GEORGE MILLS

Business Briefs

"I believe we have proven the importance of specializing" said George Mills, owner of Southern Air of Sanford as he announced the move to expanded quarters on Park Drive and Oak Ave.

Formerly a consulting chemical engineer in the heat transfer and air movement field, Mills set down a strict policy of specializing only in heating, air conditioning and refrigeration when he organized Southern Air two years ago.

Mills said that today's rapid technical progress applies to Sanford as well as other population explosion areas.

"In the past two years we have been more than gratified by the response to our service" said Mills. "Rapid progress in the heating-cooling field makes it a necessity to keep abreast of developments, particularly when they apply to the safety and comfort of the public."

Besides Mills, the staff includes Shirley Mills as office manager, John Dimitry, Taft Harmon and Ponce Elmore.

Suicide Pact?

NEW SMYRNA BEACH — (UPI)—Everyone but the police had a whale of a time today when a school of pilot whales swam ashore and tried to commit suicide.

At least four of the burly animals succeeded, but two others injured themselves so badly they had to be shot.

Another two mammals were captured and hauled off to Marineland Studios, an ocean-graphic tourist attraction near St. Augustine.

By high tide Monday night there were still "seven or eight" swimming within the waterway system and showed no signs of going back out to sea, Police Chief Wallace Ferrerra said.

"I hope they do go away ... it's too hot to have dead whales around here," he said.

FEC Derail Move Fails

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — A new attempt to derail a freight train of the strike-bound Florida East Coast Railway failed early today when the train cut through chain wrapped around the tracks.

FEC Vice President W. L. Thornton said the incident the fourth since the wage dispute strike began 11 weeks ago, occurred just south of New Smyrna Beach about 2 a.m.

Box Score

Since the strikes against the Florida East Coast Railway began on Jan. 23, there have been four attempts to damage railway property.

Here is the box score: Feb. 28: Miami Shores. Piece of metal 18 inches long jammed in a switch in an attempt to force train off tracks. Metal bar jerked out of switch when train crossed track at 45 miles an hour.

March 26: Two metal derails ripped to tracks near FEC sheds at New Smyrna. Clamps removed when passerby warned police.

March 30: FEC bridge set fire at Dania. Firemen doused flames before serious damage caused.

April 12: Chain wrapped around tracks south of New Smyrna. Chain cut by weight of 35-car train. No damage.

"Someone wrapped a piece of chain around the tracks. Fortunately the weight of the engine cut through the links and the cars were not derailed," Thornton said. "This incident, like the others since the strike began, has been reported to the FBI for investigation."

Thornton said there were about 35 cars in the south-bound freight train which cut through the chain.

Earlier incidents involving FEC property included two derailment attempts and an unsuccessful attempt to burn a bridge.

Thornton also disclosed the FEC will begin hauling potatoes out of the North Florida growing area as of next Monday.

The FEC will pick up at various team trucks at St. Augustine and Bunnell, using supervisory personnel-operated trains which now haul potatoes from the Lake Okechobee area.

"We do not want the potato growers to be badly hit by this strike," he said, "and we hope this additional service, although still limited to the extent we cannot switch each individual packing house, will alleviate the transportation problems of the shippers in this area."

He said the service was almost primarily at shippers close to the East Coast. Growers near Palatka have been using sidings operated by other railways.

Teachers' Pay Bonus Repeal Bill Is Filed

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A bill to repeal the controversial 1961 competency award program for superior school teachers was introduced today by Sen. G. T. Melton, Lake City, and others.

The bill would eliminate the special $400 annual pay bonus for teachers graded by their superiors as in the upper 30 per cent of all teachers and who make a grade of at least 600 on the national teacher examination.

The measure was passed at the urging of Gov. Farris Bryant two years ago and over opposition of the powerful Florida Education Association which finally accepted it only as part of a compromise teacher pay raise package.

The Cabinet this week made the first payments under the program. They went to 6,800 teachers over the state at a cost of more than $2 million.

Also introduced today was a bill, urged by State School Supt. Thomas D. Bulley, that would do away with school millage elections.

The proposal, a constitutional amendment, would let the county school board decide the amount of school taxes up to 20 mills that will be levied. Under the present constitution, the freeholders must vote for any amount above 10 mills.

Anti-Poll-Tax Measure Okayed

State Borrowing Probe Set

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Measures to ratify the proposed federal anti-poll tax amendment and to investigate state borrowing cleared committee hurdles and sped to legislative calendars today.

The House voted today to investigate state borrowing and a measure to ratify the anti-poll tax amendment to the U. S. Constitution moved into position for early approval.

Meeting two hours before the house convened, the house public roads committee voted to make an investigation of state borrowing, including the $457 million refinancing of the state turnpike.

But the committee provided for the investigation to be made by a joint six-man committee of the House-Senate Finance and Taxation Committee instead of by the special house committee proposed by Rep. Fred Karl of Volusia, sponsor of the investigation move.

Karl charged the action was aimed at keeping him off the investigation since he is not a member of the finance committee. Other critics of the state bond borrowing under the Bryant administration charged privately the investigation would be a "white wash" of the administration.

The substitute bill won unanimous approval was pushed by former House Speaker William V. Chappell of Ocala, a next-door neighbor and close friend of the governor.

Chappell said he would push for early house adoption of the Finance Committee investigation in an attempt to get it to the senate for action but Sen. John Mathews, Jacksonville, said he'll demand that senate approval be delayed.

He plans to push for an investigation by a special committee.

At a 9 A.M. joint meeting, the anti-poll tax ratification measure was approved by both the Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee and the House committee on resolutions and put in line for early action. Only two dissenting votes were cast, by Sen. B. C. Pearce, Palatka, and Rep. Ben Williams of Gulf.

Sen. Spessard Holland made a special trip here to urge Florida to become the 31st state to ratify the amendment which would become a part of the U. S. Constitution if passed by 38 states.

Holland warned that unless the states acted to prohibit poll taxes as a requirement in federal elections, the matter would wind up in the courts and might open the door to federal control of state elections.

"This is a racial question," Holland said, "but it involves both races. The poll tax keeps many citizens of both races from voting." Florida outlawed the poll tax in state elections in 1937 and only five states still collect it.

Council OK's Budget Reports

Routine quarterly budget and financial reports for the Town of Altamonte Springs presented at the council meeting of the Council Finance Committee by Clerk Jim Palmer were accepted for approval and, including the town's payroll expenditures, were found to be totally satisfactory, Palmer said today.

Palmer said questions raised previously by Committee Chairman Keith Nixon at the April 3 Council Meeting concerning telephone bills and the payroll were acceptably explained and found to be justified.

Other members of the committee are Mayor Lawrence Swiford and Frank Gerhardt.

Leedy also indicated that a small water and sewer revenue issue would also have to be financed.

He is expected to submit figures on the issue based on from a $200,000 water improvement program up to $1,000,000.

Also expected at the meeting will be engineers Jess Jess Dietz of Clark, Daily Dietz of Clark, Daily be taken to get the emergency program underway.

The first step is expected to be the construction of a water reservoir at a cost of $100,000.

Earlier Leedy had informed the commission to stay within a $600,000 bond issue range due to the bond coverage stretching thin over that amount.

The complete water improvement project had been estimated at well over $1 million to include a new well field, transmission lines and reservoir.

According to earlier figures by Leedy based on 5,300 active water accounts here, an estimated $850,000 issue would mean a need of raising the water rates $10.50 per connection per year.

