Village To Ask For Re-Bids On Police Car

By Margaret Cosby
At its regular monthly meeting on the first Monday of the month, the North Orlando Village Council decided to ask for rebids on a police car for the village to include only requested specifications. The council is also obtaining bids for general liability insurance for the village.

Councilman Lloyd Brown proposed that certain repairs be made to Hays Road. Immediate action is being taken to proceed in accordance with his suggestions.

On behalf of the North Orlando Volunteer Fire Department, Brown extended the department's appreciation to Village Police Department for the very able co-operation in directing traffic and controlling onlookers during the recent series of forest fires near the village residential areas.

It was announced that Village Attorney Orville Johnson would be presenting a rough draft of the Village Charter Amendments to the Seminole County Legislative Delegation before presentation to the State Legislature in the spring.

Mrs. Barbara Peters, supervisor of registration, announced that three candidates filed for three of the four council seats to be filled in the March 16 general election. Jay A. Wetzel filed an application for the Group 5 seat, Brown for Group 3, and Donald Wilcox has filed for the Group 1 council seat.

Seminole Port Terminal Wins Okay

By Harry I. Johnson
 "An excellent opportunity exists to develop the St. Johns River..."
 This is the conclusion of Lockwood, Greene Engineers as they submitted a preliminary feasibility report on the proposed barge terminal facility near Sanford.

one-berth terminal to be located west of the St. Johns River bridge.
 The Seminole County Port Authority Committee, headed by Francis E. Roumillat Jr., accepted the report yesterday and set in motion machinery which will bring such a facility to this area.
 The committee also accepted a legislative action to be brought before the State Legislature this year as another step in filling the project.

 "The general condition of the economy of the state and of the tributary area to the proposed barge terminal facilities at Sanford seems excellent," the report stated.
 "It is believed," the engineer summarized, "that enough potential cargo is available to support a one-berth terminal at Sanford even if the Cross-Florida

Barge Canal and the St. Johns - Indian River Canal were never completed.
 "Other similar facilities constructed in neighboring states have been responsible in large measure for industries' decisions to locate new plants by these facilities."
 McCarthy said he knows of an (unnamed) organization which is poised to send thousands of tons of cargo a year into the area. Others, he insisted, inevitably would follow this trend.

 The engineers note Florida is the fastest growing state in the nation. Supporting this contention, the experts said approximately five million barrels of cement were used in the state during 1950 and this figure leaped to 12.5 million barrels in 1963.
 "In a 15-year period ending in 1963, the increase in retail sales in the United States amounted to approximately 102 per cent or 6.8 per cent per year while Florida showed an increase of 236 per cent or 16 per cent per year," McCarthy said.

 The tributary area to a barge terminal facility near Sanford would include the counties of Seminole, Orange, Brevard, Osceola, Volusia, Lake, Citrus, Polk, Sumter, Hernando and Pasco.
 The explosive growth of counties was also touched on in the report as it listed Brevard as the fastest growing in the nation. Orange County ranked 27th and Seminole ranked 44th.

 When Cross-Florida Barge Canal and the part of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway between Yankeetown and St. Marks are completed, it will be possible to ship cargo from Sanford to the Gulf, Mississippi and Ohio River systems on river barges without reloading.

 In comparison, cargo from the Port of Tampa would have to be reloaded to river barges at New Orleans for further shipment on the river systems.
 Cities mentioned in the report and which could be reached from Sanford included Savannah, Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Buffalo.

Donald J. Bales Appointed To School Board

Help Sanford To Grow, JCs Challenged

By Dottie Austin
 A challenge to "help Sanford grow" was extended to the Sanford - Seminole Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday by John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.
 Krider told the young men's group that the city's growth is limited by its boundaries which need to be expanded south to Sunland Estates and west to Loch Arbor.
 "Sanford is going to lose its leadership in the county if it doesn't continue to push on ward and outward," Krider declared.
 He outlined a program of challenge for the Jaycees which involves "getting the facts, facing them, having the courage to take action, supporting the action and assuming the leadership."
 "Sanford needs the leadership of young men who look to the future and think big," Krider said.
 The speaker pointed out that the construction of the four - year university near Oviedo and the building of Seminole Junior College will continue to boom the population of the county, "while Sanford sits on the St. Johns River, the gateway to the world, as well as to all of Central Florida."
 "The St. Johns River complex, which includes the cross state barge canal, the St. Johns Indian River Canal, the barge terminal and the Lake Monroe waterfront development program are all at Sanford's front door. But the city must have room to grow and expand, beyond the limits of its present boundaries."
 "Governor Burns has stated that the two major priority developments in Florida must be education and water resources - in both these elements lie the keys to the whole future of the state," he declared.
 Krider pointed out that Interstate 4 has been called the "125 mile - campus" because it will connect institutions of higher learning all the way from Daytona Beach to St. Petersburg.
 At strong insistence of another resident, motion was made and unanimously adopted by council to have decision to drop the amendment officially placed in minutes of the meeting.
 Councilman Carl Lommier, who originally made the amendment motion Jan. 21, again explained that "appointing the clerk to assure the community of having a qualified one in the future, had been discussed among the councilmen for four or five years, was not meant as a personal attack on the present clerk and was done in good faith."

Edwin Hunt Proposed

Donald J. Bales, school trustee, this afternoon was appointed a member of the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction by Gov. Haydon Burns.
 Governor Burns' office told The Sanford Herald by telephone the appointment was to be announced at a press conference in Tallahassee this afternoon.
 Bales succeeds J. D. Wright Jr. on the School Board. Wright resigned from the board of which he was chairman, early last month when Governor Burns appointed him as chairman of the State Industrial Commission.
 On advice from the Governor's office, passed along by The Herald, Bales this morning submitted his resignation as a school trustee to Governor Burns. Burns now must name a school trustee, succeeding Bales. The Seminole County Burns Committee informed The Herald it has recommended to the Governor that Edwin J. Hunt be named school trustee.
 Bales, owner of the Sanford Motor Company, was elected twice to the board of trustees and served three years. He is the father of four children, member of the Episcopal Church, director of the Chamber of Commerce and a past exalted ruler of the Elks Club. He has lived in Sanford since 1952.
 "I am honored to be chosen for this challenging position because I am most interested in our public school system and will serve to the best of my ability. My experience on the board of trustees will, I am sure, be most helpful," Bales said today.
 Hunt is secretary - treasurer and sales manager of Hunt Lincoln Mercury Motors, a Chamber of Commerce official, charter member of the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant and father of two children.

Longwood Drops Charter Change

By Donna Estes
 Action has been dropped on the proposed charter amendment for the city of Longwood to change the office of city clerk to appointive rather than elective, it was revealed Thursday night at regular session of city council.
 A resident appearing before council, stated he was prepared to make a speech opposing the amendment but had been informed prior to the meeting that no further action would be taken on the matter at this time.
 At strong insistence of another resident, motion was made and unanimously adopted by council to have decision to drop the amendment officially placed in minutes of the meeting.
 Councilman Carl Lommier, who originally made the amendment motion Jan. 21, again explained that "appointing the clerk to assure the community of having a qualified one in the future, had been discussed among the councilmen for four or five years, was not meant as a personal attack on the present clerk and was done in good faith."

Downtown Merchants Say:

Business Hike Points To Meter Ban

Parking meters may become a collection item in this city if a proposal submitted to the City Commission Thursday is carried out.
 The Sanford Merchants Association has endorsed the permanent removal of the meters. The groups requested that the City Commission place the proposal on its agenda for Monday night. It cited seven reasons for the permanent ban:
 1 - Wholehearted approval by the merchants and customers clearly indicate the present parking plan is successful.
 2 - Old and new customers are being drawn from sources such as Deltona, Deltona Daytona Beach, DeLand, Satsuma, Sorrento and various northern and easterly areas. Customers are beginning to patronize legal merchants and all have expressed gratification at the removal of meters.
 3 - A definite increase of after Christmas business, not equalled in many years, has materialized.
 4 - The return of meters would jeopardize the possibilities of increased business and would brand downtown as a seasonal meter removal area which is unstable for the location of new business.
 5 - With the possibilities of a merger and new businesses incidental to the completion of this and related projects, the downtown area - for the first time - stands upon a threshold of revitalization.
 6 - The Sanford shopping area, with free parking, is now competitive with other neighboring shopping facilities.
 7 - It would be impossible to determine the monetary value of business gained through permanent removal of meters. However, it is evident that intrinsic value of good customer relations and a healthy shopping atmosphere have been prevalent since removal of the meters.

