MEXICAN REBELLION MOVES ON DESPITE ACTION OF GENERAL

NEVERTHELESS NEWS IS HAILED WITH DELIGHT
TROOPS GATHERING

Army Being Massed in Vera Cruz
District—President Obregon Certain That Uprising Will Be Crushed

(By The Associated Press)
VERACRUZ, Dec. 8.—General Calles' renunciation of his presidential candidacy will not halt the rebellion against Obregon government, it was stated at rebel headquarters. Nevertheless the news was hailed with great delight and church bells rung.

Renounces Candidacy.
(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 8.—General Plutarco Calles has renounced his candidacy for the presidency and has offered his services to President Obregon against the insurgent forces in Veracruz and Jalisco. The president has accepted the offer and has named General Calles as head of the Federal opposition to De La Huerta Sanchez rebels. Twenty-eight thousand federal troops, it is said, are converging upon Veracruz revolutionary zone.

News Censored.
JUAREZ, Mex., Dec. 8.—Control of communications by the Obregon and Calles factions effectually clamped the lid on news of the de la Huerta revolt in the south Friday. Although border military officials here were advised that stiff fighting was in progress in the states of Guerrero and Vera Cruz, the lack of information on which side lay the advantage and simply were ordered to take precautions against uprisings of any kind.

Callista juntas have been established along the border and have been busy in disseminating information favorable to Calles.
De La Huerta's co-operating party has been unable to gain a foothold in the north part of the republic and as telephone and telegraph wires are controlled by Obregon private advisers in regard to the revolution in the south likewise were curtailed.

(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 8.—"The country will be pacified and the rebellion will be put down with an iron hand," President Obregon said upon returning to the capital last evening. Three columns of federal troops have been ordered out to meet General Sanchez, who has joined Adolfo de la Huerta, presidential candidate, in revolt.

Troops Joins Rebels.
VERACRUZ, Dec. 8.—Troops in the entire maritime zone have joined the insurgent movement against President Obregon and General Calles, according to reports early today. The rebellion is now said to embrace the whole of the Huasteca oil region or five states. Many land owners it is announced, have joined the rebels hoping thereby to regain properties they lost under a law compelling land owners to share their estate with tenants.

HIGH BOND ISSUE CARRIED
PALATKA, Dec. 8.—Voters of Palatka county have gone on record as overwhelmingly favoring the issuance of $500,000 in bonds for construction of a new bridge across the St. Johns River at this city, and at the same time voted in a new system of road administration. Under the new system three trustees will take over the road administration of the county. They will be named by the governor upon representations from the people. The trustees will have entire charge of all work on the roads, including upkeep, direct the convicts, issue bonds, let contracts and supervise actual construction.

Hall Is Chairman Harding Memorial

The Harding Memorial Association has been incorporated under the laws of the state of Ohio for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase the necessary real estate upon which to build a suitable mausoleum in which the body of the late President will rest and also to acquire the home of Mr. Harding in Marion where all his personal effects are to be preserved.

A week from December 9 through December 16 has been designated as Harding Memorial Week and during which time contributions will be received by the association for carrying out its purpose.

The national chairman of the association is D. R. Crissinger and the state chairman for Florida is D. T. Gerow of Jacksonville, with Governor Cary J. Hardee acting as honorary chairman.

In charge of the work in Seminole county Friday will be Postmaster J. P. Hall, who received his appointment as chairman. Mr. Hall stated that all contributions to the fund will be appreciated and received by him at his office and also stated that those who contribute will receive from the national headquarters of the association, an engraved card acknowledging receipt of the donation.

TRIP TO PIERSON FERNERY TUESDAY

County Agent Whitner Arranges
Motocade to Volusia County
To Inspect Ferneries

Several men in Sanford and other towns in the county have expressed an interest in the business of growing Asparagus ferns, and have asked County Agent Whitner to get for them information available in printed form.

There are a number of very fine ferneries in this section of Florida, some of the finest and best in Seminole county, at Altamonte. The fernery of the Royal Fern Extension Corporation at that place is said to be the largest in the world.

All of the ferneries in Seminole county could be called large ferneries and they represent a large investment each. At Pierson, about 20 miles north of DeLand there are some 60 ferneries to be found with a total of about 60 acres, the average fernery therefore covering about one acre. These ferneries are for the most part attended by the owners and in some past have been netting very handsome returns. They are, perhaps, worked a little more intensively than the larger ferneries in Seminole county.

Finding that there is at present very little to be had in printed form about the growing of ferns, a little trip to the ferneries of Pierson has been arranged for those who feel interested. Anyone who cares to go is invited, men and women. The party will leave the office of the Chamber of Commerce, next Tuesday morning, December 9th, at 9 o'clock. The agent will conduct the party. T. A. Brown, county agent of Volusia county who is the owner of a fernery, will meet the party in DeLand and have charge from that point, leading the way to several of the most interesting places. He will tell of his own success at raising ferns, and will answer any and all questions to the best of his ability.

The trip promises to be very interesting and should give all that go a very pleasant day out in the open. There is a small boarding house at Pierson, but it would be very pleasant if lunches were taken by all and a picnic spread in some pretty spot by the lake. The county agent suggests that the latter would be the best plan, but whether a lunch is taken along or not, if you are interested, come along and enjoy the day.

Chief Justice To Remain on Bench

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 8.—Chief Justice Robert F. Taylor, of the Supreme Court, has withdrawn his conditional resignation handed to Governor Hardee on September 20. In confirming report to this effect Judge Taylor gave no reason for his decision. It would have taken effect January 1, 1924.

VISITORS IN CITY ENJOY MOTOR TRIP TO CELERY FIELDS

Guests Entertained With Breakfast
And Luncheon by Chamber of Commerce

Sanford was host Saturday to between 85 and 90 members of the Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners, who with their wives arrived in this city early Saturday morning on a special train from Miami where they have been holding a four day convention.

