SMITH MAY BEAT HIS G. O. P. RIVAL TO NOTIFICATION

Several Party Heads Urge Governor To Give Nation His Views Ahead Of Hoover; Others Want Him To Wait

ALBANY, N. Y., July 17.—(INS)—Governor Al Smith was seriously considering whether he should have his notification before or after that of Herbert Hoover, his Republican presidential opponent.

Some of the Governor's closest friends have advised him to have the notification date fixed August 4, a week ahead of the Republican ceremony.

While his mind is still open on the subject, and he is securing the views of all his advisers, the Governor is said to be inclined to present to postpone his notification until about a week after the Republican meeting.

Not only are some of the Governor's advisers urging him to "beat Hoover to it" so far as the notification is concerned, but it was learned that several national committees have offered the same advice.

2 ISSUES TO BE EMPHASIZED IN DRIVE OF G. O. P.

Prosperity And Competent Government Management Of Coolidge Administration To Be Outlined To Nation

Party Orators Plan Intensive Campaign

Mr. Coolidge To Take Active Part In Campaign Planning To Deliver Two Speeches

CEDAR ISLAND LODGE, WIS., July 17.—(INS)—Herbert Hoover was determined today to base his drive for the presidency on the two great issues of Republican prosperity and competent governmental management as evidence in the Coolidge administration.

This was the principal development of the Republican nominee's conference with President Coolidge at the summer White House. These issues previously received the endorsement of Vice President Charles W. Dawes and of many high Republican leaders who saw the nominee before he left Washington.

Hoover will emphasize these two issues in his speech of acceptance to be delivered August 11 at Leland Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. They will be stressed too by party spokesmen all over the country and a great army of Republican orators who will invade every hamlet and town once the campaign gets under way.

The President himself will take an active part in the campaign speaking at least two political speeches in the heat of the campaign. He was said to have given this assurance personally to Hoover. One of the President's addresses will be delivered in Boston, it was reliably reported, while another probably will be made in New York City.

The Republican nominee and Mrs. Hoover were the house guests of the President and Mrs. Coolidge at the summer White House since yesterday morning. The Hoovers will leave tonight, to resume their westward journey to Palo Alto. The nominee will join his train at Duluth, motoring there from the presidential lodge.

Hoover won himself a brief vacation by visiting the President, and Mr. Coolidge took the nominee fishing. They spent yesterday afternoon angling on the quiet waters of the Brule, a rural stream that encircles the presidential lodge.

A formal announcement by Everett Sanders, secretary to the President, declared Hoover and Coolidge had each caught eight fish. Sanders however indicated that he had not, quoted either's catch. At first he took newspapermen the two noted Republican anglers had caught "sixteen or seventeen fish, equally divided."

When a war asked him whether each had caught "eight and a half fish," Sanders reduced the total to sixteen. It was whispered around though that Hoover had proved a better fisherman than the President having had much more experience.

Nobile Sorry He Allowed Self To Be Saved First From Floating Sea Of Ice

BERLIN, July 17.—(INS)—Gen. Umberto Nobile, leader of the ill-fated polar voyage, is now sorry he allowed himself to be rescued first from the ice, according to a dispatch from Prague today quoting private radiograms received there from Fraulein Behounek. Nobile made this statement aboard the Citta di Milano to Fraulein Behounek herself, it was stated.

May Stop Search

The Franklin is a sister of F. Behounek, of Czechoslovakia, a member of the Nobile expedition, who is now a refugee on board the Russian ice breaker. He was a member of the Vigliani group that was picked up from the ice by the Krasin last Friday night.

When news of the Italia disaster reached her Fraulein Behounek left Prague late in May for King's Bay, Spitzbergen. She has been there ever since keeping in touch with the rescue efforts. After visiting Gen. Nobile on board the Citta di Milano, Fraulein Behounek sent word that she believed the explorer's health is permanently impaired by his physical sufferings.

