Wheeler Gives Bond To Appear On May 5

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana, appeared before United States Commissioner Black Donald here today and furnished bond of $10,000 for his appearance on May 5th at Great Falls, Montana, to answer an indictment charging him with accepting money illegally for appearing before the interior department land cases. He went before the commissioner voluntarily when advised at the district attorney's office that the indictment was forwarded here with the request for service.

WILL HEAR PLANS ON WORLD COURT IN NEAR FUTURE

Foreign Relations Committee So Decides but Lodge Indicates Doesn't Mean Early Report to Senate.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—Proposals for American adherence to the world court, which have been slumbering in the senate foreign relations committee will be brought out for a public hearing in the near future.

This was decided upon Friday by the committee but Chairman Lodge and other members indicated it did not mean an early report would be made to the senate on any of the several propositions that have been advanced, among the original proposals submitted by President Harding more than a year ago.

Committee action Friday was confined solely to the granting of a request of a number of organizations favorable to the world court idea that they be heard. A hearing of five, with Senator Pepper, Republican, Pennsylvania, as chairman was named to conduct the hearings.

April 30 Tentative Date.—Senator Pepper said he had hoped to begin the hearings on April 28 but at the request of some of those who desired to be Continued on page 8.

Churches Observe Good Friday With Fitting Services

With the holding of regular and special services at the Holy Cross and All Souls Churches and the closing of the banks of Sanford, Good Friday commemorating the death of the Crucifixion of Christ, was observed in a fitting manner in Sanford yesterday. Through the Sanford yesterday the day was made one of fasting and prayer with many church services.

At the Holy Cross Church the service of Pro-Anaphora was held at 11:30 o'clock which was followed by the three-hour Passion Service beginning at 12 o'clock and closing at 3 o'clock. At 8 o'clock last night the day's worship was brought to a close with the evening vesper service.

DENBY ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY FOR OIL LEASES

In Speech in Adrian, Michigan, Former Navy Secretary Replies to "Insinuation of Collusion on his Part."

(By The Associated Press) Adrian, Mich., Apr. 19.—Full responsibility for the initiation of the policy which resulted in the leasing of the naval oil reserve was assumed here Friday night by Edwin Denby around whom raged a storm of criticism in the senate before retirement last month as secretary of the navy.

"Had I not taken the action I did to protect the interests of the navy in these reserves against the tremendous loss of drainage," he declared in an address, "I would have been false to my trust and culpably negligent in the performance of my duty."

Replying to what he said had been an insinuation of collusion on his part in connection with the oil leases, Mr. Denby said he had never been talked to about the naval petroleum reserve situation before he entered the cabinet by the president-elect or by any of his cabinet or other advisers.

My appointment was somewhat unexpected," he said, "and was not announced until about Feb. 25. Therefore, there was no collusion as to my acts to be performed by me although even that insinuation has been made."

Turned to Interior Department.—Shortly after taking office, it was represented to me that draining the reserves was proceeding rapidly and offset wells were necessary. Believing that the Department of the Interior was best qualified to handle for the navy its enormously valuable reserves, I turned to the Interior Department for advice on the subject. I then asked the secretary of the Interior for a list of the reserves under the administrative control of the navy.

Later on—October 18, 1921—after discussion of the subject with the chief of the secretary of the navy, I gave Rear Admiral J. K. Robinson, engineer in chief of the navy, charge of the oil reserves under the naval establishment.

Here Mr. Denby reiterated at length and in detail his denial of the charges that he had caused to be transferred from Washington or to be retired certain officers of the navy who opposed the leasing policy.

"Upon the advice of Admiral Robinson and others," he resumed, "I became convinced that steps must be taken to use the powers given to the secretary of the navy by congress to accomplish what I earnestly believed to be the intention and will of congress—to save and protect the oil for the benefit of the United States Navy."

Committee Probing Department of Justice Meets Unexpectedly and Investigates Liquor Confiscations

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—Today many an unexpectingly interrupted Friday of the senate committee investigating the department of justice dealt with a variety of subjects, including mysterious disappearances of confiscated liquors, bootlegging and bootlegging prosecutions, and was frustrated. Once or twice committee members balked at the testimony introduced, notably when one witness said he had heard that "two bottles" of confiscated intoxicants had been reported at one time by the office of Speaker Gillett of the house. Representative Gillett later denied the charge in a formal statement. Adjournment was taken until Monday, when committee members said they would handle anti-trust cases by the department of justice and the federal trade commission would be given attention.

Large Amount of Whiskey.—Scaife later returned to the stand and told of the accumulation at the department of justice during the years prior to 1921 of rather large amounts of whiskey, taken at various times from travelers and peddlers and shipments through the Washington Union station. Although its value was around $50,000, he said, it all disappeared" before, April, 1922, when a grand jury investigated the matter, found no ground for indictment but criticized the seizure and storage system.

The liquor trickled away through various channels, Scaife said, but "an honest attorney" he contended, would have gotten indictments against persons who absconded it. The alleged contribution to Mr. Gillett's office for mention of which he was given a sharp reprimand from Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, the committee "procure," was one of the minor items bearing upon its disposal.

FIVE FIREMEN ARE KILLED AS FACTORY BURNS

And a Score of Other Firemen and Spectators Injured When Walls of Burning Box Factory Fall.

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Apr. 19.—Five firemen are known to have been killed and a score of other firemen and spectators were buried beneath the falling walls of a burning four-story box factory on the West Side tonight. Many of those buried in the debris are believed to have perished.

The names of three of the five firemen known to have perished are: Captain John Brennan, Mike Devine and Francis Levy, Henry Behring, James Carroll and Robert Davy, three other firemen are in a hospital not expected to live, and 12 other firemen are unaccounted for. Two spectators are missing.

How It Happened.—A dozen firemen were standing on the fire escape between the second and third floors when the roof of the state building crashed in, carrying down two floors beneath. The wall against which the firemen were grouped collapsed and the firemen were thrown into the flaming debris.

A water tower, which had been placed in front of the building was wrecked when the building collapsed and a dozen or more firemen and spectators who had crowded through police lines, were struck by bricks and stones. Some of these were believed to have been killed or injured so badly they may die.

Among Missing.—Among other firemen who have been unaccounted for is Battalion Chief Henry Kerr and Lieut. James Froeh. Physicians rushed to the scene of the accident and the police commanded all passing automobiles to rush the injured to hospitals.

