

Former Sanford Brothers Return After 60 Years

Two former Sanford citizens who went to school here in the early 90s and made in Texas in the horse and buggy days were recently much surprised at the growth and size of the city when they stopped over here Sunday to talk to J. A. Takach, an old friend.

The two, Alfred and Perry Pronger of Stratford, Texas, who are in the cattle business, are sons of a former deputy sheriff of Sanford, late E. Pronger, and arrived here Sunday en route to St. Petersburg where they are spending the winter. They had left here with their father about 1890 to take up ranching in Texas.

They had with them an old clipping from the Gate City Chronicle, published in Sanford on May 26, 1893. At the time T. Applegate was editor and publisher and W. James was associate editor. The clipping revealed the following story about Deputy Sheriff Pronger:

"Deputy Sheriff E. Pronger, of this city, on Saturday night last was recipient of a very neat and handsome present. During the evening he was invited to call at the office of Justice H. S. Adams, and went, as he supposed, on official business. Upon arriving there he was surprised to find sixty or seventy of his friends assembled, with some definite purpose in their minds, which was soon made apparent when Judge Welborne, who occupied the Chair, arose and explained the object of the meeting.

"It then appeared that in appreciation of the official services of Mr. Pronger, that his friends were about to present him a beautiful solid silver badge. The presentation of which was accompanied by appropriate speeches from Judge Welborne and several of the company. The medal is a circular badge, surmounted by an eagle with extended wings, while in the center is a shield and coat of arms of the United States. Inlaid around the shield are the words, 'E. Pronger, Deputy Sheriff of Orange County.' The medal is about one and a half inches in diameter, and is a gift both fitting and ornamental, as it has been well earned in the faithful discharge of duty."

Porter Lansing

A certified project of the late Edward Higgins during his service as manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, the Herald Colonist of the State Chamber of Commerce, will address the meeting with the subject, "Interest in Wildlife." Another leading speaker will be Francis White of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, who will talk at the initial session starting at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night.

A second session will be held starting at 9:00 o'clock Sunday morning and the third session will be conducted from 1:30 P. M. to 4:30 P. M. During the latter session Marion Harman of Sanford will talk on "Public Relations and Publicity" and Mr. Lansing will make his report.

Mrs. Ekern stated today that she is well pleased with her office in the former Chamber of Commerce headquarters here, and pointed out that the central location of Sanford makes it convenient to attend meetings in various parts of the state.

All equipment from the former office in St. Petersburg has been transferred here including filing cabinets, a mimeograph machine and a wire recorder.

plot containing 20,000 square feet. The property is ideally located and offers unusual opportunities for development. The neighborhood is improving. The idea is any showplace. Even the Germans never thought that.

They bought the place, second hand, in 1893. Since then several additions have been made. The larger embassies are located.

Except for a caretaker, the place has been vacant since Dec. 19, 1941. That's the date Charge D'Affaires Hans Thomsen and 300 helpers were moved to Internment at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Incidentally, Senator Langer (R-ND) has protested the sale of the embassy. He says it should be saved for the German representatives who will come here.

The sale, he told the Senate, will bring bowls of glass from Communists.

But a State Department man who looked the old building over said a superior "it's a horrible place to live in."

He said the furniture has been sold, the plumbing is in bad shape, and the whole thing is a mess.

That joy, beauty, healing, and harmony inevitably follow man's willingness to leave a material basis of thinking and accept government by God, divine Principle, is the central theme of Christian Science services next Sunday, when the subject is "Soul."

The Golden Text: "Truly my soul waiteth upon God; for my soul saveth my salvation" is from Psalms (62).
Included among citations from the Bible (King James Version) is the following from Isaiah 55: 6, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near."

Isaiah's admonition is amplified in this statement from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, in the Lesson: "It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony. Truth will at length compel us all to exchange the measure, and use all to exchange for the joys of Soul" (p. 300).

Korean War

called the Chinese may have shifted much of their strength to the area north and northwest of Chechon.

They struggled over some of the highest ridges on the backbone of the peninsula to apply reinforced pressure to Chechon, 14 miles southeast of the major road hub of Wonju.

A South Korean regiment was ready for them at one point. There the Chinese met stern resistance 10 miles north of Chechon. First reports indicated more than 2,000 Chinese were being held off.

The flanking development came after a ship-down battle at Chipping, 20 air miles northwest of Wonju. Allied reinforcements bolstered the finger-in-the-dike force of French and Americans at Chipping that hadly crippled three Chinese divisions in checking the main Red push on the central front earlier this week.

To the east of Chipping, an American-Dutch force stood off mauling Red forces above Wonju. Chinese divisions in checking the main Red push on the central front earlier this week.

But a menacing build-up of Chinese war and Korean reports was reported in the hills and valleys above the central front—the area beyond Chipping and Wonju.

AP correspondent John Randolph reported Eighth Army intelligence estimated the Red strength at five Army corps.

A Chinese army corps consists of three divisions, of from 6,000 to 10,000 men in each division. Hence, up to 150,000 troops could be massing for a new onslaught.

Southeast of Chipping, were some 2,000 Reds had forged the last link in a long, around the hilly ridge town, Hirth, Scottish and Australian troops ran into a hot fight and failed to reach Chipping.

However, tank-led American troops were more than 20,000 French and American doughboys who had put up one of the greatest battles of the war to whip superior odds.

Littered between Chipping and Wonju were more than 20,000 enemy casualties inflicted in four days by the central front defenders and the more than 1,000 sorties of Allied planes against them Thursday.

Spontaneous fighting was reported on the central front Friday. Correspondent Randolph said during the night Allied troops heard the Chinese digging in. Intelligence reports indicated the battered Reds were regrouping.

Allied troops in the west still held port Inchon, Yongdungpo and Kimpo airport in the Seoul area. The ravaged South Korean capital itself was under artillery fire from U. N. guns south of the winding Han River.

military situation.

British reluctantly agreed when the U. N. force first crossed the former dividing line between North and South Korea last fall.

Many British officials believe that crossing of the Parallel, coupled with MacArthur's northward drive, were the direct causes of Red Chinese intervention in Korea.

Meanwhile officials at General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo expressed gratification that President Truman had cleared "muddy waters" concerning a military crossing of the 38th Parallel in Korea.

The President told his news conference Thursday that General MacArthur still has authority to decide whether to thrust north of the political boundary.

Key officers here said there never has been any doubt of that the United Nations approved the first drive across 28 by Allied forces and this directive has not been altered, they said.

The statements also declined to express any opinion on whether there had been no official overtures to headquarters to halt U. N. forces south of the Parallel. They described the recent flurry of discussion on this question as an unofficial campaign conducted largely by the British before contributing American forces, would dissipate the opportunity of this time interval and damage Western Europe's morale.

To follow a policy of acting Western Europe into a mood of only after an attack would plunge non-resistance—"a mood of 'neutrality' which is, for them and for all of us, a short cut to suicide."

Before the Senate committee is a resolution by Senator Wherry (R-Neb) which would record the Senate as opposed to sending of U. S. troops to Europe without congressional approval.

Administration leaders in Congress are aiming to substitute some sort of resolution approving the dispatch of troops.

Acheson, wearing a gray suit set off by a red-figured blue tie, appeared before the committee with a prepared statement which outlined his general argument.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the combined committee rapped his gavel and told him to start.

"I suppose you now the subject matter before us," Connally said Wherry, Wherry resolution.

A crowd, which started gathering in the hall, can be seen in the opening, crowded the 300-seat Senate caucus room.

News reel and television cameras began grinding away as Acheson, in his usual clipped voice, read his statement.

the price freeze.

Ellis, business agent of the union's central Massachusetts joint board, said the company had 75 days in which to prepare for contract negotiations and met "only three times" with union chief.

Robert Montgomery, counsel for the American Woolen Company, answered Ellis in this way:

"The company did not want the union to raise the price freeze. We didn't want it. The price freeze has only this to do with it—it makes uncertain the amount we could afford in increases. If we don't get relief on price ceilings we would have to operate at a loss in our civilian department."

The view here was that President Truman had considered it time to clarify the situation.

General MacArthur pointed out in a statement Tuesday that talk of crossing 38 is "purely academic." The reason was military not political, he said.

The general in a special tactical statement, then, might be "scattered patrol action" across the boundary but that "we must materially reduce the existing superiority of our Chinese Communist enemy before we can seriously consider conducting major operations north of that geographic line."

Three days earlier Army officials had announced that Republic of Korea (ROK) forces had pushed five miles north of 38 on the east coast, capturing Yangyang, five miles from the line. Subsequently military authorities retracted the announcement.

It was known here that the ROK forces at that time were in position to cross the line and unofficially it was believed likely they had done so. The belief was expressed in military circles but never confirmed that denial of the crossing was made in order to quiet possible repercussions from British leaders.

