'Integrated' Office Formed To Push Nuclear Power Development

WASHINGTON (UP)—The administration today moved to meet Congressional demands by establishing an "integrated" office to push development of nuclear-powered planes and rockets.

The new office will direct the joint efforts of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Air Force to make a nuclear propulsion breakthrough.

President Eisenhower is returning from a golf vacation in Georgia late today to work on the defense budget and prepare for the NATO summit conference amid these other developments:

—House missile investigators reported the Defense Department apparently is going ahead with both the Air Force Thor and Army Jupiter 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missiles to solve the controversy over which one should be eliminated.

—The Navy said it has successfully test fired the second "brain" of the three-stage Vanguard rocket which will attempt to hurl a U. S. satellite into orbit.

—In Chicago, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said any attack on NATO forces anywhere in the world would result in U. S. retaliation "comparable to Pearl Harbor."

—The Navy said it has successfully test fired the second "brain" of the three-stage Vanguard rocket which will attempt to hurl a U. S. satellite into orbit.

Engineer Gives Detail Description Of Rocket At Kiwanis Session

Speaker Tells Bureau Farming Big Business

"Farming today is big business," Sam Love of the Florida Farm Bureau, told members of the Seminole County Farm Bureau at its membership meeting held this week at the Future Farmers' Building.

"Farming is not just a way of life as it used to be," he said, and added, "the farmer today is in the minority with only 12 per cent of the population farming."

Love also discussed the Farm Bureau's service program. Other prominent guests of the Seminole County Farm Bureau were Bob Cox of the Florida Farm Bureau, Ben Wiggins, soil conservationist, and Roger Jimenez and Burke Winn, both members of the Future Farmers of America.

Charles T. Lawson, president of the local Farm Bureau organization reported on the Florida Farm Bureau Convention and Cecil Tucker II, Seminole County Agricultural Agent, reported on resolutions concerning the bureau and the farmer.

Bill Gramkow, representing the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association appealed for support of the TB Seal Sale.

The Seminole County Farm Bureau will enter a float in the Jacksonville Christmas parade and members were requested to assist in preparing the float to be entered.

Officers and directors for 1958 were elected at this week's meeting. Renamed president of the Seminole County Farm Bureau was "Barley" T. Lawson. Tom McInnis was elected vice president and Tony Wade named Secretary-treasurer. Members of the board of directors elected were: W. W. Gill, E. Mitchell, B. Carter and R. Muirhead.

An operations engineer for the Martin Company of Cape Canaveral gave the Sanford Kiwanis Club a "minute detail" description of the Vanguard Rocket and emphasized his description with slides shown on a screen.

Phil Gerlach told the Sanford Kiwanis at their noon luncheon meeting yesterday that "There is a high level of interest about space flight and satellites."

He admitted, however, that due to the restrictions caused by recent developments "I am somewhat restricted about the project to our own program."

Commission Faces Problem Of Grading County Employees

The problem of "grading employees" came before the Board of Seminole County Commissioners Tuesday when two of the county employees appeared to request pay increases.

Commissioners agreed that a "grading" county employees would be the next move following the hiring of a road superintendent. Interviews will be held with prospective road superintendent applicants immediately in an effort to employ a person to take over the county's road problems.

We will start grading employees as soon as we hire a road superintendent," commissioners agreed.

Former Resident Dies In Texas

A former Sanford resident, Lionel W. Rivers, 30, died Tuesday after a brief illness. He was a resident of Corpus Christi, Texas, and was employed in Houston.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Rivers, two children, Lionel Jr. and Nancy. He is the son of Mrs. Bertha Terrell and the late Charles W. Rivers and nephew of Miss Vera Woodcock of Sanford.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in San Antonio, Texas.

Describing the elements through which a rocket must travel to place a satellite in an orbit he explained that atmosphere contains five distinct regions—a gradual transition to the extreme district in which there is one molecule of air every five miles.

The Vanguard vehicle is a three-stage rocket, he said, 72 feet long and weighs about 22,000 pounds. Its job is to lift a sphere 300 miles.

"The ideal rocket," said Gerlach, will have an infinite number of stages but practical limitations confine the number of stages in the Vanguard to three.

Precision guidance is of utmost importance, he declared and said that the heart of the steering system is known as the "autopilot."

Stage by stage the operations engineer explained the construction and purpose of the rocket. The first, he said, is 44 feet long; the second, 31 feet; and the third is seven feet long.

Showing slides taken from actual photographs and artist conceptions, Gerlach described the Vanguard Rocket as "appearing as a long rifle shell."

In the graphic description the Vanguard was shown in the various stages of its flight.

Concluding his talk to the Kiwanis Club, Gerlach said it is good to know that Americans never lose their sense of humor when crises such as the one we're going through occur."

Gerlach was introduced by George Andrew Speer, local attorney, who was program chairman for the day.

WILL SELL NICKEL PLANT

WASHINGTON (UP)—A government official said Wednesday about 20 American firms have shown a "definite interest" in buying or leasing the huge U. S.-owned nickel plant in Cuba.

Ira D. Beynon, special assistant in the General Services Administration, said the government hopes to be ready to ask for formal bids on the plant "some time after the first of the year."

Milk Prices May Go Up In Some Areas

TALLAHASSEE (UP)—

Milk prices may go up in several areas of the state when controls are lifted Dec. 15.

But major milk distributors indicated today prices would probably stay the same throughout most of the state. They agreed there would be no cut because they claim they are operating without profit in some areas now.

The Milk Commission abolished price controls at the retail and wholesale levels Wednesday, but maintained them at the producer level to insure farmers of getting a fair price.

Commission Chairman J. Bralley Odham warned the distributors against any collusion to raise the prices.

"We have a Federal Trade Commission watching closely and if there is collusion by the distributors on prices, I hope they will be nailed to the wall."

However, Odham predicted that prices will jump immediately after controls are lifted. He said no increase is justified "and I hope if the price goes up, the housewife will just leave it on the shelf."

