PRETTY ARMS

UP TO the age of eighteen or nineteen, a girl need not worry if her arms are too thin or too fat—unless they are an extreme of either condition—for up to that time the body is maturing, and may easily be too fat or too thin in itself. And the arm gains or loses in proportion to its weight. Most of the men who sit by scales and weigh you free if they cannot guess your weight within a few pounds, take hold of the arm and feel its size before stating the weight.

The best way to have beautiful arms is to exercise them. Massage and creams may help some, but exercise is certain to develop the lovely lines so much desired. Plain household tasks will make the arms beautiful, making beds, sweeping, kneading bread or beating cake, are all exercises that tend to make the arms well developed. Such tasks should be done with quick movements; sluggish movements are not exercises at all.

Swimming is good for the arms, of course, rowing, canoeing, and all outdoor sports will make the arms pretty. Anything which makes the arms move quickly in varying directions, which flexes and relaxes the muscles, is a good arm exercise. Holding the arms doubled up, the hand in fist, and tightening the upper arm muscles, is still another good exercise.

It is such a pleasure to own pretty arms and to be able to wear sleeveless dresses, that every woman will feel repaid for any trouble she goes to, to improve her arms.

NO STRANGERS.

There ought to be no strangers in this little vale of tears; I haven't seen a stranger's face for years and years and years. I see, of course, some people that I never saw before.

But they're just like the others that I've known in days of yore.

They've felt some known, the same things the rest have known and I felt. They'll freeze up for unfriendly folks, for kindly ones they'll melt.

They've each one had a sorrow that they thought they couldn't bear, but bore it, just as people do with sorrows everywhere.

There ought to be no strangers, in this so-called world of woe!

I see new people that I love, just everywhere I go.

And everyone has felt some joy that I had felt some time.

And each has had his little dream of higher slopes to climb;

And each has known the sweets of home at some time or another;

And nearly every man you meet will rave about his mother.

They thrill at things that thrill me, too, these friends I never met.

There ought to be no strangers in this misnamed world of fret!

SANITARY LAWS FOR AUTO CAMPS

Reports indicate that tourist travel in Florida will be heavier this winter than ever before. It is believed that the season will open earlier and last longer. With recent rate increases in railway and Pullman travel, come rumors that more auto parties are to journey southward.

The influx of motorists has given rise to many municipal auto camps and cities all over Florida have prepared or already hold out to the public, attractive camping grounds.

Realizing the potential dangers to travellers and residents from carelessness and neglect in the disposal of wastes, the Florida State Board of Health is alert to protect its people and visitors. The board recently promulgated regulations pertaining to these camps. The bureau of sanitary engineering directed by Chief Engineer George W. Simmons, is preparing to enforce the regulations this winter and thus prevent the spread of infections by carelessness.

The enforcement of auto camp rulings calls for co-operation in behalf of every tourist entering the state and by abiding by a few simple rulings they will lessen greatly the possibilities of chance infection.

SITUATION EXPLAINED

Will Systematize Labor
Conditions of the Growers
RATES REASONABLE
GROWERS TAKING BIG CHANCES THIS SEASON WITH HIGHER FREIGHT RATES

The meeting of the growers and the shippers here last week in which they decided to have certain rates for wages of the laborers on the farms this season will have a far reaching effect not only in this part of the state but in many other parts of Florida and other states. This meeting was not called to beat down the price of labor but was called for the purpose of arriving at some conclusion as to whether the farmers would be able to pay the scale of last year or quit business and on the principle that half a loaf is better than none the laborers will be satisfied to take the wages that are based on actual costs and take it knowing that the growers are up against the hardest season of their career and it is a case of share and share alike with the farmer and help. Should the situation ease up before the crop is marketed or the railroads come down on their rates or the markets be higher than usual there is not a grower in this district that will not feel like dividing some of his profits, if profits are made, with the men who helped him make it. The meeting was called in order that the growers would have some means of knowing what the crop would cost them to make and they could only determine with some degree of intelligence after the wage scale was fixed. Some of the growers will pay more than this scale and some will pay less perhaps but on the whole the scale will be adhered to and the laborers will be better off with a scale fixed than they would be if every man was offering them different wages for different times of the year. The Times-Union of Sunday had the following editorial on this subject:

"The famous celery belt of Sanford has accomplished many things in the past fifteen years but the latest move of the growers in that section will have a far reaching effect on the farm labor situation in Florida.

