

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH. "HELL PRENT 'EM"—SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

My old friend John Jenkins spells his name in a most peculiar manner and this spelling has caused me more or less sleeplessness and worry and yet I have never spoken to him about changing it. It seems to suit John all right and certainly has not made any enemies for him for he is the most popular office holder in the lot and had no opposition this time because his many friends recognize his efficiency and he has no enemies, otherwise he would have opposition—it is always your enemies that remember you on election day and strive to get out all the opposition they can against you prior to the primary. So in thinking about John's cognomen (spelled Jno) I happened to run across the following from Thorndyke of the Palm Beach Post and I hereby give it to my readers for John's (spelled Jno) benefit:

"Why is it that some people named John will endeavor to abbreviate what is really a good title by writing it 'Jno'? For the life of me I don't see how Jno can mean John. If it was only written 'Jon' it would be all to the mustard—but as it is written it doesn't mean anything. One might just as well abbreviate Frank by writing it 'Fka' or make Peter by writing it 'Pri.' Why not? Besides that there is no time saved by writing it Jno for the man has then to stop long enough to place a period where it belongs."

Some of the defeated candidates may feel a little sore over their defeat but they should realize that all the candidates for office cannot win and really the man in private life has it all over the office holder when it comes to peace of mind. The following from the Pensacola Journal is some consolation to the candidates:

Notwithstanding what is said about them the candidates get lots of fun out of a campaign whether they win or lose. They get to go to all the public gatherings, picnics and barbecues, and life is not bad for them, although they have their troubles. The late Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee had this to say of them:

"Every honest man who runs for office is a candidate for trouble, for fruits of political victory turn to ashes on the lips. To me there is nothing so pathetic in this world as a candidate. He is like a mariner without a compass, drifting on the tempest tossed waves of uncertainty between the smiling cliffs of hopes and the crowning crags of fear. He is a walking petition and a living prayer; he is the backhorse of public sentiments; he is the dromedary of politics. And if he reaches the goal of his ambition he will soon feel the beak of the vulture in his heart and the fangs of the serpent in his soul. I am no longer a candidate."

Notwithstanding the eloquent lament of Bob Taylor, he afterwards became a candidate for office.

Another candidate rendered this report of his campaign:

"Lost 4 months, 23 days canvassing; 1349 hours sleep thinking about the election; 5 acres of cotton, 23 acres of corn, a whole sweet potato crop, 4 sheep, 5 goats and a beef given to barbecue; 3 front teeth and a considerable quantity of hair in personal skirmishes. Gave away 96 plugs of tobacco, 23,849 drinks of whiskey, 2984 glasses of beer, 7 Sunday school books, 2 pair suspenders, 4 calico dresses, 4 dolls, 13 baby rattlers.

"Told 2,889 lies, shook hands 23,747 times, talked enough to have made in print 1600 large volumes size of parent office reports, kissed 126 babies, kindled 14 kitchen fires, cut 3 cords of wood, pulled 474 bundles of fodder, picked 744 pounds of cotton, helped dig 7 wagon loads of potatoes, 'toted' 24 buckets of water, put up 7 stoves, was dog bit 3 times, watch broke by a baby cost $3 to have repaired. Loaned out 3 barrels of flour, 28 bushels of meal, 150 pounds of bacon, 20 pounds of butter, 12 dozen eggs, 2 umbrellas, 14 lead pencils, dictionary, 2 hoes, 2 boxes of paper collars, none of which have ever been returned."

Notwithstanding all this public office is a pretty good thing to have and the man who never becomes a candidate never draws the emoluments of an office.

Fourth of July and from now on until school takes in the children are apt to be playing with firearms and other dangerous weapons that will make a noise. I certainly wish to counsel the parents of children to keep toy rifles and pistols out of the infant's hands, as all the papers are full of accounts of little tots being shot by their playmates and death or loss of limb is something that would haunt the parents to their graves. There is no responsible excuse for children having firearms in their possession. Sometimes they get them surreptitiously and commit the injury to playmates before the parents are aware of it but if you have firearms in your possession you should certainly keep them where the children cannot reach them. I have just finished reading the following account of such an accident, that happened in Tampa this week and it brought tears to my eyes:

Careless handling of a 22-caliber rifle by twelve year old Wayne Cooper, resulted last night in the tragic death of the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nolach, who live near Mango. A bullet passed through the stomach of the little one, who died after being brought to the city for treatment in a local hospital.

During the afternoon young Cooper was playing around the Nolach home, discharging blank cartridges. He was heard to tell the child, it is said, that he was going to shoot, and immediately afterwards, it is alleged, fired the gun point blank at the little unfortunate. Mr. Nolach heard the statement and the shot, but gave it no consideration.

"Papa," lisped the little one "I'm hurt right there."

Upon examination it was found that the bullet had pierced the child's body and Mr. Nolach immediately rushed to Tampa for surgical aid. Everything possible was done to save the child, but it was beyond human aid and expired last night.

The Cooper boy was broken-hearted and terribly frightened by his act, which was reported to Sheriff Spencer. The father of the boy will bring him to the sheriff's office during the day, but owing to his youth it is hardly probable that he will be held accountable for his act.

The Man Behind the Booze

(By Walt Mason)

In festive mood a man gets stowed, he empties flagons ten or twenty; he takes a bowl with every soul he meets till he has swallowed plenty. If he has sense, it journeys hence; if he has brains, he's sure to lose 'em; and when he wakes, as morning breaks, a cop is sitting on his bosom.

"Confound your eyes," the peeler cries, "you should have stuck to river water! While lighted up by brimming cup, you waded round knee deep in slaughter! You threw some fits, you lost your wits, you thought yourself a circus pageant! You drew a gun, oh, foolish one, and shot a harmless fruit tree agent."

The poor sick sport looms up in court; no memories of crime are his'n; he can't recall the deed at all, but draws a hundred years in prison. The able judge says "Pish!" and "Fudge!" at the pleas the prisoner's advancing; "men who will drink the old red ink must pay the fiddler after dancing!" The doomed man's wife must lead a life of endless washing, scrubbing, drudging; his children three must paupers be—so futile is our human judgment. The jingled gent on pastime bent who shoots when all his wits are hazy, the bill must pay; there is no way to reach the one who made him crazy.

The man who brews the stuff that stews respected is and clothed in honor; he walks abroad and deigns a nod or smile to sycophant and fawner. His victims rot in dungeons hot while he abides in yonder palace; he drinks a health to tainted wealth and drinks it from a golden chalice.

The men who sell the broth of hell, who see men's souls like gowgaws ruffled, look on and grin when slaves of gin are marching to the jail or scaffold. "Ours not the blame! Ours not the shame!" they cry, as they have cried for ages; "We do not force men to the course that leads them to the cells and cages."

To women worn, who work and mourn in poverty's abomination, to feed their broods, such platitudes must be a grateful consolation!

Marked Improvement.
Rev. Caller—"Well, Mrs. Mangies, and is the good man any better?" Mrs. Mangies—"Oh, yes, sir. 'E's nearly all right again, sir. 'E don't say 'is prayers no more of a night now, sir."

Memorial Services H. of L. E.

