kerosene odor persists. Could anyone please help me with this problem? — CHRISTINE

DEAR POLLY—I could never get eye-liner on straight, and it always seemed too bright. Quite by accident, I discovered that a cotton swab very lightly dipped in cold cream will straighten out the line, and at the same time lighten the color. — MRS. J. C. M.

DEAR POLLY—When you must transport a portable television set or something similar in your car, secure it in place with the seat belt. This also works with parcels and boxes containing breakables. — MRS. W. D. L.

DEAR POLLY—If Edie's uncle feels strongly about rewarding his favorite and regular waitress, one procedure is to leave the gratuity with the manager or at the office in her name, and inform the girl it has been left for her. Not only will this kindness reward the lady but her worth should be enhanced in the manager's estimation. — GLADYS

Beauty after Forty

by Edyth Thornton McLeod

Iberia Airlines gave a party recently for the premiere showing of the collection of Pedro Rodriguez and Ledaspain. The clothes were all in leather and suede and were so beautiful. The black coats in antelope were very Spanish, severely beautiful. One coat had a runching of clipped antelope at the neck and hemline. This was outstanding. Some of the ceramic hues from Spain were in smartly done ensembles. The Spanish handwork and the dressmaker details were a joy to see. Lilac played a great part in the show. A lilac antelope cape had green wool lining with matching hat. There were the very young things but the majority were creations that a very fashion-minded, after-40 woman would look wonderful in.

From the fashion house of La Mendola in Rome comes this bit of news. The clothes are reasonably priced and American women find themselves being welcomed. There is a surprise there. Women who wear sizes 14, 16, or even 18 are not ignored:; there are Mr. Savage, who opened La Mendola with an American from our midwest named La Mendola, says, "Ladies from our midwest are our favorite customers. Give me a 'dame' from Illinois or Ohio anytime. They are not pretentious and they know what they want." Many celebrities of the movies and "jet set" are also customers.

White patent leather shoes and bags and now, at long last, belts, are the love of the fashion world. But if you are one pound overweight, run for your life if you have any idea of wearing a white, patent leather belt.

Crime Fighter Given Fine

MIAMI (AP) — George Wackenhaut, the general of Gov. Claude Kirk's "War on Crime," was fined $30 today for driving 55 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone.

Wackenhut pleaded guilty to the charge six weeks after Kirk told a news conference that anyone traveling 25 miles an hour above the speed limit should have his license lifted for 30 days.

Metro Judge Thomas G. O'Connell assessed a fine of $27, court costs of $3, and put three points against Wackenhut's driving record.

Wackenhut said he thought the sentence was "fair."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) By explaining to others what you have in mind precisely, you get them to cooperate with you in some constructive plan. Have all facts and figures at hand. Meeting with success comes easily then.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Those in monetary circles who are experts can give the aid you want now for some prospective plan you are considering. Get savings account built up. Add wisely to any property you may now own.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are very charming and clever today so gad about and show others you are most worthwhile to have as a friend. Get to meetings and make excellent new contacts. These can help you tremendously in professional life.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you go to the right sources you will be able to get data you need confidentially, but be very diplomatic about it. Be a little more original and pleasing in romantic life. Don't be so serious.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Show those you like in either personal or social life that you are most devoted, admire them greatly. Plan how to repay social obligations in the near future. You have been rather obtuse regarding them lately.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Don't procrastinate in contacting persons of influence and gain much backing and advice. Then show real interest in whatever is of a civic nature. You can increase popularity and be far more active in the future.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If others have certain ideas that are good which you can use in own operations, do so. Be more broad-minded. Some correspondence you receive can be helpful in your plans for expansion.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You are now able to take care of obligations in a more modern way and take advantage of opportunities around you. Be more willing to do whatever will please your mate. Some artistic outlet could prove to be very enjoyable.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Associates appreciate your intelligence and finest skills, so be sure you do the same right now. Come to a fine understanding. Make arrangements for any outside affairs that are important to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan early whatever it is you want to do, and then busy yourself carrying through with your plans. Be enthused. You have some excellent contacts and you should renew them without loss of time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) An ideal day to get into recreational activities that please you most and with right congenials. You like young people and are in a position to help them greatly. Getting into some youth organization could be just your cup of tea.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) It is much easier now to get home affairs arranged more intelligently, harmoniously. There may be some situation that is puzzlying. Use this as a chance to do something dramatic, get real results.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he, or she, will be one of those fascinating young people who knows intuitively what others want from some joint alliance and will go far thusly, plus the fact that the gift of gab is truly amazing. Teach early to complete what is started in order to have success, otherwise there can be failure here.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

ROBIN MALONE

We The Women

By Muriel Lawrence

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: My mother-in-law, now 83, has lived with us for 15 years. She burns our pots and pans. She has already smashed three irons this year. She snoops in our bedroom, listens in on every conversation in spite of shut doors. Hasn't anyone anything intelligent to say about senile parents? The only professional advice we get is to let her do whatever she wants. Is the problem of the senile parent just hush-hush—or is it just plain insoluble?

