

DeBary Folks Keeping Busy With Numerous Activities

DEBARY DAYS are getting plenty of notice in Sanford with merchants putting out the welcome sign for special sales Thursday and Friday. Pondering some of the DeBary Days signs in downtown windows are, from the left, Barbara Thomas, Cecelia Milstead, and Dorothy Kwany. (Herald Photo)

Harriet Gabler, president of the DeBary Women's Club, has announced the following promotions: Rose Forbeck to first vice president; Mrs. Eli Yoder, second vice president; Isabel Reaick, chairman of ways and means and Mrs. J. H. Fanning, parliamentarian.

Be sure and mark Tuesday, May 10, on your calendar. After the Civic Association meeting on that date, Dr. J. C. Fulmer of Deland will give an interesting and unusual illustrated lecture, "A Trip Around the Globe."

If you like to be a member of something there are 35 organizations listed in DeBary.

The William Clarks of Plumosa Road are poring over maps planning the best route to Calgary by way of California and the West Coast, a little jaunt of about 9,000 miles.

There are lots of grandmas and grandpas in DeBary but we have some mamas and papas, too. The 1930 DeBary directory lists 200 children. Little Jeffrey Spaulding of the Camera Shop Spauldings, who was too late to classify makes a grand total of 201.

The Clinton Sommers of DeBary Drive have just returned from a visit to California where they visited their daughter and their four grandchildren. While they were there, they took time out to visit the daughter of the Chester Reaicks and brought back pictures of her and her three children. This is the sort of thoughtful act that makes DeBary unique. They report that a trip to California will make a real Florida booster out of anyone.

If any one should ask you where all the DeBary Methodists are headed for May 5, you can tell them that that is the day of the open house at the Methodist Parsonage at 10 Hibiscus Drive. All of the friends and members of the church are welcome from 3 to 5 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Delegates to the convention of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs from the DeBary Women's Club are Dr. Mabel Magee, Laura Brown and Miriam Walter, and their president, Mrs. Harriet Gabler. They will be at the Deauville Hotel through Friday.

The time of year approaches when the DeBary Snow Birds will be heading North. Those of us that remain here all year will eventually be given the title of "Honorary Florida Cracker."

The two best known Isaac Walters of our town, Edgar Bileler and Frank Stoney, report that the shed has disappeared and the St. Johns is too high for good bass fishing. Feel free to call these two experts at any hour of the day or night for information.

The itinerary of Mrs. Christopher Butler for the coming week pretty well covers the state. May 1, accompanied by Mrs. Michael McDermott and Mrs. John Leone, she will be at the American Legion conference in St. Augustine. This expedition will be commanded by Commander Fred Kammerer. Mrs. Kammerer will go along to command the commander. May 3, Mrs. Butler is due in Miami, accompanied by Mrs. Victor Robello of Sanford. They will represent Seminole Memorial Hospital at the meeting of the Association of Florida Hospital Auxiliaries.

The ladies of the Florida Federation of Art are staging a card party in the DeBary Mansion, May 9 at 1 p. m. The contribution will be $1.

Collector Says Price Of Modern Art Is Too High

By ROBERT MUSSEL

LONDON (UPI) — Into the tavern for lunch walked Nicolas Van Bloem with a half crown (34 cents) in his pocket just in time to see a patron offer a painting for sale at 20 pounds ($32).

"I was young then," said the millionaire art collector and property owner, "so I told the man I would buy the painting provided he would accept payment that evening."

"I talked a landlady into taking us to Croydon airport with the promise of a bonus fare if I pulled off a deal. I persuaded a pilot I knew to fly me to Amsterdam on credit — this was before the war when air travel was still somewhat infrequent."

"I sold the painting for $300 starting (1925) but I had immediately recognized it as a Van Goyen.

The purchaser gave me cash and that night I walked into the pub with a fortune in my pocket and paid the man his 20 pounds."

Van Bloem told the story in digressing from his personal theory that the prices being paid these days for modern paintings are too high considering that posterity—which alone can decide—has not yet placed its final valuation on the work of this century.

"No one can tell what the prices of some of these moderns will be 50 years from now," he said. "They may increase—that is possible. But it is also possible they may decline. They have not yet achieved the stability of the old masters and in some respects I feel the astounding prices being paid now for them represent a gamble."

For the benefit of any near-millionaire in the house Van Bloem believes the best current buys for investment are early Italian primitives, 17th Century Dutch works and the English romantics. All of these are expensive—a Gainsborough recently sold for $304,000.

His own collection is built around Frans Hals' "Portrait of a Marksmen" which he considers to be worth about $540,000, Murillo's "Portrait of a Boy," a "Madonna" of Domenico Ghirlandajo, a Michelangelo drawing and a statuette by Leonardo da Vinci.

The son of a New York art dealer, Van Bloem absorbed so much painting lore at home that he has never had to take any expert advice in buying pictures.

He even duplicated his youthful tavern soup a few years ago while on a property purchasing mission to the English midlands.

Civic Leaders Are Guests As 'DeBary Days' Open

The Sanford Herald

WEATHER: Partly cloudy and warm through Friday. High today, 82-86. Low tonight, 64-68.
VOL. XLIX United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1960 SANFORD, FLORIDA No. 688

Chester Rearick, president of the DeBary Civic Assn., today kicked off "DeBary Days" in Sanford by thanking the people of Sanford for helping to build the DeBary Community Center and now "helping to enlarge the building."

Rearick, speaking to approximately 100 persons at the Coffee Club here, said that "DeBary Days" is a joint project and "we hope to do our share to make it click."

"Sanford has done a lot for us and we hope to repay some of that debt now and in the future," Rearick said.

This city has helped DeBary build the Community Center and now, through "DeBary Days," are helping to enlarge it," he said.

Rearick said that Sanford has always "looked out for its neighbors in Volusia County and we have worked hand-in-hand on many joint projects."

A total of 107 Sanford merchants are participating in "DeBary Days" sales specials and in staging a show Friday night at the Civic Center to help raise funds for the DeBary community center.

There are 117 seats left for the big Talent Parade and they will be sold at the door, the ticket sale committee reported. Tickets are $1 and children under 12 years old will be admitted free.

There will be many door prizes contributed by the Sanford merchants and "some of them are fabulous," Charles Morrison, Chamber of Commerce public relations man, said today.

