Kennedy Group Planning Steel Strike Study

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy's Senate labor subcommittee is quietly planning congressional hearings on the steel strike next month, informed sources disclosed today.

On Capitol Hill, informants said that even if the long labor dispute has been settled by the time Congress reconvenes, the hearings will proceed anyway. In that event, the subcommittee, which will study ways of settling future strikes which create national emergencies.

Although no dates for the hearings have been set, current plans call for a start about Jan. 6—the Wednesday when Congress reconvenes.

By that time, many political strategists now believe, Kennedy will have become an avowed, rather than an acknowledged, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

Just the scheduling of the hearings could provoke some controversy.

versy, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen III, a member of the subcommittee, has indicated he does not favor steel hearings during the period immediately after Jan. 6.

Under the Taft-Hartley Law timetable, which sent steelworkers back to work for 80 days under a court order, the workers must ballot on the companies' last offer soon after Congress comes back. Dirksen believes congressional hearings might be improper at that time.

Supreme Court Opens Session

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Supreme Court starts its December sessions today facing a new batch of racial cases, including a lower court order banning the Civil Rights Commission from Louisiana.

The justices meet today to hand down opinions and orders before starting to hear arguments the rest of the week.

The racial cases include a challenge to segregation in restaurants; integration problems in Arkansas and Tennessee schools; and a complaint of discrimination in a Gadsden, Ala. urban redevelopment program.

Food Fair Store Widens Driveway

Sanford's Food Fair has widened its driveway onto 25th St. and has eliminated the southernmost driveway on Oak Ave.

They also have built a new driveway onto 25th St. Delivery trucks going to and from Food Fair from Oak Ave. recently led to complaints to the city commission by Oak Ave. residents. No complaints have come from residents since the driveway alterations started according to Sanford's city manager.

VAH-7 bomb loading team in action arming A3D Skywarrior

Bombing Runs Highlight NAS Competition

Sanford based A3D bombers are lobbing artificial blockbusters into Lake George today in the second event of the Naval Air stations bombing derby.

Judges were still busy early this afternoon figuring which squadron crew won yesterday's simulated atomic weapon loading drill.

The Heavy Attack Wing One A3D bombers are invading the light aircraft domain by using the low altitude, low bombing maneuvers, hitting one public information officer, Lt. J. D. Langford said. The 80,000 pound planes have previously concentrated on high altitude bombing rather than the low flight low technique. Two A3D's from each of the five NAS squadrons will be in the Lake George maneuver until late this afternoon.

The Atlantic Fleet Light Attack Bombing Champions, having 12 of Jacksonville, will have their prestige challenged Friday when Cmdr. Ken Rowell of NAS VAH-7 flies an A3D against Cmdr. Bill Barrow of VAH 12 in low bombing competition. Barrow will be in the smallest type jet carrier ever flown.

Simulated bombing missions, will be held at the station tomorrow. Artificial storms and mechanical troubles inside a closed ground cockpit will test how a pilot reacts before he is given charge of a real plane.

Navy Jet Regains Altitude Record

EDWARDS AFB, Calif. (UPI) — The Navy said today one of its jet planes has regained the world altitude record for aircraft from Russia by flying to an unofficial height of 98,560 feet.

Vice Adm. Clarence E. Ekstrom commander of the air forces of the Pacific Fleet, said Cmdr. Lawrence K. Flint Jr., 39, made the flight Sunday in a McDonnell Phantom II jet. The Russian mark was 94,658 feet.

Flint was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross by Ekstrom for his record flight. Flint said he flew to 17,000 feet, opened up the throttle till the twin jet plane was going 1,530 miles an hour and then pulled the craft into a 45-degree climb. In the thin air at 90,000 feet he cut the jets and the craft coasted up to its record height of 98,560 feet.

Traffic Safety Survey To Be Asked By County

The county commission will ask the State Road Department to conduct a traffic safety study over the county to designate proper warning signs and center lining on all county roads.

The decision came after Commissioner Lawrence Swafford told the board of the need for center lining in his district and proper designation of traffic signs.

"I can't think of any county road that has a center line on it," Swafford said.

In asking the SRD for the study, the board also authorized Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to write to the department asking for the cost of such a program.

In other business during the session, the board adopted a resolution to abandon a portion of Orma

$25 Reward

Mrs. W. B. Thornton, 306 Magnolia Ave., today offered a $25 reward to anyone who can find the person who shot "Howlett" and have the shooter's name published in The Herald. "Howlett's Story" appeared on the editorial page of yesterday's Herald.

Ike Promises Pakistan Aid

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI) — President Eisenhower promised new military and economic aid to Communist-threatened Pakistan to bolster "a loyal people who love peace but put justice and freedom above all."

He had conferred for 80 minutes this morning on diplomatic matters with Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan, and he told a cheering crowd jammed on a sunbaked polo field:

"My conversations with President Ayub are on the basis that we are two nations with common interests and goals and the desire to cooperate for mutual security."

Eisenhower appeared with Ayub at an official welcome by the citizens of Karachi who gave him another of the tumultuous "I like Ike" receptions that have marked every stop on his 11-nation peace mission.

He hailed Pakistan as a courageous ally and thanked the crowd of 15,000 for the great reception Monday when more than a million persons thronged the streets to greet him with shouts of "Zindabad Ike" — long live Ike.

A 40-word communique summarizing talks between the two presidents said they "reviewed generally world wide political questions and in particular the problems of relations between the free world and the Sino-Soviet bloc."

Eisenhower will propose the change in hopes of freeing the next president from some of the ever-increasing details which burden the White House, the report said.

Newsweek said the first secretary's rank would equal that of a prime minister, and he would be authorized to sit in for a president at international meetings.

Eisenhower envisions the officer as a man of "commanding presence, accepted by Congress and other governments to speak for the first executive," the magazine said.

Two Sentenced

PISAR DEL RIO, Cuba (UPI) — Two American soldiers of fortune charged with plotting against the Castro regime received stiff prison terms today. Austin Young, 38, Miami, was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment while Peter John Lambton, 24, got 20 years.

The board also adopted a resolution thanking Capt. Lionel Arthur for his many years of service to the community. Capt. Arthur has been reassigned to another command.

Road and turn it over to the Sanford Naval Air Station for additional parking facilities. Commissioners also agreed to hold public hearings on two pieces of property that were approved for rezoning by the county zoning board.

The public hearings were scheduled for 10 a. m. Dec. 29. One is for a new shopping center in the Heffler Home area at Howell Park as C-1 commercial and the other is a 600-acre tract located near SR 419 for an industrial park by Seminole Ranches.

The board also adopted a resolution thanking Capt. Lionel Arthur for his many years of service to the community. Capt. Arthur has been reassigned to another command.

20 'Dangerous' Convicts Escape Carolina Jail

YANCOVILLE, N. C. (UPI) — Twenty dangerous convicts seized control of North Carolina's maximum security prison early today and fled with a collection of 17 weapons, including a submachine gun.

They left in a prison truck but were believed to have stolen two cars in Caswell County before heading for the Virginia state line only a few miles north of here. The FBI announced in Washington it was sending agents in to work on the case because of the theory that they had crossed into Virginia.

Prison officials sent bloodhounds out shortly before noon to search for a man, thought to have been one of the prisoners, who was seen about seven miles from here.

Leading the break was Charles (Yank) Stewart, a long-term "troublemaker" who had been returned to the Ivy Bluff prison camp only a few weeks earlier after an escape from the infirmary at Central Prison in Raleigh. With him was James Edward Christy, his companion in the Raleigh escape.

Stewart led a band of 11 white convicts and six Negroes that included six life terms, two convicted of burglary, two of murder, one of kidnaping and one of rape. All were described as hardened criminals, misfits who could not be housed in the state's other prison units.

About 15 prisoners, also described by officials as hardened criminals, stayed behind when the escapees opened the gates with keys they had stolen from the guard's control room in the one-story brick building.

The prisoners had about a three-hour head start on officers who did not learn about the break until about dawn.

Several of the prisoners were dressed in "pepper-sprayed" two-piece suits used to designate men in solitary confinement or segregation units. The others were wearing the standard brown uniforms.

Two Hospitalized In Auto Mishaps

Two women were hospitalized and a truck turned over in Seminole County accidents yesterday.

A car driven by 35-year-old Mrs. Harriett G. Norris of Winter Park hit another auto at the intersection of routes 17-92 and 436 Highway. Patrol Trooper J. L. Sikes said Mrs. Vera L. Nesbitt of Jacksonville was driving south on 17-92 when Mrs. Norris' car struck her after pulling onto 17-92 from 436. Sikes said Mrs. Nesbitt was taken to Florida Sanatorium, Orlando, with knee, face and arm injuries. Mrs. Norris was taken to Winter Park Hospital with a gash on her head and possible neck injuries. Mrs. Norris was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Spun around by a collision, a pickup truck turned over at the Sanford Ave. and old Orlando Highway intersection yesterday afternoon. Robert F. Grant Sr., 62 was driving south on Sanford Ave. and didn't stop at the fork in the road, Sikes said.