ANSWER: It's a problem of alternative hells.

We can continue to live with our destructive Ancient, trying as best we can too sustain the irritations her self-centeredness causes us. Or we can choose the other alternative. We can try to either relocate her in some home for aged people or to have her committed to a mental institution as dangerous both to herself and other people. The first alternative is pretty awful. But the second one won't be much better. For the aged person who's accustomed to snooping in other people's business, listening at keyholes, pretending she can manage irons that she cannot manage is not going to relinquish these privileges in any altruistic spirit. She's going to make us rue the day we sought to deprive her of her own way.

You see, I don't believe in "senility." It's my conviction that loving people don't turn into self-centered power-seekers merely because they become 83. I think that an 83-year-old power-seeker and snooper has always been one —and that her advanced age merely exposes her deficiency in its naked shape.

Boiled down, your question becomes, "What can I do about my mother-in-law's disinterest in anyone but herself?" I think you can do nothing about it. You could do nothing about it 25 years ago. And you can't transform her into a sensitive and loving woman now, either.

She's always been a pain in the neck—and you know it. But, knowing it, you married her son.

Myself, I think you'd better shut up and accept the consequences of marrying the son of a self-centered woman. You push your man to rid you of this destructive Ancient at your own peril. Push him to rid you of her—and he'll so blame himself that he'll have to blame you. For that's how parents arrange it to be. "Intelligent" answer to their self-centeredness? There isn't any.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p.m. (NBC) The Girl From U.N.C.L.E. "The U.F.OO. Affair." (Color). (Rerun). This series seizes every chance to display Stefanie Powers charms, and tonight she lands in a harem, which is a jim-dandy display area. Salim and Dossetti (Fernando Lamas and Anthony Caruso) are eager to ge their hands on the wealth of Kuwait by bombit with a flying saucer. April is reluctantly put in Salim's harem, which is run by a sort of a bunny-mother type lady (Joan Blondell) to get information. Noel Harrison has a funny scene as he tries to get out of the harem.

8:30-9:30 p.m. (CBS) The Red Skelton Hour. (Color). (Rerun). Polly Bergen is an attractive and always competent guest, both as a singer and as a spoofer. She sings "It's Today," "What The World Needs Now" and "Get Happy," and joins Red in a skit about hog calling Clem Kadiddlehopper is the student and Polly is the teacher.

8:30-9 p.m. (NBC) Occasional Wife." "I Do, We Don't." (Color). (Rerun). It was inevitable: Peter's mother wants to meet Greta. Enter the commanding general, guest star Andrew Duggan.

10-11 p.m. (CBS) "Gauguin In Tahiti: The Search For Paradise." (Color). Color Telsivsion has seldom been put to better use than in this splendid hour prdouced and written by Martin Carr. The camera views of France and Tahiti is like a series of impressionist paintings. More Gauguin originals are seen than a lifetime of museum attendance. The feast for the eye is matched by a dramatic narrative of the artist's guest and a stirring musical score. Michael Redgrave is heard as Gauguin.

10-11 p.m. (ABC). The Fugitive. "Run the Man Down." (Color). (Rerun). Kimble should know better than to get involved with a sheriff's girl friend, but that's what happens tonight. American Jets Probe Deep Into Red Heartland

SAIGON (AP) — American jets probed deep into the fortified heartland of North Vietnam Monday, bombing rail lines into Hanoi and drawing out a swarm of Communist Mig interceptors. Three of the MIGs were reported shot down.

Although little ground fighting was reported, the airmen carried the war to the Communists with 113 strike missions over North Vietnam and five raids by giant B52 bombers against targets in South Vietnam.

The U.S. Command announced that Red ground gunners shot down a Navy Crusader jet over North Vietnam, the 572nd U.S. combat plane lost above the 17th Parallel. The pilot was missing.

