HONG KONG (AP) — A United States consulate official said today that three Americans, ordered deported from the Communist-occupied territory, would not arrive here today.

The three are Richard Applegate, 37, of Medford, Ore., a National Broadcasting Co. correspondent; Donald Dixon, 25, New York International News Service correspondent; and Benjamin Krasner, 30, a sea captain, of Brooklyn.

The U.S. official telephoned from the Hong Kong Red China border that there was no indication when the trio would arrive. He did not elaborate but said the border watch was suspended until tomorrow. Peiping Radio said yesterday the trio were ordered deported from Kwangtung Province, Hong Kong border Kwangtung.

Peiping Radio also said that Francis Redmond, former New York business man, had been conditions yesterday but there was no sign of the three.

Applegate, a World War II veteran, was NBC's Hong Kong correspondent.

At Medford, Applegate's mother declared "this is the happiest day of our lives. God is so good." His father, Frank, a retired contractor.

Dixon went to Korea for INS after joining its New York Bureau in 1951. He is a graduate of Syracuse University and a former staff member of the New Rochelle, N.Y. Standard Star.

"We're going to look him in a room and just look at him," Dixon's joyous mother declared. "Next Tuesday is my birthday. This is my birthday gift — the only one I want."

Krasner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krasner, said their son joined the maritime service in 1942 after a heart condition kept him out of the armed forces. He spent most of World War II sailing between the United States and Murmansk. He was shifted to Orient runs in 1949.

Stevenson Dances; Son Plans To Wed

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson Sr. stepped into the middle of a gay swing of social festivities today, celebrating the coming event that will make him a father-in-law.

The former Illinois governor and 1952 Democratic nominee for president flew to Louisville yesterday to join in a celebration of the announcement of the engagement of Nancy Lewis Anderson to his eldest son, Adlai Jr.

The pretty Miss Anderson had a kiss waiting when her future father-in-law stepped from the plane.

Adlai Jr. and Miss Anderson met here in June, 1953, when he was a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps stationed at Fort Knox.

Their engagement was announced Saturday. No wedding date has been set.

MANILA (AP) — Investigation into a reported outbreak of haemorrhagic fever — a disease found among American troops in Korea in 1950 — was ordered today by Philippine Health Secretary Paulino Garcia.

The Manila Children's Hospital reported 16 cases; 3 of them fatal, over the weekend. All were children.

JAILS CROWDED

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's City Jail and Correctional Farm are jammed with prisoners, Warden Frank Sain said today.

The farm near suburban Hinsdale is so overcrowded, Sain said, that prisoners have been sleeping on floors "and wherever they could." The farm, with a capacity of 500 prisoners, now houses 876. Sain said the overcrowding at the farm is the result of an overflow of inmates at The Bridewell, the city's house of correction. It has a capacity of 1,800 prisoners and houses 2,426.

MODEL '47' STILL ON OPEN ROAD

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A 1953 Model T Ford can still percolate pretty nicely.

Allen Cherry, 32, and Tommy Loret, 26, of Bethany, Okla., proved this yesterday when they drove the ancient touring car from Bartlesville to Oklahoma City in 5 hours and 40 minutes — an average speed of about 30 miles an hour for the 164 miles.

Some accidents take YEARS to happen...

The real cause of some highway accidents could go back five...ten...fifteen years! Back to early reading and writing days...in dim or glaring light.

Yes, the eyestrain that started in grammar school days could have been the reason for the anguished, "I didn't see..." at the crash.

So don't take chances with precious eyesight. Now—at the beginning of the school year—is a good time to check the lighting in your home...to help prevent that accident from happening to your child.

Democrat Wins Governor Race In GOP Maine

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—A Democrat elected governor of Maine today. The first of his party to occupy the office here in 20 years.

Edmund S. Muskie, 59-year-old Democratic national committee member, defeated Gov. Burton M. Cross, R, in yesterday's first state election of 1954.

In modern times, no other GOP governor has ever been denied a second term.

The GOP seat Margaret Chase Smith took in the Senate for a second term and kept its three representatives in their seats.

Their margins were far from the "greater than ever" margins asked by Vice President Nixon to "set a standard for the rest of the country in November."

Muskie, an attorney, has first try for state office, polled almost 55 per cent of more than 248,000 votes. That's about what the late Gov. Louis J. Brann (D) did in winning a second term in 1934.

Brann was governor from 1933 to 1937, during which time Rep. Beane sat in the U.S. Senate. But there were two Maine Democrats in the House during Brann's first term as governor.

