7 CARRIED TO SUDDEN DEATH IN GIANT PLANE

Speedy Transport Hits Earth In Flames After Witnesses Report Explosion

CHESTERTON, Ind., Oct. 11.—(AP)—The scattered bits of a giant twin-motored transport plane, one of its massive wheels hung suspended from a tree, are all that remained today of a New York to Chicago ship of the United Air Lines that carried its seven occupants to a flaming death.

Just what happened when the metal ship with a top speed of more than three miles per minute crashed to the earth in flames last night near here probably never will be known, but witnesses said that they heard a terrific explosion. A few minutes before, while it flew over Liberty, Ind., company officials said the plane reported "All well."

Six bodies were removed from the wreckage and a search was begun today for the other two. Farmers who flocked to the scene but were unable to aid because of the terrific heat said they saw seven occupants, two of them milling about in the cabin, and they even heard women scream. One dead of the women was a passenger and the other was a stewardess. The other dead included three passengers and two pilots.

The scene of the crash was described as being near the Metrol, Ind., airport, located on the airline route between Chicago and the East.

Baptist Minister Is Accused Of Murder When Janitor Dies

JONESBORO, Ark., Oct. 11.—(AP)—A charge of first-degree murder was filed today against Rev. Dale Crowley after the death of J. W. McMurdoo, aged janitor who was shot by the minister yesterday at the Jonesboro Baptist Tabernacle, scene of intermittent disturbances for several months.

McMurdoo, who was shot three times in what he declared was "cold blood," had the minister said was self-defense, died today.

Crowley who surrendered immediately after the shooting which marked his return to the tabernacle to take charge as a legal pastor under court order was in jail in another city for safekeeping.

Crowley, whose followers dispute with Rev. Joe Jeffers militant evangelist and the latter's followers over the pastorate of the tabernacle pre-empted a series of disturbances that led recently to the locking of the huge church building, said he shot McMurdoo after the latter had used at him McMurdoo denied firing the shot.

A proposed public hearing of a tentative celery marketing agreement is being held up pending definite completion, so far as the administration is concerned, has been given similar agreements, it was learned here today by S. R. Dighton, secretary for Florida Celery Shippers, Inc.

In a communication written by Porter R. Taylor, senior marketing specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Mr. Dighton learned that "We have not forgotten your celery agreement in any way. We have already forwarded it for further consideration so that it may be in proper form at the earliest possible date."

Mr. Taylor further advised that "We regret we cannot give you any further information with regard to the date of a hearing, as it would be impossible to attempt to set a date until other agreements on which the public hearing has been held are definitely completed so far as action in Washington is concerned."

Mr. Dighton is of the opinion that the celery hearing in Florida will be timed together with one on the citrus industry, and others now proposed.

Hugh Johnson Warns Labor Against Indiscriminate Use Of Strikes In Land

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Warning that "the very foundations of organized labor are at stake," Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, told the American Federation of Labor last night that strikes are "unexcusable" under the Roosevelt plan.

At the same time, he asserted that organization of both industry and workers is vital to the success of the recovery program.

"The plain stark truth is that you cannot tolerate the strike," Johnson said in addressing the hundreds of delegates at the federation's annual convention. "Public opinion is the essential power in this country. In the end it will break down and destroy obstructive influence."

"If now when the whole power of this government is being applied to the recovery of the country, you maintain the right of every man who works for you to go out and countenance the economic sabotage, that public confidence and opinion will turn against you."

Johnson was introduced by William Green, president of the federation, who pledged the "unflinching" support of labor in the recovery movement.

Using the situation in the bituminous coal fields as an example, the administrator said it represented "the best and the worst in NRA."

"In this case," he said, "as the facts and principles grew clear there was no position from enlightened operators to contract with the United Mine workers. They recognized the need for partnership to pull themselves out of a hole and to discipline their own industry."

The moment that contract was made practically the strike revived and the revenue of the industry was some 50 per cent of what it was before the strike.

U. S. Report Indicates Ample Grain Crops Available For Food

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The smallest wheat crop in 37 years was predicted yesterday by the department of agriculture, although the estimate of 811,816,000 bushels was about 8,000,000 more than the forecast last month.

The report also predicted that the 1933-34 crop of wheat would be about 800,000,000 bushels, or about 10 per cent more than the 1932-33 crop.

Generally speaking, however, the report said, the crop of wheat in 1933-34 will be about 10 per cent more than the 1932-33 crop.

Marentette Urges Local People To Assist National "Buy Now" Drive

Through their local managers, Jos. L. Marentette, officials of the Sparks "Buy Now" drive, who operate the Miami and Broward Theaters, urged a "Buy Now" drive in the city.

"It is the loss of money means the loss of courage and confidence in the business man," Marentette said. "It is the loss of money means the loss of courage and confidence in the business man."

"Will he sit and whimper and wait for professional help to come to his aid?" Marentette asked. "Will he sit and whimper and wait for professional help to come to his aid?"

