

Pfc John B. Hancock was in the Southern France invasion. The Purple Heart awarded him for injuries received in battle has been received by his wife, who is making her home in Auburndale. Pfc Hancock has also received the infantry combat medal. He was manager of the A & P store in Haines City prior to his entry in the Armed Services.

FIGHTING

Pfc. JACK HANCOCK

Pfc. JACK HANCOCK is now in France and says he likes it fine, it being more like the States than anywhere else he's been. He says that they are really "on the go" and being in the Infantry, he should know. Pfc. Hancock has been awarded the Infantry Combat Medal.