Why Go To Church?

David wrote something in the first verse of the one hundred-twenty-second Psalm that many people evidently do not find to be true in their own experiences. He said, "I was GLAD when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

This Psalm is one of the Pilgrim Psalms which told of the visits made by the Jews to Jerusalem on stated occasions. We get the feeling that they appreciated these visits very much and received deep spiritual nurture from them. No doubt many looked forward with the keenest anticipation to these times, but people being people reminds us that very likely many did not share the same spiritual insight as David and many other believers. Can't you almost hear some of them offering excuses for not making this trip? Perhaps it was too hot or too cold, the expense was more than they felt necessary, they couldn't spare the time, or it is possible that some simply stated that they did not "get much out of it."

Today when we look into our churches during the worship hours we find many people with eager, radiant and joyous faces who would say most emphatically that they, too, were glad when they went into the house of the Lord. These are the fortunate ones! The heart-breaking thing is that there are so many more people who never experience the joy of worshipping God and therefore find themselves unfulfilled, spiritually hungry, unhappy, and without a chart or compass on the turbulent sea of life.

Several years ago Dr. Henry C. Link wrote a book entitled, "The Return to Religion," and in this book he makes clear his feeling about attending worship services.

Dr. Link was reared in a Christian home where the family attended church services regularly. As is so often true in such a family, Dr. Link united with his home church and became very active. One of his activities was teaching Church School.

After graduating from high school he went to college and drifted away from Church. Finally he decided that he must give up his Christian faith and for twenty years he "scorned the petty practices of the church."

Dr. Link completed his education and as a psychologist he began his work of helping people with their mental problems. As time went by he found that he was using, in his work, much that he had received from the church and the Bible and that he was treating people spiritually as well as mentally.

To make a long story short I will say that after twenty years of agnosticism Dr. Link returned to religion and became faithful in attendance at worship.

Let us realize that in a world so torn and tired that the church does have an important part to play. May we support it in every way and thereby please God who loved it so much that His own Son died for it.

By Maryann Miles

The color motion picture, "Afghanistan Journey," filmed by Raphael Green in travels by Rep and air, will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday in the Forest Lake Academy gymnasium. The movie will be open to the public at a nominal admission.

Green, who lived among the Afghans, in his film concentrates on subjects of human interest photographing the "friendly people whose strange customs are matched only by their warm hospitality."

To produce the picture, he navigated mountains and roads at altitudes of 16,000 feet. Included are rare scenes of the holy men at prayer, the king visiting his people, mountain tribe celebrations, desert nomads on the move, veiled Afghan women and the natives wearing curled toe shoes.

In addition to being a highly entertaining adventure story of great popular interest, the film is a documentary that contributes to human interest.

Painting Of Historic Church Presented To Presbyterians

Painting of the first Presbyterian church in the St. Johns Presbytery, the historic church known as the Fort Reed, or Silver Lake Church, built in 1870, was presented to First Presbyterian Church of Sanford by Women of the Church at a recent general meeting and tea.

The painting was done by local artist, Edmond Stowe, of Indian Mound Village.

The meeting was held in Fellowship Hall of First Presbyterian with Mrs. Carl Rehlike, president, presiding. Devotional part of the program was given by Mrs. Ralph Austin Smith on the first 12 verses of the 17th Chapter, Hook of St. John, which stressed unity in the church.

A brief presentation on history and founding of the Fort Reed Church was given by Mrs. John Wilson, historian, who also unveiled the painting done by Stowe from an old photo.

Mrs. Keith Bauder continued history of the old church, whose first pastor was W. B. Telford, reporting that the meeting of the first Presbytery, that of St. John's, was held in the church.

Mrs. Robert Jackson called attention to the display of the old church pew and Communion silver, which was used in the Fort Reed Church, and reported that the bell, from the early church was made in England and is now being used at First Church.

Joel Field, who attended Fort Reed Sunday School as a boy, told of many amusing incidents occurring at this time when he also served as bell ringer.

Mrs. Wilson, bringing the history up to date, told of the church's move to what is at present the Sanford Woman's Club location and that the first three children baptized there were Bart, Claude and Robert Herndon.

Pastors serving the local church, including Rev. Telford, have been Dr. E. D. Brownlee, Rev. Douglas Charles and Rev. Angus McInnis. Present pastor is Rev. Grover C. Sewell with Rev. Edgar Smith as assistant.

Under guidance of these men, reports show, church membership has grown from 33 persons to more than 900.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Jackson and, at its conclusion, the tea was held with Mrs. Roy Mann and Mrs. Clifford McKibbin presiding at the silver service. Some 75 members of the Women of the Church were in attendance for the event.

Braves, Hurricanes Split County Title

Miller's Killers Bubbling Over

By Jim Baehus
Herald Sports Writer

There are no words in the English language which are fully capable of describing the joy which is bubbling over in the minds and hearts of the students of South Seminole Junior High School.

The Hurricanes, pride of the south end of the county, have finally succeeded in fulfilling the goal they set for themselves a long time ago.

Coach Dave Miller's charges (Miller's Killers as they are so frequently called) last night defeated a stubborn defending champ, the arch rivals Sanford Braves, to capture the junior high championship of Seminole County.

This completes the first unbeaten season in the brief history of the school.

Led by the scoring of Bruce Stuart and Brant Rose, the play making of Matt Hickok and Jim Lucas and the defensive maneuvers of Mike Hargis, the 'Canes defeated the Braves in a low scoring dual 33-28.

Sanford, however, preserved its pride and brightened its hopes for future performance by downing South Seminole in the Jayvee tilt, 33-28.

Sanford, paced by Tom Bryant and Les Green, got off to an early 5-0 lead and it was not until late in the first period that South Seminole broke the ice with Stuart sinking two foul shots.

The 'Canes caught field goal fever during the last minute of the quarter and narrowed the lead to 7-6. The south county contingent continued its hot streak early in the second period. Forward Rose sank a layup to put the challengers ahead and Stuart added another floor shot to fatten the slim lead.

However, the stubborn Tribes with Bryant doing most of the toning fought back and succeeded in achieving a tie, 14-14, as the half ended.

The 'Canes, a determined bunch, returned for the third period and built a four point lead due mostly to the efforts of Rose and "Quarterback" Matt Hickok. The south team was not able to pull far ahead as Bryant, Green and company kept pace with the leaders. The score was 25-21 going into the last eight minutes.

The last period told the tale. Sparked by three quick baskets by Ira Abramson, Bryant and Mike Long Sanford knotted the score at 27 all with four and a half minutes left. But Rose, hero of the recent Tampa game, gave South Seminole the victory trophy along with a beautiful layup shot and the 'Canes were ahead to stay. Stuart clinched the victory with four foul shots in the last 50 seconds of the contest. When the final buzzer sounded, the jubilant cagers swarmed onto the court and hoisted their coach, Miller, on their shoulders.

Fans poured out of the crowded bleachers and pandemonium was wide in the Lyman gym.

Stuart led the scoring with 11 points. Bryant scored 11 for the Tribes and Green chipped in with 8. Rose was the leading rebounder with 13 and Stuart garnered 9. Hargis totalled 7 rebounds.

The Jayvee affair was still another story. With Sanford moving away from the South Seminole boys in the second half and posting a winning margin of 33-28.

Bobby Lundquist stirred the Braves to triumph with his fine play. Skip Sankarik and Bill Bracken also turned in fine performances. Cecil Asher and Davy Rutenkroger played well for the 'Canes.

Despite the Jayvee loss, though, they'll no doubt be celebrating on the varsity victory at South Seminole for many days to come. The school has a right to be proud of the team's performance as does Sanford. It was a close ball game to say the least.