Yesterday, in 60 of the state's 626 precincts, the state-wide voting was as follows:

For governor—Muskie 135,422 and Cross 113,691.

For senator—Mrs. Smith 143,282 and Cross 113,691.

Public Hearing Set For Oct. 11; Men Appointed

Mayor Earl Higginbotham and he had no animosity toward Commr. John Krider to day following an altercation last night at the City commission meeting in which the officers took several swings at each other.

Commr. Krider, when pressed about the fight said he had no comment to make.

The mayor, when asked if he were going to take action against the commissioner who started the fight, said "I am not a lawyer. I am concerned if I were with it and I would not fight it."

He went on to say that Commr. Krider had not misinterpreted a statement he had made before the commission earlier this year.

It is understood that today that the charges filed were the first since the reorganization of the city government in 1952.

The mayor said he had the commission "John" built a base ball stadium and the money went in the bank when it was built. He said today that the matter of the fight is the same type of proposition as was being discussed at the time of the fight.

Krider related he was tired of hearing about the ball park and spent around Commr. William Stimpert's chair after the mayor Commr. Stimpert was away from the commission table at the time. The fight lasted less than a minute, and according to the mayor no serious damage was done.

Krider remarked that something should be done if he couldn't get an opinion on City business without having the stadium thrown at him.

The meeting was recessed, but was resumed at 10:30 a. m. for the resumption.

Today, the mayor went on to say, "I would remind you by the way, I was only using it as a carry-over point. He was referring to his remark which sparked the fireworks."

He explained he was merely using the stadium as an example of a city financing a project without funds in hand, but banking on an inflated revenue. He said that they would build most of their projects under this type of financing.

The fight came in a special meeting which was intended to be for the final work on the city's budget for the next fiscal year. No action was taken on work which remained, which dealt with city rates for city employees.

Optimistic Picture Given President Concerning Economy Of United States

Attack On President Plan Of Terrorists, Puerto Rican Says

NEW YORK (AP)—A Puerto Rican Nationalist has testified that communists who masterminded the shooting in Congress last March also planned an attack on President Eisenhower.

The testimony was given by Gonzalez Lebron Salomay, yesterday at the trial of 13 Puerto Ricans charged with a sedition conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government by force and violence.

The witness is a brother of Dolores Lolita Lebron, who was arrested along with three men after they spat bullets into the House of Representatives, a sedition conspiracy, according to the government.

The four already have been sentenced to terms of 10 to 30 years in prison for the shooting.

Manuel Lebron, one of the 13 now on trial for conspiracy, he said, was appearing during the trial in the name of the U. S. and a jury. The sessions continue today.

Another defendant is John Panto Gauda, who Lebron Salomay said had told him of plans for attacks on Congress. "The Puerto Rican Communist Party," he said, "was organized for Puerto Rico. The witness said this was in November, 1953, when Gauda was a Nationalist party leader in New York."

The Nationalist party speaks complete independence for Puerto Rico. This aim is opposed by the majority of Puerto Ricans, who turned down an offer of independence and voted to become a commonwealth of the United States.

Lebron Salomay has pleaded guilty to the charge of sedition conspiracy and testified as a government witness while being held in $25,000 bail pending sentencing. He described himself as a former chief of the Chicago junta of the Nationalist party.

He testified that several people offered him talk with Gauda, his sister came to Chicago and told him she had been given a "special mission" which apparently involved the March 1 shooting.

She told him to "tell her the reason of the party members in Chicago because there was to be instant use of various members in Chicago and New York for attacks in various places in the United States and said that it was necessary but that orders had arrived."

His sister returned to New York, the witness added, and two weeks later the shooting occurred in Congress.

Acting on orders, the Chicago group obtained four public, a car and two radio sets. For the attack, Lebron Salomay said he offered that he himself would lead the attack within the continental United States.

Occupational, Beverage Permits To Go On Sale

Beverage and occupational licenses will go on sale tomorrow according to the County Tax Collector John L. Galloxy.

Bills are being sent out to all those who had licenses for the year 1954. Galloxy said he expects to sell at least 900 occupational licenses and 150 beverage licenses.

All beverage licenses must be renewed and the new licenses on display in the various places of business by midnight October 1. After that date no beverage licenses can be issued until an application has been made and approved by the State Beverage Department. It is therefore to the advantage of operators to obtain their beverage licenses on or before Oct. 1, he said.

