Clinic Employees Face Overdue Paychecks

Employees of the federally-funded Central Florida Community Clinic in Sanford have been notified that they will not be paid Friday because of a snafu in transferring federal reserve money.

In a memo sent to the health clinic's staff Monday, Executive Director Susan Moore said "the process by which the funds are transmitted from the federal reserve to our bank takes between one and three days; therefore, our checks will not be available until early next week — Wednesday at the latest."

Ms. Moore, who was not at work today and unavailable for comment, said in the memo the request for the needed funds could not be made before Friday.

The clinic employs about two dozen people and provides health care to migrant workers.

Such delays in receiving funding money which are awarded by grants apparently occur from time to time, according to Gordon Clap of the Department of Health and Human Services in Atlanta which oversees the clinic's funding.

Clap, a grant specialist called the funding process "circuitous" and explained that because of the various agencies and processes involved money delays at the clinic level are not unusual.

He had not heard of the Sanford clinic's situation and did not know how often the clinic makes money requests.

The Sanford clinic operates on a letter-of-credit basis, which indicates it has a good history of being financially responsible, Clap said.

After the clinic makes a request for funds, it is evaluated by the resource department in Atlanta. Once the request is approved, a letter of authorization is sent to the Federal Assistance Finance Branch in Rockville Maryland. From there the authorization is sent to a federal reserve bank, presumably in Atlanta since it is the closest one to Sanford. The federal reserve bank then transfers the funds to the clinic's local bank account, he said.

In the memo, Ms. Moore said she wanted to let the employees know in advance about the paycheck holdup.

"I apologize for this delay and the inconvenience it might cause some of us and please know that I sincerely appreciate your patience and support this year during our occasional cash-flow problems."

The Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta was checking on the problem today.

Longwood City Commissioner June Lormann, who criticized Building Official R.A. "Bud" Bryant during hearing, gives him a conciliatory hug after heated session.

Building Official Keeps Job-For Now

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

The second night of a hearing on complaints against Longwood Building Official R.A. "Bud" Bryant ended with a cliff-hanger Tuesday night and his job hanging by a motion.

A motion to terminate the beleaguered Bryant was made by City Commissioner Ed Myers then tabled on a motion by Commissioner Larry Goldberg. The meeting ended with Mayor Harvey Smerilson making a more conciliatory statement.

Smerilson said as he adjourned the hearing, "I hope Mr. Bryant can still work effectively with the city and I hope this thing can be worked out. I personally never wanted to hold a hearing, but we had to have one under the code. Please continue to do your job to the best of your ability until this matter is resolved."

During the meeting Smerilson said the commissioners were receiving four to six complaints a week about Bryant's work so "it's a more serious problem than just a 'witchhunt' but it involves a man who is not able to do the job he was hired to do." Smerilson said the problems were supposed to be resolved within the staff, but since Bryant said he was a building official and not just an inspector, he was not responsible to City Administrator Greg Manning but directly to the city commission.

However, after the meeting, Smerilson shook Bryant's hand and told him, "Keep your cool and do your job."

United Way At Half Of Goal

As of Tuesday's final report luncheon, United Way of Seminole County had reached 50 percent of its 1985 goal of $550,000, but Campaign Chairman John Knapp said today he is confident the goal will be reached.

The Victory Dinner scheduled for Thursday night in the grand ballroom of the new Altamonte Springs Hilton Hotel will officially climax the month-long campaign, but it may be another week or so before the final tally is known, according to United Way Executive Director Bob Walke.

Leigh Monerief, honorary chairperson for the campaign, will be guest of honor at the dinner.

'Best In State' Schools Seen Possible With Bond Issue OK

By Jim Searls
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County schools have a chance of becoming the best in the state thanks to voter approval Tuesday of a $100 million school bond issue, says Superintendent of Schools Bob Hughes.

Seminole voters approved the issue 8,036 to 2,318. Of the 11 percent of the county's registered voters who went to the polls, 78 percent voted for the bond issue, 22 percent against.

The bond issue will not raise property taxes for five years, according to school officials, and will be used to finance one new elementary school, 50 acres of land for a new high school and remodeling of 40 of the county's 41 public schools.

Elections supervisor Sandy Goard said the turnout was just about what she had expected and that she was pleased with the results of having to switch six polling places at the last minute.

"I first predicted 10-12 percent then I thought it would drop below 10 percent, but it picked up again at the last. Everything went very smoothly except for a problem at one of the polls we had to move but again that was nothing major," Mrs. Goard said.

Mrs. Goard said the lowest percentage of voters to turnout was from Precinct #66 at Forest Lake Elementary School in Forest City, where 2.9 percent of the 9 registered voters turned out. The highest percentage of voter turnout was at Precinct #6 in Geneva where they turned out 23.2 percent, or 263 registered voters.

Hughes said he was very pleased with the outcome.

"I want to thank the voters of Seminole County for their continued support of education in this county," he said. "I especially want to thank the members of the media in our area for consistent coverage of the issues and for cooperating with us in their fine coverage of this issue. I was initially concerned that this issue might not be dramatic or controversial enough to draw voters out, but I am pleased that they cared enough to come out."

"We didn't do it all ourselves though, we got a lot of endorsements from civic groups in this area. This vote was a tremendous success, we (school board officials and supporters) did a lot of celebrating last night."

"I think I can say without doubt that out of this bond issue this school district is going to become the best school system in the state, at least in terms of facilities and I am confident we already have the best people in the state to work in it."

"Our architects plan to start almost immediately on drawing up plans for the new elementary school and we will begin to look around the county to see which school will get needed improvements first. We look forward to beginning all projects within three

Union Urged For Doctors, Dentists

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — A group of doctors and dentists has launched a drive to unionize colleagues across Connecticut and fight cost-control measures they claim are threatening the quality of health care.

The Connecticut Federation of Physicians mailed recruitment letters to doctors and dentists around the state this week and said it already had exceeded the 50-member core group needed to seek eventual certification as a labor bargaining unit.

"We are told when to admit patients, how much and what treatment they may receive and when they must be discharged," said Dr. Joseph Dineen, a surgeon from Ansonia and president of the federation.

"We are told by non-physicians and non-dentists how to practice our specialties without the benefit of the many long years of education, training and personal sacrifice necessary to learn how to care for patients," he said.

Dineen said the federal government, through Medicare and Medicaid, and third-party sources such as health maintenance organizations, profit-making hospitals and "health care conglomerates" place profits ahead of care.

"The union will work to return medical decisions to the doctors and to regain access to quality care for their patients," he said.

Social Security Beneficiaries To Get Smallest Raise In Decade

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A modest 0.2 percent increase in consumer prices during September kept the annual inflation rate so far this year at its lowest level in nearly two decades and will give Social Security recipients their smallest increase in a decade, the government reported today.

The slow inflation means Social Security recipients in 1986 will see their monthly checks rise by only 3.1 percent — the lowest increase since 1975, the Social Security Administration said.

The Labor Department reported that the 0.3 percent rise in food prices during the month was largely responsible for the modest rise in the Consumer Price Index. Food and beverage prices showed their largest gain following six months of declines.

The rise in food prices was offset by a 0.2 percent decline in transportation costs, the fifth consecutive monthly decline. Declines in the cost of used cars and gasoline were largely responsible for the decrease, said Labor Department economist Patrick Jackman.

The CPI was the last figure necessary for the Social Security Administration to compute its 1986 cost-of-living increase and the slow annual inflation rate of 3.2 percent, seasonally adjusted, means monthly checks will go up only 3.1 percent on Jan. 1.

That will raise the average benefit from $464 a month to $478.

The average benefit for a widowed mother with two children will rise from $987 to $1017 a month and the average maximum benefit rises from $717 to $739 a month, according to Jim Brown, a spokesman for the Social Security Administration.

The increase will be the lowest since the government began tying Social Security benefits to inflation in 1975.

Had the inflation rate been below 3 percent, there would have been no cost-of-living raise at all.

Social Security checks got 3.5 percent bigger in 1984 and 1985.

The government formula for computing the cost-of-living raise uses a narrow price index covering only consumers in big cities to measure the increase in prices between third quarters of last year and this year.

If 1985 ends with the same low annual inflation rate of 3.2 percent, it will be the best year for inflation since 1967, when consumer buying power was offset by a 3.0 percent inflation rate.

The 0.2 percent increase in consumer prices was the fifth consecutive month with the same modest rise, following increases of 0.4 percent in April and 0.5 percent in March.

Last week, the Commerce Department reported as part of its measure of the gross national product that the third-quarter inflation rate for the entire economy, not just consumers, was running at a 2.9 percent

Reagan To Seek Summit Support

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, less than a month away from the superpower summit, hopes to gather strong Western support during a whirlwind trip to New York to mark the 40th anniversary of the United Nations.

Reagan was to leave today for a three-day visit in which he will address the U.N. General Assembly and possibly talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze about his summit Nov. 19-20 with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

Later today, he will meet separately with Indian Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi and Pakistani President Mohammed Zia ul-Haq.

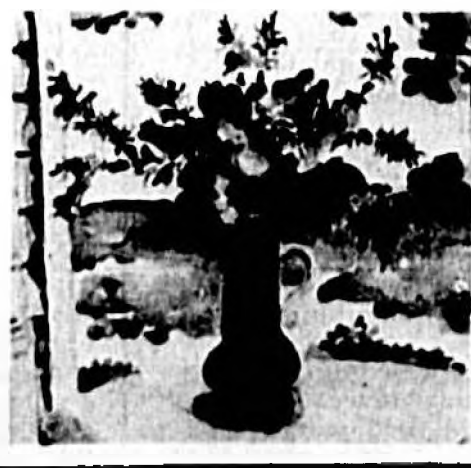

After his address Thursday, Reagan will meet with the leaders of Britain, West Germany, Japan, Italy and Canada to discuss the November summit in Geneva, Switzerland.

Shortly after his arrival in New York, Reagan will attend a U.N. reception for heads of state and a luncheon afterward.

Festival Report

A special report on the upcoming St. John's River Festival will be included in Thursday's Evening Herald, featuring details on the entertainment, food and locations of arts and crafts booths. The festival will be held along Fort Mellon Park on Sanford's lakefront from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Suspect Caught In Movie; Doesn't Know Plot

A man tracked down by Altamonte Springs police along with the victim of a hit-and-run accident was found in a movie theater. Although he claimed to have been in the theater at the time of the accident, the man didn't know the name of the film and was a bit confused about the plot, police reported.

Margaret Toro, 55, of 134 Escondido Way, Altamonte Springs, called police to her home at about 7:30 p.m. Monday to report her car had been hit from behind in an accident on State Road 436 at Interstate 4. Ms. Toro complained of neckpain and dizziness but before going to the hospital went with police to the Interstate Mall, where she said the driver of the other vehicle was believed to have driven after the accident, a police report said.

A 1977 Ford, matching the suspect's car was located at the mall and police checked the registration which named the owner. The suspect was found in a theater at the mall watching the "Great Adventure of Remo Williams," and when police asked him to name the movie he couldn't and he said it was about a woman cheating on her husband, the report said.

The man said he had been at the theater since 6:15 p.m., but police reported the film didn't start until 7:30 p.m.

Walter William Wills, 29, of 385 Frances Ave., Casselberry, was arrested at 8:38 p.m. He has been charged with driving under the influence and leaving the scene of an accident with injuries. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

BOTTLE THREAT, FALSE NAME

A 22-year-old man has been charged with criminal mischief, aggravated assault, obstruction by false information and resisting arrest after allegedly making threats in a Longwood bar and then giving police a false name.

The arrest came at Jayne's Pub, U.S. Highway 17-92, Longwood, at about 2 a.m. Tuesday, after the man allegedly threatened a bar patron with a bottle. Police reported the suspect at first gave a false name, but was identified by other police officers. No address was listed for the suspect on the arrest report.

