

PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT FOR RAILROAD STRIKE LOOMS ON THE HORIZON

Heads of Unions and Executives Will Meet the Labor Board

PUBLIC LOOKS ON AND PUBLIC WILL NOT BE GROUND BETWEEN MILL STONES ANY LONGER

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Hopes for a peaceful settlement of transportation crisis was brighter today with the agreement by rail executives and Brotherhood strike leaders to respond to summons of Labor Board for open conference here next Wednesday on wage and working rules dispute. While Brotherhood chiefs stated their willingness to appear, it was indicated they had made plans for the suspending of the strike program pending negotiations. The Board's action virtually means there will be no strike October 30 unless the unions should choose to openly defy the government for it is hardly probable a decision will be rendered by the board before that date. Hearing will be open to the press and public and with more than two hundred railroads and approximately thirty unions involved either directly or indirectly probably will last several days.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.—The United States railroad labor board probably will take no immediate action if trainmen on the International and Great Northern carry out their announced intention of striking at noon today, members of the board stated this morning.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.—The government today moved to prevent a railroad strike and to enforce obedience by both unions and roads of decrees of the United States Railroad Labor Board, the board formally announcing that it had assumed full jurisdiction in the rail crisis and ordering the workers not to strike pending a conference of union heads and rail chiefs which it called for October 26th.

A decision from this conference will not be announced until after October 30, the scheduled strike date, board members said, declaring that in this way a walkout would be averted unless the unions defied the board's orders not to strike pending a ruling. The action was taken following receipt from Washington of information that every interested branch of the government would back the board in its attempts to settle the rail difficulties, members declared.

While both carriers and unions promptly announced they would comply with the order citing them to appear before the board next Wednesday, W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, one of the organizations which has called a strike, in a statement given out in Cleveland, asked by what authority anyone could compel a man to work, and pointed out that the right to strike had been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

At the same time trainmen of the International and Great Northern, a cross-Texas road, prepared to carry out their plans to strike tomorrow, and the maintenance-of-way and the firemen's unions, representing 400,000 rail workers, announced here that they would join the proposed walk-out October 30. These two groups are part of the 11 unions, numbering three-fourths of the nation's rail employees, which had voted to strike, but had not issued a strike call.

Besides stepping into the breach between the carriers and the five unions which was called to strike—the trainmen, the switchmen, the engineers, the firemen, and the conductors—the labor board summarily ordered the Tremont and Gulf Railroad, a sixty-seven mile line in Louisiana, to rescind its order installing an "open shop" effective at 8 o'clock tonight.

Whatever it is that afflicts congress, it would be fine if our speech-maniacs could catch it.

SOUTHEASTERN ROADS ONLY REFUSE TO CUT RATE TO LEGION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Railroads of the Southeastern territory will not give a rate of one cent a mile, as will the roads in other sections, for the American Legion's national meeting in Kansas City. This information came today to Senator Harris, of Georgia, and to H. Howard of the Southeastern Passenger Association in Atlanta. Mr. Howard said: "Southeastern carriers have given careful and mature consideration to the request of the American Legion of reduced rates to Kansas City, but do not feel that under existing conditions they can afford to authorize so low a base as one cent per mile. Certain lines operating in border territory, a majority of which have rails extending beyond the Ohio or Mississippi rivers, have published the cent a mile rate in order to avoid complications incident to carrying varying basis on different parts of the system."

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY IN FOR TROUBLE, EMPEROR'S PLAY FOR FORMER THRONE AND FLIES INTO BURGENLAND

VIENNA, Oct. 2.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary, arrived at Oedenburg, Burgenland, Friday afternoon in an airplane from Switzerland, according to an Oedenburg message today, and reported to be proceeding toward Budapest escorted by Oedenburg troops. A provisional government has been formed in Burgenland in ex-emperor's interest under Count Julius Andrássy, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister.