Following their arrival, the visitors were driven to the Seminole Cafe where breakfast was served. At 9:30 o'clock the party was taken on a sightseeing tour of the celery fields east of Sanford. At one of the large fields a stop was made to permit the visitors to see the celery being planted.

From this stop the party was then driven back to this city through the business section thence through the residential section and then out to the re-icing plant and Rand's Siding west of town making a loop back toward the Country Club.

From the Country Club, the visitors were driven back to the Seminole Cafe where luncheon was served under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

Hon. Forest Lake was in charge of the program and made a short talk extending a hearty welcome in behalf of Sanford. Other short talks were enjoyed, among them being one by R. Hudson Burr, chairman of the State Railroad Commission, who with railroad commissioner, A. S. Wells, are making the tour of the central part of the state with the delegation.

Following the luncheon the party was driven to Winter Park where its members are to be that city's guests for a few hours. They were scheduled to arrive in Orlando between 5 and 6 o'clock where they were to be entertained by the Chamber of Commerce of that city at a banquet.

Many expressions of praise and compliments were heard about Sanford and Seminole county relative to its progress and enterprises.

To Train Young Prince For Hungarian Throne

BUDAPEST, Dec. 7.—Political gossip is dwelling just now on the deep interest shown by certain Hungarians in the education of Prince Otto, eldest son of Karl, late Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary.

Otto, eleven years old, is in Spain. Leaders of Hungarian royalists, including Counts Andrássy and Sacchen and Bishop Mike are fearful of the predominance of Austrian influences in the boy's education and have demanded, it is said, a clear cut Hungarian education for him.

The Royalists have received with satisfaction the news that members of the Hapsburg dynasty have renewed their oath of loyalty towards Otto, pledging themselves to respect the priority of all his claims.

BALDWIN RESIGNS
(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 8.—The Evening Standard Saturday says that Premier Baldwin will resign Monday and that he is likely to recommend as his successor J. Ramsay MacDonald, who as head of Parliament Labor party, is leader of his Majesty's opposition in the house of commons, there is no indication, however, of any authority for the newspaper's statement.

Resignation of Premier Baldwin is Expected—House of Commons Virtually Complete

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 8.—Egerton Duke, chief agent of the Labor party, officially announced Saturday there would be no Liberal Labor coalition.

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 8.—With the exception of a few seats in the Orkney and Shetland islands and some of the universities, returns from which have not yet been received, the house of commons is complete. At 11 o'clock Friday the returns from Thursday's general elections showed the standing of the parties as follows:

- Conservatives 259.
- Labour party 185.
- Liberals 148.
- Other parties 10.

Thus in the new house the government will be in the minority in the neighborhood of ninety votes, as against the combined opposition parties. These figures, however, may vary somewhat according as different compilers regard scattered members as belonging to one or another of the big parties.

It is understood Premier Baldwin has summoned a meeting of the cabinet for Monday to consider the situation, and that a meeting of the conservative party to debate its next step and possibly to elect a new leader to replace Mr. Baldwin will be held in the course of the coming week, as it is generally held that Mr. Baldwin, whose policy the country has rejected, will resign as premier. In any case, owing to the unseating of the minister of labor and the minister of agriculture, reconstruction of the government is unavoidable unless, as seems extremely likely, the whole cabinet should resign with Mr. Baldwin.

Holiday Attire Is Donned By Stores

As Christmas draws nearer and nearer Sanford's stores have taken on a decided holiday-like attire. Large show windows tastefully decorated are to be seen at every hand.

The interiors of the stores also have been changed for the Yuletide season and the Christmas colors of green and red are predominant in every business establishment. Everything is indicative of the season of the year.

Christmas suggestions for presents for everyone can be found in Sanford's stores. And toys, there are plenty of them for the kiddies. Old Saint Nicholas will have a large varied stock from which to select his presents for the little ones.

In those windows which contain collections of toys there are rows of little grease spots that marked the places where inquisitive little noses have pressed against the glass to view with eager anticipation toy dolls, toy trains, toy pianos, toy stoves and numerous other little things that make the hearts of the little folks happy at Christmas time.

And there are presents for the older folks, father and mother and for brother, sister and for the whole family, in fact. Judging by the large stocks of useful and helpful articles suitable for gifts that Sanford merchants have ordered, it is safe to say that Sanford is going to have a big Christmas.

Chamber of Commerce Appoints Committee to go into Matter at the Suggestion of Mayor Lake

Declaring that Sanford is much in need of a City Hall and that now is the time to formulate plans to erect one, Forest Lake, chairman of the city commission, urged the Chamber of Commerce at its regular weekly luncheon held Friday at the Valdes hotel, to get behind the proposition with its unqualified support.

Mayor Lake, in supporting his contention that this city should construct such a building at once, pointed out that the building which the city owns on Palmetto avenue and which is now occupied by the city offices, could be sold and the money derived therefrom along with a certain amount included in the proposed bond issue, would be sufficient to erect a very handsome building on property which the city owns on Park avenue near the water front.

Mr. Lake further declared that he thought the building should be designed so that it would accommodate the city offices on the first floor and include a large auditorium on the second floor. President Higgins of the chamber of commerce announced that a committee would be appointed to meet with the city commission and look further into the matter.

The meeting was well attended Friday. Reports of several committees were heard and accepted. B. F. Whitner, Jr., county demonstration agent, told of progress being made on Seminole's exhibit for the Madison Square Garden display.

Fred T. Williams, city engineer, stated that he had completed the drawings of the proposed lakefront bulkhead and stated that within a few days he would have completed estimates for the amount of money that it would cost.

