"There are many fallacies and misstatements in the President's message, some of which cannot go unchallenged."

"President Truman, for example, is about a decade behind the times in his statistics on the growth of the Voluntary Health Insurance System."

"The reports that only 3,600,000 people have insurance which provides adequate health protection..."

"Again, the President falls into the error of stating that only limited, inadequate health protection is available under the Voluntary Health Insurance System."

"President Truman also makes the amazing assertion that adequate medical care is now beyond the means of all but the upper income groups..."

"The most serious misstatement in the President's message—and one which it is regrettable any President of the United States would have uttered—is the repetition of that now completely discredited statement that tens of thousands of persons die needlessly in this country, due to lack of medical care."

Sullivan Resigns

Both sides said they were confident of victory. The Administration wants to replace the present law with a modified Wagner act, under labor."

Rep. Kelley (D-Pa.), who will pilot the Administration bill through what is certain to be a stormy winter, predicted the measure will be passed by Friday night, after four days of debate."

Opponents want to substitute another labor bill—the Wood bill—for the Administration's measure. The Wood bill, introduced by Rep. Wood (D-Ga.), a Labor Committee member, also would repeal the Taft-Hartley Act but in name only."

Republican House Leader Martin of Massachusetts flatterly forecast victory for the Wood bill. He expected to get strong backing from both Republicans and Southern Democrats."

And, Martin said, if the Wood bill is voted down then the House will spend 10 days or two weeks debating amendments to the Administration program."

The Senate took up a House-passed appropriation bill for the Labor Department and Federal Security Agency. It hoped to clear this promptly and get to work on two other bills, one providing federal aid for education and the other a school health program."

The education aid bill calls for federal grants of $200,000,000 a year for teacher salaries and other school operating expenses. The health measure would permit the federal government to give the states $35,000,000 annually to help finance medical and dental examinations, plus other health care for all school children."

The civil rights issue bobbed up even before the bills were offered. Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) said he will offer an amendment that would bar aid to public schools not open to pupils regardless of race, color or creed. He said he has "not the slightest idea" how much support he will get."

EXHIBITS BULLET

BAKERSVILLE, N. C., Apr. 25.—(AP)—Thomas Burleson, 66, of nearby Clarrissa, today exhibited a bullet which he said dropped out after remaining in his head 43 years.

Burleson said he was shot in the jaw in 1906 and that the bullet was deflected upward through the roof of his mouth, and lodged beneath an eye, presumably in a mine. He said the wound healed without the bullet being removed. Recently, he continued, the pellet dropped into the back of his mouth through a nasal passage.

Berlin Blockade

The new Russian position was outlined to Dr. Philip Jessup, the American delegate on the United Nations Security Council, at Lake Success, Jessup's talks with his opposite Soviet number, Jacob A. Malik, began Feb. 15, when Jessup took the initiative for sounding out the Soviet Union on a settlement, Moscow said.

The British foreign office spokesman described the Russian version of the Lake Success exchange as "accurate, if not very full." He said a news conference, the exchanges were "exploratory" and would continue. The spokesman would not commit Britain on the matter of setting a date for four-power talks.

Some western diplomats here are optimistic that the Berlin blockade is near a settlement. Some think the Allied counter blockade was the decisive factor and others say the possibility of settlement may be attributed to the recently signed North Atlantic Pact.

British diplomats pointed out that the new Russian offer came after the Americans had taken the initiative to find out whether a settlement was possible. The foreign office spokesman said Britain had not been consulted before the United States approach to the Russians was made.

If the offer is what Tass reported and apparently Tass' version was substantially correct it would in any event mark a major concession on the part of the Russians. Responsible officials said that two closely related questions were posed immediately by the Moscow announcement.

1. Are the Russians seriously seeking a means to end the blockade in some diplomatic and face-saving manner? 2. Or are they simply pulling a new propaganda ploy chief and to divert the planned formation of a Western German government (exclusive of the Soviet zone) this spring and early summer?

Legislature

(Continued from Page One) authorized to transfer surplus supplies from one agency to another. The House adopted a Confederate Memorial Day resolution honoring the "heroes of the Old South." The resolution commended the United Daughters of the Confederacy for "perpetuating a correct history of the South's participation in that momentous period of American history."

Rep. Power of Jackson today proposed that the House memorialize Congress to retain the Taft-Hartley Labor law in effect. Power said the law is a "twin brother of a national scale to the state constitutional amendment" which forbids employers to deny membership or non-membership in a labor union.

Rep. Thomas D. Healey today of Walton county withdrew from the 1951 speakerhip race. Healey, who presided over the House in 1947, said he felt the "honor should be passed around."

"Not a candidate knows I am going to make this statement now," he said. "I assure those pledged to me that I will vote for whom they please."

Bookie Bill Papy was acquitted later of a bribery charge. He said today he still is against the bill "for the simple reason the people of my county are not going to let me be on horses if they want."

Papy declared bookmaking operations do not deprive the state of revenue. He added to considered Dale Sheriff Sullivan "derelict in his duty" to ask for special legislation to help him enforce the law.

He said there already are laws on the statute books which Sullivan could enforce against gamblers. Senator Gautier of Manatee charged the "greed" of the president of Gulfstream Park led to a bill to change horse racing meets to 20 days.

Gautier said the Gulfstream head, Jimmy Dunn, had bragged he was going to "elect him a governor, get him a Racing Commission and move in." The attack on Dunn came shortly before the committee on miscellaneous legislation approved by a 9-4 vote a bill to break up racing into 30-day periods and close the top revenue-producing track to its choice of two such seasons.

It would have the effect of letting Hialeah keep its current choice of middle-of-the-season dates and give Gulfstream the 20 days immediately preceding and following the Hialeah season. China War

The old German built port of Tientsin has been the Far West Pacific base of the U. S. Navy for months. All land routes into the port are held by the Communists. Both Britain and the U. S. moved their larger naval vessels out of Shanghai today. The ships went down the Yangtze estuary and dropped anchors. They still are in China, technically, but out of range of Communist guns.

