Victim Allegedly Had Confessed Killing Young White Girl; His Fate Unknown

BREWTON, Alabama, Oct. 26.—(A.P.)—An armed mob estimated at 100 men stormed the Escambia county jail here today, and seized Claude Neal, 23-year-old negro, who allegedly confessed yesterday to the attack and murder of Miss Lola Cannidy, 23, at Greenwood, Fla., a week ago.

Sheriff G. S. Byrne said, the men came to the jail in 30 automobiles bearing Florida license plates. We are going to take him to Marianna and turn him over to the girl's father and let him do what he wants to with him," leaders of the mob told the jailer, Jake Shanholster. Shanholster, who was covered with pistols by mob leaders, unlocked the negro's cell door, the sheriff said.

"They assured Mr. Shanholster that they were not going to harm Neal, and were going to turn him over to Miss Cannidy's father at Marianna," said Sheriff Byrne. "I know something already has happened to him, of course."

At Marianna, Sheriff W. F. Chambliss had heard nothing of the mob and a citizen at Greenwood where the attack occurred said nothing had been heard there either.

The body of Miss Cannidy was found beneath a mound of pine boughs near her home in Florida last Friday.

Neal had been arrested near the scene and the "sumner" was found near the body.

Neal was arrested and hastened to several jails in an effort to escape mob. Yesterday he was quoted by Sheriff Byrne as confessing to the attack and murder.

PWA Paying Way For Another Big Sum For Projects

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The PWA quietly is paying the way for another huge appropriation for projects designed to create jobs in every corner of the nation.

The Administration, certain well-advanced persons said, is to ask for more millions, perhaps billions.

How much Congress will provide is only a guess.

The exact amount to be asked has not been decided.

The question of how much will be spent apparently is linked with future trends in private business activity.

President Roosevelt, though not mentioning the PWA specifically, had said that government spending and lending will taper off as soon as private initiative takes over the job.

His industrial recovery chief, Donald Richberg said in New York yesterday that the "clearly emerging" issue is whether private enterprise shall re-employ "four or five million willing workers" or whether the government must do it. He said he preferred to have private resources do it.

The jury's recommendation of mercy, after it had deliberated all night reaching its verdict of guilty, made such a sentence mandatory upon the judge.

Miss Burns and her niece, Miss Annie Burns, were killed and robbed at their farmhouse near here last April. Yon pleaded not guilty. He was tried only for slaying the aunt.

PRESIDENT TO RESIST BONUS DEMAND

Administration Spurs Plans For Drive Sure To Be Feature Of Next Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Administration spurred detailed plans yesterday to resist a drive for cash payment of the soldiers' bonus that is sure to mark the coming session of Congress.

At the White House there was no comment forthcoming on the American Legion's vote for the bonus yesterday but it was recalled. President Roosevelt spoke in unmistakable terms against immediate payment of the adjusted service certificates in dedicating a veterans' hospital at Roanoke, Va., last week.

Preparing to attack, the veterans' administration put together an estimate that it would cost $2,500,000,000 to meet the legion's demand.

That the President would veto an immediate cash payment bill is certain. When the issue was before Congress last spring, the President sent word to Democratic leaders that he would use his veto power if it reached the White House. Although it passed the House, the bonus bill died in the Senate.

Many observers here believe the action of the legion in demanding not only cash payment but cancellation of interest on loans made on the certificate enhances the possibility.

Joe Cronin Goes To Red Sox In Big Deal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Joe Cronin, young manager of the Washington American League baseball club, was sold today to the Boston Red Sox, and reports here said he was given a five-year contract as player-manager.

In one of the biggest major league deals of recent years, Boston bought the shortstop for a price reported to be the highest ever paid for a player, considerably more than $125,000 the Yankees paid for Babe Ruth in 1919. The Red Sox also sent shortstop Lynford Lary to the Senators.

Lonnie Parrish Gets 25-Year Jail Term

ORLANDO, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Criminal Court Judge W. M. Murphy yesterday sentenced Lonnie Parrish, escaped Georgia convict, to 25 years imprisonment for highway robbery.

"I'd rather die or serve life in a Florida prison than go back to Georgia," the 24-year-old youth said as he pleaded guilty to a charge of robbing Henry Hughey near Orlando last March.

Parrish escaped from a Georgia chain gang last June. He was recaptured at Baldwin by Duval county officers several days ago.

MILLS CHARGES THAT RECOVERY IS BEING DELAYED

Roosevelt Paying Too Much Attention To Reform, He Claims

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Roosevelt Administration, Ogden L. Mills declared last night, has paid more heed to reform than to recovery.

Addressing the Indianapolis chamber of commerce, the secretary of the treasury in Herbert Hoover's Administration said "the Administration did not directly and vigorously address itself to the task of recovery, but emphasized what are known as the reform features of the New Deal."

Mills surveyed the course of the Roosevelt Recovery program since Mar. 4, 1933, and voiced belief the Administration "either underestimated the importance of certain fundamental factors in our economic system, or determined to ignore them in an attempt to supplant our existing system with one of a different character."

"How otherwise," he asked "can we account for the suppression of individual initiative and enterprise by continued uncertainty; the limitation of production; the discouragement of saving by the threat to security of value; the restriction on the flow of capital; the hamstringing of the price mechanism by the threat of inflation and by the arbitrary fixing of prices; and the wholesale regulation by government of all business, large and small?"

"Given these inhibitions, limitations and restrictions, our economic system cannot function."

"Isn't that what's happened?" asked Mills.

Liquor Drinking Okey Liquor After Election

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Attorney General Landis yesterday ruled the proposed constitutional amendment repealing state-wide prohibition would become effective immediately after the general election Nov. 6 if a majority of voters cast their ballots in favor of it.

"It is my opinion," the attorney general said, "that if a majority of voters, voting on said proposed amendment to Article 19, vote in favor thereof, it will at that instant become a part of the constitution of Florida and effective without awaiting the certificate of any canvassing board or proclamation of any executive officer."

NEW DEAL TURNS INTO NEW AVENUE

Business And Industry Given Notice Either To Put Up Or Shut Up About Spending

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The New Deal moved last night into a new era in which business and industry are asked to put millions back to work or stop waiting about government spending.

Developments within 24 hours have etched more clearly the path President Roosevelt will follow as he throws his recovery troops into a new assault upon the depression.

The feeling of the new dealers directing the drive is:

A firm foundation has been laid for a new economic structure which will yield a national income in which a greater number may share. Business is improving but millions remain unemployed. The government is anxious to reduce relief costs but is unable to do this or balance the budget until private agencies absorb the huge work expenditures.

A large volume of bank credit is available but business and industry are too timid to utilize it. Until this credit is used and the wheels of industry hum again, the government must continue to make money available to those unable to obtain it through normal banking channels and to provide relief for the unemployed.

"In brief, it is notice to business 'to put up or shut up.'"

President Roosevelt led the attack Wednesday night by assuring the American Bankers' Association convention that he would curtail the activities of government lending agencies as soon as private capital displays its willingness and ability to provide credit and work.

He reaffirmed the faith of the (Continued on page Eight)

Robinson's Father Must Go On Trial

NASHVILLE, Oct. 26.—(AP)—United States Commissioner Julian Campbell ruled today that the question of guilt or innocence of Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., in connection with the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stitt would not be considered in the hearing on his removal to Louisville where he is under indictment.

The ruling was given at the completion of arguments by William E. Fort, special assistant United States Attorney General who contended that an indictment in itself established a "probable cause" to believe one guilty as charged, and that the question of the guilt or innocence is one for the trial court to answer.

Robinson, under question by his attorney, said the only time he had seen his now fugitive son since the youth left home in April was when Robinson, Jr., "Called on me" on Sept. 8 or 9.

Thieves Steal $1000 Worth Of Cigarettes

ORLANDO, Oct. 26.—Breaking through the skylight of the building, thieves early Thursday morning robbed the Central Cigar and Tobacco Co. of approximately $1,000 worth of cigarettes.

The loot was removed through the broken skylight, investigation disclosed. Last night Sheriff Harry Hand was holding a negro, Buster Keaton, in connection with the theft.

H. A. Baldwin, manager of the company, which is located on W. Central Avenue, said that he was still checking the losses but that he believed $1,000 would cover the amount stolen.

Host Of Masonic Grand Lodge Officers To Attend Meeting Here Tuesday Night

What is projected as one of the largest gatherings of Masonic Grand Lodge officers ever seen in Sanford is to be the feature of the Masonic District meeting scheduled to be held in the Masonic Temple next Tuesday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock. District Deputy Grand Master W. B. Gleason of DeLand has called the meeting.

Special invitations have been sent to all Masonic lodges in the district which includes Apopka, Harberville, Daytona Beach, DeLand, Orlando, Winter Garden, and Winter Park. Large delegations are expected to attend.

R. B. Chapman and J. O. Huff, Program Committee; James Moughton, J. K. Smith and E. F. Lane, Publicity Committee; W. B. Routh, L. B. Hodgins, Refreshment Committee.