Seminole Five Meet Headon With Pioneers

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer

The Seminole High cagers will meet head-on with the Oak Ridge Pioneers of Orlando in the SIS Gymnasium tonight to try to better their last showing against the Pioneers.

Coach Ralph Stump's Jayvee five will start at 6:30 when they play the Baby Pioneers going after a win as they lost by only one point in their first tilt against Oak Ridge. The starters for the Baby Tribes will be Greg Shively, Frank Whigham, Wayne Burnstead, Wally Jarnigan and Paul LeRoy.

Chief Mentor Mack Blythe said his team was ready but they would still have a tough game on their hands. Blythe said, "Oak Ridge has won 12 games and lost only five, putting them in second place in the Metro Conference. They have a lot of height over us and the leading scorer in the Metro, Hank Baskin."

Blythe has picked Ron Hinson, Steve Groover, Gary Loyd, Mike Gray and Lamar Oxford to open for the Tribes tonight.

Saturday night the Seminoles will travel to Titusville to play the Titusville Terriers in a non-Metro affair. Titusville has one of the best shooters in the area who is expected to give a boost to the Terrier scoring.

Blythe said, "Titusville has the best shooter we've seen all year, Jack Sexton. They beat us when they came to Sanford so we intend to go to Titusville with one purpose in mind and that's to win."

New Record Goal Of Ned Jarrett At Daytona 500

DAYTONA BEACH... Ned Jarrett, who drives with his head as well as his foot, believes that the Daytona 500 will have a new record when the winner takes the checkered flag at Daytona International Speedway on Sunday, Feb. 14.

"The present mark of 154-plus is a high one, that's for sure," Jarrett said as he sat in his 1965 Ford between practice runs on the Speedway's 2.5-mile trioval. "But it will go. All that is needed is a few less caution flags. I look for the winner to average close to 100 miles per hour, maybe a bit better."

Jarrett, who makes his home in Camden, S.C., won more NASCAR Grand National races in 1964-15—than any other driver. He has driven in five Daytona 500 races and finished third in 1963.

In making his estimate of the average speed of this year's winner, Jarrett recalled the speed at which the 500 was being run last year before the first of three caution flags came out.

"The 60-lap average, you remember, was better than 168 miles per hour. The yellow flag was out for 19 laps during the race. If the flags hadn't flown, or just one or two of them, the race would have been much higher."

Jarrett said he didn't feel that the absence of the helmet and high-riser racing engines, now banned by NASCAR, would slow down the race.

"Our engines are running just as fast, and the 1965 car is a little more streamlined, and that should help. I look for one of the closest races in the history of the 500."

The 500 will be preceded on Saturday, Feb. 13, by the annual 250-mile NASCAR modified-sportsman national championship race, and on Friday, Feb. 12, two 100-mile races will determine the starting order for the big race.

Chalk One Score For The Braves

The Sanford Junior High Braves' score last night included two "unearned" points in a game against the South Seminole Junior High Hurricanes. One of the 'Canes got himself turned around, headed the wrong direction and... dropped the ball through the Sanford basket. Guess he was puzzled why the Braves didn't try to stop him on his drive toward the board.

Sanford Junior High Braves shared the honors with the South Seminole Junior High Hurricanes last night in the Seminole County championship games when the Hurricanes won the ninth grade title and the Braves won the eighth grade title. The contests were played at the Lyman High gym.

The ninth grade game was one of the most exciting games Seminole County fans have seen in a long time with the score being tied 12 times and the final outcome a 23-28 narrow victory for the Hurricanes.

In the first period Tom Bryant lead the Braves with three points and Mike Grant and Leslie Green each made two. On the Hurricanes' side Bruce Stuart lead the South Seminole team with four points and Bryant Rose added two, but the Braves held a 7-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The heated play of the second stanza brought the score to a 14-14 deadlock at the half-time break. Bryant and Stuart stood out again for each team with Bryant making four points for the Braves and Stuart making six for the Hurricanes. Bruce McKibbin made a basket for Sanford and Rose made one for South Seminole.

In the third period Green was high point man for the Braves with four points and Bryant made two. Stuart and Rose made four each for the Hurricanes and Matt Hickok made three with Mike Hargan making one. Going into the final stanza South Seminole held a 25 to 21 lead over Sanford.

Ira Abramson, Mike Long, Green and Bryant each made a basket for Sanford in the fourth quarter, but Stuart made three for the Hurricanes and Rose added two to give South Seminole the ninth grade title.

In the eighth grade game it was a different story with Sanford taking the title after a well played game.

Bobby Lundquist was the high scorer for Sanford with 14 points and Matt Morgan was second with six. Bill Bracken and Kit Jarrett made four points each and Tom Sandage added three.

Cecil Asher lead the way for South Seminole with nine points with David Rutenkroger trailing second with eight. Tom Richardson and Les Green each made three points and Ricky Brown added two points to the losing cause.

Majors Will Aid College Baseball

NEW YORK (UPI) — The major leagues will provide $75,000 to help support a summer program for college baseball players, according to the National Collegiate Athletic Association's summer baseball committee.

Committee chairman George L. Shiel also said the program would be expanded this year to allow more players to take part. Last year 32 teams in five leagues and 21 certified independent teams participated.

The money provided by the professional leagues will be used to buy uniforms and equipment and to pay expenses.

Bessie, George Jet Favored

Bessie Kennon and George Jet were the morning line favorites to cop tonight's featured 10th race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Bessie had won two straight in moving from grade C to grade A competition before running into trouble in her last start. The Mulberry Kennel pup got into a jam on the first turn and couldn't get through the pack.

George Jet has won three of six SOKC starts but has been out of the money in his last two starts. The Darold Robertson pup prefers the outside boxes, but will have to take his chances from the No. 3 post position in tonight's feature.

15—Timing

HAL OF FAME BOWLING TIPS.

By Joe Norris
Written for NEA

Nelson Burton, a 1964 addition to bowling's Hall of Fame, is justifiably proud of his son Nelson Jr., who has developed into one of the brightest young stars on the professional bowler circuit. That's not surprising since Junior has the advantage of fatherly advice from one of the sport's steadiest performers.

Nelson senior tells me he put major emphasis on timing while guiding his son into championship form. He describes timing as the co-ordination of armswing and footwork which brings the bowler to the foul line in proper balance for the delivery.

A bowler's timing deserves all the practice he can devote to this phase of his game.

Co-ordination develops proper timing which, in turn, produces rhythm. This adds up to consistent form and improved scores.

Nelson senior tells me he put major emphasis on timing.

Oviedo Faces Cocoa Beach

By Marshall Lingo
Herald Sports Writer

The Oviedo Lions will be given the true test tomorrow night when they travel to Cocoa Beach and tangle with the Panthers of Cocoa Beach High School.

The Cocoa Beach five are out to win tomorrow night after losing a close 74-71 tilt Tuesday to the Terriers of Titusville High School.

Oviedo's "not so tall" team will be up against a team of which three members are well over the six-foot mark, the tallest being 6' 6".

The Lions will have to work from the outside because of the height factor and Oviedo's sharp-shooting from the outside could prove to be quite a test for the host team.

At any rate the class B

Lions will have their hands full tomorrow night against the class AA Panthers.

Observers are saying the Panthers are "too much" for the Lions but Oviedo is a tough team to stop and you can count on a hard-fought contest tomorrow night.

The JV teams will start things off at 6:30 at the Cocoa Beach High School gymnasium, followed by the varsity encounter at 8.

Suspect Killed, Robbery Cleared

Sheriff's Deputy J. Q. Galloway reported today that he has closed the books on an assault and robbery committed here Jan. 3 after the body of the suspect, Eddie Lee Campbell, was found on a railroad track near Palatka, Jan. 24.

Galloway said the body of the deceased yielded a pawn ticket from Albany, Ga. The deputy investigated and found the suspect had pawned a watch identified as belonging to the robbery victim, Ronald Muirhead, of Brison Avenue.