The various occupational licenses also will go on sale tomorrow. These licenses are due on Oct. 1 and are required by all who practice a profession such as lawyer, doctor, certified public accountant, real estate broker, surveyor, etc. All licenses are required by operators of businesses such as garage, beauty shop, barber shop, shoe shine stand, auto yard, repair shop, bookery, wholesale dealer, hotel, rooming house, motor coach and cabinet maker.

American Patrol Is Fired Upon On Czech Border

BRNO, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army and West German border police yesterday differed sharply over the firing of a mortar shell into the American patrol area on the Czech border.

The American patrol was fired upon by a mortar shell from the Czech border area on the night of Sept. 13, according to a statement from the U. S. Army.

The Czechs refused to admit that they had fired the shell, but the U. S. Army said it had received reports from the Czech border area that they had fired the shell.

Reds Win Bid For New Talks On Registration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communist party has won its bid for new talks on registration in the light of a 1954 act of Congress directed at it by a government order that it register as a being controlled in Moscow.

The order was issued by the executive committee, control board and the SACB procedures in the act and the 1954 Internal Security Act, which provides that Communist action groups shall register with the Justice Department. They are required to list officers and members and disclose their financing.

The Communist party has challenged the constitutionality of the act and of the SACB procedures in the act and is now certain to go ultimately to the Supreme Court for decision.

The local U. S. Court of Appeals heard arguments on the case last spring, and was expected to rule sometime this fall.

The party, however, asked for new arguments in the light of the Communist Control Act of 1954. That law, passed hurriedly just before Congress adjourned, stated that the Communist party should not be permitted the rights, privileges or immunities of a normal political party.

The Court of Appeals heard yesterday for new arguments, starting Oct. 21, on the case and said they should expect, among other things, the effect of the new act on the case. Briefs are to be submitted prior to that.

Airman Arrested Flying Too Low

EL RENO, Okla. (AP)—A test hop in his new expensive automobile proved costly for Lt. James Joseph Zengraf, 24, Vance Air Force Base, Enid.

The airman spent a night in jail and paid a fine of $100, after highway patrolmen checked him at 110 miles per hour.

Zengraf told the authorities his car was new and he wanted to see how fast it would go.

Retailers Present Report 600,000 Stores Are Represented

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was told by the American Retail Federation today that during the first 10 months of his administration "there has been a steady growth of confidence in the economic future of our country."

A report on that period, compiled with an optimistic forecast of even better times, was placed before the President by the federation's board of directors.

It was said that the federation, representing 600,000 retail stores in the United States, had the honor of presenting the report before the President in the White House last night.

The year 1954 is proving to be an excellent one in the distribution of goods and better goods to the American people, said the federation, which was headed by Rowland H. Jones Jr., the federation president.

The federation said that by the end of 1954 the vigorous trend of our economy will have led to a further increase in the production of goods and services, and that the administration will make 1954 the previous all-time high—the second best year since the war.

The committee added that "with a high level of economic activity, retail wages have increased."

It said average hourly wages rose up 1.1 per cent in the first half of 1954, and average weekly wages have climbed 1.5 per cent.

"We are confident," the committee said, "that the administration's policies, and the cooperation of Congress in implementing them by legislation, have contributed to a more favorable economic and a greater incentive, not only to the retail industry but also to all the people."

Among reasons for the bright picture the committee pointed out, it mentioned:

1. The prompt reduction of individual taxes, which came as a direct result of certain federal expenditures.

2. The cut in excise taxes.

3. The "monumental" revision of the internal revenue code, which brought a further cut in taxes.

4. Elimination of price controls.

5. "Most important," the committee said, "has been the continued increase in the real purchasing power of every citizen so that more and more of them can have more and more of the good things that America provides."

The federation added that "more evidence that our dynamic American economy is in line on the record shown by retail construction figures."

It said the value of new construction of stores, restaurants and hotels in June of this year was $1.2 billion dollars, an increase of 14 per cent over the previous month.

South Waits On Segregation Issue

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—This may be the last year for a way of life in which racial discrimination is legal.

Across the fringes of the South—Delaware, Maryland, Missouri and the District of Columbia—the color bars already are being dropped here and there in the public schools.

Every major religious denomination in the region has taken a stand in support of the Supreme Court decision of May 17 holding that segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

But while the fringe states are acting, 14 of the 17 states affected by the court ruling plan to do nothing about the problem in the coming school year. Several do expect to act, however, in 1955 or 1956.

In ruling against public school segregation, the court refrained from issuing an order specifying how its decision should be put into effect. It asked interested states to submit advice which could be used to formulate a plan of action.

Until the Supreme Court does spell out a plan in detail, none of the 'Old South' states plans to do anything, in fact, until the order is given, the states are proceeding on the assumption that segregation laws still are on the books.

