Farley Backs Candidates In Penn Election

Post master General Says Action Prompted By Struggle In Democratic Ranks

Dead' Measures May Be Revived

Action On Reorganization Bill May Be Asked This Session

NEW YORK, May 16.—(AP)—Openly entering into the controversial Democratic political situation in Pennsylvania, James A. Farley, postmaster general and chairman of party's national committee, announced his support today of Tom Kennedy for governor and George H. Earle for senator.

Farley said he did so because he thought the struggle within the ranks of the Democrats imperiled the success of the party in the November election.

Kennedy, now lieutenant governor, has the backing of John J. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, and United States Senator Joseph F. Kefauver, Pennsylvania Democrat.

The state Democratic committee's candidate for governor in tomorrow's primary is Charles Alvin Jones, Pittsburgh lawyer.

On the other hand, Earle is the Committee's candidate for senator while Guffer and Lewis are back.

The Mayor E. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia for the post.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—Revival of Administration strength in Congress, it was learned today, may encourage President Roosevelt's lieutenants to try to push through the controversial government reorganization bill before this session closes.

The House pigeonholed the measure last month but two Democratic members now are conducting a survey to determine whether there has been any change of sentiment among the opponents.

There has been no public indication that any appreciable number of representatives would switch positions.

Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas said, "I would be glad to have the reorganization bill passed at this session but we are not sure yet whether we will try to revive the controversy. If we get the bill up, it will pass."

Election year plans for early adjournments are increasing and Democratic chieftains are making every effort to clear the Congressional slate by the middle of June.

Negro Woman Is Cut In Scuffle, Williams Reports

Charlotte Turner, a negro woman, cut Ella May Bryant, another negro woman, in a scuffle this morning about 1:30 o'clock on West Thirteenth Street. Police Chief Roy G. Williams reported today, Charlotte Turner is being held in jail. Chief Williams said.

An auto was stolen in Winter Park early this morning. Chief Williams said, adding that it was a 1932 Graham, dark blue sedan with four doors. The license is a Florida license, number T-271. The car came from Winter Park about 7:45 o'clock this morning. Chief Williams stated.

Pauline Bellomy, who was driver of the auto, was hit by the car. He was sent to First Street last night and was hit by the car of William F. Thompson, a doctor, from Orlando. Chief Williams reported, adding that Miss Bellomy's running board and one fender were damaged slightly.

25 Killed And Many Hurt In Atlanta Fire

Terminal Hotel Scene Of Conflagration Called Deadliest In City's History

ATLANTA, May 16.—(AP)—Flames, which started in the basement kitchen, killed 25 persons at the Terminal Hotel, left 13 injured and an undetermined number of missing.

More than a dozen persons were rescued or leaped to safety.

The number of victims unaccounted for was a matter of conjecture.

Reports of firemen and police indicated that from 50 to 65 persons were registered in the 62-room, five-story brick and frame building.

High wind from the west fanned the flames. City sanitary crews went to work about mid-morning removing debris.

With tractor power barred because of danger of polluting down the walls, engineers estimated two days would be required to clear out the wreckage.

Many of the dead were found in charred timbers and steel which dropped from the roof, carrying away burning floors.

Police Chief M. A. Hornsby expressed the belief that "ten or fifteen more" bodies would be found in one mass of debris piled up on the street level.

The fire was described by Fire Chief O. J. Parker as the "deadliest in the history of Atlanta."

One of the known dead was Mr. O. E. Clegg of High Springs, Fla.

Postmaster R. J. Holly told Rotarians at their regular weekly luncheon today that air-mail planes flew 2,329,553 miles in this country last year as compared with only 16,000 miles during the first year of federal service. This is the twentieth anniversary of air mail, Mr. Holly said in a talk at National Air Mail Week.

Next Thursday is a day particularly set aside for Sanford to participate in the Air Mail Week. Mr. Holly said in urging everyone to go to the aviation field to see the mail plane take off at 4:30 o'clock with a special collection of Sanford air mail.

A special stamp has been designed for this occasion, Mr. Holly pointed out, giving fine advertising for Sanford and Sanford collectors.

A regular meeting of the Old Fellows will be held in the Old Fellow Hall tonight, officials announced today.

"There is a possibility," Chief Cleveland asserted, "that municipal fire departments may be allowed some of the money if it can be shown that there is a real demand for purchase of fire apparatus, erection of fire stations, for fire alarm improvements, and other general improvements."