Thousands Watch Battle.—The factory building was occupied by the engineer Paper Box Company. Thousands of spectators gathered to watch the battle with the flames and many of these were among those injured when the walls collapsed. Gas from the broken mains in the building caused a small explosion. Continued on page 8.

ADVISE LAYING ASIDE SHOALS BIDS A WHILE

In the Meantime Develop Definite Policy for the Government to Follow in Respect to the Muscle Shoals Plant—Would Then Call For Bids to Execute It.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—Suggestion was made at the senate committee's Muscle Shoals hearing Friday that all of the pending bids be set aside and the government adopt a definite plan with respect to the property and then call for bids to execute it.

Senator Ralston, Democrat, Indiana, advanced the proposal and Chairman Norris said he saw no objection to the idea and added that he understood it conformed with the Muscle Shoals policy of President Coolidge as set forth in his message to congress.

"As it now stands," Senator Ralston said, "the government has no plan for disposal of Muscle Shoals and before any are considered a policy should be adopted."

Attack Ford Bid.—All of the witnesses at Friday's hearings attacked the bid of Henry Ford, R. B. Bowen, national lecturer for the Non-Partisan League, said Ford obtained Muscle Shoals the committee would be "selling the nation's birthright." O. F. Graff, president of the American Nitrogen Products Company, Seattle, Wash., said he opposed the Ford bid because of the other bids because on the basis of their terms no private enterprise could face the competition; and Hugo MacRae, of Wilmington, N. C., a land reclamation expert depicted "a virtual gift" from the government.

Bowen Opposes All.—Bowen said he was opposed to all of the bids for Muscle Shoals and favored Chairman Norris' bill for government operation. He asserted that Ford's bid was better than the Hooker-White-Atterbury bid because Ford would furnish electric power rates by being a continual "threat" to the Alabama Power Company while the Hooker-White-Atterbury agreement would be compelled to accept an agreement with the Alabama Power Company to fix the price in order to survive.

But acceptance of the Ford bid, Bowen declared, would be "selling the nation's birthright." The statement was made, he added, that the people present at the bid when as a matter of fact the people are not informed on the proposition.

Graff's Only Interest.—Graff explained to the committee his only interest in Muscle Shoals was to prevent the present private nitrogen enterprise from being driven out of business by competition. He urged that all present terms, if any of the bids for the government, be rejected and the private concerns so that they could operate on a fair basis with Muscle Shoals. He said he particularly opposed the Ford bid in its present form.

MacRae favored the Hooker-White-Atterbury proposal. This bid, he said, does not violate the government's waterpower policy, leaves the title to the property in the name of the government, provides a going plant suitable for the manufacture of war material and would produce fertilizer at one-half of the present market price.

Senator Gooding, Republican, Idaho, interrupted the hearing to announce that he would insist on some agreement be made by the government to get cheap fertilizer for the Western farmer if Muscle Shoals were developed to help the southern farmer.

French Disturbed At English Stand

PARIS, Apr. 19.—French officials are considerably disturbed at attitude of the British press toward the proposed reparations settlement on the basis of the experts' reports. It is deduced from the general run of British comment that Prime Minister MacDonald will refuse to agree with France on the system of pledges to be taken in case Germany defaults in execution of experts' plan. According to officials of the French foreign office without an advance agreement on means of obliging Germany to carry out the terms of the arrangement, Germany is the only country sure of getting benefit from the experts' project. They added it is no use of making France, most interested creditor of Germany, to give up a sure thing no matter how small for an uncertain an eventuality of Germany paying without being obliged.

DR. B. D. CASWELL ELECTED HEAD OF DENTAL SOCIETY

Local Doctor Is Recipient of High Honor Which Colleagues Confer Upon Him At Banquet Last Night.

Dr. B. D. Caswell of Sanford was elected to be president of the Central District of the Florida Dental Society at a banquet held at the Valdes Hotel Friday night. Serving with him for the next term will be Dr. J. H. Varigan of Winter Park as vice-president and Dr. Donald Morrison of Gainesville as secretary-treasurer. Gainesville was chosen as the next meeting place in October.

The banquet of the dentists was pronounced by many to have been one of the most enjoyable affairs of its kind yet held by the organization and one which the visitors declared themselves as appreciating very much.

Several features among them solos by Mrs. J. H. Takach, and Mrs. Leak, were much enjoyed. Mrs. B. B. Deas rendered piano selections and was accompanied by two singers. Another delightful entertainment number was given by Miss Martha Fitts.

The business session held following the entertainment featured Mrs. J. H. Takach, Dr. J. H. Varigan and Dr. G. B. Tinson serving as toastmaster for the banquet. Among the talks given at the banquet were two by Dr. A. B. Whitman of Orlando and Dr. J. H. DeLand given on the "Dents" for the Dental Profession." These addresses were full of interest and were received with hearty applause. Others giving short humorous talks were Dr. M. Anderson of Tampa and C. N. Allison of Orlando.

Yesterday afternoon the delegates heard a very interesting and entertaining discussion by Dr. R. L. Mitchell of Atlanta. After discussion was held on the subject, a clinic was held with Dr. Mitchell in charge.

Following the clinic, the visitors were taken on an automobile ride through the city and clergy talks by members of the local dentists and members of the Chamber of Commerce. (Continued on page 8)

Cleveland Man Is Purchaser First Street Property

A real estate deal which was recently consummated by this city was one whereby Howard H. Bundy of Cleveland, O., bought of Lee Brothers, the two-story hollow tile building on West First Street. The consideration was announced at $20,000.

The property, regarded as one of the most valuable pieces of real estate in this city, has a frontage of 50 feet on First Street and extends back 117 feet. The deal was negotiated through the firm of A. P. Conolly & Sons. At present the building is occupied by Lee Brothers Plumbing establishment and Ray Brothers Filling Station.

Just what are Mr. Bundy's plans for his holdings here are not known but it is understood that he was prompted to invest in local property by the favorable impression that he gained of Sanford upon a visit here during the past winter season.

For a number of years Mr. Bundy has been spending his winters in Florida and this past year was no exception. While here he spent a visit one day during the winter, he became acquainted with Sanford and delighted with its prospects. That he may invest more in holdings here, is understood by friends here.

President Davis Says Honduras is now Quiet

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—Honduras, advised a general report representative here today that counter revolution in the west had been completely routed and the entire country quiet.

Friends in Sanford, who desire to have a part in the construction of the church at Lake Mary, and who are desirous of making a contribution to the building of this rapidly growing town, which in many ways is proving to be a popular residential and business suburb of Sanford.

