

© AERO SERVICE — PHILA.

SHOWING R. C. A. VICTOR PLANT

1A1809

WYNN H. BOYER, JR., PHILADELPHIA, PA. AND WILDWOOD, N. J.

DELAWARE RIVER BRIDGE, the largest Bridge in the world, connecting Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., with a single span long, center to center of Main Piers, a clearance above High Water of 135 ft. over a span of 800 ft. in center of span. The Main Structure is of a 2 cable suspension type, carrying a roadway for 6 lines of vehicles, 2 lines of surface cars, 2 lines for rapid transit and 2 ten foot sidewalks above the roadway. Total cost about $29,000,000.

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS ONLY

PLACE
ONE STAMP
HERE

C. T. AMERICAN ART COLORED