"At a meeting of celery and lettuce growers, packers, shippers and bankers it was decided to adopt a standard scale of wages for employees in the celery section in order to protect the growers and to assure them of a supply of help at times when they are the most needed.

"One of the chief sources of trouble in all sections in Florida has been that some growers, in their anxiety to secure help, have frequently offered higher wages than those in vogue in their vicinity and this would attract workers away from their regular employers and create dissension and dissatisfaction among the other workers, with the result that there would have to be a general raise all along the line. When this was accomplished the employees would be indifferent about the time employed, as they had only been accustomed to so much money and when they had earned that amount they would lay off and take time to spend it, so that the employer was no better off and at the same time was out the extra money paid by the day for less work.

"The scale adopted is fully one hundred per cent higher than was being paid five or six years ago and this should amply cover the extra cost of living, which is now rapidly descending. The growers have shown a liberal spirit in this matter and every one in that section should join hands in this laudable movement and stick to the schedule absolutely. The plan could also be adopted in many other sections of the state with beneficial results, as the employees would be contented and the employers would be assured of sufficient help to plant and harvest the crops.

"This is another demonstration of what co-operation and organization means to the farmers and should encourage the organization of county farm bureaus to be affiliated with the recently organized state farm bureau, which in turn, will be affiliated with the national farm bureau, which now has a million and a half members in the United States and is growing at a wonderful pace. Such an organization, reaching to every producing center, will be enabled to insure better working and marketing conditions for the farmers, fruit growers and live stock men and Florida should be one of the states to have a hundred per cent farm bureau.

THEY DIDN'T ADVERTISE

In Jacksonville last week the largest and most pretentious shoe store in the city was forced to close its doors, and the stock is now being liquidated. Among those who knew the Cole Shoe Company was considered to have the highest class of shoes as a whole of any establishment in Jacksonville. It had the best appointed store, the best kept store, employed the very best salesmen possible.

The store was located on Main street, between Bay and Forsyth, where, the Jacksonville Observer points out, more people pass in a day than on any other street in Jacksonville. Other shoe stores in the city prospered and enlarged, but at a time when it should have been at the very summit of prosperity this firm was forced by its creditors to close its doors with a stock of shoes valued at many thousands of dollars.

People marveled at the lack of business, and there was little surprise expressed when it was announced that the firm would be forced to close its doors and liquidate in favor of creditors.

The management of the Cole Shoe Company did not advertise. They knew they had the goods, but the public didn't know it. This management placed its judgment opposed to advertising against that of all other business enterprises. The result was inevitable.—Palatka News.

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

Advertising figures, rate cards, circulation statements, dry statistics tell a newspaper's story. But they tell only half of it. And advertisers today are demanding the other half of it.

Men who advertise are beginning to measure editorial quality as well as circulation quantity, to realize that how reader attachment is formed is quite as important as how many readers are affected. There is quality to subscription lists as well as quantity.

Advertisers are basing their judgment of newspaper advertising value on personality as well as on technicality, on reader prestige as well as advertising patronage. A newspaper must be a good newspaper before it can be a good advertising medium.—St. Augustine Record.

PAID FOR HIS PAPER AND THE COSTS

The court of common pleas of Lawrence county recently decided a small case involving $5.10 in the interest of a newspaper published in that county. It appears from the evidence that a carrier delivered a paper for a year and several months to one Henry Ceiber, who refused to pay for it because he hadn't ordered it. Ceiber accepted the paper and the family read it. The court in instructing the jury said among other things that Ceiber in not refusing the paper, was a party to an implied contract to pay for what he got on deliveries groceries to the wrong house and the person who got the groceries and used them was liable, or a man called to a day's work in a garden and gets in the wrong lot and works a day with the knowledge of the owner of the lot, the man who received the benefit of that man's work was under obligations to pay for the labor, or the man who cleans another's pavement while the owner looks on without ordering the workman to stop, there is an implied contract to pay for that man's service. The same principle of law holds good, said the judge, when you receive a paper through the mails. In accepting the paper there is an implied contract to pay for it.