Construction work on the new Methodist Church at Lake Mary, which for some time has been stopped for lack of funds, is now being pressed toward completion. Immediate help to the extent of several hundred dollars is necessary if this work is to go on for a point which will make the building available for purposes of worship.

It is felt that a large part should be done by the friends of this, and all such enterprises, who live in Sanford and other points near enough that they would have a neighborly interest in the moral and christian development of this rapidly growing town, which in many ways is proving to be a popular residential and business suburb of Sanford.

SENATE OKEYS BILL PROVIDING JAP EXCLUSION

Immigration Measure, Practically the Same as Passed by House, and Providing for Japanese Exclusion Is Passed by Senate with Six Dissenting Senators.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—The immigration bill of 1924, carrying substantially the same provision relating to Asiatic exclusion and other important changes in basic policy recently approved by the house, was passed Friday night by the senate by a vote of 62 to 6.

On the final roll call, as upon every important test vote taken since the measure was first reported, the senate registered its disapproval by a larger majority even than in the house, where the vote on passage was 322 to 71. The six senators opposing the bill in its amended form on the last roll call were Chairman Colt, Rhode Island, and Walter, Maryland, Republicans; Rhode Island, Delaware; Gerry, Massachusetts, Democrat; and Walsh, Massachusetts, Democrat.

As it goes to conference, the new bill contains few changes which are expected to prolong discussion. Attention, however, has been called to the possibility of important changes being worked out there. Slight differences in phrasing exist between the house and senate drafts in many sections, one of them the vital "Japanese exclusion" provisions, and, while no evidence has been shown of a disposition to recede in the slightest degree, parliamentary observers called attention to the possibility offered for modifications in conference.

While House spokesmen declared President Coolidge had no objection to offer upon the senate action, nor upon the situation which has grown out of the failure of congress to accept the advice of the state department against bringing the Japanese into the definitely excluded classes.

The senate bill was described by its author, Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, as "even more restrictive than that passed by the house." Both measures adopt the "house bill" which permits certain quota classifications which are not included in that of the senate.

Among the exceptions are the children and other dependents of citizens and their relatives and families.

A maximum admittance of 150,000 a year is fixed by the senate bill, against an estimated "quota total" of 162,000 in the Johnson act, exclusive of exemptions. Senator Reed estimated the house bill actually would provide for the legal admittance of "twice the total" or 324,000.

These new estimates compared with the existing law, show a reduction of 220,000 under the senate bill and of about 208,000 under the house measure.

In the final hours of debate the senate refused to extend the quota restrictions to North and South American countries as proposed by Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio. Democratic and Republican leaders joined in opposing the move as tending to destroy the work of years toward pan-American harmony.

Bank President's Wife Dies After Explosion

(By The Associated Press) ALBANY, Ga., Apr. 19.—Mrs. Paul J. Brown, wife of the president of the Albany Exchange National Bank, died at her home shortly before noon today as a result of an accident about an hour earlier, when the gas water heater in the bath room exploded. The exact manner in which the accident occurred is not known, whether overcome by gas or by the force of the explosion, which was strong enough to blow out a window. The woman remained unconscious until death. She apparently was not burned, although towels in the room were scorched.

Quinn Endorses The Insurance Bonus Bill

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—The American Legion today endorsed the insurance bonus bill taken up by the senate. In a message to each senator, Commander Quinn said that no attempt be made on the part of the senate to amend the pending bill. He commended the pending legislation and the amendments by the American committee Democrats are full cash payment option and proposed the bill that if adopted the chance of the bonus being a law was endangered.

WHY FISH LEAVE HOME HALF A LEG, HALF A LEG, ONWARD! DONT GIVE UP THE HIP! CRY BATHING MAIDS FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM OF THE KNEES

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS NEA Service Staff Writer.

WHAT'S wrong with this picture? Absolutely nothing—particularly with the ukelele player on the end, I he uoyraodelanBoly;;q WR123 player on the end, I hear you yodel as you polish your tortoise-shells and settle down for closer application.

However, this strip of pulchritude has its message. Reformers, park inspectors, policemen, life-savers and knitted goods merchant, please take notice.

This picture reveals more than legs—it reveals the crying need of our country before June—the standardization of the bathing suit.

When these models were shown at a recent fashion show in New York they brought home to us the deplorable condition that exists. In some states your bathing suit must not miss your knee by more than one inch. In others you may have a leeway of two inches. Florida got reckless and allowed four inches, so Atlantic City raised the ante to six. With excellent sportsmanship the women are standing the raises, but of course, if a woman is to travel much, the number of bathing suits she must have is quite an item. What is perfectly tame on the Pacific coast may start a riot on the Atlantic.

According to our present standards—or lack of standards—the second lady from the left dropped out about the first hand. She must feel quite out of it with the others of the group who stayed in the game.

Yet there are those alarmists who believe that if the contest goes on and all bathers adopt the style at the extreme right there will be no young men left on the farms to take care of the wheat crop this summer and the factories will have to close because of a lack of response to their "help wanted" ads. What's to be done?

Notice of Intention to make application to establish claim to the land above described, before Clerk Circuit Court, at Sanford, Florida, on the 21st day of April, 1924. Claimant names as witnesses: Hiram Hawkins, of Maitland, Florida; Walter Wright, of Maitland, Florida; Oliver Wheaton, of Maitland, Florida; Bill Lewis, of Longwood, Florida. GEORGE C. CHOM.

Fuller, if living and if dead, and Margaret W. Ramsey, Defendants. CITATION. To Ellen M. Knight, if living and if dead, all parties claiming interest under the said Ellen M. Knight, deceased, or otherwise in and to the premises hereinafter described, all parties claiming interest under the said R. D. JUDGE ELLIS HOLDS RIGHT THE WOMEN

LAKESIDE, Fla., Apr. 19—Principle of the government of the 19th amendment to the federal constitution. Upon women as a class, may be taken from service as government officers. To limit, therefore, membership on any board, court or legislature to men is to assert power of men in a negligible quantity.

Justice Wm. H. Ellis of the Florida supreme court, dissenting opinion to the ruling several days ago of the circuit court for Duval county in holding a constitution act of the 1923 legislature providing for a welfare board for a county having a population of 10,000.

It specified that the board consist of five men and five women. Validity of the act was challenged on the ground that it was defective. It "classified office holding population of the county in two male and female," said Ellis in his dissenting opinion.