ROK Marines landed Wednesday on the two islands in Wonsan Bay about 80 miles north of 38. Although the operation appeared much smaller than first reported, it did carry the war far north of the parallel again.

stabilization program to a crisis point. Many officials fear that unions will not support the formula so long as their representatives on the board withhold approval. The possibility of a pro-union-cripping wave of strikes thus lay ahead.

One aide said Johnston plans to give "very careful, very thorough" study to the formula, with the help of his special assistant on labor problems, George M. Harrison.

The wage board voted 6 to 3 for the order which would restrict wage boosts to 10 percent between Jan. 16, 1950 and next received such a boost would be free to bargain for up to that amount.

But the three labor members of the labor-industry-public board withdrew after the vote early this morning, denouncing the formula as being "unfair and unworkable."

Under the majority's proposed formula, workers who had already had their pay boosted 4 percent since Jan. 15, 1950, for example, would be held to a 2 per cent boost until July 1.

DES MOINES, Feb. 15—(AP)—Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle made a bid today for farmers' cooperation in controlling prices and battling inflation.

He backed his bid with this stiff warning:

"But should the next two or three months indicate that the parity concept interferes with our efforts to secure economic stability, we shall have no other course than to recommend its modification."

Parity is the formula set by law to assure the farmer gets enough from the sale of his products to give him a fair break on the things he has to buy. Parity of farm commodities below parity were exempt from the recent government freeze.

Recalling this and other government moves aimed at stabilizing the farm economy, DiSalle said in a speech prepared for the National Farm Institute:

"But the very reasons that make agricultural products vital to the national strength and security also make it inevitable that in time of national emergency, when governmental controls are applied to the WASHINGTON, Feb. 15—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today compared Russian and American atomic potentials now as like those of a ".38" gun to a ".58" caliber revolver.

Senator Green (D-RI) had asked Acheson to explain a statement he made before Senate committee that land forces are needed in Europe to counter the threat of Soviet aggression "after our atomic advantage has diminished."

The Secretary said the American-Soviet positions now could be illustrated by supposing that he and Senator Green standing close to each other and I was pointing a .38 at you and you were pointing a .58 at me.

"However, if we were standing close together and I was pointing a .45 at me, the advantage has declined," Acheson said. Everybody laughed.

Kefauver said his committee had information that four companies, of which members of the Sax family are officers, do over $1,000,000 worth of business each annually selling punchboards and related devices. Brookfield agreed that sounded right.

Brookfield, however, said the Federal Trade Commission has no up-to-date records showing that George Sax is an officer or otherwise connected with any of these four companies.

He testified that he had records showing that in 1938 a George Sax was an officer of Gam Sales Co. in Peoria, Ill., which he identified as a company making par games, football and basketball tickets and "other forms of gambling devices."

Allied Forces Win Victory On Central Front

Massed Chinese Reds Prevent Crossing Of 38th Parallel, Ridgeway Declares

WESTERN FRONT, Korea, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Battle-worn American troops on the Korean front will be taken out of the lines and replaced by fresh soldiers from the United States, General Mark W. Clark said today. Clark, chief of the Army field force who is now leading the Korean front, said the replacement was "in the mill" and would be announced soon. He said a stepped-up training program is in progress in the United States to bring relief to weary veterans of the Korean war, who have been overseas for a long period. He gave no details.

TOKYO, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Counter-attacking Americans smashed four miles into the heart of a Korean Red stronghold in east-central Korea today. Hundreds of Communists were killed.

On the central and western fronts, the badly mauled Chinese withdrew from the battlelines.

Lt. General Matthew B. Ridgeway said his Allied forces had won a decisive victory on these fronts. But he said the Chinese Reds have enough massed troops to prevent a successful Allied crossing north of Parallel 38 if the Reds commit them.

Split In Italian Communist Party Spreads Rapidly

ROME, Feb. 19.—(AP)—New reports of Communist Party splits today were reported. The party is split into two groups, one of which is the Communist Party of Italy, the other the Communist Party of Italy (Proletarian).

From Gravina, Apulia, press reports said 220 Communist and pro-Red Socialist handed their party cards to the local secretary of the Christian Democrat (anti-Communist) Party. The reports said all asked to join the Christian Democrats.

The group included members of the Communist Party, members of the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGIL), and the Red sponsored National Partisans Association.

Nine Communist Party members handed their cards to the Christian Democrat secretary in Calabria, southern Italy. They said they "did not want to belong to organizations sponsoring the invasion of Italy by Soviet troops."

The rift in the ranks of the Italian Communist Party—biggest since the Iron Curtain—developed with the resignation on Jan. 26 of Communist deputies Valdo Magnani and Aldo Cucchì in northern Italy.

The two deputies quit because their fellow Communist members had declared opposition to invasion of Italian soil by Soviet Russia.

In eastern Emilia, south of the Po River, 20 former Partisans reported they had bolted the Communist Party for their abuse against the two heroes of the resistance, Magnani and Cucchì.

Williams Bribery Trial Postponed

BARTOW, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The trial of Frank Williams, ex-Polk county sheriff on charges of taking graft from gambling today was postponed until Feb. 23 because of the illness of a defense attorney.

Criminal court Judge William T. Kennedy announced the postponement just as court opened. Wallace Shafer, one of Williams' attorneys, is ill.

Williams is accused of taking $2,000 monthly in graft from 10 gamblers.

Charged with the armed sheriff on the same case are Edward Glover, a former Polk county mill-tor and Williams' attorney before his arrest, and Fern Sapperton, charged with being a go-between for Williams.

JOBLESS BENEFITS TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 19.—(Special)—Unemployment Compensation payments recorded during the week ending Feb. 13, showed the smallest decrease in the last four weeks, according to the Florida Industrial Commission weekly release.

Payments revealed a decline of $2.11 during the week, falling from $1.11 in the previous week. The total of $120 during the week ending Feb. 13, according to the report.

Diplomats Claim Stalin Tirade Will Tighten Bonds Of Western Nations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Diplomatic officials predicted today that Premier Stalin's blast at the United Nations and the free world generally will backfire in three ways.

These authorities speculated that it may have these effects:

1. To tighten up, rather than divide, the West in its determination to build military strength against Soviet expansion because, despite his avowals of seeking peace, the overall tone of what Stalin said was tough and uncompromising.

2. Inside Russia where Stalin's words are universally read, reread and debated for months or years, his descriptions of the army of nations against the Communist bloc—though not so intended—may give the Russian people a new sense of what they are up against.

The State Department's reply Saturday night, mildly denouncing the Stalin comments as "misstatements," expressed hope that Stalin's attack on the United Nations and all U. N. members who voted against the Communist in Korea will awaken the Soviet people to the dangerous road down which they are being led.

3. Stalin's personal prestige has now become involved in Russia's diplomatic and propaganda battle more directly than ever before. Previously he had held aloof from the East-West conflict in most of his public pronouncements.

The State Department opened an attack on this point last night. Its "Voice of America" began telling the world Stalin had taken over from "puppets and stooges" the task of propagandizing with "fake charges and claims."

The "Voice" broadcast added that Stalin "has now put himself on record and on trial before the world by availing his own name to the Soviet diabolism."

The mere fact that the official mouthpiece of American government would make such a personal thrust at the chief of the Soviet bloc (Continued On Page Six)

MAXWELL AIR FORCE BASE, Ala., Feb. 19.—(Special)—7 Sgt. Riley W. Slater of Chulotua, Fla. was ordered to active military service with the Air Force. It was announced here today by Col. Leslie G. Muiser, Maxwell commander.

Sgt. Slater, who married the former Miss Virley Mae Chalker of Chulotua, has been assigned to Elm Air Force Base, Fla. He entered the Air Force for the first time in 1941.

Military Bear Baiting Gives Allies Victory In Bloody Chipyong Battle

TOKYO, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Military bear-baiting has given the Allies a brilliant local victory in Korea.

U. N. forces smashed a Communist attack on the central front, piling up tens of thousands of dead or wounded. The Allied cost was comparatively light.

The Red attack was provoked by American commanders under circumstances similar to the first big battle with the Chinese last November.

It required a delicate and risky military maneuver—setting off an enemy trap without getting caught in it.

The campaign actually began late in January when Allied forces began gingerly reaching northward of Seoul toward the frozen Han River. This started on a limited offensive which was to be pushed only until enemy opposition stiffened.

It was apparent then, say American officers, that the Communists were building up strength for a new thrust.

As the U. N. offensive ground forward, the resistance continued to be relatively light in the west. The Han River was reached, Kimsu Airfield and Yangju were on the edge of being captured with relative ease. It was the port of Inboon.