There are a great many subjects, it is natural to suppose, nothing new could be said in regard to them, or has not already been said, only room for reiteration. So often have men read and re-read the mottoes of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, thinking that they filled up space in make up of an organization.

In the service Sunday, June 14th we learned the intimate relation of one to the other, centered in human agents, as necessary to make good and desired. Man in any station or vocation of life. Never had some of our men stopped to think of these mottoes as explained by Bro. Steinmeyer. After this explanation we must retrospect, our final conclusion is the founders of the B. of L. E. must have been inspired, how far sighted they must have been, to embody and endeavor to imbue these thoughts, themes and principles in all who cast their lot with this brotherhood.

Again, we see these mottoes could be the standard of all the world and would be the greatest factors in the adjustment of the struggle of labor and capital, it has impressed all who heard this sermon, we must give more personal attention to these facts, for soon we must leave this world to be adjudicated for our neglects. Why not observe the rules as laid down in so few words, as we journey on eternity's trip, for we realize its similarity to railroad rules on this daily toil or vocation, if rules are not observed, mastered and lived too, it is soon heard "not needed."

The preparation of the Methodist church was beautiful. The writer so often heard it said, "I did not know these people thought so much of us really," some of our visiting members so often remarking "It's so nice to live in a place with some get up, you see so more of how the people can and do keep up with improvements." Children can see how church affairs, with its sweet music, with different instruments to give force and expression, do see what these church people do for you makes me glad I am associated with this organization. If the Methodist church entertained our organization with such nice preparations these members in San- munt be leading a commendable life as citizens of a community.

From church to Robbins Nest for dinner. Our visitors were soon comfortable in parlors and easy chairs on the shady veranda. Soon called to dining room, everything so nice and cozy; ample time to enjoy this dinner; it was specially adapted to our crowd in two very noticeable features: first it was not over or under cooked, experience reaid in that kitchen; second, plenty also accompanied experience on this occasion and we really enjoyed our meal somewhat later than usual to add to the standard of usual appreciation. Division 769 is certainly under obligations to Mr. Robbins for so freely giving us such hospitality on this occasion.

I certainly absent heartily to one expression heard Sunday a number of times: I wish more of our members could have heard this service. It certainly would impress them to aspire to be better men, and could have easily realized how it could be done, "living our mottoes," and by applying ourselves could improve on our personal presentation, as the church has improved and advanced in song and service.

To the Methodist church, Robbins Nest and Sanford people we certainly feel grateful to you, and appreciate the pains and output of your energy to entertain and make it pleasant for Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in their annual memorial service—Welcome and well paid. Thanks to all.

Lawn Social

The various committees of the Presbyterian Brotherhood held quite an enthusiastic meeting last evening relative to the lawn social to be given at the residence of Mr. H. R. Stevens Friday evening, June 19th. An unusual interest is being taken and it is already proven that this social will be a grand success.

This is a social for every man, woman and child in Sanford and for any one who might be in Sanford on this date from other towns or country. There will be refreshments, such as ice cream, cake, sherbet and lemonade. There will be entertainments of various kinds, good music, both instrumental and vocal.

If any live too far or it is too warm for you to walk, phone No. 227 and a car with a reliable man at the wheel will come and take you there and back home again.

There will be no charge made for anything, but a freewill offering is expected—whatever you feel like giving toward the building of the new Presbyterian church.

Sanford Open New Club

Kissimmee, Fla., June 16.—The Sanford club house, one of the most modern and well appointed in the south was formally opened Thursday evening through the courtesy of Mrs. R. W. McKelton, who arranged the reception which was attended by a large presentation of the professional business and society element of this city. The social function continued between the hours of 7:00 and 10:00 p. m., during which time autos were arriving and departing with guests. Light luncheon was served during the evening. Members of the club received the guests and escorted them about the place, explaining in detail every feature. Upon their departure many of the guests expressed themselves as perfectly delighted with the beautiful appointments of the place. The club house is located within a five acre plot adjacent to Lake Tohopekaliga, just outside the city limits and within easy access. The buildings cost approximately $15,000 and when the contemplated improvements are finished the place will be one of the beauty spots of this section of Florida.

With regard to pauperism the reports show that in the prohibition states the number of paupers per 100,000 population is 46; in near prohibition states, 84; in partially license states, 123; in extreme license states, 128.

Practice What They Preach

The Lakeland Telegram printed an editorial on the subject of trading at home that will be read with effect. The newspapers preach that doctrine constantly, and practice it more consistently than any other line of business. Merchants and other business men take too little heed of the work done by the newspaper to build up their lines and seldom stop to consider the obligation when the out of town printing solicitor or itinerant advertising man appears.—Orlando Sentinel.

DIGNAN GET PLUM; JACKSONVILLE POSTOFFICE SEEMS TO BE SETTLED

THE LONG DRAWN OUT CONTROVERSY MAY NOW BE AT AN END

SENATOR BRYAN WINS IN DIGNAN'S SELECTION

THE ADMINISTRATION HELPED TO ELECT FLETCHER AND OWED ONE TO BRYAN

Jacksonville, Fla., June 19.—P. A. Dignan has won the fight for appointment as postmaster of Jacksonville. As forecasted in the Florida Metropolis, Senator Bryan's candidacy has won. Dignan's name will be sent to the senate soon. Possibly it will be sent in later to-day. When the issue was drawn lightly between Senators Fletcher and Bryan, the administration felt that, since it had been helpful to Fletcher in the senatorial race, it owed this recognition to Bryan.

When seen by a Florida Metropolis reporter this morning, and asked if he had anything to add to the Washington report, P. A. Dignan said that it was the first that he had heard of it.

"I haven't heard from my friend, Senator Bryan for several weeks," he stated. "Yes, of course, I had an idea that the matter would be brought up and settled soon, and I knew the Senator would fight for me till the last."

"I am very much opposed to publicity—almost a crank on the subject, in fact, and there is not much to be said at this time anyway. If I should receive the appointment, I will serve the citizens of Jacksonville to the best of my ability."

Miss Emma Pauls was found drowned in Lake Eola, south of Haines City late Sunday afternoon. She had been missing for several days but it was supposed she had gone to Bartow on a visit. The body was badly bloated and was dressed in a bathing suit. A coroner's jury was summoned and a verdict of death by accidental drowning was made. Miss Pauls was about thirty-two years old.

The steamer Planter of the Towles Line, Tampa to Fort Myers burned at Fort Myers last night, the loss being $48,000. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

A petition calling upon the commissioners of St. Petersburg to order an election which will determine whether they shall be retained in office or recalled was filed late yesterday afternoon with the city clerk. The petition bore more than 300 names and is believed to be ample large to make the election mandatory. Charges against the commissioners alleging actions were filed some time ago by J. Matt Williams. The signers of the recall petition will hold a meeting and decide upon candidates to run against the commissioners who, it is understood will, to a man, be candidates for the places.

Very little is heard of the activities of the Skinner Manufacturing Company, located at Dunedin, in the county of Pinellas, but it is a busy concern all the same. It made a modest beginning about six years ago in the way of manufacturing machinery for fruit packing houses and supplies for the same. L. B. Skinner, the manager, says that business was never better than it is right now. Most of its output goes to the different sections of the citrus fruit growing sections of Florida, though frequent shipments are made to other states. The plant covers an area of 40,000 square feet and is thoroughly equipped with modern machinery for both wood and metal work. A considerable force of hands is employed at all seasons, though it is larger, of course, at some seasons than others.