The three local units of National Guards will hold their weekly drills at the Armory to-night beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

A new pipe line has been connected with the outer pool in the Zoo to provide running water continuously. A number of lily pads have also been added to the pool.

Violators of City ordinances will be tried before Judge Frank L. Miller in a session of the Municipal Court at the Police Station this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The protection decree will be conferred on two candidates by the Woodmen of the World, Thomas head in Capt. A. L. Thomas at the regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World to be held in the American Legion Hall Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock, C. C. Collins said today.

Arrangements for Sanford's participation in a motorcade to the state Jaycees convention to be held in Miami June 8-10, will be discussed at the luncheon of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to be held in the Valdes Hotel tomorrow, according to President J. E. Rowland, Jr. A. L. Collins is in charge of the program.

The Master Mason's degree will be conferred at the meeting of the Lodge No. 67 F. and A. M. in the Masonic Temple Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock, according to C. J. Kump, secretary. Past Grand Master R. B. Chapman will confer the degrees and all visiting Masons are invited to be present for the ceremonies.

Boy Scout Troop No. 5 will meet in the Junior High School auditorium at 7:30 o'clock to-night for its regular meeting. Scoutmaster H. W. Morris said today, adding that most of the time during the meeting would be spent in passing tests in preparation for the Court of Honor to be held soon. He also stated that for half an hour before the meeting instructions will be given to boys paired together.

ART THOU WEARY

Art thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sorely distressed?
Come to me," said One, "and come to rest."

He marks to lead me to Him,
If He be my Guide?—
In His feet and hands are wound-
prints,
And His side."

If I find Him, if I follow,
What's my guerdon here?—
Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear."

If I still hold closely to Him,
What hath He at last?—
Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed."

If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay?—
Not till earth, and not till heaven
Pass away."

Who Wants War?

Benito Mussolini pays his respects to the United States and particularly Secretary of War Woodring in a speech which brought jeers and boos from over 800,000 Italians when Il Duce pointed out that this country had refused to recognize the conquest of Ethiopia. Mussolini intimated that if the democracies want war, they will get war.

Italy, however, he was at great pains to point out, wants peace. "The aims of our program are peace", he said, "We want peace, with everyone. Nazi Germany wants peace." And from this it must be assumed that it is the countries of France, England, and the United States that want war.

Italy wanted peace when Fascist troops invaded poor little defenseless Ethiopia and bombed peaceful villages from the air killing women and children. Mussolini didn't want war then; he just wanted Ethiopia. Hitler didn't want war when he marched his troops into Austria; all he wanted was complete control of this neighboring country.

Yes, Mussolini wants peace, and so does Hitler. If the world will just stand aside and let Mussolini take Spain, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Arabia and northern Africa and let Hitler take Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, Poland, and a large slice off of western Russia, there won't be any war.

The dictators' repeated protestations of their peaceful desires remind us of the bandit who sticks a gun in his victim's ribs and insists, "Now I don't want to hurt nobody. Just hand over your jewels and your money 'peaceful like, and everything will be okay.'

No, Mussolini doesn't want war. That's why he is spending every cent he can squeeze out of his countrymen building up as strong an army, navy and air corps, as he possibly can. And Hitler doesn't want war either. That's why he is bankrupting his country trying to support the most elaborate military machine in the world.

That's why boys of eight are drafted into semi-military organizations and taught to bear arms. That's why necessary food and other living supplies are denied the people of both countries while natural resources necessary to military operations are imported in unprecedented quantities. That's why the construction of airplanes for commercial purposes has practically been stopped while bombing planes are turned out as fast as possible.

No, Mussolini doesn't want war. He's just getting prepared in case the United States goes over there and tries to take Ethiopia away from him.

Taxes Hit The Workingman

The manager of Miami's Fair Practice Bureau has called upon businessmen to organize and fight additional taxation. Dale James, secretary of this organization, says, "I shudder to think what the next five years hold for us unless the trend of taxation is reversed".

That high taxation definitely has much to do with the decrease in employment is shown by the Winter Haven Chief which quotes H. D. Pollard, receiver for the now defunct Central of Georgia railway, as saying that high taxation is actually destroying jobs for men and women in Georgia.

