YOUTH VANISHES FROM HIS HOME

Charles Summersill Missing at Geneva

Last Seen Sunday Morning, June 8, Near Chabotta

Charles Summersill 19 years of age, who disappeared from his home at Geneva Sunday morning June 8, has not yet been found. It is reported.

Young Summersill left the home of his father E. T. Summersill, on Sunday morning to go to a store on the Geneva-Ovidio road. While waiting the store the boy was seen driving up the road toward Chabotta. It is said, where all trace of him was lost. He was driving his father's car, a 1928 model Essex coupe. Young Summersill talked with persons at Mathews's store, it is said, but left there without buying the articles he had come for. He is said to have had $100.00 when he left home.

When last seen he was wearing dark trousers and a light shirt, it is said. He weighs about 140 pounds, and has light brown hair. The car he drove was blue, but was somewhat faded.

E. T. Summersill, the lad's father, notified the sheriff's office at Sanford, and many messages were sent out to sheriffs and police officials over the state. The radio stations at Ovidio and Jacksonville were utilized in the search, it is said, but to no avail. There was no reason why the boy should have run away from home, it is stated, and his parents fear he has met with foul play. E. T. Summersill the father of the missing boy, is reported to be a native of Geneva.

Any information regarding the missing youth should be sent in to his father or to the sheriff's office at Sanford.

Methodist Pastor Delivers Sermon On Righteousness

The Rev. C. W. Mathison preached a fine sermon Sunday night on the subject of Righteousness, using as his theme, "Except your righteousness exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven."

The speaker pointed out that righteousness was of the inner man and did not consist of the outward forms. "It is what you are more than what you do that determines your status before God," he said.

The pastor then showed how sin begins in the individual life by the inclination in to the mind of evil thoughts and the harboring of ill will against one's fellowman.

"If you hate your neighbor," the speaker said, describing the growth of hate in the soul. "Real righteousness springs from the inward man, from the well-spring of the heart where our controlling master lives," he said, "and a man must determine his life by his inner thoughts. His soul must be clean in order for his life to be righteous."

Must Call Doctor If Family Is Ill

Bel a Man Does Not Have to Get Medical Attention for Himself

A man may not be forced to have medical attention for himself if he is ill, but if any of his family needs medical attention, he is criminally negligent if he does not call in a physician.

"It is the gist of an opinion given out by Attorney General Fred H. Davis of Tallahassee, it is reported. The state's attorney holds that under the law "any person who refuses to do his duty to his wife and children to secure medical aid and attention when he is in a condition to do so, would probably be guilty of a criminal offense, notwithstanding the fact that religious convictions might make him opposed to the use of medical treatment."

He law, the Attorney General holds, requires any person desiring to enter a bond to have a burial permit in order that a record may be made of the death and burial.

FINANCIERS PLAN FOR INSTITUTION

New Sanford Bank May Be Organized

To Have $100,000 Capital and $20,000 Surplus, It Is Reported

Persistent rumors continue in circulation that a new bank may soon be organized in Sanford and open for business in the old First National building.

A prominent Sanford business man is authority for the statement that the bank would have a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $20,000.

A group of substantial citizens met some days ago, it is said, and laid their plans before the representatives of the state banking department and were told that their plans would be taken under advisement by controller Amos.

It is believed that there is ample business in Sanford for another large bank to meet the needs of the "colony city's" growing commercial life. The men behind the movement for a new bank in Sanford are among the city's leading financiers, and success to the new undertaking is assured, it is said, if the plan is approved by the state banking department.

GENEVA STATION TO REMAIN OPEN

Railroad Commission Denies Petition to Close Depot

The Florida Public Service Commission has denied the petition of the Florida East Coast Railroad to close the Geneva railway station during the summer, according to H. M. Pappworth, secretary of the railroad.

Mr. Pappworth is in receipt of a letter from the railroad commission stating that the railroad's petition to close the station had been denied, which means that Geneva will not be deprived of its depot during the summer.

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce joined with citizens of Geneva in opposing the move to close the Geneva station during the summer, and the fight against closing has been successful.