According to the messages from the Czechoslovakian girl, Nobile said he was persuaded to leave the ice by Behounek and Lundberg, the Swedish aviator who eventually carried him off. Nobile said Lundberg threatened to fly back his plane empty handed unless he consented to go.

Nobile's version was that, when radio repairs were delayed following their landing on the ice on May 25, Dr. Finn Malmgren determined to try to walk across the ice to land at first all the members of the party except the two wounded members—Nobile himself and Ceccioni—wanted to accompany Malmgren. Behounek finally decided to remain.

Nobile declared he vainly tried to persuade Malmgren to abandon his project and remain in camp. Malmgren, Mariano and Zappi departed but the majority of the group remained.

TEXAS BOLTERS OPEN DRIVE TO DEFEAT SMITH

Ex-State Senator Collins Implores 400 Delegates To Dallas Meeting To Get Behind Hoover Candidacy

Nominee's Wet View Target For Attack

New Yorker Charged With Repudiating Party Platform In Note To Delegates

DALLAS, Tex., July 17.—(INS)—"We are assembling here for the sole purpose of starting a statewide campaign to carry Texas for Herbert Hoover, and to defeat Al Smith."

Amid a salvo of cheers, former Senator V. A. Collins, of Dallas, thus opened the statewide mass meeting of dry Democrats here today. About 400 delegates were present for various sections of the state and considerable enthusiasm greeted each attack on Governor Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic presidential nominee, by the fiery Collins.

"I am glad that the test against making any religious qualifications for office is in the constitution," Collins shouted. "But any man that would strike down the Eighteenth Amendment would also strike down the provision guaranteeing religious freedom. That guarantee was written into our constitution by men who had suffered martyrdom at the hands of Al Smith's crowd in Europe."

Housholder Letter Says Jax Attorneys Get Sum Of $20,000

Jax Said To Have Five Attorneys

Stenographer Salary Makes $21,500 Total, Message Discloses

Mayor E. F. Housholder today published a letter said to be from Austin Miller, Jacksonville city attorney, reciting the local expenses of the City of Jacksonville which radically differ from the expenses as listed in a telegram received by The Herald from John T. Alsop, Jr., mayor of Jacksonville.

The Jacksonville city attorney's letter declared his own salary was $5,900 a year and that the salaries of three assistants, a special bond attorney and the bond attorney's stenographer brought the total legal expenses to some $21,500 a year.

The telegram received by The Herald from Mayor Alsop follows: "ANSWERING YOUR WIRE CITY ATTORNEY'S SALARY FIFTY-NINE HUNDRED DOLLARS PER YEAR, NO COMMISSIONS PAID NOR EXTRA FEES, JOHN T. ALSOP, JR., MAYOR. His wire was sent in answer to the following inquiry from The Herald: "Please wire collect immediately how much your city attorney is paid including retainer for commissions on bond sales, and any other extra fees."

Below is reprinted the letter Mayor Housholder is said to have received from the Jacksonville city attorney: Hon. E. F. Housholder, Mayor, Sanford, Fla. Dear Ernest: Yours of the 13th received. The legal department of the City of Jacksonville is a regular department of the city. I have the department with a salary of $5,900 a year. I have three assistants. One receives $4,800, one $3,000 and one $2,700.

We also have a city bond attorney who handles all city bond matters at a flat salary of $3,000 per year, plus $125 per month for his stenographer. These amounts are paid out of premiums on bonds and are handled as an expense incident to the issuing of the bonds. All members of the legal department are obligated to take outside work, and all expenses are borne by the city. This is necessitated for the reason that the charter limits the salary of the city attorney to $5,900, and of course, no man able to handle the city's business would hold the position for less.

COMBINED DRIVE AGAINST RUM AND DOPE IS PLANNED

Close Cooperation Between Customs, Prohibition and Coast Guard Services Is Ordered By Treasury Chief

WASHINGTON, July 17.—(INS)—Cooperation of the customs, prohibition and coast guard services to suppress the traffic in liquor and narcotics was specifically ordered today by acting secretary of the treasury Ogden L. Mills.