When a railroad is in receivership, it does not have to worry much about dividends for stockholders, or even interest for bonds, while the matter of over-capitalization and the amount of water in the company's stock are of no issue. What the road tries mainly to do is to meet its current payrolls and pay its taxes.

But in order to meet its taxes, Mr. Pollard says, the Central of Georgia has had to reduce its forces and throw out of employment hundreds of workmen. Had it not been for taxes, it could have retained these employees and increased the pay of all of them.

"During the year 1937 the Central of Georgia had an average of 5,486 employees. It paid them $9,009,981," said Mr. Pollard. "This is an average of $1,541.22 per year per employee, or $5.05 per day per employee. The tax bill for 1937 was $1,052,802.09, or $2,884.39 per day. The taxes average $180.00 for each employee, or 49.31 cents per employee per day. For each dollar of wages paid, the tax-gatherers demanded 11.68 cents for taxes....

Mr. Pollard also showed that the Central of Georgia is called upon for property (ad valorem) taxes, for Railroad Retirement taxes, license taxes, fees for the support of state public service commissions, fees for the use of city streets, and other special taxes. At present its revenues are barely sufficient to meet its reduced payrolls and purchases, plus certain taxes which must be paid currently out of earnings. It cannot pay its property taxes....

The railroads are indicated as realizing that they are not alone in this situation, the Chief says. It is shared to a degree by every employer and every property owner, indeed by everyone who has anything. With the railroads, however, the taxes have reached the point of destroying jobs. With only a limited amount of money at their command they are compelled to turn it over to the tax-gatherers instead of putting it into payrolls.

Saints Come From Behind To Win Over Locals 9 - 7

Lookouts Relinquish 7-2 Lead In Rally In Sixth; Nearly 600 Fans See Tilt

Ancient City Crew Collects 15 Bingles Off Cook And Atwater While Locals Get 12 Hits Off Opponents

The St. Augustine Saints came from behind yesterday afternoon to take a 9 to 7 decision over the Lookouts at the Municipal ball park before an attendance of approximately 600 fans.

The Lookouts captured an early 7 to 2 lead but lost it when the Saints scored seven times to even the contest which was anybody's until the eighth frame.

Big "Chef" Cook started on the hill for the Lookouts but was driven to the showers in the sixth frame. He was replaced by Charlie Atwater who went on to get credit for the loss.

The Lookouts big guns started with a bang in the first four innings as they pounded out 10 of their 12 hits to score 7 runs. During that time they drove Whitey Davis, Saint's starting hurler to the showers and forced Heisler to retire after only one inning, but when Carl Weigle ventured on the hill, the Lookout artillery stopped dead. He allowed only two more hits during the game. He got out of a jam in the ninth when it appeared that the Lookouts might knot the count.

Wren, Saints catcher led the batting attack with four hits in five trips to the platter. Hudson collected three in five, Carlock, three in five and Fred Holland did the same.

The Lookouts opened the scoring in their half of the initial chapter when with two men out, Mihale singled to centerfield and scored when Holland doubled to the left center field wall.

The Saints knotted the count in their half of the second when Schweigerath doubled to center field and scored when Skillings duplicated the feat with a double down the leftfield line.

In the third frame, the Lookouts scored four times. Mighty Wrentripled to the rightfield foul line, Cook singled to leftfield to right to score Mihale but Clark grounded one into a double play.

In the fourth frame, the Lookouts scored four times. Mighty Wrentripled to the rightfield foul line, Cook singled to leftfield to score Wren, Huggerie sacrificed Cook to second but Brown flew to Skillings in leftfield, Mihale walked and Holland singled to leftfield to score Cook, sending Mihale to third. Hudson singled to deep leftfield to score Mihale and Holland. Carlock went out short to first, to end the inning.

The Saints pushed across their second run in their portion of the fifth when Judy singled to leftfield and took third when Gonzalez hit a scratch hit to right. Batan fouled out to Holland and Retenski grounded to Carlock who forced Gonzalez at second, allowing Judy to score on the play.

The Saints had a big inning in their half of the sixth when with one out, Skillings was safe on an error by Wren. Wren was credited with an infield single to shortstop advancing Skillings to second. Moore came in to pinch hit for Heisler and singled to rightfield to score Skillings. Judy doubled to centerfield to score Moore and Wren was thrown out at the plate for the second out. Gonzalez singled to leftfield sending Judy to third. Batan singled to rightfield to score Judy. Retenski walked to force in the bases. Lucas walked to force in Gonzales and Manager Atwater yanked Cook in favor of Atwater. Gonzalez attempted to steal home but was nabbed by Holland.