The man allegedly kicked a police patrol car while traveling to jail. Damage to the car is estimated at $500, a police report said.

Steven Jerome Burks has been charged in the case and was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

WITNESS TAGS

A witness who gave Seminole County sheriff's deputies a description and license tag number of a man he reportedly saw burglarizing a car at Seminole Golf Club, E.E. Williamson Road, Longwood, led deputies to an Altamonte Springs man.

The suspect allegedly burglarized the car of Mary Haroogree on Monday, a sheriff's report said.

Deputies checked the tag number on the reputed getaway car and that led to the arrest of John Thomas Capaille, 25, of 940 Douglas Ave., #185, Capaille was jailed on a charge of burglary to a conveyance at 7:10 p.m. Monday. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

TRAFFIC STOP POT

Two brothers in a car stopped for traveling 60 mph in a 45 mph zone on Lake Mary Boulevard, have been charged by Seminole County sheriff's deputies with possession of less than 20 grams of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Deputies reported spotting cigarette rolling papers and pot seeds in the car. A search turned up a small bag of pot, a sheriff's report said.

The arrests were made at about 3 a.m. Tuesday, and both suspects were being held in lieu of $500 bond each.

The driver of the vehicle, James Edward Ferrell, 23, of Deming, N.M., was also charged with driving with a revoked license. Also arrested was John Douglas Ferrell, 21, of Orlando.

PEANUT BUTTER PROTEST

A Seminole County jail inmate was moved from his cell at about 5 p.m. Sunday after he allegedly set a piece of paper afire in protest over not receiving a requested peanut butter sandwich, Seminole County Sheriff John Polk said.

The small fire was quickly extinguished by guards who were alerted by a smoke alarm, a sheriff's report said. There were no injuries related to the fire, but two guards reported the suspect injured their hands as he resisted when they moved him from the cell.

The fire was under investigation Tuesday and charges related to the fire were pending against the suspect.

Arthur Mitchell, 24, who has been jailed since Aug. 9 on a robbery and conspiracy charge has been identified by jail guards as the man in the cell where the fire occurred. He was being held in lieu of $10,000 on his initial charges.

DEER DIES

Seminole County sheriff's deputy Daren Tjornstol, after receiving orders from his supervisor, shot a large, male deer which had apparently been struck by a car on Markham Woods Road at about midnight Monday.

Tjornstol reported both of the buck's rear legs had been broken. Animal Control took the carcass from the scene, he said.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS

Gold earrings worth $500 and a cassette player worth $100 were stolen from the home of Lisa Ann Dagg, 20, of 524 Eden Park, Altamonte Springs, on Monday, a sheriff's report said.

Harold V. Ellis, 68, of 9701 Forest City Road #212, Altamonte Springs, reported to sheriff's deputies two propane tanks worth a total of $240 were stolen from his yard between April 1 and Saturday.

Three buffers with a total value of about $1,000 were stolen along with wax, buffer pads and other items worth about $220 from Lundy's Detail Shop, 3851 S. Orlando Ave., Sanford, on Saturday or Sunday, according to a report filed by owner Thirkle Freeman, 33.

A $4,000 copier was stolen from Copitech Corp., 123 Altamonte Drive, Fern Park, between Sept. 19 and Oct. 1, according to a report Angela Riddell, 24, of Orlando, filed with Seminole County sheriff's deputies Monday.

Builder Jeffrey E. Brinkman, 40, of Wildemere, reported a $1,300 range was stolen between Saturday and Monday from a home being built at 226 Scarborough Road, Longwood.

An assistant principal at Rosenwald Elementary School, Altamonte Springs, reported a small, $150 refrigerator was stolen from the school between Oct. 10 and Monday. The thief apparently entered the school through a window, a sheriff's report said.

A radio and two speakers with a combined value of about $200 were stolen from the car of Bernadette A. Wasman, 19, of 7016 Hammock Way, Winter Park, on Tuesday or Wednesday, a sheriff's report said.

Longwood Marine Corp., of 1685 U.S. Highway 17-92, Longwood was burglarized after Oct. 10, and items were stolen from the boats of two customers, according to a report manager Jeffrey Calante, 30, filed with deputies on Friday. Stolen were two trailer tires with rims and lug nuts with a total value of about $300, a $65 battery and a $300 water ski.

Johnnie Sam McCoy, 39, of Orlando, reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies that his 1984 Thunderbird worth $18,000, which he was in the process of returning to the bank because he couldn't make the payments, was stolen while parked at the Deluxe Bar,

Southwest Road, Sanford, at about 10:30 p.m. Friday. The vehicle was recovered after being involved in a single car accident on 14th Street at Southwest Road early Saturday. The car was towed to a body shop and the thief got away, a sheriff's report said.

Ronald P. Argentine, 50, of Altamonte Springs, reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies a 1977 Buick worth $1,700 was stolen from his used car lot at 9800 S. U.S. Highway 17-92, Maitland, on Saturday or Sunday.

Burglars broke into two businesses on Hunt Club Boulevard, knocking a hole in the wall of Bulk Food Warehouse to enter Personally Yours at 490 Hunt Club Blvd., between 7 p.m. Saturday and 10:05 a.m. Sunday.

Sheriff's deputies have not determined if any items were stolen from either business. The backdoor of Bulk Food Warehouse had been pried open, a sheriff's report said.

Jury Deliberates Horne Trial Fate

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — A federal court jury today was expected to begin deliberating in the trial of former state Senate President Mallory Horne and his nephew, who are charged with helping a drug smuggler launder his profits.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Ken Sukala, in closing arguments Monday, told the jury of six men and six women that Mallory and Melvin Horne condemned themselves in tapes secretly recorded by the FBI.

Dexter Douglas, Mallory Horne's lawyer, said the FBI deliberately tried to tempt the former legislator into an illegal money laundering scheme to tarnish his good name.

"If Mallory Horne is convicted on circumstantial weak evidence, and lies concocted by the government, then no one in the country is safe," Douglas said.

Gregory Wilson, Melvin Horne's lawyer, will present his closing arguments today and the government will offer rebuttal before the jury begins deliberating.

Sukala said the most damaging part of the trial, going into its sixth week, was the tapes.

"You have been able to listen to the actual voices of these men planning these schemes," he told the jury. "The government's case is founded on the unimpeachable and damning evidence of the defendants themselves."

The Hornes are charged with helping convicted drug smuggler Robert Dugan hide illegal drug profits from the Internal Revenue Service through an elaborate system of foreign companies and banks. If convicted on all 13 counts in their federal indictment, each faces a maximum of 65 years in prison and more than $70,000 in fines.

Douglas said the government controlled what was said on the tapes because they knew what they wanted to tape.

He also criticized the FBI for using paid informer and convicted racketeer Mark Stroud to record the conversations and be the star witness against the Hornes.

"They take a heavy criminal, convince him he can get out of a heavy sentence, pay him and use him to go around seeking law abiding citizens trying to involve them in crime," he said.

Building Moratorium To End

Jim Searles
Herald Staff Writer

Another step toward the end of Lake Mary's eight-month building moratorium was achieved in a city commission workshop Monday at the Lake Mary City Hall.

Neal Kantner, sub-consultant to the city's engineering firm, Camp, Dresser & McKee of Orlando, along with CDM traffic engineer Nancy Gooding, presented a draft of their soon to be finished transportation study of the Lake Mary Boulevard corridor to city commissioners.

The commission also appointed new members to the Planning and Zoning Board and to the Board of Adjustment during a special called meeting.

The study, done by aerial photography, has taken CDM months to complete and has entailed painstaking work for the engineers on the project. Kantner said, "We (CDM) simply want to hear from you (city commission) as to what exactly you want us to be concerned with here and to give our engineers specific instructions for planning their drawings."

The basic points commissioners told CDM to watch for, according to City Manager Kathy Rice, were zoning considerations for commercial uses, curb cuts for access to the boulevard, median locations, aesthetic considerations, property values, movement of traffic, uses of the surrounding land and the wishes and rights of property owners in the city.

Rice said the boulevard will soon be widened, by the county, to four lanes and a transportation study is necessary to insure the best interests of the city are planned for in the future. She said the city, which must foot the bill for this portion of the study, has a long standing ideal of keeping the road "free flowing" for outside traffic and city residents.

"This study gives the us the additional information of land use along this transportation corridor, in terms of professional/office district versus low density residential development, that will be needed to meet the tremendous volume of growth we anticipate in this area. It is a long standing goal of this community to avoid the congestion of State Roads 434 and 436, directly south of us, that was caused by neglect and poor planning," Rice said.

Rice said the eight-month building moratorium, which went in to effect April 21, was called for by commissioners to study all possible kinds of building needs and to present to developers

The city's plans for development during this lull in development are three-tiered, Rice said. A comprehensive land use plan (which includes the transportation study), updated zoning regulations and a land development code that encompasses all phases of growth are the objectives of the many workshops and iron-lunged public meetings city planners are presently struggling through.

Another objective of the meeting was to appoint, by secret vote of the commissioners, citizens to serve on the city's Planning and Zoning Board and the board of adjustment. Elected to the P&Z Board were John Percy, for a three year term;

Penny Gunn, for a two year term; and Al Wickman, for a two year term. Elected to the board of adjustment were Mario DeIliacco, for a three year term and Mrs. Norma Fertakis, for a two year term.

SOME LIGHT CONVERSATION FROM UNITED TEL

You may not know it, but if you're a United Telephone customer, you may have listened to light. How? Over United Tel's fiber optic network. United Telephone was among the first in Florida to carry calls over light waves. And today, United Tel's fiber optic cables carry hundreds of times more voice and data traffic than we could have handled with conventional cables. Fiber optics are just one of the ways we're working to make your phone service more valuable. That's light conversation from United Tel.

and veal rose 0.5 percent — the first increase this year. Increases in the price of poultry — up 0.9 percent — and eggs — up 3.5 percent — contributed to the advance. Pork prices continued to decline, dropping 1.9 percent.

Fresh vegetables rose 0.7 percent, primarily because of higher lettuce prices.

In transportation, used car prices declined 0.2 percent as attractive financing rates and prices on new cars created a glut in the used car market. Gasoline prices dropped 0.8 percent.

City Attorney Gerald Korman was not at the Tuesday session so after seconding Meyers' motion "for the sake of discussion only," Goldberg said he wanted to speak to the city attorney before he voted and his motion to table the issue until an unspecified time passed unanimously.

After Myers made the motion to fire the building official, Bryant asked what the cause was, saying "you'd better have a really good one."

Myers retorted: "Because you're incompetent, that's why!"

Myers said in making his motion that, "I've come to the conclusion we've no other choice but to hire another building official."

Commissioner Perry Faulkner kept silent Tuesday night while other commissioners were caught up in a shouting match with members of the audience and firing questions and charges at Bryant. During the discussion on the motion he said the job description read earlier with all the things the building official was supposed to be responsible for was never adopted by the commission and he felt the city had not given Bryant an adequate job description.

Myers said he is willing to take the blame for eliminating the second building inspector's job leaving Bryant alone responsible for seeing all the regulations were complied with in site plan development and construction. "Everytime I walked in your office the two of you were sitting at your desks not doing anything."

Bryant explained that "It is normal procedure in any building department for the building inspectors to stay in the office for one hour in the morning and one hour in the afternoon to receive calls from builders and discuss any problems that may have. If you had discussed it with me, I could have explained it."

The commissioners complained that Bryant does not communicate with them and failed to provide the figures to justify the need for the second inspector, but Bryant insisted that he makes up monthly reports on the building department and his secretary gives them to each of the commissioners.

"With your problems with the commission and personality conflicts," Commissioner June Lormann told Bryant, "I wonder how well you would be able to do your job. I think the world of you, but I've made a lot of complaints to you where you told me things were right and they weren't."