The Peiping radio, in a broadcast heard here, asserted the four British warships damaged last week on the Yangtze joined Chinese government ships in the bombardment of Red shore positions. Compensation was demanded by the Red radio. It said some 252 new propaganda posters were offered by Red to divert the planned formation of a Western German government (exclusive of the Soviet zone) this spring and early summer?

These are the questions with which Secretary of State Acheson and his advisers are wrestling. On the one hand, American foreign policy makers are anxious not to discourage the Russians from any serious propositions for ending at least the present critical phase of the battle for Berlin.

Yet they are equally concerned that they should not, in their hope for better East-West relations, rush into an agreement which would prolong disorganization in Germany at the very time that plans for going ahead there without Russian cooperation are at a wind up stage.

Some diplomats here said that on the face of the Moscow announcement, the Russian terms did not look too difficult to meet. In substance, the West would only have to agree to a date for a Big Four meeting on Germany and to the lifting of its counter blockade in order for the Russians to end the restrictions which they began imposing on Berlin almost a year ago.

But officials know from unhappy experiences that there is often a substantial difference between the general principles which the Russians declare in public statements and the detailed conditions which they spell out when it actually comes down to settling a problem.

Commissioners John Krider and W. H. Bleninger were appointed as a committee to investigate the possibilities for a recreation program for teen age youth, the need of which was pointed out by a group that included Sam Martin and Mrs. L. M. Glavin. Mr. Martin suggested that a full time recreation director be employed and stated that others would assist in the program without compensation.

A contract was awarded to American Oil Co. for furnishing lubricating oil and grease to the City during the year. Recommendation by City Manager McKibbin (Capt. Paulman B. Chiang Spurs Nationalists In Heroic Return

General Forecasts 3rd World War, If Communists Win Battle For China

SHANGHAI, Apr. 27—(AP)—Red guerrillas in a surprise rout today seized Putung, right across the Whangpoo River from Shanghai. At the same time Nationalist troops abandoned Soochow (Wuhsien), guardian city for Shanghai 50 miles to the west. (Red possession of Putung in any strength could make all operations on the Whangpoo, including evacuation of foreigners, hazardous. (Night across from Putung point are the Chinese city council house, and the British and American consulates. The Whangpoo is less than one-fourth of a mile wide there.)

SHANGHAI, Apr. 27—(AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek today returned to the battle against Communism, forecasting a Third World War if China is lost.

In the country, he said, would be the underdog and furnish the men for that war if the Chinese Communists win.

The Generalissimo pledged to share the hardships of his countrymen "on the brink of disaster." He said he could not disregard his responsibility at such a time.

The statement, his first since retiring from the presidency Jan. 21, was issued from Chikew, his ancestral home. But foreign and Chinese newspapers said he was back in Shanghai, now perhaps to become another civil war battle ground.

He spoke as director general of the Kuomintang (government) Party.

Communist forces swirled around Soochow (Wuhsien), only 50 miles to the west, as Chiang's statement was made public.

Chiang said the Communists were seeking to "enslave the Chinese people to the cause of international Communism by attempting to make all China the military base and source of manpower for the benefit of the Communist plan for world domination."

He was the oldest member and past master of the Zerodath Chapter No. 85, Masonic Order, in Laurel, Md.

He is survived by the widow of Lake Mary; three daughters, Mrs. Leslie Tucker, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. George Reynolds of Glen Burnie, Md.; Mrs. Theodore Brooklyn, Lake Mary; two sons, H. Marion Boteler of Lancaster, N. Y., and Howard Boteler, Jr. of Atlanta; three granddaughters, Mrs. Robert Lanter, Lancaster; Patricia Reynolds, Glen Burnie; and Clair Tucker, Baltimore; one brother, Tom Boteler, Clearwater; one sister, Mrs. Lillian Zimmerman.

Funeral services will be held at the Erickson Funeral Home at 8:00 P. M. Friday with Rev. C. C. White officiating. Burial will be made in Evergreen Cemetery where graveside services will be conducted by the Masons.

POOR LITTLE BIRD
LYNN, Mass., Apr. 27—(AP)—A bird was blamed today for "striking" a match that caused a $2,500 cottage fire.

Deputy Fire Chief James O'Neil said the bird evidently carried the match to its nest in the coping of the roof—and pecked on it until it burst into flame.

WARNING
ORLANDO, Apr. 27—(Special)—Warning of small arms firing in the Banana River Air Base area during May and June has been issued by Col. W. W. Millard, Commanding Officer of the base.

The danger area will be confined to the Air Base alone, located approximately 15 miles north of Melbourne on Highway A 1 A, making it unsafe for travel, fishing or swimming on May 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and June 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20.

Movieland Ride-In Theater To Hold Formal Opening Friday Evening

Movieland Ride-In Theater, located one and a half miles south of the city limits on the Orlando Highway, will open its gates to the public at 7:00 o'clock, Friday evening, C. B. "Pete" Schwarz, manager, announced today.

Located on a 14-acre tract of land, the open air theater, first of its type in the immediate Sanford area, provides an ultra modern entertainment center for the enjoyment of motion pictures at an estimated cost of approximately $175,000. It has a parking capacity for 400 automobiles, with individual in-car speakers provided for each car.

Mayor Andrew C. Carraway, Chamber of Commerce Manager Edward Higgins and other City and County representatives will greet the audience through the sound system at 7:00 o'clock. The picture feature, "This Time for Keeps", starring Father Williams and Jimmy Durante will follow.

Film shows have been contracted for with leading producers and two color cartoons will be shown in every show, said Mr. Schwarz.