"What's the matter with America's middle-aged business men? Have they forgotten their fathers who went into a wilderness with a gun on the shoulder and an axe in the hand? Are they afraid?"

Mr. Marentette is of the opinion that when the willingness to cooperate is firmly established locally, business will speed forward by leaps and bounds. "This speed can be accelerated by 'Buying Now,'" he concluded.

MCADOO NAME BROUGHT INTO STOCK PROBE

Ex-Cabinet Officer Is Named As Company Counsel When Big Loan Was Floated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Senator M. G. McAdoo was named by Senate investigators today by a member of Dillon, Read and Company as counsel for the concern when it floated a $12,000,000 South American loan in 1921, now in default.

The bonds, floated by the company for Rio de Janeiro, are now selling for $16 on each $100 of par value.

A line of evidence to show that directors of two Dillon, Read and Company investment trusts jumped in their portfolios stocks on which heavy losses were taken was fitted to the Senate by the Senate banking committee yesterday by Ferdinand F. Brown, counsel in its stock market inquiry.

In the questioning of E. H. Tracy, president of the Trusts, the United States and Foreign and the United States International Securities Corporation, Tracy brought out that holdings of the latter fell off $25,000,000 since 1929 and that $11,000,000 of the depreciation had been in two railroad stocks.

Charles Hayden, a director, was chairman of the board of one of the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific, and F. H. Ecker, a trust director, was a director of the other, the St. Louis and San Francisco.

Tracy said he was an officer or director of seven companies whose stock was in the portfolios of the United States and Foreign and the United States International Securities Corporation.

LABOR WARNED BY JOHNSON AGAINST USE OF STRIKES

The success of NRA fall squarely on the shoulders of John L. Lewis (president of the mine workers). Could he perform under his far-reaching agreement? Could he control the divergent efforts of all groups of miners? In a word is union labor a responsible instrumentality? Make no mistake about it—the very foundations of organized labor are at test here and now.

"But what is happening? What are the hazards? A minority on each side—industry and labor—is threatening the whole enterprise. A minority of miners using force and violence in defiance of the public peace is hampering the responsible leadership of the United Mine Workers and preventing compliance with its contracts. A minority of operators who thus far have omitted to accord the rights and privileges to labor which 90 percent of the industry have accorded.

"The purpose of the people of the United States as expressed in NRA—the concerted effort of both employers and employees—the peace of a great state are all thus put in jeopardy by the willfulness of less than 10 percent on both sides.

"Paying tribute to leaders of both the operators and miners who are trying to co-operate, Johnson said "nowhere in the president's recovery program is there a clearer example of teamwork between government, industry and labor than this balked and frustrated by a recalcitrant few."

Johnson once more cited the rights of employees to organize under the recovery act the same as industry, but warned that "there are danger signals here."

PA fully organized and unchecked labor could do exactly the same. There must be responsibility in each such organization. There must be a check on these great powers."

Johnson warned also against critics of the NRA, charging Wall Street with reports that surveys of small business would show the failure of the movement and that rising wages have increased costs and reduced consumption.

"There is criticism also that there is 'shuffling' behind the scenes and that our failure to hang, draw and quarter these opportunists is reducing influence in the whole plan."

"I think that this criticism is justified. But the fact is never: some moment has been passed. The question of enforcing compliance is complex. Taking away the right to strike has been proved to be a most effective economic punishment. We must have a method of justice and certainty for the employees of other departments of government. Men have been working night and day to prepare a national network to handle these problems and the result will shortly be forthcoming."

The administrator pointed out that there was "a distinct movement to raise farmer production to NRA on the ground that anything done for workers' better pay would be raised to their pay—would be paid to their prices in unfavorable to agriculture." Then he explained:

"The essential purpose of the program is to raise production. It is a recovery program. It is a recovery program for every oppressed area. We all rec-

MIGHTON GIVES VIEWS OF LIFE AT LODGE HOME

What is being accomplished in behalf of children at the Masonic Home in St. Petersburg was related today by James Moughton, prominent local Mason who with R. B. Chapman, member of the Executive Committee of the home, recently spent a short time there.

Quoting Mr. Moughton, "There are 144 boys and girls now at the home, ranging in ages from five years through high school and college ages. There are also 18 old men and women living at the home, while 44 others are being maintained in their homes at St. Petersburg.

"The grounds consist of 11 acres of land, and there are many forms of recreation made available for the inmates, such as baseball, football, basketball, and other games. In addition, there are two swimming pools.

"The main building was originally erected for a girls' college, about two years ago, a fine dormitory was built for the girls, together with a home for the superintendent.

"The boys take great pride in their print shop from which comes a small monthly magazine, entitled 'Home Topics'. The boys also maintain a carpenter, paint, and garage repair shop.

"A 36 piece band has been recruited among the boys who are under the direction of a capable instructor. We learned that there is a serious lack of good instruments, and we feel safe in saying that the donation of any instrument would be greatly appreciated.