Mr. Betts has announced that all visiting and sojourning Master Masons in the community are especially invited to attend, and every member of Sanford Lodge is urged to be present. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

BANKERS TO CO-OPERATE FOR RECOVERY

Hecht Tells President That His Group Is Prepared, Anxious To Make Big Loans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(A.P.)—A pledge of co-operation in the recovery program was made personally today to President Roosevelt by officers of the American Bankers' Association. Rudolph S. Hecht, president of the association told the President that bankers are prepared and anxious to lend money to business.

We are going through with the program of co-operation. Of course, it is known that bankers can't lend if business does not grow, but the bankers are making it known that they are willing to do their part," Hecht said.

Two of the most powerful groups within the association, the resolutions committee and the economic policy commission, urged greater participation by bankers in the Administration program for economic rehabilitation.

Both groups recognized the need of continuing federal relief expenditures, but cautioned that any balancing of the budget would go far toward dealing the depression a death blow.

The feeling was general in the capital last night that President Roosevelt's speech had laid a new basis of co-operation between the Administration and the bankers.

Winthrop Aldrich, chairman of the board of the Chase National Bank, New York, called on Mr. Roosevelt yesterday and pressed my congratulations for his splendid address. He said it was "inspiring to all of those who either as a member of the government or as bankers, are earnestly working together for the general welfare."

The speech also drew the praise of Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, critic of the New Deal fiscal policies and once described Mr. Roosevelt as an "unrepentant struck rebel."

"It is a debatable question as to how far at fault the banks have been in their omission to make loans and how grievous the government has been in encroaching on the legitimate business of the banks," Glass said in a telegram.

"Whatever may be the decision on this point, it is heartening to find there is now a spirit of co-operation on the part of both the government and the bankers."

Deputy Sheriff Shot By Convicted Robber

MARIANNA, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff Ed Hamm was seriously wounded last night when shot by Buford Means, who with two others was convicted yesterday of staging the recent bank holdup.

Sheriff W. F. Chambliss of Jackson county, said Means shot Hamm with a pistol, while the sheriff and the deputy were taking Means and Harrison McKinnon to the Chipley jail for safekeeping following their trial.

McKinney, also convicted of bank robbery charges, was slightly wounded when Hamm returned Means' fire. Chambliss said Means knocked the pistol from the hand of Means who was wounded.

Southern Authors

The increasing importance of Southern authors in contemporary American literature, say the publishers, Charles Scribner's Sons, "is strikingly shown in the current list of books published by our company in New York. Six authors either living in the South or of Southern ancestry are represented."

"R. E. Lee," a biography by Dr. Douglas Southall Freeman, editor of The Richmond, Va. News Leader and well known as a student of Southern history, has been acclaimed as the greatest life of the Southern leader and one of the finest of all American biographies.

James Truslow Adams, Virginian on his father's side, has written "America's Tragedy," an historical study of the growth of sectionalism in the nation, which has been called his "best book," and widely praised for its daring, truthful and un-biased handling of such highly controversial topics as Slavery and States Rights.

In fiction, beside "So Red the Rose," there will shortly appear on the Scribner list "Aleck Maury: Sportsman" by Caroline Gordon (Mrs. Allen Tate) of Tennessee. Miss Gordon's novel is completely Southern in background and deals with a man whose ruling passion throughout life was nature and outdoor sport—hunting, fishing and shooting.

The appearance of all these Southern authors in one season, according to Scribners, was not in any way premeditated but is simply an example of the way writers below the Mason and Dixon line are becoming of more and more importance in the literary life of America.

The Sportsman's Code

In anticipation of the usual number of accidents in the woods as the hunting season is about to dawn, Asher Frank, head of Gov. Sholtz' State Safety Committee, urges hunters to be careful with their guns.

- 1. I will never allow the muzzle of my gun to point at anything which I do not intend to shoot.
2. I will never load my gun when the muzzle is pointed at any part of my body or at any person, nor stand in front of anybody who is loading a gun.
3. I will never cock my gun and pull the trigger for fun.
4. I will never shoot directly at a flat, hard surface, a bottle or similar object, as the bullet is certain to ricochet (glance) from it.
5. I will never handle a gun WITHOUT FIRST OPENING THE BREECH TO BE SURE THE GUN IS EMPTY and looking through the bore to see that it is clean.
6. I will never carry my gun loaded except when hunting and will then be sure that it is locked in the "safe" position.
7. I will never shoot at a song-bird or harmless animal for sport and will always be sure that no wounded game is left to suffer.
8. I will remember that a .22 caliber bullet will travel three-quarters of a mile through or through nine inches of ordinary board, and will ricochet a long way across water.
9. I will always put my gun muzzle first through a fence—and I will climb over between the next two fence posts.
10. I will always give my gun a thorough cleaning as soon as I am through firing.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

One of the best and most enthusiastic meetings of season of the Commercial Club was held last Friday night with about 25 boosters of Sanford and the surrounding country present. The Inland Waterways via the St. Johns River which was taken up at previous meetings was again called up and the importance of this matter brought to the attention of the members. A committee composed of C. E. Walker, E. T. Woodruff, and A. P. Connelly was appointed to investigate the matter and write the senators and congressmen about the St. Johns River route.

An attempt by the Germans to check the Russian advance, it is said, was unsuccessful.

might be discovered between now and convening of the legislature, the sales tax might easily be held down even below 5 percent.

In conclusion, let me say that I am not associated with the Home Owners' League and am not receiving any compensation whatever from them, but am acting only in my capacity as a private citizen.

I am, however, thoroughly in accord with Senator Hodges' Home Owners' League and the wonderful work he is doing to bring Florida to a position of homestead tax freedom.

Many licenses are too low. The license taxes on pool rooms, vending machines, etc., should be radically increased, and the entire list of occupational and store licenses, chain store licenses, tire and tube dealers licenses and gasoline filling station licenses, and licenses on insurance companies and agents might be doubled without forcing any business to close its doors.

A luxury tax of 3 cents a package of cigarettes, 1 cent on each box of snuff and each plug of tobacco, and 20 percent on cigars or a 20 percent basic tax on tobacco in all forms should bring in a good share of the needed revenue. One cent a bottle on cold drinks would swell the total.

And while all other petroleum products are taxed, kerosene remains free. Much kerosene is used industrially, but since much is still used on farms, the levy should be held down to perhaps half that on gasoline.

It may be seen that it would not be difficult to produce enough revenue to replace any sum that might be lost through exemption of homes.

The 10 percent sales tax is therefore shown to be a big sham. A sales tax will no doubt be needed, but it need not be higher than half the levy predicted by opponents of exemption of taxes on homes, and with all the taxes suggested here, and others which

St. Pete Commissioner Says Passage Of Homestead Act Will Delay Bond Settlements

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 5.—Continuing his discussion of the proposed homestead exemption amendment, City Councilman Henry W. Adams has turned to a study of the effect the amendment will have on the city's efforts to refund its bonded indebtedness.

(In a recent article, Adams discussed the probable loss to the city in operating revenue should the proposed amendment be passed, and raised questions as to how the loss in revenue would be replaced.)

"The proposed amendment," Adams said today, "will inevitably delay a definite settlement of the city's bonded indebtedness because it does not explain whether homesteads will be exempted from taxation to support a refunding bond issue.

"Under the agreement reached between the city and the bondholders committee, refunding bonds will be issued to replace former bond issues in default. If this refunding issue is held up by the amendment, the former issues then the agreement will stand. But if the proposed amendment is adopted, Adams predicted, the refunding process will be delayed until the city's financial position is clarified, and business conditions more or less stabilized as a result. But the proposed amendment will disrupt this clarification and stabilization."

Adams also related two other points which must be settled in the courts if the amendment passes, and which will cause considerable confusion until the courts make their final ruling.

"First," he said, "there is the question of whether home owners who rent their homestead for even one month of the year are entitled to exemption under the proposed amendment.

"Several lawyers have voiced the opinion that a homestead, must not be rented for even a day. If that is so, it's going to cut down the number of homesteads in this city to a small number.

"Second, there is the question of whether homes erected on city lots after the amendment passes, if it does, will be exempted from taxes for debt service.

"Here again, lawyers contend that such homes, if erected on lots subject to debt service levies before the proposed amendment, would not be exempt after adoption of the amendment.

"Such improvements, they say, become, as a matter of law, part of the land, and are not the subject of a separate assessment or tax."

"Under these circumstances, it appears that arguments advanced in some quarters that the amendment will stimulate a rush of northern people to the state for the purpose of building homes are pure rot."

In this connection one further point should also be noted, Adams said. That is that the amendment proposes to exempt only the "head of a family" from taxation.

"The widow," he pointed out, "with no dependents, owning her little home, is not within the exemption, because not legally the 'head of a family'; only where husband and wife, (or either, as a family head, with dependents), occupy a homestead is it exempt; but the 'head of a family,' owning perhaps a $25,000 mansion, or apartment building, escapes.

Adams finally turned to the proponents of the amendment who ask the public to back the amendment because "the interests" are opposing it.