Saberhagen Pumps Life Into Royals

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — An expectant father gave new life to the Kansas City Royals.

Bret Saberhagen, a 21-year-old with a grown-up fastball, put aside his jitters Tuesday night in Game 3 of the World Series at Busch Stadium. The right-hander, whose wife Janeane is at Kansas City awaiting the birth of the couple's first child, pitched a six-hitter and beat St. Louis 6-1, narrowing the Cardinals' edge to 2-1.

"Saberhagen pitched a great game," St. Louis manager Whitey Herzog said. "For a kid his age, he can really move the ball around. He has great command of all three pitches."

The best-of-seven series resumes tonight with Kansas City's Bud Black opposing John Tudor in a battle of left-handers.

"We could have lost all three games, and I sure as heck hope Black doesn't pitch as good as Saberhagen," Tudor said.

"I'm going to work as hard as I can, concentrate, and try not to be too fine," Black said. "That's what gets me into trouble."

Saberhagen experienced no problems, unless you count his inability to be with his wife, who watched the game at a friend's house. After the game, he called her from manager Dick Howser's office.

"She's being driven home now," Saberhagen said. "She has some pains, but she's not in labor. One doctor said the baby would come last week and another doctor said the 28th."

"I didn't think about it while I was pitching, but I did between innings and before the game. I've never had a baby, but they tell me you can have pain and not go into labor."

Any knowledge Saberhagen lacks on Game 4 of the World Series will be televised tonight by Orlando's WFTV-9 at 8.

impending fatherhood he makes up in pitching savvy.

He held the Cardinals scoreless long enough to allow Frank White and George Brett to produce the offense. White, responding to the challenge of batting in the cleanup spot, clouted a two-run homer and RBI double. Brett tied a World Series record by reaching base five times in as many plate appearances.

Losing starter Joaquin Andujar pursued the World Series record for whining. Mr. Excuse blamed his performance — possibly his last in a Cardinals uniform — on the umpiring.

"Saberhagen got all the calls on the low outside corners, and I had to come down the middle of the plate," Andujar said.

Kansas City took a 2-0 lead in the fourth inning. Jim Sundberg walked, and one out later Buddy Biancalana reached on a high-chopper infield single. Saberhagen, who had not batted since high school, sacrificed.

Lonnie Smith doubled off diving right fielder Andy Van Slyke's glove, producing two runners.

In the fifth, Brett singled, and White hit the first pitch with a crack that filled the park. The ball landed about 430 feet away, and the game was virtually decided as anyone when I hit a homer," White said.

The Cardinals scored in the sixth on Jack Clark's RBI single, but in the seventh, White doubled home Brett and scored on a single by Biancalana.

"It's not easy to replace a bat like Hal McRae, but Frank has really made the adjustment from hitting sixth all year," Brett said. "He has done quite a job as the cleanup hitter in the Series."

Despite what Brett and White accomplished, however, neither could compare with Saberhagen's performance. In fact, only two words describe how the right-hander pitched:

Oh, baby.

Lyman Spikes 'Noles

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Looking at the scores, you would think Seminole High was a total no show Tuesday night. But that wasn't the case, bud. The Lady Seminoles did everything they could but were just thoroughly dominated by a powerful Lyman High team.

Behind the serving of Kristie Kaiser, and the net play of Kim Forsyth, the Lady Greyhounds rolled to a 15-3, 15-4 victory in Seminole Athletic Conference action at Lyman's multipurpose room.

Lyman clinched a tie for the SAC title with the win as it improved to 8-0 in the league and 16-3 overall. If Lyman wins one of its last two, or if Oviedo loses one, the Lady Greyhounds win the conference. Lyman's next SAC match is Tuesday at home against Lake Howell. That game will be played in the Lyman High gym.

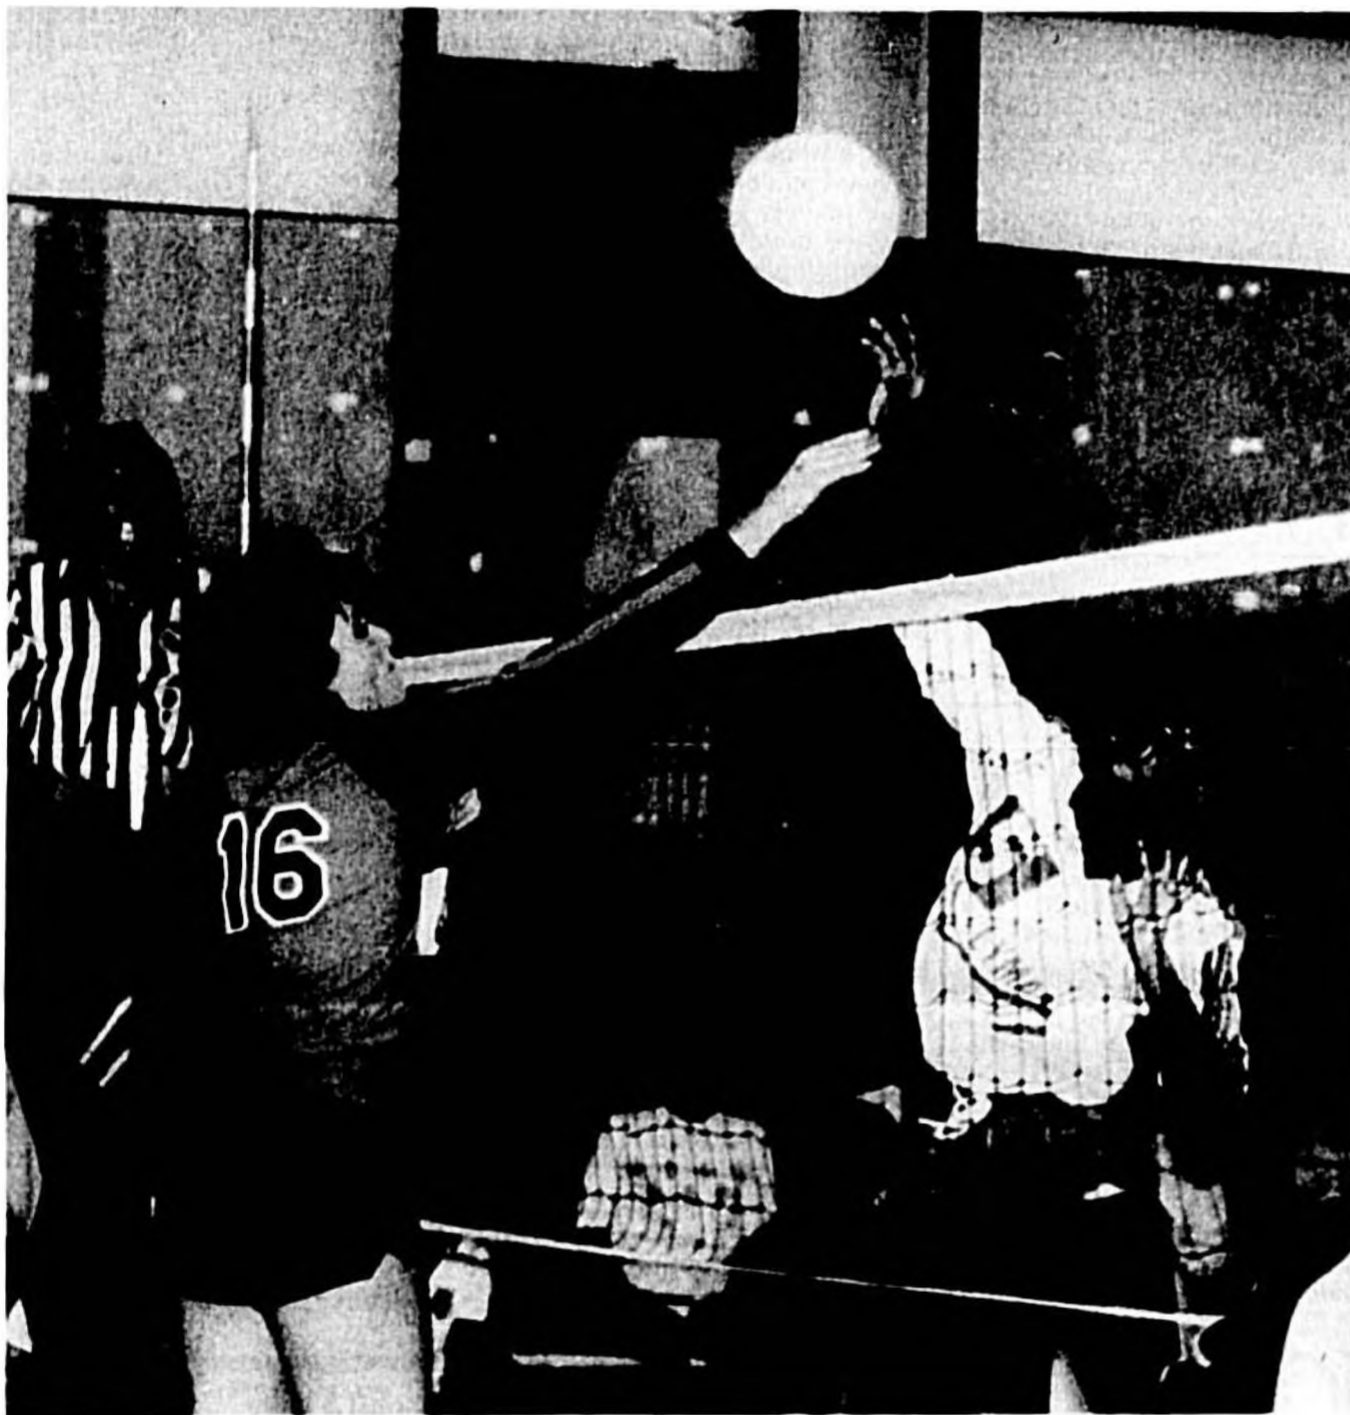

"We're going to do the best we can as a team and look forward to post-season play," Forsyth said. "The tournament (Jacksonville Invitational this past weekend) was good experience. We learned a lot about the competition outside of this area."

Meanwhile, Seminole fell to 2-6 in the conference with its third straight loss. The Lady Seminoles, 5-6 overall, take on Lake Mary Thursday night at 7 at Lake Mary High.

The match got off to a rather slow start with the score tied at 3-3 after a complete rotation. In the early going, Jackie Farr was outstanding at the net for Seminole.

Lyman took a 5-3 lead as Dawn Boyesen served two points and, after a Forsyth spike returned it to Lyman, Kaiser served on with one of the best service strings of the season. Kaiser's hard floating serve accounted for 10 straight points as Lyman won the first game, 15-3.

During the 10-point rally, Forsyth had one good spike and a pair of dinks while Sheila Mandy came up with a good block.

Forsyth was at her intimidating best at the net in game two. With the score tied, 1-1, Kaiser came on to serve nine more points. Three times during the rally, Forsyth blocked Seminole spikes into the ground. Six of Kaiser's serves weren't returned and one was an ace as Lyman built a 10-1 lead.

Another block by Forsyth on Mandy's serve made it 11-1 and Forsyth served a point to make it 12-1.

"I felt really strong at the net tonight," Forsyth said. "It was probably my most dominating game of the season."

Lyman coach Annette Griffin agreed. "Kim was anticipating really well tonight," Griffin said. "It was one of her better matches at the net."

The only rally of the day for Seminole came when Cindy Bengé served three straight points to make it 12-4.

Donna Ball then came on and rifled three serves that the Seminole defense couldn't handle to close out the match.

"Seminole really didn't challenge us," Griffin said. "I've seen them play better. I think the building kind of intimidated them. They like to stand way back when they serve but there's not enough room to do it here (Lyman's multi-purpose room)."

Along with the offensive play of Forsyth and the serving of Kaiser, Lyman is also getting excellent back row play from Ball and also from Jodie Vega and Debbie Skirvin, two players who hadn't seen much action in the early going of the season.