While the Reds showed some fight in that area, it was not proportionate to the defenses originally expected or those that would be anticipated if they had been anticipated. (Continued On Page Six)

Sanford National Guard Company Is First In Training

Local Unit Practices Field Maneuvers In Weekend Sessions

Sanford's National Guard company got into action during the weekend with some really intensive training into which the members of the 124th Regiment and Major General J. C. Hutchison, the 49th Division commanded by the first unit of the Third Battalion to start this program this year. A series of five more week-ends will be spent in this training.

The program opened with four hours of drill at the Army on Saturday night. This, however, was not a routine drill but a tactical drill. The 49th Division is now in the field.

The sum was just about up Sunday morning when the men left in trucks for a joint meet at Osteen. (Continued On Page Six)

Chulotua Ranch Sold By S. F. Long

A real estate transaction that marks the growing importance of cattle raising in Seminole County was the recent sale of $115,000 of a 2,000-acre ranch near Chulotua by Sam F. Long in Clifford A. Cochran of New Salem, N.Y., and several associates.

The area contains fine grazing land which has been improved by bulldozing, clearing of stumps and planting of improved types of grass. Mr. Cochran, a breeder of show cattle in New York state, is reported to be planning to stock the ranch with his own cattle. His associates are from Texas, Colorado and New Mexico.

Mr. Long, a well known cattle grower of this section, is in turn planning to transfer his cattle to his Weirsdale ranch.

Army Considers Massive Change-Over To Better Rifles And Machineguns

By ELTON C. FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The Army is considering changing over to new and better models of two of its most widely used weapons—machine guns and rifles.

The decision isn't easy. And if made, the transition undoubtedly will be a slow, steady process taking years instead of a sudden tossing away of existing weapons and picking up of new ones.

In the instance of machine guns, the Army has hundreds of thousands of caliber .30 and .50. Its rifles, automatics and carbines number in the millions.

The cost of a shift to new and better arms is only one factor. It would mean not only that production lines for guns would have to be stopped and new ones set up, but facilities for entirely new types of ammunition production, on mass scale, would have to be provided.

The Army showed experimental types of the machine gun and rifle to President Truman over the weekend in a demonstration ground where it also presented for him shows for other new ordnance materials, including tanks.

It is considering adoption of a .50 caliber machine gun somewhat lighter and easier to handle than anything used now. Experimental types of this gun are not new. Army ordnance produced the first ones during World War II for the Air Force, then part of the Army. It contemplated their use in aircraft. Since then improvements have been made on the experimental models and "Bugs" removed from their performance so that now they appear about ready for production.

Among the advantages of the .50 caliber machine gun are two directly related to the problem of modern fast jet planes—a high rate of fire and a velocity which gets the bullet to the target faster. These are important to the Army because ground force must defend themselves against air attack. The heavy, fixed type of .50 caliber machine gun used by the Army has a rate of fire of about 50 to 70 rounds per minute. The .50 caliber gun has a normal rate of (Continued On Page Six)

Parolee Was Found Guilty Of Robbery Here 3 Years Ago

Donald S. E. Beard.

With Hubbuck was a 35 year old Orlando brunette, Mrs. Amy Bachala, who was arrested with him in a Tampa boarding house room where the couple were staying was found lost valued at more than $1,000. Farmers Advised To Develop Well Rounded Program

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 19.—(Special)—With impending forecasts of freezing weather continuing to threaten Florida's citrus crops, should they replanting become necessary, it would appear to be a wise move for Florida farmers to consider carefully a well rounded self-sustaining farm program. Such a program might mean the possibility of less financial loss in the long run. The farmer who replant, the more serious competition our growers are likely to face in neighboring states. Just now, with mild weather reported in most areas, Florida growers are contemplating a fairly good spring deal. William L. Wilson, Director, said today in reporting the activities on the Florida State Farmers' Markets.

Reports of individual markets follow:

"King Cabbage" still leads the parade on the Sanford State Farmers' Market with 50 pound bags ranging in price from $5.75 to $6.25. Trainmen Fined $75 Thousand On Contempt Charge

Union Pleads Guilty To Violation Of Strike Injunction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Labor union leaders made a deal today before President Truman today their quarrel with the government's mobilization chief. The controversy has threatened to tie up the whole defense program. The White House announced the union leaders, including AFL President William Green, asked for and got an appointment to see Mr. Truman at 11 A. M. on the problem. This would be about two hours after a scheduled meeting of the United Labor Policy Committee representing the AFL, CIO and 15 rail unions—to discuss again its complaint that labor is not getting a fair break in the mobilization set up.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen pleaded guilty to contempt of court today in the record book of the federal court and was fined $75,000.

Federal Judge Edward A. Linn ordered the fine in U. S. District Court here immediately after the guilty plea.

He said he was fining the union $50,000 for criminal contempt as a "punitive" penalty for the strikes which occurred despite Army operation of the railroad.

The other $25,000 for civil contempt was intended to compensate the government for the cost of bringing the legal proceedings against the union.

Judge Linn said it would require "a firm of accountants working for years" to determine the actual damages suffered by the public in delayed service, missed connections or the blocking of shipments of munitions and supplies to Korea.

The union already had drawn a $25,000 fine in a parallel case before Federal Judge Linn in Chicago. That verdict is being appealed.

Another such charge also had been filed by the government in Cleveland union headquarters. Judge Linn today said that in (Continued On Page Six)

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

The great heart of the Infinite yearns for beautiful children. He would like very much to adopt you, but you must not disgrace your foster parent. Ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.—Rom. 8:15.

Speaking of drafting 18 year olds, we see where Cpl. James E. Horton of Columbus, Ga. has started his second hitch in the Army at the age of 17.

Congratulations to Frank S. Wright, Governor Warren's chief assistant, upon returning to his old job as a public relations director in Miami.

The United States plans to send only four new divisions to Europe, it is reliably reported. That is to say, only enough to get ourselves inextricably involved in case hostilities break out.

Britain's socialistic government has taken over the prosperous steel industry. It will be interesting to see how long it continues to make a profit, and who will foot the bill if it doesn't.

From B. G. S. comes a suggestion that the Democrats have decided to insert four new words in their time worn campaign slogan for 1952: "Don't sway horses, or any part thereof, in the middle of the stream."

It is conceivable that just as Doyle Carlton road into the governor's office in 1928 on the rear end of a Highway Department Ford, so some enterprising gubernatorial prospect in 1952 may ride into office in a $700 Supreme Court chair, with his feet propped up on a $2,000 desk, which was never delivered, flicking his cigar ashes into a $24 waste paper basket.

The inevitable force of circumstances seems to be compelling the hospital to return, with some 40 odd patients from the commodious quarters at the Naval Air Station to the old Fernald Lighthouse Hospital on Oak Avenue where only 25 or 30 can be provided with beds, at the very time when the Civilian Defense Administration is advocating preparations by all hospitals to provide many additional beds for possible casualties in case of enemy air raids or invasion attempts against our coasts.

There is no accounting for the language of diplomacy. Secretary of State Acheson says that if the Communists attack Yugoslavia they would "dangerously strain the fabric of world peace." Now what does he mean by that? Does he mean that United States would stand idly by and watch Yugoslavia murdered, as he said we would do with respect to Korea before the Reds attacked there? Or does he mean that we would go to Tito's aid as we actually did to Korea? We have an idea that if our diplomats somehow could eliminate much of their double talk, a better basis for world peace and understanding might be found.

Prime Minister Joe Stalin's interview in Pravda is just one more indication, if any more is needed, of the inevitability of war. Mr. Stalin does not consider war inevitable, he says. All the West has got to do is to surrender without a fight and there will be no war. He concludes that the West might do just that, and therefore he is not worried. But if you do not surrender, he says, you will have to fight. He says that the United States will fight with China, and that World War will be made. He says that he is not worried.

Fate Of A Great Party

Clement Davies, not generally known to fame, was brought to notice recently when he became ill in England's flu epidemic. He is the leader of the tiny band of nine Liberals who make up this once great party's representation in the British House of Commons. Repeated elections have reduced the party almost to the vanishing point, yet not so many years ago it was the most powerful in all England.

Starting as the Whig party, the Liberals assumed their present name about 1834. They were identified with extension of the suffrage, limitation of the veto power of the House of Lords, disestablishment of state churches in Ireland and Wales, and Irish Home Rule. William E. Gladstone, four times Liberal premier, is one of the great names in English parliamentary history. His successor, Herbert H. Asquith, headed from 1906 to 1914 perhaps the ablest cabinet in modern British history.

World War I and the ambitions of one man, David Lloyd George, killed the Liberals. Lloyd George became premier in 1916 because Asquith seemed to be too leisurely in his conduct of the war. He allied himself with the Conservatives and split the Liberal party into fragments. The rise of the Labor party coincided, and soon Labor replaced the Liberals as one of the two great parties. The Liberals have survived and nothing more. Evidently there is a place for parties definitely of the right and left, but not for middle-of-the-roads.