Tax Petition Being Checked

A petition requesting a tax drainage district in the Loch Arbor area is now being checked by the Supervisor of Registration.

The petition was turned in to the registrar's office this week and was said to contain names of 51 property owners who have been set up to eliminate future flooding in that area.

After the petition is certified, the County Commission will set a date for a special election on the tax district.

If the majority of the property owners favor the district, the control plan would be in operation by the fall. The cost of the plan would be the cost of property construction of drainage ditches, dams and canals and installation of culverts and drainage pipes.

Voters League Forum Tonight

The Voters League of Seminole County will hold a public forum at 8 p. m. today at the Farmers Association, 1100 N. Hwy. 17, south of Sanford.

A barbecue dinner will start at 5:30.

No speeches will be made by the candidates. Instead they will be asked questions which have been written by the audience on blanks provided by the league.

The candidates will have an opportunity to discuss any controversial issues that have been presented or to refute any charges they may feel have been unfairly made against them.

Wylly Project Starts Monday

Work will start next week on paving a new entrance to the Sanford Naval Air Station, County Engineer Robert Davis said today.

Davis said his crews will start the 1,500-foot paving job on Wylly Ave. Monday and he expects work to be finished next month.

Cost of the project has been estimated at $5,500. The road will go from Sanford Ave. to the air station.

Davis also reported that county work crews, working jointly with Orange County engineer crews, hope to finish the Tanglewood Temple Terrace drainage project by mid-summer.

The initial step in the program is a canal from SR 15A to SR 428. Initial cost of the program is $16,000.

Bridge Weight Limit Lowered

County Engineer Robert Davis reported today that the county road department will put up signs Friday limiting the weight of load on trucks passing over the Escambiahatchee Bridge.

Davis said the bridge is too dangerous for heavy trucks to pass. The signs will warn truckers that the maximum weight is now two tons. In the past the weight limit was three tons.

ROK Official, Family Die In Suicide Pact; New Government Begins Job

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — Acting President Huh Chung formed a new caretaker government today to wipe out the fraud and corruption of the Rhee regime in a nation shocked by the mass suicide of Vice President-elect Lee Ki Poong and his family.

Huh, known as a man of deep reserves, took control of the government after the death of Lee.

Lee spoke of the "evil practices with irregularities of the past and called in six independent bodies to help him forge a government that would bring democracy to South Korea, guard against communism and end a system of military terror.

Appointment of the new cabinet has one major and immediate effect: It restores the flow of U.S. economic aid, halted temporarily because Korea had no reconstruction minister. U. S. military aid had not been interrupted.

Lee, who assumed "final responsibility" for the recent bloodshed, was shot in South Korea.

The family gathered in a secretary's apartment at the presidential mansion to die together. At 5:35 a. m. Kang opened fire. He killed his father, his mother Maria and his younger brother Kang Wook with one bullet each from his .45 caliber army automatic, then turned the pistol on himself.

He fired one bullet into his abdomen and one into his brain in an act reminiscent of the Japanese tradition of hara-kiri, or ceremonial suicide.

Today's events meant the end of the Korea of Syngman Rhee, but his final ignominy was put off. The National Assembly which was to have met and accepted his resignation—probably unanimously—postponed the meeting until Friday because of the Lee tragedy.

Carlton-Bryant Runoff?

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Brley Odham, sitting up the governor's race is an interview with UPI Wednesday, predicted that Doyle Carlton and Farris Bryant will land in the May 24 runoff.

M. Bryant leads in the first primary Tuesday, Odham said. "He will be almost impossible to stop."

The race issue alone will decide the contest, he said.

Odham collected more than a half million votes in two successful races for the governorship in 1932 and 1934. A former legislator from Sanford, he now heads the State Milk Commission.

Odham considers Carlton and Bryant the leaders at the moment, with John McCarty a close third. Although the primary is less than a week away, Odham estimated that fully half of the voters have not yet made their choice.

"Confusion rather than apathy is the cause, he said, and the candidates are principally responsible.

"The leading candidates," Odham said, "in a desire not to offend any other candidate, have not been as specific nor as direct in approach in getting the message to the voters as they should."

He predicted that the four candidates finishing third through sixth would gather 50 per cent of the vote. He forecast a 100,000-vote margin between the second and fifth candidates.

Lake Mary Group Making Canvass

The Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Dept. Women's Auxiliary is making a house to house canvass to help raise money for its operations.

The drive which started last Thursday will run until May 21 and will cover the whole 10th Fire District, including Loch Arbor, Little Venice and Sunland Estates.

The money is needed to pay off the $700 still owed for the firehouse, to pay the insurance due on the fire truck, and to maintain the firehouse. Mrs. Ralph Schweickert is in charge of the drive.

Legion Meeting Date Changed

The Veterans American Legion Auxiliary meeting will be held May 2 at the home of Mrs. Edward Phelps. The regular meeting will be held May 11 at the community center at 8 p. m.

Flood Talks Set By Engineer Chief

After the meeting, Gen. Itschner will inspect the Central Florida area. He will be accompanied by Col. Paul B. Troxler, district engineer from Jacksonville.

Water control authorities and county commissioners from Seminole, Lake, Marion, Orange, Sumter, Osceola, Brevard, Volusia and Polk counties are expected to attend the meeting and present views on the problem.

Brothers Favors Septic Tank Limit

Dr. Clyde Brothers, county health director, said today he was in favor of forcing new subdivisions to install community sewer systems and do away with septic tanks in the county.

By the use of septic tanks, Brothers said, "we are subjecting future generations to county wide contamination."

Any subdivision putting in septic tanks with the way the county is growing "is just asking for trouble," Dr. Brothers said.

"It's about time that we did away with septic tanks use in the county to prevent health hazards here," Dr. Brothers emphasized.

Dr. Brothers also said the county health task, working closely with the County Commission and State Board of Health, is cracking down on the use of septic tanks here.

Recently a policy was established which requires that before any plot is recorded in the county, the commission must be presented with a feasibility report from the health department concerning the method of water supply and sewer disposal.

"This policy would eliminate the installing of sewer tanks in low-lying areas in the county," Dr. Brothers said.