W. J. Barritt of Tampa, head of the Florida Borden Co., said there would probably be a penny increase in the St. Augustine, Daytona Beach and Gainesville areas because of a recent increase in Jacksonville, the main distribution point.

Several other large distributors said they doubted if there would be any general price increase within the next six months.

The commission moved to end controls in hopes competition would drive down prices. Odham claimed that illegal "under the table rebates" given supermarket for bulk purchases often amounted to 10 per cent the milk price and was evidence that prices could be cut as much as three cents a quart.

Except for a brief period in 1955-56, the price of milk in Florida has been controlled since the creation of the commission in 1932. The Legislature rejected repeated attempts to abolish the controversial group.

Acting on the recommendation of price control foe Gov. LeRoy Collins, the commission suspended controls for a year trial beginning Sept. 18, 1955. However, the Supreme Court ordered them restored on July 6, 1956, on the grounds there was no public hearing to determine the necessity of the action.

The bond election for a $24 million school construction program failed by 230 votes.

The Seminole County Board of Education, meeting this morning as a canvassing board, declared that the election failed following a report submitted to the board by Administrative Assistant Walter Teague and Superintendent of Public Instruction R. T. Milwee.

Teague told the board that a total of 3,967 voters cast their ballots with 3737 for the bonds and 250 against.

A total of 8,126 voters were certified as freeholders. However, said Teague, 308 voters who were freeholders voted in precincts by producing affidavits, deeds and tax receipts. These names were added to the total which brought the total number of freeholders eligible to vote to 8,434.

Senator Douglas Stenstrom, attorney for the School Board, said that in order to win the election a total of 459 names would have to be removed from the certified lists. These names would have to be removed by affidavit because of the selling of property, deceased, or incompetency.

The School Board decided not to challenge the number of freeholders but went on record calling for a special registration for a school bond election and the calling for another election.

"We are not accepting this as the end of our school program," the board declared "and we go on record calling for a special registration and another election at the most favorable time."

The Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. T. Milwee, said "The program planned for the County is to be continued and the board now declares its intention to call another bond election at the most favorable date according to law."

"We are disappointed that the election failed," said Milwee, "but we will continue to work just as hard for the children of Seminole County with the facilities we have and the circumstances we will have to face."

Both Milwee and Senator Stenstrom stressed that the board had the power to challenge the number of voters certified as freeholders for the election but in view of the number of names necessary to remove from the list decided that accepting the election would be necessary.

Senator Stenstrom told the board this morning "I believe the next election called for the bond issue will go over overwhelmingly."

Boiler Explodes Sinking Italian Freighter At Dock

NAPLES, Italy (UP)—A boiler exploded on an Italian freighter at docks today, sinking that vessel, expelling two nearby tugs and spreading terror throughout the busy port area.

Two persons were known dead and at least 60 were injured, about 15 of them critically. It was feared that some dockworkers also may have been killed in the blast.

The accident occurred when a boiler on the 2,385-ton Annamaria level when it was started up after repairs were made on it. The blast ripped two gaping holes in the hull of the 26-year-old vessel, expelling two nearby tugs and shattering windows throughout the port area.

The Annamaria level sank slowly as dockside workers joined in the rescue of 26 men aboard the freighter and 10 aboard the two tugs.

About an hour and a half after the explosion the shattered freighter had sunk at its moorings, with only the prow above water. Fire engines and fire hoses snaked over the debris—cluttered docks as police cleared spectators from the area in fear of new explosions.

4 Million Persons To Be Out Of Work By End Of February

WASHINGTON (UP)—Government economists predicted today that close to four million Americans will be out of work by the end of February.

Labor Department forecasters said one reason unemployment may shoot well beyond the present 2,500,000 jobless figures is because of the waning boom in industrial expansion.

AFL-CIO President George Meany, indicating labor's concern over the job outlook, called on President Eisenhower to take immediate steps to bolster the nation's economy.

In Seattle, top organizers of the Teamsters Union met to discuss the unemployment situation which is increasing all across the country.

One Of A Series
Outgoing Teamsters President Dave Beck said today's meeting was one of a series called by him over the country's economic condition.

The Labor Department economists based their prediction for a rise in unemployment on the fact that jobless totals failed to drop significantly in September and October. Normally unemployment dips to its lowest levels in those two months.

Sanford Youth Is Involved In Robbery

A Sanford youth was among three Florida teenagers returned to Gulfport, Miss. yesterday to face charges of a four-state robbery spree.

According to a United Press report, Landry Pritchett, 17, of Sanford was identified by Harrison County Sheriff J. J. Wiltman as one of the group. Others named by the sheriff were Mrs. Margis Parrish Boatwright, 18, and Lamar Sharrman, 18, both of Jacksonville. A fourth youth, Sanly Conley, 18, of Somerville, Mass. was involved.

The youths were arrested in New Orleans and confessed to nearly a dozen robberies during a four-day trip from Jacksonville to New Orleans.

County Prosecutor Gaston Hines of Gulfport, Miss., said all four have been bound over to the Grand Jury. No bond has been set.

Invasion On Allies Would Trigger Counter-Attack By U.S.

CHICAGO (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said Wednesday night that a "Pearl Harbor" attack on U. S. allies would trigger a counter-attack ordered by American commanders on the spot.

Dulles said in a news conference that instant retaliation would follow any attack on the U. S. or its NATO allies because their forces are so meshed "certain kinds of attack" would call for an American counter-attack.

Speaking later before the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, Dulles said the grave dangers of international Communism were dramatically brought home to the Free World by the launching of Sputniks I and II.

Dulles said the temporary advantages won by Soviet power in the missile field pose a threat that can be met one of three ways:

- 1—Make a deal with the Communists.
- 2—Go it alone against them.

3—Meet in cooperation with other free nations and form alliances like NATO.

There was no doubt Dulles considered NATO-type alliances the obvious defense against Russian menace.