He said that the "female of the species is more deadly than the male" and that the legislature, composed of the male sex, proposes the "board" membership to consist partly of men and partly of women, said Judge Ellis, but that this "progressive" factor, might not be too liberal for common sense, but it is not, with the "female" as a class, in a minority as if the "word" might be held to the "male" when occasion required, if should, might be "broken to pieces" by the "female" of the species. But it is not, with the "female" as a class, in a minority as if the "word" might be held to the "male" when occasion required, if should, might be "broken to pieces" by the "female" of the species.

But it is not, with the "female" as a class, in a minority as if the "word" might be held to the "male" when occasion required, if should, might be "broken to pieces" by the "female" of the species.

FLOOR PLAN SCALE OF FEET
Office of R. C. HUNTER & BRO. Architects (House A-98)
— A DELIGHTFUL FIVE ROOM BUNGALOW —

Anyone seeking a five room bungalow possessing good design and character as well as economy of plan and arrangement, need look no further, for a study of this house will reveal all one could desire.

The entrance to the house is through a small vestibule which leads into the living room, a good coat closet is found in the vestibule. The sun porch is in front of the living room and it has three exposed sides, making it a very fine room for the purpose for which it is intended.

A noteworthy feature of this plan is that the three living rooms are end to end with wide openings between, this gives spaciousness to the interior. The dining room has a bay window along one side with a window seat, etc. This is a feature which is much to be desired in any dining room. The kitchen is directly back of the dining room and is compactly and conveniently arranged. It has the much demanded arrangement; the sink with double drainboards and cupboards at each end and the group of windows above the sink, where the housewife may enjoy the view of the garden while performing her household duties.

The two bedrooms are arranged with communitative hall and bath between, each is provided with a good closet.

The exterior walls of the house are stucco, on wire lath. The roof is stained shingles, and the entrance porch and steps are of brick.

A very good color scheme would be white stucco, brown roof, blue shutters, and silver grey wood work and sash.

There is a cellar under all the house except the sun porch and the boiler, coal bin, laundry, etc., are arranged in this space.

The house could be built on a lot having a frontage of fifty feet and still have ample space on either side for a drive and lawn.

Complete working plans and specifications of this house may be obtained for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to House A-98.

Hung By Thumbs For Punishment

BILLY MEHEGAN RECOVERING FROM TORTURE.
BY HAROLD MATSON
NEA Service Staff Writer.

BOSTON, Apr. 19—A four-year-old boy, strung up by his thumbs, beaten with a broomstick until black welts covered his white little body, struck so hard that the bone in his left arm split—

Strung up by the thumbs until the cord cut away the flesh, barring the bone!

It is the unbelievable story of Billy Mehegan, but true. His bruised and battered body is the evidence.

Billy, naturally a lively boy, is happily surprised to find that this sort of treatment is not the regular way to handle little boys. He is lying in the city hospital here, his broken arm in splints, his welts back healing under salve and bandages, his raw thumbs being soothed with more salve and soft things like cotton and the hands of kind nurses.

"And I'm going to play games," he confides to Herbie, a little boy lying in the next bed. "Out of doors!"

It is almost incredible to Billy—out of doors!

He couldn't play out of doors before. He could only watch other boys play from the window. And that was tiresome so he would invent his own games to play in-doors. But they were noisy and he would be whipped if he was noisy in the house.

So his little head finally came on the great delight of making paper airplanes to shoot out of the window. Then that too was forbidden.

There was nothing to do but to be "seen and heard" by going to play the airplane game again. The temptation was too strong.

And for this little prank Billy paid dearly.

He was suddenly tied by the thumbs to a long cord, and then lifted until the cord looped over a heavy screw-eye. Thus strung up, so that he could not touch the floor with his feet, Billy hung helplessly while a broomstick was brought down on his body, blow after blow. Once it struck his arm and there was a terrible pain.

Finally the blows were stopped, but Billy hung there for a half hour. Then he was let down. He doesn't remember more, but according to the confession to the police Billy was again strung up for a half hour.

"That is the sort of punishment I was given when I was a child," his nurse told the police.

But it is not the sort of punishment Billy will ever suffer again. The nurse is in jail. The Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children will prosecute her. And Billy, lying safely in a hospital cot, will go back to his father, Edward Mehegan, of Roxbury.

"And play out of doors!" Billy reminds you.

Imported Liquor On Truck and Driver Are Captured by Sheriff

ST. AUGUSTINE, Apr. 19—Sixty cases of the finest imported liquors, and said to be worth at retail prices around $6,000, are reposing under lock and key, where they have been placed by Sheriff E. E. Boyce, who, aided by Deputy Sheriff P. A. Turlington of Hastings, captured a big truck, the aforesaid 60 cases, and took into custody F. D. Eversall, white, who was driving the truck. All this happened about 1 o'clock Thursday morning, on the Dixie highway, south of St. Augustine. Sheriff Boyce and Deputy Turlington have been working quietly for some time past gathering information, regarding shipments of liquor, which have been reported as coming north over the Dixie highway, and they have spent a number of sleepless nights out on this road, waiting for bootleggers. Eversall is in jail here awaiting trial, and is to be arraigned before County Judge George William Jackson.

THE FIRST AND THE LAST: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

THIS TRUE NOBLENESS: For this true nobleness I seek in vain, in woman and in man I find it not.

Tomorrow is Easter Sunday. And the best time of all to give a thought to God.

There will be some excellent services in Sanford churches tomorrow.

Sanford has enjoyed having the Dentists here. It is hoped their fourth semi-annual meeting has been a great success.

And now the Republicans say they may put a county ticket in the fall.

What has become of Sanford's new hotel, People's Hotel?

Speaking of Bob Holly, the Tampa Tribune says: "Bob Holly is writing an interesting column, 'Just in Passing,' in the Sanford Herald."

Reports from William Jennings Bryan's speaking tour indicate that there is not the slightest doubt that Floridians recognize his brilliance and worth to the state.

John Martin would be better off if he would quit campaigning now and just try to luck.

As we understand it John Martin was unable to attend the political rally in Welborn, so there was no "mud-slinging."

Frank Jennings may not be "sweeping" the state, but when the votes are counted, John Martin will think he used a vacuum cleaner.

John W. Martin will be elected by the biggest majority ever cast for a gubernatorial candidate.

Judging by the way citizens of Seminole county are qualifying to vote, there will be a heavy vote polled on June third.

A tiny painting, discarded in an old attic, was recently sold for a song.

The New England Hoach fleet is reported to be reassembling at Boston after being scattered far and wide by the recent storm.