Sometimes American parties have seemed dangerously weak, as the Democrats in the 1920's and the Republicans in the 1930's. Yet strong local organizations, based on patronage, have carried them through, so that now both seem safe for the present from the fatal weakness that killed the English Liberals.

Kidd's Treasure

A good way to get rich, if it would only work, would be to find Captain Kidd's treasure. James Brownlie, an Englishman, plans to look in the South China Sea region, whereas most previous attempts have been within the territorial boundaries of the United States.

This most famous of all pirates was really a lawful privateer, authorized by the British government to prey on Spanish commerce. In the process he made enemies, who in 1701 succeeded in getting him hanged for piracy at London's Execution Dock. His treasure, if any, is supposed to have been given away or lost before his death.

No true enthusiast will believe that, however. Hunts for Captain Kidd's gold go on periodically. At one time the Penobscot River in Maine was a favorite place for digging, chiefly because some Spanish coins were once found there. Treasure hunters, according to tradition, must observe one rule, that of silence. Tales are many of diggers who actually found the money and were hauling it to the surface when an involuntary cry of exultation caused the desired prize to sink out of sight forever. Brownlie probably will bear this experience in mind.

Portrait Of Gloom

"The President has called for 500,000 more victims. On the fifth of September half a million men are to be drafted. Let the women buy mourning goods now, for in a month or so there will not be enough money in this country to use for that purpose. Patriotism is sick! The nation is discouraged. Half the men sent here have been lost to us in the country. It is now revolt, Canada or fight! Let us see what the people will do. Continue this administration in power, and we can all go to war, Canada or to hell."

This sounds like an extreme example of what some public men and commentators are saying now. Actually, it comes from the La Crosse, Wis., Democrat for 1864, quoted by R. S. Harper in "Lincoln and the Press," and the President referred to was Abraham Lincoln.

Diplomats Declare

(Continued From Page One) state showed both the governments estimate of the extent of which Stalin had led with his chin and the advanced state of deterioration in relations between the Soviet Union and the United States. Great Britain also replied to the Stalin attack over the weekend, accusing Russia of using the "threat of overwhelming force" and "aggressive and subversive policies throughout the world" to prevent peace.

London, in a point-by-point review of East-West tensions since the Potsdam agreement by sealing off the Soviet zone of Germany and of supporting in the U. N. the "unprovoked aggression" of North Korea and intervention in the Korean war by the Chinese Communists.

Aside from the propaganda aspects, there was a tendency among officials here to regard Stalin's statement as generally brackening the world's prospects. His personal assumption of leadership in the Soviet attack on the U. N., and his insistence that the Korean war not be settled on China's terms or not at all appeared to offer no encouragement to those who might still hope that Russia would be in a compromising mood at any early Big Four meeting.

This toughness plus Stalin's bitter criticisms of British Prime Minister Attlee brought the initial reaction in Paris that the chances for the Big Four meeting had decreased. Diplomats here expected the British, even those critical of Attlee's policies, would rally to him in the circumstances.

Negotiations for East-West talks have reached the point now where the western powers are due to send another note to Moscow. The proposed draft was dispatched by the State Department to Paris and London Friday for approval, expected to be swift.

Newsprint Firms Consider Locating 2 Plants In South

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 18.—Two large newsprint manufacturing firms are considering building plants in the southeast, the board of directors of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association was told last night.

The report was made at a dinner meeting of SNPA directors by George C. Biggers, president of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Company and chairman of the Association's Newsprint Mill Committee.

Biggers did not reveal names of the firms which have southeastern plants under consideration. He said, however, that one has been making a survey of timber tracts for several weeks and the other will begin such surveys shortly.

In discussing the newsprint situation generally, Biggers said "There is no sign of let-up in demand and production is not keeping pace."

Consumption in the United States last year was 5,939,941 tons some 21,717 tons shorter than the supply, he reported. Consumption above the supply came from reserve stocks of publishers. Biggers added the Newsprint Association of Canada estimates U. S. supply for 1951 at 5,920,000 tons.

There are a number of prospects for new mills, he said, "but newsprint from any one, if priorities were obtained and construction started now, could not be expected before 1953."

The only mill now under construction is the Elk Falls company plant at Duncan Bay, British Columbia, he reported. This mill is expected to produce 95,000 tons starting in 1952.

Biggers said a quick personal check among larger southern daily newspapers indicated they would be glad to contract for an additional 75,000 tons of newsprint for the next 12 years if the supply were available.

The annual mid-winter meeting of the SNPA's board of directors was scheduled today. Biggers said he would attend and that the meeting would be held in the South.

PAIN IN THE NECK

Korean War

(Continued From Page One) bridgehead on the north bank of the Han River five miles east of Seoul but were driven back by Red mortar and machinegun fire.

The Allies advanced all along the western front, as much as four miles in some areas. Their lines were jammed solidly up to the south bank of the Han near the ruins of the Korean capital.

The action on the east-central front was developing at two points north of Checheon, key highway and rail center 20 air miles south-east of Wonsu.

A. P. correspondent Tom Stone reported a tank force, rolling behind heavy artillery bargages and lighter-bomber strikes, punched four miles northward to within one mile of Checheon.

Checheon is 10 miles north of Chechon.

The Tank Force jumped off at 9 A. M. and advanced over snow-covered mountain roads. Stone said artillery fire alone accounted for more than 200 enemy dead.

Small arms skirmishes continued throughout the day along the path of the advance.

A. P. correspondent Stan Swinton reported that the other American counter-attack recaptured a bitterly-defended mile of a wedge north of Checheon.

This action covered a two and one-half mile front about six miles due north of Checheon. By nightfall the doughboys had captured the little mountain town of Kumsu and driven the Reds from three hills.

Swinton said a furious battle was in progress for a fourth hill. An estimated 3,000 Korean Reds had made light attacks in the area Sunday, but these were repulsed.

It was quiet between this sector and the west coast. The Reds had pulled back along the 70-mile front after falling—at tremendous casualties—back to the Allied line in a five-day drive.

Ridgway credited a magnificent stand by American and French forces at Chipyong with smashing the Red drive Thursday. He said the Chinese were so hard-hit that his patrols have been unable to make contact for 36 hours.

Ridgway, commander of the Eighth Army, told a news conference that although the Chinese have been beaten south of Parallel 38 they have enough massed manpower to prevent an Allied crossing of the old north-south boundary.

"I have not given the 38th Parallel a thought," said Ridgway. "As far as I am concerned it has no significance."

Parallel 38 was designated as a temporary dividing line for occupation purposes after World War II. United Nations' commission on Korea was refused permission by the Russians to enter Soviet puppet North Korea to conduct elections for establishing a united republic.

The volume of squash and beans continues light. Squash prices ranged from $4.50 to $5.00. Pole beans brought $4.00 and green beans from $2.50 to $3.00 per hamper.

Growers received gross revenue of $48,600.47 for 3,790 crates of strawberries moving over the Plant City State Farmers' Market. Prices ranged from $9.00 to $13.80 per 36-pint crate. Volume and quality are expected to improve if good weather prevails.

Manager Alvarez advises growers are taking advantage of the warmer weather, and are planting vegetables for the spring deal.

Cabbage, turnips and collards are moving in good to fair volume at satisfactory prices over the Palatka State Farmers' Market. Market reports very slow movement with volume expected to increase in the next three weeks.

The Fort Pierce State Farmers' Market reports results of a survey by Market Manager M. E. Williams and County Agent C. D. Kime show tomato acreage in varying degrees of growth from newly seeded fields to raking and thinning. A small acreage was reseeded after the recent cold as well as spot setting in some areas.

The overall picture looks promising and a good spring crop is indicated.

Hospital Made Possible DeLand Sun News

Not for one minute did we really doubt that the residents of West Volusia County would fall in the chance of a lifetime offered them by the trustees of the estate of Judge Bert Fish; when they announced that they were ready and willing to build a $700,000 hospital in DeLand, if the freeholders would approve the setting up of a West Volusia Hospital District. And, our confidence in the good judgement of our fellow West Volusians was not misplaced!

Plans for the hospital were presented in the columns of the DeLand Sun News on January 7. The need for a hospital district empowered to levy a tax, not to exceed three mills for charity cases, was explained at that time. About three days later, petitions bearing the names of all West Volusians were in readiness, and were put into circulation. Now, these same petitions have been signed and turned over to County Registration Supervisor Rodney Thursby for certification—all in not quite six weeks time!

A resounding majority of the freeholders have signed—4,750 out of a possible 6,171. That doesn't signify that 1,421 are opposed to the hospital, by any means. In some instances, it signifies that these persons were hard to find at home. In others, that they have moved away; or to another voting precinct, and were overlooked. There were a few who objected to signing, and did not sign—that was their privilege.