Lady Hawks Are Favored In SAC

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

The first ever championship trophy in a Seminole Athletic Conference athletic event will be handed out Thursday night as Lake Mary High hosts the first SAC Cross Country Championships.

The meet begins at 3:45 p.m. with the coaches meeting which will be followed by the national anthem played by Lake Mary High's band. The first race is the girls junior varsity at 4 followed by girls varsity at 4:30, boys JV at 5 boys varsity at 5:30 and the awards ceremony at 6. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

While the first trophy will be awarded to the top girls team following Thursday's meet, one school already has a place reserved in its trophy case. Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks, the second ranked team in the state (4A) are overwhelming favorites to win the title. Unless there is some kind of catastrophe, Lake Howell will win the SAC.

"I don't see anyone beating Lake Howell," Lake Mary girls coach Mike Gibson said. "Second place should be a good fight. Right now, it looks like Lyman seems to be the stronger team (with Lake Brantley following). Lyman has a good top three."

On the other hand, three schools are fighting to put the first SAC boys title in their trophy case.

Lake Howell, Lake Mary and Lyman are the three contenders with Lake Howell holding a slight edge the past two weeks. But, with Nick Radkewich returning to the lineup for Lyman, it makes it closer between the top three.

"There are three teams that have legitimate shots at it," Lake Mary coach Mark McGee said. "It might come down to a two point meet. It's going to be an exciting race. I don't think there is a favorite. The team that wants it the most is going to win it."

Lake Mary's top two, Ken Rohr and Eric Petersen, are usually among the top 10 individuals with Rohr challenging Seminole High's Billy Penick for the top spot. After the top two, the Rams' have a close pack with Marc Eskin, Anthony Surles, Jeff

Cross Country

Hale and Paul Evans.

Lake Howell's Anthony Howe also figures to be among the top individuals while the Silver Hawks also pack their 2-3-4 runners closely. John Davis, Jeff Van Buskirk and Brent Springhard usually make up the pack with freshman Kavan Howell also playing a key role.

Lyman has a strong top three with Radkewich, Robin Rogers and Mike Mohler and a good number four runner in Kevin Quinn. With a good performance from the top four, the Greyhounds are looking for their number five man to make up.

"It's hard to say who will be the most important guy," McGee said. "It could be anybody on any of the three teams that wins the race. You can't say there's one key person."

Seminole's Penick, one of the top ranked individuals in the race, will be looking to win the first SAC individual crown. For Seminole to challenge for maybe a top three spot, it must also get strong showings from Kelvin Abney, Kelly Faint, David Johnson and Alan Seward.

Lake Brantley and Oviedo don't figure to make a difference in the team race, but they have some of the top individuals. Leading the way for Brantley are David Payne and Jose Calvino while John Newsom and Sandy Putts are the top runners for Oviedo.

Lake Howell's girls dropped their first regular season meet in two years this past Saturday when they finished second to Winter Park at the DeLand Invitational. Winter Park is now the top ranked team in the state. The Lady Hawks were without senior Angie Smith, usually the number three runner, who was out sick.

Lake Howell's Lisa Samocki is the top individual in the county and the only one in the conference to go under 12 minutes this season. Following Samocki in Lake Howell's pack are Martha Fonseca, Jenny Bolt, Mary Fonseca, Rachel Barnes, Bonnie Oliver and Amy Ertel.

Which Is The Toughest And Most Demanding Of Sports?

While in the midst of a competitive season and long hours of training, it's only natural that this question would run through the minds of the athletes.

What is the toughest and most demanding sport known to mankind?

Could it be the brutal and masculine sport of football? Everyone knows how popular this pigskin sport is around the world. Only "macho" guys with a desire to sacrifice their bodies to score six points play this sport.

After all, look at the terms used in describing the sport. A. The game is played on a gridiron, not a football field. B. When the quarterback is thrown for a loss, he is tackled and then sacked. C. And the most obvious occurs when a game ends up in a tie. It's not just called overtime. How could it mean something that only blue-collared workers do? No, it's referred to as sudden death.

Dave Mosure, head football coach at Seminole High, summed up how demanding football was in this manner. "It's unique in that a group of individuals can come together and set aside their own wants and desires for the purpose of a team," Mosure said.

He said it's a sport which the body and mind work overtime. "It gets tough when the players are tired physically. It becomes a game for us when we start to give them mental drills. That aspect alone makes the sport tough."

Another sport which is considered for those with a knack for pain and suffering is wrestling.

Chuck Burgess
SWIMMING WRITER

Wrestling is a sport which requires a lot of intensity and devotion. It also requires mental participation the entire match. The sport involves two individuals (usually male) who try to prove which is the stronger or technically smarter and superior through a series of moves and counters.

Basketball, baseball, track, cross country, hockey, volleyball, and tennis are just a few sports which are considered demanding and vigorous. Could it be any of these? The answer to the question is simply stated. No.

Today in the wake of modern technology to improve athletes abilities and performances, one sport still has changed very little in nature.

Swimming. This activity is done by almost everyone and is essential to life, that is while in water. Not only has it taken a backseat to these so-called tough-guy sports, but it has been overlooked as a rising sport among the young and old.

John Woods, head swim coach of West Orange High and senior coach of the powerful Justus Dolphins of Orlando, agrees with Mosure in that football is tough, but differs with him in the aspect of conditioning.

"While skill sports (football, basketball, baseball, etc.) are going over plays and free throws, swimmers are working on conditioning by swimming lap after lap," Woods said.

The time a competitive swimmer puts in just practicing alone is almost equal to the time a seasoned athlete puts in while performing three years in another sport. Between two practices a day and weight training three times a week, a swimmer, averages approximately 21 hours of practicing a week.

Actually, in 21 hours of training a week a swimmer may cover anywhere from 20-25 miles. This of course is done six days a week, 52 weeks a year, and on the average swimmer depending on his/her ability, 10-15 years.

The practices consist of stroke technique, kicking, pulling, starts, turns and during championship meet preparation mind control is also added.

"As far as the mental aspect of being demanding goes, it's probably the same for all athletes on competition days," Woods said. "However, swimmers go through this mental 'toughness' all year long."

Not only do swimmers find the sport difficult, but dealing with the sacrifices that go along with it may sometimes be hard to handle.

For instance, a football player sacrifices Friday night social life for 10 weeks. After school activities are also out as far as parties, clubs, and friends go.

For swimmers, this battle between social life and practice goes on continuously as long as the swimmer plans to excel in the sport.

"Any sport you play, sacrifices will have to be made. There's always a million other things to do besides what you're doing," Woods said. "Even in this light, swimmers make larger sacrifices because of the year long basis."

Nonetheless, in fairness to all, one point must be made. All sports are tough and no one sport is tougher than the next. However, swimming is one of the most demanding and grueling sports ever known to mankind.

Twelve-year-old Austin Lindsey of Oviedo was named 11-12 Male Swimmer of the Year for the state of Florida.

Lindsey, who swims for Trinity Preparatory School during the high school season and for the Justus Dolphins of Orlando during the rest of the year, received the award while attending a luncheon to honor the best swimmers, both male and female, in their respective age groups this past weekend.

Dunkel Index: Close Losses Elevate Tribe

Sometimes, it's not how big you win, it's how small you lose.

Lake Mary was a 17-point favorite over Spruce Creek last week but lost, 7-6.

Seminole was a 14-point underdog to Seabreeze and lost, 7-0.

The turnaround was enough to make Seminole (135th, 49.0) the highest ranked team in Seminole County.

Lyman, which has won three consecutive games, has jumped by leaps and bounds.

This week in Seminole Athletic Conference games, Seminole is a 4-point choice over Lyman.

Lake Howell and Lake Brantley take Friday off before returning with two tough ones.

Lake Mary is a 6-point pick over Oviedo at the Lions' homecoming.

Cook Of The Week Sanford Native Adds That Extra Special Touch To Parties

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

Our Cook of the Week, Maria Lee Klinger, has a heart so big it belies her petite frame, but those who are on the receiving end of her talents know that she sparkles with ideas and can "rescue" a bride or hostess in distress, turning an otherwise ordinary occasion into a gala event.

Maria loves to prepare parties and buffets for friends, family, co-workers, and anyone who needs that extra special touch to make their celebration a success. A Sanford native, Maria is a 1970 graduate of Seminole High School and credits her Home Economics teacher, Barbara, with influencing her homemaking abilities.

"My high school years were the best years of my life," says Maria. Back then, she says, there were so many school activities to get involved in, there was no time "to get into trouble." Maria served as president of the Future Homemakers of America which, she feels, helped mold her talents. She was also on the swim team for three years, and worked the concession stand for the coach after school.

"Thinking way back, Maria says, "I love to sew, and I can remember making things when I was about 7 years old. By the time I was in high school I was making all my own clothes and still do, when I have the time." Maria loves adding decorative touches to clothing, such as sequins and rhinestones and ruffles and lace.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. "Buddy" Lee, Maria and her brothers, Carl and Stedt, were raised in a rural setting amidst the usual farm animals and pets, but now her dad's property has become a haven for about 50 head of deer. Starting out with three deer about 10 years ago, Maria says, they have since multiplied and people come from all over to see them. Children especially love to pet the fawns and bottle feed them. Mr. Lee's deer farm has become a source of enjoyment for animal lovers and he has been dubbed with the nickname "Deer Buddy."

Maria is a workaholic who likes to keep busy and on-the-go and will tackle almost any project. Married to handsome, 6 foot 4 inch Tom Klinger in 1979, Maria has worked for Southern Bell for 15 years and since the Sanford office is closed, she has been making the 72-mile round trip to Orlando every day for the past three years. Her job as administrative reports clerk helps to keep her "in touch" with people and this is one of the mainstays of her cheerful personality.

After a long day at his job as a rural mail carrier, Maria says, "Tom will often have supper ready for us when I get home at about 7 p.m. We both love to snow ski and belong to the Orlando Ski Club. We also love to dance and take clogging lessons one night a week at the Maitland Civic Center and County and Western Dancing two nights a week at Colonial High School in Orlando."

Maria and Tom have spent several vacations on the slopes in Canada, Utah, Nevada, and Aspen, Maria Klinger enjoys playing 'hostess with the mostest' and turning an ordinary occasion into a gala event. One of her most special hostess roles is entertaining a group of Sanford's grande dames, including her grandmother, Ebba Lee. The 'Birthday Girls,' as the group is affectionately called, are all descendants of the original Swedish settlers brought to the Upsala community by Gen. Henry Shelton Sanford, founder of Sanford.

Col. "Of all the places we've been to," says Maria, "I think the peaceful silence of the snow covered mountains in Aspen is the most beautiful."

In their lovely home west of Sanford, Maria and Tom enjoy looking out at the Wekiva River from their "river room" which is filled with stuffed and mounted game animals. Hunting is one of Tom's favorite activities and their special room is tastefully decorated with trophies of creatures from the wild.

Speaking of her "live" menagerie, Maria laughingly refers to their five acres as a "Noah's Ark." Sharing the Klinger's ark are six basset hounds and a springer spaniel which gather to form quite a vocal welcoming committee as you pull into the driveway. Maria says, "The basset hounds are such lovable dogs, I think every one of them is a reincarnated two year old."

In addition to the dogs, two cats, two geese, four ducks, and several milk goats also take up residence at the Klinger's. Add to that three cows and a calf on the way, and the "ark" is full!

Among Maria's hobbies is an extensive collection of Elvis Presley memorabilia which includes a portrait of the "king" painted on black velvet, and an unusual music box with a miniature figure of Elvis dancing to the tune of "Hound Dog." "It's a real conversation piece that has brought a lot of chuckles," says Maria.