Former Attorney General Daugherty said the Department of Justice had nothing to do with the indictment of Senator Wheeler.

Who was it said that when a married woman begins misbehaving her husband is the last person in town to hear the news?

Take the case of Mr. Blank. It was a long time—so it seemed to the watchful and gossiping neighbors—before Mr. Blank's jealous suspicions became aroused.

However, once he became convinced that Mr. Blank's eyes of suspicion had been turned beyond the bounds of discretion, he had had them there before.

Mr. Bryan will be there, anyway. If Florida should turn him down he would be flooded with offers of proxies.

It has never occurred to the Courier that there could be much doubt about Florida sending Mr. Bryan to the National Democratic convention.

Sanford is becoming more beautiful every day. The good folks of this city are sprucing up considerably.

If any of the official machinery breaks down, or any candidate goes wrong, or any newswriter and copywriter or Arthur Fowell catches a fish, or Jack Davidson quits work, or Forrest Lake writes some political column, or any other thing that I can't think of, I will be happy to hear from you.

The McAdoo Convention.

In Thursday's edition of The Herald was announced the issuance of a call for a McAdoo convention to be held in this city on May 2. The call was sent out by Mayor Forrest Lake and was broadcasted throughout the entire state by the Associated Press.

The value to Sanford of such a convention can scarcely be estimated at this time. Every newspaper in the state will carry Associated Press accounts of the meeting and everyone interested in the election of McAdoo will read of what Sanford is doing toward making him president.

But that is scarcely half. William Gibbs McAdoo is the leading Democratic candidate. In the state primaries held thus far, he has shown an unmistakable predominance over Underwood, Davis, Ralston and the rest, and today it seems quite probable that when the national convention meets in New York, McAdoo will be recognized as the standard bearer of his party and will be selected to lead the fight against Coolidge or whomever else the Republicans may select.

Further this is a Democratic year. With any kind of a candidate at all, the Democrats will land in the White House. Whatever Republican strength the weakness of the Harding administration had not already destroyed, the oil scandal has completely obliterated. It is scarcely far-fetched to be thinking of President McAdoo and McAdoo as president would not likely forget little Seminole that called the convention which carried the state for him.

So Seminole has started something which cannot be stopped and something which in all probability will react very definitely to her distinct advantage. Every movement of development, reform, progress or publicity has to have its guiding spirit. There are few things outside the forces of nature which start of their own accord and gather momentum enough to get anywhere.

Easter Sunday—Pascua Florida.

Pascua Florida, the day on which Ponce de Leon discovered this Land of Eternal Youth.

In connection with the usual observance of Easter Sunday, with its appropriate reference to new life and new hope, it would not be irreverent for Florida preachers to remind their congregations that it was on what the Spaniards call "Pascua Florida"—Easter Sunday—in 1513, Ponce de Leon sighted the new land which he believed held the Fountain of Youth he had vainly sought in Bimini.

As a part of the Easter services, it might be pointed out that of all the states in the Union, Florida is thus most closely associated, in name at least, with the most beautiful day in the church calendar. And from that fact it is but a step to other truths more vital—truths dealing with reasons why people privileged to live in a land of sunshine and flowers should be free from darkness and ugliness in their souls.

Have you ever thought of how incongruous it is for evil thoughts and sinful habits to flourish and grow in the midst of beautiful surroundings? For the most part offers a setting for a perpetual Easter Sunday, so far as that day stands for sublime hope and infinite promise. It should be easier here for people to be good, easier for people to be kind, easier for people to grasp the wonderful meaning of the Easter message, "I am the Resurrection and the Life."

Tomorrow, then, in Sanford churches the hearts of the people will be in tune with the Infinite. Spiritual light will flood their souls. And they will realize that as truly as He said it to His disciples after He had risen from the dead, Jesus is saying to His faithful followers today, "Peace be unto you."

THE TAMPA TRIBUNE makes the announcement, interesting to the entire state, that work is about to begin on the construction of a new twelve-story building to house that newspaper. The contract calls for an expenditure of approximately $750,000. A few years ago The Tribune was a small publication. Today it is known as one of the greatest newspapers of the south, with an ever-increasing circulation which not only reaches all parts of Florida but extends to many points in other states.

TEACHING FOR BEAUTY

PALM BEACH POST

A man is as young as he feels and a woman is as young as she looks. What Dallah was after when she gave Samson a bob was a switch of good-looking hair. Few women will grow bald patiently while a husband wears a shock of umbrageous hair.

Even in beauty shops innovations are setting in that will hasten them forever on civilization. One New York theatre has installed a shop known as "At The Sign of the Lipstick," where a woman may not only apply her lipstick

Presidential Betting. We Need Alrahph. Japan Goes Right On. Mary and Ninon. Copyright, 1924.

BETTING ON the next presidential election has begun among professionals in Wall Street. Al Smith's odds have improved since the big Tammany demonstration in London in favor of the presidency.

The odds were ten to one against his election. Now they are only eight to one and the betting is one to four that he will be the Democratic nominee.

OF COOLIDGE'S nomination the betting odds are five to one, and with seven to five, that he will be the next President. As between Democrats and Republicans, leaving out Al Smith, the odds are four to one in favor of the Republicans.

ALL THESE betting calculations would be upset, of course, if there should be an independent Republican nomination with such a man as LaFollette at the head of it. But LaFollette won't lose his place in the Republican ranks, or make himself responsible for the election of Al Smith or some other Democrat, by running independently.

RAMSEY MACDONALD'S Labor Government invites other countries to consider cutting down the fleets of fighting ships. That would be a good idea—for Europe.

THIS COUNTRY, knowing how a flying fleet can be built and having use in peace times for thousands of first-class flyers and flying machines in post office and other government departments, should continue flying machine experiments and flying machine construction, not consulting anybody. We are not going to attack anybody through the air or in any other way, and if we had the world's best fleet of fighting flying machines and the largest body of well-trained flyers, there would be no danger of checking this country through the air or otherwise.

THE LITTLE Japanese flurry, which will soon blow over, reminds you that it is a good idea for this country to be outside of any league.

The Senate unanimously passes a bill Japan doesn't like. If we were in the League of Nations gentlemen across the water might sensibly rebuke us and tell us that we mustn't shove our noses into their business. Now, it's none of their business. It should remain NONE OF THEIR BUSINESS.

WHEN THIS country talks about raising the elevation of its guns, to extend their range and make our ships equal to foreign ships, England protests. And another protest comes when it is proposed to change some of our laws to all but increase their cruising range.