Representations were made showing the need for the station during the slack season as well as during the profitable winter months when citrus fruits move from Geneva.

Florida Is Third In Southern States Education Salaries

Applies Only to Administrative Branch of Educational System

Among thirteen Southern states Florida ranks third in the amount of money paid as salaries to the administrative branch of her educational system, according to a report made public by W. E. Crockett, state superintendent of public instruction.

The reports show that it costs Florida $24,850 a year to maintain the department of education from the administrative standpoint alone, which does not include teachers' salaries.

The state of Texas stands first among the Southern states in the cost of running its educational system, spending $70,500 for administrative purposes, which is classed as "overhead costs."

Alabama stands second in regard to overhead expense, her administrative system costing $52,000.

Masonic Lodge Hall Is Being Repainted

The hall of Ovidio Masonic Lodge No. 243 is being given a new coat of paint by Edson Goff of Geneva, one of the lodge members.

The Ovidio lodge decided some weeks ago to repaint their hall, floor, walls and ceiling, and Mr. Goff volunteered to donate the cost of repainting. The walls and ceiling are being painted a light color and the wainscoting grey.

The lodge will purchase new carpeting shortly, it is said, and when all the improvements are completed the hall will be much more attractive.

GRAY, CRAWFORD IN SECOND RACE

SECOND PRIMARY TUESDAY, JUNE 24

Only One State Office, Secretary of State, to Be Run Out

The run-off primary for state and county offices in Florida will be held on Tuesday, June 24, with only one state-wide race to be run over again.

A. G. Gray and E. Clay Crawford going to the post once more to decide the contest for secretary of state.

There was only one run-over race in Seminole County and now it is reported that the race has been called off on account of the withdrawal of W. S. Entenminger in the race for county commissioner.

The reported withdrawal of Mr. Entenminger may mean that C. B. Sawyer will be the incumbent's office in district 2.

The race in the third district was three-cornered, among W. E. Entenminger, C. B. Sawyer and J. E. Fuller, neither candidate receiving a majority of the vote cast in the first primary.

Believe It or Not—Quail Hatches Out Hen Egg in Ovidio

Partridge Mother Is All Flustered and Breaks Up Housekeeping

A mother quail hatched out a hen egg in her nest at Ovidio, a freak happening appropriate for Ripley's "Believe It or Not" series.

A mother quail in the middle of hatching out a hen egg in her nest when there was a hatch of partridge eggs which had not hatched. There was one other hen egg which had not hatched, but the little chicken was alive and clucking busily for its small mother, according to those who found the nest.

The mother quail had seemingly become excited and deserted her queer progeny, probably thinking she had made too big a success at sitting.

The silly chick, too, seemed discouraged, it is said, and fled some days later. Ovidio will add this happening to the incident of the stolen church bell in her list of freak events for the next year or two.

The Baptist church bell weighing several hundred pounds disappeared from the church curd last year and not a trace of it has ever been found.

Gold Star Mother Returns to Orlando

Mrs. Paul T. Butler, who was one of the first Florida Gold Star mothers to go abroad, has returned to Orlando, Fla. Butler stated that the details of the trip and entertainment were an perfect pleasure. "We were royally entertained," said Mrs. Butler.

"The trip had a two-fold significance," said Mrs. Butler. "While it had a wonderful effect on the mothers, making them happier after seeing the graves of their sons, the experience will make them stand more than ever against war. The many graves marked with marble crosses, seen to daily preach for world peace."

Mrs. Butler was located at the Bonhomme hotel, near the Alamo-Marne cemetery, Chabotta Thierly. The hotel was occupied by the war at various times by the Germans, Americans and French. Mrs. Butler visited the grave of her son, Paul Butler, Jr., in the Alamo-Marne cemetery. Graves of the unknown soldiers are described with the words, "Mrs. Butler is honored glory as an American soldier known but to God."

"The lovely countryside and the quaint villages were of much interest to me," Mrs. Butler remarked.

ST. JOHNS RIVER FLOODS RAMPANT

Lake Monroe May Overflow Banks

Lake Monroe at Sanford was steadily rising at a late hour Thursday, the water having overflowed the bulkheads at several points.