PARIS, France, Oct. 22.—The Hungarian government will act as it did on previous attempts of Charles to resume the throne in Hungary, according to information received here, and will take measures to expel all former monarchs from Hungary. Oedenburg forces immediately went over to Charles, upon his arrival at Oedenburg, and he was proclaimed King.

PACKING HOUSE WORKERS ARE ON STRIKE AT CHICAGO STOCK YARDS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.—Completion of the strike vote in the packing industry, taken by the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, was announced here today by C. J. Hayes, president. He said the poll stood 85,364 "yes" and 3,400 "no." A conference of executive officers and representatives of allied crafts will be held here next week, Mr. Hayes said.

A strike of packing house employees at the John Morrell Company plant at Ottumwa, Ia., which began this week, Hayes said, was the most important strike in the industry since the war. He reported 1,000 men out. This was the second time within a few months that the members of the butcher workers' union have voted to strike. Last summer plans for a walk-out virtually were complete when Secretary of Labor Davis called representatives of the packers and of the employees into a joint conference at Washington, where the differences were settled amicably.

Great Tree Is a War Memorial

Yosemite national park, always a shrine of beauty, now has become a shrine of patriotism since the American Legion dedicated a giant sequoia to America's unknown hero. Mrs. Elton V. Fox of Melbourne, Australia, is here seen placing a wreath on the commemorating plaque at the tree's base.

STRIKE STARTS IN HOUSTON RAILWAY YDS.

HOUSTON, Oct. 22.—Armed guards took up patrol duty at the International and Great Northern yards here at noon as one hundred and fifty trainmen abandoned their work. All switching in the yard was at a standstill but operating officials said all passenger train crews would be maintained, and the places of the strikers are being filled with new men.

AMERICAN TROOPS WILL BE WITHDRAWN FROM GERMAN SOIL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Gradual withdrawal of American forces from Germany, is expected to start within the next two weeks. It will involve the reduction of American forces there to about one-half of the present strength to thirteen thousand five hundred officers and men. The reduction will be accomplished by the middle of March.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES IN TEXAS TAKE ACTION ON STRIKE SITUATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Instructions covering the course of action to be pursued by federal authorities in Texas if the strike on the International and Great Northern railroad is called at noon today, is carried out, were in preparation this forenoon at the Department of Justice.

MANY MASONS GIVEN THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—The honorary thirty-third degree was conferred on a class of nearly two hundred last night by the Supreme Council, Scottish Rite Masons, Southern Jurisdiction, which is in session here. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Salt Lake City, in August, 1922.

BAN THE SMALL STORES

LAKELAND, Oct. 22.—Students at Southern College when that institution opens here, will not be able to step across the campus and go in the "barrel"; neither will they be able to work up a thirst by eating peanuts and assuage it by soft drinks. It all came about by the desire of the city council that the section of the city around the college be strictly a civic pride, and they placed a ban on the establishment of any of the small stores familiar to college surroundings. The ordinance recently adopted, especially directed at pressing clubs, peanut stands and soft drink vendors, prohibits the building of any kind of a store within three blocks of the university grounds.

FREE STEPHENSON TRIED FOR MURDER OF FATHER COYLE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 22.—A verdict of "not guilty" was returned by the jury shortly after 10 o'clock last night, in the case of Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, tried for the killing of Rev. Father James E. Coyle. The jury had been out since 6 o'clock. The case had been on trial since Monday.

CLYDE LINE DAILY SERVICE IS NECESSARY

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 22.—The Clyde Line announced today that the river traffic between Jacksonville and Sanford was increasing so rapidly it will inaugurate a daily freight and passenger service between the two points within the next thirty days, with many stops enroute. The present service is tri-weekly but traffic was so heavy this week it became necessary to operate one steamer on special run.

GLoucester Schooner Wins on Starling Forty Mile Race Today

HALIFAX, Oct. 22.—Blue Nose won the first race in a riproaring wind of twenty-seven knot that carried away the foretopmast of her rival, the American schooner, Elsie, after half of the course had been covered.