The first proposal involves accepting Russian promises and, in turn, ending the ban on shipments of strategic goods to satellite nations and ending security pacts such as NATO and SEATO. The list of repudiated Russian promises runs this out unless there are enforceable safeguards, Dulles said.

Go it alone, he said, and the U. S. would have to resort to a controlled economy such as Russia's and a large military establishment.

Collective Policy Best
Collective defense, the policy which has been keeping the people of the world free since 1950 with no Russian advances, is the best solution available to the Free World, Dulles said.

Following his speech, Dulles made these points in a question and answer period:

—Russia has adopted a method of copying U. S. policies of foreign aid.

—Freedom must be made so desirable, no despotisms can prevail against it.

—The present situation in Russia cannot last forever, although he does not know when it will end.

—West Germany would have to direct any policies involving an anti-Red uprising in East Germany. U. S. policy would not trade the wiping out of East Germany and other satellites at the risk of global war.

Doe kills Buck, was the report received at The Sanford Herald today from two Miami hunters in this area for the hunting season opening.

Bill Hargrave, formerly of Sanford and now of Miami, and E. N. Doe of Miami were hunting in the Farmington Hunt Area Tuesday when Doe killed an 11 point 130-pound buck.

Hargrave, a regular hunter in this area said that the buck was the biggest "to be taken out of the Farmington Hunt Area so far this season."

Seminole Smoke Signals

Problem Corner

By Ann Cry-shoulder
Dear Miss Cry-shoulder,
 Meet of my friends get to drive their cars or the family car to school every day or at least when there is a special occasion. My problem is that my parents won't let me drive our car to school at any time. We have two cars and it certainly wouldn't hurt anything. What my parents use for an argument is that I have only a restricted license, but that's all my friends have and they drive anyway! What can I do?

Miserable Motorist
 Dear Miserable Motorist,
 Monkey see, monkey do—almost everyone is guilty of this. Of course, your friends are only amateur criminals in the eyes of the law, but with conditions as they are today, it's a minor crime—until an accident occurs. At this time, the book of rules and regulations is slammed and thrown at . . . no, not you, but your parents (the dear sweet people who always come to our rescue.)

It's just a stab in the dark that you won't be caught. Some parents (unfortunately) are willing to let their sons and daughters take such a chance; others, like yours, are not.

Of course, some adolescents mature faster than others, but still, there is the problem of age. Face it: you're still under parental guidance, dependence, AND say-so! Talk things over with your parents and try to find a sensible solution. It's always better to be safe (as a law-abiding citizen) than to be sorry (as a follower of anti-safety leaders).

Journalism Club Holds Supper Meet
By BONNIE STOFFER
 The Journalism Club enjoyed an informal supper meeting recently. The supper was held on Nov. 13, at Leary's Diner, located on the Orlando Highway. Those attending the meeting were Angelo Compain, Kathy Criss, Delores Bailey, Jimmy Blythe, Claudia Warmack, Sally Williams, Pam St. John, Bonnie Stoffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ray, A. J. Brackan, and guest speaker, Marion Harman, of The Sanford Herald.

After the meal, which included appetizing shrimp, french fries, etc., Mr. Harman gave an inspiring speech on Journalism as a career. He also stressed the qualities a journalist must possess. In addition to the "five w's" (who, what, when, why, and where) a journalist must have courage, believe in himself, and even when discouraged, try again. After this, a round-table discussion was held about preparation and printing of the weekly "Seminole Smoke Signals". Mr. Harman answered the questions of the students and explained more clearly the work of a newspaper staff. Mr. Ray and Mr. Brackan added much to the discussion by giving short talks on troubling questions.

The supper lasted about 2 1/2 hours. It proved to be successful and very enjoyable.

Kiddie Korner

By John Miller
 (Editor's apology: through mix-up and misunderstanding last week's Kiddie Korner was not published. Result? The upperclassmen and sophomore were delighted; the freshmen were outraged. But I guess we have to please the minority, too. Anyway, the column that was to be published last week was too good to be thrown away, and so Mr. Miller rewrote it to please the censors.)

Well, the excitement of Homecoming is over, and I have absolutely never seen as much spirit as the members of the student body showed. It was really amazing! And . . . good work, team!

Freshmen, this reporter doesn't think we have much longer to wait. I honestly thought that that Tuesday was the Day. After all, when

Home Ec Class Tours Factory

By CATHY CARLOS
 Just two short weeks ago I made a statement in my column concerning our Home Ec II class, and I promised you readers that "you will be hearing a lot from our new class in the near future." We're back to tell you of our tour through the local bathing suit factory, which was recently put into operation.

Last Monday, Miss Ruprecht, our sponsor, and Margaret Benham piled us all into their cars and away we went to the factory.

Everyone was so friendly and seemed very willing to show us just how each process was conducted. First of all we saw just the cut pieces of cloth that were to form a bathing suit. After the pieces were assembled, the linings were added. The point was stressed that each operation was done with perfection, or the suit would be worthless. Some of the completed suits which were shown to us were elegant and would make any woman's eyes sparkle. We were happy to hear that their suits will also be sold locally.

Throughout our whole tour we enjoyed delightful music. And, when our tour was ended, we were served refreshments in the spotless dining room, something that was quite a pleasant surprise.

We thanked them all for a delightful experience and were on our way again, back to SHS.

I'm even more enthused than ever about our new class. Every day we learn something new and interesting.

The word Arkansas is a French variant of Kansas which is a Sioux Indian name for "south wind people."

New Students

By DELORES BAILEY
 The new student of the week this week is Frank Averett. Frank recently moved to Sanford from Norfolk, Va., where he had been attending school as a senior at Granby High School. He was born 18 years ago in Dickson, Tenn. Frank's father is a first classman in the Navy.

In Frank's opinion, the students and teachers at S. H. S. are very friendly. He has seen how much everyone is backing the football team. The studies are easier at Seminole High than at some other schools, Frank says, and the juke-box in the cafeteria is really great.