A 9-week course in flower arranging has made Maria quite proficient in creating the most beautiful centerpieces and bouquets for any occasion. Each individual silk flower is carefully formed and colorfully arranged to complement her decor. Maria has often loaned some of her own floral pieces to a bridal reception or a party to add to the festivities.

Maria's warm, personal touch is evident in everything she does. One of her favorite pastimes is decorating photo albums. By adding the appropriate fabric, lace, ribbon etc. to form each personalized album, Maria's finished product makes the nicest gift for a bride, a baby shower, a teenager, or anyone with a proud collection of photographs.

Have you ever wished you were just a little more organized in your daily routine? Well, with a busy schedule like Maria's, she seems to have everything well under control. A room that would be the envy of any homemaker/working gal is Maria's own wardrobe-dressing room combination. Once a small bedroom, Maria added clothes racks, shelves, drawers, a dressing table and cubby holes. There is a place for everything and everything is in its place — and color coordinated!

Even a busy homemaker and career girl like Maria has room in her heart and her day for a very special person and for very special reasons. Maria's 85 year old grandmother, Ebba Lee, is one of a group of ladies affectionately called the "Birthday Girls" who have been friends for many, many years. Most of the ladies are in their 80's and 90's and are Sanford natives who have known each other most of their lives and originally gathered to celebrate each other's birthdays. Maria's great-grandparents were part of the original Swedish community on Upsala Road when, says Maria, "General Sanford gave each settler five acres of land."

Maria's grandmother, who spoke only Swedish until she entered school at the age of six, still has many friendships which have spanned over 70 years. Now that her grandmother is blind, Maria says, "she can't have her friends in for tea or parties the way she used to, so I have the birthday parties in my home. It's my way of saying 'thank you' for all the Kool-Aid parties I had as a kid. She was there when I had parties as a child and could not do it myself, and now I'm here to help her out because she's getting older and can't do it herself."

The Birthday Girls enjoy these times and Maria always tries to set a theme for the parties. "Sometimes I'll send out egg-shaped invitations announcing a "hen party" and have ceramic chickens with hay and flowers for the centerpiece. Another time I had a "good old summertime" theme and sent invitations with turn-of-the-century ladies on the front in long gowns with parasols getting into an old fashioned coach."

A special treat for the ladies was at a Christmas party when Santa came bursting through the door with gifts of fruits, nuts and candies wrapped in a dish towel reminiscent of the gifts they received as children. "It gives them a chance to go back in time and remember," says Maria.

Gov. Graham Proclaims October As Deborah Heart, Lung Month

Gov. Bob Graham has proclaimed October, Deborah Heart and Lung Center Month. In 1984, Deborah Heart and Lung Center treated more than 100 patients from all over the state for heart and lung surgery without cost to them or their families.

This is possible because of 15,000 Floridians, in 45 local Deborah Chapters that help to raise part of 10 million dollars a year for the sole support of the internationally respected Deborah Heart and Lung Center in Brown Mills, New Jersey. The Center started out as a tuberculosis sanatorium in 1922, changing over to heart and lung disease in the 1950's when antibiotics eradicated tuberculosis.

Since its founding as a non-profit, non-sectarian hospital, it has always been the humanitarian policy of Deborah to treat patients without distinction as to race, religion, nationality or ability to pay.

For more information about Deborah Heart and Lung Center/Deborah Hospital Foundation, contact your nearest local chapter or call the Florida Regional Office at (305) 973-6600.

Area Deborah Chapters and their presidents are as follows: Altamonte Springs, Ethyle Brodsky, 831-9170, evenings; Central Orlando, Estelle Mignard, 671-5099, evenings; Sanford, Dominic DeSarno, 323-5152.

Sanford Deborah Chapter Holds Bingo Fund-Raisers

Beginning tonight, Sanford Chapter of Deborah will hold Bingo Night Every Wednesday, starting at 6:30, at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) clubhouse on County Road, 427, in Longwood. For information, call Andy LaMorte, 695-1619.

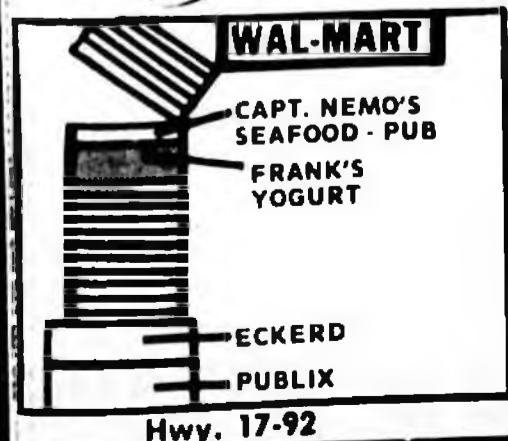

All proceeds will go to Deborah Heart and Lung Foundation, a heart and lungs treatment center, open to all, without the burden of cost to the patient. Since its founding in 1922, no Deborah patient has ever received a bill.

Stage Fright And Medication

DEAR DR. GOTT — I am a violinist with a symphony orchestra. Notwithstanding the relatively minor qualities of the work (as compared to the Boston Symphony, for example), the work does manage to exert a lot of pressure on me, largely because of the demands of our conductor. My biggest annoyance is my head — one or two ferocious headaches a month (probably connected to the menstrual cycle) — and my eyes, which have an aggravating way of going dry at crucial times. With my eyes becoming increasingly sandy and scratchy under bright stage lights, I felt one night that I'd not make it through the rehearsal.

Yoga relaxation techniques and artificial tears are helping my eyes, but nothing seems to touch the headaches. Is there something else I could be doing?

DEAR READER — Although you may be suffering from a common type of muscular-contraction headache, I am going to make an unusual suggestion. Many artists experience a variety of complaints — the worst is stage fright — when they perform. Some experts believe these symptoms develop from an overwhelming stimulation of the nervous system, so that your body tenses and many neurological circuits become jammed. A class of nerve blockers called beta-blockers can help undo the short-circuiting without affecting your thinking or your coordination.

Ask your doctor about taking Inderal, a prescription beta blocker, before a rehearsal or performance. Your headache and dry eyes may disappear. If this suggestion doesn't work, I'd advise you to see a neurologist, who may approach the problem from a different angle.

DEAR DR. GOTT — Twenty-three years ago I had a mastoidectomy. Last October I developed an ear infection. I've been to a specialist who wants to operate and drill the bone out. But a pharmacist told me that different antibiotics could be tried until one was found to heal this particular infection. Can this be done?

DEAR READER — Mastoid operations were common years ago, before antibiotics became available. Occasionally mastoid surgery is necessary today, but most doctors prefer to treat infections with antibiotics. Rather than choosing between your doctor and your pharmacist, obtain another opinion from a qualified otolaryngologist. Perhaps surgery will be necessary, but in your case, the procedure will be elective, so why not take your time about making a decision? Get another opinion.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

Tom Snow is the business manager of the famed Cavendish Club of New York City. Last summer's North American Championships brought him west to Las Vegas. He selected a nice way to bid today's deal and an even nicer way to play it.

Two clubs by East was artificial, asking West to bid a major suit. Snow first doubled to show strength and then cue-bid to force to game. When the double of that cue-bid was passed back around to him, he jumped to five clubs, assuming that his partner would play him for both minors. North was happy to pass.

On the opening lead, Snow won the spade ace and thought as follows: "East has length in both majors and is probably short in clubs. If he has a singleton club and it is the seven, I can't pick up the suit, but what if it is the 10 or nine? A singleton 10 or nine is twice as likely as the singleton queen, so here we go."

He led the jack of clubs. As it happened, West did not cover, and declarer picked up clubs, overtook the third diamond and discarded spades from dummy to make an overtrick. Even if West had covered the jack, Snow would simply have returned to his hand and finessed against West's nine to make 11 tricks and his contract.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY
OCTOBER 24, 1985

Don't be afraid to be a dreamer in the year ahead. Dreams stimulate wishes, wishes fire up ambitions, and ambitions can become realistic, obtainable objectives.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're charismatic today and able to do things in a constructive, dramatic fashion. This will be an enormous asset in selling or in public speaking. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker set instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, Box 1846, Cincinnati, OH 45201.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be patient today, especially if you're waiting for something to develop that spells personal gain. What you're hoping for will be forthcoming.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This is a good day to initiate new projects or enterprises. However, if they are to be successful, solid foundations must be laid in this early stage.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your chances of achieving worthy material objectives continue to look favorable. Keep your sights set high and don't settle for second best.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your philosophical approach can lead to success today. Try to see things as part of the whole and not in a limited or narrow scope.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) A chain of unusual events could make it possible today for you to embark on a joint venture with people whose ideals and ideas harmonize with yours.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Even if it requires modification of your position, it's vital today to maintain compatible relations with individuals who are pertinent to your present plans.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Conditions should be favorable today in matters that affect your work and earnings. However, used, so be perceptive.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you want to stimulate your creative processes, pal around today with those who are imaginative. This will encourage you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Take ample time today to carefully study important matters. The longer you dwell on a subject, the greater your awareness of its ramifications.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Companions will find you delightful to be around today. Your zest for life will emphasize the lighter side of situations they deem worrisome.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) The profit picture you visualize today can become a reality. When you think about money, think positively.

'Bride' Of 21 Years Cheated Out Of Complete China Set

DEAR ABBY: Here's one for the books: Before I was married, I admired my future mother-in-law's china, so she gave us service for 12 for our wedding gift. The set was displayed along with our other wedding gifts at her home.

After we returned from our honeymoon, we picked up our wedding gifts, and I noticed that 10 pieces were missing from our set of china. My mother-in-law promptly explained that she had a party and there were 10 pieces missing from her set, so she had taken some of ours to fill in for those she didn't have. She promised to return ours "soon."

Abby, how long is "soon"? It's been 21 years, and his mother has still not replaced the pieces she took from our set. Whenever I have a party, I have to "borrow" my own china from her. Immediately after, she "borrows" them from me again.

Have you any ideas on how to get my pieces back for keeps? I don't want to appear petty, but this is really irritating.

10 PIECES SHORT
DEAR 10: Your mother-in-law is short more than 10 pieces. But for the sake of peace in the family, on every gift-giving occasion — Mother's Day, Christmas, birthday, etc. — add to her china until she has a complete set.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: A married woman signed "Made a Mistake" wasn't sure whether her third child was fathered by her husband or another man with whom she had an affair following a very brief separation from her husband. You advised her that since the child could be her husband's and they were back together again, for the sake of family harmony she should assume that the child was her husband's.

Abby, please reconsider your advice. There's more at stake than family harmony in situations such as this. Here's my story: I am terminally ill with a hereditary disease, so it's very important to know who my biological father is.

My mother believed it was nobody's business that I was conceived as a result of an affair she had with her uncle. (She was married at the time.) Mother told no one — not her doctor or me. When I became ill, even though Mother was well aware of the genetic significance of my disease, she went with me to the Johns Hopkins Research Hospital, and gave her husband's medical history as that of my father. Only last year, through a third party, I learned that my biological father was her uncle. When confronted, Mother and her uncle both verified this.

There are blood tests available that can positively determine paternity. Please advise your readers that for medical reasons it's important for everyone to know who his biological father is.

DECEIVED IN SEATTLE

DEAR DECEIVED: Thank you for a potentially lifesaving letter.

DEAR ABBY: I had a very serious commitment to a man I loved with all my heart for five years. He was everything to me, and he knew it. It has ended this wish, not mine, and now he refers to our five-year relationship as an "experience" — but I call it a "relationship."

I am very hurt about this terminology, Abby. Would you call living together as man and wife in every sense of the word an "experience" or would you call it a "relationship"?

And can you tell me why he insists that it was an "experience"?

END OF A RELATIONSHIP

DEAR END: I would call it a "relationship," but your friend prefers to call it an "experience" in order to minimize its importance and thus reduce the guilt.