The members heard with interest a talk by P. D. Rupert, in which he told how he was endeavoring to have all products shipped from Seminole sent out in accordance with certain set standards which would guarantee a better market for the goods.

J. C. McCandless, a new member of the chamber of commerce, who recently came to Sanford, made a short talk giving his impression of Sanford.

Plans Being Made For Volusia County Fair

DELAND, Fla., Dec. 8.—That Volusia county will have an establishment with valuation in excess of $40,000 at the opening of its first annual county fair in Deland on January 22-26, inclusive, is indicated by the total figures of the contracts for exhibit buildings already awarded. These figures do not include the valuation of the 50-acre fair site, much of which was presented to the fair association.

During the last week the fair grounds, adjacent to the Deland station, have undergone a great change. Two short months ago the site was covered by huge pine trees, palmettos and other undergrowth. Today it has been transferred into a veritable city in its building. A modern water and drainage system have been installed. The concrete pillars for the various display buildings have been sunk. Practically all of the most important building materials are on the grounds. The uprights for some of the buildings are in place and about 40 carpenters and other workers are busy in the rush to complete the structures and have everything in readiness for the opening day of Volusia county's first fair.

FLORIDA EXHIBIT AT NEW YORK WILL BE BOON TO STATE

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 7.—Progress towards a full representation of Florida counties at the Madison Square Garden (New York) Exposition next February is being watched with great interest in the capital. Officials who have noticed the decisions of the counties, one by one, to appropriate funds to finance representative exhibits at the exposition greet each addition to the list with expressions of satisfaction, and hope that every county in the state may, before many weeks have passed, find ways and means to finance exhibits.

The value of a full representation would be one of the greatest advertisements for Florida that has ever been sent out, it is believed by those interested in the scheme. The result could be multiplied tenfold, it is suggested, by assembling the exhibits by carloads to Jacksonville where a solid trainload of 63 cars could be headed toward the nation's metropolis.

This train, it is pointed out, might be routed westward by way of Atlanta, Nashville, and thence follow the Evansville route to Chicago. From that point it could be turned towards New York and routed through Cleveland, Buffalo, and on towards its destination by way of Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and down the Hudson River route.

With a solid train of this sort spreading the message of the state's opportunities, it has been suggested, the value to Florida would be many times the cost of carrying out the idea.

One of the most effective plans offered, officials say, is one whereby each county could put its exhibit in a car for shipment, and cover the car on both sides with streamers describing the various products, county's location, and its advantages.

The train could return to Florida down the eastern coast route, or might make the trip to the East that way and go westward from New York for an even longer journey than to Chicago.

It is pointed out in this connection that the Florida exhibits sent throughout the country several years ago in baggage cars was of great advertising value to the state.

SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

After spending several enjoyable holidays last week, we are back to our studies, ready to "dig hard."

The football season has ended and now what excuse will the boys have for getting off early every afternoon? They won't be able to say that they have to hurry and get their football togs on now.

Monday morning we were interestedly entertained by Rev. J. N. Montgomery, who is a missionary to China. He gave us an interesting talk about the life and conditions in the land of the Yellow people.

The High School belts, with the inscription, "Sanford Hi" have arrived and are worn proudly by their many owners.

The Seniors have ordered their class rings and are beginning to feel the thrills usually peculiar to the Seniors.

As usual the High School made a generous offering to the Near East relief, giving this year a Thanksgiving offering of over $30. The Sophomores contributed the most, with the Seniors a close second.

The Juniors are practicing hard on the play, "Lost, A Chaperone" which they expect to stage in a week or two. Advertisements will appear in the Herald later giving exact date, etc.

The football boys have had their pictures taken and made for the Salamagundi and now they are packing away their togs until next year.

The girl's basketball team is hard in preparation for their game with the Orlando girls in Orlando tomorrow night. They are putting out some stiff practice and are expected to bring back the game by a large score.

New Boiler Will Give Fifty Per Cent Increased Power

SCHENECTADY, Dec. 7.—Power from mercury vapor, making possible a double vapor power plant in which turbines for generating electricity are driven both by mercury vapor and water vapor from the same fuel source, resulting in a gain of about 50 per cent in power per pound of fuel, is the outstanding achievement of a new boiler perfected by the General Electric Company.

The last great step in improving the efficiency of manufacturing power was the replacement of the reciprocating engine by the steam turbine. The invention of the mercury vapor boiler is regarded as a greater step in the progress of science.

The modern steam turbine is about 40 per cent more efficient than the best reciprocating engines, but according to W. L. R. Emmet, consulting engineer for the General Electric Company and inventor of the new process, the mercury boiler is more than 50 per cent more efficient than the best steam turbine. The mercury boiler is still considered an experiment but like all great steps in advance, time will be required to develop and perfect a system before this process can be expected to reflect on the operating costs of public utilities.

Mr. Emmet estimates that if the mercury boiler comes up to all expectations, it will produce with 35 pounds gauge pressure, when compared with a steam turbine generating plant which uses 200 pounds steam pressure, about 52 per cent more output in electricity per pound of fuel.

"And if," Mr. Emmet adds, "in such a plant the boiler room is re-equipped with furnaces and mercury apparatus arranged to burn 18 per cent more fuel, the station capacity with the same steam turbines, condensers, auxiliaries, water circulation, etc. would be increased about 80 per cent."

The mercury vapor process involves the vaporization of mercury in a boiler driving of a turbine by the mercury vapor and the condensation of the exhaust in a condenser where its latent heat is delivered to water and thus used to generate steam at pressure suitable for use in existing steam plants.

"Naturally," Mr. Emmet explained, "the question which will arise in connection with this mercury process is the danger from mercurial poisoning, either to the community or to the attendants. In the first place, all joints are welded so that it is impossible for mercury to escape except through accident and arrangement are such that leakage if it should occur will go into the stack where it can do no harm."