JAPAN GOES ahead quietly with determination and intelligence. And she knows enough to build submarines. For what purpose do you suppose she is building them? Not to take the Mikado for a little trip, certainly.

The future war will be by submarines and flying machines. And this country should have plenty of both. More than any other nation. It can afford it. They can't. So much the better for peace.

MARY GARDEN, very able young woman, sails away telling the whole world that she envies Ninon de L'Enclos because a man dies of love for Ninon when she was seventy.

IF MISS GARDEN knew the rest of the story, perhaps she would not envy the French lady. The young man who "died" was Ninon's own son, although he did not know it. She had to tell him, whereupon he immediately killed himself because of the "disgrace."

A strange idea of honor. It was all right to be violently in love with a lady, but when he discovered that she was his own mother, he had to blow his brains out.

That's the rest of the story.

PRESENT COOLIDGE advises America women to vote and interest themselves actively in politics and in maintaining our form of government.

Good advice. Luckily, our form of government will maintain itself. And women are more and more taking an interest in politics.

Mr. Coolidge might say a few words to the men; millions of whom, presently, will forget all about the oil scandal, and everything else, because their dear interest in Babe Ruth's home runs and similar important matters.

MR. STONE, new Attorney General, says the indictment of Senator Wheeler, head of the senatorial investigation committee, is justified. The people will await the evidence of justification, believing in the Attorney General's sincerity but thinking it quite likely he may have been deceived.

There is a suspicion that Senator Wheeler would not have been indicted had he been a servant of copper people that want to control the state as they used to.

Goode Guerry of the Palatka News says "Florida Falls Short on Milk Production." Sure do, Goode. Everybody milks us in the winter.

New York clamps the lid down on careless auto drivers. Most of them have the lid clamped down on them sooner or later—usually the coffin lid.

Newton Baker, former secretary of war, says the next war will be the same as the last. Quite so, Newt, quite so. Only those who were killed in the last one are safe enough this time. The balance of us will proceed to kill the man or men who bring on the next war.

People in the east are complaining about the size of the Sunday newspapers. Say they have no time to read them. There is something sensible about all this agitation. The average Sunday newspaper is a bunch of pliff—do you know what I mean.

Fashion decrees are trying to do away with the Tuxedo coat for men. Let me tell you fashion directors and all the others that we know our rights and we will never part with the Tux. Do away with the full dress coat if you will but the Tux, never. Doc Aldridge says the same thing.

Harry Thaw is now asserted to be sane. They have probably milked him for all of his money and there is no need for any more expert testimony all of which reminds me that there are saner men in the asylum than many at large today.

Other states are making campaigns to remove all the unsightly bill boards. Now you expect me to say that this is the thing—advertisers in the Herald and the Truckee. You are right but there are some bill boards that are attractive and mean much to the community—for instance the big bill boards of Chase & Co. all over the state showing a map of Florida with Sanford prominent on the map. This is really good and attractive advertising.

We had a little T-top of our own here Monday night when warring factions from Altamonte came up to discuss family affairs on the street for the edification of Sanford folks. I did not hear the discussion but from all reports it could well have been left off the bill of fare. Such discussions never get you anywhere but usually offer amusement to the crowd.

A Scotchman over here says that "advertising helps the American's Golf Game." Look mon, advertising helps all our games, advertising makes the wheels go round, advertising is the thing that makes America great. It also helps the "pros" to drag down a good rally every year.

"Why Congress is Slow" is the subject for an editorial in the Jacksonville Journal. This is a big subject and should be approached with much caution and trembling. You might accidentally stumble on the real truth and then another scandal in the White House. Of course all we boys down here in the sticks know the answer—the bochs in Congress stall around so much on fool questions that mean nothing and the big questions all get by them. This is the real answer. The solution is—send a new bunch of boobs.

Candler must pay the money for the note that went to quiet the feelings of the man that had the wife on board the ship, that Candler tried to kiss in the dark. Sounds just like the "House that Jack Built." Lawyers in Atlanta are having a good time with the Candler money meantime.

While you are reading this column of stuff and nonsense we will be down the east coast milking the cocoon tree and watching the bootleggers go by in their seven league boots and seven mile boots. Upon our return if we escape all the dangers that beset our path on the "endurood roads" and the "ahimny trails" we will tell something about it.

Stray votes on presidential candidates are now the favorite outdoor sport wherever the men gather. Stray votes are supposed to show which way the wind blows but sometimes after election the stray vote is straw man for president. Not giving out any information on the subject.

My old friend Thomas A. Edison is back at his laboratories after a vacation in Florida and all my old friends like Henry Ford, Harry Daugherty and others are back home after a few weeks rest in Florida. Yes, it is restful down here after the hectic days in the northern cities all of which shows that Florida is the greatest state in the union for many purposes.

Sanford is becoming more beautiful every day. The good folks of this city are sprucing up considerably, the homes and yards look fine and the good ladies are getting ready for one of the most beautiful cities in the state when all their plans mature. And at that Sanford is the cleanest city in its state now and is also one of the prettiest. Quite a change from the town you truly discovered in 1908.

If any of the official machinery breaks down, or any candidate goes wrong, or any newswriter and copywriter or Arthur Fowell catches a fish, or Jack Davidson quits work, or Forrest Lake writes some political column, or any other thing that I can't think of, I will be happy to hear from you.

SATURDAY EVENING SERMON

It is wonderful how the Bible written so many centuries ago mirrors life today. Take the record of the Savior's birth, the statement is made that they laid Him in a manger "because there was no room for them in the inn." The men of Bethlehem did not know that Christ was coming into their town. They were busy with what men think important—taxes, business, pleasure, nations. No thought for where children should be born. It is even so now. This world of men has room for many things, for wealth, ambition, pride, show, pleasure, trade, society, powers, armies, wars. But how little for the Christ. But in spite of this, that there is "no room," Christ has made much room for Himself. A little girl, Hettie, owned a Motel Village. Her father had invited "the boys" to come her village into a heathen village, so this was her version of the transformation. She said, "Well, we must take the Church out, and the hospital, and the old ladies' home and the orphanage."

And her father said, "Are there any schools in heathen villages or libraries?" and she took them out, and they were the finest things in her village. If we took the things Christ has put into our towns out, what poor towns they would be.

1. There is the room of Mind. Try to imagine the multitude of thoughts that throng there each day, hurrying, jostling, tumultuously. Yet "God is not in all their thoughts." Christ wants a place in our thoughts. He invites us to the Old Testament, "Come, let us reason together." He wants to broaden, deepen and ennoble our thought life. It is pathetic of any life when it must be said, "There is no room in his thoughts for God."