Garden Of The Month

The Garden Club of Sanford Inc. has selected the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hodges, 2512 Clairmont, for the Garden of the Month for October. The selection was made by Shirley Fletcher and Sylvia Huhn, members of the club's Magnolia Circle. The Hodgeses have been Sanford residents for 25 years and they do all their yard work. The grounds feature colorful hydrangeas, hibiscus, roses and begonias.

Jewish Community Expands

Congregation Beth Israel (Sanford Jewish Community) held its Fall social meeting Oct. 14. Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Epstein hosted the get together in their home. This meeting was a milestone in the history of the Congregation because of the large turnout of members and because eight families, new to the Sanford area, attended and joined the Congregation.

The highlight of the evening was a presentation by Mrs. Zaida Siskind of the history and development of the Sanford Jewish Community and Congregation Beth Israel. This history was presented primarily for the benefit of the new members.

Sanford's Congregation Beth Israel was one of the first Jewish organizations in Central Florida.

Founded in the early 1920's as a religious congregation, Beth Israel moved into its own building in 1927. The congregation flourished until the early 1960's, when a declining Jewish population in the greater Sanford area necessitated selling the building. Though without a building, the Congregation has continued to serve the social needs of the Sanford Jewish Community.

Congregation Beth Israel is again expanding and looking forward to becoming a major social and cultural force for the Jewish Community of Greater Sanford. Leaders of the Congregation are anxious to extend a personal welcome to each Jewish newcomer to the area. For further information, please call Doris Stein, President 322-4290.

"It also gives them a chance to be with people their own age. I guess it's because I love and respect my grandmother so much that I enjoy doing this for her and her friends."

For these grand occasions, Maria has lots of good help. "I couldn't do it without Tom, my mother, a couple of cousins, and my aunt. They all help to make these functions a success," she says, "and for days afterward the ladies call or write notes to show their appreciation."

Maria's party menu varies with the theme, but it is usually kept elegantly simple. For the birthday cake, the guest of honor sometimes requests Granny's Pound Cake and Maria dresses it up with cherries and whipped cream. She makes a deli spread which is used for finger sandwiches, and light luncheon salads and desserts are served with old fashioned charm.

Below are some of Maria's party favorites which can be adjusted to suit your needs:

GRANNY'S POUND CAKE
1 pound butter, softened
3 1/2 cups sugar
10 large eggs
4 cups plain flour
2 teaspoons vanilla
Blend butter and sugar together and whip until real creamy. Add one egg at a time, beating well after each addition. Add flour and vanilla, beating well. Pour batter into large tube pan greased with Crisco. (Do not grease if using Teflon pan) Bake at 350° for 1 1/2 hours. Makes a 4 pound cake when done. Melts in your mouth when eaten plain, or decorate to taste.

SAUSAGE BALLS
1 pound sausage meat, hot or regular
2-3 cups Bisquick (depending on how doughy you want it)
8 oz. Cheddar cheese, grated
Knead sausage and Bisquick together. Add grated cheese and mix well. Roll into one inch balls and place on cookie sheet with sides (grease will run). Bake at 350° for 13-15 minutes. Serve as hors d'oeuvres. One batch will make about 40 balls.

TUNA SALAD
2 cans tuna fish
1/2 cup celery, chopped
Relish to taste
3 hard cooked eggs, chopped
2 cups white seedless grapes
1 cup finely chopped pecans
Mayonnaise to taste, about 1/2 cup

Combine all ingredients and serve on a bed of crisp lettuce. Serves 4.

DELI SPREAD
1 can Spam luncheon meat
1 green bell pepper, chopped fine
1 small onion, minced
Put Spam through meat grinder or blender until finely chopped. All ingredients may be put in together to save time. Add mayonnaise, about 1/2 cup, and mix until of spreading consistency. Spread on white, rye, or bread of your choice removing crusts. Cut into small finger sandwiches for easy handling at parties.

7 CUP FRUIT SALAD
1 cup crushed pineapple
1 cup fruit cocktail, drained

1 cup flaked coconut
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup sour cream
1 cup cottage cheese
Blend all ingredients and refrigerate for several hours. Serve on lettuce. Serves 12.

NUTS AND BOLTS
4 cups Cheerios cereal
1 1/2 cups mixed nuts or peanuts

1 1/2 cups seasoned croutons
1 cup pretzel sticks
1/2 cup salad oil
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1/4 teaspoon salt
Mix cereal, nuts, croutons and pretzel sticks and place in ungreased 13x9x2 inch baking pan. Blend remaining ingredients. Pour over cereal mixture. Mix well. Bake, uncovered, in 275° oven 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Makes 8 cups snack.

MANDARIN ORANGE CAKE
1 box yellow cake mix
1/4 cup oil
4 eggs
1 medium can Mandarin oranges, undrained
Combine ingredients, mixing until smooth. Pour batter into prepared sheet cake pan, or two layer pans. Bake at 375° for 20-25 minutes.

FROSTING
1 large box vanilla instant pudding
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 container (8 oz.) Cool Whip topping
Blend together and frost sides and top of layers, or spread evenly on sheet cake. Refrigerate before serving.

Potpourri

Tortilla Casserole Is Perfect For 'Pot-Luck'

Economical, hearty and delicious, this Golden Tortilla Casserole is a perfect family dinner. Inspired by the cooking of sunny Mexico, it's a flavorful combination of creamy dairy foods, spicy chilies, and cool, colorful California cling peaches, that add nutrients as well as flavor.

It's a perfect "pot luck" dish too because it's so easy to prepare. Between layers of fresh tortillas are two delicious fillings. One is simply cottage cheese, sour cream and green onions. The second is made with canned chili beans enlivened with green chilies, olives and the robust flavor of garlic. To top it all off, California cling peach halves add their sunny appearance and flavor.

Served hot and bubbly, this dish will have the family asking for seconds.

GOLDEN TORTILLA CASSE ROLE

1 can (16 oz.) cling peach halves in juice or extra light syrup

1 cup cottage cheese
1/2 cup sour cream
3 green onions, chopped
1 can (15 oz.) chili with beans
1 can (4 oz.) green chilies, chopped
1/2 cup sliced ripe olives
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/4 teaspoon chili powder (optional)

3 tablespoons vegetable oil
6 corn tortillas
1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese
Paprika

Drain peaches reserving juice for another use. Heat oven to 350°F. Mix cottage cheese, sour cream and green onions in small bowl. In separate bowl, mix canned chili, green chilies, olives, garlic powder and chili powder. In frying pan, heat oil. Cook each tortilla on each side. Layer 3 tortillas in bottom of 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Spoon cottage cheese mixture evenly over tortillas. Layer 3 more tortillas and top with chili mixture. Bake 35 minutes. Press peach halves into top of chili and sprinkle with cheese and paprika. Return to oven for about 5 minutes or until cheese is melted and peaches are hot. Makes 6 servings.

ALOHA LOAF

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1/2 cup mashed ripe banana
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 can (8 oz.) crushed pineapple in its own juice

1/2 cup shredded coconut
Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs; mix well. Stir in banana. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Add to creamed mixture; mix well. Fold in undrained pineapple and coconut. Pour into greased and floured 9x5-inch loaf pan. Bake at 350°F., 1 hour 10 minutes or until tests done. Let stand 10 minutes. Remove from pan to cool. 1 loaf.

INCREDIBLE! GREEN BEAN AND MUSHROOM QUICHE
8 servings

For the utmost in convenience, this delicious brunch entree combines eggs, vegetables, milk and cheeses all in one dish! And, no pastry is needed since it forms its own "crust" while baking. Your guests will never guess how easy it is to make, because it's party-pretty looks belie its simplicity.

1 package (20 oz.) frozen French-cut green beans, thawed and well drained.

1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
2 tablespoons instant minced onion

1 cup (4 oz.) shredded mozzarella cheese
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
12 eggs
1 1/2 cups buttermilk baking mix

2 cups milk
1/2 cup dry sherry, apple juice or water
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 can (2.8 oz.) French-fried onions

In greased 13x9x2" baking dish, layer beans, mushrooms and instant minced onion. Sprinkle with mozzarella cheese.

In large mixing bowl at medium speed, beat cream cheese until smooth. Beat in eggs. Add baking mix, milk, sherry and salt. Beat until smooth. Pour over vegetables and cheese. Bake in preheated 375°F. oven until puffed and knife inserted near center comes out almost clean, about 40-50 minutes. Sprinkle evenly with French-fried onions. Continue baking until onions are lightly browned and knife inserted near center comes out clean, about 4-5 additional minutes. Let stand 5 minutes before serving.

FETA CHEESE PUFFS

1/2 cup margarine
1/2 cup (2 ozs.) crumbled feta cheese
1 cup flour
3 tablespoons cold water

1 cup (6 ozs.) crumbled feta cheese
1 egg
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
Combine margarine and cheese, mixing until well blended. Stir in flour until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Sprinkle with water while mixing lightly with a fork. Trim dough to 1/4-inch thickness; cut with 3-inch round cookie cutter. Place on ungreased cookie sheet.

Combine remaining ingredients; mix well. Spoon approximately 1 teaspoon cheese mixture onto each dough round. Fold dough in half; press edges to seal. Bake at 350°, 25 minutes.

FETA SPINACH PIE

1 dozen
3 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1 10-oz. pkg. frozen chopped spinach, cooked, drained
1 cup (8 ozs.) crumbled feta cheese

Dash ground nutmeg
Pastry for 1-crust 9-inch pie
1 tablespoon margarine, melted
Combine eggs, milk, spinach, cheese and nutmeg; mix well. On lightly floured surface, roll pastry to 12-inch circle. Place in 9-inch pie plate. Turn under edge; flute. Fill with spinach mixture; drizzle with margarine. Bake at 350°, 40-45 minutes or until set. Cool 5 minutes.

GRECIAN MACARONI BAKE

1/2 cup fresh bread crumbs
1/2 cup (2 ozs.) grated parmesan cheese
2 cups (7 ozs.) elbow macaroni, cooked, drained
1 1/2 cus (8 ozs.) crumbled feta cheese

1/4 cup margarine, melted
2 cups milk
4 eggs, beaten

Combine crumbs and parmesan cheese; sprinkle half of mixture into greased 10x6" baking dish. Combine macaroni, feta cheese and margarine; spoon over crumb mixture. Top with remaining crumb mixture. Combine milk and eggs; pour over crumb mixture. Top with additional cheese, if desired. Bake at 350°, 30 minutes. 4 servings

Microwave Magic

Peanut Brittle
Favorite Treat
For Halloween

At Halloween, the goblins, young and old, big and little, expect homemade treats. Let your microwave oven help you with this time consuming task. Let some of the goblins help with the preparations too. It can turn into family fun and one that can be repeated year after year.

These recipes have been tested on a 700 watt microwave oven. If your oven has fewer watts the timings may need to be increased.

Remember that microwaves are attracted to sugars and fats and do cook quickly. It is a good idea to use minimum time and add more if needed.

Have hot pads and pot holders handy as the containers do get very hot from transference of heat and sugar syrups.

Candies cook faster on days when it is less humid. Store all goodies in air tight containers. Have fun and happy Halloween. Everyone's favorite.

PEANUT BRITTLE
MICROWAVE

- 1 cup raw peanuts
- 1 cup sugar
- Dash salt
- 1/2 cup white corn syrup
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 teaspoon butter
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- Mix peanuts, sugar, salt, and syrup together. Cook at high 100% power 7-8 minutes. Add vanilla and butter, continue cooking at high for 2-3 minutes. Mixture should be darkened. Add baking soda and stir quickly. Pour out on lightly greased cookie sheet. Let cool and break into pieces.

The effort is well worth it if you like popcorn balls and caramel corn.