Frank doesn't approve of hot rodding. He wants everyone that will ever ride with him to know that they will arrive at their destination safely. He is an Elvis Presley fan, which is very unusual among men. "Jailhouse Rock" is his favorite song.

Welcome to Seminole High, Frank. We hope you enjoy being with us as much as we enjoy having you.

Three Cheers For Seminoles

By ANGELO COMPAIN
 No SHS student in his right mind could say that he enjoyed the outcome of Friday's game, but defeat—first defeat—is not the end of the world. Our Seminoles made their mark in the annals of high school football when they won the previous games, but they brought out their human element by losing only one. To me, personally, that loss—that single loss—was more wonderful than all the games they won put together.

We've depended on our team for "those other games" we won; now it's up to us to prove that our spirit, combined with theirs, can put them right back in the winner's circle where they belong. As somebody, much more of an erudite than I, once said, "These are the times that try men's souls." And I believe that at a time like this our school spirit is the deciding factor.

I confess frankly that I hate football, but Lakeview or Cocoa or DeLand or what have you, I'll forget the game is football, and remember the team is Sanford.

Tom Tom Talk

Credit is given where credit is deserved. That's the way it was with "The Birds and the Boys", because they all worked hard at it, and we all liked it so much. We congratulate Mrs. Coleman and her sixth period class for two wonderful performances.

William Behrens, does seventh grader Sharon Class really like to ride a scooter? What's wrong with the girls up here at SHS? I suppose everybody has a school complex. No exception is poor John Smith; will he ever stay out of trouble in Mr. Christensen's world history class!

We're glad to see Betty Jane Davis back. We missed you! It seems that the hall crowd just can't separate Keith Abney from Jeanette Price! Good luck to both of you.

Have you noticed the expression on Tony Getman's face when Sandra isn't at school? He looks like a poor, lost, forgotten, and despondent! I suppose that's love!

Band Seeks Funds For New Uniforms

Ode To Garbage Disposal

By ANGELO COMPAIN

Unsung heroine of the household sink,
Unpraised helper of the new-wed wife,
More priceless in life than sable or mink,
Garbage disposal—this is your life!

With iron jaws, devour and destroy!
You demolish all (your dealers hope)!
To the average wife you're a pride and joy,
Until you're clogged with aprons or soap.

What do you get from a hard-working day?
What do you get in a house on mortgage?
"We can't be spendthrifts," your owners say;
And, therefore, all you get's the garbage!

Poor garbage disposal, short is your life!
You grind through dinner, lunch, and breakfast,
Until your mislaid mistress drops a knife. . . .
What more is there to say? You break fast.
So, off with you to the dump-yard,
Or where'er good disposals go,
To your heaven—a heavenly junkyard—
And there rest in peace with the "low".

And so, forgotten heroine, to you I write this poem,
That others may take sympathy and not laugh.

By DELORES BAILEY

This year the Seminole High School Band is engaged in an all-out campaign to raise money for the purchase of new uniforms. These uniforms will be West-Point style with the frontpiece, or breastplate, in white, and the buttons chrome. Those are the major changes in the costumes, but there will be other minor changes.

So far the band's candy sale has been running ahead of schedule. Those band students are right "on the ball" all the time! The candy sale will be a certain success.

There have been a rock and roll show, a chicken barbecue, and a birthday calendar included in the band's projects.

The band has played at all our games, and the half-time show last Friday was very well presented and was based on National Education Week.

They are also preparing to march in three Christmas parades, the Cocoa parade, the DeLand parade, and our own Sanford parade.

The climax of the band's season is the district contest and, if eligibility permits, state contest. These contests are more like classrooms than actual contests, in that there will be no comparison of the bands with each other. Instead, a certain percentage of the bands will make a superior rating, and a certain percentage will not. In other words, the contests are not competitive.

At present, the band is trying to build up its membership, especially in the reeds. Mr. Cowley is starting a clarinet class on Wednesday afternoons, after school, and if you are interested in any musical instrument, you should get in touch with him as soon as possible. One may think that learning to play an instrument is difficult, but actually it isn't.

A couple of weeks ago a taxi stopped in front of Roger King's house, but Roger insists that he didn't call for it. What was it all about, Roger?

Talking about unexplainable phenomena (wow!) and we hear that Sandra Neider has had "additions" to her front lawn—does this sort of thing happen very often, Sandra?

Dianne Aiken has already started cramming for six weeks tests apparently. We can't recognize her without books anymore. Ambitions? Maybe. Prudent? Yes.

Agnes Stansfield, did we tell you that you were a knockout at the Homecoming? Your knit suit and the white fur were utterly the MOST!

Oh, no, not again! "Cindy, Oh Cindy" is once again heard in the corridors of our school. The sound comes from the general direction of "Bob". We heard this news item from a very talkative little bird.

The freshmen have finally caught on to a game the other classes have been playing for a long time. The game is "Who gets the most dates?" You'd never believe who's ahead in the Kiddie Korner—oh, goosh, I almost gave John away!

Cupid is working overtime in the band and pep club practices. Some of the couples produced are Amorette and Berry, Irma and Leo, Jane and Larry, Pauline and Tommy, Jean and Terry, Sally and Bobby, and Sue Ann and Bobby (not the same one). We all wish you the best of luck!

Tracy Baccash and Jimmy Kipp! Even the names go well together! We don't see any reason why they can't outlast high school together!

Library Gets New Books

By John Miller

Do you like to read interesting books? No matter what you like, you'll find the best books on that subject in the new collection of books in the library. We have just received about one hundred of the newest and best books. We were down looking at them last Thursday, and the titles are just amazing. To name just a few, I saw books on skin diving, the National Academies (Annapolis and West Point), colleges, horses, parties LOVE (for the girls), and many other subjects. There are many different books in these classes: fiction and non-fiction. Of course, most of us like the fiction books the best, and out of the new books, there are many fictional stories.