There is now employed on the construction of the great "Deering Palace," in the outskirts of Miami, a large force of men, both in the actual construction of the building and the preparation of the grounds that are literally being blown from the wilderness. Both kinds of work are progressing simultaneously. The foundations are being carried down or as far as may be necessary to reach bed rock upon which the massive and splendid structure will rest. The contractor is not hurried, but is allowed by the terms of this agreement ample time to do thorough work, as he is not bound to complete the building before December, 1915. This will undoubtedly be the most magnificent private residence in the state.

JUNIOR CIVIC LEAGUE

Busy Bees Hold Interesting Meeting in Central Park

A most interesting meeting of the Busy Bees, junior department of the Junior Civic League was held at the band stand Monday afternoon with a fine attendance. The meeting opened with singing of "America," followed by the roll call and reading of the minutes by the efficient little secretary, Sarah Wight. It was a revelation to hear the children respond to the roll call with reports of something they had done to beautify or clean up the gardens or back yards of their homes. The minutes were a fine report of the previous meeting, showing that the Bees are indeed busy bees and not drones in civic work.

Four new members were initiated, the secretary administering the pledge which was repeated in unison by the new members and is as follows: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

In a brief talk Mrs. Abernathy outlined the purpose of this particular meeting, which was the naming of the poinsettias recently planted around the band stand, the gift of Sarah Wight. Then followed the pretty ceremony of christening the plants. The children formed in line and singing "America" marched down the steps and around the band stand, each plant christened by the child chosen for it; each in turn repeating "I name this, calling the name for whom they stood sponsor. The plants were named Mayor Thrasher, Alderman Abernathy, Davidson, Tolar, Adams, Herndon, Dingee, Maxwell, Mesdames Henry Wight, A. E. Phillips, J. W. Dickins, Terheub, Robbins, Capt. Terver; Reva, Steinmeyer, Hyman, Peck; Father Bresnahan, Rev. Brownlee; Dra. Puleston, Neal, Robson—the other physicians of the city were also chosen, Drs. Walker, Miller and Howard and several of the older citizens of Sanford, but some of the plants had died, so these names were not reached.

It was a very impressive ceremony, the children entering into the spirit of the occasion with earnestness and enthusiasm, the light of an excited purpose shining upon the little faces. Returning to the band stand the meeting closed with the Junior Civic yell, after which refreshments were served. The leaders of the Busy Bees are Mesdames Geo. Fox, H. C. Greer and W. W. Abernathy.

Myers Loses Mind

Atlanta, Ga., June 12.—Frederick T. Myers, prominent lawyer of Tallahassee, Florida who delivered the annual alumni oration before the Alumni Association of the University of Georgia on Tuesday suffered during his address from a strange lapse of memory. Up to a late hour straight he could not remember coming to Athens, how or why he came, recalls absolutely nothing of making the address and is considered by physicians to be in a critical condition although he is physically well, seemingly with good pulse and blood pressure.

His trouble may be due to a fall in New York some years ago, though he has never suffered before with the trouble affecting him today.

Mr. Myers is the uncle of Hon. Geo. A. DeCoste of this city and has many friends here.

VILLA AND CARRANZA PATCH UP THE TROUBLES THREATENING REBELS

PEACE MAKERS ARE AS FAR AWAY AS EVER—VILLA WILL AGAIN TAKE CHARGE OF THE ARMY—WHAT SEEMED LIKE A BREACH IN THE CONSTITUTIONALIST RANKS HAS PASSED

Washington, June 19.—Official information reaching the Washington government tonight from American Consul Edwards at Juarez, said General Francisco Villa and General Venustiano Carranza, leaders of the Constitutional movement in Mexico had patched up their differences and Villa would proceed to take charge of the military movement against Zacatecas, where the revolutionary forces recently met reverses.

That General Villa had determined upon a break with Carranza and had demonstrated his attitude by imprisoning some of the officers in the first Constitutional chief's command was verified in reports to the State Department. It was declared however that Villa's action had served the purpose for which it was originated and that the conqueror of Torreon and Saltillo would command the military advance against Huerta from this time forth without interruption. The interneine dispute in the Mexican revolutionary ranks, while mediation at Niagara Falls tested, had stirred officials here, but Consul Edwards' message served to relieve anxiety. Other official dispatches received were to the effect that all principal officers of the revolution sided with Villa in this difference with the Constitutional first chief over the method of procedure in the military campaign and that Carranza had agreed that Villa should take supreme command in the military operation against the Huerta government. All of the military officers under Villa, including General Felipe Angeles, his chief of artillery, and prominently mentioned as a candidate for Provisional President of Mexico, were declared to have stood by Villa in his demonstrative revolt.

FEDERAL RESERVE ACT HELPS THE FARMERS FIVE HUNDRED MILLION

Killed by Falling Tree

Tallahassee, Fla., June 19.—Joseph Hughes and son, a boy of twelve, of Monticello, while enroute to Tallahassee in an automobile on Monday were struck by a falling tree. The boy died instantly. Mr. Hughes was badly hurt. The accident happened on the Miccosukee road three miles northeast of Tallahassee. It is said they left Monticello for Tallahassee to attend the funeral of W. H. Atkinson, a friend and schoolmate of Mr. Hughes, who was struck by lightning while talking over a telephone last Saturday afternoon.

The county had employed a Mr. Boyett as road supervisor, who was repairing this road, which is one of the main thoroughfares leading into the city, and had directed his hands to suspend work in cutting down this particular tree and had sent one of their number some distance after a rope with which to incline the tree from the road. Mr. Boyett was under the impression that there was no likelihood of the tree falling without further-cutting and had resumed other work, expecting to give the tree further attention on the arrival of the rope. No one noticed the tree, it seems, until Mr. Hughes himself saw it falling and slowed down his car just in time to receive its destructive work—a large limb crashing into the stomach of the boy and pinning Mr. Hughes to the seat of the car. The most available means of extracting them from under the tree was to cut the limb with axes, which was, of course a difficult undertaking as there was danger of further injury with each stroke of the ax.

Mr. Hughes is a prominent and prosperous citizen of Monticello, a well built man, owning several mills near Covington, and about thirty-six years old.

Orlando Lets Contract

Orlando, Fla., June 19.—Bids for $200,000 worth of brick paving on the streets of the city were opened by the city commissioners Tuesday afternoon and contracts awarded to the Alabama Paving Company of Birmingham, at 26 1/4 cents per square yard. The contract for curbing was awarded to Hamilton Johnson of Orlando. Other bids for the paving included W. P. Kennedy of Pensacola, 80 cents per square yard; R. M. Hudson, Atlanta, 83 cents; Florida Naval Vault Company of Lakeland, 34 3/4 cents.

The paving company is given 14 months from the first of July to finish the contract and Mr. Johnson has one year in which to complete the curbing. The specifications provided for vitrified brick on practically all the main residence streets of the city. The business streets are already paved.