Other effects taken from Campbell's body revealed he had bought a bus ticket from Sanford to Albany on Jan. 5. The mutilated body was found on the railroad track. It had apparently been run over by a train.

With the identification of the watch by Muirhead, Galloway closed his investigation of the case.

Father Blamed In Deaths Of 7

FERNDALE, Mich. (UPI) — A father who was called "a devoted family man" by his neighbors was charged today with first degree murder in the death of his wife and six children in a fire that damaged their home Jan. 25.

Harry M. Belcher, 32, stood mute at his arraignment and an examination within 10 days was set, by Municipal Judge Earl Nash. He was held with out bail and taken to the Oakland County Jail in Pontiac.

The murder warrant issued against Belcher followed a long investigation of "puzzling" circumstances in the fire. Police found traces of gaso line in the woodwork of the 1 1/2 story frame house in this Detroit suburb.

The bodies of Mrs. Katherine Belcher, 35, and the six children were found huddled together in an upstairs bedroom.

Belcher, himself, was in a downstairs room and was rescued by a neighbor, Dennis Lukasika, 24, who broke open a window and put a stepladder against it to let him out.

Lukasika said when he got to the window, Belcher was slumped against a background of flames.

Oakland County prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson declined to give any details of the evidence that was built up against Belcher.

But he said the mass of information compiled by local, state and county investigators, led to the "inexorable" conclusion that the fire had not been an accident.

The victims were Mrs. Belcher, two daughters, Dawn, 9, and Melody, 8, and four sons, Matthew, 6, Timothy, 5, Jeffrey, 3, and Daniel, 2.

Mystery Surrounds Millionaire's Death

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — How and why did Eugene Francis (Stormy) McDonald III — co-heir to the $240 million Zenith radio fortune — kill himself?

Disturbed by these questions, authorities expanded their investigation into the death of the 23-year old youth who appeared to have had every reason to live.

McDonald's body was found outside a photographic dark room in his rented $5000 home in this desert sun and fire city.

He was lying in a pool of blood. Both his wrists had been slashed and there was a bullet wound in his head.

Sheriff's homicide investigators found a 22-caliber pistol beside McDonald's body. It had been fired once.

But some authorities were curious about three aspects of the case.

—The implement used in the wrist slashing was not found.

—The bullet entered the back of McDonald's head.

—There was no suicide note, although friends reported he had been despondent recently.

However, the thing that puzzled authorities was the question WHY?

Why would a guy with millions of dollars and so young want to take his own life?

asked one puzzled detective.

"We are very interested in this case," said Pima County attorney Norman Green.

"There are a lot of unexplained things which must be answered."

County pathologist Dr. Edward Brucker conducted an autopsy and announced he concurred with detectives, who listed McDonald's death as suicide.

But Green asked Brucker to confer with another pathologist, Dr. Louis Hirsch, to determine whether McDonald might possibly have died by a means other than his own hand.

Ex-Solon Faces Court Hearing

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Supreme Court hears next week a Florida Bar Association recommendation that former state Sen. Harry E. King of Winter Haven be disbarred for his part in a 10-year-old political pay-off scandal.

King is accused of perjury himself before a grand jury investigating charges he paid $10,000 to the late Rep. Louis Tillet so Tillet wouldn't run against him in the Senate.

The Florida Bar Association governing board found it inconceivable that the public could have confidence in the honesty or moral integrity of King.

Gravedigger Goes Formal

CHESTERFIELD, England (UPI) — For 13 years, gravedigger George Holmes has been wearing blue overalls and a raincoat during his work.

Now, the Chesterfield rural council is going to spend 20 pounds ($56) to buy him a black raincoat, black trousers, black shoes, black tie and a white shirt so that he will look "more dignified" at funerals.

The totals are the same, but instead of spending $160 million for aircraft research and development, the Air Force now is scheduled to spend $647 million.

Other corrections included one which changed the $845 million to be spent for research development, tests and "evaluation of other equipment" to $208 million.

New Calendar Bill In Hopper

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Hiram Fong (R-Hawaii) has introduced legislation calling for the adoption of a "perpetual calendar" for the United States in which days of the year would always come on the same day of the week.

"Regularity and fixity are demanded in all other international standards," said Fong. "Why not fixity and regularity in the calendar?"

The calendar would include two days not assigned to any week or month.

New Year's Day would fall between Dec. 31 and Jan. 1. Leap year day would come every four years between June 30 and July 1.

Fong said the calendar would also do away with Friday the 13th.

Citrus Growers Lose $6 Million

LAKELAND (UPI) — Florida citrus growers are losing an estimated $4-to-$6 million this season because they can't get their fruit picked, an industry official said today.

The report, the most serious criticism yet of the Department of Labor's refusal to permit growers to hire off-shore labor, came from Herman F. Steele, assistant general manager of Florida Citrus Mutual.

The critical shortage of experienced pickers not only is causing this loss, it is also making it virtually impossible for growers to sell their remaining crops because all available harvesting hands are being used to pick fruit which was contracted for earlier in the season," Steele said.

In addition to the loss to growers, Mutual estimated a loss of $1 million in wages which normally would have gone to picking crews and other related workers.

'Father Goose' At Ritz

Men who look to debonair Gary Grant for their fashion cues have a second look coming. In fact, after Cary's current role in Universal's "Father Goose," opening Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, arbiters of elegance in men's wear may forever banish him from the fold.

Customarily the epitome of impeccable grooming the star reaches the Technicolor screen in a rag-tag assortment of hand-me-downs put together for his portrayal of a stubble-bearded beachcomber roaming the South Pacific. He's clad in a tattered workshirt, faded jeans, battered felt hat and old sneakers—sans socks. Dressing up is simple. He buttons his shirt. Formal? He dons socks.

Cary, teamed in the romantic adventure comedy with Leslie Caron and Trevor Howard, insists he feels right at home in the outfit.

"They're exactly the sort of things I wear away from the cameras when I want to feel completely comfortable," he says. "Fact is, one of the pairs of jeans established in the film came right out of the wardrobe closet of my place on the desert."

Cary concedes that most of his screen portrayals present him as a fashion plate.

He explains this is all the more reason why he looked forward so eagerly to his "Father Goose" role. The comedy, which Ralph Nelson directed for producer Robert Arthur, keeps him in disreputable attire for his entire performance.

"The beachcomber up on the screen is much closer to that real me than most of the other characters I have played," he contends.

Cary points out that most persons, himself included, tend to behave in what he describes as opposites—a pattern exactly contrary to that in which they are usually presented.

"It's the most natural thing in the world for a movie star, who's usually dressed to the hilt, to put on his oldest things when he's not working," says the star.

But even in hand-me-downs Cary has a hard time shedding his aura of well-groomed elegance, as his co-star, Miss Caron, so perceptively observed during filming of "Father Goose."

"Look at him," she said, "lattered old clothes, no socks—just a suave, sophisticated bum."

CARY GRANT prepares to show Leslie Caron the art of catching fish barehanded near their South Pacific island where they are marooned in Universal's romantic adventure comedy in Technicolor, "Father Goose."

"The Longest Day," the award-winning Darryl F. Zanuck film epic which opens at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre Sunday for three nights, marks the screen debut of a sleek Parisian high fashion model who has aspired to an acting career but never expected to start right out at the top.

Irina Demick had been a topflight model for Givenchy and Dior when producer Zanuck discovered her at a party and singled her out for the only important feminine role in the screen version of Cornelius Ryan's best-selling account of the Allied Invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944.

"The Longest Day" is appearing in the area for the first time at regular prices and features John Wayne and a cast of 42 international stars.

Jail Nightmares

One of Hollywood's foremost stars, Steve McQueen, joins Lee Remick and Don Murray in "Baby the Rain Must Fall," the Columbia Pictures release now showing at the Seminole Cinema Theatre.

McQueen appears as an ill-starred, hot tempered small town Texan who finds disillusionment as pay off in his dreams of musical fame.

"Baby the Rain Must Fall" is McQueen's second assignment for Producer Alan J. Pakula and director Robert Mulligan, the brilliantly creative motion picture team that achieved eight Academy Award nominations with their memorable "To Kill A Mocking Bird." His first was "Love With the Proper Stranger."

