Nine Students Of U. Of F. Interned In Enemy Prisons

(Special)—Nine former University of Florida students, all but one Floridians, are prisoners of war in the hands of the three Axis powers.

Captured by forces of Germany, Italy, and Japan, the men were taken in three major war areas—Europe, Asia and Africa.

According to information compiled by Miss Ruby Carter, University alumni secretary, the Japanese hold the largest group, six former students captured in the fall of Bataan and Corregidor, Germany claimed one in an air ferry over Europe and one on a convoy duty. Italy took one in the African campaign.

Prominent among the prisoners is Lieut. Ewart T. Seoniers of DeFuniak Springs, who became a World War II hero when as bombardier, he took the controls from a wounded pilot and brought a flying Fortress back to a British base.

Seoniers was captured later in another flight over enemy territory.

Lieut. Richard M. Harris, 24, of Orlando, a business administration student from 1937 to 1941, was captured while on a duty to Spain. Interned in Germany, he is now studying economics and German under authority of the Royal Arts Society of London by English extension courses for prisoners of war. Instructors are teacher graduates of English universities captured at Dunkirk.

Information about the nine prisoners, six of whom hold degrees from the University, came through the War Department from the Japanese Red Cross, the German short wave radio and Italian broadcasts, supplemented by information from parents, who have returned questionnaires sent to them by the alumni office.

The prisoners interned by Japan must be presumed to have been captured with the fall of the last two main positions in the Philippine campaign, Miss Carter said.

Held by the Japanese are the following, all previously stationed in the Philippines:

Lieut. Lawrence G. Semmens, 27, of St. Petersburg, who received his bachelor of arts degree in 1938 and was with the field artillery.

Lieut. H. Waggoner, Jr., 26, of Tampa, who received his BSEE degree in 1940 and was an artillery officer.

Lieut. Ollie Lancaster, Jr., 24, of Daytona Beach, who was a law student from 1936 to 1941 and was with the Army Air Corps.

Lieut. Jack A. Gillon, 28, of Mobile, Ala., who received his BBA degree in 1940 and was with the Air Corps.

Lieut. Charles M. Cannon, Jr., 24, of Tampa, who received his BSEE degree in 1939.

Capt. John M. Galbreath, Jr., 25, of High Springs, who received his BSF degree with honors in 1928. He was twice decorated for bravery in action by Gen. McArthur before his capture.

Interned in Italy is Lieut. Fred A. Johnson, Jr., 29, of Pensacola, who received his BA in 1937. He was captured in North Africa, a member of the first American unit landed there. Reported missing on Dec. 13, he was later listed as captured.

Lieut. Johnson's wife lives in Winter Park with their two chil-

State Farm Bureau Attacks Closed Shop

OCALA, Mar. 18. (FNS) Director of the Florida Farm Bureau Federation condemned "closed shops" in the labor movement, attacking the closed shop specifically.

The Bureau also passed resolutions asking higher ceiling prices for poultry products, maintenance of high grade citrus inspection service or raising of these ceilings high enough to encourage production.

Unidentified Flier Saves 261 Children

CHICKASHA, Okla., Mar. 18. (AP)—An aviator, identity unknown, dived on the grade school house at Verdun and undoubtedly saved the lives of a number of children who might have been trapped by flames that were consuming the building.

The pilot apparently saw the smoke coming from the roof of the building. He dived to attract attention. Softball players on the school ground looked up at the blast, saw smoke pouring from the building and sounded the fire alarm.

The 261 children in the building reached safety only a few minutes ahead of the spreading flames. The plane flew onward.

Speedy Justice

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Mar. 18. (AP)—The deputy in superior court shouted: "Oyez, Oyez, this honorable court is convened to transact official business."

He then cleared his throat and went on to say: "Oyez, Oyez, this honorable court now takes a recess. God save the state and this honorable court."

That was all. The session lasted exactly one minute. The judge was absent.

Victory Garden Generals Do Well to Get True Data

VICTORY Garden generals will well to avoid armchair strategizing from the tried and true or Colleges of agriculture. These are tips from professional gardeners of college agricultural stations:

Beets more often are planted deep than too shallow. They could be only deep enough to be sure they are in soil that moist. Deep planting delays germination.

Remove all growth from tomato plants to a height of 12 inches; the stem; stake the plants to five foot pole.

Plant corn in square plots. Use them in a long row, because corn has to be fertilized by alien dropping from the corn seed. In plots, the pollen is virtually certain to fertilize no matter which way the wind blows.

If partitions are used in seed starting boxes there will be less risk to the plant at transplanting time as the separators permit a section of soil to be removed with each plant.

Poison mixed with the soil among some of the larger plants, like tomatoes, will help kill insects.

Fast minute checks revealed that all stores here are ready for the big sale. Early shopping is advisable as the items featured are on a while they last basis due to present conditions.

Invasion Of Africa Came After Breakfast

Baltimore, Mar. 14. (AP) The landing of American soldiers in North Africa was "invasion after breakfast" to Chief Commissary Steward Emory P. Ward of the Coast Guard.

Ward was in charge of a vallet on a transport which landed hundreds of American soldiers and officers at Casablanca last night before they scrambled over the sides of the vessel into landing barges; the doughboys were served an average American breakfast orange juice, oatmeal toast and coffee," says Ward, now stationed at Laxaretto Point Coast Guard base.

The memo was well received, tapering off "snack" in the hour before breakfast. The "snack" was well received, tapering off "snack" in the hour before breakfast. The "snack" was well received, tapering off "snack" in the hour before breakfast.