Some people like biographies, and the library has those, too. Also, they have the best seller, "The Day Christ Died," a wonderful book.

I was down there second period, and the list of those signing up for the books was over a page even then! There were 100 reservations.

Physical Education

By JOHN MILLER

Probably one of the best-known departments at SHS is the one concerning physical education. All of us know a little about the department, but many people do not understand the real purpose behind the program. True, in gym class we do learn to play games, but it goes farther than this. As Mr. Ganas says, "Playing games is the same as living in a democracy. You either live by the rules or you are penalized."

When the boys go out to play made Thursday. You may sign for as many as you like, and if you will put a check by the book you want first, they will try to get you that one first. Of course, you won't get all the books you sign up for immediately, but if you will wait your turn, they will eventually come to you.

The library is even running a delivery service on these new books. Yes, during sixth period last Friday, they sent the books to you. What service!

We hope that all of you signed up for at least one book, for you are really missing something if you didn't. These new books are good, mah, good!

every day, they probably don't think of these things. We go out there to have a good time, something that is perfectly proper. But, while we are playing, we are getting experience in the art of living with others. This is actually what the instructors are trying to teach.

One feature of the program that stands out in my eyes, at least, is that many sports are taken up during the year. During the fall and winter, the boys play three good team games, football, volleyball, and basketball. After this they go on to different things, namely, tumbling and golf. Finally during the latter part of the year, we play softball and take up track.

At this time the sport is volleyball. The boys are divided up into teams, according to their ability. There is a tournament going on at this time, in which teams of the same ability play each other. Of course, if a person shows improvement, he is promoted to a higher team. The aim of this program is for all boys to improve their skill.

We have a good physical education here at SHS. It is helping the people who take it to be a lot better prepared for their future life.

A collection of begonias is almost never without some of the plants in bloom. Many of them produce their flowers over a long period of time, and most of them have leaves that are colorful, of interesting form, or otherwise attractive.

The four general types of begonias are: cane or fibrous rooted, the hirsute or hairy type, rhizomatous, which include the Rex and the Tuberous.

The wax begonias, a cane type, is used as a bedding plant and may live five years or longer. The varieties are grouped as tall, medium, and dwarf. A rare but beautiful variety, difficult to grow, is "Westport Beauty" with small rose like double flowers. Some of the readers may have tried to raise this one. Many of the cane type do well outside; especially those with angel wing leaves. The plants have large hanging bunches of red, pink or white bloom.

The hirsute type is hairy on leaves, stems, and flowers. In carnata and Thurstonii are hybrids which grow very well here. This group of the begonia family is harder to grow than the cane and rhizomatous types.

Begonia (B. fessli) commonly known as the beefsteak begonia is one of the finest for house culture. It has thick, almost round leaves, which are green above and red underneath. The flowers which are pink rise above the leaves in a most effective manner. There is a variety of B. fessli which has the edges of the leaves ruffled, and one which has the lobes spiraled like a snail's shell.

Another begonia that is an excellent house plant is the B. Metalic. It's leaves are glossy olive green above with metallic purple veins and red beneath. The flowers are in clusters, large and light pink.

The ricinifolia is a hybrid with leaves like the castor bean plant. The flowers are pink or white; this plant grows well outside.

Some begonias, such as the Rex, are cultivated for their leaves which are among the most decorative of any in the plant kingdom. This variety needs plenty of light without direct sunlight.

Tuberous begonias are not easily raised in Florida but they can be raised. The tubers should be put with the smooth round side down, in moist peat, not covered, until the tubers' sprouts get about two inches high; they should then be placed in a rich, very porous mixture in a five to six inch pot. The tubers may be placed in larger pots later. Partial shade is needed as well as moisture in the soil and air.

The cane type begonia is propagated from seeds, cuttings, or root divisions. The cuttings should be taken from the lower matured branches or the root may be divided where the new canes are growing.

Leaves, seeds, or divisions of the whitemo are used for the propagation of the rhizomatous begonias. Lay the leaves flat on the rooting material with the stem about one or two inches under the surface. If the large veins are cut or broken, plants will sprout from these. The leaf may be cut so that there is a large vein in each piece which is put in the rooting mixture at an angle. When the plant has three or four leaves it may be transplanted to a small pot changing to larger ones when necessary.

Since propagation by seed is a lengthy process, it will not be discussed in this article.

Begonias like slightly acid soil and should always have good drainage, whether in pots or in the ground. Organic fertilizer is excellent for the begonia; a well balanced commercial fertilizer, whether liquid or dry may also be used. After watering the plants they should be allowed to become dry to the touch; then watered again. This method of watering causes the oxygen in the air to reach the roots as the water goes down in the soil. The roots need the oxygen for growth.

Conning The News

By VIRGINIA CONN, Society Editor

VAR-O wives met at the Imperial House for lunch Tuesday—just ate and chatted. Nothing special but it gave the gals a chance to don their gay togs and hats, go ravers in our casual way of life.

Taking it all in were Betty Haxlett, Skip Horrell, Sally McInnis, Betty McBratnie, Jean Fowler, Mary Nelson, Marcia Cousins, Caroline Legare, Bettie Blesener, Joanne Shover, Ruth Chaffee, Flora Weston, Shirley Ross, Mary Jane McCarthy, Julie Anderson, Shirley Stevens, Leta Peterson, and Betty Day.

While I hated to miss the round table discussion of City Commission speaking before the Woman's Club today—had to go to the golf luncheon at the Mayfair Country Club.

It was quite a shock to walk into the clubhouse and find the inside stairway completely gone, along with the fireplace in the dining room. This last had been collapsed with a few mighty whacks by mighty Helen Andrew. The rooms have been painted white, and while all is still in a state of disorder, the transformation is startling. A stairway will be built outside the clubhouse to the second floor, which will be used as a bang-up locker room.