2. Then there is the room of action. It is the place where the deed is done; it is the room where pulses spring or faint, it is the room where secret longings shyly about, only occasionally showing themselves at the door. Christ longs to enter our lives. He wants to be a part of our lives. He wants to be a part of our lives. He wants to be a part of our lives.

3. Then there is the room of prayer. In this room is the window, and the window of where we look out upon the world. In it are born all our movements and great thoughts. If it wants the light of God, it must be in that man's heart.

4. There is the room of hope. It is the room where the sunny presence of wit and wisdom is the original cause of Christ's first miracle was a bridal feast. He was often guest of honor at their feasts, wants to dwell in the room of our lives. The man goes about with a long and substantial way he must see that our joy might be full. It is no joy or worldly apart from Him. He wants to enter our joy, and be our joy on there, to live in the mirror of our lives.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

DAYTONA JOURNAL

One of the most notable developments in American activities is found in the field of newspaper advertising, both in the vast increase in the amount of space used and in the quality of the "copy" itself. With improved methods of merchandising, advertising has kept to the fore, so much so that newspaper publicity has blazed the way for the great expansion in distribution of varied character and use.

Through the stimulus of advertising, a keener competition has resulted, tending to raise standards of quality in merchandise, so that it may be said that consumers are getting better values today than ever before. More and more are newspaper advertisements coming to be regarded as the official statements of the merchants, the responsible utterances of business men who cannot afford to deceive the public. What a manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer or other advertiser says over his own name regarding his merchandise or products is regarded as a bona fide and personal statement.

facts and the advertiser writes his "copy" should keep in mind that he is talking his word, and that if his talking is to bring him the return he has a right to, and his business is to grow, he must see that his claims will stand up to their face value and no one will be disappointed. In short, advertising must be truthful.

Newspaper advertising is a part of ever-increasing importance in America's mercantile development. Because rightly placed, business can make a number of advertisers is constantly increasing. The newspaper is becoming more and more recognized as the great medium through which the public may be reached, whether by merchandise or to enlighten the multitude on any phase of man's relations.

SEND BRYAN OF COURSE

PLANT CITY COURIER

It has never occurred to the Courier that there could be much doubt about Florida sending Mr. Bryan to the National Democratic convention. As a delegate at large from Florida he will give this state a prestige which it never before enjoyed; and to refuse to send him might give it a form of notoriety which could hardly be termed enviable.

Mr. Bryan will be there, anyway. If Florida should turn him down he would be flooded with offers of proxies. Some other state, even might wish the distinction of having him in its delegation. He will be a delegate at large from Florida.

Whether the Florida Democrats agree with Mr. Bryan's points, is not at issue. He has the power to instruct delegates if it sees fit. In all probability there will be at least presidential entries in the primary. Mr. Bryan is, and has been, an ardent exponent of many action and the people to decide, and he will cheerfully accept the will of the people.

MRS ROY CHITTENDEN ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF SEATTLE VISITOR

Honoring Mrs. J. C. Benson, who has recently moved here from Seattle, Washington, and is now a resident of Sanford, Mrs. Roy Chittenden was a gracious hostess at a bridge party, Friday afternoon at her home on Elm Street. A purple yellow and green color motif was artistically carried out in the decorations, bougainvillea with its purple blossoms and yellow centers combined with fern being used to an advantage in the spacious living room where were arranged the card tables. The score tributes and other details also contributed to the festive colors. After several interesting rounds of bridge the hostess awarded prizes, dainty embroidered linen, her own beautiful handwork, the prize winners being Mrs. Sam Younts first prize, and consolation, Mrs. Alyette Fitts, low prize, a wonderful Easter lily growing in pottery and in full bloom, was awarded Miss Edna Chittenden, Wight.

The guest of honor received a handsome embroidered buffet set as a memento of this delightful occasion.

Following the awarding of prizes, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Sam Younts and Mrs. Joe Chittenden, served an elegant salad course with delicious chicken sandwiches which were passed in dainty baskets, followed by ice cream and cake, the cakes were individual ones and had small purple bougainvillea in the center of each. The favors were tiny baskets of purple, yellow and green, and contained candy Easter eggs of different colors.

Those enjoying Mrs. Chittenden's hospitality were: Mesdames Fitts, George Hart, H. B. Lewis, and her sister, Mrs. McPherson, George Knight, D. P. Drummond, Benson, Joe Chittenden, Theo. W. Langley and Miss Edna Chittenden. Listening in Mrs. Walter Wight.

Episcopal Men's Club Has Enjoyable Meet

One of the most enjoyable and profitable meetings of the Men's Club was held Wednesday night at the home of Sherman Lloyd, at 606 Park Avenue with about 27 men present. Reports were read by the secretary, A. L. Betts. The treasurer reported that about $100 was cleared from the Station Opera production, "All at Sea," which goes towards the club contribution to the new Holy Cross Parish House. Plans were made for other methods of raising money. Dean Turner, Sherman Lloyd and Archie Betts, executive committee.

Discussion was held regarding the plans for the new Parish House, as the president of the club, B. F. Whitner, announced the practical completion of the plans for the new Holy Cross Church, designed by the architect, Elton Moughton. The Parish House will conform in general lines to the church building so as to have one big harmonized plant, an ornament to the city. Mr. Whitner invited all the members of the club to visit his Moughton's office to see the plans at any time. It was decided to build the B. S. A. unit of the Parish House immediately as Rev. A. S. Peck has had several designated gifts for that purpose alone.

Bids will be immediately advertised for the cleaning and painting of the church building, and the property and that done immediately and the building program commenced.

The club voted unanimously to further the work of the Finance Committee, Messrs. Key, Smith, Speer, Whitner, R. Chase, Mobley and Thompson in soliciting generous donations for the Parish House from the citizens of Sanford immediately. There will be a meeting of this finance committee, with all other interested, next Wednesday night, April 23, 8 p. m., at the Holy Cross Rectory, 411 Park Avenue.

Mr. Lloyd served coffee, whipped cream and sandwiches.

After spending a pleasant winter with Mr. F. M. Brown on Banana Lake, his sister, Mrs. Jos. Lane and his niece, Miss Alberta Lane, have returned to their home in Brookville, Canada.

After a pleasant visit of a week or two as the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Lucius B. Melrod of Tampa and Mrs. Vern Hurt of Lakeland, Mrs. Ralph Wight has returned to Sanford.