Pinellas County Will Spend Two And a Half Million on Good Roads

CLEARWATER—The board of county commissioners of Pinellas have let a contract for $2,400,152 worth of modern highways to be built in the county within a year from the time the contract is signed. This will be done early this week. The rest of the funds from the sale of $2,863,000 worth of bonds at 98.4 will go for bridges. The first work will be done on the Gandy bridge road and probably will be completed by the time the bridge is ready for use. The Hillsboro road, it is understood, will be one of the first to be completed. This will extend from Clearwater to the Hillsboro county line via the new Safety Harbor bridge which is completed. Plans call for this road to be 30 feet wide, with a five inch rock base and 4 by 12 inch curbing. The other roads are to be from 16 to 18 feet wide and will have a four inch rock foundation. Bricks and asphalt blocks with bituminous filler, will be used in construction of the roads.

WORK WILL BEGIN SOON ON U. OF F. LIBRARY BUILDING

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Dec. 7.—Construction work soon will begin on the first unit of the new University of Florida building, for which the legislature this year appropriated $100,000, according to Miss Cora A. Millmore, University librarian.

The plans are nearing completion, it is stated, and probably will be finished in time to be submitted to the State Board of Control at their next meeting on December 11. If the plans are approved, the board will, it is understood, immediately let the contract for the first unit of the building.

Plans now being drawn call for location of the first unit on the corner north of Peabody Hall. It will face towards the west, and will be two stories high with the ceiling of the second story double height in order to insure the best possible light and ventilation.

Spacious quarters will be a distinguishing characteristic of the structure. It will contain a large reading room for newspapers and magazines, a reference room, a consultation room, reserve-book room with an adjoining apartment where students may use their typewriters, and a room in which to study and keep materials for debates.

In addition to the rooms arranged for the benefit of the students, there will be offices downstairs, and a section of steel book racks. The entire unit will be furnished with the most modern equipment.

The first unit is being planned so that its construction will permit the addition of three adjoining units as rapidly as funds are made available for the entire building. The completed structure, it is said, will cost approximately $500,000 when finished.

"MERE MAN" TELLS 'EM

The men never did like those revealing styles — bare backs, and sleeveless dresses and knee-length skirts.

The fashion makers are beginning to wake up to the fact—hence the modesty of Milady's fall clothes, with their long skirts and sleeves and high collars.

At least that's what one man says. He is Thomas Convey, who's been managing style shows for 12 years.

Speaking from experience, he says: "Any woman can look well if she selects her clothes with an eye to color, line, and suitability. A girl may take one dress and look like a slim princess; the same girl may take another dress the same size, but different in color and style, and look like a tub.

"And it's a tragedy when she takes a good-looking dress and kills it with the wrong hat.

"Another mistake a lot of women make is to affect flapper styles when they're not the right type to wear them. They belong to the high-school girl. If a woman puts on clothes that are 15 years too young for her, she doesn't make herself look younger, but merely ridiculous."

BUT GREAT TIMES ARE COMING

While American farmers struggle for a fair share of prosperity, farmers are having much the same difficulty in other countries. The outcome is hard to predict. But the reaction, when it comes, will be mighty. Half of the world's workers are engaged in agriculture, our government finds on checking up. In America, only 29 per cent. Farming still is the industry, as important as all other industries combined. Ask the starving man.

According to Colonel Swinton, of the British army, who organized and commanded the first tank unit, the idea was conceived in 1914, and its distinctive feature, the long belt, was derived from the Holt agricultural tractor, which is built in Peoria, Ill.

The first two years of baby's life are the most trying on mothers. Incessant care must be exercised by the mother in baby's diet. Its little stomach is so easily upset and bowel troubles are a constant menace. At such times Teethina will assist in keeping baby well and greatly lessen the mother's anxiety.

Mrs. John W. Mobley, Route 2, Whigham, Ga., writes: "My baby had chills and fever. He was very sick and his bowels were loose. My doctor gave me a medicine for him, but it didn't do him any good.

"I started him on Teethina and he soon got over the trouble and is now well and lively as a kitten."

Teethina is sold by all druggists, or send 25c to the Moffet Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., for a package and a free booklet about babies.

Pictures of Good Roads Meeting Are To Be Shown Here

Moving pictures of the recent good roads rally held at GreenCove Springs in behalf of state road No. 3, and which a large delegation of Sanford business men attended going on the steamer, "City of Jacksonville," will be shown Friday night at the Milano Theater and Saturday night at the Princess Theater.

The pictures will show the Sanford delegation along with delegations from Orlando and Jacksonville. As a result of these big meetings, the state road department authorized the expenditure of $50,000 on the unfinished portion of the road of approximately 26 miles in Clay county.

WHEELS IN HIS HEAD.

"Maude says her husband disgraced her on their honeymoon."

"How?"

"On the steamer she wanted the other passengers to think an ocean trip was an old-story to them, but almost as soon as they went on board he pointed to a row of life-buoys and asked the captain what was the idea of all the extra tires."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