In the last month, the commission has turned down one request for septic tanks from a subdivision and held one request up for further study pending a report from the State Board of Health.

Brothers also reported that he hopes to be in the new health center, now under construction, by October. He added that he is now making a list of need equipment to be purchased and hopes to present it to the commission in the near future.

North Orlando May Get Church

North Orlando will soon get a grocery store and maybe a Methodist church.

A grocery store will definitely be built across the Longwood-Oviedo Rd. from the village hall, Mayor Roy Liddicoat said Wednesday.

Construction will start within three to six days. Four other stores will be built in conjunction with the grocery, Liddicoat said.

Bruce F. Gannaway, district superintendent of the Orlando District of the Florida Conference of the Methodist Church, and a minister from Miami have asked the North Orlando Co. to set aside a five acre tract for construction of a church in September. The two men want to build a church in North Orlando, Liddicoat said. The tract to be set aside will probably be near the Longwood-Oviedo Rd.

Over 30 conferees met to discuss a full agenda on logistic and maintenance support of the Navy's newest attack bomber.

The conference was opened with a brief statement of welcome by Capt. Robert W. Slay, NAB commanding officer.

He then turned the chair over to Cdr. C. W. Grilling, maintenance officer on the Commander Fleet Air Jacksonville staff, who served as moderator of the conference.

Present at the conference were representatives of North American Aviation, the manufacturer of AJJ; Commander, Naval Air Force Atlantic Fleet; Commander, Fleet Air Jacksonville; the Bureau of Naval Weapons; the Aviation Supply Office, Philadelphia, Pa.; the NAB Jacksonville Overhaul and Repair department; Commander, Heavy Attack Wing One; VAI-3; and NAB Sanford's Aircraft Maintenance, Operations, and Supply departments.

Truman Approves Guard Trial Set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Truman today commended Syngman Rhee as a statesman who resigned as South Korea's president because "he thought it was best for his country."

When a fellow reaches the end of his usefulness, it's time to quit," Truman observed. "I quit when I did."

Guard Trial Set
JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Fourteen former guards at Rialford State Prison will go on trial here June 27 on charges of inflicting brutal punishment upon prisoners.

The trial date was set late Wednesday by U.S. District Judge Bryan Simpson. Attorneys predict the trial may last as long as three months.

Klan Stages Demonstrations In Georgia

By United Press International
Klan members burned crosses and staged demonstrations in Georgia Wednesday night, and a Mississippi Negro leader said he had received "innumerable threats" by mail and telephone.

A group of 15 klansmen burned a 12-foot cross on a vacant lot near the Negro section of Waynesboro, Ga. About 50 klansmen marched in a residential area of Macon, Ga., to protest rental of an apartment building to Negroes.

At Elbert, Miss., where an effort last Sunday by 100 Negroes to use the segregated public beach touched off two days of scattered fighting, the Negro doctor who led the attempt said his life has been threatened.

Dr. Gilbert Mason said the threats "reinforced" his intent to continue efforts to integrate the beach area.

Runners that Negroes may attempt again to swim at the beach this weekend led the Mississippi Legislature to pass a stiff anti-riot bill. The bill sets prison terms of up to 10 years for anyone convicted of inciting a riot which anyone is injured or killed.

The cross-burnings in Georgia occurred for the second consecutive night. Crosses were burned in Atlanta Tuesday night—some of them on the front lawn of the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., leader of anti-segregation demonstrations over the south.

Scoutmaster Cites Need To Aid Troop

Longwood Troop 239 Scoutmaster Bill Bridge asked help from parents of scouts in building the troop and helping it function at a meeting Tuesday night.

Bridge said the troop needs a meeting place it can lock up, a place that won't be moved after the troop gets established there. He asked the parents to find out if the troop's present meeting place is going to be moved. The scouts meet now in the old First Baptist Church on Warren St.

Longwood Chapter of Commerce President H. C. Heath said the chamber can't afford to subsidize the scouts financially. Heath congratulated Bridge on his work with the scouts and said today that Chamber of Commerce women and scout parents will probably have some fund raising event for the troop.

'Booing' Teams Called Disgrace

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—An Ode State University physical education professor said Wednesday "booing and jeering of opposing athletic teams has become a national disgrace."

Dr. Delbert Oberbauer, addressing the convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, said there was too much "muckraking and bad manners" in sports today.

"The level of American sportsmanship," he said, "is degenerating in both adult and youth ranks."

In another convention address, exercises instead of sleeping pills was recommended by Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston as the best remedy for insomnia and nervousness.

White, internationally known heart specialist, said sound exercise habits beginning in youth were needed to insure sound health in middle and old age.

Student Shoots Superintendent; Low Grades Blamed

MAGNOLIA, Miss. (UPI)—A high school senior whose poor grades were causing trouble at home shot and seriously wounded his school superintendent Wednesday night.

The boy, Tommye Wilson, 17, then drove seven miles to the county seat of McComb, Miss., and gave himself up to police. Sheriff Clyde Simmons said the boy signed a full confession.

R. W. Lambert, 25, superintendent of the South Pike County consolidated school district, was hospitalized in serious condition. He was hit in the shoulder, arm and chest when Wilson fired twice from a distance of 10 feet with a .15-gauge shotgun.

Simmons said Wilson told him he planned the shooting carefully. The only reason he gave was that he "just didn't like the way Mr. Lambert had been talking to his father" about his poor grades at Magnolia High School.

The sheriff said the youth attended a prayer meeting and then drove to Lambert's home and knocked on the door. Mrs. Lambert opened the door, and Wilson asked to see her husband. When Lambert appeared, Simmons said, Wilson stopped back and fired twice. He was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Pirates Facing Murder Charges

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI)—The British embassy said Wednesday night it has been officially informed from Nassau that alleged American pirates Billy W. Soes and Alvin Tables Jr. face charges of "murder and robbery with violence."

Soes, 22, of Elowah, Ark., and Tables, 28, of Bridgetown, N. J., are accused of boarding and seizing Capt. Angus Beatwright's pleasure fishing boat Muriel III. Beatwright was killed when he resisted.

His four passengers and one crew member were marooned on barren Elbow Key in the Bahamas, where Soes and Tables had wrecked the 26-foot cabin cruiser Honiara, after allegedly stealing it in Key West.