The girl had been sent to the principal for causing a disturbance in her classroom. Carlton noticed she kept her hand in her large purse. He demanded she open the purse and he discovered a .22 caliber revolver, fully loaded with nine bullets.

Carlton and School Supt. R. T. Milwee reported the girl is "emotionally disturbed" and already has been through the Child Guidance Clinic at Orlando, been treated by a psychiatrist and presently is under the care of a neurologist.

Sanford Pioneer Descendants To Ride In Parade

Descendants of one of the pioneer families of Sanford will be riding on the float which the Southside School is preparing for entry in the Seaside County Semi-Annual Parade April 27. Mrs. Velma Mitchell, principal, has announced.

The float will be an old horse-drawn wagon "with a fringe on top" and the children will all be dressed in costumes of the pioneer days of the county.

Volunteers who will take part include Patricia and Marty Perkins, children of Brack Perkins Jr., Vincent and Susan Lettifer, children of William Lettifer Jr.; Molly and Hazel Bush, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bush and Charles and Berna Park, children of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Park Jr.

All the youngsters are the great-grandchildren of William N. Lettifer, one of the pioneer settlers of the county, and their great uncle, William's brother, was C. H. (Charley) Lettifer, one-time postmaster and member of the committee of 100 on the county division.

William Maxwell Lettifer and his brother, Charlie, both came to Sanford in the 1870's and 1880's from Southland, Ky. They were both soldiers in the Confederate Army.

William Lettifer's children were William Lettifer and Mrs. Linda Lettifer Perkins and Mrs. Peacha Lettifer Williams, who are the grandparents of the children who will ride on the float.

All the school-age children attend Southside School.

'Let People Decide' On Gov. Bryant Program

Statewide Vote Asked

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Francis Bryant's proposed $125 million borrowing program for higher education would have to be approved by the people at a statewide election under a bill introduced in the legislature.

The measure, by Rep. Earl Faircloth of Dade, would submit to the people next year a proposed constitutional amendment empowering the state to sell bonds for construction at universities and junior colleges.

Bryant's bond proposal, not yet introduced, would bypass the people and authorize the program by simple statute.

Assembly, a $125 million program for new revenue sources to underwrite a flood of spending bills, the senate received proposals to take another $2 million tax bite from whiskey drinkers and ask congress to turn back millions of dollars in income tax revenue collected in Florida.

Sen. A. J. Ryan of Davis, setting on recommendation of Gov. Bryant, tossed in a proposed memorial to congress demanding legislation that would return to the state five per cent of the income tax money collected in each state.

A bill increasing the sales tax on whiskey purchased for off-premise consumption from three to 10 per cent was offered by Sen. Ed Price, Bradenton.

Both measures were sent to committees where their fate is uncertain.

Only other money-producing bill offered Tuesday was the controversial welfare law and recovery proposal that has been rejected in several sessions. The bill, by Rep. Woodie Liles of Hillsborough, would permit the welfare board to recover payments from the estates of pensioners after their death.

New money bills flooded the hoppers of both houses, covering everything from new institutions for retarded children to new colleges.

The biggest outlay proposed was $15 million for a Standard Training Center in Dade County.

Another measure, carrying an appropriation but for which funds would have to be supplied if it passed, calls for a new state university or branch of an existing university in Santa Rosa County.

The house government re-organizational committee approved a $10,000 pilot-care program for children released from reform schools, and the senate insurance committee shaped a bill increasing per diem travel pay for state officials and employees.

Other new bills would: appropriate $60,000 for a house of health laboratory on the Gulf Coast to develop insecticides to control dog flies and yellow flies.

Direct the board of control to study feasibility of locating a medical school at the University of South Florida in Tampa.

The value is a duck blue food fish found off Florida and the West Indies.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Father Secretary W. Willard Wirtz said Tuesday that 28 per cent of the youth called for the draft last year were rejected because of illiteracy—and 20 per cent of the rejects were high school graduates.

Wirtz, a former Illinois high school teacher, said the "startling" illiteracy rate demonstrated that "education has a responsibility to keep youngsters in school until they can learn to do something."

He spoke at the closing session of the two-day first annual conference of the National Committee for Support of the Public Schools, composed of 300 private citizens seeking more money for public schools.

"I hate to see statistics when talking about human trials," the secretary said. "I wish we could forget about such terms as a 5 and 6 per cent national unemployment rate. The figures do not reflect the true problem."

Wirtz said the main trouble is in the teenage bracket. He said the unemployment rate for white teenagers in the 16 to 19 age bracket jumped from 6 per cent in 1952 to 12 per cent in 1953. Rates of reserve units on 1952 to 12 per cent in 1953.

Members agreed by a 2-1 vote on a $1.5 billion pay increase to help induce servicemen to stay in uniform. This was $6 million below the administrator's request, and $25 million under an earlier recommendation by an armed services subcommittee.

In addition to servicemen on active duty, the bill would raise the pay of 500,000 members of reserve units on drill-pay status. It left out $22,000 "short-term" draftees and enlistees who have not yet completed two years of service.

NEW MECHANICAL EDUCATION COURSE in Air-Conditioning, Refrigeration and Heating Mechanics will be taught next year at Lyman High under the direction of this Advisory Committee, who are meeting now to work out plans for the course. From left seated are George Hillings, State manager of the Florida Heating and Cooling Corp., of Orlando; E. C. Ringer Sr. of Sanford Electric Co. (committee chairman) and Curtis Blaw, Casselberry Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning Shop Service. Standing are E. S. By Frances Weston Lake Mary Brownie Troop 667, under the leadership of Mrs. Dawn Burg McGhiey, enjoyed an instructive outing last Saturday afternoon when the group made a trip to Orlando and visited the Planetarium.

On the inside of the building the room darkened and the dome looked just like the sky at night. During the lecture, different planets and star formations were pointed out. The three different kinds of telescopes were also described. When the girls came back outside they were surprised to find that it was daylight.

Making the trip were Catherine Baird, Mary Best, Debbie Edwards, Ellen Elliott, Lynette Green, Rose Mary Green, Karen Grogg, Angela Hill, Sandra Valerie Laney, Phyllis Ling, Kathy Morris, Christine Parkinson, Barbara Pittner, Dawn Rhoades, Betty Ripenstein, Estelle Stamma, Gayle Smith, Rose Welch, Linda Wilber, and four guests, Kimberly Wilber, Mike and Bessie Parkinson and David Pittner.

Adults accompanying them were Mrs. Edna Wilber, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parkinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pittner, Mrs. Nadine Stamma, Mrs. Sandy Schelert and Mrs. McGhiey, troop leader.

Steel Prices Jump

WHEELING, W. Va. (UPI) — The Wheeling Steel Corp.

Fryer Service Set Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Lee Fryer, 57, who died Monday at the Tallahassee Memorial Hospital will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Indian Springs Baptist Church in Tallahassee.

Mrs. Fryer was born Jan. 1, 1876 in Dublin, Ga., and was the widow of John M. Fryer.

Increased steel prices are being passed on to the consumer. The first anniversary of the steel price hike which precipitated White House intervention and a published by the industry.

William A. Steele, president of the national steel industry, said the steady increase in costs of materials, services and labor would increase steel prices since 1952 precipitated the action.

There was no immediate reaction from the White House or from the United Steelworkers union on the latest steel price increase.

The announcement Tuesday night by Steele came 100 hours after Arthur H. Hower, board chairman of the Bethlehem Steel Corp. told a stockholders meeting Tuesday there was "considerable doubt" whether the market could support a steel price increase at this time.