The Communists sent up 20 or more swept-wing MIG21s and MIG17s in an unsuccessful attempt to disrupt the raids on the rail line leading north from Hanoi to the industrial complex of Thai Nguyen.

Within 20 minutes American Phantom jet pilots brought three MIG17s down. A spokesman said that flights of the Red fighters were buzzing all over the sky and it was impossible to determine how many were in the air.

Dogfights have now accounted for 77 MIGs downed while 20 U.S. planes have been shot down.

The big B52s, each carrying 60,000 pounds of bombs, hit the western borders of South Vietnam, along routes where the Ho Chi Minh trail disgorges infiltrators into jungle hideouts. Two of the raids were in the northern sector, two in the central highlands and one along the Cambodian frontier west of Saigon.

In coastal Binh Dinh Province, a raging fire at an Army support airfield damaged a number of helicopters and light planes and destroyed a vast amount of stores before it was brought under control. One American serviceman was killed and two injured, and an unknown number of Vietnamese also were injured.

The fire raged for 7½ hours before it was extinguished by base firefighters, engineers and infantrymen pressed into service. Bulldozers had to come in to force a path through burning plywood, rations and oil drums.

The cause of the fire was not known. One possibility being investigated was that a flare dropped from a circling plane — a routine occurrence over most U.S. airfields each night — might have still been burning when it hit the supply area.

South of the demilitarized zone, Communist troops made several probes against U.S. Marine positions but no significant fighting was reported. The isolated base at Khe Sanh, on the western flank of the Marine line, was mortared and a nearby hilltop radio station came under light attack.

The mortar attack killed two Marines and wounded 13.

The heaviest reported action Monday came when a spotter plane sighted a group of Viet Cong working on a base camp area about 40 miles north of Saigon. Artillery and helicopter gunships were called in and a ground sweep found 30 bodies.

In Quang Nam Province nine miles from Da Nang about 100 Viet Cong jumped a small unit of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese civic action men. Five Marines were killed and four wounded in the fight, while eight Communist soldiers were killed.

Building Fund Buildup Eyed At N. Orlando

By MARILYNE PETERSON

North Orlando City Council tabled a motion to set aside 25 per cent of all monthly revenues over and above expenditures for the building fund pending further study at Monday night's meeting.

Also tabled was action to adopt a zoning ordinance. A workshop will be called to discuss several new additions before the ordinance is posted and read.

In other business, with two members absent, council voted 2-1 to renew the contract held by C & M Refuse Company for trash and garbage collection. Owner Chester Macek was directed to file a performance bond in the amount of $500, or $250 cash, with City Clerk Helen Green before the June 30 expiration date of the present contract. Macek failed to submit the performance bond called for in the present contract.

Plenty Of Tinder..And Matches

By AP NEWSFEATURES

Israel was born in a state of war and has existed as a virtual armed camp ever since. Surrounded by hostile neighbors, it

Against the background, of centuries-old Arab-Jewish hatred, trouble in the Middle East carries world implications because each side has powerful friends standing in the wings. Britain, France and the United States have been traditional allies of Israel. The Soviet Union has supported the Arab nations, particularly Egypt, since World War II. Confrontation on the borders of Israel can quickly become confrontation of the world's great powers.

At present there is plenty of military "hardware" in the Middle East to support a first class war. Should allies intervene on either side, "escalation" could quickly follow on a scale far greater than Vietnam. The Middle East is, after all, so much easier to get to.

Egypt is fielding 310,000 men, backed by 1,400 tanks and mobile guns, almost all of them Russian. It can put up nearly 400 fighter planes, at least 120 of them MIG 21s, the latest Russian fighter, with air-to-air missiles. In addition, it has 200 or more light and medium bombers, transports and helicopters.

Syria also is bristling with Russian arms—600 tanks, over 100 MIGs, 50 bombers, and 115,000 troops.

Israel has 71,000 regular troops and 230,000 reservists. The Israelis have some 800 tanks, mostly British Centurions and American Pattons and Shermans. The air force consists of about 350 planes, mostly French and American fighters, plus some transports and helicopters. Israel also has two battalions of Hawk surface-to-air missiles.

small, mostly of the gunboat and destroyer size, but if intervention comes, powerful forces are close at hand. The U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean currently includes two carriers — Saratoga and America — and cruisers, destroyers and other ships to the total of 50. The British carrier Victorious and other lighter forces are in the Mediterranean. Russian air and naval strength nearby is not known, but is obviously considerable.