In official instructions, which went to all officers of these services Mills outlined the new treasury policy, evolved out of an exhaustive investigation of the situation.

While cooperation frequently has been urged among the various law enforcement branches of the Treasury Department, this marks the first time that an official order has been issued making it mandatory. It is taken to indicate that the government believes that concerted and unusual action must be taken to suppress the traffic in rum and dope.

Officers in charge of any branch or unit of the coast guard, customs, prohibition and narcotics services, stationed in the same city, were instructed to hold conferences twice monthly.

The purposes of these conferences will be the interchange between officers of all information and evidence relating to violations of the law, coming within their respective jurisdiction, in order that they may be investigated and prosecuted in an effective and expeditious manner," Mills' instructions said.

Where two or more services units in an investigation or where information or evidence supplied by an officer of one service is utilized by another full credit shall be given to the service or officer entitled thereto in the final report of the case," according to the order. This method was taken to keep up a better spirit in the services and to stimulate cooperation.

"Any difference of opinion as to the scope of a particular investigation, or as to the service that shall be primarily responsible, should be discussed and settled in a friendly exchange of views, keeping in mind at all times the purpose to be achieved and the necessity for unified harmonious action," Mills said.

"Problems difficult of solution, or in regard to which an agreement may not be reached, shall be submitted to the bureau in Washington and final decision shall be effected by conference between the heads of the services."

Giovanni Giolitti, Five Times Premier Of Italy, Is Dead

ROME, July 17.—(INS)—Messages of condolence from all parts of the world today poured into the city of Cavotere where Giovanni Giolitti, five times premier of Italy, succumbed to uremic poisoning early this morning.

The famous statesman who was known as the "Old Fox" of Italian politics, was 85 years old. At his bedside at the time of his death were his daughter, Mary, his son-in-law and his family physician, Dr. Chiaravito.

To the end he remained fully conscious. Just before passing on he facetiously remarked to his physician: "Do you know why I reached the age of 85? Because I always tried to avoid doctors."

He had strenuously resisted all efforts of those attending him to examine him thoroughly because he said he considered all attempts to combat death useless.

For 40 years, until eclipsed by the advent of Mussolini, Giolitti was always in the foreground of Italian politics. His long career was marked by much diversity.

"Friendship" Crew Prepared For Tour

New York, July 17.—(INS)—Miss Amelia Earhart, Wilmer Stultz and Louis Gordon, the "Friendship" fliers, will leave here tonight for Chicago, where a four-day celebration beginning Thursday, has been arranged in their honor. The fliers, accompanied by a small party of friends, will travel in a private car over the Pennsylvania railroad. The party will make a stop enroute at Altoona, Pa., where they will arrive early tomorrow morning. From Altoona they will motor to Williamsport, Pa., where a celebration has been planned. On their return from Williamsport a banquet will be held in their honor at Altoona.

POLICE HUNT BANDIT

High Point, N. C., July 17.—(INS)—Police searched for an unidentified bandit who shot and fatally wounded Bill McGinnis, in attempting to rob his store. The robber entered the store and demanded the contents of the cash register. When McGinnis refused, the bandit shot three times, and fled.

EXTENSIVE PROBE PLANNED IN SALE OF POSTAL JOBS

Indictment Of Howard And Others Causes New Move By Department Of Justice; Two Of Indicted Suspended

WASHINGTON, July 17.—(INS)—The indictment of Perry W. Howard, Republican national committeeman from Mississippi, will be followed by a widespread investigation of alleged sale of federal offices in the South, it was learned at the Department of Justice today.

The new inquiry is expected to be directed toward alleged abuses in the disposition of offices outside of postoffice appointments. Department of Justice agents, it is understood, already have been sent into several southern states with instructions to go thoroughly into stories of graft in connection with recommendations for presidential appointments.

