

5-21-07

Sanford High School.

92

Junior English.

Cifford.

At what time did Milton live?
Give his important poetical works:
What did he accomplish by his prose works?

Milton lived lived before the Revolution in England or about.

1600. or in the 17 century

His works are Milton "Paradise Lost", Paradise regained.

He had tried to teach something in his poems.

Give some changes that took place in English society at the time of the Restoration. Why was not the (purge) conducive to good literature.

When the King was in his court was of a very low degraded order and society came to a very low

This naturally had a bad effect on the writings of the time for the writers followed the times.

Give a sketch of a despotic character.
Who was Sir Roger de Coverley?

Addison was a man who believed in advanced society. for he was the first man to start a paper

He was kind and had a very good disposition.

Sir Rodger De Couley, was a fictitious name given to a man by Addison. He was supposed to represent the English Gentleman or a Lord who lives in retirement on his estate. He had a very peculiar character.

IV

(10)
Tell what you can of Pope. To what class of, does he belong.

Pope was a cripple. Being a Catholic he was not allowed to go to school but he learned at home. He made him self a poet by hard study.

Pope was very intemperate in his eating and often became very sick from over eating.

In all he was a very peculiar man. He never likes to be spoken to about his disability.

His disability was one any one might well be proud of.

He belongs to the class of poets who made their poems. They were not natural.

V In what does Burns rank highest as a poet?
Give a quotation from some one of his works.

(10) Burns was the best song writer that ever lived.

"The best laid plans (or schemes) of mice and men often go wrong".

VI Name Goldsmith's important works. What is his famous drama? And on what is it based.

Colinus Saturday night.

(9) His famous drama is "She stoops to Conquer". It is based on a little incident in his early life. He went to a town and when he asked the direction to the Inn he was directed to the house of a rich man. He ordered his horse to be taken to the stable and ordered a meal. The owner of the house saw him and she and carried the joke to the end.
He was much embarrassed when he found his things abandoned.

VII

To what period does Johnson belong? What kind of a man was he.

9

Johnson belonged to the period named for him "The Johnson Age".

He was a well educated man, and was very strict in his criticisms. He was the Dictator of England in his time.

VIII

Compare Wordsworth with and Byron as poets.

Byron was a very rich and well flow and you could tell his life by reading his works. Wordsworth was a very quiet, dreamy fellow who wrote of nature.

Byron's works were mostly Biographies.

IX

Give a sketch of Tennyson.

9

Tennyson was one of the few poets who studied from boy hood up to be a poet. His life was a free one. He had new work to do nothing to do but study. He was a fine man, a good scholar, and was loved by all who knew him.