They were captured by Cuban authorities when they ran the Muriel III aground and set Cuba's new coast. Cuba is expected to extradite the men to the Bahamas for trial.

Victory Doesn't Impress Lawrence

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Backers of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) hoped today that his vote in Pennsylvania's presidential primary would impress Gov. David L. Lawrence, one of the kingmakers in the Democratic Party.

But Lawrence said in Harrisburg that Tuesday's big write-in vote for Kennedy was not likely to influence the Pennsylvania delegation's decision to go to the Democratic convention unpledged.

"We are neutral," the governor said.

Board Buys $54,000 Worth Of Furniture For 7 Schools

The Seminole County School Board decided to buy $54,000 worth of furniture for seven county schools Tuesday.

In a special meeting the board heard offers from nine dealers on nearly 7,500 articles of school furniture. A motion was passed that the lowest and best bids be accepted.

The chairs, tables, chair desks, teacher desks and chair carrying trucks will be in the new Longwood Elementary School and in additions at Lake Mary School, Oviedo High, Rosenwald Elementary, Midway and Oviedo elementary schools.

Sanford's Powell's Office Supply submitted the low bid on 2,300 folding chairs. The school board will buy the chairs from Powell's for $8.18 each.

Southern Desk Co. got the low bid on 326 auditorium chairs for $18.55 each. The board accepted Southern Desk's bid of $26.35 each for 84 tables. Administrative Assistant Walter Teague said this was not the low bid but he would rather have these tables.

The Vireo company got the low bid on 800 classroom chairs for $4.50 each. The bid on 84 teachers desks went to Universal Seating for $43.50 each.

The board decided to buy 153 folding tables from the Newton Equipment Co. for $23.10 each. Thirty five chair trucks will be bought from John M. Weimer for $41.80. The bids were accepted subject to Teague's finding that they are really the best buy.

Water Safety Is Important

The Recreation Department and the Red Cross will cooperate again this year in a water safety program which we recommend highly. The first phase of the program will be for children more than seven years old—but we recommend it to the parents.

In this area where water sports of all kinds naturally attract most youngsters, there is a tendency to become slightly less diligent than necessary about teaching them water safety measures. This is why we ask the parents to put their children in the program—to teach them not to be careless or reckless in the water and what to do in emergencies.

Each year there are tragic accidents and loss of lives, some of which could be prevented by training in safety. The program, sponsored nationally by the Red Cross, is a good one and the instructors fully qualified and conscientious.

The youngsters take to the water like ducks, but need guidance there as everywhere else. Parents are invited to inquire about the program, which opens May 2.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Here is a 20th century twin for Sidney Carton, hero of Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities." Scrupulous in his habits and clean in his heart, he is a young man who is a little bit of a worry. For it is his worry about the vast difference between sexual infatuation and true love.

CASE #48: Dora D., aged 42, asks how Sidney Carton in Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities."

For she shows the unselfishness of true love!

You readers are familiar by this time with our Scientific Marriage Foundation, organized to help in those delicate matters of the opposite sex with a view to their developing friendships that may terminate in happy marriages.

Not long ago we received an application, duly filled out by a prominent professional man.

Our chairman, counselor had interviewed his three character references and had written a strong endorsement for this man.

But when we went over his application, we found that he was married and living with his wife.

But we do not have an application in the Scientific Marriage Foundation, so we were puzzled as to why our clergyman counselor would have endorsed this man.

Mr. Crane wrote a letter to the counselor asking for an explanation.

And the counselor replied that this was the most unusual case he had ever experienced.

For it was the applicant's wife who had insisted that her husband fill out the application.

The wife had a history of cancer and had been given not over 90 days more to live.

She had been so happy in her marriage and was so concerned that her husband would marry again and select the proper type of wife, that she decided to send in an application to our Scientific Marriage Foundation, even while there was still alive!

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — In the span of 90 minutes, the editors of the nation were able to compare two men, presidential hopefuls both, who on this day were as much alike as a twanging bow and a thudding stone.

The vibrant one was Sen. John F. Kennedy who bared his soul in a defense, who trembled even with one fist cupped in a palm, who fearlessly criticized his hosts and the newspapers they print.

The other: Sen. Stuart Symington, the mild, smooth Democrat, the Mr. Compromise of Missouri.

A third hopeful, Sen. Hubert Humphrey who came last, talked right on through my deadline.

It was under the vast white seal of the president on the ceiling of Presidential Room of the Statler Hotel that the dining editors and their wives listened tautly to the young man pleading to be their next chief executive.

Kennedy, leaning hard into the lights that first bounced against a centered spray of canary jonquils, white tulips and red carnations, had arrived with a ship on his shoulder.

The chip bore this message: "I'm a Catholic, and you shall not vote for me, or against me, just because I am. You must vote for me — or against me — for what I stand for."

Editors like a fighting man. And this was one of Kennedy's most shining hours. They had asked him to talk on religion, and he accepted. Religion is a sensitive topic, and it showed on the young man.

Now his words came fast and deep. They came as if shot from deep inside by post-up emotion. But, then, he paused for a smile. "I must apologize for the hoarseness in my throat," he said. "I've been shouting from the mountainsides of West Virginia."

Now, he was riding hard — hard on the editors. He flipped sarcasm at the way the newspapers "analyzed" the Wisconsin "religious" vote. In his own analysis, he said, he found that he did well in the areas where the temperature averaged 14 or lower. They cheered him.

He took a caustic shot at a Milwaukee paper which printed a tabulation of three classifications of voters: "Republican, Democrat and Catholic." The editor sat three chairs away.

There was bitterness. The speech cried of self defense. But Kennedy was tossed this big point on religion, and he hit it straight-on, right into centerfield. Editors appreciate directness.

Now, it was Symington's turn. The man is known to run hot and cold in speaking appearances. This day, the performance was clammy. He was capable of much better.

Symington, the man voted most likely to succeed on the basis of charm and lack of controversy, rolled slowly on the balls of his feet. He gave the impression he wanted to roll easily up to the convention door. His speech, which cried, "I am for brotherhood" was a sweet lullaby.

This day was a grand opportunity for two "front runners" to impress this awesomely powerful group of dealers and makers of opinion, the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

And Kennedy won. Symington failed. As for the third man in this theme, Sen. Humphrey, he talked on and on.