We like the figures on the Clifton voting precinct, and think they give an idea of how most of the people feel about the hospital and the hospital district plan. Clifton is a small settlement, with 59 freeholders listed. Of these, 55 signed the petition; two had moved away and two were working in other parts of the state! We also like the interest shown by a future resident, who had purchased property in DeBar. Not yet living here, this person, who read about the hospital plan in the Sun News, wrote and asked if there were any way for her to sign the petition, so important did she consider a new hospital to West Volusia County!

We, as citizens, have done our part. The next move is up to the legislators from Volusia County, who will introduce a special bill in the April session, setting up the hospital district. No difficulty is anticipated in that direction. Then, of course, comes the letting of the contract and actual work of building the hospital.

We were offered the chance of a lifetime—and we did not miff it! West Volusia will have its new hospital.

The pearl is the only precious gem to come from the sea, and the only one produced by a living process.

Spencer Rallies Superbly To Win Golf Tourney On 36th

Local Golfer Goes On To Win After Overcoming Three Hole Deficit On Last 9

By ED HARPER

Jim Spencer rallied superbly on the last nine holes to wipe out a 3-up advantage held by Hugh Smith and go on to a 1-up victory on the 36th hole Saturday afternoon in the fifth annual Seminole County Club-Mayfair Inn Invitational Golf Tournament.

Smith, runner-up for the Florida State title in 1947, took a 1-up lead on the first nine holes but Spencer won the 14th, 15th and 16th on the back nine to catch the Orlando putting wizard and the match was all even going into the 18th after the 17th was halved. Spencer rammed down a par four on the 18th for a 1-up lead at the end of 18 holes as Smith got in trouble and shot a bogey 5.

But Smith, playing with blisters the size of half dollars on his hands, evened the match on the 19th with a worthwile par 4. Having the next two holes Smith took a 1-up lead on the 22nd and made it 2-up on the 24th following another half.

Spencer went one over on the water hazard 24th, known locally as Harriman's Loch. Smith birdied the par 5, 635 yard hole 25th on a beautiful six foot putt which cut the cup in half, to make it 4-up.

But the match was far from over. Spencer birdied the par 4 27th as Smith took a par after missing a six footer. His lead was now 3-up.

On the par 5 28th, a sharp dog-leg, both golfers lay even on the drive, but Spencer dropped a beautiful spoon shot dead to the green 16 feet from the pin. Smith was inches short on the apron. Spencer, on the first of three putts more than 100 feet which he sank on the back nine, rammed it down for an eagle three. Smith's lead was now 2-up.

But the calm Orlando champion parred the 29th as Spencer took a bogey and again the match was 2-up for the Orlando with only seven holes to go.

However, Smith began to fade at this point as he drives left much of their stems. The slender Spencer, about the same size and build as Bob Hahn, who he has beaten so often. He was the par 3 30th as a par-5 Smith was 2-up.

The bird was halved. Spencer took a par 4 on the 32nd on two approaches and two putts, but Smith was in the rough with a slender opening between two trees his only out. Hitting with a two from his second shot was topped and landed short of the green. He took a six and his lead was cut to 1-up.

In one of the longest drives of the day Spencer laid within a short chip of the green as Smith was again in the rough. This time his recovery was perfection par-solified, but just short of the green his ball clipped a low-hanging branch and dropped short. Spencer sank a 15 foot birdie as Smith took a par 4 and the match stood all even with three holes to play.

After conventionally halving the 16th both golfers made remarkable recoveries for par 4s on No. 17. Both landed in the rough behind trees. Spencer played a four wood slice which just caught the green. Smith clipped to the fairway from a hopeless lie and landed six feet from the pin on his third shot. Smith was down in two and Spencer in one for the half.

On the par 4 18th Spencer played a drive and approached to the green sinking his second putt for a par four. Smith was in the trap with his second and chipped 30 feet from the pin. His putt, which would have halved the hole, missed by a hair and it was all over.

In the championship consolation match Clarence Phillips of Sanford defeated Commander Heyzer of the U. S. Navy. In the first flight chandler beat Jager 1-up. Tribble won Caraway in the consolation, four and three. In the second flight Helmer slammed Arvey two and one and H. Greenblatt beat Sheehan in the consolation 1-up.

Schwartz beat Janvey in the third flight and Housholder took Waldner two and one in the consolation.

Brown beat Conn in the fourth flight and Drexler was the winner over Rauch by default in the consolation.

Modelist Ralph Bogart won the driving contest with a 875 yard drive. Commander Heyzer was second with 857 yards.

Durocher Declares Giant Pitching Is Best Since Heyday Of Hubbell

By JOE HEICHLER

If pitching wins pennants, then New York will have at least one representative in the World Series next October. How does that figure? Simple. According to Manager Leo Durocher, the Giants have the best pitching in the National League. Not only that but this is the best Giant pitching staff since the pennant winning days of Carl Hubbell, Freddy Fitzsimmons, Hal Shumacher and Bud Parmelee.

It was an optimistic Durocher who greeted the first batch of Florida youngsters at the group, composed mainly of pitchers and catchers, settled down for two months of conditioning before the start of the regular campaign on April 17. The first workout was due to begin this morning at 10:30 A. M.

After 10 days at this sprawling Naval training base, the battery will move on to St. Petersburg, joining the rest of the club there. The Giants, returning to Florida for the first time since 1949, are exchanging bases with the world champion New York Yankees for one year, the Yankees going to Phoenix, Ariz.

The fact that the pitchers will have 10 extra days of conditioning this year, in contrast to the last three years when no player was permitted to throw a baseball until Mar. 1, is regarded as a good omen by Durocher.

"You may recall that we got off to a horrible start last year," Leo pointed out. "That, more than anything else, prevented us from winning the pennant. Most of the blame for that can be laid at the chaps just weren't in shape to go through the hurrying crew. Our pitching linemen, outside of Harry Jansen, not one of our pitchers had gone the route prior to the opening of the campaign.

"Once we got rolling, there was no stopping us. Unfortunately, we didn't get rolling until mid-July. Then it was too late to overtake Philadelphia and Brooklyn. But no one can deny that we were the best club in the league the second half of the season."

In San Diego, Jim Hearn, Sheldon Jones and Jansen, Durocher insists he has the best four man staff in the league. In addition to his big four, Leo is confident he can come up with at least another pitcher to complete the remaining 12 hurlers in camp.

"I've got some fine looking young prospects in George Spencer, Roger Bowman, George Dambarger and several others, he said. "I don't want to forget fellows like Steve Kennedy and Dave Kohn. I still think Kennedy can become a great pitcher. He has as much stuff as anybody. I know what Kohn can do. He can start for you in a terrific job in relief. On the subject of relief pitching, they tell me that this Allen Gelfand, whom we purchased from Oakland, can do for me what Jim Konstanty has done for the Philadelphia Phillies. If that is true, then my relief worries are over."

Durocher showed little concern over the holdout siege of Hearn, who reportedly is determined to all it out until his $20,000 demand is satisfied. The club has offered $15,000, a 100 per cent raise over 1950 salary.

Hearn was expected in camp next Tuesday to continue his negotiations with President Houchens. Houchens was another absentee but he was due to arrive sometime today. He already has signed.

Twelve members of the New York Giants baseball club, mostly pitchers and catchers, arrived in Sanford yesterday for pre-season drills.

Mayor Fred Dymally headed a local welcoming committee which provided transportation for the players to the Naval Air Station where they will stay for the next two weeks.

Daily workouts are scheduled to be held with the entire squad at the Municipal Ball Park beginning early this week. Manager Leo Durocher who arrived Saturday and Farm System head Carl Hubbell were on hand to welcome the players who are the first contingent of some 35 who will work out here before the arrival of the minor league clubs on Mar. 1.

Twenty-five prospects were signed by the Giants at their annual spring training tryout camp which ended Saturday. Farm secretary Jack Schwars said.

He pointed out that the quality this year has been excellent although only 155 hopefuls showed up. Three players have been signed for Sanford but the names cannot be divulged until their contracts have been authorized by their parents, Schwars said.

Giant players who arrived Sunday were Sal Matile, George Rucker, Bobby Thompson, Monty Kennedy, Allen Gettel, Wes Westrum, Monty Irvin, Sheldon Jones, George Bamberger, Nolan Fox, Dory Williams and Roger Norman.

Members of the welcoming committee included: W. H. Stemper, G. W. Spencer, Alvin Odham, Sheriff P. A. Marc, W. V. Biddle, and Lester Tharp.

Of the eight clubs now in the National League, Chicago and Boston are the only charter members which have never been out of the League.

Women are proverbially more ruthless than men in sports and this reporter needs no more convincing after watching two charming but grim-eyed Rollins College tennis stars play a so-called "struggle" match at the Mayfair Inn courts last Friday.