Wednesday the lake had reached a level of 11 feet above sea level, the highest in several years, although "old-timers" spoke reminiscently of the day "when steamboats unloaded on First Street."

It was reported by J. A. Young, superintendent of the Sanford plant of the Florida Light and Power Company that the St. Johns River has risen more than two and a half feet in the last ten days, with a possibility of a rise of one or two feet more.

Reports from the St. Johns basin toward Lake Okechobee indicate that much more rain has fallen in the last day or two, and the highest peak of the water has not yet arrived at Sanford, according to the indications.

MELON IS CUT BY BANK DIRECTORS

Sanford Atlantic Bank Declares a Dividend

The Sanford Atlantic National Bank declared a dividend of $1.00 at a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday afternoon.

The dividend was for the second quarter of the year and is the second quarterly dividend paid this year. The quota will be paid July 1, it is said.

A. L. Betts was elected assistant Cashier of the Sanford Atlantic. The directors changed the rate of interest on saving deposits and on time certificates of deposit from 4 per cent to 2½ per cent, effective July 1. This is in line with cheaper money rates all over the country, it is said.

It was reported that interest on call loans in New York had dropped to 2½ per cent, showing that abundance of money is available for any safe investment.

The meeting of the directors of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank was regarded as very successful, and the officials of the institution voiced their confidence that conditions in this section will grow steadily better.

Rev. C. W. Mathison Leaves for Meeting

The Rev. C. W. Mathison pastor of the Ovidio Methodist Church left the first of the week for the annual meeting of the Florida Methodist Conference at West Palm Beach.

The session of the Methodist Conference this year will be an important one, it is said, as many measures of considerable interest will come up for settlement.

Bishop Moore, who has recently been placed in charge of the Florida conference will preside at the West Palm Beach meeting.

Rev. A. L. Medcalf At Baptist Church

Will Preach on the Subject of Pentecost Sunday Morning

The Rev. A. L. Medcalf will preach at the Baptist Church of Ovidio, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, it is announced, using as his subject "Pentecost." Dr. Medcalf bases his subject upon

PUBLIC OPINION SOUGHT ON TAXES

Sanford Citizens To Express Views On Sales Tax Plan

Suggestion Is for Tax on Luxuries Rather than Necessities

The citizens of Sanford will be asked to express themselves on the question of a sales tax on luxuries, according to officials of the Sanford chamber of commerce.

The League of Municipalities, composed of an organization of Florida cities, will meet at St. Petersburg on June 26 and 27, and the various cities will be asked to express themselves on the question of a sales tax before the state meeting.

The Sanford chamber of commerce will take a vote of its members at their luncheon Monday it is said. The suggestion is now that the body approve a tax on luxuries or non-essentials, such as tobacco, cigars, jewelry, perfumes, radios, and such.

It is expected that a big fight will develop at the next session of the legislature on the sales tax question, many plans being under consideration and considerable opposition developing against most of them.

It is felt by many business leaders that some means must be found to pay off the bondholders of the Florida municipalities, and it is hoped some method may be found to increase adequate 14 percent interest on all bonds.

CONSTRUCTION IS ON THE UPGRADE

Total of $557,725 In Hotel Building

Florida Figures for May Given Out by Hotel Commission

The total sum expended in Florida for hotel, apartment house and cafe construction during May was $557,725, according to figures compiled by the state hotel commission.

The Southern part of the state led in hotel construction with a total of more than $200,000, the figures show, while the central section around Orlando and Sanford was second with $128,450 worth of building in the hotel and cafe field.

Thirty-four permits were issued during May for hotel, cafe and apartment house construction. There were ten hotels, nine apartment houses, two rooming houses and thirteen cafes in the list of permits granted, it is reported.

Two hotels in the central section were to cost $126,000, this being the greater part of the mid-state building for the month. The record for the month shows that the state is going steadily forward in building. Other projects of major importance are being considered, it is said.

It's slightly amusing when a four teen-old girl indignantly refers to her thirty-seven-year-old father as "a liner."