Theodore D. Morlang Jr., of the Sanford Naval Air Station was coming north on the old Orlando Highway when he hit Grant's truck and tumbled it over. Grant, a Route 2, Sanford resident, was charged with failure to yield right-of-way.

Gray said he will serve out his term unless his health prevents it. There were reports he was being asked to resign to Gov. LeRoy Collins could appoint State Hotel Commissioner Richard Edgerton to the post.

"The governor has never mentioned such a thing to me, nor has anyone acting in his behalf," Gray said Monday.

Highway Gets Okay

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Board of Administration today approved the financial soundness of a proposed $3,500,000 bond issue to finance acquisition of right-of-way to complete the four-laning of U. S. Highway 1 through Brevard County.

Blimp Lands Safely

LAKEHURST, N. J. (UPI) — A Navy blimp with 19 airmen aboard landed safely today after being forced by high winds to remain aloft for nearly two days. The blimp was moored to its mast after failing in two earlier attempts when ground escort vehicles failed to catch her trailing cables.

Ike Names Board

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower had named 20 members of a new commission on intergovernmental relations to study problems involving the federal, state and local governments. The new commission will make recommendations for allocating functions and tax revenues to the various levels of government.

Pleads Innocent

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — A former teamsters union local official, ousted from union posts both in Buffalo and Miami, Fla., pleaded innocent Monday to a charge of income tax evasion. Ernest G. Belles, a resident of Opa-Locka, Fla., was arraigned before Federal Judge John O. Henderson. He had surrendered to Florida authorities shortly after his indictment in early November.

Link Completed

MIAMI (UPI) — Top state and local officials will participate Saturday in opening the 36th St. causeway to Miami Beach, first completed link in a planned $168,000,000 interstate expressway system for the Miami area. Eventually the causeway will connect with Miami's multi-million dollar north-south expressway by pass at the 36th St. interchange already being built.

Ambassador Cheered

MIAMI (UPI) — A crowd of Cuban political exiles cheered and waved banners Monday when U. S. Ambassador to Cuba Philip W. Bonsal stopped here briefly. A spokesman for the group said the demonstration was in "congratulation of the work he has done in Cuba. The spokesman identified the estimated 100 persons who met at Miami International Airport as enemies of Premier Fidel Castro.

Hospital Architect To Be Considered

Seminole Memorial Hospital trustees will discuss choosing an architect for the $500,000 hospital addition at their meeting tonight. Letters received from several architects will be given due consideration, board chairman A. R. Peterson Sr. said today. Trustees Andrew Carraway, John Schirard and Peterson of Sanford, John Evans of Ovid and Robert Bradford of Altamonte Springs, will hold the 8 p. m. meeting at the hospital.

Atlanta Joins Continental Loop

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Branch trustees announced today that Atlanta has become the sixth member of the Continental League. But he said his circuit may never be completed so long as the majors maintain "absolute monopoly of players and territories."

Rickey, the 79-year-old Continental League president, charged "negative attitude" and American League President Joe Cronin with failure to give him an answer to a proposition that would have paving the way for competition of the new third league.

Basketball

The Seminole High School cagers open the 1959-60 basketball season here tonight against Lyman, starting at 8 p. m. The Jayvee game will be played at 7 p. m.

Ten Die As Winds, Snow Cover Coast

South Has Freezes

United Press International
A deadly winter storm swirled through New England today, leaving the East Coast clogged with snow and the South shivered in sub-freezing temperatures.

Gale-force winds powered the near-blizzard out of the Appalachians Monday through Pennsylvania and New York State and South as far as Virginia and North Carolina.

Officials blamed the storm for seven deaths by fire, auto accidents or asphyxiation in the South. In the North, a woman and her two granddaughters were killed in a fire near Liberty, Maine.

The storm dropped the mercury below freezing as far south as Orlando and Ocala, in Central Florida, but the Weather Bureau predicted a general warming trend. More snow flurries were expected today in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia as the storm center moved slowly up the St. Lawrence Valley toward Canada.

Sixteen school buses carrying scores of children were trapped in six-foot drifts in Pennsylvania and New York. Snow plows fought for hours before reaching the stranded students.

The storm, which sent 70-mile-an-hour winds whistling a destructive path through New York City, centered over Syracuse, N. Y. early today and lashed that city with four inches of snow blown by 45-mile-an-hour gusts.

Schools by the dozen closed their doors along the Atlantic coast.

Snow drifts up to five feet deep kept students home in Virginia and North Carolina and blocked mountain highways in Georgia, Tennessee and North Carolina.

In New York 70-mile-an-hour winds tore between skyscrapers, ripping canopies, smashing store windows and shredding umbrellas. The wind yanked small boats from their Long Island Sound lines.

Ocean liners, including the supersonic United States, were delayed in arriving by high seas and then held up in docking by the stiff winds.

Clear skies and sunny, warmer weather were expected in Florida later today after an early morning cold snap which dropped temperatures below freezing in northern Florida and caused frost through most of the state.

The mercury dipped to 27 at Cross City before dawn today, Tallahassee shivered at the 28 degree mark and Jacksonville recorded 29.

Readings in the high 30s and middle 40s were registered in the state's central portion and Miami had a low of 30 degrees. Key West, southernmost point in the continental U. S., recorded a chilly 60 degrees.

The U. S. Weather Bureau here blamed the cold spell on a high pressure area in the Gulf of Mexico which was moving eastward toward Florida this morning. Weather will warm up as the pressure axis moves toward land, the bureau said.

The two-day cold wave was the third in Florida in a week. At least eight persons died in home fires caused by heaters or stoves.

Director Gets Car

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Cabinet today authorized State Development Commission Director R. R. Fuller Jr. to buy a plush new automobile for his own use at a cost of $1,000.

Benson Defeats Bryant In Casselberry Election

Casselberry Mayor William M. Benson defeated challenger Joseph D. Bryant 366-152 yesterday in the Casselberry mayoralty race. Benson will serve for a year. He was appointed mayor in October after Donald Wilson gave up the post to become acting Casselberry postmaster.

Ben Evans and Lyle E. Swope were elected aldermen. Evans had 298 votes and Swope 285. Defeated candidates on the alderman ballot were Lester E. Brantton, who polled 146 votes and George Howard, who received 128. Evans and Swope will each serve two years.

PLAYHOUSE NAVY'S presentation of "Bell, Hook and Candle" is in rehearsal, with Bill Weston shown directing Charlene Goldman, who plays the leading female role. Weston, of Winter Park, also acts in the play, which will be staged at the Civic Center Jan. 8 and 9 by the Navy theater group.

Jail Facility Cost 'Too High', Board Told

A former county official and Sanford attorney today urged the County Commission to set up a special committee of taxpayers to study the need for new jail facilities as early estimates for a new jail "were too high and a burden for the county."

George A. Speer Jr., who was county prosecutor for 12 years, said that the $700,000 figure for a new jail was too high and would affect the future growth of the county as "it would load us with heavy debt service."

Speer, who said he was appearing before the board as an "interested taxpayer," cautioned the commission to seriously consider additions to the present jail and set up a committee of taxpayers "who really know the problem and will study it."

He said in Brevard County a new jail was built at a cost of only $325,000 and cited Brevard growth as larger than this county's.

However, both Chairman John Kruder and Commissioner Lawrence Swafford angrily labeled Speer's appearance as just publicity stunt to get his name in the paper.

"If you are going to paint a picture, paint a true picture," Swafford said. Kruder said that Brevard County has two holding jail facilities to take care of prisoners at each end of that county.

He said the commission plans to survey other counties before bringing back any recommendations on what a new jail would cost.

"We hope to build the most economical jail possible," Kruder said, "and I doubt there is anyone in the county who doesn't realize the need for a new facility."

Speer also blasted the current assessment roll as unequal and "arbitrary."

Swafford lashed out that Speer had been against any kind of progress in the county and said that if he had taken a progressive attitude when he was a county official "we wouldn't have to worry about a new jail now."

European Coast Hit By Gale; 60 Believed Dead

LONDON (UPI) — Gales swept the North Atlantic and parts of Europe for the second day today, leaving at least 60 dead and bringing the threat of new floods to the ravaged French Riviera town of Frejus.

Twenty-one persons died when a ferryboat was swamped and captured on Lake Megdova, near Karditsa in Greece. Another 17 drowned in the sinking of a tug off northern Portugal and 12 were lost from a trawler that foundered on rocks just 30 yards from the coast of Scotland. Still others died in storm-caused accidents throughout Europe.

Flood-devastated Frejus, hit by a mountain of water last Wednesday when the Reynan River collapsed the Malpasse Dam six miles inland, was tormented by heavy rains today.

There were fears the Reynan River would swell over its banks and bring more flooding and misery to the people of Frejus, still busy looking for bodies in the tangled flood debris and digging graves for the 370 corpses already found.

Stevenson Looming As Prime Darkhorse On '60 Demo Ticket

United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—The Democratic Party had a message for voters today — don't count Adlai Stevenson out for a long shot.

