

Junior English.

Cifford.

- 1) At what time did Milton live?
 Give his important poetical works.
 What did he accomplish by his prose works?

Milton lived lived before the Revolution in England or about.

1600. or in the 17 century

His works are Milton "Paradise Lost". Paradise regained.

He ~~had~~ tried to teach something in his poems.

- # Give some changes that took place in English society at the time of the Restoration. Why was not the (purge) conducive to good literature.

When the King was in his court was of a very low degraded order and society
 came to a very low

This naturally had a bad
 effect on the writings of the time for the writers followed the times.

- # Give a sketch of Addison's character.
 Who was Sir Roger de Coverley?
 Addison was a man who believed in ad vancement, for he was the first man to start speaking

40509353
He was kind and had a very good disposition.

Sir Rodger De Couley, was a fictitious name given to a man by Addison. He was supposed to represent the English Parliament as a Lord who lived in retirement on his estate. He had a very peculiar character.

IV

(10)
Tell what you can of Pope. To what class of does he belong.

Pope was a cripple. Being a Catholic he was not allowed to go to school but he learned at home. He made him self a poet by hard study.

Pope was very intemperate in his eating and often became very sick from over eating.

In all he was a very peculiar man. He never likes to be spoken to about his disability.

His disposition was one any one might well be proud of.

He belongs to the class of poets who made their poetry. They were not natural.

PART II

CRABODY

I Tell the Story of Elaine.

Before Arthur became King he found a crown with 4 large diamonds in it. Two King had killed each other, and this was one of the crowns worn by one of them. When Arthur became King he said the diamonds belonged to the king alone not to him, so he said there was to be a feast each year for the diamonds. The women winning in the feasts to have the diamonds for that year.

The ninth and largest was all that remained, ~~at that~~ at the usual time the feast was to be held, this last year.

I am about the most beloved knight of King Arthur. "Round Table" had won all of the diamonds so far.

I am about as in love with King Arthur's wife the Queen. The King knew nothing of this.

At the day set for the feast all started to go to Camelot, where there were held great