Eustis Put It On Them

In a very good game yesterday Eustis boys put it on to the Sanford bunch to the tune of 11 to 6. The battery for Sanford was Kanner, Crosby, Williamson and Arrant; for Eustis, Merrill and Munroe.

There was a very small crowd, the reason being that the stores remained open on account of pay day at the shops and this helped to keep the crowd down. The threatening weather also kept many at home who thought possibly Jupiter Pluvius would step in and stop the game. The boys are putting up a good quality of ball considering the limited time they have practiced and being a strictly amateur team are not supposed to play the "professional" article. The people of Sanford should patronize them every time they have a game scheduled on the home grounds.

His Explanation Accepted

Mr. Callar of Sanford (isn't that euphonious?) tells me that a cellar is not "the doghouse pit" but an underground room where they keep good things to eat. That has always been my understanding of it consequently I have cast my hostile glances towards Callar to see what the cellar would send up. Yet, in place of giving up anything Mr. Callar declares that he loads away the good things that the only time that special cellar will send forth any of the delightful things of life will be when it takes an ocean trip.—Palm Beach Post.

COMPTROLLER WILLIAMS ESTIMATES BANK SUM

OTHER INTERESTING NEWS OF THE WORLD-AT-LARGE IN TABLOID FORM

Washington, June 19.—John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, estimated today that about $500,000,000 in national banks throughout the United States now is available for farm mortgage loans under the provision of the federal reserve act, making it possible for national banking associations to lend money on improved farm lands.

Scores of inquiries concerning this provision reach the Treasury Department daily and there does not seem to be a general understanding that the farm loan clause of the act now is in force, making it possible for national banks to make farm loans before the formal organization of the federal reserve board.

The estimate of Comptroller Williams is based on reports showing the capital stock and surplus of national banks to be $1,777,000,000. Twenty-five per cent of this amount or $444,250,000 is available for farm loans. Furthermore, the federal reserve act provides that national banks may grant farm loans up to 33 1/3 per cent of their time deposits. Banks with large deposits will be able to far exceed the sum they could lend on farms under the 25 per cent clause and the estimate of Mr. Williams is said to be conservative.

Farm loans under this act are not to be made for over five years, and the amount of each loan is not to exceed 50 per cent of the actual value of the farm offered as security.

One navy for eight leading world nations is the aim of a plan proposed by the world peace foundation to be sent to secretaries Bryan and Daniels. The nations are the United States, Japan, England, Italy, Austria, France and Russia. A joint convention of nations is proposed to reduce armaments, which will be used jointly if any nation is attacked by reason of the reduction. The contracting nations are to postpone any resort to force until the international commission of inquiry has rendered its report.

The campaign of the Democratic candidates for state and senatorial offices opened in South Carolina today and will continue until August 20. When the time limit for the filing of pledges expired yesterday fifty-three candidates for the various offices had entered the lists and were ready for the swing around the state which began this morning. Chief interest is centered on the senatorial and gubernatorial races. In the former there are four candidates for the seat of the incumbent, Senator Ellison D. Smith, who is a candidate for re-election. Governor Cole L. Blease, L. D. Jennings of Sumter, and W. P. Pollock of Cheraw are the other contestants.

Secretary McAdoo said today that all persons, corporations and associations liable under the income tax law will be heavily penalized on failure to make payments before June 30th. The department will push the cases.

The North German Lloyd's steamship Kaiser Wilhelm the Second, bound from Southampton to New York is at Southampton disabled. One thousand passengers are on board. The grain steamer Inverpool, from Black Sea ports to Liverpool, docked here with her bow crushed and the forepeak full of water. The collision occurred in the English Channel early today during a heavy fog. The Inverpool was proceeding slowly when the Wilhelm crossed bows, according to the information given out. The officers of both vessels are reticent about the accident and are waiting until an official inquiry is made to make a full report.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETS

The Democratic Executive Committee of Seminole County met last Tuesday at 11 o'clock with the following members present: S. Runge, G. W. Spenser, S. M. Williamson, W. V. Dunn, C. A. Dallas, J. E. Hartley, D. H. C. Rabun, Abbott, G. M. Jacobs, J. H. Huddleston and Theo. Aulin.

S. Runge was chosen as temporary chairman and he called the meeting to order, when the matter of electing a permanent chairman was taken up. S. Runge was elected to this position and R. J. Holly was chosen to act as secretary.

The question of the per diem of members was discussed and it was moved, seconded and carried that the members be paid three dollars per day and mileage each time they were called together.

It was decided that inasmuch as the secretary had served one year in that capacity and had not received any compensation and had not asked for any that he should receive the sum of $25 per year for his services.

The matter of returning the money assessed against the candidates was discussed and an investigation of the actual expenses of the committee made and the probable cost of called meetings during the next two years before any other assessments could be made and it was then resolved that half of the total amount assessed, amounting to $215.93 should be returned to the candidates and the same amount left in the treasury to pay current expenses. This means that the candidates will have 80 per cent of their assessment returned to them.

As the office of supervisor of registration expires on July 1st although said supervisor was elected at the primary on June 2nd he would really not be the supervisor until the first of January next and in order that the county would not be left without the services of the supervisor the committee recommended that Governor Trammell appoint H. C. Dubose to this office until January first, when he will enter upon his new term of said office.

It was also resolved by the committee that they invite a letter to the board of county commissioners recommending the payment of a sum of money which in their judgment would help to compensate the supervisor of registration for the large amount of extra work which he was forced to accomplish under the new primary laws.

After a discussion of the Bryan Primary law and several other matters of importance the committee adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

THE SANFORD HERALD

Published Every Tuesday and Friday Morning by THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY... J. J. HOLLY, Editor... W. M. HAYNES Business Manager...

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

Seven years ago the editor of The Herald was endeavoring to get a bill passed by the Florida legislature making an appropriation for the advertising of the state and also for an immigration bureau...

The Jacksonville Metropolis has the following along this line: "Florida has been injured, there can be no doubt of that, by land sharks that have advertised much that was not true..."

But the greatest damage that has been done the state has been done by those of us who have neglected it. It is to some extent our fault. If Florida had been possessed of an organization such as has been proposed...

The objects of the Florida Development Board are to secure an appropriation for advertising, and have a commission appointed to direct the advertising. This commission must pass on all Florida advertising that goes out of the state...

It were high time that the state had the right kind of publicity campaign. Because she has had all the bad advertising she has had in all the more reason why she should have the good advertising to which she is entitled.

Every newspaper and every business man, and every live citizen of Florida should work for the appointment of the Development Commission and for an advertising appropriation.

SEND YOUR LOCAL PAPER

The cheapest and best form of advertising ever indulged in by this county and city was the circulation of the local newspapers throughout the north and west...

Both the commissioners and the council failed to levy the tax last year, and consequently both have suffered in the way of new settlers and new business enterprises.

The commissioners will meet during next month to fix the millage for the year 1914, and we believe they will not fail to make the levy of 1 mill for the purpose named...

We do not desire to be understood as claiming that all the money derived from such levy should be expended in mailing the county papers to parties in the north and west...

And this same argument holds good with the city council. There is no town that was better advertised than Kissimmee up to a year ago...