The South's segregation problem is incredibly complex. "The South" as an entity in which whites are uniformly pro-segregation just doesn't exist.

Large sections have essentially "Yankee traditions"—sections which opposed slavery from the beginning and whose citizens fought on the Union side in the Civil War.

The school situation is a vast jodge-podge of prejudice and politics, budgets and buildings, population and poverty.

The Civil War left the south without an economic base on which to build public schools. Even by 1900 only one state, Kentucky, had a compulsory school attendance law.

Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and Nevada have 10 percent or less Negro population. One fifth of these counties contain 40 percent of the entire Negro population in the region. Most of the counties with the smallest Negro populations are in mountain areas—the Ozarks and Appalachians.

In the decade from 1940 to 1950 more than a million Negroes left these 13 states and went north.

While the idea of racial integration on the grade school level came as a shock to many white Southerners, it has been taking place without friction on the college level in most of the South since 1935. Approximately 2,000 Negroes attended previously all-white colleges or universities last year.

Even prior to the Supreme Court decision, 24 states colleges or universities admitted Negroes—usually as the result of Supreme Court action on the graduate or professional level.

The only states which have not admitted Negroes to white colleges on any level are South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi.

These states, with the exception of Florida, have the heaviest concentrations of Negro population, ranging up to 71 percent in some counties.

South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana have been the most outspoken in announcing intentions to evade the Supreme Court mandate.

Modern, Conservative Artists Make Peace In New Mexico

TAOS, N. M. (AP)—A measure of peace has come at last to at least this big business segment of the quarreling world.

Conservative or objective painters now not only speak pleasantly to the moderns, but are actually working with them hand in hand, paint pot and pallet, to improve the affairs of the art world.

The peace is a little startling in this colorful Northern New Mexico art colony. Their quarrels in the past have occasionally broken out into open hostilities.

The honeymoon has lasted more than a year and the life expectancy of the agreement is increasing.

No one is quite sure just how it happened. But some of the conservative artists got together with their natural enemies, the moderns, to clear the smog from the air.

What they came up with was the Taos Artists' Assn., a gallery where all can display, and a golden rule creed to make the peace permanent.

The association set up its own gallery—one of the most popular spots for the increasing tide of visitors. Mrs. Leone Kahl is gallery director and the works hung there represent just about every type of art known. There's no pressure—no trying to sell a modern over a conservative, no boasting one artist over another. The customer buys what he likes.

There's also commercial method in the marriage of the two groups. In Taos, a $100,000 a year business, it keeps 20 to 25 galleries going and brings a steady clatter in the cash registers of business houses.

There are nettles, of course. A hand known as the La Fonda group has no place in the association.

They show only at La Fonda, a hotel.

Ernest Blumenschein, one of the nation's greatest artists, heads the dissident group of about 17 against the 400 members. "Half of these people—referring to the association—'have no talent and no gift,' he contends.

How do the townsfolk go for this new movement? So long as the cash register drawers open more frequently, they are happy.

QUESTED OFFICIAL WON'T QUIT

PARIS (AP)—Reports from Saigon say that ousted Vietnamese Army Chief of Staff Nguyen Van Hinh has barricaded himself in his headquarters in defiance of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem who fired him.

The French News Agency said Diem repeated yesterday his dismissal order, first issued last week and again directed Hinh to go to France.

Hinh, however, refused to obey as he had before. He set up a guard manning two tanks and a dozen fire hoses around his headquarters in case Diem should send police to arrest him.

Couple Is Wed In Wheelchairs

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A wheelchair wedding has united a paralyzed insurance broker and his sweetheart, who lost both legs as the result of a blood ailment.

When James L. Madigan and Socorro Gomez were wed Saturday at the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, both rode to the altar in wheelchairs. Both are 27. Madigan's brother, Joseph, 24, the best man, was also in a wheelchair, as was the maid of honor, Miss Rita Vigil, 30. Joseph was paralyzed by the same nerve disease as James, and Miss Vigil has been paralyzed since birth.

When the states did acquire public school systems, the southern taxpayers were primarily concerned with taking care of their own children first. What ever was left over went to the Negroes.

Just as the South began pulling itself up by its economic bootstraps, the great depression of 1929-1935 nearly wrecked the public school system. Building lagged, especially building for Negroes.

As the area recovered from its economic setbacks, it embarked on a school building program which was halted by World War II and only resumed in 1946.

War's end brought demands from Negroes that the South practice its "separate but equal" doctrine in the schools. More and more public money was put aside for Negro education.