At a news conference following the stockholders' session, Hower said "things are picking up and looking better." He said he hoped the approved demand for steel was not a result of stockpiling against possible strikes.

Iron Age magazine said Tuesday that the rate of steel consumption is growing and looking at a higher level than anticipated. Some steel mills, the magazine said, believe that demand next month may be higher than capacity.

"Delivery promises on traditionally tight products are being swamped with a deluge of orders," the metalworking weekly said.

A spokesman for the U. S. Steel Corp., the nation's number one producer, said the company would probably issue a statement on the increase later today. Bethlehem and Jones and Laughlin, the second and third ranking producers, Tuesday night had "no comment" on the increase.

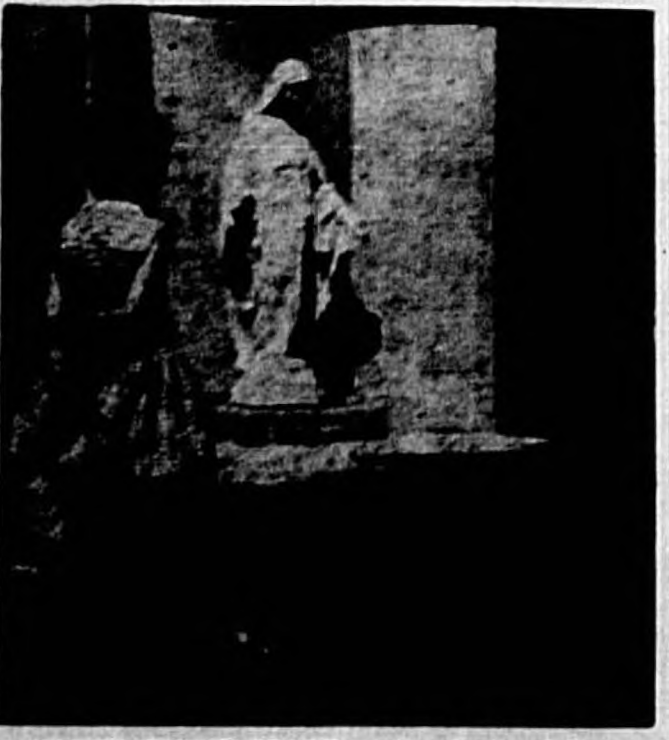

Keep your eye on the competition

You learn a lot about the day-to-day state of the marketplace by reading the other fellow's advertising.

And so does the shopping public. So use the daily newspaper to keep an eye on the competition... use it for market research... but don't lose sight of the main issue. Use it to keep yourself in the public eye with consistent, productive advertising.

Sell County, Krider Says

Everybody in Seminole County has got to be a one-man salesman for the county, John Krider told members of the Lions Club, Tuesday.

"If the people whom you meet around town, filling station operators, waitresses, businessmen and salesmen knock the area or downgrade it, they're just taking money out of their own pocket," Krider pointed out.

"If this county is going to move and grow and increase its economic assets, it means everybody's got to get into the promotion act and encourage people and business to come in here," he said.

Krider used a chart to show just what 100 new workers in a community could do by way of spreading the money around to help everybody.

"We're just cutting our own throats when we fight among ourselves and when we don't back up modern, progressive ideas just because we don't like the guy that made the suggestion," he emphasized.

"Everybody can sell Seminole County. Every individual can help. We have everything desirable for an industrial climate, except the cooperation, drive and support of the people of the county."

"For 35 years not one single new industry was built in this county," the Chamber of Commerce executive pointed out.

"Now we have over $7 million in annual payroll from new industries here and our economy is presently at its highest point in decades.

"Although we are basically agricultural and the Navy base is another big industry, we have one of the greatest potential commercial assets in the country... a navigable waterway," Krider said, noting that "as yet project and has been for years."

"But we've had too much talking... what we need now is action. Everyone is dependent on the dollar. Let's do something to get it."

"Do you realize," Krider asked, "that there are 300 other communities in Florida and 15,000 in the United States competing with us to attract industry?"

"No lukewarm attitude will do. We must be enthusiastic, proud and self-respecting. Let the community tell its own story."

Krider announced that an Industrial Exhibit, featuring the work and products of the industries now in the county will be held at the Civic Center on April 18.

This will be the First Annual Industrial Exhibit. Doors to the exposition will open at 6 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m. there will be a fashion show.

At 8 p. m. Governor Farris Bryant will speak over closed circuit television on Industrial Week in Florida.

Slander Suit Filed By Hoffa Is Dismissed

DETROIT (UPI)—A $1 million slander suit filed by Teamster President James R. Hoffa against AFL-CIO President George Meany and other AFL-CIO officers was dismissed in Federal Court Tuesday by a judge who called the suit "a public relations document."

Hoffa had charged in the suit that during a speech in New York on Oct. 10, 1961, Meany said:

"There is every indication that the Teamsters are now, more than ever, under the influence of criminal and corrupt elements."

Judge Stephen J. Roth, however, said in dismissing the case that the Teamster boss failed to obtain legal service on the defendants and did not exercise ordinary diligence in the prosecution of the action.

"It would be hard to find a lawsuit with more fatal defects and less staying power than this one," Roth said. "It is important that this be terminated as a dry run."

He also said Hoffa was inconsistent in not including United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther as a defendant. Reuther is also a president of the AFL-CIO. Both he and Hoffa are Michigan citizens, however, and a federal suit may not be filed against a citizen of the state in which the suit is filed.

Altamonte Civic Club Hears Program On Home Freezing

By Louise Simunek

Members of the Altamonte Springs Civic Club were given invaluable tips on home freezing by Mrs. B. E. Derflinger, Florida Power Home Economist, at last Wednesday's meeting held in the Community House.

She advised that the biggest secret in well kept frozen goods is in the packaging, cautioning that all foods to be put in the freezer should first have the supermarket wrappers removed and be rewrapped in aluminum foil or freezer paper.

Air will get in food left wrapped as it comes from the store causing it to dry and spoil. Food in this condition is considered to have "freezer burn" and should not be eaten, she said.

She also cautioned against wrapping in brown paper as it will give off an odor which will penetrate throughout the freezer or refrigerator and warned against leaving fruit or vegetables in brown paper bags if they are to be refrigerated.

She said that turkeys or other fowl should not be stuffed and left overnight in the refrigerator since there is great danger of the stuffing spoiling and resulting in food poisoning, causing death in many instances.

Local Church Gives Schedule

Pepitone Homers Twice

Yanks Wasting No Time

United Press International The New York Yankees wasted no time letting American League rivals know that Ralph Terry is as good as he looked in the World Series and Joe Pepitone may be better than Joe DiMaggio predicted.

Put the two factors together and they spell calamity for long-suffering American Leaguers who are hoping their majesties will lose the pennant this year. The AL's "shirtless ones" had hoped (1) Yankee pitching might be vulnerable and (2) the Yanks had out-smarted themselves by trading first baseman Bill Skowron to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But Terry and Pepitone threw plenty of cold water on those hopes Tuesday when the Yanks opened their season with an 8-2 victory over the Athletics in Kansas City. Even the fact that the Athletics were all dolled up in their new gold and green uniforms wasn't enough to make the 30,978 hometown fans confuse them with royalty.

Terry, who added two World Series victories to his 23-12 record in 1962, pitched a six-hitter and walked only one batter while Pepitone, making his varsity debut, led the Yankee's 13-hit attack with two homers and a double.