In spite of holes in the floor, building materials, and so forth, Helen managed to get out another delicious luncheon. There are now 50 members in the Sanford Woman's Golf Association. This means that it is no longer a small club. On the other hand—it is quite a powerful group. Even without the consideration of a golf swing. Grace Martin made her first appearance since her heart attack, which kept her confined for some time. Grace looks wonderful, and will soon be swinging around the fairways again.

Jackie Crawford wrote an amusing poem to the club, thanking the members for the engraved pin presented to her when she mastered No. 7. Pleased to say that even my cough was appreciated—that being the only report I was called upon to give. We finished the luncheon with a mighty crash when the leg fell off a fully loaded tea cart, much to the horror of those stragglers left in the club house.

It's late again, and I'm going home—goodnight.

Fashion Show Will Feature Pastors Tonight in Oviedo

By Maria Jones

OVIEDO—A most interesting event is in store for you if you will count out seventy-five cents, if you are an adult, or fifty cents, if you are a student, and meet us at the Fashion Show of the Oviedo Woman's Club scheduled for tonight, 8 p. m.—place—Memorial building.

Knowing our good friend Katrina Brookshire, finance chairman, and her able assistants, Mrs. Bob McAllister, Mrs. E. E. McCall, H. Staley, Mrs. E. L. Laitrell, Mrs. Lynn Neely, and Miss Esther Belate, we know that they have worked hard for the success of this venture. Come out and do your part to help them make a success of the show.

Belka of Colonial Plaza, Orlando, is sponsoring the event. Scott Brady will act as commentator. We think it should make headlines that an unusual event is in the making. Four of the models are from other churches and Mrs. George Carlton and Reverend and Mrs. Jack T. Bryant is the new minister of the Oviedo Baptist Church. What Bryant is the new minister of the other small community can boast four such models within their own churches.

Mrs. Carlton is a striking brunette and looks good in most anything she wears as does Mrs. Sparks Clonts, another brunette model. Those who have attended Fashion Shows in Sanford have seen Mrs. Clonts and can vouch for that.

We know that Mrs. B. F. Wheeler, Jr., Mrs. Lynn Mosier, Mrs. R. W. Estes, and Mrs. Bryant are good models—having seen them in other fashion shows.

The young ladies are well represented with Miss Linda Miller, Miss Julie Gore and Miss Ann Lundy.

Tommy Bryant, Roy Welsenberger, Jr., Pet Ulrey and Joy Battle will represent the young males. In addition to all of this, Mrs. Brookshire and committee promise refreshments and attendance prizes.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—(UP)—The Bible is the most popular book among light-fingered readers at the city library. Library director John A. Humphrey said only one quarter of one per cent of the 1,300,000 books circulated by the library are stolen, but Bibles disappear most often. Religious and educational periodicals rank second.

NEW YORK (UP)—Frayley's folks and the weekend football "winners" — and if I sound hungry let it teach you not to be out grid games.

The Yardstick

By JERRY COVINGTON
Last Friday's contest against Melbourne failed to add to anyone's individual scoring feats as the Seminoles were held to a 6-0 defeat. Although the Seminoles failed to score, they were able to grind out 158 yards from scrimmage and run their yearly total to 1543. Their seven opponents have a total of 478 yards on the ground.

In the rushing department, Eddie Barbour replaced Johnny Yeackie as leading ground gainer by grinding out 30 yards while Johnny was practically stopped cold and held to only 15 against the Bulldogs. Eddie now has a total of 383 yards while Johnny has 371.

The largest increase in the individual yardage department was by Bobby Johnson. Bobby was leading ground gainer in last week's contest with a total of 110 for the evening.

The three top men in the individual tackles department are Billy Tyre, with 34-9, Dave Stanley, with 22-14, and Claude Hittell, with 22-9. Claude showed the biggest jump of the week with the fine performance he showed in last week's game. He made 11 tackles and three assists to increase his yearly total.

National Grid League To Have Early Draft

NEW YORK (UP)—John Crow of Texas A&M, Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State, Jim Pace of Michigan and Lou Michaels of Kentucky can expect to be drafted by the National Football League Dec. 2.

Other college stars who can expect to be selected in the league's "early" draft that day at Philadelphia are: Leonard Lyles, Louisville, halfback; Dan Currie, Michigan State center-guard; Dick Campbell, Marquette center; Alex Karras, Iowa tackle; and Jimmy Phillips, Auburn end.

Wellington Mara, who has charge of drafting college players for the champion New York Giants, today tabbed Crow, Kowalczyk, Pace and Michaels as four of the outstanding players eligible for the draft.

The Chicago Cardinals get the bonus choice this year. If they choose a quarterback, it may be King Hill of Rice.

Seminole Squad Travels To Lakeview Tomorrow Night For OBC Contest

By JERRY COVINGTON
The Fighting Sanford Seminoles, sporting a 5-1-1 record and a bowl invitation, travel to Lakeview in Winter Garden where they will face a much improved team. Last week the Red Devils scored nine points in the last two minutes to defeat Winter Park—the team that tied Sanford, 6-4.

The Seminoles have completely shaken the 6-0 defeat they suffered to Melbourne last week and they are ready to improve the already great record. Sanford should be much stronger defensively than Lakeview but they have a good fullback that can cause plenty of headaches. The Red Devils have a so-so record this season but they can't be counted out. If the Seminoles play as they did last week, though, success is inevitable.

The Defensive attack will be led by Billy Tyre, Dave Stanley, Tom Brown, and possibly, Jack Stotsky. As the first of the week it was unknown whether Jack would be ready in time, but if things improve naturally, he should be in there scrapping. Jack was missed greatly in the last two contests, but Mike Tammy filled in like a pro and did a marvelous job.