PEANUT POPCORN BALLS

- 1 batch of popcorn (take out all old maids)
- 1 package of caramels (14 ounces)
- 1 tablespoon of butter
- 1 1/2 cups of salted peanuts
- 3 tablespoons of water
- Put the popcorn and peanuts

in a big bowl. Mix them together. Unwrap the caramels. Put the caramels, water and butter in another bowl. Set the microwave on 85% power. Heat the caramels, water and butter for 3 minutes. Now stir it. Heat the caramels for 3 more minutes, or until melted. Stir one more time. Pour the caramel mix over popcorn and peanuts. Stir it well. Make sure that all the popcorn and peanuts are covered with caramel.

Now wet your hands and make some popcorn balls.

POPCORN BALLS

- 2 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 1/2 cups hot water
- 1/2 cup dark corn syrup
- 2 teaspoons vinegar
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 12 cups popped popcorn

Combine sugar, hot water, corn syrup and vinegar in 3 quart casserole. Microwave 100% power 35-40 minutes or until hard crack stage (300-310F). Syrup separates into hard, brittle threads when small amount is dropped into cold water, stir 3-4 times. Stir in vanilla. Pour syrup over popcorn, stirring to coat. Quickly shape into balls, with buttered hands. Place on wax paper; cool. Wrap with plastic wrap. It helps to have popcorn slightly warm.

TOASTED NUTS

- 1 cup of nuts
- Sprinkle nuts on paper plate.
- Cook on high for 2 or 3 minutes.

Marshmallows and chocolate make great easy treats that almost everyone enjoys.

CHOCOLATE

- MARSHMALLOW TREATS
- 2 graham cracker squares
- 1 marshmallow (regular size)
- 4 small squares of a chocolate candy bar

Put 4 small squares of chocolate on a graham cracker. Place a marshmallow on top of the chocolate. Put this on a paper plate and microwave on 85% (med-high) for 30 seconds. Top with another graham cracker.

CHOCOLATE COVERED MARSHMALLOWS

- 1 cup chocolate chips
- 1/4 cup shortening (crisco type)
- 2 cups chopped nuts
- 1 package large marshmallows
- 50 wooden picks (toothpicks)
- Place chocolate chips and shortening in 2 cup measure. Microwave 50% power 1 1/2-3 1/2 minutes or until chips melt or soft. Stir until smooth. Place nuts in shallow dish. Insert pick into each marshmallow. Dip in chocolate to cover. Roll in nuts. Set on wax paper. Let stand until firm.

What would Halloween be without bobbing for apples and caramel apples?

CARAMEL APPLES

- 1 package of caramels (14 ounces)
- 5 apples
- 2 tablespoons of water
- 5 sticks

Wash and dry each apple. Poke a stick into each apple. Butter a cookie sheet. Unwrap the caramels. Put the caramels and water into a deep bowl. Set the microwave on 85% power (med-high). Heat for 3 minutes. Now stir it. Heat for 3 more minutes, or until it is melted. Dip the apples in melted caramels. Put them on the cookie sheet.

Microwave
Classes Offered

With microwave ovens vastly becoming the way of today, the Rich Plan, a division of Rich-United Corporation, is offering free microwave classes to the public.

Here are a few examples of what can be learned at just one class. Use a damp cloth to clean the inside of your microwave, never a scratchy cleaner or pad. For food odors in your microwave oven, try boiling one cup of water with one or two tablespoons of lemon juice in the oven for a few minutes. Wax paper is best used for covering most any dish in place of aluminum foil.

Microwave classes are held every Tuesday evening beginning at 7 p.m. in the Rich Plan Frozen Food Center in the Altamonte Mall, second level next to Sears.

For more information, call the Rich Plan at 322-3663 and ask for marketing. Space is limited. Reservations are needed.

The Rich Plan in Sanford is a personalized home shopping service, providing fine quality foods and products to families across Florida for 25 years.

But Prefers America

The French Chef Goes To Italy

By Joan Hanauer UPI TV Reporter NEW YORK (UPI) — Julia Child is back from her cook's tour of Italy and happy to report she found Italian cooking unpolluted by nouvelle cuisine.

"In France it's hard to get a good plain meal any more," she said, "but in Italy I didn't run into any nouvelle cuisine."

The woman who taught America the art of French cooking went to Italy so that, from Oct. 28 through Nov. 1, she could give viewers of ABC's "Good Morning America" a sample of cooking in Parma, Ravenna and Comacchio, Bologna, Florence and Siena.

"I just decided I'd like to go to Italy," she said. "I always pick places I'd like to go to. I'd like to do England next time, and then perhaps Spain."

With all her gallivanting, she still says that when it comes to eating, there's no place like home.

"I may be chauvinistic," she said, "but I don't think there is any better cooking."

"America is very exciting. Educated people are going into the food business. No other country is taking wine and food and the profession of preparing it as seriously as we do. It's becoming a real profession, like architecture. In contrast to France, where being a chef is a blue collar job, in America it is getting to be a mortar-board college degree job.

"Of course, there are exceptions. Just when I was thinking everything was wonderful, I went to this motor court in northern Maine. I have never had such awful food in my life."

If she has a criticism of American cuisine, it is the tendency toward trendiness.

"Right now everything has to be American," she said. "I'm getting tired of mesquite and all that stuff — everything raw inside and burned outside — but we'll get over that."

"I don't think there is any one thing that is American food. We are such a diverse nation."

"What is healthy is that there are so many people getting interested in food. Just go into the average supermarket now — all the different things you can find. Twenty-five years ago there were no leeks or shallots and hardly any real lettuce. It's amazing what we have now."

Child doesn't deny fast food. "I don't think fast food has to be bad food. I know I would rather have lunch at MacDonald's than go on an airplane and have lunch there. There are times — when you've been driving, perhaps — when you want to go to a good fast-food restaurant where you know what it's going to be like."

In her reports on Italian cooking for "Good Morning America," Child will explore the northern Italian cuisine of Emilia-Romagna and Tuscany where the dishes are quite different from the southern Italian staples emphasizing tomato sauces.

She does not do any cooking on the show, as she did for her "French Chef" show on PBS, but instead interviews local cooks about their specialties.

"I tried to get people who spoke English," she said, "but the Italians are always awfully nice about trying to communicate. We had an awfully good time, no disasters and everyone on the crew got along very well. We ate so well, it kept everyone in good humor."

Kick Off The Season With Winning Foods At Game-Time Party

For ardent fans of any team, now is a popular time for entertaining either before or after the big game.

Pre-game get-togethers and post-game victory celebrations call for something extra special in the menu department.

BAKED CHICKEN AND PEARS

1 can (29 oz.) Bartlett pear halves
 ¼ cup butter or margarine
 12 broiler-fryer chicken parts
 1 teaspoon salt
 ½ teaspoon pepper
 ½ teaspoon each tarragon and savory, crushed
 ¼ cup white wine
 2 tablespoons white wine vinegar
 Ground cinnamon (optional)
 Drain pears; reserve ¼ cup liquid. Melt butter in large baking pan. Roll each chicken part in butter to coat; arrange in pan. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, tarragon and savory. Combine reserved pear liquid, wine and vinegar; pour over chicken. Bake at 350°F. 40 minutes. Sprinkle pears with cinnamon; arrange in baking pan with chicken. Baste chicken and pears with pan juices. Bake 15 minutes longer or until chicken is done. Remove to serving platter. Makes 6-8 servings.

KICKOFF PUNCH

¼ teaspoon whole cloves
 1 2-inch piece cinnamon stick
 1 quart water
 15 tea bags or ½ cup loose tea
 ¼ cup sugar
 1 quart apple juice
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 Lemon slices and long cinnamon sticks for garnish

Add spices to water and bring to full rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add tea while water is still bubbling. Brew about 4 minutes. Strain. Add sugar; stir until dissolved. Add juices. To reheat for serving, place over low heat. Do not boil. Garnish with lemon slices and cinnamon sticks. Makes about 2 quarts.

VICTORY TEA PUNCH

½ cup lemon-flavored iced tea mix
 2-4 tablespoons sugar
 1 tablespoon bitters
 3 cups cold water
 1 cup orange-flavored liqueur*
 2 cans (12 oz. each) lemon-lime carbonated drink, chilled
 1 small orange, sliced

Combine tea mix, sugar, bitters and water. Stir until sugar is dissolved, then add liqueur. Chill. When ready to serve, pour over ice in large pitcher. Add carbonated drink and garnish with orange slices. Makes 7½ cups or about 10 servings.

HERBED CHICKEN AND RICE

¼ cup olive oil
 12 broiler-fryer chicken parts
 1 teaspoon salt
 ½ teaspoon pepper
 2 red peppers, chopped
 1 green pepper, chopped
 1 small onion, minced
 1 clove garlic, minced
 ½ teaspoon each basil and thyme, crushed
 ½ cup strong brewed tea
 ¼ cup lemon juice
 2 packages (5 oz. each) yellow rice mix

In large skillet,* heat oil to medium temperature. Add chicken and cook, turning, about 20 minutes or until brown on all sides. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add red and green peppers, onion and garlic; cook about 5 minutes. Skim off oil and discard. Sprinkle chicken with basil and thyme. Mix together tea and lemon juice and pour over ingredients in skillet. Reduce heat to medium low and simmer, uncovered, about 15 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. While chicken is cooking, prepare yellow rice mix according to package instructions. Remove vegetables and combine with cooked yellow rice mix; spoon onto serving platter. Arrange chicken over rice. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

*If large chicken parts are used, use 2 skillets and increase oil to ½ cup; divide other ingredients equally between pans.

PEAR OATMEAL CAKE

1 can (16 oz.) Bartlett pear halves
 Water
 ½ cup quick-cooking rolled oats
 ¼ cup butter or margarine
 ¾ cup packed brown sugar
 1 egg
 ¾ cup flour
 ½ teaspoon each baking soda, baking powder and ground cinnamon
 ¼ teaspoon each salt and ground ginger
 1 tablespoon brandy (optional)
 Broiled Frosting
 Drain pears; remove liquid. If necessary, add water to reserved liquid to equal ¼ cup; heat to boiling. Stir in rolled oats and butter; let stand 15 minutes. Add brown sugar and egg; blend well. Combine remaining dry ingredients; add to oatmeal mixture with brandy. Stir only until moistened. Pour into greased and floured 9-inch flan pan.* Bake at 350°F. 25 minutes or until wooden pick inserted near center comes out clean. Cool in pan on rack. When ready to serve, top with pear halves and Broiled Frosting; broil about 5 inches from heat about 2 minutes or until frosting bubbles. Makes 10 servings.

Broiled Frosting: Combine ½ cup chopped walnuts, 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons packed brown sugar and 1 tablespoon half-and-half. Makes ½ cup.

*A 9-inch round cake pan can be substituted for the flan pan. Remove cake from pan when cool; place on heat-proof serving plate. Prepare topping as above.

Serve Herbed Chicken And Rice after the game is over.

Sip And Run

Drinks Shape Up Breakfast Habits

Breakfast-skipping is prevalent in our eat-and-run society. Some people think that by cutting out the morning meal they will lose weight or reduce their calorie intake. Others say they just don't have time for breakfast or they don't like traditional breakfast foods.

If you are one of those whose breakfast habits need shaping up, try this selection of quick breakfast drinks that offer a variety of nutrients. The backbone of these morning drinks is milk, a rich source of calcium.

Morning is the most common time for milk drinking, and these quick beverages should appeal to a variety of tastes. Note, too, that the drinks can be made with the milk of your choice — whole milk, lowfat milk or skim milk. Milk and vanilla yogurt are combined with fresh orange chunks, eggs and a touch of honey to make a frothy breakfast drink. Whirl the ingredients in a blender, then sip the drink with a bran muffin to round out the morning meal.

A blend of fruit and juices is mixed with milk, eggs and spices to create another breakfast beverage. The sweet tang of apple juice makes this an appealing eye-opener.