The Saints went into the lead in their half of the eighth inning when Weigle singled to leftfield.

Judy was sacrificed to second by Heisler. Gonzalez flew out. Wren advanced to third. Batan, center field, Retenski, shortstop; Lucas, third base; Schweigerath, rightfield; Skillings, leftfield; Wren, catching and the hustler who has not been announced.

New Dealers Intolerant, Says Landon

President Nominee Asserts Measure Introduced By Minton Is Threat To Press

Vandenberg Seeks Spending Changes

Proposes To Return Administration Of Relief To States

CHICAGO, May 17.—(UPI)—Alf Landon, Republican presidential candidate, asserted in a prepared speech that "None of us, of this generation, has seen a group so intolerant of views and beliefs of others as are the so-called new dealers."

"Only a few weeks ago," he told a daily press association, "Senator Minton introduced a measure which is a direct threat to the press."

He charged that Minton sought to put in a "restriction of the press" and said the liberal Roosevelt, by failing to intervene in Jersey City where Negroes, their socialist leader, and two co-governors were not allowed to speak in effect approved the action of police there.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(UPI)—Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) proposed legislation to return the administration of all relief activities to states under a system of federal grants-in-aid.

He introduced his program as a substitute for the section of the Administration's lending-spending bill which deals with direct appropriations for work relief.

He said he also would propose that Congress strike all "pump priming" from the bill. Vandenberg said his proposal would restore "home rule responsibility."

Williams Home Is Scene Of Fire That Does Little Damage

Mrs. Voller Williams was the most surprised woman in Sanford this morning as she rushed to the door when the fire department came to a clutching hole in front of her home on Third Street, and instead of rushing into the Montezuma Hotel as she expected, the firemen came to tell her the roof of her home was on fire.

The blaze originated in the attic of the Williams residence between Magnolia and Park Avenues, was probably caused by a defective fuse. Mrs. Chief Mack Cleveland reported, and although the roof was blazing when the firemen arrived the fire was extinguished with very little loss.

The fire was first noticed by a patron of a nearby filling station who turned in the alarm.

Installations of officers for the ensuing year will also take place, Mr. Adams announced.

Frank H. Caton, whose professional title is "Caton the Magician," said in an interview Monday that he has been performing for 25 years.

On the program tomorrow night, Mr. Caton will impersonate the old time medicine showman "Doc Holliday" which is a take-off on the fabled character that is seldom seen today.

The old time medicine showman has virtually passed away, Mr. Caton asserted, adding that "consequently the older folks especially get a good laugh out of the performance."

Mr. Caton said he was a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians.

New Structure Is Started In Business Area

J. Warren Lench Begins Construction Of $10,000 Building For Grocery

Construction of a new grocery store will be the site of another grocery store in the city, officials of Tidie Food Supply Company, the contractor for the construction of a new building has been leased to Mr. A. J. Hussey, a grocer in Birmingham, Ala., it was disclosed. A low cost structure will be built in a cooperative venture between the company and the grocer.

Although several buildings in the downtown area have been extensively renovated and remodeled recently this will be the first new structure to be erected in the business district for several years.

The new building will be erected at a cost of over $10,000 and will be constructed of brick and stone, a reinforced concrete floor and steel frame supporting the entire structure.

The foundation for the outside walls were laid by workers last Saturday and work is now progressing rapidly on the construction of the walls.

Mr. Askew stated that the money for the building will be completed in approximately two weeks and that the building will be ready for occupancy in about 45 days.

Declaring that it is the policy of the company he represents to employ solely local labor on construction projects, Mr. Askew stated that an average of about 15 local workers will be maintained during the construction of the building.

The front of the single-story building will be made of stained glass, following the same design as that used in the Princess Theatre. The front of the store will have 30 feet of doors which will slide in a track above the ceiling, leaving the entire front of the store open.

Plans have been completed for construction of a more costly building on the site east of the Princess Theatre where the building which was condemned by the City nearly two years ago has been torn down. However, it was indicated that the construction of this building will not begin until a lease has been obtained.