The Advisory Council of the party wound up three days of policy-making, politicking and a speechmaking with a 500-page report of 1,500 party leaders Monday night, featuring a 1950 "party show" of new presidential candidates.

But it was two-time loser Stevenson who got by far the warmest reception of the night when a host of Harry Truman introduced seven top Democrats and predicted one of them would be the next president of the United States.

Stevenson pretended astonishment that he was even in the category and said he was grateful "people still consider me alive."

It may have been out of sentiment, but his ovation considerably topped those for the next two — Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Hubert Humphrey who came out about even.

The occasion was a tribute to 71-year-old Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

But the evening's highlight were the six-minute speeches by the presidential contenders, also including Gov. Edmund Brown of California, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Gov. Robert Weyner of New Jersey and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

Truman made the main address of the evening. He ripped into President Eisenhower as thwarting the will of the people with veils of Democratic congressional action and also denounced what he called "hot house" liberals within the Democratic Party.

"We need a vigorous, fighting, genuine liberal, and not a hot-house liberal, who talks the game but doesn't play it," Truman said.

Civil War Vet Losing Battle To Stay Alive

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Walter Williams, 117, the last surviving veteran of the Civil War, lost ground today in his fourth battle this year with pneumonia.

Williams started gasping for breath Sunday night and was put in an oxygen tent. His physician, Dr. Russell Wolfe, said he is "dangerously ill."

Mrs. Willie Mae Bowie, Williams' daughter with whom he lives, sat by his bedside during the night giving him water and milk in an eyedropper.

"But only a little bit of milk," she said. "I have to be very cautious, but we want to keep as much liquid down him as possible."

Williams has been seriously ill before, but he has always battled back. He recovered from his last attack of pneumonia barely in time to celebrate his 117th birthday on Nov. 14.

Worry Clinic

Paul's problem was probably shared by many of the successful lawyers and doctors and business leaders of your city when they were young. For most Americans have been infatuated during the teen. Those who follow their Brains instead of their Heart usually occupy the top jobs in your town and enjoy the best living standards, so get hip, young folks:

BY GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M. D.

CASE C — 084: Paul C., aged 27, will graduate from high school this term.

"Dr. Crane, I feel terrible," he speaks nervously, "and I am slipping in my grades because I don't know what to do."

"I am in love with a classmate. But she wants us to get married right away."

"However, I have no job and believe I should go on to college. When I tell her that, she insists I don't love her. And now she has started dating an older fellow in our town."

"Last week she told me they were engaged and plan to get married soon."

"Well, I love her with all my heart, so I can't get or sleep. And I can't concentrate on my books at all."

"She said she'd run off and marry me, even yet, if I'd elope with her. That's what I want to do more than anything else in the world."

"But I just couldn't support a wife, could I? I'm going crazy! Please tell me what to do."

PAUL IS SMART

Teen-agers, when you are madly in love, you need to imitate Paul. Seek outside advice. Consult your clergyman or physician or school counselor or write to me.

For older advisers are much like the road maps you would consult if you were planning an auto trip into strange country. They tell you what's ahead.

We older advisers also have no reason to delude you. But we have seen cases like yours by the hundreds if not thousands. So listen to our mature counsel, since it is correct.

Infatuations like Paul's are terrifically upsetting. You then feel as if you'd rather be dead than go onward without your sweet-heart.

Or as if all joy and laughter would leave you forever. You even get a dull ache in your solar plexus region and walk around in a daze.

But follow the advice of your mature counsellors. Let your Brain be Captain. Don't let your unruly emotions mutiny against it.

During infatuations, your Brain is still a better guide than your heart.

FACTS ABOUT LOVE

Although you feel as if you can NEVER love anybody else, just remind yourself that millions of Americans have felt exactly as you do.

REV. RICHARD CARTER will arrive in Sanford Thursday to become interim pastor of the Congregational Christian Church here. Mr. and Mrs. Carter, who come from Suffield, Conn., will live at the church parsonage at 811 S. Palmetto Ave. until after Easter. Rev. Carter's sermon next Sunday will be "Foundations of Hope." He is a World War II Navy chaplain and a Rotarian.

Disaster Search May Be Renewed

MIAMI (UPI)—A Civil Aeronautics Board investigator said the CAB would ask a search be renewed for the wreckage of a National Airlines plane that crashed in the Gulf Nov. 18, killing all 42 persons aboard.

Investigator Charles Collar said he and his staff now have little to work on in attempting to determine the cause of the disaster.

The search was called off last week after 10 bodies were recovered. Only small parts of the plane were found.

Collar said searchers had been unable to pinpoint exactly where the major portion of the wreckage might lie on the bottom of the Gulf. The Gulf is several hundred feet deep in many spots of the general area where the DC-7 plane went down.

Strange Race

EPSOM, England (UPI)—One of the strangest events ever seen on a race track took place at Epsom Downs in 1828 when a gelding named The Arrow raced against a pig for 150 yards. The wagering was heavy. The pig won.

Christmas Parade Worth The Effort

The Christmas Parade was a fine one and it got a good turnout from a fine crowd. The turnout warranted the interest taken by the Jaycees in making the arrangements and the financial support of a large group of Sanford merchants.

The Jaycees put in the physical effort and their arrangements were good, as the parade showed. The big factor, however, was that old devil, money, which was put up by the merchants at a time when there was considerable doubt that there would be a parade at all.

We would like to acknowledge the participation by all the firms which supported the parade. And we know those 25,000 who saw it join us.

IN OUTER SPACE—Across the 16-inch screen in front of me the earth, 300 miles below, appears to be rolling slowly even though the speed of this space laboratory in orbit is 18,000 miles an hour.

Television screens are everywhere on the three walls of knobs and gauges. One screen even shows the bathroom in the floor below this four-story, 30-foot-outpost in space.

I don't know just how I got up here. Perhaps it was partly imagination. (The conventional way is by a two-stage Atlas-Centaur missile.) But how it happened was I was out in the lobby of the Sheraton-Park Hotel, fascinated by the talk of some of the 7,000 rocket scientists (including Russians) meeting here. Next thing you know, I was in the exhibition hall, and a door closed behind me.

This space ship is the first of its kind ever built. It was completed just last Saturday at the Convair astronautics plant in San Diego and flew here in pieces for the meeting of the American Rocket Society.

I am the first one to ride in it, and it doesn't take much imagination—once you're inside this control room—to get the astronaut "feel."

The main function of this outpost is to give our space men genuine orbit training (they may need as many as 300 hours) before launching them off for the moon, Mars or Venus.

It was designed by Kraft Ehrlich, German scientist who, like Werner Von Braun, worked on the Nazis' V-2 rocket. This space lab is the step that follows the first man-in-orbit Mercury Project.

Although in reality this thing won't be ready to orbit for a couple of years, you can't convince me I'm not actually sailing along. Before I stepped in here, the people from General Dynamics, who run Convair, described its performance to the smallest detail. Let's assume this trip is the McCoy...

The cone-shaped lab was shot up here empty by a two-stage rocket fueled with liquid hydrogen. Once in orbit, another load was whirled up—human cargo, four men—riding inside a space glider. The glider affixed itself to the shell of the second stage rocket, which is still fastened behind this lab, and the men, in space suits, climbed in through a hole in the bottom.

There's about one-tenth the gravitational pull that you have on earth, enough to give you a slight feeling of up and down. That's because this tube is made to tumble about three turns a minute.

One strange thing: a TV screen shows the outpost itself, turning gently. The transmitter is in a small, accompanying satellite. The picture assures you everything is okay on the outside.

Inez Robb Says

By INEZ ROBB

When I read the sad news that good-natured Max Baer had died of a heart attack, the memory of the night when Joe Louis delivered the coup de grace to both Mr. Baer and me welled up, crystal clear.

On that occasion, Sept. 24, 1936, in Yankee Stadium, a lot of the customers and sports writers felt that Max had no stomach for the fight. My stomach, so to speak, was in Max's corner.

For one who hates violence and gave as the devil hates holy water, I have not though my share of both—as a reporter. At one time, editors were crazy (sic) to send me to heavyweight bouts, and did.

No, no, I never wrote about the boxing, per se. My forte was what is known in City Rooms as "the crowd story."

Editors thought I had a felicitous hand with such a story. In the case of a heavyweight bout, it should wrap up the excitement and hysteria of the event, touch on the political, social, stage and antic figures at the ringside, the avid fans in the 62 seats a good 75-cent taxi ride from the Coliseum—and I knew that Max, mercifully, was down for the last time.

It is just possible that among my few distinctions is the fact that I voluntarily walked out of the heavyweight fight without waiting for the Moment of Truth. I was to see a number of Louis fights after that, but never again did I see such a bloody one.

The last big fight I ever saw was in June, 1948, when Joe Louis and Billy Conn fought the first big post-war bout. After that I swore off, and the editor had to find someone else to do crowd stories.

That fight made me realize that not only did I thoroughly dislike boxing but that I had every bit as much distaste for 99 out of every 100 boxing fans. The two fat, soft, middle-aged men, in their tailor-made, pearl buttoned polo coats, sent to whom I sat, kept up a constant, staccato roar at the two World War II veterans in the ring.

