

C.T. 22—Fort Moultrie and Grave of Oceola, the Indian Chief, Charleston, S. C.

DISTRIBUTED BY F. J. MARTSCHINK CO., CHARLESTON, S. C.

Fort Moultrie is now a modern coast artillery defense and army post. It was originally known as Fort Sullivan, but renamed Fort Moultrie in honor of its commander Col. William Moultrie, who successfully defended the harbor against a large British fleet in 1776.