"Some Wild Oats" Coming to the Milane

HAS GOOD ENDORSEMENT "Some Wild Oats" which comes here soon to the Milane Theatre has the support of the better films committee of Atlanta, Birmingham, Mobile, New Orleans, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Nashville, Charleston and other southern cities where the film was shown privately these groups to pass on it whether it was fit to be shown in this city. Never before has a motion picture received such remarkable support from the women clubs all over the country. The picture will be shown to separate audiences of men and women. "The State Health Department of Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and New Orleans have come out and endorsed the motion picture "Some Wild Oats" 100 per cent providing it is shown to adults of 16 and up and that men and women will not be allowed to see the film together and that there be special reels for the men and women. The picture will come to the Milane Theatre starting Monday. This picture has recently broken all records of attendance at New Orleans and Atlanta. "The sensational motion picture 'Some Wild Oats' which is coming to the Milane is a frank discussion of sex and is of such nature that it will be impossible for a mixed audience to see it. There are special reels which are changed for the men and women. The picture is of a story, a young man who comes to the city to take a fling on the Gay White Way. The story was written by the foremost specialists in the country. He picture is featured by William Jefferson and all star cast. This is the first time a picture of this nature was ever produced for the public. Men and women do not see the same show when they come to see the film "Some Wild Oats". At no time will an audience of men and women be allowed to see the picture together, on account of the delicate subject and scenes. "Some Wild Oats" will contain special reels for the male and female audiences, these reels are frank to the point. The picture is endorsed by the women clubs and other film committees of most all the southern cities, also the health fliers of almost every city in the country. Unlike the average motion picture, "Some Wild Oats" carries some a lesson with a wallop. It is frank and does not hesitate at anything, it shows the "naked truth" The picture, while it is frank, yet it is so constructed that will not offend. The story is featured by William Jefferson and all star cast. The picture is entirely different from the average movie, it has just completed a record.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

KEEP THE WORD:—Who so keepeth the word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.—1 John 2:5.

Air yew settin' on the sidelines
While the other fellers work?
Hev yuh got the repetition
Uv a reg'lar chronic shirk?
Better take yer coat of instant,
Let yer 'thuisiasm flame,
Fer its time yew made a effort
Fer t' git into the game.

Lot's o' folks aroun' is waitin'
Jest t' see which way yew turn;
Watchin' fer the curves yer throwin'
So thet them curves kin learn.
Yew've bin boatin' how yew'd do it;
How "Great Wonders" is yer name
New's yer time t' rise an' prove it:
Com! Git in the game.

Yew could beat the worl' all holler?
Well we'll bite. O' course yuh could
But tew us yew've got t' prove it:
New's ouyr chance! Come on!
Make good!
Yew kin never make a home-run,
Git a place in hall o' fame,
'Less yuh peel an' go to battin',
Quit yer talk! Git in the game!
—Selected.

Henry T. Finck asks why is ple disappearing?

The Gainesville Sun is for John Martin for Governor because "he can beat Catts and will make the state a good governor."

Your Christmas shopping should be done without delay. Of course all loyal Sanford people will shop in Sanford.

A vocabulary of one thousand words is considered sufficient for the average man, but a woman would be bored to death with such constant repetition.

Prof. Frederick Starr says that "Greece fell, so did Rome. Why? Because the hard boiled eggs became soft boiled."

War is a game of old men in which the stakes are the lives of the youth of the world.—Ex-Judge John H. Clarke.

Every day The Herald announces many new developments for Sanford. The Celery City is attracting attention throughout the state on account of its rapid growth.

According to reporters who have been trying to interview Irene Castle since her most recent marriage, the latest thing in dancing is the "side-step."

At last President Coolidge has committed himself on several of the national problems. It is nice to know that the President of the United States can talk after so many months of doubt.

One of the advantages of living in a small city is that you don't have to be continually carrying a gun. New York newspapers look like crime books, and Detroit papers read like dime novels.

Christmas savings in the United States this year will total $206,006,800, an increase of $63,000,000 over last year. This is according to Herbert F. Rawll, of New York, president of the Christmas Savings Club Corporation. This represents the savings for the year of men, women and children who plan their Christmas buying from one year to another.

Herbert Hoover says that a family that owns its own home takes pride in it, maintains it better, gets more pleasure out of it, and has a more wholesome, healthful and happier atmosphere in which to bring up children. The home owner has a constructive aim in life. He works harder outside his home, he spends his leisure hours more profitably, and he and his family live a finer life and enjoy more of the comforts and cultivating influences of our modern civilization.

Fiddling While Rome Burns

Ten thousand dollars a day is the estimated cost of fires now ravaging the Everglades from the Broward county line to the Miami canal. Ten thousand dollars worth of the world's best soil is being burned daily into worthless ashes. Thirty separate and distinct fires are making it impossible for the present facilities to be adequate.

To cope with the situation one fire warden, in charge of an extent of one hundred miles, operates with two men as helpers, two pumps, each of which is said to quench fires at the rate of fifteen acres per hour. But the fires are so numerous and cover such a vast area that little can be done in this way toward checking them.

There is in the Everglades an immediate and final method of putting out fires. The locks in the various canals can at any time be closed and the resulting flood will quench all existing fires without delay.

But it so happens that, according to the laws of this state, it is within the province of Governor Cary A. Hardee or State Engineer F. C. Elliot alone to order the locks closed. Governor Hardee and Mr. Elliot were in Miami last Monday when a committee was appointed by the Everglades Development Association to bring the matter to their attention.

It was unfortunate that the Governor attended so many social functions while in the Magic City that he was unable to see the committee. The following letter was then drafted and left at the hotel for him:

"The draining of the Everglades has brought about an unprecedented danger, entailing an enormous loss from fire to the settlers and to the state which amounts to the destruction of the soil itself. Existing provisions are pitifully inadequate. If you can arrange to prolong your stay one day, we will show you fires burning from Broward county to Hialeah. This emergency justifies extraordinary measures."

According to a story published in the Miami News-Metropolis, Governor Hardee was unable to grant the request to remain longer, as his itinerary had already been mapped out. He left early Tuesday morning for West Palm Beach for a hunting trip. The news story further states that during the time the Governor was in Miami his time was taken up almost exclusively with social functions.

Such procrastination or absolute neglect would be surprising were not the citizens of Florida well accustomed to seeing it in state executives. Almost every governor of Florida within the memory of man has been elected to office on a platform of Everglade drainage. Everglade drainage, and law and order.