It is manifested in local, county and state government. Taxes are levied, collected and given to Chamber of Commerce. The state pays out about $3 million to support the Florida Development Commission. Legislators appear to pass laws to break laws. Now we find politicians wanting to cut down or abolish the $5,000 homestead exemption. This exemption brought hundreds of thousands of people to our state. It is the only protection left for the poor, aged and low income citizens. Much of its benefits are being eaten away by higher values and raised assessments.

The state used to be advertised as a place to live comfortably on a moderate income. The cry was "everything is cheap." No sales tax, no income tax, no state real estate tax and a $5,000 homestead exemption. Now they don't want these kind of people. The economy of Florida rested upon tourists, citrus, cattle, truck farming and other branches of DELL, Utah — Dr. Barbara Moore accusing two British sergeants of accepting bribes in their cross-country trek while she walks: "I shall expose them. They are a bunch of scoundrels. They stole my program."

SAN FRANCISCO — French President Charles DeGaulle calling for self-determination of all peoples of the world: "America and France wish all people to freely choose their destiny. This stems from the principles of liberty, equality and fraternity."

NEW YORK — Gov. Robert B. Meyer (N.J.) criticizing underground fallout shelters because of the heat that would be generated by a nuclear bomb: "What you'd have are not shelters but ovens."

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — In his bill-fold Secretary of State Christian A. Herter carries a card which he takes out and shows to questioners who ask him what we are going to do about Fidel Castro in Cuba. On the cards are typed Articles 15 and 16 of the charter of the Organization of American States, signed in 1948. Article 15 denies the right of any state to intervene with force in the affairs of another state. Article 16 goes even further: "No state may use or encourage the use of coercive measures of an economic or political character in order to force the sovereign will of another state and obtain from it advantages of any kind."

This is his answer to those who are urging action to forbid shipments of oil and other essential commodities to Cuba. Despite the growing fear and resentment of the Castro government in much of Latin-America, an economic boycott would generate an equal suspicion of the United States, in Herter's view.

Completing his first year as secretary of state in a revolutionary world Herter, as a man of principle and character, is trying to hold the line for law and order. It is a difficult if not an impossible task. And, as his immediate predecessors learned to their sorrow, being secretary of state under the American system of divided powers and divided responsibilities is largely a thankless task.

The verdict on Herter, among fair-minded appraisers taking into account the circumstances of his coming into office near the close of an administration, is that in a quiet, unassuming fashion he has done a good job. He has not pleased the murriners on the right who want the American way of life to prevail everywhere and by force if necessary. Nor has he satisfied those who look for a bolder and more daring response to the Communist challenge. But he has walked a middle way with quiet resolution.

One of the complaints against Herter is that he is not a fighter, that he is too much of a gentleman. Yet without table pounding he has marshalled majority opinion in the Administration behind a nuclear test ban agreement, almost certain to be given final approval at the summit conference.

This is in itself no mean feat, since the infighting has been fierce. With the reasonable persuasion that is his hallmark Herter brought Secretary of Defense Thomas G. Gates Jr. around to the belief that the risks of a ban with an inspection and control system were less than the risks of the spread of nuclear weapons to fifth, sixth and seventh powers. That left the center of the opposition in the Atomic Energy Commission.

In his year in office — with scarcely nine months more to go — Herter has tried to give the State Department and the top officials in the department a share in policymaking. His predecessor, John Foster Dulles, ran the show on such an intensely personal basis that the apparatus was downgraded. Seniors in the department feel today more of a sense of partnership and a freedom to speak their minds. Similarly in dealing with the

Varied Activities To Mark '60 Fun After Graduation Day Here

Through the sponsorship of the Sanford Rotary Club, the Seminole High Class of '60 will long remember the many activities being planned for their "fun after graduation" day.

At a recent meeting of parents of the graduates, Andrew Brantzen, Principal, Edward Christensen, School Counselor, plans for the big day were formulated with the assistance of Sogny Powell, general chairman and representative of the local Rotary Club.

An extensive program of fun will start with the class picnic at New Smyrna Beach on May 23rd. Approximately 147 seniors will journey to the beach at 8 a. m. on this day. Parents of the students and members of the faculty will chaperone the students and serve on the committee for this all-day beach party.

The "Big Night" arrives on graduation evening May 27th. Immediately following the commencement exercises which start at 8 p. m., a formal reception will follow at the Civic Center. Six months of the graduates will form the reception line and serve as hostesses between the appointed hours of 9:30 to 11:30.

After the reception the students will be the honored guests at a special movie at the Ritz Theater from 11:30 to 1 a. m.

From the movie the class will return to the Civic Center to music and dancing from 1 to 2:30 a. m. HUNGRY appetites will be satisfied when "Breakfast Call" is sounded at three a. m. in the morning. When the last graduate is served at approximately 5 a. m., this will terminate the all night activities. Besides being a memorable occasion the class of '60 will carry with them the pride of being the last senior class to graduate from the present Seminole High Building.

Too Many Hoffmans On First Street

Several weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hoffman and their two small children, Robin Ann and Lonnie Jay, moved into a home on First Street. Mr. Hoffman is employed with Wallace Neon in Orlando. The Hoffmans previously lived in Winter Park, before moving to Chuluota.

Francis Hoffman moved into a home on the same street. It makes a very pleasant bit of confusion, as the newest Hoffman is Francis Jr., and the son of the first mentioned family. They also have two youngsters, Melody Sue and Jeffrey Dean.

Pirates Get Early Jump As Comeback Kids Of 1960

United Press International

Go no further than Vern Law's 1.00 earned run average and Bob Skinner's .390 batting average if you're looking for reasons why the Pittsburgh Pirates look like the comeback kids of 1960.

One of the biggest disappointments of 1959, the Pirates lead the National League by one game today and their six-game winning streak equals the best they put together all last season. In fact, it is only game short of the longest streak any NL team achieved last season.

And there's no doubt that Law, a 30-year-old, 200-pound right-hander, and Skinner, a gangling 190-pound outfielder, have been the key reasons for the turnaround.

Law typed in his third straight complete-game victory of the season and Skinner drove in two runs with a 2-for-3 performance Wednesday night when the Pirates shaded the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, to go one full game ahead of the idle San Francisco Giants.