Pepitone is the 23-year-old free-swinging first baseman who had a sensational home-streak early in last season but who cooled off to .239 and was farmed to Richmond. His biggest booster is DiMaggio, who has assured Yankee brass that Pepitone will make the big time this year.

Pepitone hit the first pitch offered to him for a homer Tuesday and also homered in the eighth inning. Elston Howard got a homer and Bobby Richardson had a triple. Terry, meanwhile, breezed seven shutout innings before yielding solo homers in the eighth and ninth to Bill Bryan and Chuck Essegian.

The Chicago White Sox got an early dividend from their key winter trade in toppling the Detroit Tigers, 7-5, the Los Angeles Angels beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, and the Cleveland Indians shaded the Minnesota Twins, 5-4, in the other American League games.

Rookie Pete Ward and veteran reliever Hoyt Wilhelm, obtained in a winter deal with the Orioles, were the stars of the White Sox' victory. Ward hit a three-run homer in the White Sox' game-winning four-run seventh-inning rally and Wilhelm protected the lead with three innings of one-hit shut-out relief ball. Joe Cunningham homered for the Sox and Gus Triandos homered and Rocky Colavito had three hits for Detroit.

Ken McBride pitched a four-hitter and struck out

Phil's Off And Runnin' In National

By United Press International All Art Mahaffey's got is a blazing fastball and a nickel curve, according to baseball know-it-alls, but that big hummer was good enough to get the Philadelphia Phillies off winging in the National League pennant race.

"Just let him throw that fastball," says Phillie Manager Gene Mauch. "He doesn't need those other pitches." The Cincinnati Reds found that out for the second straight opening day when the big righthander pitched a four-hitter and struck out 10 in a 2-1 victory Tuesday night.

"It was just fast balls," Mahaffey said after the game. "I threw only five breaking pitches all night."

Mahaffey, a 19-game winner for the Phillies last year, suffered from a painful right shoulder during spring training but his opening night performance apparently has dispelled any of Mauch's worries.

The Phils, long-time doormat of the senior circuit but the best team in the league for the second half of last season, defeated 21-game winner Joey Jay for the second straight year on opening day. Don Demeter's single drove in the first Phillis run in the fourth inning and the clincher came in when Gordy Coleman muffed a double play ball in the sixth.

The Reds rallied in the ninth off Mahaffey when Frank Robinson singled and John Edwards doubled him home with one out. Mahaffey then settled down, striking out Gene Freese and Tommy Harper.

The National League champion San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, rated with Cincinnati as the top contenders for the NL flag, won their opening day contests.

Four home runs—by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey and Felipe Alou—led the Giants to a 9-2 victory over the Houston Colts and 25-game winner Don Drysdale of the Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1.

In other games, Ernie Broglio pitched a two-hit, 7-0 victory for the St. Louis Cardinals over the New York Mets, and Ted Savage's two-out, pinch single paced the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 3-2 win over the Milwaukee Braves.

Jack Sanford, a 24-game winner for the Giants season, pitched five-hit ball for five innings before giving way to Jack Fisher, who retired all 12 Colts in order. The 90-degree heat and Sanford's base-running—he hit a triple and a single, driving in three runs—caused the Giant righthander to tire.

six for the Angels, who cloaked Bill Monbouquette for all their runs in the fifth inning. Lee Thomas' three-run homer was the big blow of the frame. Carl Yastrzemski had two of the Red Sox hits, including a homer that accounted for their run.

Woodie Held, John Romano, Max Alvis and Fred Whitfield hit homers to produce all the Indians' runs off 1962 20-game winner Camilo Pascual. Jim Grant pitched a seven-hitter for the Indians, raising his lifetime record against the Twips to 23-7.

WINNING TEAM in the Father-Son Golf Tournament play-off held Sunday at the Country Club at Casselberry was Terry Deal, left and his dad, James Deal, who hold their handsome trophies. Deals Take Trophy In Golf Play

The play-off for the Father and Son Golf Tournament was held Sunday afternoon at the Country Club at Casselberry with the handsome winner's trophy going to James Deal and his 14 year old son Terry of the Casselberry Club, who scored a 65 on the 18 hole course.

The large trophy donated by the Men's Golf Association must be won three times for permanent possession and the smaller trophy dedicated by the club is kept by the winning team.

The Father and Son Tournament, an annual affair, is sponsored by the men's association of the Country Club at Casselberry and is open to members of the various central Florida clubs.

Tying for the runner-up position were Jack Davis and son, Jack Davis, Jr., of Orlando, members of the Duval-Casselberry Country Club, and Bill Cass and son Chris of Casselberry, with 69.

Also participating in the play-off were Paul Woods and son Paul, Jr., of Orlando, members of the Casselberry Club who scored a 73. Additional Sports On Page 9

In The Mind

CHICAGO (UPI) — Little Maury Wills consulted a Las Vegas hypnotist last winter to bolster his legs through his mind and help the Los Angeles Dodger star who holds the record for stolen bases.

Wills, whose 104 stolen bases last year set a major league mark, said today he went to hypnotist Arthur Ellen to guard against any "psychological feelings" which might inhibit his running and sliding. And it paid off, Maury says.

"He put me under hypnosis and told me that I wouldn't have any trouble with my legs. I could go and slide and run as long as I wanted to and perform as I wanted to, and I wouldn't have any problems."

Wills recalled he "was concerned because I had a hemorrhage in my leg the last three weeks of the season and I didn't want any recurrence."

On Dec. 8, 1962, Columbus landed at the northwestern tip of Haiti and named the island Hispanola, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Pretty's Best, Duke Drake Clash At SOCK

What stacks up as one of the finest programs of the entire season is on tap tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. In the featured ninth race the total wins of the eight entries adds up to a fabulous 54, and two of the three winningest runners at the track are among the entries.

They are Pretty's Best, winner of the recent marathon speed classic, and Duke Drake. Both have accounted for nine firsts to date. Should either he or she score tonight, that greyhound will be currently the track champion and ahead in the victory chase with ten wins.

The most dangerous adversary of these two flying machines appears to be Sarasota Suncoast, a six-time winner who boasts the fastest clocking of the season, a sizzling 30.90 for the 3/16-mile distance.

Other ace speedsters in this contest include Cherokee Hulo and Lou Havoc, both eight-time winners.

Next week is the most important of the 1963 campaign for it is Derby Week when the track's top distance stars will be seeking the season's greatest honor, the winning of the 28th Central Florida Derby.

A NICE CATCH of shad brought in by A. V. Martin and Bill Seamore got 26 shad with 14 roe while fishing out of Crowe's camp.

By Bill Vincent Jr.

Yes sir, here I am again and this past week has really been a busy one for me. I didn't get around to any of the fish camps but I've been hearing all kind of rumors about the bass biting and it's a fact they are really showing around the fishing areas, and of course the shad are still holding on.

A. V. Martin and Bill Seamore came in with a big catch of 24 with 14 roe, and it looks to me like they're still spawning. Jim Crowe says that there is still a lot more shad fishing left.

Arthur Brown of Owens Bay, Ontario strung in 15 shad with 9 roe, and these were caught on the nunguesser shad rig.

The Alden brothers who are twins and in the spry young age of only 70 years, from Pennsylvania and Ohio, told Jim Crowe that if the Canal went through they would move to California to do their fishing.

Jim tells me that the bass were schooling last Thursday and that it was the biggest school he had seen in six years. They knocked off Friday on account of the

Pirates Lose First Game, 7-4

By Shirley Wentworth
The Bear Lake Little League Pirates, sponsored by Forest City businesses, playing on home ground, lost their first game of the season to Lake Mary by a score of 7-4 last Saturday.