The decision by the court in directing a verdict against the man who read the paper in favor of the publisher is not new, as the question has been decided by many of the lower courts and upheld by appellate courts of nearly every state in the Union.—Huntington, Pa., News.

CAMPBELL-LOSSING POST WILL CELEBRATE VICTORY ON NEXT ARMISTICE DAY

Tournament Riding, Parades, Musis and Athletics ONE REAL BIG DAY

HIGHEST DAY IN YEAR WILL BE CELEBRATED IN FITTING MANNER.

The Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion will celebrate Armistice Day on November 11th in a most fitting manner in this city. The local post is holding meetings every week and getting up something new all the time to startle the natives on this big day. Just as a few of the attractions we might mention that there will be tournament riding for prizes in the morning and a big feed at noon when the soldier and sailor boys will demonstrate the manner in which people are fed properly and well. Maybe the government will have some of their equipment here for that purpose but at any rate the boys know how to do it and they will see that everybody is fed right. In the afternoon there will be a mammoth parade in which all the local organizations and the Legion members and the school children will take part and it will also be a decorated float and auto parade if possible—something Sanford has not seen for several years—and then there will be ball games and athletic games in which the army and navy will compete to see who won the war and there will be many different kinds of amusements and in the evening the day will be wound up with a big masquerade dance at the Valdez Hotel in which every huddy and every huddle's sister will participate and the older folks will also be there to look after the younger ones and maybe shake a bad foot a few times during the evening.

The day promises to be one big day and Campbell-Lossing Post will see that it is a big day and the members of this post have the reputation of doing things when they get started.

So remember that Sanford will celebrate Armistice Day and make no arrangements to spend that day any other place.

GROWERS WIN TWO POINTS ON RAILROAD CONTENTIONS

E. D. Dow, traffic manager of the Exchange, is jubilant this week over victories for the growers on two points for which recently he has been contending against the railroads.

In one instance a carrier sought to establish a regular percentage of breakage fixing this minimum at two per cent. Claims for breakage in an amount of two per cent or less recently had been declined. A copy of a letter from the secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission to this carrier, received by Mr. Dow on Monday, upheld Mr. Dow's position entirely, reciting portion of the Cummins law fixing responsibility upon carriers for all breakage in transit. This will amount to a very considerable item on a season's shipments and means much to the growers and shippers of the state.

In another instance the carrier had declined claims on shipments from certain packing houses alleging either that the bulge of boxes exceeded the maximum allowed or that boxes in other respects failed to comply with published requirements. Chairman Clark of the Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled that inasmuch as the carrier did accept and transport the shipments and charged thereon rates which included carrier's liability that the carrier must be held liable for any damage, and that clause in the carrier's tariff to the effect it will not be held liable is of no effect, and promptly should be stricken from the tariff hereafter.

Democrats Should Have Safety First

J. J. DICKINSON WRITES PERTINENT ARTICLE AS GIVEN BELOW.

It is high time the Democratic party took note of the many important matters that are coming up from time to time and the following letter from Hon. J. J. Dickinson brings this out clearly:

Editor Sanford Herald:

The writer is not an alarmist, but believes in the principle of safety first; he is not a politician but believes that eternal vigilance on the part of our citizenship is the price of our sustained liberties.

There are those who kick after a thing is done, but of course to no purpose. The best time to do one's kicking is before the wrong is done,—it is this sort of kicking that counts, is wholesome, and wards off evil before it reaches us.