"G'wan and fight, y'bums!" they yelled, chomping on their $1 cigars. "Quit waitin' and fight, 'bums!"

I looked at both those curly cutlammers, who hadn't ever been in any war and who wouldn't have lasted short of a miracle, sixty seconds in the ring with either Mr. Louis or Mr. Conn. And they really weren't that much older than the two fighters, either.

As I pushed past the fat pair to get out of the stadium, I hissed at them: "Whom do you think you're calling bums, y'bums!"

Am right then and there, I gave up boxing forever.

World-Wide TV May Be Possible

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States plans to launch a huge "radio mirror" satellite next spring that may pave the way eventually for instantaneous world-wide television.

The satellite will be an aluminum-coated balloon, as tall as a 10-story building. Radio stations will be able to bounce signals off it to other stations thousands of miles away.

Ultimately, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration expects to put enough satellites into orbit to create a space communications system for the world. This would make it possible for any community on earth to tune in on a TV broadcast from any other.

In announcing the new Project Echo Sunday, NASA made an exception to its long-standing policy of withholding information on such undertakings until after they have been launched.

It said this was necessary to give communications specialists enough advance notice to make technical preparations. This would include Soviet radio technicians.

'Ham' Operators Aid Missionary

OLIVET, Mich. (UPI)—Friends of the Rev. James Bernard report the African missionary has been successful in a "long range" appeal for a boat.

Bernard, former Assembly of God pastor here who now serves in Liberia, broadcast a short-wave request for a boat he could use to navigate the streams around his mission.

The message was picked up by a ham radio operator in Illinois and the request found its way to a New England congregation which raised funds, bought the vessel and shipped it to Africa.

Columbia Counts Romantic Credits

NEW YORK (UPI)—Life on the Columbia University campus is apparently quite conducive to romance.

The university recently searched its archives and found that a number of famous men met or married their wives during their student days at Columbia.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, for instance, was wed to Eleanor Roosevelt while he was attending Columbia Law School. The late Sen. William Langer (R-N.D.) met his wife while he was studying law, too.

Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, met his wife-to-be while they were both students at Columbia. Famed pediatrician Benjamin Spock got married while at the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Gay Weekend
WASHINGTON (UPI)—House investigators released testimony today showing that Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was among high military officers entertained by a big missile contractor at a plush Bahamas resort. The Martin Co., of Baltimore, told a House armed services subcommittee that it spent $18,000 on 217 week-end golfing parties for nine generals, nine admirals and other guests.

Weasels hunt rodents and birds. In winter their fur turns white and they are called ermine.

Miss Redding Honored At Morning Coffee

Mrs. H. Wayde Rucker and Mrs. W. D. Hoffmann were co-hostesses at a morning coffee at the church home, 940 Valencia, Dr. Thursday, from 10:30 to 12 a. m. Guest of honor was Miss Harriett Redding, bride-elect.

Living room decorations included a white arrangement of Pigi Mums in a silver basket on the mantel and another white arrangement of Pom Poms in a white ceramic container. An arrangement of pink carnations in a silver bowl, placed the buffet and the refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink chrysanthemums, featuring a sophisticated lady figurine.

Refreshments of nut nibbles, date bars, a variety of party sandwiches and coffee were served to the guests, who called during the appointed hours. Mrs. Al Hunt received the guests as they arrived. Mrs. George Wells and Mrs. Floyd Palmer presided at the coffee service and Mrs. George Quinn and Mrs. Harry Hooley assisted with the serving.

Jaycee Wives Hold Benefit

The Jaycee Wives club held a "Crazy Hat" benefit card party, Friday night, at the Sanford Women's Club building. All those attending were eligible to compete in the contest for the craziest hat worn to the party.

From among the many "Weird" and crazy looking chapeaux, a creation of playing cards, lopped with a huge poinsettia, made and worn by Mrs. John B. Sangster, was chosen as the winner.

Mrs. Carol Dennison, won the award for high score at bridge and Mrs. Alfred Chiles won low. Refreshments of cookies, cup cakes, nuts and punch were served during the evening.

A large variety of Christmas decorations made by the Jaycee wives were displayed across the stage. They were offered for sale to those attending. All articles, not sold at the end of the party, were auctioned off to the highest bidder.

The proceeds of the party will be used by the club to help furnish the Jaycees information booth.

Degrees Conferred By O.E.S.

At a meeting of Seminole Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., held at Masonic Temple, Sanford, the following candidates received the degrees of the Order:

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Markos, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Causey, Mrs. Lena Hammond and Mr. John Carver. Mr. Carver's daughter, Mrs. R. V. Thompson, who fills the station of Esther, and his sister, Mrs. R. L. White, who has the station of Electa, had the pleasure of helping initiate their father and brother.

A first-time visitor of the Chapter was Miss Dorothy E. Heath, Past Matron of Dwight Clark Chapter No. 149, Indian Orchard, Mass.

It was decided that members who wished to do so would purchase gifts for the guests of the Masonic home in St. Petersburg, labeling the gift whether for a man or woman, to be distributed from their tree on Christmas morning. Seminole chapter will hold its annual Christmas party following the business meeting Dec. 17, with an exchange of gifts.

Keller Family Hold Reunion

The L. L. Keller family of Lake Monroe held a family reunion, recently, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. U. Lee, on West First Street. This was the first gathering of the families in 14 years.

The families met in the garden of the Lee home and enjoyed a barbecued chicken and covered dish dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Keller have five children, 18 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Those enjoying the event were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rans and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller and children of Orlando, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stirling and children of Sea Island, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. I. U. Lee and children, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lively and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Gromer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Holcombe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan and children and Billy Price.

Pink Ladies Sell 325 Tickets For Successful Benefit Party

An enjoyable evening was experienced by those attending the "Pink Ladies" Card Party in DeBary last week. A pink color scheme was carried out in room decorations, and pink ice box pie and coffee were served by smiling hostesses dressed in their cherry pink hospital auxiliary uniforms.

Mrs. V. E. Butler, Seminole Memorial Hospital auxiliary president, welcomed the guests and remarked, that "Pink Ladies in DeBary and Sanford are dedicating themselves to service in the Seminole Hospital and last year gave over 30,000 hours service, besides gifts of equipment."

She thanked the ones who worked so hard on this party, namely: Mrs. Vivian McCalley, card party chairman and her co-chairman, Betty Robelle, Mrs. Margaret Elmers and her committee who provided dessert, Mrs. Edith Broomer for prizes table arrangements, Mrs. Agnes Yost and Mrs. Florence Runkle, ticket committee.

Mrs. Butler introduced guests, Harry Weir, hospital administrator, and Mrs. R. N. Blackwelder, former auxiliary president and Mrs. W. Faulk, chairman of program and projects.

Cash donations were given by Misses Lynn Reed, Rubello, and Peterson. A hand painted candy dish donated by Mrs. Yost and Mrs. Fiestal was won by Mrs. Marie Bentsch of DeBary, a plant arrangement from Mrs. Irving Fryor of Sanford was won by Mrs. W. Bevier of DeBary. Mrs. Huppert Stronach painted a beautiful tray as a prize, and it was won by Mrs. Frank Stoner, DeBary. Mrs. Edna Decker donated a handmade stole and the lucky winner was Mrs. Butler.

Door prize winners were Mrs. Mrs. T. Broune, Mrs. Sally Wood side, Mrs. Laura Arrington, Mrs. H. Lasher, all of DeBary and Mrs. Jean Faulk of Sanford.

A pink perfection, holiday centerpiece, auctioned by Capt. H. M. Vost. Perfection Dairy furnished the coffee and whipping cream. It was considered a most successful affair, with 325 tickets sold and prizes for all 30 tables.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

Tonight's basketball game at the SHS gym marks the opening of a season that would be the finest in the history of the school. With a little bit of luck and a lot of rebounding that is!

For years now, different coaches have tried to bring the basketball program out of the dark ages at SHS and it wasn't until Bud Laver came here that things started making a turn for the better. Since taking over as head mentor several years ago, Bud has done a tremendous job with something that seemed destined to "die."

The interest in basketball around the local school had just about dropped off the end but the hard work of Laver and Dick Rivers has given the game a great comeback. It's true that the Seminoles had several games each year on the schedule that they disposed of fairly easily, and although the wins weren't particularly impressive they had a purpose in the program of Coach Laver.

So fast that since the teams in recent years had found the going so rough and had been winning only four or five games in an entire season that the first thing he had to do was to schedule a few easy games just to get his team used to winning.

Believe me, the results of this theory have begun to pay off. Although the Seminoles have had just seasons against the big teams, they continue to pick up more and more victories against them and before long they will be as highly regarded as any school in the district.

We now have the coaching and a fair supply of material, so all we need to round out the building program is fan support. The biggest reason for a lack of interest has been the poor support by spectators. It's hard to believe after visiting out of town schools where they pack the stands, that sometimes there are only 50 people at the home games here. Here at Seminole not even the students, parents, or for that matter, the Seminole Boosters will turn out for the games.