"Adams charged, are in reality backing the amendment because it will greatly increase the value of Florida municipal bonds. And they are loading up with these bonds."

Jim Farley Believes GOP Head Is Just 'Whistling In Dark'

—if you can call it an issue—that is, the attack on the President's recovery program, has fallen flat. People are satisfied that this Administration has performed a wonderful job and as a consequence the President's popularity is greater today than when he took office. The natural sequence of this is that the country will re-elect a Congress in sympathy with the President's program.

"The minority party leaders realize this is evident from the circumstances that nearly all of their congressional nominees are running largely on their record of having supported the recovery legislation. I think you will find when we pick up the lame ducks after November the majority of fatalities will be among those who opposed the President's policies and tried to hinder the emergency measures."

Farley declined to say in what states the Democrats expected to gain Senate seats, but predicted that Sherman Minton, Democratic nominee, would defeat Senator Robinson in Indiana.

"A joke" was the way he described the move in New York to put Col. Henry Breckenridge up as an independent candidate for the Senate. Senator Copeland, Democrat, is up for re-nomination. Pressed for a statement on Copeland, Farley said he was not even a delegate to the convention that would nominate the Democratic senatorial candidate.

Farley said he would support Governor Lehman for re-election in New York.

Another speaking tour was announced yesterday by Farley but the dates are indefinite. He plans, however, to leave Aug. 15 for Nashville, Tenn., and then will swing west through Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Topeka, Kan., and Denver, where he is to speak either Aug. 21 or 22 to a rural mail carriers' convention. He said he probably would stop at Des Moines enroute back, and that in September he might dedicate a post office building at St. Paul.

Utah Banker Urges Nation Halt Spending

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 5.—With more than 25 percent of our national income absorbed by taxes and 37 percent expended by governmental agencies, Orval W. Adams, vice-president of the Utah State National Bank at Salt Lake City, in an article in the current issue of "The American Bankers' Association Journal," urges that the country "stop petitions for public improvement far beyond our means to afford; realize that we cannot solve our problems of governmental finance by easy expedients and admit that nothing can replace 'collective thrift.'"

"The government," Mr. Adams writes, "and all its political subdivisions under which we live are spending annually $14,700,000,000, which represents approximately 37 percent of our national income. While this is far beyond our ability even to estimate or imagine, this thing we can understand: that it is far beyond our ability to meet. How and when shall we bring all our power, concentrate all our intelligence to call a halt to such wild abandon?"

"But that is only half of the picture. While we are spending $14,700,000,000 to meet the obligations of government, we are paying out of our current taxes only $7,975,000,000 annually. What of the balance? That is the legacy which we are transferring to the future generations as an impressive evidence of our solicitude for their well-being."

He says that in 1913 our tax bill was $22 per capita, in 1933 $70, and in 1913 public expenditures per capita amounted to $30, and in 1933, as compared with 1913, on a per capita basis, taxes were 230 percent, government costs 300 percent and public debts 600 percent increased.

posal on his past experience, that the age limit be raised to include men through the age of 40.

This proposal had about a dozen supporters but it was defeated when 16 members approved Andrew M. Carraway's motion that persons beyond the age of 35 be accepted as associate members with full power to vote on any questions brought before the body of the organization but with no right to hold office.

Announcing that he would delay the appointment of standing committee heads until later this week, President Barnett proposed that as a first step, the organization stage a private dance at the Trianon Dance Club on Thursday night Aug. 16, for the purpose of acquainting members and their families with other members, enlisted or prospective, and their families.

Among the speakers at the meeting were Dewey Hooten and Bill Henry of the Orlando Junior Chamber of Commerce. They reminded the audience that the Orlando Jaycees will play host to the Sanford Jaycees at a "stag" party at Waterswitch Club south of Orlando on Thursday afternoon, and they urged a large attendance at this city.

Young men who became members last night with the payment of a portion of their semi-annual dues were: Rev. J. J. Kellaghan, Wallace Phillips, Roy Symes, Jr., Gene Adams, E. O. Shinholer, Jr., Joseph O'Connor, Fred T. Williams, Jr., Fred Stanley, F. D. Scott, Bill DuBois, George Thurston, James A. Wright, Andrew Carraway, Gordon Barnett, Peter Schaal, Irvin L. Jackson, O. K. Goff, Clyde Ramsey, D. E. McNish, L. P. Hagan, Jr., Roy F. Mann, V. A. Williams, Maxwell Stewart, D. L. Harper, and B. H. Scott, Jr., of Fern Park.

Joe Melick, Glen Ingram, M. E. Blankenship of Longwood, Joel E. Field, and Babe McCall also signified an intention of affiliating at once, while others attending were Dr. H. W. Rucker, B. C. Moore, J. H. Truluck, and Roy Howell and H. D. Gleason of Lake Mary.

companies, and not from tax funds.

For this reason, an increase in net earnings and gross receipts is held at the Court House as a fairly accurate indication of the improvement in general economic conditions.

From their receipts the fee officers deduct the expenses of operating their departments, and from the net income they take their own pay. This pay is limited by law to $7500 a year. But the office must do a certain volume of business annually to produce the full amount. None of the officers made the maximum salary in 1933, nor will they this year unless heavy gains are reported for the last six months of this year.

Itemized for the six month period which ended June 30, 1934, the reports reveal the following facts:

CLERK DOUGLASS

SILVER SHIRTS PLAN REVOLT SAYS MARINE

planned "capture" of the San Diego city hall by force, saying: "It was planned for early in May, when the communists were to stage a May day celebration. The Silver Shirts were ready, too. The 200 armed the Silver Shirts had orders to converge on the city from the outskirts. They counted on the communists going in before them and taking the city by storm. Then in the confusion the Silver Shirts were to overthrow the communists, their avowed enemies."

The "capture" of San Diego failed, however, Gray said, when the communist demonstration failed to materialize.

In declining to appear before the committee Dr. Graling displayed a $215 check to newspapermen. It was endorsed by E. W. Rehner. "Somebody must have made a fool's confusion," he said, "as E. W. Rehner is a lady—my personal secretary."

Hayes said that as an intelligence worker in the Marines he obtained membership in the 350 Silver Shirts.

"I was made an instructor," Hayes testified. "The Silver Shirts were armed with rifles, pistols and shotguns, but mainly Springfield rifles bearing United States government marks."

"I was told the rifles had been purchased from members of the military forces in San Diego.

"I saw 2000 pounds of ammunition and was told there was another 12,000 pounds cached in four places near San Diego. The ammunition, I was told, had been purchased from Corporals Hudle and Edelson at the North Island naval base.

The former Marine testified the offer for guns and ammunition was made by W. W. Kemp, who he described as commander of the San Diego Silver Shirts.

Hayes quoted Kemp as saying "anything the Silver Shirts did would be countenanced by the San Diego sheriff's office with the exception of the under-sheriff who is a Jew."

"The Silver Shirts," Hayes quoted Kemp as saying, "will not be bothered when the time comes to act. Firearms of both the sheriff's office and the police department will be turned over to us. The under-sheriff will be liquidated."

People are satisfied that this Administration has performed a wonderful job and as a consequence the President's popularity is greater today than when he took office. The natural sequence of this is that the country will re-elect a Congress in sympathy with the President's program.

"The minority party leaders realize this is evident from the circumstances that nearly all of their congressional nominees are running largely on their record of having supported the recovery legislation. I think you will find when we pick up the lame ducks after November the majority of fatalities will be among those who opposed the President's policies and tried to hinder the emergency measures."

Farley declined to say in what states the Democrats expected to gain Senate seats, but predicted that Sherman Minton, Democratic nominee, would defeat Senator Robinson in Indiana.

"A joke" was the way he described the move in New York to put Col. Henry Breckenridge up as an independent candidate for the Senate. Senator Copeland, Democrat, is up for re-nomination. Pressed for a statement on Copeland, Farley said he was not even a delegate to the convention that would nominate the Democratic senatorial candidate.

Farley said he would support Governor Lehman for re-election in New York.

Another speaking tour was announced yesterday by Farley but the dates are indefinite. He plans, however, to leave Aug. 15 for Nashville, Tenn., and then will swing west through Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Topeka, Kan., and Denver, where he is to speak either Aug. 21 or 22 to a rural mail carriers' convention. He said he probably would stop at Des Moines enroute back, and that in September he might dedicate a post office building at St. Paul.

SILVER METAL NATIONALIZED BY ROOSEVELT

Purchase Act Of 1934 Is Invoke By President In Setting Value At 50.01 Cents An Ounce

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt today issued an executive order providing for the nationalization of silver at fifty cents per ounce according to the provisions of the silver purchase act of 1934.

The President's proclamation, made public by Secretary Morgenthau, said that mints would be directed to receive any and all silver in the United States.

Mints will deduct as seigniorage 61.23 percent of all silver received and will return to the depositor, silver certificates or other coin or currency in an amount equal to the monetary value of the remainder.

The order does not affect domestic silver mined since Dec. 31, 1933, which still may be delivered to mints under the Presidential proclamation of that date.