There's plenty of tinder, and no shortage of matches.

Bear Lake Girl Scouts Go On Trip

By MARYANN MILES

Girl Scout Cadette Troop 251 of Bear Lake left Monday (June 5) for Savannah, Ga., to visit the birthplace of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouting in the United States.

On the way up, they will be stopping in St. Augustine to see as many sites as time permits.

The group will be gone three days and chaperones are Mrs. Ray Wilson, troop leader and Mrs. John Yates, mother of one of the girls.

The girls, who will be disbanding as a troop after being together for five years, recently held a picnic at Sanlando Springs. They invited their friends and each packed a box lunch for herself and her guest.

A final court of awards was held May 29 and badges and challenge pins were awarded Kathy Merritt, Diane Wilson, Jeannie Stevenson, Sara Herrington, Judy Hoover, Debbie Ogle, and Schlaine Meeks.

While in Savannah, they will be staying at the Downtowner Hotel and will visit the famous "Pirates House" Restaurant, the Davenport House, and tour the city.

July 4 Fiesta Scheduled By S-S Jaycees

South Seminole Jaycees are making preparations for their second annual July 4th Fiesta which will be held on Highway 436 in Altamonte Springs.

The first Fiesta, held by the Jaycees in 1966, was termed a "tremendous success", with an estimated 30,000 persons viewing the spectacular two hour fireworks display.

Jaycee President John Wayne Smith says members of the club learned a lot from their previous project and this year will profit by their experience to make this Fiesta even bigger and better in all respects.

The Fiesta is intended by the Jaycees to provide a place where the residents of the area can go for a fun-filled holiday without having to travel long distances on overcrowded highways.

The Club also intends to donate a portion of the proceeds from the Fiesta, as they did last year, to the Edgewood Boys Ranch, which is located near Center Hill. The Ranch organized by Judge Arthur Yergey and Jim Lynd, superintendent of the Orange County Parental Home, is dedicated to the rehabilitation of delinquent boys and is supported solely by private donations.

The July 4th celebration will feature a large midway of booths containing various games of skill and chance, concessions of all kinds, including cotton candy, hot dogs, cold drinks, a merry-go-round for the kiddies, and free entertainment of various types, to be announced later. The midway will be open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. with the gigantic fireworks display occurring about dark. Barbecue dinner will be available for those who wish to spend the day at the festivities.

Chairman Ralph David announced that there will be some booth space available for rental to interested concerns. For further information, contact Ralph David or Tom Pratt, or call the Jaycee Information Center, between the hours of 1 and 6 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Pastor Saves 'Kawl Gurle'

ONANCOCK, Va. (AP) — A boat-borne ministers, seeking souls to save in Chesapeake Bay, found air over the weekend on a sinking motor cruiser named the Kawl Gurle.

Rev. James C. Richardson, pastor of the New Testament Church in Onancock, was on his way to a prayer meeting on Tangier Island when he spotted the Kawl Gurle in trouble.

She had struck a submerged rock pile off Watts Island on Virginia's eastern shore and was shipping water fast.

Richardson managed to give the cruiser a tow into shallow water where a Coast Guard rescue craft showed up with extra pumps.

Neither the Kawl Gurle's owner—Thomas A. Talley, of Richmond—nor his five passengers were injured.

JUNE 1967

SEVENTH ANNUAL

GRADUATION EDITION

Seminole High School

Commencement Activities

Seminole High School seniors wound up their high school careers this week in a whirl of activities beginning with Awards Day on May 25th in Fleming Gymnasium where top students in scholarship, citizenship, academic, athletics and other activities received recognition for their accomplishments.

This was followed by Class Day on June 2, when seniors presented their last will and testament to the Class of 1968. They were joined by the Class of 1942, with response from Gordon Frederick, now a prominent local attorney. Class Day was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. in Fleming Gym.

The 1967 yearbook was dedicated to the student body. J. D. Stope, of the English department, sponsored the yearbook this year. The Seminole High annual has won National All American Yearbook honors for three consecutive years.

Sunday, June 4th, at 8 p.m., Baccalaureate services will be held with Rev. Virgil L. Bryant Jr. of First Presbyterian Church giving the main address.

Commencement exercises will begin at 8 p.m. in Fleming Gym June 6 as the capped and gowned seniors march in to their seats before an admiring audience of parents and friends. Diplomas will be conferred by Principal Andrew Bracken with traditional pomp and dignity.