Let's try to turn over a new leaf and support the Seminoles during the rest of the school year. The boys playing basketball appreciate a crowd of cheering fans as well as the football players so plan now to pick up a schedule from the players and give them our full support all season long.

When you come up and see Ray Lundquist and Jimmy Gracey and fellows like that in action I'm sure you will return. It's worth the admission just to watch Lundquist when the action starts and Gracey will amaze you with his fine shooting and point making. We can't overlook the rest of the squad either, for George Perides, Terry Christensen, Doug Tammy, Charles Oravatz, John Allred, Alex McKibbin, John Taylor, Eddie Fuhrman, Mike Roberts and John Marsh are also fine players that will give you something to come out for.

The JV's begin the action in the first game at 7 p. m. in the SHS Gym so plan to be there. By the way, a former Seminole, Buck Metts, will be coaching the Lyman varsity tonight.

Rickey May Let Lose 'Blockbuster'

MIAMI (UPI)—Branch Rickey, "the familiar old battle scarred back in his eye, promised to let loose Blockbuster today against the American League which he feels is trying to sabotage the Continental League."

"I will have a statement today and when I'm through they will hear me," declared the still fiery, 61-year-old Continental League president.

Conjecture as to what the impatient Rickey possibly could have up his sleeve ranged from a prompt intimation of going to Congress, to still another guess that he may dramatically produce three franchises needed to round out his proposed eight-team league.

Without intending to do so, President Joe Cronin of the American League practically forced Rickey's hand with Monday's announcement that "no definite decision has been reached regarding expansion of the American League."

"We were not the least surprised," Rickey said calmly. "The National League's announcement that it has 'no present plans for expansion' was more to the liking of Continental League officials, who insist the only reason the American League keeps talking expansion is to hamper the new circuit's efforts to obtain its last three franchises."

Commissioner Ford Frick viewed Monday's announcements by the two major leagues as a green light for the Continental League to go ahead with its plans.

"Now that the National and American Leagues have restated their positions as announced last May, the Continental League continues to have the opportunity of proceeding with its announced program," Frick declared. "The commissioner looks forward to such positive action as will permit them to qualify for major league status."

So far, the Continental League has five cities in the fold. They are New York, Denver, Toronto, Houston and Minneapolis-St. Paul. Among the other cities said to be interested in securing a franchise are Buffalo, Montreal and San Diego.

Bishop Moore defeated a fighting Oviedo five last night, 54-46. It was the second loss of the season for Oviedo as they were beaten by Lakeview last Friday, 55-32.

Bishop Moore held a narrow 28-25 lead at the half but put on the pressure to win in the final quarter of the game. Mike Duda of Oviedo was high scorer for the game with 20 points. Bishop Moore also won the 12 second game, 37-26.

Last Friday, Lakeview downed Oviedo 55-32 in the final minutes of play. Johnny Tesinsky was high scorer for Oviedo with 17 points. In the Jayvee game, Lakeview was the victor, 47-27.

Schooling Races Start Tonight

Dog racing fans can watch numerous ace greyhounds run tonight when schooling starts at 7:30 at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club in preparation for the track's official opening, Saturday, Dec. 19.

The public is invited to these pre-season contests which will continue nightly, except Sunday, through Wednesday, Dec. 16.

Tonight's fifth and ninth events of the 22-race program should provide plenty of excitement. Five greyhounds representing the Walter Bowser Kennel, a new comer, meet in the fifth race. However, four of the entries were popular here last winter when running for Jack Herold.

They include Rocky Mac Duff and Rocky Mac Glaty, who starred at both Rayham and Taunton, Mass. in recent meets, and were picked to compete in Taunton's $25,000 American Derby, the richest purse in greyhound racing.

During three preliminary rounds in the rugged competition of this major event Mac Duff turned in a first, third and fifth while Mac Glaty's score was two seconds and a third.

The ninth race tonight lists three stars from the famous Oswald Brothers Kennel, another outfit new to this area. They are Ob's Mortgage, Ob's Amalric and Ob's Melon. Oswald Brothers rated as top kennel at both Rayham and Taunton and these greyhounds did their share in keeping their outfit in the lead.

Track patrons tonight will find the big plant completely renovated until it shines like a new shoe. Also numerous improvements have been added.

Bishop Moore Downs Oviedo Team, 54-46 In Cage Play

NEW YORK (UPI)—Billy Cannon, Louisiana State's All-American halfback who claims he starts "getting nervous" each Thursday in the fall, Monday was named college football's "Player of the Year" for the second straight season in United Press International's annual poll.

Cannon, a 210-pound all-around athlete who has been timed in 9.4 seconds for 100 yards, narrowly edged Pete Dawkins of Army for the honor in 1958. Cannon won by a wide margin this time, collecting 131 votes in nationwide balloting by 329 sports writers and broadcasters.

Richie Lucas, Penn State's All-American quarterback, was a distant second with 48 votes. Bill Burrell, All-American guard from Illinois, was third with 18.

Bob Schloredt of Washington and Fran Curtel of Miami, Fla., were next with eight votes each. Charlie Flowers of Mississippi and Dale Hackbart of Wisconsin each received seven. Jim Houston of Ohio State, Mike McKeever of Southern California and Roger Davis of Syracuse each received six. Ron Lurton of Northwestern, Don Lanphear of Wisconsin, Dean Look of Michigan State, and Monty Stickler of Notre Dame received five each. The other 54 votes were scattered among 31 players.

Cannon Honored As No. 1 College Gridder Of 1959

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cus D'Amato, whose fight manager's license was revoked by the New York State Athletic Commission, has been granted a motion for a hearing before the state Supreme Court Dec. 12.

D'Amato lost his license after an inquiry into alleged irregularities in the promotion of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight last June. D'Amato is Patterson's manager.

In papers filed through his attorney, D'Amato claimed that he had not received a fair hearing by the Athletic Commission.

Gators Defeat Southern, 88-70

GAINEVILLE (UPI)—Florida guard Bob Shiver upped his average to 20 points per game Monday night in the Gators' 88-70 decision over Florida Southern's basketball team.

Shiver hit for 21 points to run his three-game total to 60. Gator captain Bob Sherwood scored 19 points for his team's runner-up honors. Guard Dick Whalley tallied 20 points to lead all Florida Southern scorers.

The Gators jumped to an early lead and were never headed. They led 43-31 at halftime.

D'Amato Granted Court Hearing

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—James J. Keely tendered his resignation as president of the Baltimore Orioles today and recommended General Manager Lee MacPhail as his successor.

The recommendation by Keely, who said he was resigning because of "outside business pressures," was considered tantamount to appointment for MacPhail.

Cinci Strengthens First Place Hold

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cincinnati, the pre-season choice for the national championship, took an even tighter grip today on first place in the first weekly ratings of the 1959-60 college basketball season released by the United Press International Board of Coaches.

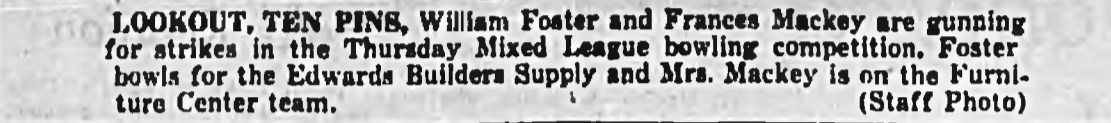

With All-American Oscar Robertson firing 43 points in his first game and 43 in the second, during the past week, Cincinnati received the first-place vote of 25 of the 35 famous coaches who comprise the board, compared to 16 in the pre-season ratings.

California, last season's NCAA champion, was second, just as it was in the pre-season poll. But Cincinnati, which had a 63-point lead in the pre-season balloting on a points basis, boosted that margin over California to 102 points this week.

West Virginia, fourth in the pre-season ratings, jumped to third while Ohio State and sophomore ace Jerry Lucas jumped from sixth to fourth. North Carolina remained in the No. 5 slot.

Kentucky, third in the pre-season ratings but upset by Southern California Saturday night, dropped down to sixth. St. Louis bounded all the way from 14th place to seventh with three impressive victories. Indiana was eighth, Kansas ninth, and Utah 10th.

Syracuse Named National Champs

United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Syracuse University, which compiled major college football's only perfect record in 1959 although it began the season without an experienced quarterback, today was named national champion by United Press International's Board of Coaches.

Syracuse, seriously tested only once en route to a 10-0 record, is the first Eastern school to lead the final balloting for a season since the ratings were inaugurated in 1950. Army's third-place finish last year was the best previous showing by an Eastern team.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's Orangemen rolled up 300 points and allowed only 30 although they went through the campaign with two sophomore quarterbacks, Dave Sarette and Dick Easterly.

This performance earned Syracuse 31 first-place votes and a total of 342 points in the final balloting. Mississippi finished second, Louisiana State, third. Texas, which will play Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1, was fourth with 247. Mississippi and LSU clash that day in the Sugar Bowl. Georgia was fifth with 184 points, Wisconsin sixth with 121, and Washington seventh with 121. Washington, Wisconsin's Rose Bowl opponent, received the other first-place vote. Texas Christian was eighth with 103 points, Arkansas ninth with 65 and Penn State 10th with 42.