All other silver situated in the United States today must be delivered to the mints within 90 days.

Certain classes of silver are exempted.

Provisions are made for licenses covering silver needed for commercial and industrial uses, and to fulfill outstanding contracts to deliver metals.

Also exempted are all United States silver coins, foreign coins, silver ore, or silver owned by foreign governments and foreign central banks, and silver in fabricated articles.

Farley's Support Of Hiram Johnson

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 2.—(A.P.)—Carl Alexander Johnson, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, has announced he has sent a telegram to the National Democratic Committee demanding that Postmaster General James A. Farley resign or be deposed as committee chairman for supporting the candidacy of Hiram Johnson.

The telegram follows: "I have been informed by your chairman, James A. Farley, that he is publicly advocating the candidacy of Hiram Johnson, a registered Republican, for United States Senator from California, which impliedly carries with it the endorsement of your committee."

"It is your province to build up the Democratic party and not to pull it down by advocating election of a pseudo Republican who in the past has well nigh wrecked the Democratic party in California and according to Woodrow Wilson should receive the same treatment."

Their landing means that they covered only a little more than half of the 6,300 miles they set as an objective.

COURT ENJOINS GEORGIAN WHO DEFIES NRA CODE

Road Contractor Must Pay Help Not Less Than 40 Cents Hour

ATLANTA, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—Indicted two weeks ago for 70 alleged violations of the NRA construction code, John Whitley of LaGrange, close personal and political friend of Governor Eugene Talmadge yesterday was temporarily enjoined in federal court from paying less than 40 cents an hour for skilled workers on the highway projects he has under way.

Irwin Geiger, of the litigation division of the National Recovery Administration, announced here yesterday that Federal Judge Bacon Deaver, of the Middle Georgia district, had signed the order Tuesday at Dublin, Aug. 17 was set as the date for a hearing before Judge E. Marvin Underwood in Atlanta to make the injunction permanent.

"This action," Geiger said, "was necessary because of Whitley's deliberate and willful violation of the law, in which he has persisted since his arrest on July 28 for 70 such violations on evidence furnished to the government by his own employees, who were the only source of the information on which the government's action was predicated."

Whitley at present has two state highway contracts under way in Lamar and Wilkes Counties. Chairman Eugene Wilburn said yesterday that the highway department holds its certified checks that work on them will be pushed to completion.

Indicted at Macon July 2, Whitley made bond of $5,000 and trial was set in federal court in Macon on Nov. 5.

Geiger said yesterday that since the time of his arrest, Whitley has continued to "under pay and over work his employees" in violation of the NRA.

Several weeks ago the NRA removed his theoretical Blue Eagle but Whitley said at the time he had never signed the code and had no Blue Eagle.

PUBLIC BARRED FROM PROBE OF SILVER SHIRTS

Evidence Held So Poisonous That International Complications Might Result

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—A Congressional hearing into alleged communist activities was closed against the public here yesterday because the evidence was "so poisonous that international complications might result."

The protection of witnesses and those mentioned in testimony against possible violence also was advanced as a consideration in the decision to make the hearing an officially secret affair.

Testimony that an alleged pro-Nazi organization known as the Silver Shirts of San Diego had been plotting the overthrow of the United States government and had obtained rifles and ammunition from American military sources preceded the inquiry on communist activity.

Volney Moore, attorney for the Congressional sub-committee on un-American activities, disclosed the reason for closing the hearing as the head of the Los Angeles police department's anti-rad squad was summoned to testify.

Urging closing of the doors, Moore said the testimony "would never be made public" because of its internationally "poisonous" nature.

After debating the matter, the sub-committee, headed by Representative Kramer of California, followed Moore's recommendation.

Witnesses present at the time were Captain William F. Hayes of the Los Angeles police intelligence, and Miss Margaret Kerr, secretary-manager of the Better America federation.

Miss Kerr said before she entered the hearing room her apprehensions probably would be allayed to establish the nature of general communist activities in this sub-area.

Those who appeared were Meyer Baylin, educational director of the communist party in the Los Angeles district; Lawrence Roas, communist candidate for Congress and once a candidate for mayor of Los Angeles; and Pettis Perry, negro, communist candidate for lieutenant governor.

National Regeneration and Bureaucracy Held By Hoover As Endangering U. S. Liberty

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—"National regeneration" and bureaucracy are endangering the entire structure of American liberty, former President Herbert Hoover will say in the book he has just completed, under the title of "The Challenge of Liberty," it was announced yesterday.

The book will represent Hoover's first significant utterance since he left the White House two years ago to make way for the Roosevelt "New Deal." It will be published late next month by Charles Scribner's Sons.

Hoover, who has worked on the manuscript during the last year, will set forth his defense of "The American System" of government. He will give critical consideration to the growth of fascism, communism and socialism.

HEAT RECORDS IN IOWA ARE BROKEN WITH MARK OF 115

(By The Associated Press) Temperatures flared as high as 115 degrees in the super-heated Midwest yesterday as the weatherman stoked that huge oven for another baking day.

The 115-degree peak was recorded officially in Ottumwa, Iowa. It broke all Iowa heat records.

Temperatures of 108-plus were reported in Missouri, and the mercury boiled up to 109 in Topeka, Kan. One death was attributed to the intense heat there.

Other hot spots on a map of discomfort which stretched from the Alleghenies to the Rockies were Lincoln, Neb., and St. Louis, both with 109 degrees; Kansas City, where it was 105; and Des Moines, Iowa, with 102.

As the new August torrid wave struck the harassed mid-continent grain traders at Chicago heard sensational reports of the have already wrought in the nation's fields. December wheat whirled up to $1.12 1-4 a bushel, a season record. May hit $1.15 1-8 and December and May corn hit new highs of 79 2-8 cents and 84 1-4 cents respectively.

The weather bureau called drought conditions "extremely bad" from the Mississippi west to the Rockies, with crops deteriorating rapidly under persistent abnormally high temperatures.

Cooled at random by showers, the entire Midwest yesterday was an island of heat bounded by fairly cool weather on the coasts. Even in the Rocky Mountain States the mercury reached the not-so-gray nineties. Readings of 96 were recorded in Pueblo, in Sheridan, Wyo., and in Miles City, Mont.

Official and semi-official records indicate that Ottumwa's 115 degree reading made it the hottest day in Iowa in 115 years. It burned every official record from the weather bureau books. They cover 62 years. The previous mark, two degrees lower had been equaled several times during the July heat wave.

15 CENT COTTON PREDICTED AS DUE THIS FALL

Official Crop Report Sends Wave Of Jubilation Over Land, With Future Bright

ATLANTA, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—The South last night was jubilant over a cotton crop forecast that was even smaller than dreams of proponents of the Bankhead bill, and even higher prices before the staple is picked.

"She'll hit 15 cents by fall," a state official of Alabama predicted as he watched the chief markets of the country jump $2.50 a bale to nearly 14 cents a pound as the government said the crop now stood at 9,195,000 bales.

Professional traders also looked surprised—it was several thousand bales below their most bullish estimates, and predicted that unless there is a change in the weather the next forecast will be even smaller and prices will keep on the jump.

"Western conditions are serious," said F. D. Willis of the Fenner and Beane Atlanta office, "and our reports show they have not improved since the figures for the government forecast were gathered Aug. 1. The report is at least 300,000 bales under the figure the trade discounted and if conditions do not improve the next report will be under this."

"Very bullish," came from three New Orleans brokers, T. E. Grenin of Henican Grenin and Co., said it indicated an even smaller crop eventually but he doubted if the present price levels could be maintained due to hedge selling, a had European situation and encouragement to foreign producers.

M. H. Cronheim of the J. J. Williams Co., and Henry Hellberg of Norman-Mayer and Co., both said weather conditions had been unfavorable since Aug. 1 and predicted even smaller estimates.

Hallberg agreed with Grenin about hedge selling stopping the price rise but he said when that was out of the way "I believe the smaller crop will result in much higher prices."

Roosevelt Calls For Further "Action" On Non-Partisan Basis

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Local weather yesterday: High 90, low 72, rainfall .22 of an inch.

E. B. Phillips, secretary of Delivery Camp No. 625, Woodmen of the World, announced this morning that members of the Camp last week voted to change the day of the weekly meeting from Thursday to Friday, effective tomorrow.

Improvements noted at the local terminal of the St. Johns River Line Co., on north Palmetto Avenue, include a large skylight built into the roof, and affording much needed illumination and ventilation. Company officials also plan to increase the size of the building by adding a 75 foot long addition to the west.

"I ducked, but I ducked too late," said Jack Bolt, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bolt, when someone at the Sanford Clinic on Tuesday morning asked him how he happened to be there with the hooks of an artificial minnow buried deep in his head.

Awaiting treatment by Dr. Charles L. Park, young Bolt said that he and Elton "Buddy" Moughton were fishing near Indian Mound Village from a small boat. "Buddy hasn't done much casting," Jack said, "and before I could warn him he was careful, he had cast. I ducked, but I ducked too late." Jack was all smiles while he was telling his story, and even while Dr. Park skillfully removed the hook and administered an anti-tetanus treatment.