"The girls are taught artcraft as well as sewing, cooking, and other forms of housework, and they take great pride in their work, as we noticed.

"Religious services are held twice each Sunday in a large chapel in the main building. St. Petersburg vespertimes alternate at these services, as well as singing during Sunday school services.

"Buses transport the children to St. Petersburg schools. Some of the older children are enrolled in the high school there, while two of the girls are enrolled at Florida State College in Tallahassee, and one boy is now at the University of Florida.

"Before we left for Sanford, we learned that the Eastern Star of Florida is playing a real part in assisting in various projects at the Home. Superintendent Matthews was very cordial in his welcome to us, and he urged that we tell all Masons that they should visit the Home at their earliest convenience."

Unique Situation Basis For Milane Film Today

A successful author, traveling around the country lecturing on the writing of "best sellers", is greeted one morning by a charming young woman whom he dimly remembers as an old sweetheart of campus days.

She appears in his hotel room, announces that she knows who is the original of the heroine of his most popular novel, and is ready to throw herself into his arms, because she feels she belongs to him.

Imagining his embarrassment if you did, you'll understand precisely the feelings of Warren William, star of First National's comedy "Goodbye Again", which opens tonight at the Milane Theater, when Genevieve Tobin does that very thing. Then the picture is off on an hilarious chase through hotel bedrooms, Pullman car drawing rooms and compartments, from Cleveland to Albany and all but into the divorce court.

Warren William plays the role of Kenneth Bixby, Joan Blondell is Anne and Genevieve Tobin is the ultra-romantic Julia in this modern comedy of errors. Julia's lawless husband is played by Hugh Herwert and Wallace Ford has the role of a lawyer friend of the family who complicates matters by trying to settle everything out of court.

CHARMING AERIALISTS

Mrs. Tom Mix and her sister, Miss Irma Ward, sensational aerialists who once performed for the Sells-Floto circus, will appear at the Milane Theater in three performances with Tom Mix tomorrow. The noted cowboy brings a troupe of cowboys and trained horses, including "Tom", to this city on his tour of Florida.

Use Of Nitrate Is Proven Beneficial To Chile Farmers

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 11.—Chileans at last have begun to practice what they preached—greater use of nitrate for fertilizer and as a result this year obtained a bumper crop of wheat. Chilean nitrate thus has saved the country from footing a heavy gold bill for wheat imports.

Although Chile for half a century practically existed on a diet of nitrate, together with the United States and Europe exporting as much as 3,000,000 tons yearly, her farmers rarely used it. This year 17,000 tons of nitrate was used by Chilean farmers, compared with 4,891 last year. The Caja de Credito Agrario (Agrarian Credit Bank) arranged for wholesale purchases and resold the nitrate to the farmers on easy terms. The state railway cooperated with ordering in quantities and storage space at each station.

Barometre Economica, a publication of the State Statistical Bureau estimates that the crop would have been even larger, because of the 100-fold increase in nitrate use, but for the exhaustion of the soil during the two previous years, when so little of the fertilizer was used.

RICKARD GETS RELIEF POST TALLAHASSEE

TALLAHASSEE, (AP)—L. S. Rickard of Ft. Lauderdale yesterday filed for protection in court. "Goodbye Again" offers a brand new angle on the eternal sex triangle that is as different from the "naughty" farces of a generation ago as the latest type of streamline car differs from a motor of 1905.

Warren William plays the role of Kenneth Bixby, Joan Blondell is Anne and Genevieve Tobin is the ultra-romantic Julia in this modern comedy of errors. Julia's lawless husband is played by Hugh Herwert and Wallace Ford has the role of a lawyer friend of the family who complicates matters by trying to settle everything out of court.

1933 Wheat Crop To Be Smallest During 37 Years

The average of the past five years. This has increased the marketings of livestock and is beginning to affect milk production.

A production of 2,201,000,000 bushels of corn was predicted, an increase of about 7,000,000 over the forecast a month ago.

But the present crop was said to be 584,000,000 bushels smaller than that of last year and about 221,000,000 less than the 1926-30 average.

The estimate of oats production now stands at 698,531,000 bushels, nearly 11,000,000 greater than the September forecast. Average production for the 1926-30 period was 1,189,693,000.

The production of milk per cow on Oct. 1 averaged about one percent lower than on that date last year.

Chief increases in the forecast over last month were potatoes, five percent; beans, 10 percent; tobacco, four percent; grain sorghums, nine percent; and cotton, as previously announced, about four percent.

On the other hand, the estimates for apples, peaches, pears and peanuts showed decrease of two percent or less.

CASH IS ALLOTTED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The Public Works Administration today allotted nearly $25,000,000 to 27 non-federal projects in 19 states, which officials said would provide 176,000 men months of employment.

Included in the allotments was $1,500,000 for a bridge across Apalachicola Bay, Florida.