An asphalt parking leads from the highway into the specially designed amphitheater and to circular ramps paved with shell and inclined so that automobiles point upward toward the 19 by 50 foot screen enabling occupants to see it easily. This has been treated with several coats of special paint to provide the greatest possible reflective qualities, and coupled with powerful projection equipment housed in a fireproof building 240 feet away, assures a bright, undistorted picture that can be seen clearly from the farthest ramp.

The screen tower structure was erected by Ed Jenner, Mississippi contractor, who has erected similar theaters in Georgia, the Carolinas and in new buildings near Sarasota. It is 60 feet high and 58 feet wide, contains 22,000 feet of kiln dried lumber and has reinforced concrete foundation.

An intricate underground wiring system carries the sound to the individual in-car speakers which rest on brackets mounted on posts beside each car. The speakers are removed from brackets and placed in cars by attendants, who also explain the volume control attachment which enables patrons to regulate level of the sound to their own individual tastes.

Patrons equipped with blinker lights lead motorists to parking ramps. Each post has two lights to serve as guides.

The theater project is owned and operated by Sanford Auto Theaters Inc. of which John Schiraldi, Jr. is president. Brantley (Continued on Page Two)

Plane Rescues Eight Persons Off Nassau
NASSAU, Bahamas, Apr. 27—(AP)—A member of the Nassau legislature and seven friends were rescued by airplane today four hours after the 20-ton yacht Wanderer struck a reef and sank 50 miles northwest of Nassau.

C. W. F. Eichel, house of assembly representative from Grand Bahama and Elmina district, said he was returning to Nassau from an election tour when his yacht hit the reef in the north-west light passage off the Berry Islands.

Most of the party had retired when the vessel struck, he said. Eichel called the coast guard in Miami and contacted Nassau before abandoning ship in a 12-foot dinghy.

Howard Lang Sets Out On New Life
CHICAGO, Apr. 27—(AP)—Howard Lang, 44, freed killer of a playmate, embarked today on a new life, one where he hoped his past would not ruin his future.

Lang, who served 10 years in the state penitentiary for the slaying of a playmate, is moving to a small town in Illinois to live with a Catholic priest until June 1. Then he will enter a Catholic boys' school somewhere outside the state.

His attorney, George S. Lavin, who agreed to help rehabilitate the boy, kept Howard's new name and his future home and school a secret.

Police Dig Shaggy Man Out Of Fantastic Solitude In Cubbyhole
NEW YORK, Apr. 27—(AP)—A shaggy-bearded man of 33, dug out after ten years of fantastic solitude in a dank cubbyhole, yearned today to return to the tomb-like cubicle in which his mother sealed him when he broke out.

Shoeless, filthy, his clothes in rags, Paul Makushak, one-time college student, stood on wobbly legs and blinked into the unaccustomed glare of electric lights.

"I liked it in there," he said. "I'd like to go back. I don't care about the outside world." Police took him to a hospital.

The man told a strange story of voluntary exile since 1918—when his mother sealed him off from the world with a wall of wood and plaster at the outbreak of World War II.

Makushak spent the 10 years in a tiny walled-in cubicle built in the corner of a littered third floor bedroom in a brownstone house in the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn.

His father, who runs a tailor shop in the same building, said he never knew the man was imprisoned in the house.

House, Senate To Hold Final Citrus Hearing

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27—(AP)—The United States today dropped export controls on more than 500 articles. The action will permit shipment of these goods to Soviet bloc nations in any destination in the world without export license. The announcement by Secretary of Commerce Jesse P. Hines eliminates a ban against shipments to Russian dominated nations, imposed more than a year ago for strategic reasons. It covers lumber, iron and building materials, plumbing fixtures, and such recently scarce goods as refrigerators and washing machines, and among the items released from control.

The House and Senate Citrus Committees today to hold a final public hearing tomorrow on the controversial Administration citrus bill.

They decided this after Senator Baker of Utah, chairman of the Senate Citrus Committee, reported he had received a flock of telegrams from various citrus people requesting they be heard on the measure.

A long drawn-out hearing already has been held on the bill which proposes principally to set up standards for the so-called "late test," being cancer and concentrate products, under supervision of the Citrus Commission and require compulsory grade labeling of processed citrus.

Rep. Collins of Nevada stated that a little more time in every one could be heard.

Senator Green of Bushnell countered with a motion to hold a final meeting tomorrow and take action on the bill then. He later withdrew the final action angle.

Senator King of Winter Haven objected to Green's proposal, saying "if that is designed to run a bill down the throat of the people you are not going to save any time."

Calder Agrees To Take Over Army Secretary Post

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27—(AP)—Carl E. Calder, utilities executive, has agreed to become secretary of the Army.

Calder, chairman of the board of Electric Bond and Share, says he will be ready to take over the top Army post within 60 days.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson, who had been urging Calder to take the post, was reported to have discussed the matter with President Truman during a White House call today.

Request For Passage Of $1.5 Billions For Arms Aid For Nations Is Voiced

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson pleaded today with Congress to approve the proposed $1,500,000,000 arms aid program to bolster "world peace."

Acheson appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at the opening of hearings on the pact which was signed here Apr. 4. It requires approval by a two-third vote of the Senate before it can be enacted.

The almost entirely termed the "Luce-Roosevelt" treaty and the foreign military assistance program provided a way of building world security, and said he believes both are essential.

But he urged that one of the biggest questions raised by some of the aid programs is by saying that the aid program is a "completely bloodless" program.

He said the aid program and the arms assistance program are aimed toward building up "western" strength against the Russian "aggression."

The aid program would add the Senate to the aid program started from Soviet foreign policies, declaring.

The sense of security prevalent in western Europe is not a figment of the imagination; it has come about through the conduct of the Soviet Union.

Northern in his 4500-word prepared statement did Acheson mention the latest development in the cold war—Russia's apparent willingness to lift the Berlin blockade in favor of big four talks on the whole German problem.