McQueen's introduction to show business came at the age of 17 when he joined a traveling carnival, which he quit in order to enlist in the Marine Corps. The turning point in McQueen's life occurred when a friend suggested he try acting. He laughed at the idea, but drama coach Sanford Meisner convinced McQueen he had natural talent. McQueen's first role was in a Yiddish play in New York; he received $40 a week for one line of dialogue. While studying at the Neighborhood Playhouse, he earned money by driving a truck.

His first real acting assignment was in a summer stock production of "Fog" at My Heart, starring Margaret O'Brien. He then joined the Rochester Stock Company in "Member of the Wedding," starring Ethel Waters. This was followed by a national tour in "Time Out for Ginger," with Melvyn Douglas.

Pink Mink
NEW YORK (UPI) — The mink industry is thinking pink this season. The Emba Mink Breeders Association announced today that it will introduce pink mink to the market on March 1. About 3,000 pelts are currently available at $400 each.

Hollywood beckoned and McQueen appeared in "Never Love A Stranger," "Beyond A Doubt" and "The St. Louis Hank Robbery," an episode of the "Trackdown" television series followed by his own series, "Wanted — Dead or Alive." Other of his films have been "The Horizontal Lieutenant," "The War Hero," "The Great Escape," "Soldier in the Rain," "Never So Few" and "The Magnificent Seven."

Miss Cecile Heard Addresses The Woman's Club

Miss Cecile Heard, Sanford Postmaster, held her audience captive Wednesday at the Woman's Club of Sanford, when she enlightened the General and Civic Department at a luncheon meeting with informative data on "Women in Government."

As the members and guests entered the beautifully decorated club house in patriotic motif, they were greeted at the door by the Meses. W. L. Gramkow Sr., Stanley Pierce, and Elsie Leonard, with Mrs. Frank Schautte and Mrs. S. G. Harriman escorting them to their tables.

Mrs. R. K. Horton and Mrs. Jerry Covington were welcomed as new members and Mrs. J. P. Cullen introduced her guest, Mrs. Richard Holtzclaw.

Mrs. Fred Harris expressed her gratitude to the members for their cooperation in the recent highly successful Fashion Show and Card Party which was beneficial to the club purchasing a film already shown to nine schools.

Mrs. George Wells gave the invocation with Mrs. Ralph A. Smith leading the flag salute followed by Mrs. N. V. Farmer accompanying the group in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. L. D. Hastings presented Miss Heard, who began her speech in a very clever manner with "I have the advantage of knowing one thing no one else knows. . . I never made a speech before in my life."

Miss Heard revealed that women outnumber men in the U. S. by some three and three-fourths million but in terms of registration and turnout on election day, their failure to use their vote converts them to a minority.

She further pointed out that only two of 100 Senators and 11 of 435 representatives are women, and that in all phases of the government women are in the minority, due mainly to a law background.

After presenting a thorough and interesting resume of women in the U. S. Government, Miss Heard concluded her address with a quotation from Victor Hugo — "Men have sight. . . women insight."

Our postmaster added her own final conclusion, "It should now become our task to convince ourselves and the men in the country of this great potential and put it to good use."

MISS CECILE HEARD, right, Sanford Postmaster, recently addressed the Woman's Club of Sanford using "Women in the Government" as the topic of her enlightening speech. Mrs. L. D. Hastings, introduced the guest speaker.

Lake Mary Women Win Awards At Annual Festival Of Fine Arts

Smiles were dominant when the Lake Mary Women's Club's delegation to the Festival of Fine Arts returned recently from Kissimmee where the Womens Club's District

Seven hosted the annual event. The Tri-Color ribbon (best in show) along with a blue ribbon for best in class was proudly brought home by Mrs. William Shattuck for her oil painting, and the local club's winner in the annual dress revue, Mrs. Edith Dixon, took third place honors at the district meet. Other ribbons brought home to add to Lake Mary's growing number included a red one for a doll made by Mrs. Harry Sandusky; a white one won by Mrs. W. L. Harmon for a lovely hat created for the ensemble she made for the dress revue; and another red ribbon won by Mrs. George Lindahl for a tablecloth and napkins she entered.

LAKE MARY WOMAN'S CLUB members recently won honors in a Festival of Fine Arts in Kissimmee. Pictured from the left are Mrs. Edith Dixon, who won third place in the district on a dress she made; Mrs. W. L. Harmon received a white ribbon for a lovely hat she created; Mrs. Harry Sandusky walked off with a red ribbon for a beautiful doll, and Mrs. George Lindahl was awarded a red ribbon for a handsome Italian cut cloth and napkins.

MRS. EDITH DIXON of the Lake Mary Women's Club wears a lovely two piece pink dress and carries a white wool coat, both of which are her creations. The dress won her first place in the local annual dress revue and third place at the district meeting.

MRS. WILLIAM SHATTUCK, left, proudly displays painting at the district Festival of Fine Arts, which won a tri-color ribbon and a blue ribbon. Dottie Austin assists with the prize painting.

Members of the Lake Mary delegation which numbered 12, enjoyed the many exhibits and demonstrations of china painting, pine needle weaving, sculpturing, knitting, cane bottom weaving and oil painting. They reported the entertainment was outstanding in an original play, "Mother of the Gift Horse," which was presented; and they heard many selections by the St. Cloud High School Glee Club and the "Golden Age Ensemble."

Also throughout the day tours were made through the Tupperware plant where the Festival was held.

Research Reveals Unborn Babies 'Tune In' On Mama

Are babies "alive" before they are actually born? Do they respond, from their little world, to the sounds and stresses of the outside world? Yes, says psychiatrist Lester W. Sontag of Yellow Springs, Ohio. The unborn child may react to the smoking of a cigarette, the drinking of a cocktail, or to mother's emotional upsets. "The human fetus," Dr. Sontag explains, "is not divorced from the world."

Dr. Sontag directs the Fels Research Institute for the Study of Human Development, where scientists are studying children to learn more about the relative effects of heredity and environment in the course of their work they have paid particular attention to the reactions of over 200 growing fetuses.

The finding that the unborn child does respond to the outside world is no cause for alarm, Dr. Sontag hastens to point out. After all, what his research is discovering has been going on for many centuries. But, he points out, if we can find connections between events during pregnancy and a child's later life, we may be able to make the world of the unborn a better place in which to develop.

Among the Institute's findings was the fact that when a mother - to - be smokes a cigarette, her heart action steps up nine or ten beats a minute. In response, the baby's heart quickens by five to seven beats. Similarly, an unborn baby's ears are not as sharp as ours, but it can "hear" a doorbell ring - its heartbeat rises and the baby kicks. And as mothers have ruefully suspected, it's true that the oncoming baby tends to be cantankerous when mother is most tired. For some reason, it picks that time to kick and stretch.

As for mother's emotional problems, if they are severe late in the pregnancy, the child may be irritable, overactive, and a "problem-feeder" during early infancy. Interestingly, this rarely happens if mother's turmoil occurs early in the pregnancy.

Dr. Sontag feels that these discoveries show that we have been shortsighted in considering a person a human being "only after he has been expelled from the mother's womb."

The Chinese, for one group, would not be surprised by all this. They have long considered a person's true age to date not from birth, but from the start of growth in the prenatal world.

Chuluota His And Her Club Enjoys Program On Annuals

Mrs. James R. McAvoy was unanimously elected Vice Chairman of the Chuluota His and Her Garden Club at the February meeting held at the home of Mrs. Will W. Dill. For many years gardening has been the hobby of Mr. and Mrs. McAvoy who came to Florida from Virginia. They have studied the climate and soil conditions and have continued their hobby here.

Mr. Ralph G. Traub of Port Clinton, Ohio, a retired architect and guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McCune, and Mrs. Wayne Kendrick were welcomed to the garden club by Chairman George T. Haig.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Roy Carlson spoke to the members on the use of annuals in landscape plans. She advised using them around a new house to fill the bare spots until the permanent plantings are placed and reach a desirable size.