The state of Florida, Seminole county, and the Democratic party today is faced with problems, while not alarming, calls for vigilance on the part of our best citizenship. The Democratic party, and especially our Southern democracy, has, since the foundation of this republic, given of its time and energy to preserve that for which the founders of the republic gave their lives, and that for which many of its sons recently yielded up their lives on foreign fields,—that democratic principles might not perish from the earth.

If our people still cherish these principles we must fight to preserve them. It is here respectively suggested that our County Democratic Committee direct their attention to these matters, get themselves together and map out a campaign in this county to maintain Democratic supremacy, and that all those who still cherish good old Southern Democracy, and right, join whole heartedly in that campaign.

J. J. DICKINSON,
Sanford, Fla., Oct. 8th, 1920.

PRESIDENT MAKES PLEA FOR LEAGUE

PRESIDENT CARRIES CAMPAIGN DIRECT TO THE PEOPLE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—President Wilson, in his first campaign appeal tonight made directly to the people, urged the endorsement of the league of nations issue at the election and declared "the whole world will wait for your verdict in November as it would wait for an intimation of what its future is to be."

The president characterized as "absolutely false" assertions that article ten of the league covenant would make it possible for other nations to lead the United States into war. There was nothing in the covenant, he said "which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of congress to declare war or not declare war, according to its own independent judgment, as our constitution provides."

"My fellow countrymen," was the president's method of addressing his communication to the people. It contained no mention of presidential candidates by name, but was confined to a brief defense of article 10, and an arraignment of those who he declared had "grossly misled" the public with regard to the treaty.

The president said that those who had spent their lives, as he had, "in familiarizing themselves with the history and traditions and policies of the nation must stand amazed at the gross ignorance and impudent audacity which has led them to attempt to invert an 'Americanism,' which has no foundation whatever in any of the authentic traditions of the government."

The MOLINE

Tractor is Universal

24-Inch Separator Capacity

One man with one tractor does all field work from plowing to harvest

In many official public tests, the Moline-Universal Tractor has shown 47% and over above its factory rating of 18 H. P.

At Columbus, Ohio, in 1919 it officially developed 28.7 H. P., at the belt, which is 59.4% above its rated H. P. for belt work.

This 50% reserve power is controlled by an electric governor, so as to not permit of a speed variation of more than 50 R. P. M., from idle to full load, preventing racing and choking, under variations in load. No setting of the governor is required. It is accurate and dependable.

The belt pulley is conveniently located in front—free from any obstacles—and can be quickly tightened or lined up by simply moving the tractor.

If desired you can use the "drag behind" or horse drawn implements you now have with the Moline-Universal the same as with other types of tractors.

UNNECESSARY FOR WOMEN TO GIVE AGE

VAN C. SWEARINGEN GIVES AN OPINION TO SECRETARY OF STATE REGARDING REGISTRATION IN FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 1.—The Secretary of State, Hon. H. Clay Crawford, recently requested an official opinion of the attorney general, relative to whether or not the law requires an elector to give his or her exact age when making application for registration. The opinion received is as follows:

Hon. H. Clay Crawford, secretary of state, Tallahassee, Fla. Dear sir: Complying with your verbal request for my opinion as to whether or not an elector applying for registration for the coming general election is required to give his or her exact age, I beg to advise that in my opinion any elector who takes the oath prescribed by section 178 of the general statutes, I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will protect and defend the constitution of the United States and of the state of Florida, that I am twenty-one years of age and have been a resident of the state of Florida for twelve months, of this county for six months, that I am a citizen of the United States and that I am qualified to vote under the constitution and laws of the state of Florida, is entitled to registration and that registration officers have no authority to require an elector to give his or her exact age or age in years as a pre-requisite to registration.

Yours very truly,
VAN C. SWEARINGEN,
Attorney General.

ISSUES AND CANDIDATES SCRUTINIZED

Perhaps never before in any presidential campaign have the issues and candidates been the subject of such study and scrutiny as are those in the present campaign. Since the birth of the race man has been the favorite study of womankind and in this campaign she is studying him, his motives, his methods, his pledges and armed with a new purpose and armed with a new power. She is eager for everything that will give her light on the political questions she is studying and the seriousness with which she regards her new duty of suffrage has become an example and an inspiration to her men folk.