Main addresses will be delivered by the school's valedictorian and salutatorian, whose identity is traditionally kept secret until three days before graduation.

Following commencement the senior class and their parents will be feted with a reception in the school cafeteria. Chairman for "Fog Night" is Fred Ganas and Reception Chairman is Mrs. Fred Ganas. After the reception, students will be treated to a special movie at the Cinema in Seminole Plaza. Chairman for this part of the festivities is William Lovelace.

Later the seniors and their dates will be honored guests at an all night swimming, dancing and feasting party at the Mid-Florida Country Club, west of Sanlando Springs, under the direction of Jack Bolt and M. L. Raborn Jr.

Class History

For Seminole High students this has been a busy, exciting year filled with activities — each student learning to be aware of the total world around him, and realizing that his experiences now will contribute to his future success.

With a record enrollment of over one thousand students and an outstanding faculty composed of 49 hard working dedicated teachers, the achievements have contributed to making SHS a top school for its size.

The outstanding "Class of 67" has compiled an excellent record of trophies, awards and outstanding achievement ratings over a period of three years. Without the individual contributions of each student, the total contribution would not have been so great.

The avenues that have been opened to students here are long and wide. Through their experiences here they are now prepared to accept employment, to enter service or to attend college. The future is up to them — may it be a good one.

There are going to be a lot of shocked people around town when city tax assessor, Max Coberly, wraps up his property reappraisal . . . It was supposed to be finished in July . . . It won't be . . . I mean one guy checking some 9,600 parcels is just too much. Anyway a check of some of the work shows:

In Mayfair section one home was appraised at $29,860 last year . . . Under the proposed reappraisal, if the city fathers have the courage to go into near 100 per cent of assessed value, the same piece would be $32,500. In the Wynnwood section one home currently is appraised at $8,480 . . . It will soar to $9,250 . . . In Dreamwold . . . a home is currently on the books for $6,840 and it will go for $8,660 . . . .

What about downtown commercial property, sez I to Mr. Coberly . . .

I'm saving that for last . . . sez the assessor with a smile on his face.

Kirk Signs Port Bill

TALLAHASSEE (Spl.) — Seminole County Port Authority is ready to do business in a big way . . . on a full scale.

Gov. Claude Kirk, before an audience of legislators, Port officials and press and TV cameras, this morning signed into law the primary act which now permits the Authority to negotiate the necessary financial arrangements for the construction of the Port of Sanford.

Present for the signature ceremony were Andrew Carraway and Francis E. Roumillat Jr., chairman and administrator, respectively, of the Port Authority, and members of the Seminole-Orange legislative delegation, Sens. Robert Elrod and Kenneth Plante and Reps. E. Pope Bassett and Jan Fortune.

This finally-approved legislation was necessary for the Port Authority because of a standing law forbidding the pledging of anticipated ad valorem tax revenues as collateral for loans.

The Port Authority, under a 1965 act, derives revenue from a half-mill ad valorem levy. New Port laws permit the Port Authority to transfer moneys from this tax to the Seminole County Commission which, in turn, may transfer $60,000 annually from its share of state race track tax receipts to the Port Authority.

Jens Paulucci, Sanford industrialist, has committed himself to lend $990,000 to the Port Authority, providing this legislation was enacted into law.

However, it now appears that the federal government may allocate a sizeable grant to the Port Authority since North Seminole County has been designated an "economic depressed area" because of the anticipated removal of the Navy from the Sanford Air Base.

County Urges Kirk Push For FTU Roads

The vital need for access roads through Seminole County to Florida Technological University was stressed in telegrams sent today by the County Commission to Gov. Claude Kirk, the legislative delegation and the State Road Department urging the access roads be included in the proposed $375 million bond issue of the governor.

In a resolution adopted by the Commission Tuesday afternoon, the board "strongly requested the Jessup Causeway (419-520 alignment) to the University, county line road (S-426) to the university and Red Bug Road (from SR 436 to 520) be designated primary roads and be included in the proposed bond issue program being considered by the Legislature."

The board further requested the "omission of four lane construction of U.S. 17-92 around the lakefront to 1-4 from the bond issue as the university roads are more vital to the county."

Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, led a delegation of Chamber officials to the Board meeting earlier in the day to urge the Commission adopt the "strongest possible resolution" requesting the roads be included in the bond issue.