There is on the shores of Lake Worth a group of well-known hotels in a resort called Palm Beach. The climate there is ideal, allowing golf and swimming almost every day in the year. The natural beauty of the place is incomparable. The lawns and shrubbery and the pines and palms are as beautiful as anywhere in the world.

But according to the Miami News-Metropolis of December 1, tourists do not go to Palm Beach to enjoy the scenery or the golf and swimming. The News-Metropolis explains to the astonishment of its readers that a Beach Club is its main attraction. A Beach Club in which more money is won or lost over its tables than anywhere else in America. A Beach Club to which people are now flocking who formerly gambled their lives away at Monte Carlo.

The News-Metropolis is a state-wide newspaper and of good repute. It is inconceivable that the Beach Club article escaped the attention of Governor Hardee. It is inconceivable that the Governor is ignorant of the laws of this state in regard to gambling.

Governor Hardee was in Palm Beach last Tuesday. Perhaps he heard of the famous Beach Club. Perhaps he ordered the sheriff of Palm Beach county to see that this place is permanently closed. Perhaps he did.

Teaching Citizenship

To become a more intelligent, more useful and more contented citizen, is the ideal of a true member of the Order of DeMolay, as stated in Citizenship Practice pamphlets recently issued by growing organization.

This rapidly growing order for boys is exerting a tremendous influence over the youth of the land. Leaders of the organization are seeking to impress on the membership these lessons in citizenship practice:

- (1) The Art of Living Together. (2) Citizenship in the Home, the School and the Community. (3) How the Citizen Earns, Saves and Spends his Money. (4) Citizenship Practice in Voting and Holding Office. (5) Citizenship Activities in City and Country. (6) How the Citizen May Know and Help His Nation. (7) How the Citizen May Know and Help His Nation. (8) America and the World Community.

DeMolay boys will no doubt grow into better men and more useful citizens on account of this campaign. If the boy of today learns just what is expected of him as a citizen, the man of tomorrow will measure up to a higher standard of citizenship.

THIS NATION, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and . . . government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.—Abraham Lincoln.

Losing and Winning

New York Tribune

A paradox in life is that often the loser is the winner. This is often illustrated in athletic games and sporting contests. The term, "a game loser," has come to be a title of honor.

Often the team that is on the short end of the score has really won in the things that are worth while.

One of the chief objections to betting on contests is not in the gambling but in the tendency to misplace the incentive for effort. When large sums of money are at stake influence is almost certain to be brought to bear to cheat if necessary, in order to win.

Racing and pugilism have come to be very uncertain forms of sport because of the large amounts which are offered as the prize for winning. The character of many of the men who are interested in racing has helped to keep such contests as those recently held above suspicion, but in general there is a feeling that the racing game is subject to many undesirable influences. In pugilism there are frequent cases which do not seem to be altogether on the level.

There is nothing finer as a builder of character than a clean-cut athletic contest between two individuals or teams. When a sportsman is a gentleman there is no more desirable type of person. The element of contest enters into all of life. Whoever plays the game for the sake of the game and not for the sake of the score or the possible financial return is adding strength to his own life.

This is the fine thing about the average college football or other games. The men who play are fighting not for themselves alone, but for their school and for their comrades. They make their individual effort, but it is effort in co-operation. They want to win, but they want still more to maintain the honor of their school. They can only do this by playing the game fairly.

Life is a great game. Everyone wants what he calls success. Whether he wins or not depends on the attitude in undertaking his work. If his goal is possessions to be had in any way, he may win possessions, but lose his own soul. If he wins by dishonorable means he is the eternal loser. If he plays the game cleanly he wins, whether he attains the possessions or not. It is not always the man who gets into the public notice who is the truly successful person. The humble person who has kept his soul clean, who has fought fairly, who is able to look every man in the eyes without fear is the successful man. Outward success may come or may not. He wins who loses the material things, but conquers himself.

Anesthesia Against Sin

The Asheville Citizen

In a remarkable article in the November number of The Christian Century the famous Dean Inge declares that what is the matter with Europe and America today is the people's loss of the consciousness of sin. "What has decayed among us strangely and rapidly," he says, "is the sense of sin."

Why we Americans have lost in extraordinary degree this "sense of sin" is, in The Citizen's opinion, plain enough. We have made use of a tremendously effective anesthetic against consciousness of wrong-doing. We did not invent it, but we, more than any people of the present time delight in it. This anesthetic is a burning desire to save the souls of others, to prevent the offensive of others, to regulate the lives of others. Through an ardent absorption in the imperfections of our neighbors, we attain to blindness to our own. We crowd our minds so full of the enormities of other people's conduct that we can not remember those committed by ourselves.

It is from this in great part that the craze for the making of many laws springs. To make speeches and conduct campaigns whose object is to force others to certain acts, is pleasantly exciting under any circumstances. It gives us an exaggerated idea of our power. But, when it makes us forget our own faults in magnifying those of others, it becomes a mania. How dear is the cost of the mania and its resultant anesthesia, Dean Inge points out thus:

"They were not afraid, neither the king, nor his servants that heard all these words." I do think, in fact, I am sure, that we ought to be afraid, more afraid than we are, about sin and judgment. "Woe unto them that are at ease in Zion!" said the prophet. I am sure we are too much at ease in Zion. We do not work out our own salvation, with fear and trembling. It is not fear of punishment that I wish to inculcate, but fear of sin, fear of being separated from God, of being spiritually diseased, of being rebels against the laws of our Creator, of being the slaves of our lower selves.

It would be something if we could bring ourselves to pray every day from our hearts those verses of the fifty-first Psalm: "Have mercy upon me, O God, according to the loving kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies do away with my offences. For I acknowledge my faults and my sin is ever before me."

That is to say, the world, with its sins ever before it, would be forced to set its house in order. Nations can not endure continuous self-reproach are in the wrong path, the Dean any more than can the individual. We warn. We work to forget our offenses. We should work to wipe them utterly out.