By the time the Supreme Court handed down its ruling, the Southern states were spending a higher percentage of income on public schools than any other section.

But if a program of integration were begun immediately, the simple problem of space would be acute, especially in rural areas.

Two of the region's most widely recognized authorities on race relations, Harry S. Ashmore of Little Rock, executive editor of the Arkansas Gazette; and George S. Mitchell, executive director of the Southern Regional Council in Atlanta, hold that desegregation probably will end first where the Negro population is lightest and last where it is heaviest.

Indo-China Truce

Although the terms on which the truce was reached are far from reassuring Americans can join with the French in rejoicing that the bloodshed and fighting in Indo-China has come to an end.

The war lasted eight years and as time wore on it grew more and more unpopular with the French people. It was a frustrating, futile war in which the French were condemned in some quarters for not granting complete independence to the people of Indo-China, and in other quarters for not prosecuting the war with great intensity. It was costly in men and in money, and at the end the prospects for victory were slight indeed.

It would be less than realistic to pretend that the terms of the truce do not represent a substantial victory for Communism and a serious setback for the West in that part of the world. The Communist propaganda mill will exploit that victory to the hilt.

When fighting ended in Korea it was predicted that the Reds would use the respite to intensify attacks elsewhere. That proved to be the case, for after the truce in Korea the Reds in Indo-China stepped up their campaign. It would be well for the free world to be particularly alert in the months ahead to the danger that the strength employed in Indo-China by the Communists will be directed to new aggressive

Congressmen need a period of adjournment and the quicker they can wind up their business and adjourn the better. Like the rest of us they need vacations and relaxation. They need to get back among their constituents and find out what people are thinking. No matter how good a Senator or Representative is he must still campaign to get elected.

The business of legislating for this country is serious. The problems which confront our legislators are many and complicated. There is no way of putting a deadline on how long Congress should stay in session. Uncomfortable and inconvenient though it may be they must stay on their job until it is done.

One way Congress might get home earlier would be to find more efficient ways of handling its business so that all important legislation does not come up for consideration at the same time.

LOOKS — Women who complain that men never give them a second glance don't do much driving.

BUGS — Man is beginning to wage a reasonably effective war against many pests but there is still a vast amount of work to be done by the research entomologist, the chemist and the user of insecticides. Here is what they are up against: It is estimated that the total weight of insects on earth today is greater than the weight of all land animals.

Or if you prefer to count noses, as many as 200 million insects may inhabit and fare well on an acre of land.
Insects last year whetted their appetite on $250 million worth of cotton, $85 million in corn and $350 million in clothing.

THE BANK — Heard in the home loan department — "I want to build a $10,000 home . . . naturally it will cost $15,000, so I'd like to borrow $18,000 to cover it."

COMMERCE — Here is how two way trade can operate to the mutual advantage of the countries involved. In 1952 Venezuela spent $500 million to buy U. ### HAL BOYLE

Women's Letters Deluge Bachelor

NEW YORK (AP) — I guess Dave Haft just smokes the wrong brand of cigarette.
"Too bad. Nice guy otherwise. But it must be the cigarettes. Couldn't be anything else that keeps him from finding 'the right girl.'"

A couple of weeks ago Dave told me about his yearning to find his own small town Cinderella. Seems the glamorous career-seeker of the big city had fallen on him.
So I mentioned it in a column. Pointed out all his defects. (No, said he was a 31-year-old bachelor and former bomber pilot. Took care to point out he ran a measly $12,000-a-year business, quoted poetry, was an amateur sculptor, and had cluttered up his life with a de luxe apartment, a mink, a butler, a 40-foot yacht, jumping horse, convertible (that jumps), Cadillac, a boxer dog and a pet parrot.)

Naturally, since all the girls I know swear that all they want out of life is a pet but honest husband I figured they'd all think Dave was too repulsive to consider for a moment.

Well, that just goes to show that the more you think you know about human nature the more you have to learn.

It turned out there are thousands of girls in America willing to put up with a guy who quotes poetry if he can sleep a $12,000-a-year business and a 40-foot yacht.

Letters came in from all over America from girls saying they had been willing to let their lives be a homemaker for a sweet old-fashioned boy like Dave. Most wanted to marry him, of course, but a few said they would be satisfied with a souvenir—his scalp.
For example, Dave had made the error of saying women fell into four classes, three of whom dug gold out of a man for fun and the fourth for security.