The backfield, led by the "Little General", is ready to do something about the scoring drought it suffered last week. Bob Johnson, who has come into his own as a great runner will be battling it out to better last weeks 110 yards. Eddie Barbour and Johnny Yeackie, who are running neck and neck with the yardage honors, are in top form and will be ready to put on their show. The offensive attack has improved greatly and Sanford now has one of the best, well-rounded backfields in the conference.

The great defense put with the improved offense should find the Seminoles on top of a 7-0 score. Lakeview is tough and things could be much different with a few breaks for either team.

THE CARD OF THANKS
Very often a Card of Thanks in The Sanford Herald meets a need which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not only is it a gracious expression of gratitude to those who have sent floral tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and kindnesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot well be mailed.
Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct. Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.
There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I am in college under the Korean GI Bill, and I have just about come to the end of my GI entitlement. If I run out of entitlement before the end of my semester, will I be allowed to continue my GI training?

A. If your GI entitlement runs out after you've passed the halfway mark of your semester, you will be permitted to continue under the Korean GI Bill to the end of the semester. Otherwise, your GI training will end when your entitlement expires.

Q. I hold a World War II GI endowment policy. When it reaches the end of its endowment period, could I arrange to receive monthly payments for the rest of my life?

A. No. You may, however, choose either a lump-sum payment, or payments over a specified period ranging from three to 20 years.

Q. I am getting monthly disability compensation payments from VA which, I am told, are tax-exempt. If I save those payments and buy some property with them, would the property also be tax-exempt?

A. No. Tax-exempt does not extend to any property you might buy with your compensation payments. The property would be subject to taxes.

Q. I am a Korean veteran, and I've been thinking of using my GI loan rights to buy a house. Is there any hurry to buy a house, or do I have plenty of time?

A. You have plenty of time. Korean veterans have until Jan. 31, 1951, to take advantage of their GI loan benefit. World War II veterans have only until July 25, 1950.

Panel Discussion Is Held At Woman's Club

With particular interest yesterday, members of the Sanford Woman's Club gathered at the club building for a covered dish luncheon. The program was sponsored by the Civic Department and featured a panel discussion by the City Commissioners on "How to Improve Our City."

Mayor David Gatchel was introduced by the program sponsor, Mrs. W. D. Chisholm. Mr. Gatchel introduced his fellow commissioners and acted as moderator.

The "Capital Improvement Program" was explained by the panel of commissioners, followed by a question and answer period.

First subject placed before the panel was the new Civic Center, which was described by Earl Higginbotham. Higginbotham gave a list of the needed equipment for the building, including electrical appliances and musical instruments.

The new fire station on French Ave. and 18th St. was the subject of Al Wilson's dissertation. Wilson stressed the lower insurance rate which will result from the placement of this station. Commissioner F. D. Scott discussed the new swimming pool, and the municipal lighting system, which is constantly being improved.

Future improvements in Sanford were stated by Earl Higginbotham in the new proposed sewage disposal plant. Gatchel brought up the Docks and Terminal project while Wilson noted the street improvement program, which has been under fire for some time. He mentioned that East 7th St. will be among those paved this year.

During the question and answer period that followed the discussion, the panel of commissioners was arraged with questions from the Woman's Club members. These were not limited to the capital improvement program, and a heated debate ensued when the local hospital came in to the discussion.

Mrs. S. J. Nix, chairman of the Civic department, presided over the business meeting that preceded the luncheon. Mrs. Walls and Mrs. Wines were introduced as guests.

The Woman's Club was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. B. B. Crumley, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, Mrs. E. A. Monforton, Mrs. D. A. Gregory and Mrs. Fred Williams.

Articles were on sale that had been left from the bazaar recently given at the home of Mrs. Sidney Ives. The bazaar benefited the girls in the Ocala Industrial School.

A musical program was presented by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Gramkow and Mrs. Bostard. Accompanied by Mrs. Farmer, they sang "Deep in My Heart", "I'm Falling in Love with Someone", and "Lift Thine Eyes."

Benson Probably Won't Last In Cabinet If Farm Belt R

MOHAWUCK, Pa.
O. J. Farnsworth
News File Dept.
(Service)

WASHINGTON (UP)—The word around town is that his enemies of last week bracketed Ezra Taft Benson with their gun fire. If this be true, there will be a secretary of agriculture shortly. True or false, Benson probably will not survive in the cabinet if the Farm Belt rejects the Republican Party again in next year's congressional elections. Only President Eisenhower's affection for and loyalty to his agriculture secretary have kept Benson in office so long. The secretary has been in political trouble since Feb. 11, 1953, the second month of the first Eisenhower administration. It was on that day that Benson spoke in St. Paul, Minn., suggesting that the government should subsidize farm prices only as "disaster insurance." Price supports should not, Benson said "discourage economic production, heavy surpluses and subsidies." Demands for Benson's resignation became urgent and numerous by the autumn of 1953. The President has been defending his farm man ever since, a matter of four years. Politics May Bench Benson Benson's departure would not importantly change administration farm policies. Pressure of politics, perhaps, will compel Eisenhower to bench Benson, but no such pressure is likely to change Eisenhower's approach to the spending of tax revenue to cope with agricultural surpluses. A political pro added up Benson's political plight like this: "The farmers don't like him!" A great many farmers obviously do dislike Benson as much or more than they dislike the price support policies he represents. This political fact of dislike of the man is expected to be an effective argument with Eisenhower that political expediency may require Benson's resignation. A more effective argument, probably, than the equally factual farm discontent with administration farm policies. The real argument for Benson's departure is based on the belief of a great many Republican politicians that the party would win more congressional seats next year without him than with him. The opposition to Benson within the Republican Party enjoys the weight of numbers. It will be difficult for the President to resist. Harder Next Year More difficult to resist, however, would be the pressure for Benson's retirement after next year's elections if, as is likely, the Republicans lose again. Eisenhower, by then, will be more than a caretaker party man forbidden to run again if he wished to do so. A president in such a position probably would give extra weight to the opinions of all the Republicans who might be nominated to succeed him and to the urgings of the party men who would be responsible for the 1960 presidential campaign. Benson cheerfully tells all quesat things are a bit better on the farm front and that he has a thought of retiring so long as Eisenhower finds him useful. Benson is no quitter. Neither does he shrink from trouble, tough situations and hard decisions. A bulge in farm prices or a Republican congressional victory next year would put Benson on Easy Street, politically, if he still is around.