TOM SIMS SAYS

Civilization seems to lead from the jungle life to the jungle life.

It's cheaper to marry than it is to give her a Christmas present.

Tomorrow, they say, never comes. Just the same, its bills do.

Christmas is dashing toward us at the rate of 60 seconds a minute.

The easiest thing on earth to see is why girls wear silk stockings.

Being famous has its drawbacks. Just when you are getting used to a husband it's time to change.

If woman's place isn't in the home today then man's isn't there tonight, and what of tomorrow?

Dr. Comelles, famous French hygienist, says he can't see why girls wear silk stockings. We can.

Dear Santa: "Please bring us another month in which to do our shopping before Christmas."

Silk stockings are worn for more than two reasons. Millions of reasons, and every one a man.

An actor has had six wives, a dancer three husbands. Three or four of this kind really equal one.

A well-known dancer has married again. Famous people seldom just marry. It is always "again."

IF I KNEW YOU AND YOU KNEW ME

If I knew you and you knew me, 'Tis seldom we would disagree; But, never having yet clasped hands, Both often fail to understand. That each intends to do what's right, And treat each other "honor bright," How little to complain there'd be If I knew you and you knew me.

If I knew you and you knew me— If both of us could clearly see, And with an inner sight divine The meaning of your heart and mine, I'm sure that we would differ less And clasp our hands in friendliness; Our thoughts would pleasantly agree If I knew you and you knew me.

ENTERTAINING PIANIST

In honor of Miss Marie Franklin, the celebrated pianist of New York and Berlin, a reception was given at the home of Mrs. S. Robbins. The home was beautifully decorated with myriads of roses (Miss Franklin's favorite flower) and delicious sandwiches were served with hot chocolate. Bon bons, fruit salad and nuts were served on beautiful platters made by Mrs. Coleman. Punch was also served.

Among these present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Burson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bandel, A. Raffield and mother, Mr. Hirsch of Jacksonville and Mr. Robline. The party ended at a late hour and was greatly enjoyed by all.

D. A. R. BENEFIT PARTY MOST SUCCESSFUL EVENT.

The card party given Friday afternoon at the Woman's Club, by the Sallie Harrison Chapter, N. S., D. A. R., for the benefit of the Episcopal church plant, was a decided success, both socially and financially, and proved to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

Mrs. Raymond Key greeted the guests upon arrival and receiving were Mrs. A. M. DeForrest, regent of the chapter, Mrs. George G. Herring, vice regent, and Mrs. R. E. Tolar, president of the Woman's Club.

Little Misses Katherine Thigpen, Martha Bishop, and Mary E. Tolar, in the quaintest of Colonial costumes, gave out the tally cards. Mrs. W. E. Watson, past regent, acted as treasurer.

The lovely club house was most artistically and appropriately decorated with quantities of potted plants, baskets of red roses, and flags. Overhead were festoons of red, caught at the corners with smallest flags. In a prominent place was the large silk flag of the chapter.

The tally cards and score pads were designed with the D. A. R. insignia.

In the sun parlor the decorations were of flags, of vivid-hued poinsettias and here a number of ladies sat and sewed.

The afternoon passed all too quickly with the spirited games of bridge and Mah Jong. In the bridge game Mrs. T. L. Dumas held top score and was awarded an embroidered sheet. The second prize, a lovely vanity, went to Mrs. R. A. Newman. Low score prize, two beaded hot dish mats, was won by Mrs. E. P. Morse.

In the Mah Jong game, Mrs. Geo. G. Herring held high score, and was given an oriental basket filled with stationery. Second prize, a basket of roses, was presented Mrs. John G. Leonard.

Following the awarding of the prizes the card tables were laid with dainty hand-made covers and refreshments of delicious fruit salad, saltines and coffee were served. The refreshment committee, Mrs. F. E. Dutton, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. Craig Harris, and Mrs. Hinton, were assisted in serving by Mrs. G. I. Loucks, Mrs. Cam Puleston, Mrs. Raymond Key, Mrs. John Leonard and Mrs. B. J. Starling.

Little Misses Virginia, McDaniel and Mary E. Tolar also assisted. The affairs given by the Sallie Harrison chapter are always very enjoyable and on Friday the same cordial hospitality prevailed, each and every guest enjoying the afternoon to the utmost.

A goodly sum was realized, the entire proceeds having been donated to Father Peck, to help the fund already started to the rebuilding of the Church and Brotherhood and to help him in the splendid work he has been doing.

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN

Mrs. Henry Wight, Editor Phone 163-W.

The routine of the December business meeting of the Woman's Club was pleasantly varied by the reports of the delegates to the Convention in West Palm Beach. Mrs. Kelly, covering the general news of the assembly was in her very best vein, witty, entertaining, vivid in her descriptions, and yet serious enough withal in her understanding of the important issues which came under consideration there. To judge from her impressions all the clubs of the state in their reports indicate the facing of similar situations for those that confront us—plans for financing building operations, schools and health activities, and keeping abreast with civic betterment in its various forms. These reports were always interrupted with music and lectures. Mrs. Kelly declared were like oases—also paying her characteristic tribute to the lecturer if he happened to be a man and brother. Marcus Fagg of Jacksonville, speaking on Child Welfare, stressed the need for state provision for crippled children of which there are now some fifteen hundred with care provided for fifty. Mr. Holmes of Daytona Beach presented the value to a community of an auditorium and a well conducted Open Forum. John Bradford spoke on Play Ground recreation development, Mrs. Edgar Lewis, a former and well beloved federation president spoke on Education from the teacher's point of view. A most impressive picture of conditions in the Near East was drawn by Mrs. Mabel Elliott when she described the evacuation of a town and the slow progress of the refugees walking for days at a time before coming to a friendly resting place. It was in connection with the relief work in this country that Golden Rule Sunday was set apart and the offering taken in token of Sanford's sympathy. The resolutions which especially impressed Mrs. Kelly were those asking for the passage of Uniform Marriage and Divorce Laws, for the Volstead Act to be unamended by those appealing for the permission to allow light wines and beer sold with a two and a half per cent of alcohol, and one providing for further effort toward Child Conservation.