The match, staged by hotel pro Ted Berwick, pitted two of the state's finest women players against each other. Miss Elaine Lewicki, a native of the past several weeks. The baseball, track, tennis and golf teams each won the Dixie Conference championship in their respective sport last year and are expected to defend their titles this Spring.

The Florida State baseball squad, coached by Charles Armstrong, has 10 lettermen returning to form a nucleus for the 1951 team. This list of veterans includes two former team captains, Ronnie Nettles of Tallahassee and Bob Trowbridge of Miami; the 1950 team's "most valuable player" and leading hitter, Ronald Melton of Tallahassee; one returned intercollegiate All-Star player, Leo Bailey of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The other returning lettermen are infielders Augie Pomplala, Sagamore, Penna, Billy Teel, Fredrickson, and outfielders Glenn Gresham of Pensacola; and pitchers Ed Lockard, Jacksonville, and Ed Sessions, Tallahassee.

Among the newcomers who have looked good in practice sessions to date are infielders Klyne Nowlin of Daytona Beach and Coater Mills of Tallahassee; Outfielders Wayne Warner of LaPorte, Indiana; The trappers, coached by Ed Sessions, returned from Chicago, Illinois; Outfielder Glenn Gresham of Pensacola; and pitchers Ed Lockard, Jacksonville, and Ed Sessions, Tallahassee.

Barr School Will Conduct Umpiring Classes In Japan

Four Assistants Will Accompany Barr To Far East Command

George Barr today announced that he and four assistants have been requested by the Army to conduct a series of umpiring schools in Japan, Okinawa, Guam and the Philippine Islands beginning on Mar. 15.

Mr. Barr said Frusty Peters, George Mohr, Hilary Bouthell and Bob Olevetti will accompany him on the trip.

The idea for the Oriental jaunt was conceived while preparations were being made to put on the Army-Navy world series last year. Mr. Barr explained. Although this game of which Mr. Barr had been named umpire-in-chief, was called off because of the war in Korea, it was decided to explore the possibility of taking the Barr School to the Far East Command as a morale measure.

Pointing out that Japan is second only to the U. S. in its possibilities of taking the Barr School, he explained the necessity of having an affiliation with a major league club in order to give his students practical game experience. Negotiations are being conducted with the Brooklyn organization at Vero Beach for such an arrangement, he added.

Mr. Barr will address the regular meeting of the Seminole County Jaycees on Thursday. He was made an honorary member of the club during his first season's stay in Sanford.

Former PGAC Champ To Play In Orlando Two Ball Tourney

ORLANDO, Feb. 19—(AP)—The international mixed two-ball golf tournament starting here tomorrow is still picking up big name players.

Bob Hamilton of South Bend, Ind., former Professional Golfers Association Champion, and Pete Cooper of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., were added to the list yesterday, bringing entries to 24 teams.

That tied the record entry of last year and this year's was expected to reach 100.

Hamilton will be paired with Marge McNeely, also of South Bend and a student at Elean University. Cooper's partner will be Alice Bauer of Midland, Tex.

Don Bishpinghoff, 16-year-old Orlandoan, and Marge Burns of Greensboro, N. C., scored a five ahead course in a practice round under par 66 over the 6,454 Dup yesterday. The record of the meet is 68.

COACH WAR COLUMBIA STAR
YALE HAYEN, Feb. 19—(AP)—Yale's assistant track coach, Frank Ryan, attended Columbia where he captained the freshman and varsity track teams. He competed in the field events. Three times he won the CCA and National AAU shot put championship.

He held the meet records for these indoors in August of 1938 he defeated the Olympic champion, Hans Weickel in Berlin.

Tallahassee Golf Association Asks Tourney Entries

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 19—(Special)—Members of the Tallahassee Women's Golf Association are inviting feminine golfers of Florida, Georgia and Alabama to participate in their Third Annual Women's Invitational Tournament here March 8, 9, 10 and 11. Players will compete over the rolling, tree-lined Tallahassee Country Club course.

The Tallahassee Women's Invitational Tournament was inaugurated in 1948 and was held again in 1949. Because the Tallahassee Club was host to the Florida State Women's Golf Association Tournament in 1950, the Invitational was not held last year. However, those participating in the State Tournament pronounced it one of the most successful ever held in the state.

Many of the shotmakers indicated that they would be back for the Invitational this year as have many previous invitational entrants from Georgia and Alabama.

Golf Association officials advise that programs and invitations will be mailed to over 150 clubs in the three states.

Handsome sterling silver prizes will be awarded to the winner, runner-up and consolation winner in each flight of the tournament. In addition, a full program of social activities is being planned to supplement the four days of golf.

Women desiring further information regarding the tournament are requested to write Sonny Hay, Tallahassee Country Club pro. Entry fee will be $5.00.

Southeastern Conference Court Title Is Sewed Up By Wildcats

By STEBLING SLAFFRY
ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS WRITER

The Southeastern Conference Basketball race is over so far as the championship is concerned. Kentucky, the incumbent, has won re-election as champion and the only reason for finishing the final nine days of the season: (1) to complete the schedule; (2) to decide seedings for the SEC Tournament to be held in Louisville March 1-3; (3) to entertain fans; (4) for practice before the Conference tournament; and (5) for Kentucky to get ready for the NCAA sectional playoffs to be held in Raleigh, N. C., Mar. 20.

To make more money hardly can be the object in the SEC except at a few schools. Field house in the South are so small that the more games played the more money is lost.

Vanderbilt completely failed in its dying attempts to overtake Kentucky at the top of the standings. Vandy made the mistake of playing Tulane when Vandy was cold and Tulane was hot. Score: Tulane 90 Vandy 55. That loss along with Kentucky's anticipated easy 86-61 victory over Tennessee Saturday night made it impossible for the Commodores to catch Kentucky.

Kentucky still must play Georgia and Vanderbilt while Vandy must play Georgia Tech and Kentucky and make up a postponed game with Georgia.

The 1950-51 Southeastern basketball championship, decided on season entries instead of tournament for the first time this season, gives Kentucky the first round slam of major sports in the deep south league. The football Wildcats won in their sport last November.

Taking Kentucky's various championship conquests further, wildcat Johnny Owens is the SEC champion and the basketball Wildcats are expected to stop the league. Kentucky lost however, in the playoffs to Alabama.

The Wildcats have scored 967 points in 12 conference games, only 102 short of Auburn's record of 1,069 last season in 18 games. Georgia and Vandy came this week as Kentucky ample opportunity to wipe Auburn off the record book.

Schedule for the remaining nine days of the season: tonight—Mississippi State at Florida; Vandy at Tech; Kentucky-DePaul at Chicago; Mississippi at Tulane. Tomorrow—Spring Hill-Mississippi at Natchez; Wednesday—Tennessee at Georgia Tech; Friday—Tennessee at Auburn; Georgia Tech-Florida at Alabama; Saturday—Florida at Auburn; Mississippi State at Auburn; Georgia at Tennessee; Georgia Tech-Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; Vandy at Kentucky; Feb. 27—Mississippi State at Mississippi; Vandy and Georgia probably will play in Nashville Feb. 26.

75th Anniversary Of Deland Will Be Celebrated Sunday

DELAND, Feb. 19.—(Special)—The earliest days of Deland and Stetson University will be recalled here Sunday at a Founders' Day Convocation and the first meeting in 25 years of the Old Settlers Group of Deland and Lake Helen. The Founders' Week-end is part of the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Deland.

Speaker at the convocation will be Bishop Frederick Deland Lee, whose father, the Rev. M. S. Lee, preached the first sermon in Deland.

Bishop Lee, of St. Petersburg, recalls that his father also edited the first newspaper, "The Volusia County Herald" as well as the second newspaper, "Our Paper". The elder Lee also laid out the City of Deland and named the principal streets. He represented John B. Stetson when the Philadelphia hat manufacturer was in the north.

In the audience at the convocation will be Miss Helen Deland, of Norwichtown, Conn., daughter of Henry A. Deland, who came to this Central Florida area in the spring of 1876. So impressed was he with the beautiful climate and natural beauty that he sold his business that summer and returned to Deland in the fall to establish the city that now bears his name.

Also in the audience will be Mrs. Dorothy Deland Walden, congregation came over to assist us in an after service which was very much appreciated.

The following visitors worshipped with us during the day: Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Starks and Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Ringling. You are always welcome to our church. The total amount of finance raised for the day was $12082.

Professor Piles Up Huge Fortune On Small Salary

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 19.—A professor whose annual salary never topped $4,000 built up a fortune of close to $1,000,000.

This astonishing feat was disclosed today in the will of the man who pyramided the money—the late George A. Miller.