Refreshments were sold during the game by the LL Women's Auxiliary. Schedule for the Pirates the remainder of the week calls for a game this afternoon against Sunland at Sunland and against Altamonte Saturday afternoon at Altamonte. The minor league will play Lake Mary at Lake Mary Saturday morning at 9 a.m.

Lyman Topples Oviedo; Lakeview Slugs Sanford

weather, but have started back now, and the specks are beginning to show now and those pan size bream are everywhere that you drop in a fishing line, if you are in the right place at the right time.

Of course the shad will always give you some excitement in the lower St. Johns River.

I was up flying over the county this past week end and I saw some real fishing spots, and the fishermen were there catching them.

Around the mouth of Navy Creek at Lake Jesup there were 8 boats and they were all having good luck, and from Bird Island down to Crowe's Camp the fishing was real good.

Just a reminder for you sports car fans the annual Osceola Grand Prix is slated for April 21 and 22, so there will be some real excitement out there with all kinds of good trophies to be awarded.

After the rain this past weekend I noticed that the bass are schooling in the Wekiva region, but I just called John Crim and he says that the fish are probably getting out of the way, on account of the hyacinth spraying that is being done.

The bass are bedding and you can also catch them, even though they are not schooling. Dave Echols of NAS got his limit Saturday and Sunday at Crim's camp while fishing with a double trailer, the needle fish and the Marm's minnow which is made by our neighbor in Winter Park, Mr. John Gery. John Crim decided he would kinda take it easy the other day and tried his luck at the bass and John got his limit.

Those bass are here and it's not hard to catch one if you really put your mind to fishing for bass. Well, that's it for now and be sure to let me know if you catch any fish, cause I'm still waiting for that big fish story and picture.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother is my problem. She saves junk! She filled up two rooms of our house with junk and now she is starting to fill up a third. She saves old Christmas trees, burned-out light bulbs, old clothes, shoes, boxes, bottles, rags, newspapers, and even broken toys. I go to school and don't have time to clean up the house. I am ashamed to ask anyone over because I'm afraid they might open the wrong door. How can a 12-year-old boy get his mother to throw out all that junk? She is okay in every other way.

READY TO LEAVE
DEAR ABBY: Don't wait for Fire Prevention Week to dig into those junk-filled rooms. Get up early one Saturday morning and go to it. Separate the worthless junk (old clothes, broken toys) and give your Salvation Army a ring. Ask your mother to approve your sorting job and let the trash man haul the junk away. And stay home. Mothers need sons like you.

DEAR ABBY: Another girl and I share a four-room apartment for which we split all the expenses. We both work days and have to get our laundry and house-cleaning done in the evenings. Do you think it is fair that I do all the work while she sits on her 160 pounds and watches TV all evening? I am getting fed up with

Other distinguished guests at the meeting included Mrs. Mark W. Emmel, first vice president of the Florida Federation; Mrs. Charles MacDowell, District 7 director, and Mrs. Walter Jones, a former state president. Other guests welcomed were Mrs. M. R. Woodall, sister-in-law of Mrs. A. W. Woodall, Mrs. Leonard Dunn, president of the Lake Mary Woman's Club, and Mrs. E. T. Cain, a guest of Mrs. Frank Evans and sister-in-law of Mrs. Roy Tillis.

Miss Donna Beard, accompanied by Miss Janet Johnson, sang two numbers, "Break O' Day" and "Ho, Mr. Piper."

The club house was adorned with roses. The speaker's table held an arrangement of Peace roses surrounding a white orchid. The maids, stage, entrance hall and individual tables all held arrangements of red roses.

Luncheon hostesses were Mrs. H. W. Rucker, Mrs. E. M. Hoke, Mrs. W. D. Hoffman, Mrs. Clyde Ramsey, Miss Anna Nelson, Mrs. R. C. Moore, Mrs. Andrew McPherson and Mrs. C. M. Stewart.

Party Honors

North Orlando Teenagers
By Mona Grinstead

A double birthday was celebrated by Myrtle Harris, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris, and Billy Ryan, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ryan, at a recent party given in honor of the two teenagers at the Harris home on Orter Avenue in North Orlando. Hostesses for the party were the honorees' mothers.

A cookout with all the trimmings was enjoyed by the group and topped off with a large chocolate birthday cake with green icing. The cake bore the inscription "Happy Birthday to Billy and Pinky" and had 13 candles on one end and 15 on the other.

Games were supervised by the mothers. Twisting was at so enjoyed and favors were given to the guests from a grab bag. The guests sang "Happy Birthday" and the honorees echoed "Thank You" as they opened the gifts.

Friends enjoying the celebration with the honorees were Bonnie Stodden, Barbara Evans, Joyce Coyle, Deana Kreeck, Mike Rhodes and Terry Scholz.

South takes his ace. After drawing trumps he goes after the clubs to see if the suit will break to allow him to discard a spade. The clubs fall to break, but now South is able to make the hand by the use of the play known as "loser on loser."

South leads dummy's last club. East plays his jack and South discards a low spade.

East is in the lead with the second defensive trick and is now forced to lead either a spade or a diamond. A spade lead makes dummy's king good, while a diamond allows South to ruff in dummy and discard one of his two remaining spades.

back. Now there is no defense.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

"Young British housewives should take shopping lessons from their grandmothers. There is hardly a woman in this country under 65 who knows how to select and buy a Sunday joint properly."

This is what an Englishman recently wrote in a British consumers' magazine.

Wonder what he would think if he followed a young American housewife through an American supermarket and right up to the meat counter?

He would probably be shocked to see her buying chops in packages where only one or two are visible and for all she knows, the bottom chops may be half fat and half bone.

He would surely gasp if he knew a recent survey revealed that many American housewives are too timid to ring the bell for the butcher, to bring him out of his hide-away so they can ask him to cut a piece of meat to order.

He would certainly be amazed to see young housewives, who obviously can't afford broiled steaks, buying

Every business has a peak period, and during this time, any conscientious worker gives her "all" and knows her boss is grateful. North has a sound raise to two hearts and South has plenty for his jump to game, but the cards lie wrong to declarer and if West opens the jack of spades South will have to play for his contract.

Fortunately for declarer, West opens the jack of diamonds. South covers with dummy's queen. For all he knows West may have led from king-jack-ten. East produces the king and it is now up to South to proceed carefully if he wants to make the hand.

As a starter, South should let the king of diamonds hold that first trick. East will probably lead a diamond

For All Souls

All Souls Parochial School now holds the Seminole County Spelling Bee Traveling Trophy for the second time after eighth grader Barbara Blouin made a perfect score in the county contest held Saturday at Sanford Junior High School.

Runner-up, with only one mistake and also from All Souls School was Richard Mamele.

Students from 14 county schools, including the school winner and runner-up alternate competed in the Spelling Bee conducted by Mrs. Mary Grace Kosky, Sanford Junior High English teacher.

Contestants had to write 75 words and stand up for 10 rounds of oral spelling.

Winner for All Souls in 1961 was Kathleen Keele.

Miss Blouin will go on to the District Contest in Orlando scheduled for May 2. The winner there will go to Washington, D. C., for the national contest.

Very Good Work

Sanford can well be proud of Police Chief Roy Williams and his department these days.

We hope by reading the paper the public has taken particular note of the quick, quietly efficient, operations of the department during the past few weeks when a total of some 30 arrests were made including some of major crimes.