Howard, an attorney in the Department of Justice office, and Scott Hubbard, U. S. Marshal for southern Mississippi district, indicated at Biloxi Miss., today were suspended by acting Attorney-General William D. Mitchell. A former order was issued by Mitchell, who at the same time said that the action did not prejudice the case against the men.

The suspension, it was said, would be effective until the two office holders have cleared themselves or been convicted in the Biloxi case. Mitchell added that there was nothing unusual in his course of action.

RACER STILL UNCONSCIOUS

DETROIT, July 17.—(INS)—George Soulers, of Lafayette, Ind., one of the country's leading automobile race drivers was still unconscious in a hospital early today as a result of injuries suffered Sunday when his car swerved into the inner railing.

BLEASE'S BOMBHELL

Pendleton, S. C., July 17.—(INS)—Sen. Cole Blease (D) of South Carolina, threw a bombshell into Democratic circles with his declaration that several southern states would have boycotted the Democratic national convention had they known the full extent of the "wet" views of Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Democratic national chairman John J. Raskob.

FATHER SERIOUSLY ILL

Pleasantville, Cal., July 17.—(INS)—Suffering from paralysis C. D. Henry aged father of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, was rapidly sinking today, according to his physicians. Mrs. Hoover, now enroute to California with her husband, is expected to reach here Thursday or Friday.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

OUR LIFE—Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go; keep her, or she is thy life.—Prov. 4:13. PRAYER—O Lord, may that mind be in us which was also in Christ Jesus.

The Herald is not as behoveth as some people allege, but it is read.

Whatever may be the excuses of the rescued Noble explorers, the fact remains that they left Dr. Malmgren cold.

If the City Commission fails to act in regard to the City Attorney, the people of Sanford should take the matter into their own hands.

An article in the Eustis Lake Region, describing a banquet, exclaims that "R. J. Holly Sr. was the fist speaker on the program. Forceful from the cradle, eh Bob?"

Here's a girl who says she's been proposed to two hundred times and turned 'em all down. That's nothing, we know a girl who had two hundred proposals from the same man and turned all of them down.

Heavens! Would J. Mussolic make a hit at some of our bridge parties. Says he, "Woman remains unchanged, the same as she has always been, with man the dominant note in civilization. She is just what man wills her to be, nor would she have it differently."

Doyle Carlton has written those newspapers which opposed him in the recent primary assuring them of his friendly feeling for them. By this sportmanlike act he is showing how well he knows how to wear the crown of victory, sometimes more unbecoming than the stigma of defeat.

The staid old Times-Union of Jacksonville, gets this one off: "South Louisiana man sank a five-gallon keg of moonshine in the waters of a swamp near his home. The bottom came out of the keg and that night the frogs ran all of the alligators out of the pond, it is stated." Whooper!

There are about 20,000 chances for a typographical error in a column of type. But that failed to appease the bride who valued her pulehrude and was described as the "bony bride" because the second "n" failed to drop on the linotype and the proofreader overlooked it.—Richmond Register.

The Tampa Tribune is conducting the first straw vote in Florida to determine if the state will remain Democratic in regard to presidential nominees. Have you ever seen a golfer who plays around a hundred pick and drop a few blades of grass to tell which way the wind blows before making his approach to the green? It is probably interesting to him to know the direction of the wind, but it doesn't help his game much.

Tom Heeney and Gene Tunney mix it for the heavyweight championship in about ten days, and there hasn't been enough ballyhoo yet to enable a man to know how to bet. Is interest in prize fighting decreasing or is it simply that the public objects to a Shakespearian lecturer donning the gloves? Heeney, that may be, Gene Tunney will probably not retire until he has been given a longer count than was in that memorable seventh.