He left his entire estate to the University of Illinois. Miller, 87 when he died Feb. 10, was a familiar figure on the campus. He dressed plainly. He often ate with students in the Ilium Union cafeteria. Not even his intimates knew of his wealth.

Attorney James C. Thomas, who prepared the will for Miller for probate today, estimated Miller's holdings at between $900,000 and $1,000,000.

The professor was a widely known mathematician. He bought stocks and bonds. But nobody knew precisely how he parlayed his modest salary into six-figure riches.

The executor of the will, Marc C. Norton, vice president of the First National Bank in Champaign, said Miller's holdings "represented a wide catalogue of stocks and bonds of solid worth in companies in many sections of the country and a small amount of real estate." He added: "Many of the securities, purchased early in life, were held until his death. I don't know what his investment formula was. But it certainly was a successful one."

When Miller joined the University of Illinois faculty in 1906, his annual salary was only $2,900. When he retired in 1931, it was only $6,000.

Attorney Thomas termed the professor "a skillful investor." "He was one of the most unusual characters I have ever known," he said. "He expressed no desire that his gift to the university be set up as a memorial. He specified only that the gift was to be used for educational purposes—teaching and research."

Miller earned global recognition in the field of figures. He won the International Mathematics Prize in 1903 and was president of the Mathematics Association of America in 1901. He was the author of more than 200 articles. "His whole life was mathematics," commented Dr. E. J. Townsend, a long-time friend. "Up to a month or so ago he worked in his office every day, including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays."

POINT MUGU, Calif., Feb. 19.—Space travel is "closer than most people realize," says the senior test engineer for the Fairchild Guided Missile Division at the Navy's secret missile test center here.

As prof. Arthur V. St. Germain offered detailed plans for a five-stage rocket which he said could carry two men to the moon, land there and return. He said his design, while not in production, is practical with "the application of techniques already at our disposal."

"This is probably the first time in history that people have known so much about an invention yet to be made," he said in an interview yesterday.

St. Germain is an authority on rockets, missiles and jet engines. Point Mugu is the site from which the Navy launches top secret weapons which travel hundreds of miles into sea. St. Germain's spaceship is one of the latest concepts for travel to the moon and back. But the fact that he could talk about it for publication indicates the craft is not an immediate project.

The space ship would tower 325 feet into the air above the launching site, weigh 360,000 pounds and attain a speed of 25,000 miles an hour. Power would be provided by four rockets, one telescoped inside the other, which would drop off one by one as the ship roared upward through the earth's gravitational pull.

The fifth rocket, carrying the crew, would coast to the moon once it reached outer space. Its fuel would be conserved for the trip home. The return journey would require less fuel because the moon being smaller than the earth, has little gravitational pull.

St. Germain said liquid hydrogen and oxygen would be used as fuels, pending development of an atomic engine. He added that the landing on the moon would be made tail first, with jets and rockets acting as brakes.

Collins previously had said he is convinced Western Europe intends to build up its strength. He also had told the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Service Committees that Russia has 175 to 200 divisions under arms. Russian divisions run 12,000 to 14,000 men compared with 18,000 for U. S. divisions.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb) said he understood the land strength of Great Britain was about five divisions, France seven, Norway three, Belgium one and Luxembourg, one battalion.

"Something on that order is correct, sir," Collins said. Wherry demanded to know how many divisions the Western European nations would furnish in the next two years.

Collins said that question ought to be reviewed before any public answer was made.

Wherry said it was his understanding the total North Atlantic defense force under General Dwight D. Eisenhower, would be 37 to 40 divisions in that time.

Wherry asked who would make any decision to use the atomic bomb. Collins said Eisenhower would have to consult the President who would make the decision.

"In my judgment, no military man should have the power to make that decision," Collins added.

Collins earlier had argued that failure of sea and air power alone to stop the Communists in Korea demonstrates the need for U. S. ground forces to help defend Europe.

Articles and clothing stolen from the automobiles of nearly 30 persons were recovered and returned to the owners. Among these was valuable surgical equipment stolen from the automobile of Dr. N. Tolar and valued at more than $1,400.

77 Floridians Enlist In Marine Platoon

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 19.—(Special)—Seventy-seven young Floridians, members of the State-wide "Halls of Montezuma" platoon, were enlisted in colorful ceremonies here last night and were transferred in three special cars to Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Representing Sanford in the platoon was Britt L. Yates, 19, son of Mrs. Hester Mullins, Route 2, Born in St. Petersburg. Yates is a graduate of Seminole High School. While there he played varsity football and basketball. At the time of his enlistment he was employed by the Patrick Fruit Corporation.

The transfer to the North Carolina Marine base rather than Parris Island, S. C., the Marine Corps' east coast recruit depot, was due to telegraphic instructions from Marine Corps Headquarters.

Yates will receive eight weeks recruit training. During that time he will have a chance to qualify for promotion to private first class. The Sanford Leatherneck will be given a ten-day leave at the end of the training period.

Senate Asks Public Airing Of RFC Loans

Fulbright Committee Will Investigate Loan To Oil Firm Which Went Broke

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—The government today charged a New Jersey meat packing firm, its vice president and two soldiers with conspiracy to deliver inferior meat to the Army. Attorney General McGrath announced a federal grand jury at Newark indicated the group a few minutes before noon, accusing them of "a scheme to defraud the government." The Justice Department said the firm, Ben Brunstein and Sons Co., Hoboken, N. J., had "corrupted the army inspectors" by gifts and money payments in order to have them "approve for delivery to the Army large quantities of inferior meat."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—A Senate Banking Subcommittee today ordered a public airing of its charges of political influence on Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans—charges which President Truman has called untrue. Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), the subcommittee chairman, announced the hearing will open tomorrow with a face-to-face meeting between the committee and the company.

American Legion Post No. 53 Adds Ten New Members

Ten new members were added last night to the growing membership of the Sanford Post No. 53, The American Legion. The new members introduced by Adjutant James Singletary, are: Allan B. Wallace, William E. Hill, Melton Salant, Donald H. Myers, Marshall E. Smith, E. Gregory, William G. Gracey, Howard R. Corvill, Floyd Earl Harris and Louis Rotundo.

W. B. McMillan, Florida Wildlife Association officer, and a director of conservation of the Fresh Water Fish and Game Commission, told the Legionnaires of efforts to eliminate water pollution which covers many lakes, streams and are a menace to the supply of fish. The best method now used, he said, is a non-poisonous hormone compound which causes the hydrants to grow with such rapidity that they destroy themselves.

He also told of efforts to interest youths in outdoor projects including fishing contests, as a means of combatting juvenile delinquency. Post Commander Karylve Housholder read replies from Senators Holland and Smathers acknowledging the Legion's efforts. He requested that the Navy not change its plans for reactivating the Sanford Naval Air Station. The Post was advised that the Navy has no intention of changing its plans.

FALLAHABEE, Feb. 20—(AP)—Governor Warren isn't planning to replace Frank Wright, who has resigned as his executive assistant.

The Governor issued a statement that "it is not at this time planned to fill Frank Wright's place."

Court Of Appeals Refuses To Halt Execution Of Seven German Officers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals refused to halt the scheduled execution in Germany of seven convicted Nazi war criminals.

The court upheld a ruling by U. S. district Judge Edward A. Tamm who refused last week to free the seven on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Court of Appeals, however, left the way open for attorneys for the seven to carry the case to the Supreme Court. It did this by directing that its mandate (order to the lower courts) be issued Friday.

Judge Tamm ruled that federal courts in this country have no jurisdiction over sentences imposed by military tribunals in enemy-occupied territories. The appeals court did not discuss this point, merely affirming Judge Tamm's ruling.

The delay until Friday in issuing the court order means that Warren Matye, attorney handling the case, will have opportunity to present to the Supreme Court Matye's office said he would ask the highest tribunal to review the actions of the lower courts.

The seven Nazis are in prison at Landsberg, Germany. They were originally scheduled to be hanged some time ago, but the executions were stayed pending the outcome of their appeal to the courts in this country.

The seven are the last Nazis under death sentence. They include: former SS general Otto Ohlendorf and Oswald Pohl.

Ohlendorf was convicted of being in charge of an extermination camp in Russia which slaughtered 80,000 men, women and children.

Pohl once was in charge of a German concentration camp. Units under him allegedly carried out the liquidation of Jews in the (Continued On Page Six)

Inquiry Ordered Into Rail Union Wage Controversy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—Top labor leaders carried their grievances to Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston today, and Johnston called Cyrus S. Ching, chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board, to the meeting. A wage formula approved 4 to 3 by Ching's board is one of the chief grievances of the labor group, the United Labor Policy Committee. Now awaiting approval by Johnston before it can become effective, the formula would hold wage increases to 10 percent above a year ago. Ching, arriving at Johnston's office, told reporters he had been summoned by telephone about 11:15 minutes earlier, and did not know what part he was to take in the meeting.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—Chairman Murray (D-Mont) today ordered a Senate labor committee inquiry into the dispute between the railroads and four operating unions.

