

CHULUOTA NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wagner with Floyd Wagner, returned last week from a tour of the state south. He covered miles of important territory from Lake Catherine to the shores of Biscayne Bay and returned via Lake Okeechobee.

Mrs. Alive Story, her daughters, Mrs. Bogard and Mrs. Hart, went Monday to Sanford.

On Sunday, June 1, at Reno, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Tribble and their little daughter found every pew at the Baptist Church filled. They occupied extra chairs and enjoyed the morning service. Temperature there was 45 degrees on June 2nd and frost-laden air called for top-coats. Snow-capped mountains and an altitude of 6,000 ft. present direct contrasts to their Florida home.

Chuluota Sunday School attended the Seminole Associational Sunday School workers program at Oviedo church Thursday.

This Sunday School now holds the banner.