"If at his age he has learned there are only four types of women he should go back to kindergarten and get a post-graduate education," wrote one. "Every woman is a different type."
Nineteen mothers wrote in offering to divorce their husbands or, if that proved unsatisfactory to Dave, they said they could recommend their daughters . . . or their nieces.

Most of the letters, however, were from the girls themselves. From Maine to California the burden of their song was the same:

"I am not beautiful but every body says I am attractive, although I can't see where. I can cook and sew and I earn my own way in this world, but I never meet anybody who is looking for the right girl. Every boy I meet is looking for the wrong kind of girl."

Several notes came from men. A man of 70 suggested that Dave come to the Ozarks, as the girls there were real virile and hardy "from climbing the hills."

Another fellow in Flint, Mich., said he'd found and married a wonderful girl while driving a beat-up 1918 Chevrolet. He offered to trade this "good luck car" for Dave's Cadillac, plus "a couple of thousand dollars in cash."
I thought the most interesting letter came from a female who said Dave didn't interest her at all but she sure would like to nurse up to his parrot. It was signed, "sincerely, a parakeet."
Dave himself — yes, Virginia, there really is a David Haft, but he may not come down your chimney — was snowed down with so many proposals (one girl from California even mailed her father's Dun & Bradstreet rating) he finally sent me a one word telegram: "Help!"

Personally, girls, I'd concentrate on the boy next door. Sometimes a guy who's near and disarming is better than a prince charming far away.

After going through his flood of mail Dave still isn't sure he's found the right girl. Maybe he needs time to think it over . . . maybe change his brand of cigarettes. . . get a fresh outlook. He says himself maybe that's true.

He's been thinking about one letter I relayed to him. The girl wrote: "If your friend has all that money and is worried over whether the girl he finally marries really loves him for himself alone—well, how will he ever really know?"

CARD-CARRYING COMMUNIST

Down South

(Editor's note: Thurmond Sensing's rather biased remarks do not necessarily reflect the opinions of The Herald. However, it is felt that Sensing's comments are thought-provoking, and for this reason, they are being published.)
When the head of a political party in this country—in an election year—takes a step that is very likely to alienate the affection of a lot of voters—and for reasons that are good and sound—it is an act of political courage that deserves both attention and commendation. It is certainly commendable enough in these days and times—and for that reason is all the more heartening and refreshing.
Such a step was taken by President Eisenhower recently in vetoing the bill passed just before the close of the 81st Congress giving a five percent pay raise to 1,500,000 Federal employees. The bill would have added $112 million to the cost of operating the Post Office Department—a sum which is already piling up to a $400 million deficit this year. The Administration had asked for a $240 million postal rate hike as a condition for seven percent pay boost to 1,500,000 Federal employees.
This is not a question of whether the Federal employees concerned deserved a raise in pay. Maybe they do and maybe they don't. The question involved is whether the business interests of the Government of the United States shall be operated on a sound basis. And this question is important to 160,000,000 citizens in the United States. It is just such an attitude—and for the past twenty years largely at the instigation of the administration—Congressmen to introduce in the financial predicament in which we now find ourselves involved. It is just such an attitude that has caused some of our saner-thinking Congressmen to introduce a measure requiring the Federal Government to live within its income in time of peace.
In our private lives and homes, we first estimate our income and then fit our expenditures to match. This is the only sensible and decent attitude to take. We don't go ahead and spend all the money required to most whims and desires and then, if we don't have enough income to take care of it, go in debt for the balance. Only a government can do that. And no government can do it forever—ours included.
It is just such procedure, however, that has caused our Government to continue to pile up our national debt during the over half a century since the end of World War I. It caused the debt limit to be increased recently to $281 billion in order that the Government might maintain a semblance of solvency.
The President's veto caused an immediate howl on the part of leaders of unrighteousness. President Meany of the AFL, asserted the President's action "shows a shocking disregard for the welfare of the Government workers." President Reuther of the CIO called the veto "a treaty on economic justice."
Both these statements are ridiculous. It is all too often true of the labor leaders of this country that they appeal simply to the

Old Car, Driver Retire Together As Eyesight Fails

SEATTLE (AP)—John F. Heilscher's traveling companion and his driver's license are gone, his eyesight is going, and he reckons he is willing to let his celebrated model-T go, too.
Heilscher, now 88, and his wife, Leah, drove their 1921 Ford 100 miles in 30 years, including several trips across the country.
"Mrs. Heilscher died two weeks ago at age 87.
"We got no wish to drive a car again," the spry older commented as he told of falling to get his driver's license renewed because of failing eyesight. "My wife and I and our Henry went far enough. It's the only car I ever owned and the only car I ever drove."
Henry Ford once offered to give them a new car for the old fiver. But it was no deal. "Our Henry" gave them service and satisfaction—even if not so much comfort—and 40 loose-leaf scrapbooks of happy memories.