The first batch of what eventually will be a total of 409 ballots went out of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon into the hands of out-of-the-county trade body members. The ballots contain the names of all persons eligible for election as directors, and all ballots are to be cast on or before Aug. 21. Ballots will be mailed to all in-the-county members next Thursday.

The story of how she trapped that large blue racer snake which is now in the reptile pen at Sanford Municipal Zoo, was told here this week by Miss Nona Wyly of Lake Mary, member of one of this county's pioneer families. Miss Wyly and her companion, Mrs. McMillan, were attracted outside their home one day last week by the barking of their small dog. As they stepped out of a doorway, both women saw the snake, moving slowly against a wall nearby. Noting that it was non-poisonous, Miss Wyly coolly went about the business of putting an end to it, when she thought came to her that it might be captured alive. With Mrs. McMillan stationed at one end of the wall, Miss Wyly went to the other corner with a cage in which she sometimes carries chickens. Opening the door of the cage, Miss Wyly placed it before her, in the snake's path. "The snake crawled right up to the door, looked in, and then wiggled in without our laying a hand on it," Miss (Continued on Page Three)

Demands Of People To Be Met, President Says In Militant Talk At Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis., Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt today sounded a call for further "action" by the "New Deal" as he spoke on an road in a militant speech in old Wisconsin.

In his principal speech of the Congressional campaign year, Mr. Roosevelt at the Wisconsin State Tercentenary said that in 1932 the people joined us with enthusiasm. They left a hand and a voice to the common cause, irrespective of many older political traditions.

They saw the dawn of a new deal. They were on the march. They were coming back into possession of their own home land. In one year, and five months the people of the United States have received at least a partial answer to their demands for action and neither the demand nor the action has reached the end of the road.

President Roosevelt digressed from his prepared address to mention by name "Bob" La Follette and Ryan Duffy.

With Senator La Follette, Republican independent and candidate for re-election on a new party ticket and Senator Duffy, Democrat, chosen with him in 1932 sitting by his side, the President spoke of them by name in that part of his speech, thanking them for their co-operation, and referring to them as "Both old friends of mine."

The President referred to the "New Deal" as a "Square Deal" and quoted from speech "a Congress in this connection, generally attributed to Representative Ruffin Democrat of Nebraska, who is remembered as the champion of territorial re-organization." Governor Bryan.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke strongly about critics of the Administration's efforts, naming those "whose objectives are wholly right and wholly progressive" but who insist upon their "own methods and nobody else's."

He said the "other type" is "the individual who demands some message to the people of the United States that will restore what he calls 'confidence.'"

Those who would measure confidence in this country," he emphasized, "in the future must look to the average citizen."

PROTEST AGAINST RETENTION OF LAMB OF SANFORD AS VOLUSIA FERA AUDITOR

DELAND, Aug. 9.—Protests against the retention by the FERA of R. F. Lamb as its auditor for Volusia county were wired to Jerome A. Connor, Jacksonville, today by M. E. Forsyth, president of the local central labor union.

Forsyth gave as his reason that Lamb also was auditor for Seminole County and that he was receiving full salary charged to the Volusia county administration, though he spends half of his time in Seminole County. Forsyth requested that Lamb be replaced immediately by a Volusia county citizen.

This request of Forsyth for the removal of Lamb is a continuation of Forsyth's attacks on the FERA administration in this and Flagler counties because its executives have been brought in from outside the county.

In a statement today Forsyth charged that Lamb was drawing $35 a week from the local FERA office but that during the past two weeks he had not spent more than three days a week here. Forsyth likewise charged that to Lamb is allowed a weekly mileage allowance for traveling in his automobile, which he, Forsyth, describes as a waste of money. Such funds, he said, should be expended among local need, thereby indirectly aiding local merchants and business firms.

Milane Film Full Of Comedy, Drama

Comedy, drama and music—offered by the largest collection of stage, screen and radio stars ever seen together—features the most unusual entertainment to come to the Milane Theater in many months. The production, which opened last night, is Universal's "Gift of Gab."

The story of "Gift of Gab" concerns itself with the rise of Edmund Lowe from an auctioneer to the foremost broadcasting announcer and reporter in America. Lowe and Gloria Stuart, blonde and more beautiful than ever, furnishes plenty of thrills as he rises and falls on the way to the top.

Comedy elements are supplied by a large assortment of stars, Phil Baker, Victor Moore, proprietor of "Trivers' Jivers," sponsor of the broadcast; Alice White, Hugh O'Connell, Douglas Fowley, Henry Armetta, Helen Vinson and Sterling Holloway.

Music is given to the audience by Ruth Etting, Ethel Waters, Phil Baker, Gene Austin, the Beale Street Boys, the Downey Sisters and Gus Arnheim and his band. Satire is presented during a radio broadcast by a mock murder mystery in which Bela Lugosi, Karlhoff, June Knight, Binnie Barnes, Chester Morris, Douglas Mont-

IN YOUR KITCHEN!

In the all-electric kitchen the heat is concentrated on the job at hand. The surface units on the electric range send the heat thru the bottom of the pan . . . not up around the sides to raise the room temperature. The electric oven is insulated to keep the heat a prisoner, working on the cooking. The electric water-heater needs no flue for hot air and fumes. The heating element is in the water, heating it and nothing else. The insulated tank keeps the hot water from heating up the room, too. This is physical comfort. But what a mental comfort it is to know that your electric refrigerator keeps food safely, day in and day out. For comfort in your kitchen, electric service is best.

Why SOILADE Lasts Longer

Understand this clearly. SOILADE is not to be confused with ordinary fertilizers. It is in a class by itself—a complete, well-rounded PLANT FOOD and soil builder. It is not a mere temporary STIMULANT. It fortifies and builds up the soil for permanent plant vigor.

In addition to Nitrogen, Phosphorus and Potash—for years thought sufficient—SOILADE contains Manganese, Calcium, Zinc, Sulphur, Magnesia, Iron, Copper, Titanium and Sodium. These rare mineral elements are all necessary for proper plant growth and soil building.

By a special process of its own SOILADE delivers these food elements uniformly to the plant without waste by leaching. It RETAINS its nourishment close to the roots to be drawn on as needed.

This is why SOILADE lasts longer and does its work of plant feeding more thoroughly and more economically. SOILADE is indeed the perfect plant food.

KEEP VARIETY IN AUTUMN MENUS

Suggestion Is To Plan In Advance So That Last Minute Preparations Come Nicely

Naturally you want to keep your autumn menus as varied and interesting as those you present to the family in winter. But it's quite natural to wish to spend as many hours as possible at play. In order to accomplish this desirable end you have to plan in advance so that little last-minute planning and cooking will need to be done. There are many shortcuts in food preparation—some of them are suggested here. In the morning you can prepare many vegetables and fruits. Young onions, radishes and the like can be cleaned and packed in the storage compartment of the refrigerator. Delicious molded desserts and meat loaves may be made ready hours in advance. You may utilize any number of casserole dishes whose ingredients may be made ready so that they can be put in the oven an hour or two before a meal and come out hot and savory at the last minute.

CREOLE BEEF LOAF

One and one-half pounds of chopped veal, 1-4 pound salt pork, chopped beef, 1-2 pound finely chopped, 1 chopped onion, 1 chopped pepper, 1 pimento cut in strips, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, dash of paprika. Mix all the ingredients except the pimento. Grease a loaf pan and pack 1-2 the mixture in it solidly so that there are no air spaces. Then place the pimento strips on the meat lengthwise and cover with the rest of the meat. Bake in a hot oven for 40 minutes. This may be served hot but is even better for a "cold spread."

FRUIT-SALMON SALAD

This is an excellent salad to serve for "partied" meals, teas, and occasions when beforehand preparation is particularly desirable. Soak 2 tablespoons gelatin in 1-4 cup cold water until soft. Dissolve in 1-3 cup boiling water. Stir well and add 1-2 cup grapefruit juice, 1-2 cup orange juice, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 2-4 cup sugar. Chill. When mixture begins to stiffen add 1

THE A-B-C's OF VITAMIN D

A Better Balance for Your "Balanced" Meal

PHYSICIANS and dietitians have for so many years been pointing out the necessity for a balanced diet, that most modern mothers are familiar with the need for rounding out each meal with the necessary proportions of proteins, starches, sugars, fats and minerals, of calories and even of vitamins. But while a meal may seem to be nicely balanced because it includes the needed meats, vegetables, fruits, and sweets according to accepted dietetic rules, it may still be deficient. Because, while the foods included in a well balanced diet contain vitamins A, B, C, E and G, none of them contains much of the highly important vitamin D.

Vitamin D is necessary to us all, and particularly to children. Known as the "anti-rachitic" vitamin, its most important function is to help in building strong, sturdy bones, to prevent the disease of children known as rickets, and to help fortify teeth against infection and decay. The principal sources of vitamin D are cod-liver oil and sunshine.