We might take special note first of the quick apprehension in the assault case at the hospital the other week, second was the apprehension and property recovery on the two purse snatchings, . . . and now we have the bolita crackdown.

We echo the words of the city fathers, and City Manager W. E. Knowles when we say: "This is very GOOD work."

The Final Arbiter

It is commonplace that the president of the United States gets no easy matters for decision. More commonly than it is, the same might be said of the United States Supreme Court.

Hearing only some 200 cases a year, it has no time for small things. It must focus on questions of broad import.

The pressures of time, however, are not crucial in compelling this concentration on large judicial affairs. The fact is, this is the high court's function.

A former American Bar Assn. president, Charles S. Rhyne, who has tried a hundred cases before the Supreme Court in the past 25 years, calls it this country's great "organ of decision."

He argues that any free government needs such a final arbiter. For, inevitably, there will be many potential stalemates as major conflicting interests battle for position in the arena. Who is to break them or prevent them if there is no place of last resort?

Not the least reason for this nation's pre-constitutional paralysis under the Articles of Confederation, suggests Rhyne, was the absence of anything like the present high court.

He sees it as fitting and necessary that we shape our great controversies for ultimate decision at this level. We cannot leave them undecided. The other courses would be either a new paralysis or conflict approaching war.

The Supreme Court's role as final resort is not an enviable one. The great controversies it hears are almost certainly charged with emotion. The court knows powerful, sometimes socially disruptive consequences may follow its decision. Its members know, too, that they are human and can make mistakes.

This is perhaps the key reason it so often moves slowly. Yet the time for choice always comes when the end of the road is at hand and deeply entrenched stalemate threatens to become permanent.

Inescapably, critical decisions are unpopular with many. If they were not, the high court's interest in the issue involved probably would be misplaced.

But here Rhyne makes a significant point. It is every citizen's right and privilege to assail the court's rulings, especially when it is recognized that human judgment can err. Nevertheless, the lawyer argues, it is wrong to direct this attack against either the court as an agency or the judges as individuals.

They, sitting as a court, are acting in the difficult, unpopular task for which they were chosen. He must presume they are doing so according to their oath, and to the best of their ability.

If we do not place our faith in them, as individuals and as a body, then in whom may we place it? Should the president, leading the nation, be the judge of affairs he often initiates? Should the Congress, embroiled in politics and passing many laws whose language it hardly knows, be the appraiser of its own acts?

Only the Supreme Court stands at all aloof. Even it can be jarred from its vital detachment. But it is still the only great organ of choice our system of government has given us.

Dick West Says

English Runaway Language?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There is a fear among some lexicographers that English is becoming a runaway language and may, cancer-like, destroy itself through uncontrolled growth.

Their apprehension stems from the prospect that slang, idioms, dialects, colloquialisms and other corruptions will dilute and contort the meaning of words to the point that they lose their power of communication.

I am not enough of a scholar to know whether such a threat actually exists. All I know is that two fellows met on the street the other day and the following conversation ensued:

"You don't look so good, Harry."

"I don't feel so good, Sam."

"What seems to be the trouble?"

"I'm afraid that I played the fool last night."

"You overindulged, did you? Had a drop too much?"

"Yes, I was immoderate. I hit the sauce too hard."

"You were bending the elbow and you got a little too well oiled. Is that it, Harry?"

"I sat down to wet my whistle and the next thing I knew I was feeling no pain."

"In other words, you tied one on. You started out to lift a few and you ended up three sheets to the wind."

"Right, Sam. I was really sailing. I was flying."

"What you mean is, you were high. Or were you tight as a tick?"

"In that case, you must have been more than tipsy. You must have been stewed."

"Stewed to the gills, Sam. Also pickled, fried and boiled."

"Harry, I'm beginning to think you were loaded."

"I had a loan on, all right."

"I take it then that you were smashed. You were potted, stoned and crooked."

"Let's face it, Sam. I was hatched, spitted and looped."

"Putting it another way, you were snowed. You were billed, tanked, bonzed up and soaked."

"I had snootful and a jag on."

"What you're trying to say is that you were blind."

"I was pweyed. I was blotto. I was stiff, bombed, soured, ossified, barreled and gassed."

"Were you out like a light?"

"No, but I was lit. Lat up like a church."

The two friends parted at this point and Sam walked on down the street, muttering and shaking his head.

"I wonder what was the matter with Harry," he kept saying to himself.

PRE-EASTER PARADE

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Love at first sight can be a dangerous thing for you may be enslaved by a total stranger who is very unsuited to your personality. So study this case carefully and ensnare your brain. Unless your sweetheart rates "superior" on the "Sweetheart Test" below, break off your romance, regardless of your heart!

CASE P-409: Jean J., aged 17, is the high school coed who wants to know how it is possible to fall in love at first sight.

If you contrast the more usual type of love affair, which is the "earned" love variety, you will find that it is safer than "love at first sight."

For when you suddenly fall in love at first sight, you don't know if you are compatible in your personalities.

And you are almost hypnotized so you can hardly think. If the other person is a wonderful personality, as was true when I fell in love with Mrs. Crane at first sight, then you are lucky.

But if that other party is definitely unfit or immoral and a drunkard or a gold digger, you may be heading for unhappiness and ultimate divorce.

"But how is it possible to fall in love at first sight?" is the usual question my psychologist is asked.

Actually, what happens is simply the fact that the stranger possesses certain traits or mannerisms that have belonged to favorite members of your family!

For example, if you boys have linked affection and happiness with your mother or sister or aunt ever since childhood, then you can guess what will happen if you meet a strange girl who has some "landmark" linked with those previous female relatives.

Maybe the new girl thus has some typical mannerism that you have subconsciously associated in you.

And the same goes for a coed who is suddenly smitten by a strange man.

Such a girl has developed thrills and happiness with reference to her many previous years of contacts with her father or brother or uncle or favorite male cousin.

The newcomer then figuratively triggers her emotions so she lights up, all aglow, with a sudden overwhelming romance that she calls love at first sight.

If you are ever a victim of love at first sight and the other person is very unsuited to you, then by all means ensnare your brain and heed the advice of your friends and relatives.

For you are then in a hypnotic trance and cannot think clearly. You are under a spell that is almost hypnotic.

So use your brain and resolutely ignore your heart when all the signs point to later unhappiness.

To help you, send for the 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Unless your sweetheart rates "superior" thereon, then break your romance, regardless.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 5 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — A new set of devils—said to be responsible for the growing power of the federal government regardless of whether Democrats or Republicans run the White House and Congress—has just been identified by the president-elect of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

He is Edwin P. Neilan of Wilmington, Del., chairman and president of the Bank of Delaware, who will be installed May 1, for a one-year term as head of the nation's largest business organization.

Speaking just after announcement of his election by the chamber's board of directors, Neilan declared that the impetus for "nationalization" in the United States remains the same regardless of which political party is in power.

"It comes," he asserted, "from a relatively small group of entrenched civil servants who use both parties to extend their power and social philosophy."

"They appear to be beyond any adequate control by the thin layer of political appointees at the top."

Neilan names no names, gives no specific examples, does not identify in what government agencies "the entrenched" are to be found.

But this is something brand new in the way of a charge from the business community as to who is responsible for all the big government programs businessmen object to.

Neilan's target isn't the Americans for Democratic Action, the favorite group to blame for what's wrong with the country. Neither does he make the Communists his whipping boy. Nor does he hold that new Washington policies are dictated by the labor bosses—though he does have some definite views on treating the monopoly power of labor unions the same as business monopolies.