"In this time of national emergency we cannot permit our transportation system to break down," Murray said in a statement announcing that public hearings would start Thursday.

Murray said the sporadic strikes and failure of the railroads and the rail brotherhoods to settle their wage dispute "suggests that there may be serious defects in our Railway Labor Act." That Act provides machinery for mediation of (Continued on Page Six)

Convalescing GI's Have Dates With 6 Beautiful French Hosiery Models

By ARTHUR L. EDSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—Six GI's got a break last night that every GI must dream about: they had dates with six beautiful French models.

The GI's at Walter Reed Hospital recuperating from injuries, had champagne with the girls at the French Embassy, went to a show and later, had dinner.

Their reactions varied. Pfc. John Ahmann of Egan, Minn., said worriedly: "I'll have to phone back home to explain all this before any news story gets out to Minnesota."

Philly Police Officer Is Hit By Racketeer

Kefauver Hears Testimony On Persecution Of Numbers Racket Operator

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—Senate crime investigators disclosed testimony today in which a Philadelphia gambler accused the city's deputy police superintendent, George F. Richardson, of persecuting him "to cover himself up."

William N. (Willie) Weisberg, a former numbers racket operator who says he now makes his living playing the horses was the witness. He told the committee headed by Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) that Richardson had ordered police to get arresting him as a blind fool failing to enforce the law against some other persons.

At a public hearing here yesterday, Harry (Nig) Rosen, another numbers racket operator in Philadelphia, named Richardson as a police official on whom he had showered gifts and entertainment.

Richardson, a veteran police officer, made a blanket denial of the testimony in Philadelphia today. A member of the crime committee staff said Richardson might testify here later in the day.

Weisberg, who also appeared at yesterday's public hearing here, first gave secret testimony to the crime in Philadelphia last October.

In this testimony, which the committee made public today, Weisberg claimed that Richardson had "made me uncomfortable for 10 years," adding that he considered (Continued On Page Two)

Savage Lion Kills Tiger In Midst Of Shrine Circus Act

DETROIT, Feb. 20—(AP)—The savage law of the jungle asserted itself in the sawdust ring of a circus yesterday.

It was quick, it was cruel, and Sheila, a Royal Bengal Tiger of Clyde Hearty's animal act, was slain.

Prince, a big African lion, was the killer.

The scene was the Shrine Circus at the Fair Grounds Coliseum. Three thousand school children were the audience to Prince's lustful fury.

He leaped on Sheila and sank his jaws into her back in the course of an acrobatic stunt. Sheila, a Royal Bengal Tiger, was slain.

It happened that fast. Growls on hand understood, but they said the children were spared.

"My kid," said one, "was miffed in when he was going to get his balloon."

He held back other animals in his lions and tigers act. A roar through the cage bars against Prince's ear.

The lion let go. Sheila dragged herself away. About an hour later, Beatty mourned her loss. "She was the whole act," he said. "I wouldn't have taken $10,000 for her."

The show, if course went on. Prince stayed in the act. The lions and tigers performed again last night.

Joel Moss Is Badly Injured As Auto Collides With Bus

Quick thinking by an alert driver of a county school bus averted possible injury to more than 90 children passengers when an automobile coming out from a side road, crashed into the side of the bus at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon on South Sanford Avenue at Grandville.

Ms. Joe Moss, who Sheriff P. A. Metz said was driving the automobile, a 1950 Studebaker Sedan, was injured, and Joel Moss, 14, her son, was riding with her, was thrown through the window of the car to the pavement, narrowly escaping "severe" wounds of the face and ear, multiple bruises and abrasions.

The driver of the bus, Robert A. Howell, was knocked from his seat by the impact of the collision, his automobile hitting the bus from the front. Quickly recovering from a bruising jar against a side of the bus, he jammed on (Continued On Page Two)

Mickey Cohen attends Graham Prayer Meet

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20—(AP)—Gambler Mickey Cohen, who broke bread with Evangelist Billy Graham Sunday night in a Sunset Strip cafe, attended a meeting last night which Graham spoke on "How To Become a Christian."

"Thousands of people have been praying for a long time that Mickey Cohen would get religion," the dynamic preacher told newsmen.

The first efforts were made to keep from reporters the fact that Cohen was to attend last night's meeting.

Graham, driven by Stuart Hamilton, who a year ago renounced his habit of drinking and driving a string of race horses in favor of religion, led newsmen on a merry automobile chase.

At one point Hamilton stopped and demanded that Evangelist Billy Graham get out of the car. The newsmen explained they had a tip Graham was on his way to a conference with Cohen, Graham told the newsmen he wasn't.

Hamilton told the reporters they were going to a meeting with "some important Hollywood stars," and that Cohen would be "thrown out" if he showed up.

The Graham and Hamilton drove away, unpursued.

Later, Cohen told reporters he attended the meeting and nobody threw him out. It wasn't until after he spoke at the gathering that Graham admitted Cohen was there.

PRAYERS FAIL
NAPERVILLE, Ill., Feb. 20—(AP)—A chain of prayer by students ended yesterday with the death of an attractive coed, an outstanding student at North Central College.

Phyllis Ebinger, this year's homecoming queen at the college, died of acute leukemia, a cancerous disease of the blood, eight days after she was stricken.

Students at North Central and nearby Evangelical Theological Seminary had conducted the chain of prayer for recovery of the 21-year-old senior. Physicians, however, had held no hope for her recovery.

Opening Of Central Florida Exposition Attended By 28,709

ORLANDO, Feb. 20—(Special)—First day crowds totaling 28,709 paid spectators poured through the turnstiles here yesterday for the 39th annual Central Florida Exposition. The event was below last year's numbers.

Last year the first day attendance was 30,254 the record for the previous 38 exhibitions. The 1950 week's total admission of 167,794 also was a record for six days.

Claude H. Wolfe, exposition president, said that this year's attendance for the week is expected to be about the 1950 record of 1,020,000.

He pointed out that with the James E. Farm Groups Hit Price Freeze At "Unfair Levels"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—(AP)—Five major national farm organizations said today any government move to freeze farm prices at "unfair" levels would call for food shortages, black markets and collapse of inflation control measures.

They said in a joint statement that farmers are ready and willing to produce abundantly in an effort to keep prices from going too high.

The organizations are the American farm bureau federation, the National Grange, the National Farmers Union, the National Milk Producers Federation and the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives.

The group declared organized agriculture will fight any move to change present laws relating to control on farm commodities. There has been no official word from the Administration will seek a change. The government is prohibited now from placing ceilings on farm products at less than the current market price.

Farm prices are standards for measuring farm commodities, declared by law to be equally fair to the farmer and those who buy his products.

Initiative Is Regained By Allied Forces As Limited Offensive Is Renewed

TOKYO, Feb. 20—(AP)—General MacArthur visited the moving central Korean front today, watched Allied units and warplanes pound the fading Red and then ordered his troops to resume the initiative generally.

This did not mean necessarily that Allied forces would attempt a new drive across the Parallel 38 border into Red Korea.

When MacArthur spoke, the Allies already had kicked off on a general of the "limited offensive" that started Jan. 25 and was stalled only last week by a massive Red push that failed.

MacArthur recalled that President Truman had said the General should make the decision whether to cross the border again. But he told war correspondents at the front:

"I shall not arbitrarily execute that authority.

The Allied commander indicated that "if and when" Allied troops reach the border, he would give consideration to any "coherent political reasons against the crossing."

Lions Club Plans Community Fish Fry On Friday

King Lion Harry Robson told members of the Lions Club today that plans for the community fish fry Friday night at the Lions Club grounds are going ahead according to schedule.

Cecil Carlton who heads the committee in charge of the program asked for more cooks for the job. His committee includes Carl Williams, John Lambeth and Robert Shawen.

Ruel F. (Robbie) Robinson, fruit and vegetable broker at the Sanford State Farmers Market was inducted a member of the Sanford Club by a visiting Lion, J. R. Henderson of Winter Park.

It was a typical Lion induction, being punctuated with a roar from the cages of Leo and other lions across the street at the Sanford Zoo. Called upon to make a speech, Lion Robinson was interrupted by cheers and applause before he had finished the first sentence. He sat down grinning, his initiation complete, following which the lions in the Zoo let out another roar.

Robert Shawen, chairman of the Lions Blood Bank committee, told of the recent area meeting in Orlando. He stressed the fact that each town in the blood bank district is requested to appoint a doctor to the general committee.

Plans were outlined at the meeting for war emergency or atomic attack, in which case blood would be sent to stricken areas, he declared. J. I. Ellis, Orlando, was a visitor.