On a chilly morning, a hot beverage made with chocolate milk, eggs and orange juice will give you a lift. After blending the ingredients, heat to serving temperature.

These tasty beverages, providing a variety of nutrients, are an encouragement to have breakfast.

ORANGE VANILLA DRINK
1 large orange, peeled, seeded, cut-up
1 carton (8 oz.) vanilla yogurt
1 cup cold milk
2 eggs
2 tablespoons honey
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
Orange slices, if desired
Place orange in blender container; cover. Purée until smooth. Add remaining ingredients. Blend until well combined. Serve immediately in tall glasses, garnished with orange slices.

PEAR APPLE DRINK
1 can (16 oz.) pear halves, drained
2 cups cold milk
1 can (6 oz.) frozen apple juice concentrate
2 eggs
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
Place pear halves in blender container; cover. Purée until smooth. Add remaining ingreredients. Blend until well combined. Serve immediately in tall glasses.

CHOCOLATE ORANGE DRINK
2 cups chocolate milk
2 eggs
¾ cup orange juice
Place chocolate milk and eggs in blender container; cover. Blend until combined. Gradually blend in orange juice. Serve immediately in tall glasses.

VARIATION: To serve warm, heat in 1-quart saucepan over medium heat, stirring frequently, until warm. Serve immediately.

Quick drinks encourage breakfast.

Main Dish Salad

Just like the people it pleases, pasta comes in all shapes and sizes. National Pasta Week, Oct. 4-13, offers a reminder that this trendy product provides variety as well as nutrition to American diners of the 80's. Far beyond the realm of spaghetti and meatballs, today's enriched macaroni varieties provide good sources of B vitamins plus the basics for appealing, economical meals. Hot or cold, with stir-ins or sauces, as a main course or side dish, pasta salads are particularly versatile for spanning the seasonal gap from warm to cool weather.

Surprisingly, history indicates that the Chinese were among the first pasta fans — as far back as the Shang dynasty 3,500 years ago. However, most of us think of Italy when we think of pasta. This staple of that sunny Mediterranean peninsula is manufactured there in over 600 shapes. The hot, dry climate is perfect for raising amber durum, the extra firm wheat that produces the finest quality pasta.

Here is just one pasta salad idea from the Betty Crocker Kitchens. Because it features the convenience of Hamburger Helper main dish mix combined with other popular ingredients, it promises busy cooks a quickly prepared, deliciously hearty entrée for fall lunches and dinners.

CHEESEBURGER MACARONI SALAD

1 pound ground beef
1 package Hamburger Helper mix for cheeseburger macaroni
¾ cups hot water
¾ teaspoon pepper
1 medium tomato, chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
1 medium green pepper, cut into ¼-inch strips
1 can (16 ounces) cut green beans, drained
½ cup French salad dressing
Lettuce leaves
Cook and stir ground beef in 10-inch skillet until brown; drain. Stir in sauce mix, macaroni, water and pepper. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Reduce heat; cover and simmer, stirring occasionally, 15 minutes. Uncover and cook 5 minutes longer, cool 5 minutes. Place tomato, onion, green pepper, green beans and salad dressing in large salad bowl; toss with ground beef mixture. Serve immediately or, if desired, cover and refrigerate until chilled, at least 4 hours. Serve on lettuce, 6 servings.

Design A Dazzling Dessert With Basic Velvet Crumb Cake

Picture yourself as the artist as you plan, compose and — with a grand flourish — unveil a spectacular dessert to dazzle your audience. No one will ever suspect that you designed your dessert from the most basic of cake recipes plus fruit pie filling.

Whether it's an everyday meal or a special occasion, these "basics" are the beginning of many masterpiece desserts. Tall parfaits with their striking layered look. A European-style torte, so glamorous yet so easy to prepare. America's favorite upside-down cake. And pudding cake with its mysterious, almost magical way of baking.

If you're in a creative mood and picture yourself designing other marvelous creations, write for your free recipe leaflet: "Apple and Cherry Pie Filling — The Secret Ingredients." Western New York Apple Growers and New York Cherry Growers, Dept. AC, Box 350, Fishers, NY 14453.

Begin with this traditional favorite made with Bisquick baking mix. Featured in recipe booklets and on the box of Bisquick since the 1950s, the recipe for Velvet Crumb Cake is the foundation for all the delectable desserts on this page. A good cake is so basic as this is every dessert designer's dream!

VELVET CRUMB CAKE
Heat oven to 350°
1 1/2 cups biscuit baking mix
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup milk or water
2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
Grease and flour square pan, 8x8x2", or round layer pan, 9x11 1/2". Beat all ingredients on low speed, scraping bowl constantly. 30 sec. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally, 4 min.
Pour into pan.
Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 30 to 35 min.
"Just a simple cake," you'll say, as your guests rave over this tasty apple creation. The apple freshness baked into this dessert makes each bite a flavor feast.

UPSIDE-DOWN APPLE CAKE A LA MODE
Heat oven to 350°
1/2 cup packed brown sugar
1 tablespoon margarine or butter
1 can (21 oz.) apple pie filling
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
Velvet Crumb Cake
1 quart vanilla ice cream
Grease and flour square pan, 9x9x2". Sprinkle brown sugar evenly in pan; dot with margarine. Spread 1/2 can of the pie filling over brown sugar. Stir cinnamon into remaining pie filling; reserve.
Prepare Velvet Crumb Cake as directed. Pour over pie filling. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 30-35 min. Loosen edges of cake from sides of pan; invert on heatproof platter. Let stand 2 min. before removing pan.
Spoon reserved pie filling over each serving; top with ice cream. Serve immediately. Makes 9 servings.

Old-world traditions come alive with this classic torte — flavor-rich with apples, nuts, spices and sour cream. Bake the torte in a square or round pan, and make it your masterpiece for a special dinner.

DUTCH APPLE TORTE
Heat oven to 350°
Velvet Crumb Cake
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 can (21 oz.) apple pie filling
1 cup dairy sour cream
Grease and flour square pan, 8x8x2", or round pan, 9x1 1/2". Prepare Velvet Crumb Cake as directed except — add cinnamon and nutmeg. Stir nuts into batter. Pour into pan.
Bake as directed. Cool 10 min; remove from pan and cool completely. Carefully split cake to make 2 layers.
Spread bottom layer with 1/2 can of the pie filling; top with second layer. Spread remaining pie filling over top; frost sides with sour cream. Serve immediately. Refrigerate no longer than 4 hours before serving. Refrigerate any remaining torte. Makes 8 servings.

These parfaits are equally picturesque when made with cherry or apple pie filling. Serve in parfait glasses, in tall glasses or in any other attractive stoneware that shows off your work of art.

BLACK FOREST PUDDING CAKE
Heat oven to 350°
1 package (6 oz.) semisweet chocolate chips
Velvet Crumb Cake
1 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
1 can (21 oz.) cherry pie filling
Melt 2 tablespoons of the chocolate chips; cool slightly. Grease and flour square pan, 9x9x2". Prepare Velvet Crumb Cake as directed except — add melted chocolate chips. Pour into pan.
Heat water and sugar to boiling, stirring occasionally; remove from heat. Add remaining chocolate chips; stir until melted. Carefully pour over bottom in pan (do not stir).
Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 35 to 40 min. Spread filling over cake while warm; serve immediately. Makes 9 servings.
Butterscotch and Apple Pudding CAKE: Substitute butterscotch flavored chips for the chocolate chips and apple pie filling for the cherry pie filling.

Nature Artist

Sanford artist Faye Siler, one of the co-chairman for the St. Johns River Festival art show, will exhibit her acrylics, watercolors and oil paintings. A member of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association, she has exhibited in many art shows and is known for her charming wildlife paintings.

Paintings In Show

Ashby Jones of Sanford will exhibit oil paintings in the St. Johns River Festival this weekend. A past officer of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association, he studied under E.B. Stowe and at Seminole Community College. He has won gold and silver medals for his paintings at the Golden Age Games.

Messages:

...From Jack Horner, President Greater Sanford Chamber Of Commerce

The Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Sanford-Seminole Art Association cordially invites residents of Sanford and surrounding communities to attend the St. Johns River Festival Arts and Crafts Show on the weekend of Oct. 26 and 27 at Fort Mellon Park on the lakefront.

A very good response has been received from exhibitors of arts and crafts which ensures an abundant array of beautiful and interesting works to see and enjoy.

In addition, there will be food, antique cars, entertainment and a special exhibit of art works created by students including pre-school, kindergarten through high school, and Seminole Community College.

Jack Horner

There will be entertainment and fun for the whole family.

Fort Mellon Park and beautiful Lake Monroe is an ideal setting for a show of this kind. Visitors can stroll leisurely past more than 100 exhibits, plus live entertainment, an antique car show, Mountain Men teepees, and a demonstration of pioneer days skills.

With your support, we plan to work diligently until the St. Johns River Festival is one of the finest arts and craft shows in Florida.

Bring the family and after seeing the sights, relax and enjoy a reasonably priced barbecue dinner — take-outs available.

...From Robert Garcia, President Sanford-Seminole Art Association

The Sanford-Seminole Art Association celebrates its 26th season this year and continues to support the cultural growth of the community. The organization was established in 1959 to promote a friendly and inspiring atmosphere among those who are interested in creative art and its appreciation and to develop a civic interest in all phases of art.

These goals remain the same and the total membership is dedicated to the realization of them.

For the last 12 years the Art Association has sponsored the Fall for Art Show on the last weekend in October and has been dedicated to bringing an exceptional display of fine art to Sanford for the community's enjoyment.

In order to assure that each year the show would be better than the past, it became obvious that the Art Association must join forces with the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce for increased promotion and to expand the scope of the show from a fine arts exhibit to a family festival.

This collaboration will result in the first annual St. Johns River Festival, which will continue to feature the Fall for Art exhibit while expanding to include several categories of crafts, school art displays, improved refreshments, entertainment and fun for all the family.

A Glass Act

Ralph Russell of 801 Hays Drive, Sanford, holds decorative stained glass he will display at the festival. He has won numerous awards at art shows. A member of the Sanford Seminole Art Association, he has worked with glass for more than six years.

To Exhibit

Tracy Wight, who teaches drawing and painting and ceramics for the Adult High School program at Seminole Community College, will exhibit acrylic and mixed media and clay crafts at the festival. She is a member of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association.

Rules For Exhibitors

1. Each exhibitor must display at least six works in selected category. All work must be original, rendered since 1984, and not have received an award at previous FFA Shows. Art reproduced from works of old or new masters, advertisements, and widely publicized photography is NOT considered original and may not be shown. Rules committee reserves the right to request removal of any exhibit or individual work not adhering to show rules or which might offend the viewing public, such as suggestive nudity.

2. Two dimensional work must be framed and/or matted unless displayed in a portfolio.

3. Not eligible for exhibit are art supplies, candles, ceramics cast from commercial molds, commercially manufactured jewelry and leather items, commercial photographers soliciting sales, novelty shell craft, picture frames, popstole stick crafts, velvet paintings, or any work the jurying committee considers not

In keeping with the overall quality and theme of the festival.

4. Spaces are 12 by 10 feet with only one exhibitor per space. Each exhibitor will be furnished and must display a 9 by 12 card bearing artists name, category, hometown and space number. Ribbons or awards received at other shows may not be displayed.

5. All cars must be out of display area by 9:30 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. Judging will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday; ribbons will be presented on completion of judging and monetary awards distributed on Sunday.

6. Each exhibitor is responsible for collecting 6 percent Florida Sales Tax and for remitting same to the Department of Revenue.

7. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age.

8. To be eligible for awards or consideration for future shows, artists must display both days. No stand-in exhibitors will be permitted.

9. Artists who received Best in Show or Best in Category awards in the 1984 FFA Show need not submit slides with their application.

10. Application acceptance is a commitment to show and no refunds will be made for cancellations.