In the past the burden of producing the money to carry on the campaigning of advertising upon the shoulders of not over twenty-five of our people, whereas every man in Kissimmee has materially prospered.

We have said before, and repeat again, that the man who does not give a small percentage of his net income and a portion of his time to the advancement of his town, his county and his state is not living up to the standard of true citizenship.

Will the county and the city levy this tax? We believe they will. Kissimmee Valley Gazette.

ADVERTISE FLORIDA

Florida has more need to advertise than any other state in the Union.

She has more to advertise than any state.

These are two very excellent reasons why the organization of the Florida Development Promotion Board is an important organization.

There is less than ten per cent of Florida's lands in cultivation. There are three millions of American families who change their residence every year. The cause of the change is on account of a desire for a better opportunity.

Florida could take care of a rural population of eight to ten millions and an urban population of half as much. She has the soil and will produce the crops, and she has the markets at her very doors for the things she has to sell.

If an advertising campaign would increase the population of the state by one thousand it would be the best thing Florida could do to promote her welfare and prosperity.

BOB'S PICTURE

Now, we don't object to Bob Holly printing his picture. We happen to be a picture maker, as well as a few other things, and it follows that a chap can't print pictures unless he has made them and vice versa, the chap who doesn't have them made can't print them.

less he has made them and vice versa, the chap who doesn't have them made can't print them.

Now, there's Douglass the show man, just think of the picture man's profit on him. And there's the homely face of that remarkable purveyor of woman's happiness, Lydia Pinkham.

Thank you; very much, Bro. Howard. We note that you are ambidextrous and can use either hand in handing out compliments. We are very glad indeed that you have no objections and some time in the future will try to run the picture again just because it gives our friend, Walton, so much pleasure.

Uncle Walt Mason has joined the Trade at Home crusade, and he writes rhythmically and convincingly on the subject thus:

Karamith & Kjekshaw deal in wax and Chinese eggs and carpet tacks. They are good sports in every way; they cough up money every day to make the town a better place in which to live and push your face. They hire a dozen clerks or more, who wait on patrons in their store.

CHANGES IN NEWSPAPERS

Changes in newspapers in Orange county are being made with kaleidoscope swiftness and every week notes new occupants of the tripod of the various papers. The Apopka News is the latest and J. Franklin Briggs, who one month ago took the helm now resigns in favor of D. W. Clark.

The mediators are having trouble selecting the proper man to succeed Huerta as president of Mexico. Evidently Bob Holly has not filed his application, being busily engaged in accepting the numerous other presidencies that have been tendered him during the past few weeks.

Glad you called our attention to it, Hugh. As soon as we get this postoffice matter off our systems we will look into that Mexican affair, chili con carne old Huerta, hot tamale the insurrectos and grape juice the U. S. government into putting an editor in the position.

Building good sidewalks to Sanford Heights is one of the best moves on the part of the city council that could have been inaugurated when they are finished this beautiful suburb of Sanford will take a place second to none among the places in Florida where the tourist can build a fine residence for winter or summer.

THANKS

Editor Bob Holly, who is a candidate for the Sanford postmastership, says Florida editors were weak primary candidates—but have shown great ability in landing postmasterships. If there is any justice in this world Bob will get the postmastership.—Deland News

Wayne Thomas of the Plant City Courier has put his stamp of approval on the tango dance and says that while a person is dancing the tango they are too busy to think of anything else.

The Sanford Development Corporation has succeeded in enlisting Louisville, Ky., capitalists in the enterprise of building and operating in the former city a first class tourist hotel of two hundred rooms and to cost at least $200,000.

The Herald has all the confidence in the world in the ability of the Seminole Construction Co., to dredge the lake and bulkhead as per their contract, but together with all the citizens of Sanford we would like to see the work expedited somewhat.

Congressman Frank Clark pulled off a good one on the high cost of living the other day when he entertained a friend at dinner after taking him to the theater and a car ride and all of it cost the small sum of 68 cents. That might be all right to pull in some people but we hereby advise Frank Clark that the first time he visits him in Washington it will cost him at least 75 cents to show us the Washington monument.

We are sorry to note that Editor Josiah Ferris of the Orlando Sentinel is very ill of typhoid fever. Editor Howard of the Orlando Citizen is also ill but not seriously and here's hoping that both of them recover rapidly and get back into harness again.

The Jacksonville Metropolis in mentioning the possible candidates for speaker of the next House leaves out the name of Forrest Lake of Seminole who is really the winner for this exalted position.

Editor A. L. Cleveland of the Et. Mende Leader recently married his editorial in his last issue headed, "How to be Happy Tho' Hot" and while in itself this may not mean anything to some of us it sounds rather disconcerting.

Mr. I. C. Putnam, manager of the Oklawaha River Farms was a Wednesday visitor. He says that he is trying as an experiment a 5-acre corn plot. The corn stalks are now over 8 feet high and are just beginning to tassle. If he can secure a yield of two average full ears to the stalk it is possible to make 372 bushels to the acre, though he says he may not make any. The experiment is being watched with a good deal of interest.

Progress in Bulkheading. The contractors have encountered some delay in the work of filling in on account of the hard pan formation, but are working faithfully and are making more progress than is apparent to the casual observer. Another dredge boat will soon be put in commission, larger machinery having been ordered some time ago, a more powerful engine, pump and agitator and full equipment is now enroute and as soon as received the second dredge boat will be put to work. Construction of the concrete retaining wall will be started at an early date.

The men on the job are experienced in dredging and while they have been up against a formation that they have never encountered before they now understand the situation and are prepared to handle it.

Arm Breaking Season The season for breaking arms by automobiles seems to be on and two accidents of this kind are reported for this week. Spinning the crank may be the quickest way to start a car but it also seems to be the quickest way to break an arm also.

C. O. McLaughlin, the popular representative of the Armour Fertilizer Co. is one of the victims. While cranking his car on Wednesday night in front of the Elks Club his right arm was snapped in a twinkling but Mac is a game Irishman and walked up the stairs to the reading room where he had Dr. Puleston summoned and the arm was put in splints immediately. He will be incapacitated for several weeks but will make his trips just the same with the aid of a driver.

The young son of Chas. Humphrey is also a victim of the terrible crank and while starting his car at his home on the Sanford Orlando road on Tuesday afternoon had his arm broken.

The Ford cars are not necessarily breakers of arms any more than any other car, but as Ed Higgins explains it there are so many more Fords in use than any other car naturally there are more Ford accidents of this sort.

It seems that there is practically no danger in this line with the Ford or any other car if the spark is not advanced too far and the habit of spinning the crank is not indulged by the drivers.

The Progressive, Prohibition and Socialist parties have selected state tickets which will be named without opposition. There are contests for congress in nearly every district.

Republicans of the state of Washington will hold a convention in Tacoma Thursday to adopt a platform and make other arrangements for the coming campaign. Another political convention of the week will be that of the progressive party of Louisiana, which will meet Thursday in New Orleans.

President Wilson has promised to go to Valley Forge, Pa., on Friday, to dedicate the nation's memorial to the patriots who suffered there in a winter campaign under Washington for the independence of the American colonies.

The official investigation on the Empress of Ireland disaster is to be begun in Montreal Tuesday, with Lord Mersay as chairman of the committee of inquiry.