In other business, the board instructed the county attorney to notify the legislative delegation the Commission "does not object" to the proposed bill which would permit the county to supplement Circuit Judge Volie Williams' salary up to $3,000 annually, to place his salary on the same level with other judges in the circuit.

The board agreed to transfer the $75,000 in right of way funds, set aside for S-427 from Five Points to Ginderville, to SR 426 from Oviedo to Goldenrod, a primary road. Commissioner Robert Parker assured this action would in no way "slow up construction of 427, but would move up 426 as much as 30 days."

Instructed the attorney to request clarification from the developer of St. Johns River Estates as to its intentions concerning building of the streets in the subdivision and reminding inspections must be made by the county;

Authorized Commissioner John Fitzpatrick, the county engineer and superintendent to investigate the possibility of purchasing property to be used for a clay pit on 17-92 near Five Points;

Granted permission to T. G. Kearney and Sons, developers, to open and clay Stanley Street between Marla and Beach Streets in Sanlando Springs with full expense to be borne by the developer.

Investigation Opens In Sanford Ave. Fire

Investigation by firemen today is still underway on cause of an early evening fire Tuesday which completely destroyed a frame dwelling just north of the railroad crossing on South Sanford Avenue.

The blaze was discovered at approximately 8:30 by Constable R. E. Carroll who assisted the owner, Mrs. Dowda, to escape safely. Mrs. Dowda is visiting in Georgia at the time.

Volunteer fire departments fighting the fire were hampered by lack of water facilities, having to refill trucks at Onora Road. Answering the alarm were Midway, Longwood, Lake Mary and Ginderville.

Ginderville, first on the scene, was reported by Lake Mary Chief Ralph Abell to have apparently had the blaze under control at one time but lost it after an explosion of undetermined origin.

4,079 Acres Razed Here Since Jan. 1

Nearly 2.5 per cent of Seminole County's total acreage has been razed by fires in woodland and pasture areas since Jan. 1. In Volusia County the problem was not as severe with only a little more than one per cent of the total acreage of the county destroyed by fires.

According to Seminole County's chief forest ranger, Jim Marquis, 139 forest fires in Seminole County since the beginning of the year have destroyed 4,079 acres of woodland. This is nearly four and a half times the total acreage destroyed in all of the county so far this year as occurred in the same period of time last year.

Most of the county's fire problem can be attributed to the severe drought which has just now begun to subside. According to the rainfall measurements made at the Forest Tower in Longwood, Seminole County has received only 7.18 inches of rain since the beginning of the year whereas last year at this time the county had received 23.32 inches of rain. Also last year in the month of May the county received 10.82 inches of rain whereas this year the county received a meager rainfall of 1.05 inches.

Oviedo Votes Loan To Push Water Program

Action was taken by the Oviedo Town Council Tuesday evening to make an interim loan to proceed with construction of the $600,000 plus municipal water system.

Federal funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development will be released when sufficient numbers of prospective customers have signed up to be serviced by the system and after construction has gotten underway.

With unanimous consent of the Council, a resolution was approved to permit the city to make a loan, not to exceed $25,000 from the Citizens Bank of Oviedo. The bank has tentatively agreed to provide the interim financing.

Hundreds Pay Milwee Homage

R. T. Milwee, the third county school superintendent in Seminole County's history, was showered with bouquet after bouquet for his years of "dedicated service" to the school system, the community, the church and his fellow man at the testimonial dinner sponsored by the Seminole Education Association last night in the Civic Center.

An estimated 450 persons attended the testimonial to heap praises on the man who has served as public school superintendent for the past 14½ years and to express their sorrow at his resigning the post.

In glowing terms speakers ranging from Douglas Stenstrom, school board attorney to Robert Eldridge, president of the senior class at Lyman High School (where Milwee began his career in education here) characterized the superintendent as a man of high moral ideals, a good public servant.

"He may have made mistakes of the head at times, but never of the heart," Stenstrom declared. "His heart belonged to the boys and girls of the county."

Rev. Virgil Bryant, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church stated, "Through such men faith is exercised in the work of the world."

Other guest speakers were John Alexander, county commission chairman; John Krider of the Chamber of Commerce; Vernon Mize of the Junior College Advisory Board; James Birkenmayer and Mason Wharton of the school board; Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, and William Layer of the SEA, and Mrs. Velma Mitchell, retired principal of Southside Elementary.

Following the program, the guests gave Milwee a standing ovation. He was gifted with a stereo set from SEA; a silver humidor from the school board and a silver tray from the Educational Secretary's Association.