Syracuse, which ended its regular season last Saturday with a 36-0 triumph over UCLA at Los Angeles, will receive a permanent trophy from UPI.

Clemson headed the second 11 in the final ratings. It was followed in order by Illinois, Alabama, Southern California, Auburn, Michigan State, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Missouri and Florida. Georgia Tech, Navy and Wyoming were the only other teams mentioned on the final ballot.

Rocket Engine May Plug Gap In Space Race

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Development of a revolutionary new rocket engine using liquid hydrogen and oxygen as fuel conceivably could narrow the space gap between the United States and Russia, officials said today.

The new engine was announced Monday at West Palm Beach, Fla., by the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Co. Its fuel is by far the most efficient source of chemical energy yet available for space flight, officials said.

The biggest U.S. rocket boosters are only about half as powerful as the Russian giants, and there appears to be no chance of catching up in this department with the U.S.S.R. for several years.

But with liquid hydrogen upper stages, American rocket vehicles conceivably could begin at least to match Russia's present payload capacity long before bigger U.S. boosters are available.

The United States also is studying the feasibility of a hydrogen-fluorine engine which would be even more efficient than hydrogen-oxygen. Whether Russia has a liquid hydrogen engine is not known here. But the Soviets have published what purported to be studies of a hydrogen-fluorine rocket.

Hydrogen engines are designed as upper stages because they work most efficiently in airless space. To boost a rocket off the ground, the fuel has to have enough mass to overcome the pull of gravity and the braking effect of dense air.

Six Accidents Keep Sanford Police Busy Over Past Weekend

Six auto accidents kept Sanford police busy over the weekend.

A motor car collision Friday sent two 14-year-old boys, Leland Doyle Young and Dale Alexander Jr., to Seminole Memorial Hospital. Young was in good condition at the hospital today after suffering head, facial, and shoulder injuries. Alexander, a Lake Mary resident, received body bruises. Young lives at 813 Rosella Dr. The accident happened when Mrs. Elberta B. Herndon, 1030 Myrtle Ave. was driving south on Elm Ave. After a northbound car crossed the intersection, Mrs. Herndon started across 13th St., not seeing Young, police said. The motor scooter ran into the Herndon car's front door. No arrests were made.

A Seminole Blvd. and Persimmon Ave. crash occurred Sunday afternoon when a car driven by Carlton R. Newell of DeBary hit an auto driven by Nathan C. Mincy, 400 Myrtle Ave., police reported. As Mincy tried to turn from Seminole Blvd. onto Persimmon, Newell was trying to pass and struck the Sanford man's car. No arrests were made.

Driving on the wrong side of the street and reckless driving were the charges made after an accident Sunday morning at Peach Ave. and 18th St. Christine Staples was driving south on Peach Ave. when she hit Sanford Negro Jimmie Lee Knight's auto which was turning into Peach from 18th on the wrong side of the street, police said. Reckless driving charges were made on the wrong side of the street, police said. Reckless driving charges were made.

were made against Staples, 606 W. 22nd St.

A parked Divo milk truck was hit on Cypress Ave. at 9:45 a.m. Saturday when Florence T. Hicks, a Sanford Negro of 1510 Lake Ave. couldn't make a turn from Second St. onto Cypress, police reported. A half hour earlier a car driven by William D. Crain, 1911 Magnolia Ave., hit another car while driving east on Celery Ave., police said. William D. Haradin drove the struck truck which was going south on Sanford Ave.

Another accident occurred Friday night, when Monroe Caldwell, a Sanford Negro of 1209 W. 10th St., scraped the fender of a car parked on W. 10th St. Caldwell said that as he was riding along W. 10th, an oncoming car's bright lights blinded him.

Scouts Collect Clothing, Toys

Lake Mary Boy Scout members have requested a reminder to residents that they are collecting used toys and clothing, in good repair, to be taken to the Seminole Indians. The group will spend the weekend of December 18-20 with the Seminoles on the Brighton reservation.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the collection is urged to contact any scout member for pick-ups or to take articles to the Scout Hut in Lake Mary before Monday, December 14.

Diphtheria Hits Town; One Dead, 3 Threatened

GREAT BEND, Kan. (UPI)—An outbreak of diphtheria has struck this central Kansas town, claiming the life of a 6-year-old boy and threatening at least three other children.

A team of state epidemiologists was scheduled to arrive today to aid city and county health authorities in planning precautionary measures against the disease. Superintendent of Schools D. V. Swartz ordered all grade and high schools closed "for at least two days" and possibly longer.

Athletic events were also cancelled and parents were urged to keep their children at home and away from crowds. Charles Edward Reichard died Monday at a hospital where he had been a patient two weeks. The child became ill during the Thanksgiving holiday and his illness was later diagnosed as diphtheria.

Tigers Sign Four

DETROIT (UPI)—The Detroit Tigers have signed four hopefuls—John Griffin of North Branch, Mich., Don Nowery of Albion, Mich., Bill Shelton of Washington, D. C., and Tom Schroeder of Kenmore, N. Y.—to 1960 minor league contracts.

Scores Triple

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Frank Northcutt, a 17-year-old Johnny from Covington, Ky., boosted his Timlico victory total to 27 Monday when he scored three more victories.

Firsthand Proof

Seminole High students will get firsthand proof that a car can't stop on a dime in an auto safety test Dec. 18. Two students, a faculty member and a policeman will each try to make a special car stop short while going 20, 30, or 40 m.p.h.

Three pistols mounted on the car's bumper will fire yellow paint bullets at the pavement when the driver is given the stop signal.

Farm Out Forward

NEW YORK (UPI)—Earl Ingard, a young New York Bankers forward, was sent to the club's Springfield farm club in the American Hockey League Monday after the Rangers obtained waivers on him from the other National Hockey League teams.

Former Lawmaker Starts Jail Term

BARTOW (UPI)—Former legislator E. B. (Shorty) Jones Jr. was scheduled to begin a five-year prison sentence today or Wednesday for trying to open up Polk County to a ballot ring by bribing the sheriff.

Jones, 40, who served as a state representative from Madison County in 1933-35, surrendered here Monday. His case had been turned down by the second district court of appeals on Friday. Jones was convicted last Feb. 28 of offering to give Sheriff Hagan Parrish $5,000 and 10 per cent of the take if he would overlook a gambling syndicate operating in Polk.

Puppet Chinese Ruler Back In Obscurity

United Press International
Henry Pu Yi has atoned for his crimes.

History never will record great deeds of derring-do by Henry Pu Yi. But he must rate at least a paragraph as the last of a dynasty, a pathetic figure swept along throughout his 54 years by events in which he was forced to play a part but over which he had no control.

In his lifetime, he sat upon two thrones and was ousted from both.

He was the last of the Manchurians who ruled China for nearly 300 years.

And he was the puppet whom the Japanese sat upon the throne of the Manchurian state which they renamed Manchukuo.

His name cropped up last week in a list of nearly 60 others granted amnesty by the Red Chinese for various offenses ranging from political unrelia- bility to war crimes.

Henry Pu Yi ascended the crumbling throne of China in 1908 when he was 20 years old.

He succeeded the dowager Empress Tzu Hsi who made Peking a forbidden city to foreigners and whose hatred of all outsiders finally exploded in the Boxer Rebellion. Her extravagances and prejudices already had brought the country to ruin.

For four years Pu Yi ruled through a regency, finally being forced to abdicate in 1912 with establishment of the republic under Sun Yat-sen.

He returned briefly five years later but again was forced to abdicate, this time within a month.

For nearly 20 years thereafter he lived the obscure life of plain Henry Pu Yi.

But in 1934 a militant Japan had overrun Manchuria, which had the coal, minerals and ex- pansion room the Japanese needed. They also needed some form of legality to mask their outright steal of a huge chunk of Chinese territory.

Henry Pu Yi was their answer and they placed him on the puppet throne while they proceeded to build their railroads and dams and a great industrial complex in preparation for World War II.

At the end of the war, the Russians found him and took him to Tokyo to testify in the war crimes trials and then turned him over to their Red Chinese allies.

Reports say Henry Pu Yi has no more thrones for him to sit upon and he can go back to obscurity as plain Henry Pu Yi.

But in his lifetime he has served as a bridge for history, through nearly 50 years of turmoil in China, and in a way has been history repeat itself.

The dowager empress whom he succeeded had made Peking a forbidden city. Under the Reds, it once more is a forbidden city where any foreigner automatically is suspect.

Sunday Showcase Shows Durante At His Worst

BY FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI)—Watching this season's Sunday Showcase in NBC-TV's 8 to 9 p. m. slot has been a little like watching a relay race by pooped-out performers.

It seems that a battered baton is passed along from one gimp Showcase production to another.

Sunday night, it was Jimmy Durante's turn to change this im- pression and make the hour bounce and live a little. He didn't.

In fact, his special, "Give My Regards To Broadway," was perhaps the worst show Durante has ever done on TV. Although he was in almost every number, Durante had nothing very special to offer.

