

30 Old Burlington St
London W. 21. 1879

Dear Mr. Sanford

Thanks for your telegram note. I shall do my best with my own & one or two others

I am so glad that you will be able to be in Brussels when I am there. The King has fixed Tuesday, and Strassburg wishes me to let him know the route I come by, and the hour of arrival.

I propose (50/1) to go to Dover on Monday evening keep there and cross to Calais, ^{on Tuesday morning} thence to Brussels arriving at the South Station at 4.55
Shall you arrive before me or at same time?

Industrious to many kind wishes for Mrs. Sanford (if she is with you) & yourself

Believe me
Very truly Yours
W. Mackenzie