But even in advance of his appearance, there was no sign in the Senate that the drive for ratification of the North Atlantic Treaty would be slowed even if the Berlin aid bill can be introduced.

SIBEL YEAR TODAY

They found glories lives and excitement above all men for all ages. They could well afford to leave petty rewards, ease and comfort and abundance of food and clothing. They left all and followed him.—Luk 9:51, 52.

A resolution to change the State Constitution so that an income tax can be levied in Florida has made its appearance in the Legislature.
Some representatives evidently feel that the lowly taxpayer is not sufficiently burdened with the federal income tax, sometimes called "the withholding tax" in the low brackets,
and would add to that a state income tax. The beauty about that kind of a tax is that each pays in proportion to his income; the rich man gives up his yacht, the poor man, his pie. Both of which the politician ultimately gets.

What sometimes happens to those who attach too much emphasis and importance to worldly possession, who tend to measure everything in terms of the dollar mark,
who think that long life and happiness can be achieved merely by accumulating cash reserves may be gained from the account in the Tampa Tribune about a taxi cab operator who ran a small business into a $250,000 fortune and then lost it all on worthless gold mine stock. During the process of accumulating and losing, he worried
so much about his fortune he finally went insane and is now in the State Hospital.

Civic beautification committees
contemplating lining our avenues with Washingtonian palms should consider the complaint of a resident of Palma Ceia near Tampa who writes: "The trouble that they are breeding places for roaches, rats,
and other pests, that their palm fronds are fire hazards and their sharp edges as dangerous as razor blades in a high wind. Another complaint about Australian pines, whose roots extend outward 25 to 35 feet and are capable of cracking and lifting the best high concrete sidewalks and pavements. Perhaps we had better stick to pinks and petunias.

AS WELL IT MIGHT, THE
"bookie bill" has a way of popping back up in the Legislature despite repeated efforts to down it. The purpose of the bill is to prohibit the use of telegraph wires for the transmission of race track information essential to the operation of the gambling device known as bookmaking which is so popular, though illegal, at Florida racetracks. The bill would not interfere with a single legitimate operation of any kind. It would eliminate bookmaking by making it virtually impossible for the "bookies" to operate.
It would increase the State's revenues
by turning all racetrack gambling into the parimutuel machines
which are legal, regulated by State officials, and taxed. And it was this bill which caused Rep. Braley Od-ham to charge bribery in the last session of the Legislature.

President Truman's health insurance bill has at least one redeeming feature: it includes the tax to pay for it. No attempt apparently is being made to make the people believe, as is so often the case with bills of this kind, that it isn't going to cost anybody anything.
This health measure would slap a 3 percent payroll tax on immediately, half to be paid by the employer and half by the employee. Farmers and other self-employed persons would have to pay the entire 3 percent. Thus a little business with a $100,000 a year payroll, would have a new $1,500 a year tax to pay. An employee with a $200 a month salary would pay $63 a month tax. A farmer making $5,000
a year would have a new tax levied against him of $150. It may be worth these people's time to consider whether they would not

Compulsory Health Insurance

There is much to be said in favor of a large part of President Truman's national health program. When he proposes financial aid for the expansion of medical schools, for scholarships for deserving students who may want to study medicine, for the construction of hospitals and clinics throughout the country, he is on a firm foundation and well within the province of the federal government. The only restriction on such federal aid should be the ability of the people to bear the increased tax burdens.

It is when the President gets into the field of socialized medicine, that is, when he undertakes to establish a system of compulsory health insurance under which the government would guarantee to pay the doctors' bills of some 120,000-000 Americans that he reveals how completely he has failed to appreciate the cost of such a program, its psychological effect both upon the medical profession and the public alike, and the absolute impracticality of such a law in a nation so complex as ours.

The most damning contribution to the opposition of socialized medicine has come from the President himself.
"Health insurance," he says, "is a method of paying for medical care." That's all it is, it is a method of paying your doctor's bills. It is, in fact, the most expensive method ever conceived by mankind. "It will not require doctors to become employees of the government," the President says. "It will not disturb the freedom of doctors and hospitals to determine the nature and extent of treatment to be given and they remain free to accept or reject patients."

In other words, simply because you are covered by government health insurance, you would still not be assured of receiving the services of a doctor or a hospital. If he did not like your looks, he could tell you to get out, or send you to another doctor. If the other doctor thought he had too many patients already, he could refuse to accept you. If you went to see the doctor, and there was a line of people already waiting to see him, you would have to take your turn. All this health insurance program amounts to is a method of payment.

Now because the payment is taken care of by the government, there would be a tendency on the part of all of us to take our troubles to the doctor a little more often than we do when we have to pay the bills ourself. Every little minor ache or pain would be pretext for a visit to the doctor.
The government pays for it. Why not go see the doctor about it? Imagine the psycho-neurotics who would line up outside the doctor's office every morning! A man with a bursting appendix or a broken leg wouldn't have a chance of getting in. Health insurance, remember, doesn't increase the number of doctors; it is only a method of paying his bill.

And we submit it is the most expensive method. We the people would take the money which we would normally pay the doctor, add more to it, how much Congress would ultimately decide, hand it all over to a bunch of politicians with the benign hope that enough of it would eventually seep down to the doctors and surgeons to interest them in our case when they cut our stomachs open. The government would have to hire someone to collect the money. It would have to hire someone to keep an eye on him to see that he didn't steal it all. And it would have to hire someone to distribute it to the doctors.

No thank you. We'll pay our direct. Let those who want something for nothing get theirs from Uncle Sam.

Paul Revere

Speaking recently in observance of the 173rd anniversary of the Journey made famous by Longfellow in his poem
"Paul Revere's Ride," a direct descendant of the rider, bearing the same name, declared that the ride had been overemphasized.