Naturally those questions and issues which have a direct bearing on the home, the family, child welfare, morals, education and domestic economics have a first interest for her, even though she is alive to the importance of international affairs which hold her interest in a special way, she is analyzing the character of the candidates, their careers in office, their achievements or failures, and their attitude on issues before the nation.

When the voters of a state have elected a man to three terms as their chief executive the student of politics is bound to admit that the arisons is greater than mere popularity. James M. Cox, governor of Ohio for three terms, has a personality that wins the hearts of the voters, but it is not this alone that brought to him their suffrages in his three triumphs. It was the measures effected by him in the interest of the workman, the farmer, the business man and more especially, women and children.

COX—THE CAMPAIGNER.

In passing from the west to the far west in his campaign Cox has shown himself to be a masterly campaigner, and he is fearless, able, a stirring orator and a likeable man. One of the newspaper correspondents who accompanies the Cox party declares that Cox is "winning his way as he goes."

At this we are not surprised; the American people like to look on the man who is proposing to become the leader and they have a right to know what manner of man he is. They desire to hear from his own lips what he proposes to accomplish; they wish to know whether he will prove himself a capable man and in judging this a moment's glance is worth an hour's magazine description.

The popularity of Cox is steadily increasing because the people are having an opportunity to make his acquaintance. There are many who have republican leanings who are dissatisfied with the republican candidate because they have no opportunity to see and hear what he has to say.

The west is the fighting ground and there Cox is expending his entire strength. He is dealing sledge hammer blows at the closed door of opposition and it is likely that the door will swing open wide. He has a definite program which appeals to the people at the time of great constructive indecision and he reasons decisively.

He has told the people what the program of the republicans is and he is leaving the people to draw their own conclusions. He is satisfied that the people will not permit a party to assume control of the government which has so little to recommend it save a blind and passionate devotion to one man. Something definite, conclusive and accurate appeals to the country now. And the Cox tidal wave is mounting week by week.

If he does not completely exhaust his physical strength so that he will be forced to abandon his active campaigning, he will win thousands upon thousands of votes every week and there are many weeks remaining between now and November.

His stand for the League of Nations, which has a strong appeal for the new women voters who furnish the cannon fodder and would go to any length to make the likelihood of war remote. The League of Nations is a step in the right direction and receives the warm encouragement of the millions who have their eyes fixed on an ideal in government.

At present Cox is the man of the hour.

McSWEENEY IS LIVING BUT WEAKER.

WILSON & TOOMER FIRE.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 5.—Fire of unknown origin early yesterday morning totally destroyed the main building of the Wilson & Toomer Fertilizer Company, located on the river front in the Talleyrand avenue section.

The fire originated at about 3 o'clock, and an hour later the huge building had fallen in a mass of burning wreckage. The structure was built of wood, and was approximately 400 feet in length by 100 feet in width.

It was stated that it was filled with completed fertilizer products.

A UNIQUE SALE.

Have you noticed the newest wrinkle on the horn of the firm of Perkins & Britt? It is a sale where you bring in your old stuff and get new for it. And in these days of fluctuations between the high and low cost of living this sale is proving quite popular. For instance one day you bring in your old hat and you are allowed so much for it. Another day you bring in your old shoes and are allowed so much for them. We intend to bring in our Liberty Bonds tomorrow and see how much we get for them. But this novelty is getting the results and as usual Perkins & Britt are living up to the reputation of the "store that is different." And meantime go over and try it. You will like it.

SUGAR PRICES DROP TO NEW LOW RECORD; WHEAT TAKES TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—New low record prices for the year were established in both the raw and refined sugar markets this morning. Prices were half a cent lower than at the close of last week, with raw sugar selling on the basis of 8.51 duty paid, while refined was quoted at 12 1/2 cents a pound by the Federal Sugar Refining Co.

