The Cher-O-Key

Syort News

Last Wednesday, January 23, during auditorium period, the boys of 9-4 were awarded the school letter "C", for being school champions in Soccer. This is one of the athletic awards given every year by the school. These boys represented Cherokee in the tourna ment detween Cherokee and Memorial, but due to the fact that two of the boys were ineligible, the team lost revolving crane. to Memorial. The boys receiving letters were: Champ Williams (captain) Maurice Harding, Thomas Nickels, Roy Cason, Herbert Kasper, Earl Peppercorn, Edward Pudlinski.

Basketball

working hard teaching the boys the which complete the set, already on fundamentals of basketball which consists of passing, catching, shooting, accomplished through the medium of dribbling, pivoting and team work.

At the beginning of the second semester a round robin between elligible boy's home-room teams will begin, courses in the school. The students The winning team of each grade will are grateful for the acquisition and then play for the school championship. hope to prove to higher authorities The fight is on!

Volleyball

The girls of 9.2 were also presented with the letter "C" last Wednesday, morial. This is an accomplishment in which the entire school takes pride. bot, Lillian Reynolds Mildred Wade.

grade team in volleyball, and 7-1 was from Concord; James Everett from winner in the seventh grade.

open.

Visitor: Billy, what is that noise going on upstairs?

Billy Tyree: Oh, that's mother dragging Dad's pants over the floor.

Visitor: Well how could that make such a noise?

Billy; Well, you see, Father is in

Carolyn McKinnon: Over in my country, my brother was killed by a Takoohy Topakian: My! What ferocious birds you have in America!

New Lantern Proves Popular

Cherokee's new projection lantern is being used in many beneficial ways, both in the auditorium and in the In Gym, Coach Wright has been classroom. With 200 of the 600 slides, hand, it is expected that much will be visual instruction. The slides can be used as illustrative material with all that the investment was a wise one.

Accelerated Students Here

Among the new students in Cherofor winning the girls' school champion- kee are several who have been accelship in volleyball. The girls are also erated faom the Orlando Elementary city champions, having defeated Me Schools. These students while of sixth grade age are capable of seventh The girls are: Helen Arendt, Roberta grade work, and have been promoted. Barnett, Irene Caldwell, Octavia Cha- All Cherokee will be interested to watch their progress. They are Mor-Section 8-4 was the winning eighth ton Levy, Fred Mauer, John Adams Grand Avenue: Ruth Stout, George The basketball season for girls is now Boss, Juanita Dasher and Hazel Brady from West Central.

The Cher-O-Key

Published Bi-Weekly by the Journalism Club of Cherokee Junior High School.

Vol. I, No. 5 February, 1, 1929

One Cent

THRIFT WEEK OBSERVED

Cherokee entered into the national celebration of "Thrift week" in a whole National Bank, spoke in auditorium on organ there. January 16 on the subject of Thrift. The group was first taken down to prize, Mary Terhune: second, Gene- the small space around the pipes. vieve Condry; third, Virginia Boguer- Mr. Webb told the group that this eif. The boys' prizes went to Lloyd is one of the largest and finest organs George, first; Joe Bird, second; third, in this part of the South. It was pur-Frank Jacobson.

DR. ADCOCK SPEAKS

On Wednesday, January o, the first auditorium gathering of the year, Dr. J. Dean Adcock, pastor of the First courage and capacity."

The Student Council has a surprise.

STUDENT COUNCIL VISITS AUDITORIUM

The Student Council of Cherokee hearted fashion. Cherokee's own pro- recently paid a visit to the Orlando gram began a day earlier than the date Municipal Auditorium at the invitaset for the national observance. Mr. tion of Parson Webb. The Council W. R. O'Neal, President of the First was shown the different parts of the

Later in the week students wrote the cellar where they were shown the as a part of their English requirements motors that furuish the power for the a paper on Thrift. The best of these, organ. Next they visited the rooms in the form of poems, essays and stories upstairs where the pipes of the organ were submitted to judges. The three are situated. Some of the pipes were best submitted by boys and the three larger and taller than a man and some best by girls have received cash prizes, as small as a little finger. The organ The girls receiving prizes were: first was played while the Council was in chased by the city of Orlando for $40. 000. The Council agrees that it is a wonderful organ and wishes that the whole school might see it.