Sunshine is undependable in our part of the world, and cod-liver oil is unpleasant to the taste, disliked equally by children and adults. Recognizing these difficulties in securing an adequate supply of the important vitamin D, scientists after years of research, have developed an extract of cod-liver oil. This extract, abundant in vitamin D, is without fishy odor or taste. Its principal use today is to fortify milk and bread, to provide these two basic foods with vitamin D.

Hence the modern mother gets a better balance for the family meals by including vitamin D milk and bread on the menu.

1-2 cups canned red salmon, flaked, 1 cup diced celery and 4 tablespoons stuffed olives, chopped. Turn in to a ring mold. Serve on lettuce leaves and serve mayonnaise dressing separately.

MOLDED CHICKEN SALAD

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 in a little cold water and add to 1-2 cups highly selected chicken broth or meat stock. Cool, and when the jelly starts to thicken add 3 tablespoons mayonnaise and a little chopped green pepper, and 1-2 cup silvered almonds. Add 2 tablespoons diced celery and 1-2 cups chopped chicken. Pour into round individual molds and chill. Unmold each portion on a slice of tomato and serve with lettuce hearts and mayonnaise.

RUSSIAN JELLY

1 tbp. gelatine

Representative Patman, Democrat, Texas, has served notice he will renew his campaign for passage defeated twice. In addition, Senator McCarron, Democrat, Nevada, yesterday said if it came up in the Senate he would vote for it. Many other candidates for the next Congress have pledged support the measure.

On the other side, the National Economy League served notice yesterday it would resist the move "with all its strength." Henry H. Curran, director, said the payment of a $3,000,000,000 "bonus" 10 years "before it is due will make it impossible to balance the budget."

"The first essential to recovery is the balancing of the federal budget on and after July, 1935, which is the first day of the next fiscal year," Curran said. "Unless this is done we shall still be in danger of national insolvency."

"If the American Legion voted yesterday in favor of such selfish and gigantic raid upon an overburdened treasury it will do a disservice to the country and to the veterans themselves which may prove extremely dangerous."

There has been strong sentiment in the House for cash payments. In the seventy-first Congress a compromise was effected on the fifty percent loan act, which announced to nearly the face value of the certificates. During the seventy-second Congress the House passed the Patman Bill but it was defeated in the Senate after President Hoover took a strong stand against it. At that time several thousands of veterans were camped in the capital and for Congress adjourned, riots broke out that resulted in bloodshed and the calling out of federal troops to assist local police in restoring order.

two meals a day in autumn a good mayonnaise recipe is important.

6 egg yolks
2-3 cup sugar
3 rounding tbsp. flour
1 tsp. salt
1-2 tsp. pepper
4 tsp. dry mustard
2-3 cup vinegar
1-4 cup water

Beat egg yolks until light. Sift dry ingredients. Add to beaten yolks. Heat vinegar and water in a double boiler and add egg mixture, stirring constantly until thick. Remove from fire and beat until smooth. Mix 2-3 cup cream and add when ready to use.

bill that Congress will approve the proposal. Virtually all felt, however, that in the event of a veto, the Senate, if not the House, would sustain the President's position. It requires a two-thirds majority to override a presidential veto.

Should the legion's program become law, veterans Administration officials said, the ex-soldiers would receive about $2,000,000,000 of the two and a half billion outlay. The remainder would go to repay money advanced by the government to the life insurance fund and banks for bonus loans.

Cancellation of interest charges percent loan act, as proposed by the legion, would add $200,000,000 on advances made under the fifty to the cost of paying the bonus now. Only $1,350,000 of this interest has been paid. This would be refunded under the legion plan. Veterans already have received about $1,800,000,000 in loans on certificates.

About $118,000,000 is available, officials said, in the government's bonus fund. The balance of the money required to pay the bonus and interest claims would have to be appropriated by Congress.

The Administration's argument against immediate payment is that the certificates do not mature until 1945, having been issued on a twenty-year interest-bearing basis, and that to pay them now would mean a pouring out of money not yet owed.

The bonus has been looked upon in congressional circles as one of the big humps for the Administration in the next session. A terrific fight over the issue is in prospect.

St. Pete Commissioner Says Passage Of Homestead Act Will Delay Bond Settlements

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 5.—Continuing his discussion of the proposed homestead exemption amendment, City Councilman Henry W. Adams has turned to a study of the effect the amendment will have on the city's efforts to refund its bonded indebtedness.

"In a recent article, Adams discussed the probable loss to the city in operating revenue should the proposed amendment be passed, and raised questions as to how the loss in revenue would be replaced."

"The proposed amendment," Adams said today, "will inevitably delay a definite settlement of the city's bonded indebtedness because it does not explain whether homesteads will be exempted from taxation to support a refunding bond issue."

"Under the agreement reached between the city and the bondholders committee, refunding bonds will be issued to replace former bond issues in default. If this refunding issue is backed by the same act as the former issues then the agreement will stand."

"The bond 'racketeers,'" writes Wyman, "are also convinced that loss of operating expenses through adoption of the amendment will result in taxing officials raising tax valuations on homesteaded properties, now valued for taxing purposes at less than $5,000, so that on a $7,000 increased valuation, for instance, operating tax might be levied on the $2,000 non-exempt excess. This would result in a pro rata increase in levy for debt service."

"As things now stand, the city's financial position with regard to its business conditions more or less stabilized as a result. But the proposed amendment will disrupt this clarification and stabilization."

"Adams also related two other points which must be settled in the courts if the amendment passes, and which will cause considerable confusion until the courts make their final ruling."

"First," he said, "there is the question of whether home owners who rent their homestead for even one month of the year are entitled to exemption under the proposed amendment."

"Second, there is the question of whether homes erected on city lots after the amendment passes, if it does, will be exempted from taxes for debt service."

"Here again, lawyers contend that such homes, if erected on lots subject to debt service levies before the proposed amendment, would not be exempt after adoption of the amendment."

"Such improvements, they say, become, as a matter of law, part of the land, and are not the subject of a separate assessment or tax."

UTAH BANKER URGES NATION HALT SPENDING

O. W. Adams Hits Rising Taxes, Sees No Substitute For Thrift

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 5.—With more than 25 percent of our national income absorbed by taxes and 37 percent expended by governmental agencies, Orval W. Adams, vice-president of the Utah State National Bank at Salt Lake City, in an article in the current issue of "The American Bankers' Association Journal," urges that the country "stop petitions for public improvement far beyond our means to afford; realize that we cannot solve our problems of governmental finance by easy expedients and admit that nothing can replace 'collective thrift.'"

"The government," Mr. Adams writes, "and all its political subdivisions under which we live are spending annually $14,700,000,000, which represents approximately 37 percent of our national income. While this is far beyond our ability even to estimate or imagine, this thing we can understand: that it is far beyond our ability to meet. How and when shall we bring all our power, concentrate all our intelligence to call a halt to such wild abandon?"

"But that is only half of the picture. While we are spending $14,700,000,000 to meet the obligations of government, we are paying out of our current taxes only $7,975,000,000 annually. What of the balance? That is the legacy which we are transferring to the future generations as an impressive evidence of our solicitude for their well-being."

He says that in 1913 our tax bill was $22 per capita, in 1933 $70, and in 1935 public expenditures per capita amounted to $30, and in 1933, as compared with 1913, on a per capita basis, taxes were 230 percent, government costs 300 percent and public debts 600 percent increased."

Barnett Named Head Of Junior Commerce Body

(Continued from Page 1) post on his past experience, that the age limit be raised to include men through the age of 40. This proposal had about a dozen supporters but it was defeated when 16 members approved Andrew M. Carraway's motion that persons beyond the age of 35 be accepted as associate members with full power to vote on any questions brought before the body of the organization but with no right to hold office.

Announcing that he would delay the appointment of standing committee heads until later this week, President Barnett proposed that as a first step, the organization stage a private dance at the Trianon Dance Club on Thursday night, Aug. 16, for the purpose of acquainting members and their families with other members, and their families.

Among the speakers at the meeting were Dewey Hooten and Bill Henry of the Orlando Junior Chamber of Commerce. They reminded their audience that the Orlando Jaycees will play host to the Sanford Jaycees at a "stag" party at Waterswitch Club south of Orlando on Thursday afternoon, and they urged a large attendance at this city.

Young men who became members last night with the payment of a portion of their semi-annual dues were: Rev. J. J. Kellaghan, Wallace Phillips, Roy Symes, Jr., Gene Adams, E. O. Shindler, Jr., Joseph O'Connor, Fred T. Williams, Jr., Fred Stanley, F. D. Scott, Bill DuBois, George Thurston, James A. Wright, Andrew Carraway, Gordon Barnett, Peter Schaal, Irvin L. Jackson, O. K. Goff, Clyde Ramsey, D. E. McNish, L. P. Hagan, Jr., Roy F. Mann, V. A. Williams, Maxwell Stewart, D. L. Harper, and B. H. Scott, Jr., of Fern Park.