HALIFAX, Oct. 22.—The Elsie had her fore topmast carried away today on the fourth leg of her race with Blue Nose, for the championship of the north Atlantic. The accident occurred while Blue Nose was leading by about two minutes after half of her course had been covered.

Normal Temperature Rains First of Week Fair Thereafter

Stole from Blind Man

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 22.—A fourteen year old negro boy of this city has been sent to the reform school at Marianna because of the theft of money from a blind negro newsboy here. The blind "newsie," a familiar figure on the streets, was approached by the other negro who entered into conversation with him. Witnesses testified that the younger negro slipped his hand into the blind youth's coat pocket and took all the change he had, 8 cents. The thief was captured after a brief chase.

FREIGHT RATES REDUCED ON WHEAT AND HAY THROUGHOUT MIDDLE WEST

SENATE BATTLES ALL DAY OVER THE INCOME SURTAX

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The long threatened fight over the income surtax rates to be written into the new revenue law books yesterday in the senate, but, despite a sizable opposition, Republican leaders expressed confidence that the compromise plan embodying a maximum rate of 50 per cent would be adopted, probably before adjournment this evening. Meantime, as a result of the defeat yesterday of the proposal to exempt from taxation income of foreign traders and foreign trade corporations received from sources outside of the United States, the majority leaders sent out a hurry call to absent Republican senators to return to Washington. The call was in the form of a letter signed by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the chairman of the Republican conference.

Ordered by Interstate Commerce Commission

RATES ARE UNJUST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Freight rates on wheat and hay throughout the middle west and west were ordered reduced by the Interstate Commerce Commission today, reduction amounting to one-half of increase given railroads in 1920. Commission also found the present rates on coarse grain, including oats, rye, corn and millet to be unjust and unreasonable and ordered them to be fixed generally at ten per cent less than tariffs prescribed for wheat. The impression was given that the administration feels other avenues are open by which a settlement may be reached. No indication was given, however, as to what course would be followed or what information the government may have had from the labor board. It was made plain by high officials that they believed the use of war powers was not necessary, meanwhile declaring that "this nation is at peace." Belief was expressed that amicable and definite results could be obtained through negotiations rather than by use of force such as involved in the exercise of war powers. In the absence of any indication that the administration was considering mandatory control of the railroads, the action of the labor board in citing union heads and rail chiefs to appear before it was interpreted here as showing that the board had received assurances from Washington that its supervision of the situation was unaffected by the recent developments.

CLYDE LINE DAILY SERVICE IS NECESSARY TO KEEP UP WITH RAPIDLY ENLARGING BUSINESS OF PAST FEW MONTHS

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 22.—The Clyde Line announced today that the river traffic between Jacksonville and Sanford was increasing so rapidly it will inaugurate a daily freight and passenger service between the two points within the next thirty days, with many stops enroute. The present service is tri-weekly but traffic was so heavy this week it became necessary to operate one steamer on special run.

ARREST JUDGE WHO FAILED TO ASSIST WOMAN HE RAN OVER

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 22.—Federal Judge Page Morris, of Duluth, Minn., who has been sitting recently in Salt Lake City, was taken into custody here yesterday, after, according to the police, he had failed to stop and render aid to Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes after the automobile he was driving had struck and slightly injured her. Motorcycle officers made a chase of seven blocks before catching up with the jurist, the said. They took him to the police station, where he was released on $1,000 bond pending a hearing. The police said they would file against him a charge of failing to render assistance, failing to report an accident, or both.

HAYNES STARTS HIS CLEANUP IN KENTUCKY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes plans to leave today for a survey of the liquor situation in Kentucky, it was said today, at prohibition headquarters. Mr. Haynes, it was said, plans to go to Cincinnati and thence to Louisville, where he will direct a survey of illicit distilleries in Kentucky. His visit, it was explained, was in line with the policy of effecting clean-ups in various states. The problem in Kentucky, officials said, was one of production of liquors rather than of distribution as in the case of other states, and Mr. Haynes was declared to be anxious to root out the source of supply of any intoxicating beverages manufactured in violation of the national prohibition laws.

