

May Belle.

Geography.

10 Its chief occupation is farming. Egypt is governed by an absolute Monarchie. Its capital is Cairo its chief city is Alexander.

VI. The Barbary States are: Morocco, Tunis, Algeria, Tripoli. The Atlas Mts. nearly cross them. The Sarrh region bounds it on the south. Algeria is governed by France. The chief exports are, grains, fruits and cabinet woods.

VII. The five European nations that claim parts of Central Africa are: Italy, France, Germany, Great Britain and Portugal. The five exports from central Africa

May 26th.

Geography.

are:- Ostrich feathers, Ivory, Tropical fruits, grain and Cabierts woods. Great Britain owns most of South Africa. These colonies are much smaller than the others of Africa. The Chief exports from Cape colonies are gold and diamonds.

VIII. Australia is belongs to Great Britain. ^(2.) The colonies of Australia are: Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Western Australia, Southern Australia, Tasmania. The of Queensland is Brisbane, New South Wales is Sydney. Victoria is Melbourne. Southern Australia is Adelaide. Western Australia is Perth, Tasmania is Hobart.

May 3d E.

Geography.

The commonwealth of Australia is Dalgety. Australia is under control of Great Britain, and a Queen governs them appointed by Great Britain.

- IV.
1. The chief products of Australia are: meats, wool, gold.
 2. The largest island north of Australia is Guinea.
 3. The two Groups of islands northeast of Australia are, Soma, and Fiji.

- V.
1. Australia is little smaller than the United States.
 2. Temperate winters and hot summers embraces most of it.
 3. Its largest river system is the Murray.
 4. The eastern and northern are forest covered.
 5. The characteristic form of animals are the porch animals;