Captain Egerstin and Major del Prete, Bahama, established a new distance record when they hopped from Rome to the coast of Brazil. This is more of a feat than the flight of Col. Lindbergh a year ago. Will wonders never cease?—Sanford Herald. Would the Herald claim that the modern Sheik, in a high powered automobile, achieves a greater feat when he crosses the ocean than did Daniel Boone when he crossed the Appalachians to Kentucky? There are such things as prizes, their followers are not so great in the eyes of the average citizen.—Clay County Times. Lewis and Clark blazed the trail to Oregon a good many years after Daniel Boone crossed the Appalachians, but there was the

A Proposition For Mr. DeCottes

According to a letter published in this morning's Signal and reproduced in this afternoon's Herald, the city attorney of Jacksonville writes to the Mayor of Sanford and informs him that Jacksonville employs four or five attorneys at a combined cost to the taxpayers of twenty thousand dollars a year. Granting, for the sake of argument, that Jacksonville does pay twenty thousand dollars a year for legal services, we can see no reason why the little City of Sanford should pay the same amount.

Mayor Housholder, in an interview in the morning paper, charged that the figures, taken from the City records and representing fees, commissions and expenses paid the City Attorney, were a "deliberate and malicious deception." He contends that The Herald has been grossly in error in its statements regarding the City Attorney. On the other hand, we maintain that the City has been wrong in granting to the City Attorney practically complete authority in running the City and that the moneys paid to him are exorbitant and out of proportion with fees paid for legal services in other cities.

We do not ask the people of Sanford to take our word for it; neither do we expect them to accept the unsubstantiated statements of Mayor Housholder. We do, however, believe that the matter is of sufficient importance to the taxpayers of Sanford to warrant a thorough investigation. And we suggest that a committee of at least thirty taxpayers be appointed by some impartial individual, such as the president of the Chamber of Commerce, to investigate the affairs of the City, especially as they pertain to the City Attorney's office, and to ascertain whether he has been receiving excessive fees.

We will further make the City Attorney this proposition. If such a committee, after careful investigation decides that The Herald is wrong, and that the City has been economical in the administration of its legal department, we will publicly apologize to Mr. DeCottes, and accord him our heartiest support in the future. But if the committee should decide that the City has actually been paying Mr. DeCottes more than he should receive, we think it would be a gracious act on his part to resign.

Getting A Divorce

Taking the axiom that "Money talks" too seriously, a New Jersey man eagerly wanting a divorce, got in trouble when he tried to make it say something in his favor. According to the Boston Globe, the late Jacob Haish, barbed wire king, condemned divorce one night at a banquet, and continued as follows:

"In nine cases out of ten," he said, "it would be a good thing for the world if all our authorities treated divorce like the Jersey justice."

"A man and his wife appeared before a Jersey justice, and the man said they'd like to get a divorce."

"What's the law on this pint, George?" the justice whispered to his clerk.

"Ye can't do it, judge," the clerk answered. "Divorce ain't in yer jurisdiction."

"The husband misunderstood the nature of this whispered talk, and he took a stocking full of coin out of his pocket and dangled it before the justice, and said:

"I'll pay ye big money for this here divorce, judge—big money."

"The justice frowned.

"Look-a-here," he said, "ye knowed afore ye come here that twa'n't in my jurisdiction to separate man and wife, and yet ye not only take up my time with yer talk, ye try to bribe me with money. How much ye got in that there gray sock, anyway?"

"Eight dollars, yer honor," stammered the frightened man.

"Well, all right, then," said the justice in a mollified tone. "I'll let ye off with a $5 fine for bribery and a $3 fine for takin' up my time with a case what my jurisdiction 'is out of."

SANFORD FORUM OPPOSES DeCOTTES

Editor Sanford Herald: You are doing a fine thing for the city of Sanford and I hope you will keep up the good work till we get rid of Geo. A. DeCottes. I think he should resign or be removed.

The city is getting in worse shape every day and will continue so until we get a bunch of honest men. You should keep on advocating for five commissioners the people want them. You have lots of friends who will stick to you in the stand you are taking so don't let up but keep the good work going. Also try and get the people to call mass meeting and take some action against present policy of commissioners.