Motoring to Bartow Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodruff and son, Frank Woodruff. They went down for the purpose of seeing again and visiting with old friends that were there from South Carolina.

Mr. R. N. Willner, manager of the A. and P. in Sanford has just received a check for $15 which is first prize in a recent increase in business contest held in this territory. This goes to show how Sanford is growing and how business in Sanford is increasing all the time.

Visiting Miss Lillian Shinholser for the week-end is Miss Frances Jones of Bartow, who is now a student of Rollins College, at Winter Park. She has a host of friends in Sanford, having visited here as Miss Shinholser's guest several times before.

A frequent visitor to Sanford from Charlotte is Mr. C. D. Brumby. Friday he was hosted by Mrs. W. H. Laker of Jacksonville and Mrs. W. H. Laker of Jacksonville.

Frihola Club Guests Of Mrs. Connelly

Mrs. Hawkins Connelly was the hostess of the Frihola Club, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Three tables of bridge were played and after the scores were made known it was found that Mrs. Ed. Betts made highest and was awarded an attractive bridge set consisting of numbers, tallies and score pads. Mrs. Percy Meigs won the prize and was consoled with tallies for keeping trumps and the number of table.

The recreations were flowers, in lavender and yellow.

At the end of the games, refreshments of salad and ice tea were served.

Those enjoying this party were club members, Mesdames Percy Meigs, Emmett Hunt, W. C. Hill and Edward Betts. Visitors Mesdames Edward Meisch, N. W. Potter, Ben Caswell, C. R. Kirtley, Paxton, Baggett, Torrence and Misses Fen Ward and Lettie Caldwell.

AT THE CHURCHES

"I am the Light of the World," Jesus.

"But now in Christ risen," Paul, Lord Jesus, Thou art my Sun! From Thee, the radiance of the soul Streaming across my heart, awaken me To larger nobler life. Indeed, To me the day of life most blessed Never came, until the streaming glory Of thy love, beat full upon my heart. And waked within me sleeping memories Of thy bright world above. When Thou didst rise Above the horizon of my life, All with thy love didst illumine. All the landscape of my soul. Covering all with sweetness. And impart a beauty, new even to myself. The sleeping songbirds of my heart With drew their drowsy heads from Drooping wing, and with blinking eyes Looked on the beauty of thy radiant dawn. And, charmed, began to twitter, tuning Their sweet voices, that they might sing A song of rapture, fit to praise thee. Bleat voices of the golden day Of larger, sweeter, happier life. As Thou didst shine upon my sky Every cloud was permeated with Thy love, Until the dark and threatening ones Became most glorious; And the lighter ones, from thine eye Caught such tints of beauty as are Rarely seen upon the canvas of the mighty God. Every color On the palette of the Heavenly Artist With dextrous skill illumed and With a beauty rare, blessed my sky until Life was love and love alone was life.

TRUTH SEEKERS

Will you be there? Easter morning seeking Jesus, as the devoted women were at the tomb on that first Easter morning? Will you and I assemble in our class room to catch the reflection of our risen Lord in the faces of his children? In the songs that are sung and in the flowers and to learn the practical lessons that they teach of life and immortality, of victory over death. Let's meet each other with that joy in our hearts that sings, I know that my redeemer lives. What joy the blest assurance gives. He lives he lives who once was dead. He lives, my Everlasting head. He lives, and grants me daily breath. He lives, and I shall conquer death. He lives, my mansion to prepare, He lives to bring me safely there.

Dixie Belle Makes Dixie Wafers

ALTHOUGH Margaret Wilson is kept well occupied with her stage work in "Little Jesse James" she has not forgotten the cooking secrets imparted to her by her Southern mammy. Her specialty for after the theatre suppers is Dixie Wafers, a delicious confection which she tells us is made as follows:

Cream one cupful of sugar and five table-spoons of crisco together, add one fourth of a cake of chocolate melted, two eggs well beaten, one half teaspoonful vanilla extract, two cupfuls flour, one quarter teaspoonful salt, and one quarter teaspoonful baking soda. Mix and turn out on to floured baking board. Roll out thin, and cut with small cutter or a glass. Lay on a greased tin and bake from seven to ten minutes in a moderate oven.

This is sufficient for 41 wafers, but if your family likes them as much as Miss Wilson's friends do, you had better double the quantity.

"HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?"

There are two kinds of fence gardening—as the keen observer has undoubtedly noticed. One is the unornamental variety with hoes and spades and sows, and is usually conducted in khaki knicker and a farmer's hat. The other is the dainty type which sows little but reaps much admiration. It is to this second group that the charming smock tunic shown in the picture belongs. It is admirably suited to a stroll in the garden with one's latest admirer, with occasional snipping of leaves and picking of buds, and much inconspicuous but enjoyable chatter. The blouse might also be used by her who dabbles with art, in which case it will be found occupying first place at studio tea parties. This model is developed in rustrous crepe de chine, from the South Manchester looms, in a lively shade of apricot. It is an excellent example of the new long, flat tunics which will be worn with separate skirts as the season advances, for it is a delightfully cool easy thing to slip into on warm days, and is guaranteed to agree with almost any type of skirt or slip. The lady in the picture chose to wear it over a new and under a hat of the new (four-course) dove color, and achieved a most restful effect. Drawn thread trimmings, which Henri Creange tells us are very fashionable for hot weather frocks, decorate the front and the two giant pockets which are a real asset for practicality and a most restful effect. SOMETHING tremendous moves just under the troubled surface of international affairs. Events, some sinister and all significant, are lifting their heads on both sides of the Atlantic.

EVENTS are marching to a decision in an uncertain future. The world faces a condition never before experienced, Europe is hopelessly bankrupt; trade is dislocated and the confidence of the whole people is terribly shaken. The peace, such as it is, is maintained only by general prostration. The war did not make the world safe for democracy.

THE WORLD is turning a critical corner. Mighty things are doing. Civilization is in the throes of rebirth, and this stupendous upheaval will, in all probability, vitally change your life and the lives of every living man and woman about.

EUROPE is today filled with hatreds and fears. Every people fears and hates its neighbor, but no people seems aware that a universal apocalyptic peril is suspended over the world.

"AND he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."—Rev. 16:16; Zeph. 3:8, 9.

BUT, let the people be of good cheer. The Lord will make a speedy end of Armageddon, establish His Kingdom on earth, bring order out of chaos; and millions of people now living will become obedient to His righteous order and will live forever on earth in peace and happiness.