His guest, Ray Bolger, was wasted in a "trot" dance about a private airplane. While Bolger almost made up for it later in the "Harrigan" number, his buoyant stepping came too late to save the show.

Durante's other guests, Jane Powell, Eddie Hodges and Jimmie Rodgers also were wasted. The show's defects were magnified when the Dinah Shore show followed it. Choose any 10 minutes in Dinah's show and you'll find more sparkle and entertainment than in the 60 minutes that preceded her. And I'll even include the commercials.

While Durante's salute to Broadway fizzled, an earlier salute to Broadway sizzled.

This one, on CBS-TV Sunday afternoon, offered excerpts from 10 Broadway plays and musicals that had tackled themes ordinarily considered too controversial for net- work TV. Brief scenes from such shows as "The Crucible," "The Male Animal" and "Home of the Brave" were offered and even these excerpts, performed by noted actors, created excitement. What's more, they demonstrated how pal- lid is the basic TV dramatic pro- duction.

One exception to the "Pallid TV" charge mentioned above was last Friday's production of Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist." Adapted for CBS-TV's Du Pont Show of the Month by Michael Dine, the novel's terror was abetted by the faces of the players, their ragged wardrobes and the suitably grimy, shadow-filled sets. At times, Dan Petric's direction was unneces- sarily ornate and John McEvier's portrayal of Mr. Bumble was too watery, but the rest of the cast—led by Eric Portman and Robert Morley—was excellent.

I saw most of Art Carney's NBC-TV special on Friday and what I saw was superb. Called, "Very

Quotable Quotes

United Press International
LONDON — The Rev. Christo- pher Garner, revealing that he hopes to get rock 'n' roll hymns into 2,000 juke boxes in England: "They'll put over the Christian faith to people who might never be reminded of it otherwise."

NEW YORK — Adlai E. Steven- son, praising Mrs. Eleanor Roose- velt at a dinner given in her honor by Democratic Advisory Coun- cil: "Flamboyant adjectives appli- cable to other ladies of history— 'despotic,' 'conspiratorial,' 'frivolous' and so on—how absurd they sound in conjunction with our gentle 'Mrs. R.'"

VATICAN CITY — Pope John XXIII, telling a cheering mass audience that although his cold was getting better he still was hoarse: "I can answer your applause but I cannot match your shout- ing."

HUTCHINSON, Kan. — Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. John- son (Tex.), reiterating that he is not seeking the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination: "I do not want to wear out my voice where I have made myself abundantly clear. I am not a can- didate."

Concentrate Men Start Production

LAKELAND (UPI)—Most of the state's 27 makers of frozen orange concentrate have already started production this season, according to Florida Citrus Mutual General Manager Robert W. Rutledge reported production is in- creasing daily and "oranges for concentrate are being bought on a limited scale and are being used primarily for bottling pur- poses."

Harrelled concentrate is used later in the season for blending with freshly made concentrate.

Crime Series Is Paying Off For Bob Stack

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Robert Stack, who is rich enough not to work at all, has doubled his ap- pearances in a new TV series be- cause he doesn't want to cheat viewers.

"Actors are taking advantage of the public when they lend their names to a program, then fail to perform in every segment," he said.

"When I first agreed to star in 'The Untouchables' I was sup- posed to appear in 11 of the 26 shows, narrating as host in the other 15. But it is unfair to view- ers to remove the main charac- ters. Therefore, I'm going to show up in all of them."

Stack, son of extraordinarily wealthy parents, was afraid tele- viewers would blame him for mis- representing his role in the hour- long adventure series.

"The minute an audience is cheated they put the blame on the performer," he explained.

"I realized it would be a mis- take to devote less than all my attention and energy to the series."

In the past few years Bob was snagging the flashy, neurotic roles which most actors these days con- sider prime parts. Stack found them limited and unsatisfactory. "It feels good to let the other guy play the flash role," he grined. "In the series I play a 'good guy,' and it seems to be making an impression on the pub- lic."

Stack appears to be over- zealous it's only natural. He owns 25 percent of the series through his Langford Productions. His easy entry into TV has upped his price: 25 episodes from $20,000 per picture to the $100,000 bracket.

"The best part of a TV series is the constant work," Bob con- cluded. "In movies you make one picture, then sit around for a year. In TV you keep busy all year long."

Starting Out

more than just a morning stroll is former Marine Major John E. Richters, 38, as he leaves Yankee Stadium in New York to walk 110 miles to Hartford, Con- necticut, in an attempt to take the unofficial world's hik- ing record away from the British. The record was set in Granham, England, when Albert Johnson com- pleted 110 miles in 22 hours, 39 minutes. Richters, now an insurance salesman, said he is mak- ing the hike to raise funds for the Hartford Associa- tion for Retarded Children and the Connecticut Wel- fare Association.

Youngster Disobeys His Parents; Loses Hand In Hunting Mishap

Four Hawaiians Finally To Sing On The Islands

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"The Surfers," four native Hawaian boys, have popularized a new brand of island music on records and in night spots around the country. But they are just getting around to singing together in Hawaii.

The four joined up as a vocal group when they enrolled at Glen- dale Junior College near Holly- wood. Only two of them had known each other before coming to the states. Clayton Nalua, 22, and Alan Kalani, 20. They had not previously met Pat Sylvia, 13, and Bernie Ching, 20, although their homes were not far apart on the islands.

Because they all came from Haw- aii, they were coaxed into form- ing a singing group to entertain students. They began singing mostly at auditorium calls at the college. Their unique harmoniz- ing on exotic South Sea themes built them a reputation that ex- tended beyond the campus, and they soon were discovered and signed by a record company.

It was a valuable discovery. The boys have scored well with their four albums, "On the Rocks," "High Tide," "Tahiti" and "Christmas in Hawaii." Prob- ably their biggest selling record, "High Tide," was recorded oddly enough in the college gymnasium, which has excellent acoustics.

Youngster Disobeys His Parents; Loses Hand In Hunting Mishap

TITUSVILLE (UPI)—A teen- age boy who disobeyed his par- ents and went hunting in a row- boat was recovering today after losing his left hand in a shotgun accident.

Vernon Crapps, 16, had his le- hand amputated at the wrist after he and a companion, who also was wounded, waded and walked more than a mile to reach safety.

Crapps and Richard Burkett, 15, both of nearby Mims, left Saturday morning on a duck hunt- ing trip, taking the small rowboat about a mile out in Sale Lake.

Burkett's single-barreled shot- gun discharged accidentally, al- most tearing Crapp's left hand off. The gun hammer fell on Burkett's right hand and severely cut it.

The boys fashioned a tourniquet around Crapps' arm and tried to row to shore. Burkett finally jumped into the icy water and pulled the boat in, wading through water up to his shoulders.

They were unable to get pickup truck on shore started so had to walk a mile to Burkett's house where a doctor was sum- moned.

Crapps' father, Clein Crapps, said the accident "should be a lesson to all teen-age boys to mind their mothers."

"We told Vernon and Richard Friday night, the last thing before they went to bed, not to go hunt- ing in a row boat," he said. "The- did and we are suffering."

It's His Car

ARLINGTON, Va. (UPI)— Charles E. Evans, a retired Washington butcher, wants his car back.

Evans claimed Monday the Ar- lington police department sold the car while he was in jail for driv- ing while intoxicated.

He said police wrote him at his last address they would sell the car if he did not claim it.

Evans charged that although he left no forwarding address, he was on the third floor of the courthouse, a few hundred feet away, all the time.

When Evans was released he learned the car, a 1950 sedan, had been sold for $51.

Evans wants the county to pay him an estimated $110. The Arlington County board has deferred action for two weeks.

Property Owners In West NAS Area Get Tax Reductions

Jets Cited As Reason For Assessment Cuts

Some 200 property owners in a 143 acre tract west of the Sanford Navy Air Station were given a blanket 40 per cent property assessment reduction because of low-flying aircraft in the area.

The Board of Equalization agreed to the request by Attorney Kenneth Spaulding who said the property owners in the "flight easement" area were justified in asking for a lower assessment adjustment because living there is "beyond human endurance and in some cases you can't get rid of vacant lots in the area for $50 a lot."

Space Agency Gets New Boss

WASHINGTON (UPI)— The Defense Department said today that creation of a new civilian space unit headed by an Air Force officer has assured full military cooperation in building high-powered rockets for deep space exploration.

The civilian unit, part of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, is to be headed by 45-year-old Maj. Gen. Don R. Osterander, who had been directing military missile programs since 1951.

Dr. T. Keith Glennan, NASA director, announced Tuesday that beginning about Jan. 1 Osterander would be "director of launch vehicle programs."

He will serve as policy boss for Dr. Werner von Braun and other German-born rocket experts whose transfer from the Army to NASA has been completed except for final details subject to congressional approval.

Need For More Parking Lots In City Cited

Sanford should acquire enough land west of Myrtle Ave. to build three parking lots, Resident City Planner Gerald Dake said yesterday.

Sanford's central business district seems to be growing west toward French Ave. Dake said. The city ought to get enough land to park at least 500 cars before west Sanford construction booms, he explained.