Pansies or petunias, brilliantly colorful and easily grown, may be used as border plants or either one massed, using one color with a border of another, makes a spectacular garden.

Tithonia, marigold and the many varieties of the bright and radiant zinnia, like other members of the daisy family, are resistant to soil borne disease and delight in hot weather.

"Almost any annual may be grown in Florida," Mrs. Carlson said, "if it is used in the proper season. There is no necessity to lack color in your garden at any time of year if you live in Florida."

Casselberry Woman's Club Plans Forthcoming Events

By Jane Casselberry

Featured on the program Tuesday for the Casselberry Woman's Club was a film on Camp Challenge, presented by Paul Murray, camp director. A new club project is the sponsoring of a local handicapped child for two weeks at this Easter Seal camp next summer.

A report was given on the successful luncheon and card party given recently by the club, which was attended by 130 persons with 22 tables in play. The affair netted $50.30 profit and $16 received from tickets on a hand knit sweater donated by Mrs. Eleanor Storrs, was designated for the Camp Challenge Fund.

Members and their families will enjoy a pot luck supper followed by an evening of games and cards on Saturday, Feb. 20, at 8:30 p. m.

The club will be represented at the meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs at the Altamonte Springs Community Center on Feb. 25.

St. Andrews Plans Supper; Program

By Maryann Miles
St. Andrews Presbyterian Church of Bear Lake will have a family night supper and special program Wednesday evening.
The supper, provided by Women of the Church, will be served at 6:30 p. m. and all church members and their families are invited to attend.
At 7:30 p. m., a special guest, Mrs. Hugh Linton, registered nurse recently returned from Korea where her husband has been missionary for the past 10 years, will present a program and show slides of their work in that country. The Lintons presently are on leave and are making their home in Northcrest. This program will be open to the public.
Rev. Thomas Makin, pastor of St. Andrews, has announced that Stanley Harris, director of the Orange Blossom Chorus, will be guest soloist for this Sunday morning's service at the church, Harris will sing The Lord's Prayer.

Catholic Women Plan Events

By Donna Estes
The Board of the Church of the Nativity Catholic Women's Club will meet at 8 p. m. Monday in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Gene Shannon, president, will conduct the meeting.
The club will sponsor its monthly bake sale this Sunday in the social hall following all Masses. Mrs. John Kennedy, vice president, is in charge of the sale.

One-Room School Almost Passe

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State School Supt. Thomas Bailey reported that one-room, one-teacher schools are becoming a thing of the past in Florida.
Bailey said a recent survey showed only three of the tiny schools remain. They are Mount Zion West in Holmes County, Tangerine in Orange County and Red Bay in Walton County.

Upper Town of Quebec City suggests a section of France transplanted to Canada.

Florida GI, Cash Hunted By Army

HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI) — Police are seeking an American Army sergeant for questioning in connection with the theft of $47,958 from the U. S. Army European headquarters post office, an Army spokesman said today.
Staff Sgt. Richie P. Taylor, 32, of Clearwater, Fla., has been listed as absent without leave since the theft was discovered, the spokesman said.
Taylor, a mail clerk at the 4th Base Post Office, had access to two safes containing $47,958 at closing time Monday, the spokesman said.
Monday was payday, when hundreds of GI's buy money orders at the post office.

POSTER CONTEST winners at South Seminole Elementary School, Linda Van Eepoel, Scott Stiner and Debra Grile (left to right) will receive a free ticket to the Mar-Chris Marionette Show to be presented Tuesday, Feb. 16, at 7:30 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Council of Teachers and Parents. Speed Of Obsolescence

History moves with such rocket speed these days that even rockets can't keep up with it. Hardly had they been planted in their concrete silos around the country than some 150 Atlas and Titan I missiles are to be hoisted out and retired. They'll be replaced by the more versatile and efficient Titan II and Minuteman ICBMs. For the few years of their reign, however, these old missiles helped keep the peace. It would be fitting if some of them found a last use as satellite launchers in peaceful space exploration. But even if they are consigned to the scrap heap, it is a better end than that for which they were designed in case of war. It is to be hoped their successors follow them there as quickly.

Face Up To It

President Johnson's $1.5-billion aid-to-education program is not large compared to the $6 billion in federal funds already committed to education in this fiscal year.

Its social impact, however, cannot be measured by the number of digits following the dollar sign. It is designed to attack the twin evils of poverty and unemployment at their roots—in the early school years. It is aimed at no less a goal than to help "every child to get as much education as he has the ability to take."

This legislative package won't accomplish all that. It is but a beginning. But that it is a necessary beginning is shown by recent statistics from the Department of Labor. They reveal that, despite predictions to the contrary, automation is not eliminating but is creating jobs. And they are jobs demanding new skills and higher levels of training.

The problem of chronic unemployment—or unemployability—is most severe among young people whose education has been inadequate or incomplete.

There is one other historic problem that may have to be resolved first before the Johnson program can begin to operate on anything else. That is the question of aid to church-related schools, which for years has blocked any comprehensive national legislation to strengthen education. Although the President's formula for avoiding any objections on constitutional grounds has the support both of Catholic spokesmen and the powerful National Education Association, which has traditionally opposed public funds for the benefit of parochial schools, the bill may face serious questioning in Congress. And if passed by Congress, it may quite likely have to pass the final scrutiny of the Supreme Court.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, has promised that this public-school-church-school issue will no longer be dodged but will be met head-on this year.

Many on both sides would agree that it is high time that it was, if only to settle once and for all what things the government may or may not do in this vital field of education.

Thought For Today

Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.—1 Thess. 5:11.

Our doctrine of equality comes from our belief in the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God.—Calvin Coolidge.

Phil Newsom Says

'Our Opinions Agreed'

When West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard journeyed to Paris to meet with President Charles de Gaulle many expected fireworks. Instead, the meeting proved so peaceful that speculation arose whether de Gaulle suddenly had gone soft. "I can say," reported Erhard at the conclusion of the two-day meeting that "positive results were achieved in numerous very important fields... our opinions agreed." Between the two remained plenty of areas of disagreement, but, on assessment of the results, it appeared that de Gaulle merely had bided his time on the theory that there was plenty of it. The nub of their disagreement is de Gaulle's determination to eliminate United States influence on the continent and West Germany's determination to maintain its close U. S. ties, including continuing dependence on the U. S. nuclear umbrella for its defense.

Related to it is the West German desire for a voice in nuclear defenses and thus its support of the U. S. proposed mixed-manned nuclear fleet for NATO. De Gaulle, on the other hand, would have Europe depend on his own infant nuclear arsenal but would refuse the Germans any voice in it. Instead, the subject barely came up. On his side, de Gaulle agreed to two points dear to Erhard's heart. One was another try at German reunification, and the other renewed moves toward European political unity.

But the final opinion was that de Gaulle did not give up much of anything. De Gaulle is said to believe that economic and cultural factors plus gradual independence of the Communist satellite from Moscow make German reunification inevitable. But he does not believe that now is the time.

However, he sees no harm in talking about it and so he agreed to a meeting of U. S., French, British and West German foreign ministers to consider an approach to the Soviets. Similarly, while de Gaulle utterly opposes any surrender of French sovereignty to a politically united Europe, he does not mind talking about that either. He believes that in 1965 at least, talk is all that will occur. It is probable he also believes that time is on his side on the question of the mixed-manned nuclear force. A British proposal which would drastically alter the U. S. plan has so muddled the waters that it is possible neither ever will be enacted. But for Erhard there were positive gains. He had reiterated and re-established that Germany retained freedom of action. He had appeased former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's wing of the Christian Democratic party which had accused him of wrecking the Paris-Bonn accord.

Both would work in his favor in German elections next summer against the German Socialists, a victory for whom would be no less displeasing to de Gaulle than to Erhard.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Norma is one of the 20,000,000 medical patients who enter our medical office each week. But half of them (10,000,000) have no diagnosable physical ailments whatever! They are "worry warts" or hypochondriacs. No place this Case Record in your Bible and read it before you go to sleep each night!