Wheat Loses 11 1/2c a Bushel. CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Drastic cutting of prices took place in the wheat market today. In some cases, as much as 11 1/2 cents a bushel was slashed from values, the December delivery at one time bringing only $1.96 as against $2.07 to $2.07 1/2 at the finish on Saturday. Increased liquidation by holders was in progress, especially from rural sources. Acute depression developed at the last and the market closed semi-demoralized at the lowest prices of the day, showing a net decline of 11 1/2 to 12 1/2, with December 195 to 195 1/2 and March 191 to 191 1/2. In the final trading, the leading feature was not so much aggressive efforts to sell as the nearly complete absence of buying.

Flour Prices Going Down. MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 5.—Flour prices continued their downward trend when mills effected a reduction of 10 to 60c a barrel for family patent today. One large mill's quotation was reduced from $12.15 to $11.55 a barrel, while another which lowered its price a half a dollar Saturday, making its price $11.30 a barrel. The low wheat market is responsible for the decline, millers said.

NEW ELECTRICAL FIRM. Gillen & Fry are among the new firms starting in business in Sanford and while the firm is new the boys are old residents being John Gillen and Wesley Fry, two of the best electricians that ever came down the pike. Both of them have

They will own an electrical supply house in the J. B. Lawson Garage occupying the north side of the building. Look for their advertisement and opening announcements.

SHERIFF BRADY WILL RUN ON INDEPENDENT TICKET

One of the surprises of the fall campaign is the announcement that E. E. Brady, one of the defeated candidates, will run on an independent ticket for the office of sheriff, the office which he now holds. C. M. Hand was the choice of the voters with four men in the race and the result was not close enough to call for any contest but Mr. Brady seems to think that he would like to try it again as an independent candidate and petitioned the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday to place his name on the ticket and the petition with the names of the petitioners will be published in the proceedings of the county commissioners.

THOUGHTS ARE THINGS

The immutable law of life generates thoughts in things. "As a man thinketh, so is he," is inevitable. Your thoughts backed by willpower and determination are among the principal controlling factors of your destiny. No man will become greater than the standard set for himself, and the efforts consistently and persistently exerted to reach that standard.

Multitudes desire success, but few achieve it, because the few added to the desire, action, while many have not learned the art of living above their wants, desires and surroundings. ## UNNECESSARY FOR WOMEN TO GIVE AGE

YAN C. SWEARINGEN GIVES AN OPINION TO SECRETARY OF STATE REGARDING REGISTRATION IN FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 7.—The Secretary of State, Hon. H. Clay Crawford, recently requested an official opinion of the attorney general, relative to whether or not the law requires an elector to give his or her exact age when making application for registration. The opinion received is as follows:

Hon. H. Clay Crawford, secretary of state, Tallahassee, Fla.: Dear sir: Complying with your verbal request for my opinion as to whether or not an elector applying for registration for the coming general election is required to give his or her exact age, I beg to advise that in my opinion any elector who takes the oath prescribed by section 178 of the general statutes, I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will protect and defend the constitution of the United States and of the state of Florida, that I am twenty-one years of age and have been a resident of the state of Florida for twelve months, that I am a citizen of the United States and that I am qualified to vote under the constitution and laws of the state of Florida, is entitled to registration and that registration officers have no authority to require an elector to give his or her exact age or age in years as a pre-requisite to registration.

Yours very truly,
YAN C. SWEARINGEN,
Attorney General.

ISSUES AND CANDIDATES SCRUTINIZED

Perhaps never before in any presidential campaign have the issues and candidates been the subject of such study and scrutiny as are those in the present campaign. Since the birth of the race man has been the favorite study of womankind and in this campaign she is studying him, his motives, his methods, his pledges and arguments with a new purpose and armed with a new power. She is eager for everything that will give her light on the political questions she is studying and the seriousness with which she regards her new duty of suffrage has become an example and an inspiration to her men folk.