The power plant of the state which is being built at Chattahoochee for the state hospital is practically completed and ready for operation. It will be tried out in a few days.

CAMOUFLAGED "CANAN"

Real Scenes Filmed in Meighan's "The Conquest of Canaan"

One of the outstanding features in the production of Booth Tarkington's novel, "The Conquest of Canaan," a Paramount picture starring Thomas Meighan, is the complete fidelity of the scenes. For much of this picture, which will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight was taken in Asheville, N. C. This southern town was transformed into "Canaan" for the filming of the picture, which gave an air of reality to the entire setting, something that is hard to obtain with constructed sets. The nature of Mr. Tarkington's story was such that it demands real houses, streets, street cars, and railroad stations. These were all obtained in Asheville, but the camouflage was done so perfectly that the identity of Asheville is completely hidden.

SENIORS WEAR DERBIES AND CANES.

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Oct. 22.—Seniors at the University of Florida in future will be distinguished by their derbies and canes. The class at a recent meeting voted to adopt the derby and cane as a method of identification which would enable the remainder of the awe-stricken student body to recognize one of the dignitaries on sight. Derbies will be worn at all athletic events, to all chapel exercises, week-ends in town and at any time on the campus the seniors see fit.

MY HOME TOWN PAPER THE BEST PAPER FOR ME.

My home town paper is the best paper for me. It tells me what my neighbors are doing, that John Brown bought a tractor and a Jersey, or that Parson Jones needs a new tin buggy. It tells me that our county or city officials have either done their duty or played for personal gains. It tells me about my school, my church and my club, not that I shouldn't know and don't know about them already. It tells me all these things and more, fairly and impartially, without fear or an effort to curry favor. It serves as a telescope for me to see the things of the world, searching them out and magnifying them for my untrained eye and busy brain and hands. When I see my home town paper coming down the lane or up the walk, I know it has something interesting for me, and when I read what it says I know it to be true.

My paper serves me in more ways than one. It brings to my door the news of the day, the news of my town, my county, my State and my country, also of the world. It sorts out the chaff and serves me the pure grain. It weeds out the vile and the vulgar and gives me only the wholesome and the pure. It brings me the market news, telling me what to pay for the necessities of life and what to charge for the things I have to sell.

My home town paper is my dearest companion. It talks to me whenever I want amusement or need solace or information.

My home town newspaper I'll subscribe for and pay my $2.00 without a grudge, because I know it the best investment of the year. And whenever my neighbor raises a howl about the high cost of newspaper reading, I'll beat him in the bean.—Agricultural News Service.

PUT A MAN TO WORK.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 22.—City Manager Coe has urged that every employer of labor in Miami put one more man to work as a means of relieving the unemployment situation, which he declares is assuming alarming proportions in Miami with every indication of becoming worse if something is not done to meet the problem.

"There is one rule about employment in this section," he said, "that I found to work out splendidly when engaged on the Key West extension work, and which I believe will hold good in most instances about Miami. I made it a point never to employ a man after September 1, who came here from any point north of the Mason and Dixon line, for invariably the man who comes here after September, will return before the last of April, while on the other hand, when we employ men who arrive in the spring and stay all the summer, we usually have men who will stick."