Democratic new frontiersmen aren't blamed any more than the Republicans by Neilan. No, it's this unspecified little group of top grade civil servants—government career men barred from political activity by the Hatch act, bureaucrats if you will—who are now held up by him for indictment on charges of running the Establishment.

In this connection, it is recalled that when the Eisenhower administration came to town 10 years ago there was a definite effort to get government career men out of all policymaking jobs and appoint Republicans in their places.

For you are then in a hypnotic trance and cannot think clearly. You are under a spell that is almost hypnotic.

So use your brain and resolutely ignore your heart when all the signs point to later unhappiness.

To help you, send for the 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Unless your sweetheart rates "superior" thereon, then break your romance, regardless.

The effort wasn't completely successful. But when the Kennedy administration took over it very definitely removed all Republican policymakers and replaced them with Democrats.

Most career civil servants, considered experts in their respective fields, stayed on in their nonpolicy-making jobs. The best of these people are usually singled out to get annual meritorious service awards for carrying out plans approved by the policymakers as authorized by acts of Congress.

But, says Neilan, "these federal officials are on the road selling their subsidy programs as painless panaceas for almost every type of community problem."

"They endeavor to convince business, civic and political leaders that shopping for money in Washington is like visiting the bargain basement. The next step will be to create a cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs and turn our cities into federal dependencies."

This last point is what Neilan hopes to oppose most vigorously in his year as U. S. Chamber president. He is on sound ground here, although he probably is fighting a hopeless battle.

He admits it is easier for mayors to come to Washington for $100,000 grants or loans than to try to raise money at home.

Neilan identifies himself politically as a great ticket splitter. Born in Michigan, reared in the Midwest and Texas, he voted for Al Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt—the first two times. Then he became a registered Republican.

"I'm not sure I can qualify as a conservative," he says, "Some of my banking competitors say 'I'm not.'"

There are several types of commencement speakers—high calibre and big bore being the best known varieties.

Handy Shopping Guide to Series E U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

No matter what their denomination, all U.S. Savings Bonds have these things in common: They're one of the safest and most widely held investments in the world - owned by tens of millions of American families. They're replaceable in case of loss at no cost. They pay $1 for $3 when held to maturity. They're available at any time without red tape. They do the double job of helping to make your individual future, as well as your country's future, secure.

Buy the ones that fit your budget - at your bank, or through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

An ideal gift for graduations, birthdays, Christmas, bar mitzvahs or any occasion when you want to be especially nice to someone, including yourself.

$10.75
This is an increasingly popular gift for millions of American families. If you'd started buying one every month last year ago, you'd now have $1,287.00!

$37.50
In less than 8 years you can turn this bond in for a crisp hundred dollar bill. You'll be getting a guaranteed return and your government's thanks.

$75.00
This one is tailor-made for the investment of bonuses, tax refunds, and other windfalls. At maturity it grows into a tidy $200 neat egg.

$150.00
Grandchildren can give one of these bonds to eight grandchildren (or eight of them to one grandchild) in any one year without having to pay the gift tax.

$375.00
Lots of businesses buy these as a good safe investment for company surplus funds. Also ideal for widows who suddenly find themselves with a large insurance check.

$750.00
For larger investors, whether individuals or institutions (such as corporations, partnerships, credit unions, pension funds may own Savings Bonds - and many do).

$7500.00

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. The Treasury Department backs the Advertising Council and the magazine for their telephone support.

Water Treatment Plant Survey Ordered

City To Initiate $870,000 Bond Issue

The City Commission in special session Wednesday night authorized Engineers Clark, Dailey and Dietz to survey some three acres by the Mayfair Golf Course for construction of a water treatment plant.

At the same time, the board authorized Fiscal Agent Loomis Leedy to come up with detail cost estimates for a $870,000 bond issue to finance a long range water improvement program.

Leedy indicated that a straight bond issue would amount to an increase of 76 cents per water user and also presented a plan for a combined issue which would mean a very small increase in rates.

The board also told Dr. Jess Dietz of the engineering firm to proceed with soil boring for the treatment plant as well as design and plans for the ground storage reservoir.

The complete water improvement program is expected to cost over $800,000 with the following breakdown:

New well field including three new wells, $50,400; Transmission lines, $279,100; Plant, $278,000 storage reservoir, $85,000.

Dr. Dietz presented three plans on water treatment to the board with the commission okaying the aeration-pretreatment plan whereby the water is treated to get rid of the sulphur, chlorinated for four hours before being pumped into the mains.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said this morning that it would take about five months before the ground storage would be ready for operation which would not relieve the worsening city water supply for this summer during the peak days.

Appreciation Week

Unusual Exhibits To Spark Industrial Show Here Tuesday

Many interesting and unusual exhibits will highlight the Seminole Industrial Show Tuesday evening at the Sanford Civic Center when 40 or more firms will join in the second annual observance of "Industry Appreciation Week" as proclaimed by Gov. Farris Bryant.

More than 200 communities throughout the state will hold special events Tuesday evening when Governor Bryant will speak over a closed television hookup between 8 and 8:15 p. m.

"Florida is constantly gaining new industries," the Governor has noted. "Existing plants are being expanded at a phenomenal rate. Manufacturers and their employees in Florida have made and are making great contributions to the economy of the state. They have contributed greatly in making the state a healthy and successful place in which to live and work and play."

Teacher List To Be Increased

Seminole County's teacher list will be increased 35 to 380 by the beginning of the 1963-64 school year, School Supt. R. T. Wilwee said this morning.

The School Board, in meeting this afternoon, was expected to reappoint most of the present 345 teachers. "We will lose about 10-12 for various reasons," Wilwee said, "and will begin employing new teachers next week."

Bids were to be opened for floor maintenance machinery and supplies.

Auto Industry Prices Steel

Detroit (UPI) — The auto industry, which hasn't raised car prices since 1958, adopted today a wait-and-see attitude over the latest price changes in the industry.

Automakers were studying the $6 per ton hike announced Wednesday by Wheeling Steel Corp., but seemed agreed the boost would have no bearing on 1963 car prices.

It appeared likely, however, that if there was an industry-wide steel price hike, cars would cost more next year.

Hotel Sale

ORLANDO (UPI) — The 225-room Cherry Plaza Hotel will be sold to Frank E. Flynn and Joel L. Moore, for about $2 million, according to Cherry Broadcasting Co. officials.

Following Governor Bryant's address there will be a "Fashions Show" at 8:15 p. m. and a snack bar. The show will be concluded with the naming of Seminole County's "Man of Industry."

Zoners Okay Shopping Center

Recommendation to the County Commission for a zoning change permitting construction of a shopping center at SR 436 and 14 was approved by the Zoning Commission Wednesday evening.

The recommendation was approved in spite of protests by a delegation of 40 residents of Dolray Manor.

Win-Mac Corporation, of Winter Park, which is planning the shopping center, requested the rezoning from residential and agriculture to commercial for the southeast corner of the intersection.

Move On To Head Of Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A residential emergency board was scheduled to convene today in an effort to head off a nationwide rail-strike over work rules.

The special fact-finding board was appointed by President Kennedy a week ago as the final step available under the National Railway Labor Act to prevent a walkout.

A president's action automatically barred both the unions and the railroads from changing the status quo for 60 days, or until June 2. The board has until May 3 to study the problem and another 30 days to write a report. Its recommendations will not be binding on either party.