Naturally those questions and issues which have a direct bearing on the home, the family, child welfare, morals, education and domestic economics have a first interest for her, even though she is alive to the importance of international questions which hold her interest in a special way, she is analyzing the character of the candidates, their careers in office, their achievements or failures, and their attitude on issues before the nation.

When the voters of a state have elected a man to three terms as their chief executive the student of politics is bound to admit that the reasons for it are greater than mere popularity. James M. Cox, governor of Ohio for three terms, has a personality that wins the hearts of the voters, but it is not this alone that brought to him their suffrages in his three triumphs. It was the measures effected by him in the interest of the workingman, the farmer, the business man and more especially, women and children.

COX—THE CAMPAIGNER.

In passing from the west to the far west in his campaign Cox has shown himself to be a masterly campaigner, and he is fearless, able, a stirring orator and a likeable man. One of the newspaper correspondents who accompanies the Cox party declares that Cox is "winning his way as he goes."

At this we are not surprised; the American people like to look on the man who is proposing to become the leader and they have a right to know what manner of man he is. They desire to hear from his own lips what he proposes to accomplish; they wish to know whether he will prove himself a capable man and in judging this a moment's glance is worth an hour's magazine description.

The popularity of Cox is steadily increasing because the people are having an opportunity to make his acquaintance. There are many who have republican leanings who are dissatisfied because they have no opportunity to see and hear what he has to say.

The west is the fighting ground and there Cox is expending his entire strength. He is dealing sledge hammer blows at the closed door of opposition and it is likely that the door will swing open wide. He has a definite program which appeals to the people at the time of great constructive indecision and he reasons decisively.

He has told the people what the program of the republicans is and he is leaving the people to draw their own conclusions. He is satisfied that the people will not permit a party to assume control of the government which has so little to recommend it save a blind and passionate opposition to one man. Something definite, conclusive and accurate appears to the country now. And the Cox tidal wave is mounting week by week.

If he does not completely exhaust his physical strength so that he will be forced to abandon his active campaigning, he will win thousands upon thousands of votes every week and there are many weeks remaining between now and November.

He stands for the League of Nations, which has a strong appeal for the new women voters who furnish the cannon fodder and would go to any length to make the likelihood of war remote. The League of Nations is a step in the right direction and receives the warm encouragement of the millions who have their eyes fixed on an ideal in government.

At present Cox is the man of the hour.

McSWEENEY IS LIVING BUT WEAKER.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—(By Associated Press).—Lord Mayor McSweeney passed a fairly good night and the fifty-fourth day of the hunger strike found him able to talk. He told the physicians that he felt very weak but had no pain.

WILSON & TOOMER FIRE.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 5.—Fire of unknown origin early yesterday morning totally destroyed the main building of the Wilson & Toomer Fertilizer Company, located on the river front in the Talleyrand avenue section.

The fire originated at about 3 o'clock, and an hour later the huge building had fallen in—a mass of burning wreckage. The structure was built of wood, and was approximately 400 feet in length by 100 feet in width.

It was stated that it was filled with completed fertilizer products.

THANK GOD

every morning when you get up that you have something to do which must be done whether you like it or not being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance self-control, diligence strength of will, content and a hundred virtues which the title will never know.

—Kingsley.

HAYS TELLS FAIRY TALES ABOUT SOLID SOUTH.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(By Associated Press).—Chairman Hays, of the National Republican committee in a statement declared the Republicans have a good chance to carry North Carolina and Tennessee in the November election. He also claimed all states west of the Mississippi except Arkansas and Texas.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—(By Associated Press).—The population of North Carolina as announced today gives it 2,556,486, an increase of 259,199 or fifteen percent.

NORTH CAROLINA POPULATION IS GIVEN

A UNIQUE SALE.

Have you noticed the newest wrinkle on the horn of the firm of Perkins & Britt? It is a sale where you bring in your old stuff and get new for it. And in these days of fluctuations between the high and low cost of living this sale is proving quite popular. For instance one day you bring in your old hat and you are allowed so much for it. Another day you bring in your old shoes and are allowed so much for them. We intend to bring in our Liberty Bonds tomorrow and see how much we get for them. But this novelty is getting the results and as usual Perkins & Britt are living up to the reputation of the "store that is different." And meantime go over and try it. You will like it.