TOMORROW

Today has little sorrow, it is a good safe bet; but we believe tomorrow will show up better yet. And all thru life we're groping, with slow and heavy tread, still hoping, always hoping, for better things ahead. And so our loads we're bearing with patience, day by day, few pilgrims are despairing, though weary be the way; for in us is implanted the faith in joy to come, in Eden lands enchanted, where birds are singing some. Without this faith we'd falter, and quit our useful chores, and you would need a halter to drag us from our doors. Ah, then no fine incentive this stale life would accord, no spur to minds inventive, for progress no reward; then all our pep would vanish, and we would sink in sloth, and growing, also-ranish we'd end up in the broth. But all well balanced mortals have faith in bliss ahead, and so they greet with chortles the bogies dire and dread. What if today is tougher than punk days gone before? We haven't long so suffer—tomorrow's at the door. What if we're overloaded and galled and chafed and vexed? We shall not long be goaded—tomorrow's turn is next. And so we erring critters toil onward day by day, and bravely take our bitters—the nectar's on the way.—Walt Mason.

One more week until the strike. Do your shopping, early.

Orlando papers must have quit publishing. Have not received any in two days.

Or did they have something about the Sanford Herald in them? Come clean, boys, and send us our papers.

The man that hews to the line and lets the chips fall where they may, will win out. He will have his enemies of course. No upstanding man is without enemies, but he will win, nevertheless.

There is work to do in this town of Sanford and the people who are intending to do this work, should let nothing interfere with it. A few squawks now and then should have no influence on the men who are doing things.

Received an important communication from the Department of Commerce telling about how to test a rope. We are glad to get this information for we have wanted it badly since we use so many ropes in the printing business. Suppose Congress is testing ropes getting ready to hang on them until they call time.

This old world is built on reciprocity and that is the wheel that turns all trade industries. We depend upon certain people for business and they in turn depend upon us and if we will all stand together on economic questions, and keep our money at home, Sanford will be one of the most prosperous cities in the south—please note that "it".

New Smyrna people had a mass meeting to protest against the high taxes. The protest will do no good. If they think the taxes are too high, let them investigate and see where the money is going and nine times out of ten, they will discover that the taxes are not too high, but living is. And we opine the New Smyrna mass meeting is just a case of the "ins" and the "outs."

The New Smyrna News contains a picture of the "bungalow beautiful" that New Smyrna people are giving away to the person outside of Florida who writes the best essay about New Smyrna. This is probably the only instance of this kind in the United States where a city the size of New Smyrna is giving away a fine home absolutely free. The idea has given New Smyrna a bunch of good advertising all over the United States.

Sanford is developing into a factory town and the more small factories we can locate here and the more wholesale firms we can locate here, the more pay rolls we will have every week or month. We can hardly hope to have any of the largest factories from the north, but Sanford offers a location second to none, in the State, for certain manufacturing plants, that can be located in Florida. This is one of the best locations in the State, bar none, having the best of rail and water facilities.

Perhaps the frost did it, but on close inspection we observed that some of the peaches on the street are a little wrinkled.

WORK: THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."—Galatians, 6:7. This is the time for work and no time for strikes. No matter how much we would like to be lazy, we can't afford it. The Record is plumb sick and disgusted with all this talk about "Capital and Labor," "The Great Unwashed Proletariat," "Does the Eight-Hour Day Unfit a Man for Toggling?" and "Knee Skirts as a Stimulant in Place of Alcohol."

What this country and the world at large need just now is a damcile less reformers and a damcile more performers. We are so busy talking efficiency that we only have time left to produce deficiency; we discuss industrial relations so much of the time that we fail to practice industry.

We need less advice about how to do things and a heluva lot less device for NOT doing them. We ought to have less argument and more action, less "welfare" and more work; less give and more get.

The Dart tells of a man who had rheumatism and moved around entirely on his knees for four years, during which time he cleared thick beech and maple timber from forty acres of heavy land, besides carrying on the work of a pioneer farm.

He was aided and abetted in this crime against the four-hour day by an energetic and thrifty wife and numerous growing children. He lived to eat a dozen simon-pure buckwheat flapjacks as trimmings for a breakfast of solid food every morning until he was well past eighty. His average working day was around sixteen hours.