Yours respectfully WILLIAM HENRY. The Socialist party would not confess to a faith in Sam. DeCottes, but it still goes on nominating candidates.—San Diego Union.

THE FEAR OF LIVING ST. AUGUSTINE RECORD

Some years ago a French novelist, Henry Bordeaux, wrote a novel entitled "THE FEAR OF LIVING." At first it attracted little attention, but slowly, because of its vivid originality and daring contrasts, it became known. It is now in its eighth edition and has been "translated" by the French Academy. The novel suggests that the great source of modern weakness and inability comes from fear—fear to face realities. There is a distinct tendency in modern life to place ease above achievement, to avoid risks and struggles, to evade hazards and adventure, and to shun responsibilities and hardships. These are mere symptoms of a more inclusive and all-pervading fear. Fear in a hundred and one form, virtually dominates life. It is beyond all question the greatest enemy to health, happiness, and service. Unless we conquer fear, fear will conquer us.

This is the thought brought out by Louis L. Massé, writing in a current magazine. He goes on to discuss this modern manifestation of the old fabled encounters of hero warriors and dragons. These days, and the fighting of mental monsters requires perhaps just as much bravery to overcome, as physical struggles did in the days when St. George fought the dragon. He who is armed spiritually need have no fear, either physically or mentally, provided his thinking can be directed along sane, and sensible lines. We hear much these days about "inhibitions." The subject has become popularized through Freudian psychology. It simply means a loss of faith to do that which one otherwise could do. In the olden days, before we learned all these modern terms, one simply said that a man "lost his nerve." Fear is the raw material; inhibition is the finished product. Many a potential artist is a mere dance-hall fiddler because of fear. In like manner, many a man capable of being the president of a large corporation, is an underling behind the counter because he is weighed down with lack of confidence. Of course we believe with Browning that "All error is the same with God." But we are highly unethical for any man to be less than he could have been.

WHY IS A NEWSPAPER? COLUMBUS ESQUIRE-SUN

By way of the Sanford, Fla. Herald we come again to the question "Why is a Newspaper?" and to an answer that varies somewhat from the expected formula. Says the Herald:

We have heard people say, even people who read, "Why is a newspaper?" One dear old lady says she learns the news of the world over the radio, she prepares her shopping list from circulars left on her door step, and when she loses anything she puts notices on the bulletin board in the post office. We would be, really at a loss to try to answer her question ourselves but we find in Time, a splendid weekly magazine, an answer by Dr. Thaddeus Lincoln Bolton, professor of psychology at Temple University, Philadelphia who says: "Suspect the altercation between hope and depression, after all something that our nature demand. And here is where the newspaper comes into our routine lives as a saving grace, snatching us from this dreary, lingering death by boredom."

"Showing the chaos, riding on the steel railway and going to the dance in the amusement park," he continues, "supply the necessary prods to children. The modern newspaper performs this function for the adult of higher mental level. We cannot possibly attend all the murders, fires, earthquakes, unsuccessful trans-Atlantic flights and other occurrences of the kind in person. The modern newspaper does that for us and thus saves our consciousness from 'innocuous' deatude."

This is, we believe, conclusive proof that there is some place in the universe for them.

In the text-books used in schools of journalism the accepted formula for the newspaper's raison d'être is: "to give the news and to interpret the news"—a formula, obviously, which offers a vast field for disagreement and debate. Is the first place what is news? Dr. Bolton, if we are to judge from the quotation, would seem to think that news is any physical occurrence which interests a number of people, without reference to the nature of the occurrence or the mentality of the interested group. Murder is, in one aspect of it, a physical occurrence and therefore news according to Dr. Bolton; whereas according to the Christian Science Monitor murder is not news at all. Moreover, Dr. Bolton apparently thinks of news as merely a kind of fodder to provide a cud for the mind—something to keep the mental muscles from going stale for lack of exercise. And he leaves out of consideration altogether that function of interpretation which the journalism text-books stress.

