

...men as Mr. Wilson (now dead), Dr. Künner, Fred Baldwin, Dr. Heron, Dewey, Fuller, and others, who had all the benefits of the hardships of pioneering, camp life, grubbing, etc., etc. We have no ill feelings against our Altamonte writer and we welcome him here to help build up our settlement, but credit should go where credit is due.

ORANGE GROVE.

School Seats.
Mr. E. B. Vandeman informs us that the trouble in regard to seats for our public schools is attributable to the fact that the first order for seats never reached the manufacturers. The directors are assured, however, that the new seats will soon be here.

Union Services.
There will be union services in the Baptist Church this Friday evening, January 1, 1886, beginning at 7:30. All are invited to attend and begin the new year with worship.