The Milwaukee Braves swept a two-game series from their favorite cousins when they whipped the Cincinnati Reds, 2-0, and the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 8-4, in the other NL games. In the American League, the Kansas City Athletics dealt the Detroit Tigers a second straight loss, 3-1, the Washington Senators defeated the New York Yankees, 2-4, and the Baltimore Orioles scored an 8-3 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Hank Aaron drove in two runs with a homer and three singles and also contributed a spectacular rally-killing catch in the outfield to pace the Braves' triumph. Carlton Willey received credit for the win.

Wally Moon had a triple, double and single and stole a base to lead the Dodgers' late-inning assault on reliever Don Eklund, who was rapped for seven runs and seven hits in the final three sessions.

Ray Herbert supplied the pitching and Bob Cerv the muscle for the Athletics, who handed Hank Aguirre his first defeat. Herbert won winning his second game while Cerv singled to help the Athletics score a run in the fourth inning and homered in the eighth.

Jim Lemon's three-run homer capped a four-run "flash rally" that enabled the Senators to come from behind in the eighth inning and present Jim Kaat with his first win.

Arnold Portocarrero, who pitched only one complete game in 1959, hurled a six-inning at the Orioles west their third straight game.

Insurers Romp In Kegler Play

Even with the title sewed up in the Sandspur Bowling League, Irving Pryor's insurance team keeps pouring it on, adding three more wins after each week's play. They won all three from Robson Sporting Goods, Tuesday night, to give them a total of 66 1/2 wins, in first spot.

Foodmart, still in second, lost all three to Wilson-Maier Furniture, keeping the grocers total at 55 wins, and bringing the furniture team up to 50 in third position.

In the other match, Roumillat & Anderson Drugs took two from The Pig N' Whistle, putting The Pig up fourth spot with 49 1/2 wins. Robson is next with 46, and the drugists are in last place with 42.

Margie Woods set a new scratch series record for the league, as she stacked up a 903 scratch series to help Wilson-Maier win their games.

Faye Griffin, rolling on the same team, turned in the second high series of the evening with a 497 scratch.

Filling in the split circle was Faye, picking up the 5-7 split, Grace Melio the 5-10, Max Strup 5-10 and 2-7-8, Camille Moreland 4-8-10, Naomi Jackson 5-10 and 4-5, Pat Foster 5-10, and Lillian Ogden 5-7.

The final week of bowling will find The Pig N' Whistle vs. Foodmart on one and two, Robson Sporting Goods vs. Wilson-Maier on three and four, and Roumillat's vs. Pryor's on five and six.

Indiana Coach May Lose Job In Wake Of Recruiting Scandal

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI)—Phil Dickens of Indiana may be the first prominent football coach to lose his job in 1960 as a result of the school's new recruiting scandal.

Dickens, who sat out a year-long suspension as Hoosier football coach in 1957 for violating the recruiting code said Wednesday's action by the NCAA was a "damn, damned shame."

Dickens denied he or any of his staff was guilty of wrongdoing in obtaining players despite the NCAA move and a parallel investigation into recruiting irregularities by the Big Ten.

It appeared that Dickens may become the victim of well-meaning Hoosier alumni who sought to boost Indiana into the football limelight.

Personally guilty or not, Dickens' future appeared shaky. A Big Ten regulation on recruiting puts in jeopardy the employment of a staff member guilty of violations.

It also threatens the offending school with suspension of its members or expulsion from the conference for failure to correct abuses.

The NCAA Council announced in Atlanta, Ga., that it had placed Indiana on probation for four years for violating football recruiting rules.

The action means that Indiana cannot participate in any NCAA-sanctioned television, post-season or special events during the probationary period.

The NCAA said the new infractions involved six football players. Five of the violations, it said occurred in 1958 when Indiana already was on a one-year probation as a result of similar offenses. The sixth violation was in 1959, the NCAA said.

Infractions committee chairman George H. Young of Wisconsin reported that four of the six violations involved representatives of alumni of Indiana who offered excessive aid to prospective football prospects. None of the players ever enrolled as Indiana.

Jack Paar TV Special Proves Fresh, Entertaining In Spots

By FRED DANZIG NEW YORK (UPI)—Jack Paar is at his best when he forgets to play it safe.

On Tuesday night's "Jack Paar Presents" special, he was playing it safe.

As a result, Paar was much less inventive than he was on his Jan. 26 special. Still, the hour contained some rewarding moments. His latest venture in prime time on NBC-TV was a one-hour trailer for the show he has been running in non-prime time for three years come July.

Because it was a commercial for his "tonight" show, Paar's format followed his usual fashion. There was Paar's usual, amusing opening monologue, a couple of songs, some wild comedy, some tame comedy, some wild conversation and, to make it official, numerous breaks for commercials.

Tuesday night's highlight was a sketch called "Civilized People," starring Mike Nichols, Elaine May and Shelley Berman. It was a brilliant spoof of the cerebral approach to romantic triangles.

Paar introduced the sketch by calling it "one of the funniest sketches I've ever seen." It was so much that it was funny. It was completely, immensely satisfying, filled with style, brilliant insight, freshness and was delivered at a nimble pace.

Earlier in the show, the frisky Paar threw Keely Smith off stride while she delivered the ballad, "Misty," and destroyed the mood. The show was on tape and, in fairness to the Keely Smith fans, should have been done over without Paar's intrusion.

The spontaneity, such as it was, could have waited.

The special concluded with taped repeats of some famous moments in Paar's shows, including the celebrated February walkout and the March return-to-work. Those excerpts were so brief that they must have been meaningless to newcomers in the audience.

Of the repeated material, Red Skelton scored with a hilarious chunk of comedy.

Cliff Arquette was wasted in a ballet number and Alex King was called upon by Paar to repeat one of the funny, unbelievable anecdotes he delivered on a Paar show. The repeat, though entertaining, was fragmented and flatter than the original.

That about tells the story of Jack's special: Entertaining, but flatter than the original.

Before "Paritime," there was NBC-TV's "Starline," a one-hour salute to the U.S.O. performers called "Soldiers in Grasspant."

Unfortunately, the words and music of some khaki-clad popular songs couldn't evoke the required nostalgia. The trapping of the U.S.O. show, from audience and performer standpoints, would have helped immeasurably.