7-3 GIVES PROGRAM

Section 7-3 presented an interesting Baptist Church, gave a talk on the auditorium program, Wednesday, Janthree elements of success in any line. uary 23." "The Family Album". Int-The talk was in the nature of a new eresting scenes from days gone by were year's message and its purpose was to depicted, and clever songs and dances give inspiration to the students to be were given. The main characters in gin aright their work of another year. the play were Zelma McCree, John "The three C's which one must have Cassidy, Martin Nice, Edna Mae to succeed", he said, "are conviction' Nicholson, Miriam Hall, Georgia Bell Harrell, Alviena Harrell, Stewart Tur-Watch the bulletin during February! ner, Elizebeth Herndon, Eva Kaba. Evelyn Wingate, Lee McClelland.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Ruth Wetherington Editor-in-chief Robert Cox Associate Editor News Editors Jean Pettay Takoohy Topakian Society Editor Martha Ruth Rathburn Literary Editor Robert Boggs Carolyn McKinnon Feature Editor Sport Editor Charles Rinehart Richard Marriman Joke Editor Circulation Faculty Sponsor Exchange Editor Bob Williams

EDITORIALS

Students, what does a new semester mean to you? Merely that half a year is over and the thoughts that examinations are things of the past? Or does it also imply a new beginning, a time when we should reflect upon badly worn or completel dilapidated. our past weaknesses and then turn ward the future?

Year" for Cherokee began Monday, thus afforded us? This is what the grade work produced. new semester spells most distinctly-Opportunity. Let us then, with firm had special training in Colorado State resolution, seek to strive and do and Teacher's college under one of the know, "forgeting the things which are greatest authorities in the country in behind and reaching unto those things this line of work has charge of the which are before.

Mr. Lewis is sponsor, has been read-book bindery since it enables her to ing old Greek and Latin stories and keep the shelves neat and attractive are now reading Scandinavian tales.

Audtorium Feb. 6th; Section 9-4, sponsoring Mr. Westover.

100 Books Rebound

The Bookbinding Department of Donald Young Cherokee Junior High School has re-Miss Henderson cently returned to the Library over 100 volumes of books which have been re-bound this year and made as good as new. In addition to the rebinding, the department is equipped to label with gold letters these books so that a complete and usable book is put back on the shelves in place of those Splendid board back magazine covwith courage and determination to ers with leather laces are made in the binding also. It is estimated that In the most real sense, the "New the work of the department including the bindery of the yearly issues sever-January 28. We should be grateful al of the best magazines saves the schfor what the coming semester has in ool several hundred dollars each year store for us, for many good things in addition to the educational and vohave been coming our way-a new cational training afforded scores of boys curtain for the auditorium, a projection and girls of the community. Our lantern for our very own use, new Junior High Schools are among the few books for the library, awards and of the state to offer such a course and prizes of major and minor significance. we feel particularly proud of the splen-Shall we live up to the opportunities did record established by the high

Miss Bernice C. Datson who has Cherokee Bindery Department.

The librarian, Mrs. Meyer, espe-The Mythology Club, of which cially appreciates the work of this with well bound books at all times.

Expression Club Gives Plays

The Expression Club has had many good plays this year. "His Methodist Foot", and "Kill or Cure", "The Unexpected Guest," and "That Troublesome Xmas Gift" are some that have been given. At a recent meeting of the club, a play called "Swimming Pool" was given, the cast being entirely of boy. The characters were: Daytona. The Kid, Sammie Bethea; the Englishman, Harry Price; the Nut, Virgil Bankston; the man, Allen Hage; the Sheriff, Jim Slemons. The play centered around the theme of hobo experiences, which were quite diversified, including both-robberies and love affairs. This was voted by the club as one of the best plays of the year.

Art Class Completes Calendar

The special art class, under the direction of Miss Margaret F. S. Glace, has this week completed a project in Tallahassee recently. the nature of a Cherokee calender for 1929. This is the second annual Cherokee Junior High School calendar The theme used is "History and Growth of Florida." The calendar is done in blue and tan, giving a very artistic effect. The linoleum cuts were designed and executed by the pupils of the Art department.

The printing was done through the co-operation of the printing department, directed by Mr. Arthur P. Lewis.

Students contributing a page or more

It may be interesting to some of us to learn where our friends spent the Christmas holidays.

The time is a bit past but the human interest is still there.

Lois Tyler visited relatives in Tsmpa during the holidays.

Charles Lee spent the vacation in Charlotte Parrott visited Mountain Lake during Christmas.

Jane Geir and Katherine Lyon spent their vacation in Hollywood, Fla.

Miss Ledford spent the holidays in Plant City, St. Petersburg and Tampa

Among others visiting Tampa during Christmas were Connie Taylor, Thelma Jones, Miss Scruggs and Miss

Temple Carter visited friends in Arther Tedford and Kingsley Decker spent three days at Camp Wewa hunting.

Jane Flournoy spent part of the vacation with friends in Jacksonville

Georgia Belle and Alviena Harell were in Fort Meade Christmas.

Eunice and Bernice Phillips visited relatives in Groveland.

Ruth McKinnon was in Plant City Christmas. So was Janet Gould.

to this calendar are: Ruth Wethering- Howard Davis, Richard Lawson, Mildton, Evedna Murray, Marion Heinin- red Wade, Newell Clark, Billy Tyree, ger, Gertrude Roe, Lester Trantham, Marion McClelland, Burnett Bartlett.