A notable wedding of the week will be that of Miss Madeleine Edison, daughter of the famous inventor and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, and John Eyre Sloane, which is to take place Wednesday at the Edison home near Orange N. J.

Love.
 This I, moreover, hold and dare affirm 'where'er my rhyme may go. Whatever things be sweet of fair, love makes them so. Whether the dazzling and the flush of softly sumptuous garden bowers, or by some cabin door, a bush of ragged flowers.—Alice Cary.

In Her New Place.
 "How are you getting on at your new place?" remarked a lady of a girl whom she had recommended for a situation. "Very well, thank you," answered the girl. "I am glad to hear it," said the lady. "Your employer is a very nice person, and you cannot do too much for her." "I don't mean to 'mam!' was the innocent reply.

 In a quiet English village there was recently held a celebration in the schoolroom at the dedication of a new fire engine. It was a giddy evening, with three speeches by local clergymen and a long-winded oration by a bald-headed politician. The gem of the evening was the following toast: "May she (the fire engine) be like the dear old maids of our village—always ready, but never wanted!"

Many Glad To Quit Calomel

Thousands Avoid Taking the Drug and Use Dodson's Liver Tone in Its Place to Their Comfort and Delight

Dodson's Liver Tone is a harmless, reliable vegetable liquid. It is made to take the place of dangerous calomel. Calomel in large doses is a poison. It is a mineral, a form of mercury. What it does unpleasantly and very often with decided danger in cases of constipation and sluggish liver, Dodson's Liver Tone does for you safely and pleasantly, with no pain and no gripe. Dodson's does not interfere in any way with your regular business, habits or diet.

Dodson's Liver Tone is backed up by a guarantee of "satisfaction or your money back" as L. R. Phillips & Co., the druggists will tell you.

Of course so successful and so reliable a remedy has its imitators, but these stores have Dodson's and will not deceive you.

Dodson never makes extravagant statements. Dodson's Liver Tone has been made from the first to take the place of calomel. It livens the liver, overcomes constipation agreeably and makes you feel good and if you are not satisfied completely with it L. R. Phillips & Co. will hand back the purchase price (50c.) to you cheerfully, instantly and without question.

WILL BASEBALL DIAMOND STARS REPEAT?

Eddie Plank, Veteran Pitcher of Athletics.

Can last year's diamond luminaries repeat, or will a new constellation hold the public eye during this season's pennant race? This is the burning question of the hour. Judging from the early season idol of fans falls by the wayside and one of the great army of debutants steps into the vacant niche. Among last year's number, however, there is none who is in danger of being displaced.

Cobb, the kingpin of them all, is tearing around the paths at the same blinding pace, but his batting is not up to standard yet. Matty will have little difficulty in making the sluggers swing at his slow one and expects to stand them all on their heads in the next world's series.

Plank, the wonderful portlander of Connie Mack's White Elephants, was the pitching sensation of last year's world's series and bids fair to repeat this year. Plank has been in the game longer than any other southpaw and will probably be the first of the 1913 lot to leave the big show.

As for Honus Wagner, he is just a little slower, maybe, on hard-hit ground balls, but the eagle eye and the big mitt are still at the old stand, and it will take a sulphuric smash to penetrate the Pirates' short field while he is playing his position.

If Tris Speaker's record-breaking salary doesn't go to his head he should shine as brightly as ever in the Red Sox roster, both at bat and in the field. Joe Jackson, the Big Dipper of the Cleveland Naps, has youth in his favor coupled with a desire to beat Ty Cobb.

There is little doubt of his staying among the leaders. Walter Johnson still burns them across the dish with the same old snap and zip.

Then, too, there are Eddie Collins and Frank Baker of the Athletics; Milan and Joe Boehling of the Senators; Reb Russell of the White Sox, Archer of the Cubs, Demaree of the Giants, Daubert of Brooklyn; Evers and Maranville of Boston, and all the other sparkies in the big league diamond.

BASEBALL NOTES

Mike Donlin's pinch-hitting eye is not in proper trim as yet.

Jacinto del Cayo, the Cuban player, is making good on the coast.

Hans Wagner continues to be the premier drawing card of the National league.

Griffith says Fritz Maisel will be one of the best third basemen in the big leagues this year.

The Indianapolis club has sold Prince Gaskill, the former Troy curver, to the Denver club, of the Western league.

Detroit critics say the Tigers are no better than a year ago. Jennings, youngsters are not setting the world on fire.

When the Chancemen do lose, the other team has to battle hard. Nobody has found the Nyma easy this season.

Charley Herzog has an all-German infield at Cincinnati with a Cuban, an Englishman and an Irishman in the outfield.

Funny thing about Sherwood Magee. He is called a slow thinker, still he leads the National league sluggers with the willow.

Walter Barbare, the New Orleans substitute shortstop, who got his chance when Knapp was injured, is halled as one of the Southern league's biggest finds.

Ty Cobb is not stealing many bases this year, but he is scoring runs in almost every game by his daring on the bases.

Manager Joe Birmingham, of the Cleveland Naps, says dancing is a great aid in getting ball players into condition.

Billy Eadie, the veteran catcher, who made the round-the-world tour with Spalding 25 years ago, is living in retirement in Detroit.

Fitcher Luhrsen, who failed to make good as a Senator, has been sold by the Columbus club to the Omaha club, in the Western league.

A Cleveland boy, Harvey Blum, better known to baseball fame as "Red," is the one big noise of the New Orleans club, leaders in the race for the Southern league pennant.

One of the greatest stomach-reducing exercises ever observed is portrayed by a plump batter dodging Walter Johnson's fast ball when it comes along inside and waist high.

The veteran, Otto Williams, has been purchased by the Nashville club from the Kansas City club. Williams has been acting as one of the instructors in Charley Carr's baseball school.

President Chivington, of the American association, is in earnest in his antipathy for the Federal league, and has issued orders to all owners to bar Federal league players from attending games in the American association.

Walter Barbare, the New Orleans substitute shortstop, who got his chance when Knapp was injured, is

STILL FIND WITCHES

Woman Freed for Sorcery Recently in Pennsylvania.

"Hex" Doctor Shoots Wax Image to Relieve Pains Caused by Powers of the Evil Eye—Salt in a Lawyer's Bed.

New York.—A woman tried for witchcraft! We hold up our hands and wonder at the bigotry of those narrow-minded Puritans in Salem, Mass. Such a situation seems so remote from anything that would be possible today! So we are in the habit of saying, but it is not an impossibility.

Only a short time ago a woman was tried for witchcraft in a court of law in south Pennsylvania. That was not the name used in the charge that was brought against her, but that was the accusation that was lodged in the minds of every one who was interested in the case, which was tried in a region so thoroughly saturated with traditional superstition that not even the present prosperity and general education can destroy them. Technically the woman was convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses, but actually she was convicted of being a witch—a "hex" doctor who "pow-wowed."

In the home of a prominent lawyer in Camden county there is a hole in the post of a mahogany bedstead filled with salt which witnesses to his belief in witchcraft. At one time he prosecuted a case against an old woman who, when convicted and fined, left the court muttering incantations and vowing vengeance.