Tornadoes Rip Central Plains

By United Press International
Tornadoes killed three persons, injured at least 44 and ripped dozens of buildings in Oklahoma and Kansas Thursday night.

Bodies of the three dead were found today in their shattered farm home near Cromwell, Okla. They were a Mr. and Mrs. Brawley and their daughter.

At least 43 other persons were injured in Oklahoma and one in Kansas as twisters destroyed or damaged homes and farm buildings at Moore, Cromwell, Pocomassett and Tuttle, Okla., and felled trees and power lines on the outskirts of Wichita, Kan.

But 300 persons attending a band concert at the Moore High School escaped injury when a twister ripped the roof off the two-year-old building.

Pounding rains, golf ball size hail and winds up to 85 miles an hour accompanied the twisters across Oklahoma and drenched parts of Missouri and Kansas.

Employees at Will Rogers Field in Oklahoma City fled the airport lower when hailstones smashed most of the windows in the structure.

Five persons were injured at Moore and six hurt near Pocomassett, although most residents had ample warning of the tornado and found shelter in storm cellars.

Toronto, Kan., reported 1.83 inches of rain in a 15-minute deluge. Another 1.97 inch drenched Oklahoma City and Tinker Air Force Base, Okla., recorded 1.73 inch.

More thunderstorms were forecast today for the plains states, the Mississippi and eastern Ohio valley, the Great Lakes and Tennessee.

League Denies Marked Ballot Charge

Don Fletcher, chairman of the Voters League denied Thursday night that any official of the league had passed out "marked" ballots at political rallies in the county.

Fletcher, speaking to over 300 persons at a league-sponsored public forum, said "this organization sponsoring no candidate and anyone who accuses the league of marking ballots is mistaken."

"We can't all be held responsible if some individuals write on a few ballots and pass them out," Fletcher said.

Citing a published report that ballots had been marked by a "pressure group," Fletcher declared: "If we were going to mark ballots we would have them mimeographed and not just hand out a few."

Nearly 50 percent of the questions were directed at the two candidates for tax assessor.

Mrs. Mary Earle Walker when asked if she felt she was wrong, or the governor, when she was ousted last year, said:

"The governor had no reason to dismiss me. I was planning to adjust the assessment level, but I was not given enough time and was short of needed help."

Mrs. Walker said also that if elected she would work toward "a sound, stable assessment roll and keep within the law of full cash value."

Questioned on why she had not answered her opponent's charges of "taxation by favoritism," Mrs. Walker said: "I didn't think they needed answering. I have never used any favoritism in taxation."

Richard McCanna, present assessor, also was questioned on full cash value and said that the law requires it.

Questioned on the number of corrections made after the 1959 roll was certified, McCanna said "certainly corrections had to be made. We raised some property valuations and lowered some," he said.

"I admit there are inequities, but the corrections take time and we plan to fix them all," he added.

The question of appropriating funds for the Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees also came up at the rally.

District 3 County Commission candidate James Avery said he would not give an unqualified "yes" to giving funds to the Jaycees or the chamber until he was presented "with the facts."

"What this county needs is new industry and I recommend that an information bureau be set up and, if necessary, hire outside help to do the job of bringing industry here," Avery said.

District 3 County Commission candidate J. H. Van Hoy, a critic of giving money to the chamber emphasized that he is not opposed to the chamber but could not see spending tax money for civic organizations when there was so much more of a need for the tax dollar elsewhere.

District 3 Commissioner Lawrence Swofford got a question on part-time betting and said he was against it in the county. He added, however, that the people should decide for themselves whether they wanted a dog track here.

All the commission candidates were questioned on the need for a juvenile detention home and the majority agreed that if there was a need it should be built, or that quarters be provided in the new jail for juveniles.

"Many of the questions asked of the candidates dealt with personalities and Fletcher refused to answer them."

"Let's keep personalities out of this election and stick to the platform of the candidates," he urged numerous times during the meeting.

Earlier Thursday, County Commission candidates were guests of the Jaycees at their noon luncheon.

All the candidates said they favored "full cash value" assessments and agreed on the need for a board tax base.

The candidates also were questioned there on funds for the chamber and all favored it with the exception of Van Hoy, Ted Williams, Ed Zimmerman and Avery, who said "I refuse to be pinned down to a yes or no answer at this time."

Heavy Vote Expected In Tuesday's Primary

Indications are that as many as 80 percent of the county's registered voters will cast ballots in Tuesday's primary election, where there are 7,500 registered voters. The next largest precinct is Fern Park, with 1,200, followed by Altamonte Springs, 1,030; Longwood, 945; Oviedo, 846; Lake Mary, 530; Goldenrod, 325 and Forest City, 305.

Voters will vote countywide for their choices for the four County Commission posts, clerk of the circuit court, tax assessor, sheriff and supervisor of registration.

The races to be decided on a district level will be for constable and justice of the peace.

Only voters in constable District 2, which includes Oviedo, Chuluota, Goldenrod and Blavia, will vote in the peace justice race which will see Thomas Moon and Phillip Packard seeking the post.

District 4, including West Sanford, Lake Monroe, East Sanford, Forest City, Geneva, Lake Mary and Sanford proper, will vote for one of four men seeking the constable post. The four are R. C. Carroll, O. G. Owens, Alvin Petty and Lewis Tate.

In District 6, which includes Longwood, Altamonte Springs, Forest City, Fern Park and Bear Lake, there will be a constable and peace justice race. Running for constable in that district are E. Bridge, Grady Hall and Frank Lacey. In the peace justice race are Elmer Ashley, L. L. Cox, John Nettleton and Homer Sewell.

The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. Tuesday and 103 clerks and inspectors have been appointed to aid any voter in operating ballot machines.

There will be no write-in votes in the primary and no unopposed candidates will be on the ballot, Mrs. Bruce said.

Of the 14,508 registered voters in the county, 12,357 are Democrats and 1,627 are Republicans. Republicans who wanted to vote in the primary had to register as Democrats.

Mrs. Bruce said there are 123 voters without Democratic or Republican affiliation.

Only 1,000 Negroes are registered to vote in this primary. Precinct polling places will be published in Monday's Herald.

