

Grant's Tomb and new Hudson River Bridge -- New York

GRANT'S TOMB, overlooking the North (or Hudson) River from Riverside Drive at 123rd Street, is the Nation's Memorial to General Ulysses S. Grant, one of the soldier-presidents of the United States. The massive sarcophagus in which rest the bodies of President Grant and his wife is open to public view. The memorial cost $600,000 and was completed in 1897.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MEMORIAL BRIDGE across the Hudson River from the site of Fort Washington, New York, to the Palisades, New Jersey, is the longest and highest suspension bridge in the world. Completed in 1931.