Our idea of a showman is a committee of fifteen getting down to business.

The fact that the 1930th anniversary of Pentecost has recently been celebrated by the followers of Christ.

The Baptist Church is a Medcalf pastor at present, and Dr. Medcalf is preaching at Ovidio for the day.

PREDICTION FOR 1940

By the year 1940 Oviedo will have a population of 2,000 or more.

By 1940 twice as much land will be cleared in the Black Hammock district.

By 1940 a big canning factory will be running in or near Oviedo, shipping all surplus vegetables to other sections in cans with a well-known Oviedo trademark.

By 1940 a big crate factory will be adding to the prosperity of this town and section.

By 1940 Oviedo will have a good bank headed by leading citizens and supported by the people at large.

By 1940 a plant will be in operation here preserving fruit juices and citrus products.

By 1940 Oviedo will have a good bakery which will produce enough bread for the entire section.

By 1940 there will be a wide hard-road from Winter Park by Oviedo and on across the St. Johns River to the East Coast.

By 1940 the road to Chuloveta will be widened, the creek bridge raised, and this outlet for traffic greatly improved.

By 1940 a bus line or a railroad will run through Oviedo from Sanford or Orlando to the East Coast.

By 1940 the Medfly will be a joke — he'll be ill!

By 1940 — well, we'll all be ten years older, and that's not so good.

But let's all thank God and take courage.

CELERY COOPERATIVE NEEDED

The celery growers of Seminole County need to organize for the more efficient marketing of their product. In this day of organization the producers must find ways and means of standing together in order to secure fair returns for their labor and their investment.

Just to produce crops is not enough, just to take whatever price the fellow at the other end of the line may see fit to give is financial suicide.

Suppose the manufacturer of any kind of goods were to ship his stuff on consignment to the retailer, taking whatever the buyer might be pleased to give! He would be insolvent in sixty days. And so the average farmer is today treated — because he has not found a practical way of cooperating with his fellows.

It is true that there are practical difficulties in the way of cooperation in marketing perishable production — but the obstacles must be overcome. The farmer must find a way to protect his own interests. Otherwise he will continue to toil without reward, and without hope.

"OUR MOTOR MASSACRE"

Last year was a profitable year for the undertaker — in the United States we killed 31,000 people in motor accidents. And there were only 1,000,000 injured in the same manner.

No one can argue now that wars are needed to thin out the population — the modern world is far too efficient not to find a more up-to-date method for doing away with lack-lustre humanity than the old-fashioned carriage of battle.

These days we just put a big metal monster with some hundreds of horse-power force in the hands of most any moon and turn him loose on the highways and streets to kill himself or, more often, kill some one else.

Motor manufacturers vie with one another in producing speed machines. And the drivers of the road-scorchers vie with one another in getting from somewhere to somewhere in particular in the least time.

On with the dunes—dodge, brothers, if you can, you who are luckless enough to be on the ground! There's 31,000 more waiting to be killed by year. And there are always 31,000 more efficiency experts telling us of bettering our record each year.

At the equivalent of a fair-sized city's population wiped out each year in motor accident — and a big city

MANY KINDS OF RELIGION

There are many kinds of religion, or rather many ideas as to what religion is.

One person thinks religion consists in going through certain ceremonies, saying certain words, making certain motions.

Another person thinks religion consists in not doing certain things—a kind of negative existence of refraining from various habits, such as smoking, drinking, and the like. I have known people of this type who would poison the whole community with their gossip and then frown in righteousness wrath upon some poor devil who said "Durn."

Still another type of person thinks religion a kind of fire escape, a good thing in times of distress and danger. This kind of person seems to use religion somewhat like the dorky uses his rubber foot—just rubs it for luck at critical times.

And, happy to say, there are people in the world who think religion consists in being square and honest, being patient with the faults of others, going along quietly about your business and keeping your nose out of other people's business, not feeling any too good one's self, but trusting to a "higher holiness" which is the unmerited gift of God.

Well, there are many kinds of religion—because there are many kinds of people in the world.

Religion—it is in fact an illusive, beautiful thing, the right kind, that is, and none of us have very much of it.