It wasn't particularly remarkable in his generation. It was a generation that never got fagged on the fundamentals. It knew that to eat bread, a man had to raise wheat. If he failed to raise wheat and the neighbors couldn't help him (generally they couldn't in those days), he stood an excellent chance of acquiring starvation title to a 6x2 plot of ground.

The most of that day didn't give much of a thnkordam about the relations of owner and worker or whether employers kept a chiroprapist for every ten employees.

Those men, as do all of us, lived and loved and smiled and suffered and, when their time came, died—but through it all until the end, they WORKED. And they made America the greatest producing country in the world.

The most elemental proposition in Nature is that man must work to live—"in the sweat of his face shall he eat bread." The trouble today is that most of us want to eat only cake and three-inch porterhouses, without sweating—be pardon, perspiring one single, little perspire.

The Dart adds: Everyone has the "gimmes."

The universal request is "gimme an easy job and gimme more money and gimme everything the other fellow has—and then gimme butter on it."

It's sickening. The only things any of us should ask for are a little less government and a lot more grit—and health. We can't handle for all else we are entitled to.

The only persons whose positions are secure are the dead ones—and most folks don't want security at the price of death.

Here is what ails us: we are plain, shiftless, good-for nothing LAZY. We try to get wages without work—without expenditure of energy. We attempt to dictate the value of our efforts, rather than accept the market price for the products of those efforts.

And it can't be done. The law of compensation has never been repealed—and perpetual motion is still a chimera. We can't get something for nothing or lift ourselves by our boot-straps. And if we all turn preachers where will the congregations come from?

It is time for us to quit living in tomorrow and begin working for today. TODAY is the only day in which we ever will accomplish ANYTHING. We ought to quit dreaming about what we expect to do when success strikes us or the millennium overtakes us—and start planning how to give more real service and better value for every dollar we receive.

The world is facing some big problems, we are told. Most of these problems depend upon readjustment from war conditions and the mental attitude of the last few years.

Readjustment will be here when all of us know that we are getting a dollar's worth for every dollar we spend. And that, again, is predicated upon each of us giving a dollar's worth for every dollar we get.

This means greater output at lower cost—more economical production, which will permit more equitable prices and restore normal demand. In other words, it means honest

FROM OTHER SANCTUMS

Is There No Justification?

For several years now there have been rumors of strikes and even attempts at it, but at no time has the industrial situation felt such tremors of what we believe portends a great storm as the present railroad crisis. The railroads received what they wanted during the war and the railroad men were pretty well treated; they had wages raised to a point somewhere near what they believed to be right; but at the same time the railroads were pumped and patted by government surroundings until they framed up on the American people, got their tools working throughout the house of lords and the American reichstag in congress and when the situation was ripe the railroads had it so timed that they found no trouble in having the infamous Esch-Cummings act passed and they were free. This act was the beginning of the downfall of the square deal which the corporations throughout the government had harped on so strongly. At that time the railroad employees were forced to swallow their medicine; they received their raise in wages and the government guaranteed to pay the corporations from five to six per cent. on the stock invested—no, this was not on the actual stock owned as shown on the books of the corporations, but the politicians, who had sold themselves outright to the railroads, slipped in the watered stock of the railroads for good measure. You who study the conditions, know that this attempt to sell out the government and its accomplishment to the railroads, was the climax to the situation, and fundamentally it is wrong and yet the people of America foot the bill. Was there any justification in that sort of a steal?

Then came the railroads for an increase in freight, passenger, express and Pullman rates, and they were not slow to get them. This was followed by an announcement that they had cut the salaries of the men 12-15 per cent. Then came a request before the Interstate Commerce Commission for another hike in rates of twenty per cent. and hardly had that matter been presented until the railroads again announced that they had decided to cut the wages of their employees another ten per cent. This came in the face of the fact that these corporations, backed by the Harding administration, which is proving to be one of the best worked, corporation owned administrations ever able to turn the wheels at the White House, had plainly agreed to reduce the freight and passenger rates at least the same amount that they had cut the wages of the men. They didn't even make an attempt to do this, but went right on forcing the people generally to pay the bills, deceiving their employees and some in congress representing the people, who, thus far, have looked on with silent approval. Not only did they deceive their employees, but they deceived the government and every citizen in it, and right now are trying to make their employees foot the bills and pay the price for a promised decrease in freight rates.