In our opinion, Dr. Bolton has propounded an ingenious theory, probably true for some people and proving, if it be true in only a measure, that there, Sanford Herald says, in the universe" for a paper. But we prefer the dictum of the good newspaper, which tried merely to provide order or even to record to its relative importance—news of ideas, principles and movements of murders and various fires. It must, if it is progressive force in society, also attempt to news, impartially, and constructively in-

CUBS AND BUCS EACH HAVE WON 7 GAMES IN ROW

Phillies And Braves Stretch Losing Streaks To Nine; Yankees Win Double Bill

NEW YORK, July 17.—(INS)—Scorn straight for the Cubs and Phillies and nine straight for the Yankees who couldn't win under Cracker Schalk have topped eight of their last 10 games under the management of the veteran Lena Blackburne. The pale horse tamed the Red Sox again yesterday, 4 to 0 and 9 to 1, with Faber and Blankenship doing the throwing. Boston is back in the old homestead the American League cellar.

The Yankees again took both ends of a double bill from Cleveland, 7 to 3 and 6 to 2, and there is a strong rumor current that the champions have snapped out of their slump. George Pipgras being up his 16th victory in the opener, when Babe Ruth smacked his 34th homer. Henry Johnson twirled the Yanks to victory in the nightcap, in which Robert Meusel made four hits, including a homer, for a perfect day at bat. Twenty four Indians were stranded on the bases.

After losing to the Athletics, 3 to 2, Detroit went wild on the eight inning of the nightcap and scored nine runs, winning 11 to 6. The A's are 12-1-2 games behind New York.

Dunlap's wild throw in the ninth gave St. Louis a 7 to 6 victory over Brooklyn.

The Giants made it three straight from the Reds. Lindstrom's hit in the tenth gave Genewick a 3 to 2 decision over Donahue.

Heavy hitting by big poison Wauer and Grantham helped Pittsburgh beat the Braves, 8 to 6.

Maguire drove in four runs as the Cubs outgassed Philadelphia 10 to 5.

General Alvin Crowder, a Washington discard, chalked up his eleventh win when the St. Louis Browns dosed out the Senators in the fifth, 4 to 2.

Wade Grid Course Will Be Attended By California Mentor

LAKELAND, July 17. (Special)

Honold is not in the business of coaching but is an ardent follower of the gridiron sport and a strong believer in the mentor of Alabama's Crimson Tide. He saw Wade's powerful eleven snatch victory from the Washington team at Rose Bowl in 1926, and in the following year witnessed the historic tie between Pop Warner's Stanford eleven and Wade's widely-heralded machine.

The Pacific coast fan has already reached this city and while awaiting the opening of the Wade school two weeks hence will do some vacationing around this section of Florida.

Fair Haven, N. J., July 17.—(INS)

Under the spreading pine tree the honest blacksmith stood and his rugged features registered incredulous amusement as he scanned a bold headline that proclaimed his defeat by Gene Tunney by the medium of a knockout.

Thomas pursued these shocking details attentively and bared his teeth in a grin, mirthless smile. "Seems to me," he remarked with a chuckle, "that Mr. Tunney has become a man killer overnight. I never heard before that he was such a terrible man. Where does he bury his dead?"

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 17.—(INS)—Another episode of that diverting spectacle, the defending champion, Loughran, and his challenger, Latzo, will clash tonight at Wilkes Barre, Pa. The fight is scheduled for 10 o'clock and will be a real one.

Loughran is a good fighter, but he is not a good guy even if he had never had it. Off hand, I would say that Loughran's one handed fight was a real one. He is a real fighter.

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 16.—(INS)

Professor of modern languages at Texas Christian University here, will spend his vacation this year as he did in 1927, studying the habits of the "lower class citizens" of Mexico.

Alvin has made an extensive study of the border Mexicans. He has lived among them for a long time and has developed a great deal of his time to learning their language, studying their physical and enjoying their folk songs. He hopes to popularize the border country and the Mexican people of the Birmingham, Ala., section.