That night the lawyer was suddenly attacked with violent pains in the head. The curse had come upon him and he feared the wretched old woman, whom he believed to be responsible for it. Only witchcraft can drive out witchcraft. No doctor of medicine would do in such a case.

A day laborer who was born with a caul over his face was brought in through the back door and taken to the bedroom of the suffering lawyer. The electric lights had been extinguished and a candle flickered at each side of the bed. Looking at the patient through the veil, which he avers is the identical one that he was born with, the "hex" doctor muttered his peculiar ritual, tied a rattlesnake around the sufferer's neck and bored the hole in the northeast leg of the bed, filling it with salt, over which he had chanted incantations. This done, he announced that the evil powers had notified the witch, who lived in a hut at some distance, that she could no longer hold dominion over the body of her enemy, the lawyer. The patient believed that his pains ceased from that hour.

A prosperous merchant in Carlisle permitted the body of his infant child to be covered with a coating of green paint in obedience to the orders of a

"hex" doctor who had been called in to ward off the evil spirits.

A stranger in Carlisle pretended that he had suffered from pain in the stomach which he believed to be due to the evil eye of an old woman of the town who was generally believed to have the ability to exercise this baleful power. A "hex" doctor visited him, and when he thought he had discovered a faith in their mysteries the stranger withdrew and later summoned him to his house, where he was informed that he had discovered that an old witch had made a wax image of the stranger and stuck pins in certain parts of it. Hence the pains.

Could he be cured? asked the patient. The "hex" doctor assured him that his powers were superior to those of the witch and he undertook to prove it. Getting a wax image, he placed it in front of the fireplace, shoved a brass bullet into an old musket-loading pistol and extinguished all the lights but that made by the fire.

The doctor knelt on the floor and the patient was told to hold his hands upon the seat of his pains. The bullet was then fired into the abdomen of the wax figure, while incantations were said, and the man was assured that he was cured. With all truthfulness he could say that he had no more pain and for himself had proved the existence of witchcraft in Pennsylvania in the twentieth century.

Matterhorn of Men.

In the corridor of one of our American high schools two great pictures hang as companions; that crazy peak among mountains—the Matterhorn; that crazy peak among men—Abraham Lincoln.—From Ariadne Gilbert's "More Than Conquerors," in St. Nicholas.

Mercenary.

"What did your audience do when you told them you had never paid a dollar for a vote and never intended to?" Inquired the friend of the candidate running for re-election. "Well, a few applauded, but most of them seemed to lose interest."

He Knew Better.

Newitt—"They say that the person with a strong imagination has absolutely no head for figures." Marryat—"Don't you believe it. When my wife gets her imagination at work upon her age she can make arithmetic look silly."

Modern Student.

"How about your geometry? I want you to do something in that." "Well, it's this way, father. Unless I make a certain percentage in football, they won't let me take the geometry at all."

Place for the Thermometer.

If you have only one thermometer, sacrifice your curiosity as to the outside temperature and hang it in your living room, that you may preserve your health by keeping the room "just warm enough."

Character Told by the Nose.

It is an ancient belief that the nose indicates ancestry. We speak about the aristocratic nose with its high bridge and the plebeian nose of the toiler. Certainly, in a great many cases, race can be distinguished by the nose. The Hebrew could hardly be confused with the typical negro nose. The highly-arched nose is supposed to indicate tendency to rule, and the flattened nose shows servility.

All in the Vision.

Some people think that everything in the world is twisted and corrupt, and that no human being can be trusted. Others who are wiser feel very differently about it. As Ruskin says: "In all things throughout the world, the men who look for the crooked will see the crooked, and the men who look for the straight will see the straight."

Lawn Social Was Great

The lawn social given by the Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church last Friday night was a great success socially if not financially and those who attended are looking forward to more of these social gatherings during the summer.

All during the evening delightful music was rendered by the Brock Church Orchestra on the porch and the spacious residence was also open to the public, the cool rooms offering the ladies a chance for social conversation and getting together.

A huge score board leaning against the house attracted the attention of the people present and upon getting nearer it they discovered $500 and $250 and $100 sections, which interpreted meant that any one who felt disposed could put their name down for that amount and during the evening about $8000 was pledged for the starting of the new building that will soon grace the lot at the corner of Oak avenue and Third street.

The social while not a successful financial venture was a great consolation of the church people of Sanford, as all of them combined in making it a delightful social gathering and the members of the Brotherhood class feel that they have been amply repaid by the generous response of those present and from their humble efforts a great start toward the new church has been made.

FLORIDA COOLEST STATE SANFORD COOLEST CITY BY OFFICIAL FIGURES

A GREAT SURPRISE TO OUR NORTHERN FRIENDS—THE FORMER WINTER RESORT NOW A SUMMER RESORT

ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIAL REGISTER THE STATE OF "SUNSHINE, FRUITS AND FLOWERS" IS THE COOLEST IN THE UNION

Florida is the coolest state in the union in the summer and Sanford is the coolest city in the state. This is proven by the Times Union of Jacksonville in an article in the Sunday edition in which the temperature was taken officially and the following figures given to the public.

Jacksonville's temperature register yesterday was 85; and only two places in the state touched the 90 mark, while all the rest of the country the high nineties and 100 were the rule.

Very little rain was reported from Florida stations, or from any of the rest of the country, and the forecast seemed to indicate clearing or clear weather, where unsettled conditions and local showers had been common during the past week.

Generally fair Sunday with gentle, shifting winds, mostly south over the northern portion of the state, was what was said of today, by the local weather man.

The following are the maximum temperatures reported by Florida stations yesterday:

Table with 2 columns: Station Name and Temperature. Includes Apalachicola (90), Gainesville (84), Jacksonville (85), Key West (88), Miami (88), Madison (86), Marianna (90), Sanford (82), Tampa (86), Titusville (88), Tallahassee (88).

Postmaster Too Old

Representative Sparkman, bids to his great regret, that Postmaster General Burleson will not consent to the appointment of his friend, Captain James McKay, as postmaster of Tampa.

Captain McKay is very popular, but he is seventy-four years old, and the Postmaster General feels him out on that account.

sections of the country, the area of precipitation during the last twenty-four hours being confined mostly to the northeast with a narrow belt of precipitation from South Dakota westward to the Pacific slope. Fair weather prevails over practically the entire southern section, and particularly over the cotton belt.

Temperatures are higher over central and southern sections of the country, but cooler weather prevails over the northeast and Great Lakes region, which is under the influence of an area of high barometer. Over Florida the temperature at 7 a. m. was 80 degrees, and practically the same temperature prevailed on the immediate Gulf coast westward to Texas.

The winds are light and variable on the lower coasts. Conditions favor generally fair weather over this section tonight and Sunday; light variable winds, mostly southerly.

SANFORD'S CANNING FACTORY

Will Put Up Fruits, Vegetables, Kraut, Turtle and Clam Soups

The Herald has set forth the advantages of a canning factory in the Sanford section for many years and at last one man at least has seen the advisability of having a canning factory here where so many fruits and vegetables, fish and clams can be had and where so much is wasted every year that could be canned and sold afterward.