Border Clash Threatens Israel-Jordan Relations

By United Press Staff Correspondent
Relations between Israel and Jordan worsened today following a series of border clashes. Jordan threatened to "take necessary action" if a 37-year-old farmer allegedly kidnapped by an Israeli armed patrol was not returned by noon today, but no official sources in Amman elaborated on the dramatic ultimatum.

The flareup came as the United States was trying to prevent Egypt from falling entirely into the Soviet economic orbit. Four U. S. congressmen, members of a special study commission of the House of Foreign Affairs Committee, were flying to Cairo today to ask President Gamal Abdel Nasser why he accepted such a large amount of aid from the Soviet Union. An announcement in Cairo said the Soviet Union had offered 700 million rubles to Egypt which the Egyptians estimated on their own exchange rate at 72 million pounds or 200 million dollars. However the loan was nearer 70 million dollars according to the more realistic tourist rate.

CofC Membership Drive Winds Up About Dec. 1

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership drive will wind up about Dec. 1, membership drive committee chairman J. Brailley Odham, said this morning. Meeting with team captains early this morning at Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant to hear reports and plan the last final efforts to reach the $10,000 goal set at the beginning of the campaign, Odham said the drive "looks good" up to this time.

A total of $7,520 in memberships was reported at the meeting with a total of 215 members already signed up for the coming year. "Of the total memberships, Odham told the team captains, 53 have increased their memberships and there are 52 new members. "It is discouraging in that far too many people expect somebody else to do the job," Odham said as he reported 87 members from last year have not as yet sent their checks to the Chamber of Commerce office.

"We had 285 members last year," Odham said. "If last year's members who have not as yet sent their checks in do so immediately we will have reached our quota," he said. In spite of the discouraging points, Odham pointed out, "it looks as if we will reach the $10,000 mark by Dec. 1 when we hold our windup meeting," the membership chairman said.

pointed and named, will not go to work until after the membership drive's windup meeting is held. The $10,000 goal which the membership drive committee is attempting to reach will match appropriations from both the City of Sanford and Seminole County. "Actually," Odham told the group of committee members, "our goal should be $20,000. This is a realistic figure to furnish the Chamber of Commerce a workable budget with which to advertise our community out of the state."

Israel described the Jordan farmer as an "infiltrator," said he would be brought to trial and denied the kidnap charges. An army spokesman said he was captured well inside Israeli territory. Walled at Border A Jerusalem, Israel, dispatch reported a small group of tourists en route to Israel was detained for several hours today by Jordan's border police. Israeli officials have protested to the United Nations against Jordan's halting of an Israeli convoy en route to Mount Scopus, an Israeli enclave within Jordanian territory containing a hospital. The kidnaping incident resulted from an armed clash between troops of the two nations Thursday the first in months. Each accused the other of starting the fight.

Most of the team captains had an optimistic outlook on the outcome of the membership drive to wind up soon. Reports that a number of prospective members and old members will send their checks to the Chamber of Commerce office this week or in the immediate future brought estimated totals up to the goal figure. It is expected that a special committee will be appointed to personally contact prospective members who have not as yet joined the Chamber of Commerce. Membership Chairman Brailley Odham pointed out that a number of the names appearing on team captains' lists should be members of the Chamber of Commerce. However, this committee, if ap-

Rise In School Enrollment Told

VERO BEACH (UP)—State School Superintendent Thomas D. Brailley says the state will have to spend 70 million dollars a year on new school classrooms to keep up with sharply rising enrollments. "It is very possible that what you see here today might serve as a model for future similar facilities in your own communities," Brailley said. "I am sure that air conditioning would greatly increase the efficiency, health and comfort of students and teachers."

Tomorrow 'Poppy Day' In Sanford

Tomorrow will be "Poppy Day" in Sanford, according to a proclamation signed by Mayor David Gatchel earlier this week. "Poppy Day" is sponsored here by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and funds derived from the sale of the little red flower will go to the rehabilitation of veterans in veterans hospitals. The poppies are made by the veterans in hospitals in the state. Local citizens will be asked tomorrow to wear one of the attractive flowers and to contribute generously to the fund that means so much to those who have served this country well. George DeMatteo, an official of his local VFW organization, heads the "Poppy Day" effort here. "Poppy Day" is an annual event in Sanford and communities throughout the state.

Inflationary Spiral Has Ended

WASHINGTON (UP)—The inflationary spiral has ended. So, too, apparently has the 13-month rise in the cost of living. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell gave the good news to Americans. The Bureau of Labor Statistics was to issue a cost of living report today for the month of October. But Mitchell gave a tipoff Thursday on its contents. He said it would show no basic change from the September consumer price index which stood at 121.1 per cent of 1947-49 prices.

Ducks Arriving; Season Opens Saturday Morn

"The ducks are here," Harry Robson said yesterday. "Apparently by a week that the duck hunting season gets underway Saturday morning."

For a while it seemed as if the ducks were going to bypass the Sanford area, Robson said. However, Wednesday afternoon "they came in by the thousands," he said. Robson described the arrival of ducks here as so heavy that the sky was black with them. "We were on Lake Jessup," Robson said yesterday, "when they began to arrive." "I've never seen so many ducks in all of my life, the local sporting goods store owner said. All of the ducks seemed to be settling between the two bridges and on and around Lake Jessup. Duck hunters can look forward to plenty of game on hand for the opening of the season, Robson pointed out. "It must have been the cold weather up north that began driving the ducks to Florida where they could stay warm—either from the weather or from dodging shotgun blasts beginning this coming Saturday morning."