Aside from the fact that his progenitor was only one of three who rode to warn the countryside of the onset of the British, the current Paul Revere set forth the earlier Paul's other claims to fame. He was this country's first cop-persmith, and one of its first silversmiths. The form and quality of his silverware has given it priceless value from an artistic standpoint. He also made false teeth and eyeglasses.

Mr. Revere is wasting his breath in playing down the famous ride. There is plenty of concrete evidence as to his great-great-grandfather's solid and worthwhile achievements. His greatest fame will always be, however, as the daring rider, flying through the night, rousing his countrymen to their danger. Longfellow has immortalized Paul Revere, the messenger of liberty. Paul Revere, the silversmith, has never had so skillful an advertiser.

Congressman Herlong Reports

Back in Washington after a Bunson's holiday.
The Florida Legislature had a joint session last Tuesday night
honoring Congressman J. Hardin Peterson, who is retiring from Congress at the conclusion of this term. As we were having a 10 day recess here, several members of the Florida delegation in Congress
went to Tallahassee at the invitation of the State Legislature and participated in their program. We all have great admiration and affection for Mr. Pete. We were happy for the opportunity to tell the Florida Legislature and their guests of the enviable position Mr.
Pete owns in the hearts of his colleagues here in Washington.
There is no harder working, more conscientious, more effective worker in Congress. We shall miss him tremendously.
Many things have happened
since I last wrote. One of the more pleasant of the experiences was the opportunity that was afforded me recently to preside over the

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The Western Allies are moving cautiously (though hopefully) to make sure they are seeing a real oasis and not a mirage in the startling Soviet offer to lift the German blockade.

The Russians have stated their willingness to abandon the blockade if the democracies in turn will end their counter-blockade and agree to a meeting of the council of foreign ministers to consider the whole German question. It was the Muscovites who ended the foreign ministers council some sixteen months ago by walking out on it.

The Western Powers—American,
Britain and France—are prepared to agree, provided the Russians
have no further conditions up their sleeve. This caution is inspired by the fact that, by striking coincidence, the Soviet offer comes as the other three Allies conclude the agreement for the establishment of a new German republic
out of the three Western zones,
with Russia holding out its Eastern zone.

The Western Allies are asking themselves: "can Moscow's offer
be a trick to disrupt the formation of the German government so that Russia can get complete control of a unified German regime which would include the Soviet zone?"
Both General Luchin D. Clay, U. S.
military governor in Germany, and U. S. Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, yesterday expressed wariness
over the Soviet offer.

Let there be any doubt regarding the attitude of the Western Allies, they have made it crystal clear that they are going ahead with the creation of the new anti-Communist German republic. General Clay declared that even if the Russians lift the blockade "it will have no effect whatever on the West German government."

"We are going ahead with our plans," he said.
A tremendous stride towards the rehabilitation of Western Europe would seem to have been made in the agreement to establish this government. The date for its inauguration has been set for July 15. The record nationally ignores Russia, which occupies close to one-third of the old Reich.

Here it should be well noted that the Western German leaders aim at a united Germany, eventually. They hope a proper West German republic will be so attractive to their countrymen in the Soviet zone that a union of the two will be brought about. That could well be, for the Germans are a determined people.

In any event, the creation of the republic not only will go far towards restoring the morale of the western Germans, but bids fair to give a big boost to the ailing economic situation in Western Europe. At the column has emphasized to effect, post-war Germany was the keystone of European economy. She cut approach that mark, and perhaps equal it again, especially if the Eastern zone can be added to the revival.

It must not be overlooked that the great industrial Ruhr between the two German states contains the richest industrial areas in the world. The Ruhr remains an international control but eventually will revert to Germany.
Will this encourage the growth
of a new militarism in Germany?
The Allies have created safe-not completely at the present session of Congress. (International) military governments will and when the republic is inaugurated,

the three Western Powers will appoint civilian high commissioners who will exercise control over Western Germany's foreign affairs, foreign trade and various other fields.

Of course, there's another way of lifting the blockade. It could be that the Soviet finds he is being hurt more than he is hurting the Western Allies by continuing the blockade. It won't be long before that point is cleared up.

The remaining 40 per cent ap-

No information on the talks will

the meeting, the spokesman said.
Whatever information is given out
is expected to come from a news

The United States hopes to learn at this meeting whether Russia is Philadelphia "gracefully withdrew" its 1960 bid when the U. S. Olympic Brundage said the dispute went

It was felt then, he said, that

Rev. McInnis Speaks At Memorial Meeting

Rev. Angus McInnis, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was the guest speaker at the Southern Memorial Day meeting held by the N. S. V. Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. F. Rommlat. An appropriate program was arranged under the direction of Mrs. Claude P. Herndon, general chairman.

Rev. McInnis stressed the deep Christian spirit of the South's greatest leader, General Robert Edward Lee, and paid fitting tribute to him and his beloved comrades, many of whom lie in Sanford cemeteries.

Preceding the program a short business meeting was presided over by the president of the chapter, Mrs. E. H. Laney, at which time the Lord's Prayer was recited and the pledge of allegiance and salute to the American and Confederate flags were given.

A memorial program followed, with the invocation and benediction being pronounced by Rev. William Nachtrab, pastor of All Soul's Catholic Church. "America" was sung in unison and Mrs. George Harden sang "Teating Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" accompanied by Mrs. Rommlat at the piano.

The roll call of Southern Confederates deceased Confederate veterans was led by the Chapter Chaplain Mrs. J. M. McIskill at which time chapter members placed a red and white flower in a basket in memory of each departed soldier. The basket was later placed on the grave of Dr. Newman de Vera Howard who organized the local chapter in 1921. Confederate flags were also placed on the veterans' graves.

