25 March 1944

Mrs. Edna P. Hancock,
Auburndale, Florida.

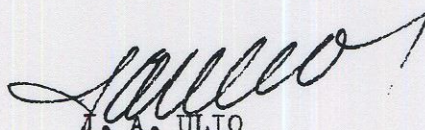

Dear Mrs. Hancock:

I am pleased to inform you that the latest report from the theater of operations states that on 29 February your husband, Private First Class John B. Hancock, was making normal improvement.

Arrangements have been made whereby you may send a message of cheer to him. The inclosed form is self-explanatory.

You have my assurance that when additional information is received showing a change in his condition, you will be notified immediately.

Very truly yours,

J. A. ULIO
Major General,
The Adjutant General.