SILVER SHIRTS PLAN REVOLT SAYS MARINE

(Continued from Page 1) planned "capture" of the San Diego city hall by force, saying: "It was planned for early in May, when the communists were to stage a May day celebration. The Silver Shirts were ready, too. The 200 armed the Silver Shirts had orders to converge on the city from the outskirts. They counted on the communists going in before them to take the city by storm. Then in the confusion the Silver Shirts were to overthrow the communists, their avowed enemies."

"The capture" of San Diego failed, however, Gray said, when the communist demonstration failed to materialize.

In declining to appear before the committee Dr. Grayling displayed a $215 check on newspapermen. It was endorsed by E. W. Rahmer. "Somebody must have made a fool's mistake," he said, "as E. W. Rahmer is a lady—my personal secretary."

Hayes said that as an intelligence worker in the Marines he obtained membership in the 350 Silver Shirts.

"I was made an instructor," Hayes testified. "The Silver Shirts were armed with rifles, pistols and shotguns, but mainly Springfield rifles bearing a United States government mark."

"I was told the rifles had been purchased from members of the military force in San Diego. "I saw 2000 pounds of ammunition and was told there was another 12,000 pounds cached in four places near San Diego. The ammunition, I was told, had been purchased from Corporals Hudle and Edelson at the North Island naval base."

The former Marine testified the offer for guns and ammunition was made by W. W. Kemp, who is described as commander of the San Diego Silver Shirts.

Hayes quoted Kemp as saying "anything the Silver Shirts did would be countenanced by the San Diego sheriff's office with the exception of the under-sheriff who is a Jew."

"The Silver Shirts," Hayes quoted Kemp as saying, "will not be bothered when the time comes to act. Firearms of both the sheriff's office and the police department will be turned over to us. The under-sheriff will be liquidated."

JIM FARLEY BELIEVES GOP HEAD IS JUST WHISTLING IN DARK

(Continued from Page 1) —if you can call it an issue—that is, the attack on the President's recovery program, has fallen flat. People are satisfied that this Administration has performed a wonderful job and as a consequence the President's popularity is greater today than when he took office. The natural sequence of this is that the country will reelect a Congress in sympathy with the President's program.

"The minority party leaders realize this is evident from the circumstances that nearly all of their congressional nominees are running largely on their record of having supported the recovery legislation. I think you will find when we pick up the lame ducks after November the majority of fatalities will be among those who opposed the President's policies and tried to hinder the emergency measures."

Farley declined to say in what states the Democrats expected to gain Senate seats, but predicted that Sherman Minton, Democratic nominee, would defeat Senator Robinson in Indiana.

"A 'joke' was the way he described the move in New York to put Col. Henry Breckenridge up as an independent candidate for the Senate. Senator Copeland, Democrat, is up for re-nomination. Praised for a statement on Copeland, Farley said he was not even a delegate to the convention that would nominate the Democratic senatorial candidate.

Farley said he would support Governor Lehman for re-election in New York.

Another speaking tour was announced yesterday by Farley but the dates are indefinite. He plans, however, to leave Aug. 15 for Nashville, Tenn., and then will swing west through Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Topeka, Kan., and Denver, where he is to speak either Aug. 21 or 22 to a rural mail carriers' convention. He said he probably would stop at Des Moines enroute back, and that in September he might dedicate a post office building at St. Paul.

SILVER METAL NATIONALIZED BY ROOSEVELT

Purchase Act Of 1934 Is Invoke By President In Setting Value At 50.01 Cents An Ounce

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt today issued an executive order providing for the nationalization of silver at fifty cents per ounce according to the provisions of the silver purchase act of 1934.

The President's proclamation, made public by Secretary Morgenthau, said that mints would be directed to receive any and all silver in the United States.

Mints will deduct as seigniorage 61.22 percent of all silver so received and will return to the depositor, silver certificates or other coin or currency in an amount equal to the monetary value of the remainder.

The order does not affect domestic silver mined since Dec. 31, 1933, which still may be delivered to mints under the Presidential proclamation of that date.

All other silver situated in the United States today must be delivered to the mints within 90 days.

Certain classes of silver are exempted.

Provisions are made for licenses covering silver needed for commercial and industrial uses, and to fulfill outstanding contracts to deliver metals.

Also exempted are all United States silver coins, foreign coins, silver ore, or silver owned by foreign governments and foreign central banks, and silver in fabricated articles.

Farley's Support Of Hiram Johnson Frisks Californian

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 2.—(A.P.)—Carl Alexander Johnson, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, has announced he has sent a telegram to the National Democratic Committee demanding that Postmaster General James A. Farley resign or be deposed as committee chairman for supporting the candidacy of Hiram Johnson.

The telegram follows: "I have been informed by your chairman, James A. Farley, that he is publicly advocating the candidacy of Hiram Johnson, a registered Republican, for United States Senator from California, which impliedly carries with it the endorsement of your committee."

"It is your province to build up the Democratic party and not to pull it down by advocating election of a pseudo Republican who in the past has well nigh wrecked the Democratic party in California and according to Woodrow Wilson should receive the same treatment."

Their landing means that they covered only a little more than half of the 6,300 miles they set as an objective.

COURT ENJOINS GEORGIAN WHO DEFIES NRA CODE

Road Contractor Must Pay Help Not Less Than 40 Cents Hour

ATLANTA, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—Indicted two weeks ago for 70 alleged violations of the NRA construction code, John Whitley of LaGrange, close personal and political friend of Governor Eugene Talmadge yesterday was temporarily enjoined in federal court from paying less than 40 cents an hour for skilled workers on the highway projects he has under way.

Irwin Geiger, of the litigation division of the National Recovery Administration, announced here yesterday that Federal Judge Bacon Deaver, of the Middle Georgia district, had signed the order Tuesday at Dublin, Aug. 17 was set as the date for a hearing before Judge E. Marvin Underwood in Atlanta to make the injunction permanent.

"This action," Geiger said, "was necessary because of Whitley's deliberate and willful violation of the law, in which he has persisted since his arrest on July 28 for 70 such violations on evidence furnished to the government by his own employees, who were the only source of the information on which the government's action was predicated."

Whitley at present had two state highway contracts under way in Lamar and Wilkes Counties. Chairman Eugene Wilburn said yesterday that the highway department holds his certified checks that work on them will be pushed to completion.

Indicted at Macon July 2, Whitley made bond of $5,000 and trial was set in federal court in Macon on Nov. 5.

Geiger said yesterday that since the time of his arrest, Whitley has continued to "under pay and over work his employees" in violation of the NRA.

Several weeks ago the NRA removed his theoretical Blue Eagle but Whitley said at the time he had never signed the code and had no Blue Eagle.

PUBLIC BARRED FROM PROBE OF SILVER SHIRTS

Evidence Held So Poisonous That International Complications Might Result

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—A Congressional hearing into alleged communist activities was closed against the public here yesterday because the evidence was "so poisonous that international complications might result."

The protection of witnesses and those mentioned in testimony against possible violence also was advanced as a consideration in the decision to make the hearing an officially secret affair.

Testimony that an alleged pro-Nazi organization known as the Silver Shirts of San Diego had been plotting the overthrow of the United States government and had obtained rifles and ammunition from American military sources preceded the inquiry on communist activity.

Volney Moore, attorney for the Congressional sub-committee on un-American activities, disclosed the reason for closing the hearing as the head of the Los Angeles police department's anti-rad squad was summoned to testify.

Urging closing of the doors, Moore said the testimony "would never be made public" because of its internationally "poisonous" nature.

After debating the matter, the sub-committee, headed by Representative Kramer of California, followed Moore's recommendation.

Witnesses present at the time were Captain William F. Hayes of the Los Angeles police intelligence and Miss Margaret Kerr, secretary-manager of the Better America federation.

Miss Kerr said before she entered the hearing room her apartment probably would be utilized to establish the nature of general communist activities in this sub-area.

Subpoenas were issued for the appearance of three communists, but all appeared voluntarily, saying they were willing and ready to testify.

Those who appeared were Meyer Baylin, educational director of the communist party in the Los Angeles district; Lawrence Ross, communist candidate for Congress and once a candidate for mayor of Los Angeles; and Pettis Perry, negro, communist candidate for lieutenant governor.

Stuart had confessed he killed the curly haired little girl to collect approximately $1,000 insurance carried on her life. He planned to use the money to support Dortha's twin sister, he said. He held the little girl under the water of a shallow creek.

National Regeneration And Bureaucracy Held By Hoover As Endangering U. S. Liberty

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—"National regeneration and bureaucracy are endangering the entire structure of American liberty," former President Herbert Hoover will say in the book he has just completed, under the title of "The Challenge of Liberty," it was announced yesterday.

The book will represent Hoover's first significant utterance since he left the White House two years ago to make way for the Roosevelt "New Deal." It will be published late next month by Charles Scribner's Sons.

Hoover, who has worked on the manuscript during the last year, will set forth his defense of "The American System" of government. He will give critical consideration to the growth of fascism, communism and socialism.