A. Buch, the manager of the Seminole Fish Co., has a place in the Lesser building and for some time has been in the fish and produce business, but being an expert cannor he has been keeping his eyes open to the possibilities of this business in Sanford and will soon have a most complete outfit for the canning of all kinds of fruits and vegetables as well as sour kraut, turtle soups and coquina clam soup that is the delight of the epicure and makes the weak strong.

There are so many tomatoes that go to rot each year in the fields here that Mr. Buch ought to get all he wants merely for the picking and they can be put up at a nominal cost and sold back to the trade at a reasonable price. Turtles are plentiful, both the soft shell and the green sea turtles and the coquina clams are most plentiful on the coast.

Mr. Buch, who is a German and knows about sour kraut has an idea that a can of good sour kraut with a few walnuts in them will tempt the appetite of any one and he has a special ran of this kind that will prove most popular with the trade.

FLORIDA LEADS AGAIN

Fuller's Earth Comes in Great Quantity From Florida

Washington, June 23.—Another distinction has come to the state of Florida. In a bulletin on "The Production of Fuller's Earth in 1913" the United States Geological Survey says:

"Florida is the leading fuller's earth producing state, having reported for 1913 over two-thirds of the marketed output of the entire country."

Florida is first in the production of pineapples, first in the production of long staple cotton, first in the production of naval stores, first in the production of cigars manufactured from Cuban tobacco, and now it is officially accorded first rank in the production of fuller's earth.

The bulletin deals interestingly with the subject, saying in part:

"The original use of fuller's earth, from which it obtains its name, was in fulling of cloth. But little is now used in the country for that purpose. The principal use being in the bleaching, clarifying or filtering of fats, greases and oils. It is also used in the manufacture of pigments for printing wall papers, for the detection of certain coloring matters in some food products, and as a substitute for talcum powder. The common practice with mineral oils is to dry the earth carefully, after which it is ground to suitable sizes and run into long cylinders, through which the crude, black mineral oils are allowed to percolate slowly. As a result, the oil that first comes out is perfectly water white, and much thinner than that which follows. The oil allowed to continue percolating through the earth until the liquid through the earth until he color reaches a certain maximum shade.

With the vegetable oils the process is radically different. The oil is heated in large tanks beyond the boiling point of water; from 8 to 10 per cent of its weight of fuller's earth is then added; and the mixture is vigorously stirred and then filtered off through bag filters. The coloring matter remains with the earth, the filtered oil being of a pale straw color, providing the operation has been conducted with sufficient care.

"Fuller's earth was first discovered in the United States in 1891 near Alexander, Ark., by John Lisen, who is still a producer. This earth was used for a time by the Southern Cotton Oil Company, at Little Rock, but its use was finally abandoned. In 1893 fuller's earth was discovered near Quincy, Fla., by accident. An effort was made to burn brick on the property of the Owl Cigar Company; the effort failed, but an employee of the company called attention to the close resemblance of the clay used to the German fuller's earth. In consequence of this discovery there was considerable excitement and supposed deposits of fuller's earth were reported from a number of states. The material in the most of these deposits was found to be of no value as fuller's earth.

"From the inception of the industry Florida has been the leading producer state. At first the production was only two or three states. In 1897-1899 it was reported from Florida, Colorado and New York, with a very small proportion from Utah; in 1901 Arkansas was added to the list. From 1904 to 1907 Arkansas was the second largest producer. Fuller's earth was found in Georgia soon after its discovery in Florida, but Georgia did not appear as a producer until 1907. When it was the third largest producing state it has ranked second since 1909. In 1904 Alabama and Massachusetts, and in 1907 South Carolina and Texas are reported production; in 1909 California entered the list."

Ball Game Thursday

There will be some ball playing next Thursday at Holden Park when the Braves from Winter Park will come up to take the scalps of the Celery Growers and the ball fans should be out in force to see the game and encourage the home team. Much of the success of the season depends upon the attendance and so far this season there has not been the crowd at the games that the boys would like to see. Let every one come out on Thursday and help the boys not only financially but with your presence. They are endeavoring to give Sanford some good amateur ball and they should receive better support.

THE PEACE MAKERS TAKE NEW TACK IN MEXICAN TANGLE

WILL MAKE AN EFFORT TO PREVENT THE REGULAR DEADLOCK

CARRANZA'S AID WILL BE SOUGHT

NEW SUGGESTIONS TO EMBRACE SEPARATE PLANS FOR THE CONSTITUTIONALISTS

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 23.—The South American mediators today proposed a new course of action, which not only will prolong mediation proceedings, but eventually may work out a solution of the Mexican problem.

The nature of the plan, designed to prevent the deadlock between the American and Mexican delegates from abruptly ending the conference, has been more closely guarded than anything that has transpired at the conference.

It became known, however, that another effort was being made to bring the constitutionalists into close touch with the purposes of mediation without formally admitting them. The suggestion contemplates separate conferences between the American delegates and representatives of the constitutionalists. Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Latham would continue their dealings with the Huerta delegates through the mediation board. In this way all elements in the Mexican situation would be drawn together and there would be no necessity for the declaration of an armistice until some argument was reached and approved by the constitutionalists. The plan was said to be a result of the visit of Minister Naon of Argentina, to Washington, where President Wilson is said to have emphasized the written statement of Justice Lamar that any agreement not approved by the constitutionalists would be "a paper agreement," and would not accomplish the sole purpose of the United States, which is the pacification of Mexico.

Juniors Have Outing

The Junior Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church here were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Howard Swartz on Silver Lake, some three miles south of Sanford. The greater portion of the party went out in a large wagon filled with straw; others went in automobiles, while still more enthusiasts went in private conveyances. Each of the party carried a well filled lunch basket and upon arrival proceeded to take full charge of Mr. Swartz's home. Silver Lake has a splendid sandy bottom, thus making it an ideal bathing place, there being private docks along its shores. The party hurriedly donned their aquatic clothing and proceeded to disport themselves in placid waters of the lake. Mrs. Richard C. Maxwell was given the prize for high diving. Mrs. C. P. Paxton took the award for the greatest long distance swimmer. Mrs. Graham was given a prize for being able to remain under the water longer than any one. Esiah Furdon, Lillian Herring and Lillian Gibson swam a draw swim for a box of chocolates and will have to do the whole stunt over. Francis Dutton and Junior Dutton, a couple of tots who reside near the lake were given the prize for being the best all around swimmers in either deep or shallow water.

After the swimming contest had been completed the party repaired to headquarters where the feast had been spread, coffee made and lemonade built, and the damage done to the cats proved to be total in its demoralizing effects.

The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. T. K. Bates, Mrs. Paxton and Mrs. Graham. The young ladies were Misses May Doyle, Lillian C. Gibson, Alice D. Whitner, Mabel C. Bowler of Jacksonville, Mel H. Whitner, Lettie Caldwell, Lucy C. Whitner, Lillian B. Herring, Esiah Furdon, Annie Whitner, Esther Woodburn, Murial Harrold, Geyne Roberts, Frances Aspinwall, Virginia Smith, Frances Leavitt and Frances Dutton. The young men were Edwin Chittenden, W. J. Thielen, Edward M. Gills, Robert Dean, E. D. Rowley, M. G. Davis, Howard Swartz and Junior Dutton.