A bouquet of red roses was presented by Mrs. Laney to Mrs. E. A. Douglas, one of the chapter members and a past state corresponding secretary.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. McInnis, Rev. P. Nachtrab, and members Mrs. Laney, Mrs. Rupert N. Strickland, Mrs. L. A. Brundley, Mrs. C. A. Adams, Mrs. J. M. Hayes, Mrs. G. D. Huston, Mrs. W. R. Spring Will Bring Shorter Hair Styles

By Betty Clarke

You can look for the "soft and natural look" in hairdos this spring. But if you think the robins also will be barbers of a long hair, you are mistaken, says New York hairdresser John Hall.

He predicts that spring is going to bring a shorter trend, judging by the number of women who visit his shop. Most of these women, now cutting their hair, have been notables, he says.

It all begins when they can't find a hat to flatter their longer tresses, or when they start a gradual shortening process. The day when the hair looks particularly straggly they say, "Oh, go ahead, give it a good cut."

Mr. Hall would rather see the hair worn four or five inches in length. He thinks the hairdresser could really sell his imagination into pla and change coiffure to fitting the fashion of the moment. But with this year's cut, which is better than 1000 others, he says:

No matter what coiffure with the very short bob it will look close to the head. You will need to get that extra lift at the forehead here or that puff at the side there, by wearing the right hat.

The youthful off the face roller can be worn with the very short bob, says Mr. Hall. The extra large waves, always popular in the spring, will be more flattering to the girl with longer hair. Coiffure of course the very short bob can be prettily accented with hair back.

Milliners' Fashions Suit All Types

BY DOROTHY ROE
 Whether your hair is short, long or medium, whether it's curly or straight, whether you're a glamor girl or the executive type, milliners are ready to make you look pretty as a picture this spring.

Hats and hairdos have achieved a happy marriage this year, as hairdressers and hat designers work hand in hand, all for the greater glory of Miss and Mrs. P. S. A.

The hats that will bloom in the Easter parade are young and gay, yet with definitely a ladylike quality. In keeping with the season's feminine styles in suits and coats, most of them fit on the head with out benefit of elastic, gussets or hat pins. Most popular will be the hats are young and gay, straws with restrained flower trimming.

The old-fashioned straw skimmer is present in a number of versions, as are all varieties of sailor.

Flower trimming is likely to be different this season, the flowers often applied in flat applique or embroidered in raffia. You won't see so many outside cabbage roses, but the millinery flower garden is still blooming, in a modest way.

You'll see culled trim on some of the youthful straws, such as Sally Victor's calico-faced straw "Honey-bive" with matching ruffled calico stole.

You'll see black patent leather veils, such as that introduced by Lilly Dache.

You'll find the hat you're looking for the hat that will suit your hairdo, your personality and your mood. And this year it will be easy.

Sanford, Daytona Tie For First Place In FSL As I's Defeat Giants In 15-4 Tilt

Gaddis Limits Grubermen To 9 Hits As Mates Blast Out 19 Safeties

CITY ISLAND PARK, Daytona Beach, Apr. 27.—(Special)—The veteran pitcher Wally Gaddis of the Daytona Beach Islanders scattered nine scattered hits offensively while his mates were pounding three Sanford Giant hurlers for 19 hits to chalk up a 15 to 4 victory here last night. The triumph was Gaddis' third in four starts thus far in the young Florida State League season.

The Isles won the game in the first inning as they rattled the fences with seven hits and took advantage of two outfield errors to score seven times. Tom Connelly, the Sanford starter, gave up six of the hits and all seven runs before being relieved by Janell with one away and two on base in the initial round.

After that big first inning the Isles scored again in the second on a walk and a triple by Lou Bevil into centerfield. In the third they added four more on singles by Henley and Gaddis, Montalbano's sacrifice, an error at shortstop, Sterling's single and Bevil's second triple of the night.

Henley singled in the seventh and Montalbano tripled him in. Montalbano came in when Emmerich singled to left. The final count came in the eighth as Bevil walked, went to second on a double by Ed Lichens and scored on Henley's long fly to center.

COMMENTS From The SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR. Herald Sports Editor

Carl Dann, Jr., Orlando veteran, who won his fifth state amateur golf crown at Miami last week, and The Morning After columnist, reports Pete Norton, sports editor of the Tampa Tribune.

"The year we started in the sportsworld business was the Sanford Herald's first year in Orlando named Carl Dann, Jr., was establishing himself as the 'boy wonder' at the Dubsread course.

"We have watched his career closely since, and doubt that any Florida golfer has ever compiled a comparable record—five state titles, a Southern amateur crown, and several victories in the national club champions' tournament at St. Augustine, an important match-play tournament.

"His comeback to the throne after a lapse of 11 years in all the more remarkable because a shoulder injury some time ago was supposed to have ended his competitive golf days.

"We've often kidded Dann on the many ailments he has carried into state golf tournaments during the past 15 years, but one thing is certain, nobody can kid him about his ability in man-to-man competition."

Whitely McMullen, Sports Editor of the Orlando Sun, is probably polishing off a red face as the result of a recent column appearing in the Sun. Whitely states:

"It didn't take long to move Myrl Hong, former G-Man skipper, out of his St. Pete post in the Florida International League. "A communique today stated that Hong had 'resigned' but with that 2-11 win and lost record, we suspect the St. Pete officials and fans, a rough outfit on a losing combination, tossed the resignation and accepted it without too much bawling....

"That report, 'Hong resigned' to accept a better offer, but did not elaborate, covers a lot of territory.... Wonder if he will show up in Florida State League uniform? He's topped the loop in pitching for two seasons and there are plenty of clubs which would like to grab him... if they can afford it....

"One of the big jokes around the Florida State League for the past three years is the 'water cooler death' many of the clubs of the circuit are pulling in order to pay their players. It seems to us that Whitely was just taking a poke at some of these operations, which are not too far from the truth. Hong has returned to the Gainesville G-Men and has pitched them to a victory over the St. Augustine Saints.