In other words, they say, if they must reduce the freight rates then they must deduct that amount from the daily wages of the employees, or the employees of the railroads pay the reduction in rates out of their wages. Is there any sense of reasoning and justice in that? Can there be but one side to such an unfair position? Why don't the railroads reduce their freight rates and live up to the promises and keep the faith they tried to make with the American people? Why don't President Harding pull up that plank in his platform which he laid when he agreed to see that the laboring man got a square deal? We believe in treating the corporations fair and square, and that is all they are entitled to, but we don't believe in giving them the entire United States, body and soul, including the men, women and children under their employe.

The Star has never once on any questions, straddled the fence; we have always had the nerve to come out in the open and state just where we stood on every question and we can't see in this issue where the employees of the railroads have been getting a square deal or have any chance of getting it with the government so tied up with the railroads they can't turn a hand over without dictation from the corporate interests. The situation is bringing on an industrial condition which we have been predicting for three years and the issue is going to be forced. We wish to condemn this highway robbery business by the railroads and their allied interests and we are forced, out of the justice that every sane man should see, to stand by the men who labor for them and who can't help themselves except to beg for a job. The Star editor believes in coming right out in the open and expressing himself on all occasions that are of general or local interest and especially at this time when there is absolutely no justification in the position taken by the railroads, it is a time when men should not be afraid to assume the right, the fair and square position and stand by it, and not wait to see which way the cat is liable to jump.—Lakeland Star.

By way of solution of the problem of economical production, let every individual in this country—every individual in your business and our business—let you and I—try this: Get right down in harness on the particular job that is ours or the first job that comes to hand, be it sweeping a floor or directing a bank and do it in the very best and the very quickest way that we can discover—and let the other fellow go and do similarly.

If we do that I'm thinking it will be a mighty short time until we will have no need to worry about prices or profiteers, leagues of nations or fool notions, unions or uniforms.

If all of us will try to be satisfied with our job and our joys, our food and our Ford, our faith and our friends—AND WILL WORK LIKE LITTLE AND SMILE, quite probably most of the world's problems will solve themselves, without special legislation by congress or the appointment of additional governmental commissions.

And should conditions not be pleasing after we have given that plan a fair test, there still will be time for us to go to the Fiji Islands, and lauder fig leaves, join the Utopia being operated by Mensar, Lenin, Trotsky, et. al., or become prohibition enforcement agents.

But the prosperity's sake and all our snakes, let's give honest work a trial first.

There is a dear little old prayer that mother taught us to say at her knee, and we all love it: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

But at this stage of the nation's history, we ought to learn a morning prayer, and say it after this fashion: Now I get me up to work, I pray the Lord I may not shirk; If I should die before the night, I pray the Lord my work's all right." —St. Augustine Record.

Temptation can't run fast enough to keep away from a man who has a pocket full of easy money and time to spend it.

PRINTER WAS PEEVED.

Charley Harris, of Fort Worth, Texas, a friend of Mr. Robinson, in the printing business, got slightly peeved at a letter from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letterheads, different sizes, different grades and different colors, and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley took his typewriter in hand and wrote:

"Am in the market for bids in one operation for appendicitis. One, two of five inch incision—with or without ether, also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotation to include putting same back and canceling order. If removed, successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about sixty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gallstones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."—Kansas City Post.

If Rubie Allyn hoped to win that beauty contest at Lakeland by doling himself up, putting on socks and a hair cut, no wonder he lost out. Rubie is at his best when he is simply "Rubie himself."