A recommendation was made that each club have a vigilance committee whose duty shall be to watch the daily papers carefully for projected legislation that might be inimical to the best interests of our state as its women see it, and report such to the local organizations. Another committee was recommended whose duty shall be to make a thorough canvass of the club members and see to it that all are registered for city, state and county elections and poll tax duly paid. Mrs. C. C. Woodruff was elected as chairman of the Vigilance Committee, and the Registration Committee will be appointed by the president of the club.

Mrs. Kelly was followed by Mrs. John Leonard, who presented the social features of the convention which were many and very delightful, and the speaker was especially pleasing in her vivid word pictures of scenery, and the wonderful architectural beauties of the East Coast. Other features of the assembly have been so well covered in previous reports in the papers that it is unnecessary to repeat them here.

These are busy days for the gardener, transplanting tiny seedlings, separating and re-setting perennials, and setting out roses and shrubs, for from now on until late in January is the best time in this section, for all this most fascinating performance. Out on Sanford Avenue a rose garden is being made that will well repay a visit, and its owner, Mrs. W. A. Ginn, takes a great delight in sharing its beauties with those who are interested. In the good black mud soil are growing hundreds and hundreds of roses many of them in glorious bloom. There we may see the older favorites, Malmaison, the wonderful old Bourbon, Agrippina, the sturdy dark red rose so well beloved and so happy in Florida conditions, and the various sensations as they have been exploited by rosarians from year to year, all the way from the sensational Vick's Cayrice all the way down to the matchless Crusader which nearly took one's breath away, when seeing it for the first time in Orlando at the State Flower Show. Roses, however, are not by any means the only interesting things in this wilderness garden of Mrs. Ginn's. She has good specimens of Scotch heather in bloom, Buddleia full of buds, seedlings of various annuals, and some fascinating experiments in plant propagation going on in her little greenhouse. A true flower lover, she has many novelties under observation, among them the new Lillium Regale. It is in these that the list of Florida possibilities being enlarged annually, and it is a real inspiration to spend a morning in the gardens which are so richly supplying Sanford people with cut flowers.

The Stewarts specialize in the Pink and Red Radiance Roses, growing these by hundreds, with only the lovely white Kaiserin Augusta Victoria as a foil to their rich coloring. Every year the writer is asked to tell somebody when to plant for early spring blooming annuals, and a visit to the Stewart farm is a valuable bit of visual education in this particular.

In addition to lovely pompano and single yellow chrysanthemums, there are already blooming, the most exquisite sweet peas, calendula in orange and paler yellow, gypsophila, pansies, scarlet sage, petunias and lupin just about to burst into flower. Snapdragons, larkspur, verbena, and many other things are in neatly arranged beds coming along and ready for transplanting, and in a slat house are thousands of the tenderer varieties. This farm, like Mrs. Ginn's has a heavy muck soil, peculiarly adapted to roses, and in both places are magnificent clumps of calla and of Easter lilies growing just as fast as they can to spend their lovely lives in blossom. If one is a laggard in garden enthusiasm one could scarcely have the joy of a trip through these two interesting places without being pretty thoroughly inoculated with the planting bug.

"The smile of the sun for pardon, The song of a bird for mirth, I am nearer to God in my garden, Than anywhere else on earth."

BIG CELEBRATION AT BELGRADE
BELGRADE, Dec. 8.—A rousing celebration will mark the opening here next Friday afternoon of the cross-state highway. Delegations are expected from West Palm Beach, Tampa, St. Petersburg and Fort Myers, and invitations have been sent asking that special representatives from Tallahassee make the trip here for the celebration. Speech-making bearing on the importance of the highway will be among the features of the occasion.

CHARACTER STUDIES

First Baptist Church
The character studies which I recently gave at the beginning of the evening services were received so heartily that I have decided to give a few others. In preparation for this work I have written to a number of college and university presidents, and to the editors of Review of Review, Ladies Home Journal, the Geographic Magazine, Saturday Evening Post, Literary Digest, asking for a list of the ten men or women of history who have made the greatest contribution to world progress. From the replies I am making a list of those who stand highest in the estimates given. In a ten minutes prelude tomorrow evening it is my purpose to present the first character study. Those who do not attend other churches are cordially invited.

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSIONS

WINCHESTER, Mass., Dec. 8.—Mysterious explosions which have been occurring almost continuously since last Friday behind the bedroom walls in the home of William Hudson have baffled state and city inspectors. AT THE MILANE

"The Gunfighter," William Far-num's new William Fox production which started a one day engagement at the Milane Theatre today is his most enjoyable production and in it he is at his best.
Mr. Farnum's career cannot be considered without the recollection of a long line of quaint and curious characters rising. As Billy Buell in "The Gunfighter," he diverges slightly from the "quaint and curious" and succeeds in absorbing one's interest in a role that is too vivid, sharp and violent for such a term, to be applicable again.

Billy is a Westerner of the variety made famous in literature by Bret Harte. Bold, strong and chivalrous, with a keen sense of the romantic and dramatic, he appeals strongly to the love we all possess for such things.

In "The Gunfighter" the action is fast and furious, but wholly devoid of the typical and cheapening elements that mar most Western dramas.
It is true Farnum, as Billy Buell, fights with those wicked hardware utensils of his and even engages to destroy an enemy by knifing him, but a sufficient and highly plausible fore and after reason is given for such commotion.