Mystery Clouds Steel Battle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House clouded in mystery today developments that might, or might not, revive President Kennedy's 1962 price-rise battle with steelmakers.

Kennedy scheduled an afternoon departure from the White House for an Easter vacation at Palm Beach, Fla., after twice postponing it Wednesday with the alibi of explanations.

Hope Abandoned For Missing Sub

WASHINGTON (UPI) — All hope was abandoned today for the nuclear-powered submarine USS Thresher, lost with 129 men aboard where the stormy North Atlantic is 8,400 feet deep.

The Thresher "has indeed been lost," Adm. George W. Anderson reported at a news conference in the late morning.

Anderson, chief of naval operations, made the announcement with deep regret in disclosing that a second oil slick and materials possibly from the interior of the submarine had been found in the area where it made a test dive Wednesday.

The materials were described as cork and plastic of types used "in the internal construction of submarines."

The second oil slick was found at 10:20 a. m. today, Anderson told a news conference. The first was spotted shortly before dark Wednesday.

Although Anderson wrote off any chance for recovery of the submarine or that any of the 129 men might be alive, he said search efforts would continue to fix the exact spot of the disaster and recover materials or bodies that might come to the surface.

The disaster is the U. S. Navy's worst submarine tragedy in peace or war. It is the worst single ship tragedy in peacetime for any kind of U. S. naval vessel.

Anderson said he had ordered the deep diving bathysphere Trieste, now at San Diego, Calif., brought across the country by rail to aid in the search.

The Trieste has gone as deep as seven miles, whereas the Thresher apparently went down in a mile and a half of water at a point about 220 miles east of Cape Cod.

Anderson said there was "absolutely no possibility" that a line could be attached for salvage from such a depth. He described as "very remote" the possibility that any bodies would float to the surface.

Anderson said he abandoned hope for two reasons. In addition to the fact that materials were recovered, he said he could see no possibility that all communications would have been blacked out if the vessel had not met disaster.

Anderson's desolate report that hope had been abandoned for the sub and the men was given to newsmen about 25 hours after the last contact with the vessel.

Aboard the 3,750-ton vessel were a crew of 112 and 17 civilians, the latter technicians who were checking out equipment installed during a recent overhaul job at Portsmouth, N. H.

Last word from the Thresher came shortly after 9 a. m. Wednesday as she began a maximum test dive in 8,400 feet of water.

Steps to get immediate police protection in North Orlando were taken Wednesday night by the Village Council when Councilman Bob Stephenson was authorized to organize a volunteer police department which will be headed by Dave Tison as chief of police.

Activities of the department will come under direct supervision of the council and volunteers, all to be qualified men, will be sought from each area including the Ranch Section.

A search also is on to find a qualified man to serve as judge. The Village charter specifies that he must be an attorney and a member of the Florida Bar.

Stephenson, pointing out that Justice of the Peace Elmer Ashley, contacted previously, had offered to accept the job, was asked to check with Ashley as to his qualifications as called for in the charter.

Needed charter revisions as reported by the committee included correction to a part of Article 3, Section 2, to read: "no person shall hold elective office if there is any conflict of interest between said person and the municipality." The phrase, "subject to approval of a majority of the voting freeholders" was added to the sections affecting bonded indebtedness and power to borrow money.

Approval of the last two proposals was withheld for the present (time upon objection from Councilman Art Ferrin who said he would like to look further into the legal aspects of the recommendations before submitting the change in wording to the Legislature.

In other business at the general discussion meeting W. L. Robinson was appointed as an assistant building inspector to be in charge of electrical work; the need for citizens to volunteer as members of a fact finding committee on raising revenue for the village was discussed and Councilman Mrs. Irene Van Espel and Bob Stephenson, along with Tony Kreck, citizen, were named to serve as a volunteer recreation committee to look into needed improvements, especially at the ball park, and to come up with some means of supervision at the lake.

Daytona Beach (UPI) — A nuclear missile fired without warning in a mock attack, theoretically destroyed this student-filled holiday resort today in Florida's first test of its blood mobilization resources.

The mock attack came at 1 p. m. (EST) from an "enemy" submarine off the coast. Almost immediately, a civilian force of about 300 persons across Florida sprang into action to provide blood for the injured.

Bottles of simulated blood were rushed to regional blood bank centers at Jacksonville, Miami, Tampa, Orlando and Pensacola.

In an actual attack by a hostile power, the blood would be routed to the disaster area by the Civil Defense.

Today's test was the pilot operation in a nation-wide alert program by the American Association of Blood Banks, which has about 600 bank members in all 50 states.

$100,000 Land Sale Completed

One of the largest land transactions of the year was closed at noon today in the law offices of Stenstrom, Davis and McIntosh for a sum in excess of $100,000.

Kingswood Builders, Inc., represented by President William Brumley Jr. and Secretary-Treasurer Byron Leach, signed papers with B. W. Martin and Al Wallace Jr. for a tract of land adjacent to the Mayfair Golf and Country Club as a site of a new subdivision to be known as "Greenbriar of Loch Arbor." Jim Hunt Realty handled the transaction.

SRD Approves Tentative Budget

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Board of Supervisors approved a tentative construction and maintenance budget today totaling $512.1 million, but estimated it will have funds to carry out only $445.9 million of the work.

The budget covers anticipated construction for the coming fiscal year which starts July 1.

Every day we learn something new. Like instances: We've been referring for years to the street leading to the horse racing track as "Seminole Boulevard." Zoning Director Bob Brown informed us this morning the correct name is "Seminola Boulevard." With an "A."

The Legislative delegation will introduce a special act for reimbursement of those special steak dinners ashore back.

City Manager W. E. Knowles really hit the engineering experts with a thunderbolt at the commission meeting last night. . . . Pete recommended a storage and treatment facility at the present well field in place of the proposed facility in the south part of town. . . . The way Pete figures it this would be done at relatively the same cost and the city would gain the use of the present raw water lines to break in treated water for use throughout the city and use the present plants as a booster chlorination storage point. . . . Engineers were scratching their heads in amazement at that one.

Hey, notice those pretty Florida State Bank girls wearing Easter bonnets today. . . .

The County Commission will be getting another request on accepting a street as a "municipal connecting link" if North Orlando carries through on plans made Wednesday night to "look into" getting county help on upkeep and possible paving of the two-block stretch on N. Edgemon Ave.

Village Clerk Mrs. Barbara Peters has declined to accept even the small monthly stipend she is entitled to for handling the job. . . . she got, and certainly deserves, a glowing vote of thanks from the council and citizens present at a council meeting Wednesday night.

Longwood's business men and C of C members are expected to make more plans for better business and general improvements in the area at today's meeting of the Chamber.

North Orlando's council is wondering who authorized the installation of septic tanks at one of the developer's model homes. . . . The Village has its own municipal sewers. . . . investigation to be made.

Here are some more places where you can buy tickets for the Semi-Centennial Dance. (Note: The Blue Angels will be there!) Kwikie, Citizen's Bank of Oviedo, Burger King in Casselberry; Play Girl Fashions, Fern Park; Lormann Realty in Casselberry. In Sanford you can get them at the banks, drugstores, Brack Perkins, Jaycee Bldg., Chelsea Title and Guaranty. And most important. . . call the Jaycee Office for those reservations. NOW!

City has agreed to cooperate to halt parking on South Sanford Ave. . . . SRD estimates over 6,000 cars travel over the route daily. . . . There will be two local entries in those big Jaycee sponsored races at Osceola next weekend. . . . The two are Clay Smith and Bob Roe.