Anyhow, we do agree with McMullen, that the umpires of the first round of the 'water cooler' and start games on time. Whitely says there has not been a game this season started on time in Harris Field, and the same goes for the local park. Of course, they are never more than five minutes late, but people do not go out to the parks to see umpires parade into the field as if they were making a grand entrance at the last minute. A little close supervision is all that is needed, and that part of the deal could be worked out. However, we are not saying what can be done about what happens after the game gets started.... Wow, ain't it awful....

Here's There Congratulations to Dot Powell for winning the Sanford Woman's Golf Association tournament.... This is a big event for Sanford women golfers, and Miss Powell has shown her ability at playing the game by winning top honors two years in a row. Each time she defeated another outstanding Seminole County woman athlete, Mrs. Ellen Stuck.... While on the subject of golf, Manager Ed Levy, Whitener of the Seminole Country Club has been selected to manage the Ocean Entry in the East Coast League. Ed did a mighty fine job for the Sanford Celery Peds in '46. We wish him well.... San Antonio refused to give Levy his release so that he could play professional baseball in Florida this year. They placed him on the suspended list. It might have been that Ed could have hooked on with the Sanford Giants had the Missions given him his release, too bad....

Victory Starved Cordele Ends 6 Game Loss Streak

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The victory-starved Cardinals Indians ended a six game losing streak by taking one last night from the American Phillies, 7-0.

Other Georgia-Florida games found the defending champions, the Waycross Bears, bowing to the Thomasville Tigers, 17-12; the Tallahassee Pirates clipping the Valdosta Dodgers, 11-8; and the Moultrie Athletics edging the Albany Cardinals, 5-4.

Valdosta and Albany are one-two in the standings, with records of 9-5 and 9-5, respectively. The Pirates moved into third place with their decision over the Dodgers. The Bears' loss dropped them down to a fourth place tie with Cordele and Thomasville. Moultrie climbed out of the cellar with a victory over Albany. American went into last place through a loss to Cordele.

The Indians scored a pair in the second, two more in the fifth, added two in the seventh and another in the ninth to win over American. The Phillies got three runs in the first, added another in the fourth and a pair in the seventh. They had 11 hits to the Indians' seven. The Bears turned their 13 hits into 19 runs in their contest with Thomasville, but the Tigers just had too much—including a big eighth run inning in the fifth. Each team used three pitchers.

The Valdosta Dodgers tried five hurlers but none could stop the Pirates' scoring attack. The Dodgers got seven hits and scored four in the second, four more in the fifth and three in the seventh. They were charged with one error.

The Athletics scored once each in the first, fourth and sixth and added two more in the eighth. Albany scored three in the first and once in the third. The Cardinals had 11 hits to the Athletics' 10. They had one error to Moultrie's two.

BIG ROW
ATLANTA, Apr. 27.—(AP)—Assistant Coach John Hyder of Georgia Tech argued with the umpire yesterday and got punched on the jaw.

Leprie Lum Brown clipped Hyder during a heated argument about a close play at third in a game which saw Auburn trim Tech 4 to 2.

Brown said—and Hyder denied—that Hyder had shoved him during the vigorous protest. Brown's punch was the only one passed. Tech and Auburn's students separated the men.

Savannah Defeats Columbia In 8-0 Sally Loop Tilt

BY PATT PATTERSON Associated Press Staff Writer

The Savannah Indians hung an 8-0 defeat on the Columbia Reds in a Sunday Atlantic League baseball game last night.

The Augusta Tigers whipped the Jacksonville Tars, 10-4; the Columbus Cardinals nipped the Charleston Rebels, 9-7; and the Macon Peaches defeated the Greenville Spinners 6-4.

The Reds dropped into the cellar, replacing Columbus in the only change in the standings. The other six teams retained their places.

The Indians victory was their seventh straight victory and their second in the four games series at Columbia. A thin crowd was on hand to see the Reds suffer their fourth straight loss.

Only one time did a Columbia man get as far as third base. Two double plays killed off their scoring chances. Savannah got two runs in the first, adding one each in the fourth and sixth, and scored four more in the ninth. Columbia had seven hits to the Indians' nine.

Augusta scored four runs in the first inning to get off to an early start in their victory over the Tars. The Tigers added one each in the second, third and sixth inning.

A triple and two singles by Outfielder Charles (Cowboy) Balassi paced the 14-hit Tiger attack on four Tar twirlers. Right-hander Hal Johnson, coasting along behind the big left, allowed the Sellers to line safeties. He recorded his first triumph of the season.

The score standing 7-all at the end of nine innings, three Columbia players hit in the 12th to give their team the decision. Ernie Schuurman, pinch hitter Zip Atkinson and Gene Faschold hit successive doubles.

The Rebels used four pitchers, the Cards three. Both teams were even in errors, with four each. Charleston outbit the Cards, 12 to 10.

The Peaches stopped the Spinners winning streak at six games. George Starret choked a Greenville 3-run rally in the eighth when he relieved Jim Aitchley. Greenville outbit the Peaches, 10 to 6. Mason gave one run in the first, added three more in the fourth and another in the fifth. The Spinners scored one in the seventh and three in the eighth.

YESTERDAY'S STARR BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gurry Coleman, Yankee-cracked out four hits including a home run with one on in the eighth to give the Yankees a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Bob Lemon, Indiana-scattered six safeties in pitching the Indians to a 1-0 shutout victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Rent Decontrol Bill Described As 'Hot Potato'

Boyle Says Military Emergency Is Over And There Is No Need For Controls

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 28.—(AP)—Supporters of the administration bill to require fencing of all cattle in Florida today lost their first skirmish on the House floor to those who want to confine fencing to lands on highways. Cattle county representatives succeeded in writing into the Senate-approved bill a House livestock committee amendment to permit no one but the sheriff to impound cattle running at large.