Fate Of Reds Delayed By Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government had hoped to cook the Communist party's goose by next spring. Now it has to light another fire. This delays perhaps until 1956 a final decision on the fate of the group.
The timetable was upset late yesterday by the United States Court of Appeals here when it ordered new arguments in the government's efforts to make the party register as a Russian agent.
This makes it virtually impossible for the Supreme Court to get the case in time to give its opinion in 1955.
In 1950, Congress passed the In-

American Way

(Editor's Note: Alfred P. Haake, Ph. D., Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee, is a noted economist, author and lecturer.)
There are times when compromise is a vital, sometimes a necessary, more than two sides to a question—your side, my side and the right side. And it can happen that by honestly and frankly comparing the two sides we find the chances of arriving at the right side. Intelligent people seek truth rather than confrontation.
But that is very different from compromise. For, in arriving at the compromise which spells truth, two people voluntarily and honestly open their minds to whatever facts are available and the consequent conclusions which may follow. They seek a common goal—without getting that it is to do without something you might want. And to call the refusal to do this "a travesty on economic justice" well that's just a travesty on the word "travesty."
Without reference to politics, such action as taken by the President in this case should be applied all along the line and in all fields. It would be most commendable on the part of either party. If this particular veto costs the party elections in power votes in the elections this fall, it will certainly be of no credit to the sound common sense of the American people. It is to be hoped that the voters—including the postal workers—will realize that action taken in the interest of a sound national economy is in the interest of all the people.
And so far as the operation of the Post Office Department itself is concerned, we would gladly go along with a measure to turn the whole thing over to private enterprise. It has been a money loser from the very beginning and an outstanding illustration of the inefficiency of government operation.

Changes in Skin Moles Can Be Signs of Cancer

By STEPHEN H. BUCICICEM, M.D.
MOLES should never be neglected. They may be either brown, black, red, or blue although some are colorless. What causes them to occur and how to keep them from growing has yet to be discovered. Most, but not all of them, if left alone, cause little serious difficulty. Practically everyone has at least one mole. They can occur at any time of life although most of them appear shortly after birth.
The most important medical significance of a mole is the possibility of its changing to a cancerous growth. One to two percent of all malignant growths are due to an increased birthmark that has become cancerous.
Changes in Moles
When a mole changes in size or color, is painful or uncomfortable, becomes infected, bleeds, crusts or becomes ulcerated, it may be turning into a most dangerous type of cancer, melanoma, and therefore should never be neglected.
Moles can occur at any place on the body but the most common sites are around the eye, on the sides of the feet, palms and where the party could defend itself.

April 23, 1951—The SACB hearings opened. They lasted until July, 1952—14 months and 8 days. Throughout that time government and party lawyers argued. The board heard 22 government witnesses, some of them ex-Communists, and 3 witnesses for the party. There were almost three million words of testimony.
April 20, 1953—The SACB, after reflecting on the testimony for 9 months and 19 days, issued a 218-page report in which it called the party a Moscow agent and ordered its registration.
The party asked the U. S. Court of Appeals to throw out this order. It argued the whole business—the 1950 act, the board, the findings, the order—were unconstitutional.
Last April the court heard arguments from the government and party lawyers. It was expected to give its verdict this fall. No matter what the verdict the losing side—the government or the party—could go to the Supreme Court for a final decision.
But Congress put sand in the machinery. In the rush before quitting this summer it passed another law affecting the Communist party directly. It is a vague law, hastily thrown together. Government lawyers are still trying to figure out exactly what it means and how they can use it.
Among other things, it says the Communist party shall be deprived of its rights, privileges and immunities.
The Communist party's lawyers sent back into the Court of Appeals, which had heard their arguments last spring, and said something had been added—the new law on the party—and that this was just more reason for throwing out the 1950 law.
Because of this new development, the Court of Appeals yesterday said it would hear more arguments from the government and the party starting Oct. 21, including arguments on the 1954 law.
This means that, instead of giving its opinion as expected early this fall, the appeals court may not be able to hand down an opinion before the end of the year. That would leave the Supreme Court much time for a decision before June of 1955.

gers, toes, and around the nails. A growth that is suspicious should never be burned out or cut out, except by the physician, because this could spread it throughout the body in a speedy manner. If treated early enough, melanoma, a type of cancer, can be cured.
Unquestioned Persons
Many people who remove moles are not qualified to do so because they do not have the medical experience necessary. Any mole that shows a change should be seen by a physician who will remove the entire mole at one time and then have it examined to determine if any cancerous changes have taken place so that whatever further treatment may be necessary may be carried out at once.

