London, 21st February 1885
E.C.

Hon^{ble} H. S. Sanford.

Hotel Royal

Berlin

Dear Sir,

Reports and accounts received from Agent with Minute dated 7th inst: Agent has been ill and reports sales for December $1980 and but one sale of $434.80 for the whole of January, adding:

"Every thing throughout not only the
"State but the whole country is dull.
"no sales in any direction. The new "Orleans Exposition seems to have
"taken the visitors from Florida this
"winter"

"I have not given the areas of the

7 New Lands as the deeds give them
9 in bulk and I cannot separate them
7 until I get the Township maps. They 9 aggregate 19,797⁸⁶ Acres and are all of 9 good quality. - The deeds are all in 7 the names of the Trustees "

Yours faithfully
A. W. Macfarlane,
Secretary