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 28.—(AP)—The Senate will take up the bill to ban wire service to race track bookmakers at 11:45 A. M. tomorrow, Senator Hayward of St. Petersburg, moving that the bill be placed on special order, commented daily.

"It is the little non-controversial bill that has brought so many people to Tallahassee in the last few days. I suggest we get it out of the way and end the crowded condition in Tallahassee."

Reds Enter His Home

ARMED Communist soldiers invaded the home of U. S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart (above) in Nanking. They awakened the 73-year-old diplomat and said they merely came "to look around." The State Department has instructed the U. S. Military Attaché to protest vigorously to Chinese Communist military authorities. (International)

Commiss Close Escape Gates For Shanghai

U. S. Liner President Wilson Sails Out Of City With Load Of 300 Evacuees

SHANGHAI, Apr. 28.—(AP)—The escape from Communist threatened Shanghai began slowly today.

For foreigners, the last ships were preparing to get underway. For the Chinese, land routes were coming under Red troop domination. Airplanes still took out refugees over land and sea.

The American Liner President Wilson, likely to be the last liner to call here for some time, sailed down the Whangpoo this afternoon. Aboard were 300 evacuees, 150 of them American.

Those Americans who elected to stay in Shanghai—some 1,500 of them—are now here come what may.

One small U. S. Navy craft during the afternoon took a few straggler refugees down the river to the Hospital Ship Refuge. Navy sources hinted that may be the last boat out.

Big naval craft moored down the river, out of range of Communist shore guns, may depart tonight or tomorrow, one naval officer said.

British warships still are in the Yangtze and Whangpoo but the British are not undertaking emergency evacuations.

People who leave Shanghai from now on will move mostly by air. Both the American Northwest Airlines and Pan-American still are running regular flights and some special planes to the United States, Mainland Hong Kong British flying boats are going to Hong Kong and Tokyo daily. All are booked solid until next week.

The approaching Communists appeared to be at least 30 or 40 miles away in mid-afternoon although they took Soochow (Wuhsien), about 60 miles west of Shanghai, early yesterday. Their advance may be slowed down, because they still have not sufficient forces to hold across the Yangtze to handle the various drives which are developing.

The Reds seemed to be taking their time toward Shanghai possibly because they want an adequate occupying force at hand when they enter the city Shanghai, which is the fourth largest city in also being geographically and the Reds will need many men even for a peaceful takeover.

Celery Growers Agree To Extend Cutting Holiday

Central Florida celery growers, representing approximately 75 percent of the celery acreage in the area, met yesterday at the Mayfair Inn and agreed to continue the cutting holiday for the rest of the week in a further effort to stabilize the celery market. M. L. Cullum, secretary of the Shippers and Growers Committee, announced today. J. H. Davison, president.

The group, after putting into effect cutting holidays amounting in three days of each of the preceding two weeks, had agreed to observe yesterday as another holiday.

Since the celery deal in Florida is drawing to a close it was felt necessary to have further curtailment of celery harvesting, said Mr. Cullum.

Remaining celery acreage in the state, he estimated, is about 1,275 acres of golden and 1,100 acres of pascal variety, or about enough to fill 1,600 cars.

An upswing in the price of celery is expected, he declared, as California reports losses due to seeders and Florida has lost considerable yield due to weeds.

Radio communication equipment was recently installed by the Yellow Cab Co., which has equipped an FM aerial atop a 75 foot pole at its headquarters at Park Avenue and Second Street. The two way communication is designed to speed up service. S. A. Allen, operator of the company, declared.

Two new Plymouth taxis of blue color were recently put into service by the Silver Fleet Cab Co., Joe Gonzalez, owner, reported.

3 Groups Say Citrus Bill Would Cost Industry $50,000,000 Yearly

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 28.—(AP)—Citrus industry opponents of Governor Warren's citrus bill warned today passage of the measure would cost fruit men to lose $50,000,000 annually.

The three big groups including the bill contended internal discussion in the industry will cause the loss of all benefits promised by the Florida Citrus Mutual.

The attack came from the Florida Citrus Producers Trade Association, Florida Citrus Association and Citrus League of Florida.

It came shortly before final House and Senate Citrus Committee votes were to hold a final public hearing on the measure.

Judge Taylor, chairman of the governor's citrus advisory committee, said in effect he would not compromise further with opponents of the measure.

The critics said gross values would decrease because of litigation following passage of the bill. They also charged the bill is "unfair" in its maturity regulations "because maturity standards are substantially lowered prior to the date when some areas start marketing their crop."

Processed citrus, they argued, would be placed in an unfavorable position with competing products from "continuous raw fruit and finished product industries, expensive labeling regulations."

Opponents here put before the Legislature a different set of proposed regulations designed to bring about better tasting oranges.

The Governor's bill bases its maturity standards on a higher percentage of solids (sugar). Opponents propose lower solids than the Administration measure but a higher ratio between sugar and acid.

Cartmell Tells Kiwanis Club Of China Situation

Colonel Advocates Setting Up Relief Program For Asia

The present situation in China was outlined in Kiwanis yesterday in a talk by Col. Bernard C. Cartmell, who during 1946-47 set up military training schools for the Chinese in Nanking and served under General Marshall. He was introduced by Col. S. C. Harriman.

If the Chinese Nationalists had listened to the advice of General Marshall and Stillwell, China would not be having its present troubles, he said. Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is honest and sincere, he declared, but is in about the same position President Harding was, and stated that the Soong and Kuan families control the wealth of the country.

The reason that the United States does not take action in the present crisis is that China is a sovereign nation and this country's representatives are there by invitation only, he pointed out.

He advocated the setting up of a recovery plan in Asia, similar to that set up in Europe, and suggested that no more money be sent to the Chinese Nationalists unless this country sends a man to talk. (Continued On Page Three)