He will discuss his general purposes in a foreword, in which he declares:

"It is the purpose of this examination to survey briefly the movement of revolution through the world since the great war, the method of overthrow of liberalism; to recall our American heritage, the growth of our liberty, the forces in human nature and human behavior which govern economic life, the restraints and ideals of the system of ordered liberty, the achievements of the American system; to analyze from an American point of view the alternate systems of society; to examine our own abuses of liberty; to review the purposes of American life; to consider constructively, not a detailed program but the method (Continued On Page 4)

HEAT RECORDS IN IOWA ARE BROKEN WITH MARK OF 115

(By The Associated Press) Temperatures flared as high as 115 degrees in the super-heated Mid-West yesterday as the weatherman stoked that huge oven for another baking day.

The 115-degree peak was recorded officially in Ottumwa, Iowa. It broke all Iowa heat records.

Temperatures of 108-plus were reported in Missouri, and the mercury boiled up to 109 in Topeka, Kan. One death was attributed to the intense heat there.

Other hot spots on a map of discomfort which stretched from the Alleghenies to the Rockies were Lincoln, Neb., and St. Louis, both with 109 degrees; Kansas City, where it was 105; and Des Moines, Iowa, with 102.

As the new August torrid wave struck the harassed mid-continent grain traders at Chicago heard sensational reports of the have already wrought in the nation's fields. December wheat whirled up to $1.12 1-4 a bushel, a season record. May hit $1.15 1-8 and December and May corn hit new highs of 79 2-8 cents and 84 1-4 cents respectively.

The weather bureau called drought conditions "extremely bad" from the Mississippi west to the Rockies, with crops deteriorating rapidly under persistent abnormally high temperatures.

Cooled at random by showers, the entire Midwest yesterday was an island of heat bounded by fairly cool weather on the coasts. Even in the Rocky Mountain States the mercury reached the not-so-gray nineties. Readings of 96 were recorded in Pueblo, in Sheridan, Wyo., and in Miles City, Mont.

Official and semi-official records indicate that Ottumwa's 115 degree reading made it the hottest day in Iowa in 115 years. It burned every official record from the weather bureau books. They cover 62 years. The previous mark, two degrees lower had been equaled several times during the July heat waves.

It was also the hottest August day on record in Columbia, Mo., where the mercury hit 108.4. A reading of 108 was made at Jefferson City Mo.

15 CENT COTTON PREDICTED AS DUE THIS FALL

Official Crop Report Sends Wave Of Jubilation Over Land, With Future Bright

ATLANTA, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—The South last night was jubilant over a cotton crop forecast that was even smaller than dreams of proponents of the Bankhead bill, and even higher prices before the staple is picked.

"She'll hit 15 cents by fall," a state official of Alabama predicted as he watched the chief markets of the country jump $2.50 a bale to nearly 14 cents a pound as the government said the crop now stood at 9,195,000 bales.

Professional traders also looked surprised—it was several thousand bales below their most bullish estimates, and predicted that unless there is a change in the weather the next forecast will be even smaller and prices will keep on the jump.

"Western conditions are serious," said F. D. Willis of the Fenner and Beane Atlanta office, "and our reports show they have not improved since the figures for the government forecast were gathered Aug. 1. The report is at least 300,000 bales under the figure the trade discounted and if conditions do not improve the next report will be under this."

"Very bullish," came from three New Orleans brokers, T. E. Grenin of Henican Grenin and Co., said it indicated an even smaller crop eventually but he doubted if the present price levels could be maintained due to hedge selling, a had European situation and encouragement to foreign producers.

M. H. Cronheim of the J. J. Williams Co., and Henry Hellberg of Norman-Mayer and Co., both said weather conditions had been unfavorable since Aug. 1 and predicted even smaller estimates.

Hallberg agreed with Grenin about hedge selling stopping the price rise but he said when that was out of the way "I believe the smaller crop will result in much higher prices."

Protestant Church In Germany Forced Into Oath Of Fealty

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—Germany's Protestant pastors and church officials will be required to take an oath of fealty to Chancellor Hitler just as Nazi Storm Troops and members of the regular army did last week.

This important step to secure for Hitler uniform support following his assumption of the powers of President was announced by Dr. August Jaeger, Nazi commissioner for Protestant churches.

Dr. Jaeger at the same time explained new rules to be imposed by the National Synod today, which will deliver the Protestant church bag and baggage into the hands of Reich-bishop Ludwig Mueller, Hitler follower and head of German Christians.

They appear designed to stamp out all independent thought and action by the clergy, considerable number of whom have strongly opposed Mueller's dictatorial steps toward achieving the Nazi program of a unified Protestant church.

"I think the attitude of the merchants and the industrialists of the country should now be to use every conceivable effort to find out what is right irrespective of who is right."

Roosevelt Calls For Further "Action" On Non-Partisan Basis

Demands Of People To Be Met, President Says In Militant Talk At Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis., Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt today sounded a call for further "action" by the "New Deal" as he spoke on a road in a militant speech in old Wisconsin.

In his principal speech of the Congressional campaign year, Mr. Roosevelt at the Wisconsin State Tercentenary said that in 1932 the people joined us with enthusiasm. They left a hand and a voice to the common cause, irrespective of many older political traditions. They saw the dawn of a new deal. They were on the march. They were coming back into possession of their own home land. In one year, and five months the people of the United States have received at least a partial answer to their demands for action and neither the demand nor the action has reached the end of the road.

President Roosevelt digressed from his prepared address to mention by name "Bob" La Follette and Bryan Duffy.

With Senator La Follette, Republican independent and candidate for re-election on a new party ticket and Senator Duffy, Democrat, chosen with him in 1932 sitting by his side, the President spoke of them by name in that part of his speech, thanking them for their co-operation, and referring to them as "Both old friends of mine."

The President referred to the "New Deal" as a "Square Deal" and quoted from speech "a Congress in this connection, generally attributed to Representative Rufus D. Hendricks, who is recognized as the author of the territorial reorganization of the Governor Bryan.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke strongly about critics of the Administration's efforts, naming those "whose objectives are wholly right and wholly progressive" but who insist upon their "own methods and nobody else's."

He said the "other type" is "the individual who demands some message to the people of the United States that will restore what he calls 'confidence'."

Those who would measure confidence in this country," he emphasized, "in the future must look to the average citizen."

One Pound Baby Buried In 'Cigar Box' Casket

TEMPLE, Tex., Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—A casket no larger than a cigar box held the body of little Eva Nadine Locke, one pound daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Locke, for her burial recently.

The infant died recently, after living for 51 hours snugly wrapped in blankets in a dresser drawer.

Dr. W. M. Brooks, of Cameron, who ushered the one-pound baby into the world said she was perfect in every respect except her size.

MELLON IN SCOTLAND

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Aug. 9.—(A.P.)—Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and former ambassador to Great Britain, arrived here yesterday aboard the liner Baronaria en route to Scotland for a vacation.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Local weather yesterday: High 90, low 72, rainfall .22 of an inch.

E. B. Phillips, secretary of Safety Camp No. 625, Woodmen of the World, announced this morning that members of the Camp last week voted to change the day of the weekly meeting from Thursday to Friday, effective tomorrow. Meetings are to be held at 8:00 o'clock, he stated, in the Woodmen Hall on Oak Avenue near Second Street.

Improvements noted at the local terminal of the St. Johns River Line Co., on north Palmetto Avenue, include a large skylight built into the roof, and affording much needed illumination and ventilation. Company officials also plan to increase the size of the building by adding a 75 foot long addition to the west.

"I ducked, but I ducked too late," said Jack Bolt, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bolt, when someone at the Sanford Clinic on Tuesday morning asked him how he happened to be there with the hooks of an artificial minnow buried deep in his head. Awaiting treatment by Dr. Charles L. Park, young Bolt said that he and Elton "Buddy" Moughton were fishing near Indian Mound Village from a small boat. "Buddy hasn't done much casting," Jack said, "and before I could warn him to be careful, he had cast. I ducked, but I ducked too late." Jack was all smiles while he was telling his story, and even while Dr. Park skillfully removed the hook and administered an anti-tetanus treatment.

The first batch of what eventually will be a total of 400 ballots went out of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon into the hands of out-of-the-county trade body members. The ballots contain the names of all persons eligible for election as directors, and all ballots are to be cast on or before Aug. 21. Ballots will be mailed to all in-the-county members next Thursday.

The story of how she trapped that large blue racer snake which is now in the reptile pen at Sanford Municipal Zoo, was told here this week by Miss Nona Wylly of Lake Mary, member of one of this county's pioneer families. Miss Wylly and her companion, Mrs. McMillan, were attracted outside their home one day last week by the barking of their small dog. As they stepped out of a doorway, both women saw the snake, moving slowly against a wall nearby. Noting that it was non-poisonous, Miss Wylly coolly went about the business of putting an end to it, when she thought came to her that it might be captured alive. With Mrs. McMillan stationed at one end of the wall, Miss Wylly went to the other corner with a cage in which she sometimes carries chickens. Opening the door of the cage, Miss Wylly placed it before her, in the snake's path. "The snake crawled right up to the door, looked in, and then wiggled in without our laying a hand on it," Miss (Continued on Page Three)