Homestead Flyer Sentenced To Death

JAKARTA (UPI)—A three-man court martial sentenced Allen Pope, of Homestead to death today for flying a bomber for the Indonesian rebels.

No date was set for execution. Pope showed no emotion when the sentence was read.

"See you later," he said as he left the court.

Under Indonesian law, the American flyer has seven days to decide whether to appeal to a higher court for a new trial or to ask for a presidential pardon.

The 31-year-old American transferred with his attorneys here on the next step in the case. He is expected also to consult lawyers in New York and members of his family in Florida.

In Perrine, Pope's father Lawrence, said today "I have no comment at all to make" on the sentence.

Pope, who was captured when his plane was shot down near Amboina in Indonesia on April 16, 1958, was found guilty of all of four counts charged against him.

Lingo To Retire As City Clerk At Oviedo Monday

Thad L. Lingo, who served as Oviedo city clerk for 13 1/2 years, will tender his resignation at the city council meeting Monday night.

Lingo, who came to Oviedo in 1916, was born in Tennesse, Ga., and attended Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

After graduation, he worked in a bank in Georgia before moving to Oviedo.

After settling in Oviedo, Lingo worked for the Citizens Bank of Oviedo for five years and for Nelson and Company, as secretary-treasurer for 25 years before taking over the duties as city clerk.

He is a member of the First Methodist Church of Oviedo, serving as superintendent of the Sunday school for that church. He is also a member of the Oviedo Masonic Lodge and secretary-treasurer of the Maria drainage district.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lingo have been associated with many clubs and activities in Oviedo. Mrs. Lingo

Fighting Erupts In Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI)—Violent street fighting broke out today in Ankara between police and enraged students demanding the resignation of Premier Adnan Menderes. Unofficial reports said the death toll had climbed to 14 in two days of rioting.

Rumors swept the capital that Menderes was about to resign, but there was no official confirmation.

Demonstrations were reported in other major cities of Turkey including Istanbul where police used tear gas against the Korean-type student riots. The major battle was fought in Ankara.

Three thousand students armed with their legs and pieces of desks roared out of the university in Ankara and attacked police guarding the school under martial law imposed in major cities Thursday.

Police fired toward the students but it was not known immediately whether they shot above or into the mob. Witnesses reported many students bleeding profusely were carried away in ambulances. Girl students were mixed up in the battle and some were seen weeping on the sidewalks.

Turkish officials admitted only that one student was killed in Thursday's rioting, but unofficial estimates put the figure as high as 11. Three more students were reported killed today.

The riots recalled the Korean students demonstrations which forced the resignation of President Syngman Rhee. The rioting here was directed against government attempts to muzzle the political opposition.

The Ankara riots began in the morning and continued through the day despite mass arrests by police who took away hundreds of students. Mounted troops cordoned off the whole university area but the fighting continued.

Clark said there were "very ordinary business reasons for each of these corporations."

He said television can be "an extraordinarily sickle medium" and he sought opportunities for diversified investment which would continue after his TV popularity might wane.

Clark Tells Probers He Never Took Payola

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Television disc jockey Dick Clark told House investigators today he has been "convicted, condemned and denounced" on payola charges before he was given a chance to tell his side of the story.

The 31-year-old star, testifying under oath, said he had never accepted payola.

"In brief, I have never agreed to play a record or have an artist perform on a radio or television show in return for a payment in cash or any other consideration," he declared.

Clark arrived at the hearing room with a 34-page prepared statement with an appendix of numerous which have suggested a number of outside interests in recent years in addition to his ABC network "American Bandstand" show.

"I have noted—in silence until now—with dismay the many inquisitions which have suggested some connection between the number of corporations which I formed or in which I had an interest and 'payola,'" he said.

The final political rally sponsored by the County Democratic Executive Committee will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday.

The rally will be held at the American Legion Hall on Hwy. 17-92.

A fish fry will begin at 5:30 p. m. and the Seminole High School band will perform during the fish fry.

Board Purchases Packer, Sweeper

The Sanford City Commission bought a $10,817.75 refuse packer and a $9,548 street sweeper Thursday night.

At a special meeting, the commission awarded the street sweeper bid to M. D. Moody and Sons, Inc. of Jacksonville and decided to buy the packer from Superior GMC Trucks, Inc. of Orlando.

Water Supply Survey Discussed

City Manager W. E. Knowles was told to find out how much different engineers would charge to make a survey of Sanford's water supply Thursday night.

The City Commission also told Knowles to find out what type of study the engineers would make for the price. Knowles has told the commission that Sanford's growing population threatens to outstrip its water supply.

Bulletin

Franklin Knox of Jacksonville was found dead in a room near the Lake Monroe Bridge early this afternoon. The Highway Patrol reported. Police Justice W. Hugh Dumas said death was due to heart attack.

News Briefs

Arrests Continue
CAPE TOWN (UPI)—South African police and troops arrested 520 more Negroes today in pre-dawn raids on African residential areas near Cape Town and Port Elizabeth.

Payments Reduced
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Federal Housing Commissioner Julian H. Zimmerman today reduced minimum down payments on houses bought with government-insured mortgages. The reductions will apply only on homes costing more than $15,500. The biggest cutback would be $23, on dwellings costing $18,000 or more.

Judge To Act
TAMPA (UPI)—U. S. Dist. Judge George W. Whitehurst was expected to act today on a petition to halt "secondary picketing" at McCoy Air Force Base at Orlando. The petition was filed by the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) against the Orlando Building Trades Council and Local 1010 of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers.

Citrus Boost
LAKELAND (UPI)—A grapefruit party thrown in Dublin by U. S. Ambassador Scott McLeod resulted in removal of Irish import duties on U. S. grapefruit. Florida Citrus Mutual reported today. Martin E. Hearn, Mutual's international trade director, said removal of the "excessively high" Irish tariff of 35 1/2 percent on grapefruit will mean thousands of dollars annually to Florida citrus growers.

Plane Bombed
CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—A crashed Russian jet said he was a "space explorer" bombed a Venezuelan airliner Thursday and died in the crash with nine other passengers and crew members. The Venezuelan Communications Ministry said the three survivors of the crash at Colabona, 100 miles southeast of Caracas, told how the Russian exploded the cabin before pulling the plane on a hand grenade and throwing it against the wall.