CASE V-405 Norma G., aged 42, is a spinster school teacher.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I am terrified lest I might die from a heart attack."

"For my father had one and never recovered consciousness."

"Besides, I live all alone, so suppose I should fall to the floor on a Friday evening?"

"Why, nobody would know of my predicament, if I couldn't reach the telephone, till Monday when I didn't show up for my class!"

"That thought terrifies me! I panic every weekend!"

"What can I do to stop my terror and safeguard my heart?"

"Well, Norma, get married! For bachelors, spinsters and widowed folks are naturally more apprehensive and deservingly so."

Living alone, they realize that they might fall to the floor in an attack and be unable even to phone for the doctor.

Marriage eliminates this "all alone" fear. Besides, marriage extricates your attention from your own "innards" and keeps your attention on the other person.

Thus, you are not as likely to become a hypochondriac (abnormal worrier about your innards).

Further remedies consist of:

Barbs

The telephone company is demonstrating a new computer-phone supposed to make it easier to pay bills. But it doesn't answer Dad's plea—"What'll I use for money?"

Pet food manufacturers are beefing about the current shortage of horse meat.

keeping your weight down and avoiding tobacco.

Have a regular medical check-up once or twice per year but then relax and let your physician worry for you. That's why you pay him.

Don't consult a doctor and then keep on fretting about yourself.

That's not smart nor economical.

You pay him to take over the responsibility so let him worry about your physical condition.

If you are unmarried or widowed, then develop many friends and outside activities so you haven't time to fret about your internal organs.

And by all means take a big daily dose of the best tranquilizer ever discovered, namely, God Almighty.

To do this, team up with the Lord. Get on his side as he being active in a local church.

Become active in the social life of your church, too. Read the Bible daily!

And at night, lift your hand high above the covers, as if you are placing it in God's grasp. Then whisper this prayer:

"Lord, I am trying to be a faithful member of your team."

"But I have a heavy day's work tomorrow and thus need 8 hours of sound slumber."

"So will you please take over the night shift for me?" Then drop your hand limply back upon the covers.

You'll then be surprised at how relaxed you immediately feel! And your innards will evaporate.

For the mere act of visualizing God and thus gaining a wider, cosmic perspective, will dwarf your petty worries and anxieties.

You relax when you realize you are on HIS team. And God NEVER refuses to take over your night shift for you, if you sincerely ask!

So quit pestering us doctors for sleeping pills and tranquilizers! Stop being neurotic chain smokers. Just team-up with God.

ing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The latest coup of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh will disturb Americans a lot more than it does the Vietnamese.

Word from Vietnamese friends in Saigon is that they aren't bothered either by the string of coups in the recent past or the thought that there may be more in the next two years.

Even Khanh - haters among them seem to be unconcerned over the return to power of this emotional general. They seem to think the coups may eventually lead to better government and that Khanh is a short - time problem, now that Americans are becoming disenchanted with him.

Ambassador Maxwell Taylor and Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's top advisers are convinced there must be a stable civilian national government in Saigon before the war can be won. They assert that every time there's a coup the resulting confusion sets back the war for months.

But a relatively high U.S. official, who has spent the last several years in the provinces, has sent me word that the past several coups "didn't cause us to lose a beat in the fighting." This man is in an area where the war has been heavy.

His words echo the comments of two Vietnamese cabinet officers interviewed in Saigon a few months back.

Both asked me in obvious puzzlement why Americans worry so much about the "stability" of the South Viet Nam government.

Said one: "We must keep trying one setup after another until we find the right one. This may take a long time."

The Taylor - McNamara - Rusk theory also holds a civilian government is essential now - in the middle of the war.

This theory stumps my Vietnamese friend, many of whom are willing to give their lives for the eventual creation of a civilian government.

One of these, a civilian who had been high in a civilian government until a military coup overthrew the administration he served, says privately:

"We might as well face the fact that whatever government we get for now - and I'd like it to be operated by civilians - the final veto power must be in the hands of a military group, or military strongman. Otherwise, the government can't last or have any power while it does live."

He and other Vietnamese explain that no group except the army has real power. A pure civilian government would have roots neither in the cities nor countryside.

It would be at the mercy of parading demonstrators.

In a well - established democracy, the military will back civilian government against rioters and demonstrators, but this assumes a democratically indoctrinated military, a popularly elected government and a base of general support.

General elections are an impossibility with so much of South Viet Nam under Viet Cong control. The last few governments, civilian and military, were hand - picked by one group or another. It is futile to expect them to have the loyal backing of all parts of the military.

The Vietnamese who seem to make the most sense are those who advise the United States to play things by ear, realize the Saigon government must go through a long series of convulsions and put more of our emphasis directly into the rural provinces.

ARE YOU READY?

There can be no harmony without you! Unless everyone joins in together, determined to make this performance on life's stage the best one possible, the result will always be sour and discordant.

Perhaps, when we take an honest look at ourselves, we discover such things as temper or prejudice, jealousy or despair standing in the way of our personal happiness. And when we are unhappy, we feel out of tune with the world.

How can these miseries be overcome? God Himself will help us, if we ask Him. It is His intention that His children live in harmony and contentment, and He will show us the way.

Bring your problem to church this Sunday, and offer it to Him in prayer. He loves you greatly, He understands you perfectly, and only He can help you to regain the song of joy that belongs in your heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Allied Aircraft Bomb Communists For Second Day; Johnson Calls Security Council In Viet Nam Crisis

Hear Report From Bundy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson called the National Security Council and congressional leaders to a meeting today on the crisis in Viet Nam. It was the third session of the security council in 36 hours.

The Dick Van Dyke TV show is proving more and more popular, as the weeks go by. But this coming Wednesday's episode will carry a special message: From the American Dental Association in keeping with National Children's Dental Health Week.

Re the four-laning of 25th Street (SR 40) between Melville and French Avenues; Richey Green, SRD engineer at DeLand says that "We don't know when we'll get started — our budget is broke; we have to wait until we get some more money."

Joe Mathieu, one of the charter members of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association has been invited to be a judge at the annual Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival. This is an honor for Joe as this show draws thousands of visitors from all over Florida and has become a prime tourist attraction.

Tom Speer, vice president of the Jaycees, says the only group of young men who have been turned down more than the Jaycees at the blood bank is the National Guardsmen. "Are we really all that unhealthy?" asked Tom.

Margaret Tuexa, a local young artist who is now an art major at Stetson University is the Artist of the Month at the Senkarik display gallery. Margaret attends local art classes as well as college classes.

After a short introduction at the Jaycees luncheon Thursday, John Krider, speaker for the day, said jokingly: "When I am out of town I am considered an authority and rate a longer introduction." It's the old adage, John, that a "prophet is without honor in his own country."

We read where telephone subscribers in several other southern states got a tax rebate on their telephone bills. Maybe Florida subscribers rate one, too. What do you think, Bob Shelden? Personally, we'll trade our tax rebate for a metro telephone system in Seminole County.

Sign on the fence at the gateway to the telephone company truck parking lot on Laurel Avenue, apparently a message to the truck drivers: "We are happy you returned safely."

Here's something you've been waiting to hear — the annual Art Show will be held on Feb. 21 from noon to 6 p.m. at the Civic Center. This is a stimulating event that brings visitors from all around to join the local folks in observing what talented artists we have here. Mark your calendar for this cultural treat.

State Beverage Director Ren Morris says that alcoholic beverage and cigarette taxes took a sharp rise of 14.20 per cent during the month of December 1964 over the same period a year ago. Morris also noted that law enforcement activity by the Department continued at a normal level.

Johnson arranged the session, to which he invited leaders of both parties, hours after the second joint American - South Viet Nam air attack on North Viet Nam in two days. The primary purpose of the meeting was to hear a first-hand report from presidential fact-finder McGeorge Bundy. Bundy, White House adviser on security matters, returned late Sunday night from South Viet Nam.

Bundy visited the badly damaged U. S. air force base and personnel compound at Pleiku Sunday before flying back to Washington. He had been in Saigon for conferences with U. S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and South Vietnamese officials.