Washing an eggbeater needn't be a messy job. Rinse it promptly under cool water. Then crank the blades through hot soapsuds—without letting the eggs and handle become soiled.

American Flag Is Subject Of Meeting By Brownie Troop 6

The first meeting of Brownie Troop 6 was held last week at the newly organized Scout House on Highway 179.

The session was opened with the pledge to Boy Scout America, "Be a Boy Scout, Be a Girl Scout, Be a Girl Scout."

A roll call was held regarding the American flag and how to care for it. It was pointed out that the flag should be kept in a clean, dry place and should not be used as a tablecloth or as a cover for a table. It should be kept in a place of honor and should be removed from a pole when it is soiled or tattered. It should be replaced by a new one when it is worn out.

New members were Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. Peter Miller, and Patricia Miller. After the meeting, refreshments were served by Betty Mae Bows, who was assisted by Rachel Trappe. The visitor was Mrs. Alvin Case of Lake Mary.

No celery in the house to add to a tuna salad? Add finely diced cucumber or green pepper instead.

Stew

Stew may properly be called classic because its history is long and illustrious. The first stew was thousands of years ago, used by the Greeks to keep their boiling hot stoves into them to accomplish the cooking. Then some ancient genius invented roasted pots, thus eliminating the need for the stoves. The Greeks thought of adding salt.

Vegetables And Beef - Stew!
In modern terms, a classic beef stew is one accompanied by the famous trio of root vegetables - fresh carrots, onions and potatoes. Choose beef stew meat cut from lean, grass-fed beef which has the complete high quality protein, B vitamins and essential minerals found in all meat. Grass-fed beef brought to market directly from the grassy plains, makes ideal stew meat and gives you a great deal of flavor for a small investment. The vegetable blend harmoniously with one another and with the beef, the taste and color harmony makes beef stew the classic that it is.

Like any other classic, beef stew can be enjoyed over and over. Unlike many classics, it can be altered with the happiest results. Vary your selection of herbs, choose your fresh vegetables according to the season, stew your meat without browning, or listen up your cooking.

Kluszewski Leads NL in Home Runs

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Every time big Ted Kluszewski, the muscle man of the Cincinnati Reds, bashes out a home run the fans in the Ohio Valley scream with joy. Kluszewski, former Indiana University football star, leads the National League in roundtrippers with 48 and at the rate he's going they might have to make room in the record books.

The 24-year-old mark for National League home run sluggers is held by Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs. Wilson belted 56 in 1930. Wilson walked off his 48th in the 19th game. Klus' got 48 in 143 games. He's also behind Babe Ruth's record of 60. The Bambino blasted his 48th in the Yankees' 13th contest in 1927.

If Kluszewski wins the National League home run crown, he'll be the first Cincinnati player to do so since 1905. That year outfielder Fred Odwell hit a total of nine. Klus' hit 10 alone against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

While blasting away, big Klus is clicking with a .333 batting average, fourth best in the league. And he's driven in 132 runs, tops for the circuit.

About 50 Aspirants Drilling At FNMC

Since Sept. 1 some 50 aspirants for the 1951 edition of the Lions of Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College have been training, with Coach Russell E. Blunt blunting the coaching with Coach L. J. Thomas.

Coach Thomas, who comes from North Carolina College at Durham, N. C., where he was assistant coach, is not new to FNMC, having coached here in 1942-43. He is a graduate of St. Augustine College, Raleigh, N. C. and has his master's degree from Boston University.

Coach Thomas is lamenting the loss of most of his stars either to the Army or graduation. Such names as Stallworth, Heard, Brown, Harrison, Tillman, Miller, Brown, Davis, Postell, Thomas, Cherry, Bradley, Scott, and Moore will not be heard this year. In that respect, the Lions have lost three all-around force players, but three all-around force players are back in John Haskins, Williams White and Jefferson Jones. These men will carry the nucleus of the 1951 team.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 25, Morris College, St. Augustine
Oct. 2, Edward Waters College, Jacksonville
Oct. 9, Savannah State College, Savannah
Oct. 16, Claflin University, St. Augustine
Oct. 23, Palm College, Augusta, Georgia
Oct. 30, Voorhees Junior College, Denmark, S. C.
Nov. 6, Albany State College, St. Augustine