The new Florida State Bank annex on First St. at Oak Ave. will take parking space from nearly 100 cars according to the planner.

Dake advised planning a new lot on Fulton St. This would tie in with the theme of routing traffic around the central business district on Third St., Sanford Ave., Seminole Blvd. and French Ave., he explained.

Right now Sanford has enough central business district public off-street parking space, Dake said. The 233 spaces in back of the school board building, 121 in back of the civic center, 64 at Second and Oak Sts. and 28 at Third and Magnolia make 424 curbside city parking spots.

The planner counted 512 cars parked on private land between buildings in the central business district Monday. Sanford doesn't own the Second St. and Oak Ave. lot and the Magnolia and Third St. area. Their three year lease to the city is subject to their owner's approval for rent renewal.

3 Deaths Blamed On Cold Wave

MIAMI (UPI)— A bright sun warmed up the state today after a cold wave blamed for a school fire in Northwest Florida and at least three deaths elsewhere.

An oil burner which furnished steam heat for an aging brick school at Paxton, near the Alabama line exploded Tuesday and sent two students to a hospital.

And a gas heater blew up in a newly-renovated silverware shop in Ocala, causing a fire that did estimated damages of $45,000.

The cold wave's death toll rose to three Tuesday with the death in Miami of Mrs. Caroline Bain, 62. The woman succumbed in a hospital from burns suffered Sunday when an oil heater she was lighting flashed up and ignited her dressing gown.

In Melbourne, a 77-year-old man died of suffocation early Tuesday after a blaze started by an oil heater swept through his frame home. Another man died in Tampa Monday in fire investigators said was started by a heater.

Front and freezing temperatures were common through Central Florida's big citrus belt but apparently did not last long enough to cause serious damage. A few growers set out amudage pots and started bonfires to be on the safe side.

The worst damage of the latest cold snap appeared to have been done by fires.

14 Applicants

Fourteen persons had applied for the Casselberry postmaster's job at the application deadline yesterday, acting Postmaster Donald Wilton said today. The civil service test on reading comprehension, vocabulary, post office business, management and arithmetic won't be given for several months, Wilton said.

Trooper Released

Highway Patrol trooper T. Mark Mack of Casselberry will be transferred to Brooksville Jan. 1, the patrol's executive board has announced. Mack is one of three state troopers who serve Seminole County.

Swofford Out As Mayor; Gary In Landslide

The Altamonte Springs Mayor election turned into a major political upset as newcomer Wilbur Hawkins defeated incumbent Lawrence Swofford while the Oviedo Mayor's election resulted in a landslide for Mayor Lee Gary.

Hawkins polled 142 votes in Swofford's 125 while Gary topped D. D. Daniel by a 1719 difference. Of the 478 Altamonte Springs registered voters, 371 cast ballots. Swofford has been Altamonte mayor for six years and is now on the county commission. Hawkins will take over the office Jan. 11 and will serve for two years. Born in Quincy, he has lived in Florida all his life. Hawkins moved to Altamonte Springs 10 months ago and lives with his wife and son on Ferriss Ave.

Hawkins is an insurance representative for Employers Mutual of Wausau in Orlando. He graduated from Florida State University where he majored in insurance and minored in business law. Hawkins is chairman of the Orlando Jaycees Christmas Lighting contest.

Aldermen Bill York and Homer Sewell gained another two years in office in yesterday's election. They were unopposed. Sixty percent of Oviedo's registered voters cast ballots in the uncontested-for five council seats.

W. R. Clontia received 167 votes; J. Y. Harris, 166; Ben Jones, 167; J. W. Martin, 165 and B. F. Ward Jr., 166. In Casselberry's mayoralty election, incumbent William Benson defeated Joseph D. Bryant by a 266-152 difference.

Citizens Aroused

"Rowlett's Story" of cruelty to a small dog on The Herald editorial page Monday has brought scores of phone calls and a total of $50 in reward money for information leading to identification of the torturers to the dog.

Two people have offered rewards of $25 each and several interested in the work of the American Humane Society have pledged an intensive effort to identify and prosecute to the limit of the law whoever shot Rowlett.

The story of the shooting of the dog brought at least one other report of similar cruelty to small animals, in which a cat was punctured with nails. Law officers are investigating.

The veterinarian who has been taking care of the injured dog said today that it is responding to treatment for injuries, including internal damage.

VAH-5 Still Leading NAS Bombing Derby

Squadron VAH-5 is still ahead after the second day of the 1959 bombing derby being held at the Sanford Navy Air Station.

With leading competition and left bombing near completion the Navy's Sons of Heavy Attack Squadron Five have posted 1,372 points out of a possible 1,400 for the first two events.

Heavy Attack Squadron Seven, the only other squadron to complete the first two events was second with 1,163 points.

Heavy Attack Squadrons One and Eleven had not yet completed both events due in carrier operations aboard the Independence and Rowlett.

Heavy Attack Squadron Three tallied a perfect score 700 points in the leading competition and will win Event I and the Weapons Loading Trophy, unless Heavy Attack Squadron Eleven also posts a perfect score on their leading drill on Friday.

Heavy Attack Squadron One gathered 650 points in the weapons loading event and could take over second place with perfect left bombing scores when they complete that event on Thursday.

Event III of the competition which takes place today all will be on the ground and indoors as flight crews simulate complete attack missions. The operational flight simulators at Heavy Attack Squadron Three training area will test flight crew reactions and ability under combat conditions.

NAVY APPRECIATION DAY was proclaimed by Sanford Mayor A. L. Wilson (left) and county commission chairman John Krider yesterday. The recognition Saturday of the Navy's place in Sanford and Seminole County will be marked by Santa Claus's appearance in Meltonville Saturday afternoon.

Snow Flurries End Worst Storm

United Press International A few New England snow flurries remained behind today to remind easterners of their worst snowstorm of the season.

The storm and an accompanying cold snap struck the Atlantic Coast states with crippling suddenness and dropped up to 17 inches of snow before sweeping out to sea.

The storm's department caused five-foot tides on Long Island's Great South Bay — the highest since the 1938 hurricane. Dozens of beach front homes were flooded.

It was an ungracious, flower-garlanded welcome for the President on his fifth and so far most important stop on his 11-nation tour of Asia, Europe and Africa. It was obviously an emotional moment for him as he stood before a background of pink-tipped clouds in the setting sun and told an estimated 60,000 to 70,000 Indians massed at Palam Airport that there must be peace because the alternative is "too horrible to contemplate."

Woodland Acre Damaged By Fire

Wildfire burned an acre of woodland two miles northwest of Geneva yesterday, County Forest Ranger Bob Gray said.

The President, appearing a little tired but standing soldierly erect, told the cheering crowd that sometime ago he had made up his mind that "some day, the Lord willing, I would come to India."

Woodland Acre Damaged By Fire

Ranger Robert Leverett got a tractor to the scene but the flames were put out with hand tools. The wildfire was the third this month in Seminole County and the 10th this year. Gray urged hunters to be very careful of fire in the woods since the frost yesterday morning has made wildfire more likely.

The group discussed stricter rules at the Civic Center and agreed that no person may participate in the evening activities without first being checked in by the youth wing supervisors.

Board Approves Drainage Support

The Seminole Soil Conservation District board of supervisors unanimously agreed last night to give any assistance and information possible to the drainage committee recently created by the county commissioners.

The board voted in support of the committee after discussing water problems, conservation of water resources, individual county watersheds and public law 566.

Action Postponed

The Seminole Memorial Hospital board of trustees postponed choosing an architect for the hospital addition last night since two of the five board members were absent from the scheduled meeting. Action to choose an architect for the $500,000 addition will be taken at a Thursday noon board meeting chairman A. B. Peterson Jr., said today.

Navy Days Proclaimed In Sanford

City officials have proclaimed tomorrow and Friday as Navy Days in Sanford in conjunction with Navy Appreciation Day set Saturday.

Saturday, Navy, city and county officials will gather at Fort Melton Park for a special day of events including a barbecue, entertainment and gifts from Santa Claus for the youngsters.

Free tickets for civilians who wish to attend the festivities are available at the Florida State Bank, Sanford Atlantic Bank, Florida Power and Light Co., Strickland-Morrison Inc., Bill

As part of Navy Days festivities, city and county officials will watch the bombing derby being held at the Navy base tomorrow and on Friday a special luncheon honoring Navy citizens will be held.

The group also agreed to hold a holiday dance on New Year's Day.

Payola Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Assn. of Broadcasters appointed a 12-member task force today to deal with ethical and legal issues arising from investigation of payola, rigged quiz shows and deceptive advertising. The team is headed by NAB President Harold E. Fellows, who appointed the other 11 members. The association represents about half the nation's radio and television stations.

New Atlas Space Flight Reported

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A huge Atlas ICBM made what appeared to be its 13th straight successful flight Tuesday night, boosting its stock at both a space rocket booster and a military weapon. There was no official word from the Air Force on results of the shot, but it was believed the Atlas achieved most of its test objectives on a 6,300-mile intercontinental range flight over the Atlantic.