The Defense Department made public the names of seven of the eight U. S. servicemen killed in Communist sneak attacks on U. S. bases in South Viet Nam Saturday. The Navy pilot whose plane was shot down by Communist groundfire in U. S. retaliatory raids on North Viet Nam Sunday was identified as Lt. Edward Dickson of Wyoming, Pa. He was seen to parachute into the sea, and a search was in progress.

The Americans dead in the guerrilla attack on Pleiku included: Army Capt. George Markos, whose wife Billie lives at 19 Patrick Circle, Melbourne, Fla.

Processors Salvage Crop

LAKELAND (UPI) — Processing plants are handling a record volume of oranges in an effort to salvage as much as possible from the rapidly-maturing crop. Utilization soared to a season high the week before last when slightly more than four million boxes of oranges were processed, with most going to concentrate.

Heavy Fog Shrouds Area After Storm

Even the birds were walking this morning when the heaviest fog of the year shrouded the Sanford scene and clung to the area for much of the morning. The fog followed by about a day the direct hit by lightning of a Florida Power and Light Company substation on Grandview Avenue, a hit that knocked out power over a vast section of the eastern and southern portion of the area.

Power company manager Scott Burns called the direct hit an "extremely unusual happening" at this time of the year. He said the lightning struck at about 6:45 a. m. Sunday and power was restored in an hour by repairs making temporary arrangements.

The substation serves the Sanford Naval Air Station, the Hunt plant and all areas between and north to the Seminole Memorial Hospital sector.

Burns said the hospital is equipped with immediate turn-over to auxiliary units and there was no trouble there. The lightning and severe thunder awakened many persons early yesterday morning. A sidlight of the power failure is that many persons were late in going to church as they checked their clocks as arising, not realizing they had been turned off for most of an hour.

Marching Seminoles Off To State Fair

The Seminole High School Marching and Twirling Seminoles left early today to participate in the annual Gasparilla Parade, highlight of the Florida State Fair in Tampa. The Seminoles, abandoning their traditional Indian regalia, were snappily clad in pirate costumes in the spirit of the annual pirate invasion of Tampa.

This is a return engagement for the local aggregation. They attended in 1963 and several years before. Due to parade official policies, no band is invited in consecutive years.

After the five-mile parade, the band was dismissed for several hours to enjoy the fair and later will be treated to dinner by the band parents organization.

Cold Damage Showing Up

LAKELAND (UPI) — Citrus groves show some damage from the mid-January cold snap, but the overall tree condition appears good, according to the latest Florida Citrus Mutual crop condition report.

The report was the first taken by Mutual field men since the cold spell of Jan. 17-18. Orange, Ocala, and Seminole-Damage resulting from the recent cold continues to show up, the worst being in the normally considered cold locations.

Temples and tangerines were damaged in most all locations. Tree damage is pretty well confined to some foliage loss.

500,000 Greet Queen At Sudan

KHARTOUM, The Sudan (UPI) — A crowd of 500,000 cheering Sudanese welcomed Queen Elizabeth II today when the British monarch arrived here for a four-day state visit.

There had been fears that strife between Sudan's Arabs and Negroes might mar the queen's arrival. A spokesman for the queen had conceded there was "a possible danger to her life."

LEADING THE SANFORD pirate invasion of Tampa today will be Sharon Drum, first lieutenant and assistant head majorette of the Twirling Seminoles. Sharon poses in her pirate costume just before boarding one of the three buses which took the Seminole High School band and majorettes to the Gasparilla parade.

U. S. Readies Military Force

SAIGON (UPI) — The United States today poised the full power of its military forces in Southeast Asia against Communist North Viet Nam's attempts to conquer South Viet Nam.

Sunday's swift retaliatory raid by American planes against troop staging areas in the Communist north made it clear that the United States was prepared for a major new turn in the war effort.

Patriotic Front

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China today announced the formation of a "patriotic front" to overthrow the pro-Western government of Thailand and eradicate American influence there.

Parking Meter Ban Request To Council Tonight

Permanent removal of Sanford's parking meters will be requested by the Greater Sanford Board of Commerce and the Sanford Merchants Division of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce when the City Commission meets at 8 p.m. tonight in City Hall.

Firemen Blanket Foam On Gasoline

Sanford firemen spent five hours early Saturday dissipating 6,000 gallons of gasoline which spilled over the ground while being piped from a river barge to a storage tank, Chief Mack N. Cleveland Jr. reported today. The gas was covered with foam until it seeped into the ground.

Man Wounded

A man identified as Johnnie Jones, of 909 East Eighth Street, has been charged on three accounts after he allegedly shot Strady B. Sapps in the right foot Sunday. Sapps was treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Jones is charged with intoxication, assault with a deadly weapon and discharging a firearm inside the city limits.

County Hike In Support Of Schools Seen

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey said today he is pretty well convinced that the 1965 Legislature is not going to raise taxes.

Bailey said this means that if quality education is not to suffer the counties are going to have to step up their financial support to schools. Bailey told the Continuing Education Council, a group of businessmen headed by Lamar Sarna, of Jacksonville, dedicated to improving public education, that "there seems to be a universal feeling that no new taxes are going to be voted."

Bailey said he can find no sentiment for expansion of the state sales tax or other revenue sources that now support the spiraling public education program. "The feeling is there will be sufficient increase in revenue from present sources to carry on another two years the 'most economical' programs for all state agencies."

"Unless there is a drastic change in attitude, we are going to find it difficult to get anything approved beyond the programs we have now," Bailey said.

"With school needs as great, we may have reached the place where there is going to have to be a lot of soul-searching at the county level about financing our schools," Bailey said.

Rep. J. Griffin Jr., of Ocala, chairman of the powerful House appropriations committee, echoed Bailey's statements, saying that although he has not got a closed mind on the subject, it's going to take a lot of convincing to get him to even consider any expansion of present state services.

"The people are feeling the tax burden," said Griffin, who sat in on recent hearings on a proposed state budget of $1.5 billion which is something like $450 million in excess of anticipated revenue from present taxes.

"We must cut the cloth to fit the pattern," he said.

Bailey told the group that it is going to take $79,051,276 more than present public school spending just to maintain the status quo in present school services, without any expansion at all. That is because of Florida's increasing school enrollment, which goes up at the rate of 80,000 new students a year.

Eight Yanks Die In Raid

SAIGON (UPI) — American and South Vietnamese aircraft blasted military bases in Communist North Viet Nam for the second day.

South Vietnamese strongman Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh said "70 per cent of the objectives were destroyed" in the strike against Vinh Linh today. Khanh said 24 Vietnamese skyraider fighters-bombers bombed and strafed the military installation a short distance beyond the border of North Viet Nam with the support of American aircraft.

He said "a number of smoke columns and fires were seen in the area of the objectives." The U. S. Embassy confirmed Khanh's report but refused to give any specific details about the part played by the American planes.

Forty-nine American jets attacked a Communist troop staging area at Dong Hoi Sunday in retaliation for a Viet Cong guerrilla raid on a U. S. base that left eight Americans dead and 126 wounded.

It was the worst defeat suffered by American forces in the years-long history of Vietnamese war against the Communist guerrillas. Khanh said one of the Sky-raiders was shot down in the raid today but that the pilot bailed out safely over South Vietnamese territory.

He said Air Vice Marshal Nguyen Cao Ky, commander of the South Viet Nam air force, led the raiders in person and was wounded in the arm when his plane was hit by four bullets.

Vinh Linh is about 75 miles south of Dong Hoi—the target of Sunday's air strikes. It is about five miles north of the 17th Parallel—the line of demarcation between North and South Viet Nam.

"The government of the republic of Viet Nam has decided in order to punish the Vietnamese Communists to bomb installations north of the 17th Parallel," Khanh said.

Khanh's report was confirmed by the U. S. Embassy here. An embassy spokesman said "additional military action was taken against North Viet Nam today by Vietnamese and U. S. aircraft."

The raid made it clear that the United States and South Viet Nam were prepared by retaliation against Communist North Viet Nam's efforts to take over this country.
