Insuring Distinction Through Careful Restriction

LOCH-ARBOR

A Country Club Property of Lakes and Hills

In designing, Loch Arbor, care is being taken to insure its being permanently a distinctive and exclusive home community. Restrictions are such that a a atmosphere of quiet refinement is assured. Loch Arbor now, in the making, is being developed wisely a nd well.

Those who own a home in Loch Arbor, own a home where they can never be shut in through conges tion, because, though every lot be built upon, this development can never become crowded. Along winding parkways and drives, the never ending chain of lakes and waterways, congestion in Loch Arbor is impossible. There is nothing that can stand between residents of Loch Arbor and full realization of life at its best.

The natural topography of Loch Arbor from the beginning has been in itself just as beautiful as Nature could create. For every good reasons, it has required the handwork of man's genius to eliminate certain dis advantages features and to create this country club property of lakes and hills
$\qquad$

Surely, at such a time as this, one should get a way from the old Northern idea of checkerboard city lots and blocks. Surely this is no place for a congested area. Of all places, none other calls for such a wide range of opportunity to live and breathe in the great-out-of-doors and enjoy the maximum sunlight for all of this is offered in the greatest degree in Loch Arbor.

In the final analysis, it is just these very, assets which will always command for Loch Arbor property the highest prices and ever-increasing demand