The new Gillette Chilled Rubber Process is responsible for the wonderful resilience and wearing qualities of these tires. This process toughens the rubber so that it is unusually wear-resisting. Gillette tires are notably free from tread and fabric repair.

The Gillette Chilled Rubber Process makes rubber impervious to heat or cold. The Gillette tread is black; the side walls are cream. The ribbed skid tread of the Gillette is built up higher and thicker than on other ribbed tread tires.

SUGAR PRICES DROP TO NEW LOW RECORD; WHEAT TAKES TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—New low record prices for the year were established in both the raw and refined sugar markets this morning. Prices were half a cent lower than at the close of last week, with raw sugar selling on the basis of 8.51 duty paid, while refined was quoted at 12 1-2 cents a pound by the Federal Sugar Refining Co.

Wheat loses 11 1-2c a bushel. CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Drastic cutting of prices took place in the wheat market today. In some cases, as much as 11 1-2 cents a bushel was slashed from values, the December delivery at one time bringing only $1.06 as against $2.07 to $2.07 1-2 at the finish on Saturday. Increased liquidation by holders was in progress, especially from rural sources. Acute depression developed at the last and the market closed semi-paralyzed at the lowest prices of the day, showing a net decline of 11 1-2 to 12 1-2, with December 195 to 195 1-2 and March 191 to 191 1-2. In the final trading, the leading feature was not so much aggressive efforts to sell as the nearly complete absence of buying.

Flour Prices Going Down. MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 5.—Flour prices continued their downward trend when mills effected a reduction of 10 to 60c a barrel for family patent today. One large mill's quotation was reduced from $12.15 to $11.55 a barrel, while another which lowered its price a half dollar Saturday, made a further cut of 10c, making its price $11.30 a barrel. The low wheat market is responsible for the decline, millers said.

SHERIFF BRADY WILL RUN ON INDEPENDENT TICKET

One of the surprises of the fall campaign is the announcement that E. E. Brady, one of the defeated candidates, will run on an independent ticket for the office of sheriff, the office which he now holds. C. M. Hand was the choice of the voters with four men in the race and the result was not close enough to call for any contest but Mr. Brady seems to think that he would like to try it again as an independent candidate and petitioned the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday to place his name on the ticket and the petition with the names of the petitioners will be published in the proceedings of the county commissioners.

THOUGHTS ARE THINGS

The immutable law of life generates thoughts into things. "As a man thinketh, so is he," is inevitable. Your thoughts backed by willpower and determination are among the principal controlling factors of your destiny. No man will become greater than the standard set for himself, and the efforts consistently and persistently exerted to reach that standard.

Multitudes desire success, but few achieve it, because the few added to the desire, action, while many have not earned the art of living above their wants, desires and surroundings. The musician concentrates every ounce of energy toward the goal of efficiency and perfection and allows nothing to interfere with his thought, idea and determination to become a Master of Music, A SUCCESS.

I CAN, I WILL, I MUST, is the slogan that crowns one's efforts with success. Patience and perseverance are underworkers in attaining this goal.

MUST HELP DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN

SEND IN YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE HERALD
OFFICE

The Republican party does not need any help for the campaign fund as they have millions behind them. The Democratic party has no such funds and is depending upon the bank and file of the tried and true Democrats to give something toward the campaign expenses that are heavy and getting heavier as election time approaches. As has been the custom of this paper for years the donations for the campaign fund for Seminole County will be received at the Herald office and the name and donation will be published each week and the money sent to headquarters. Give what you can and help the cause when it needs help. The Democratic party will have one of the greatest victories in November that it has ever had in history and you should help it along by giving of your time and money. You are needed and your money is needed. Send your contribution to the Herald office at once.

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Martin Caraballo, Charles E. Jones, J. G. Sharon, P. W. Carr, W. V. Knott, G. B. Wells.

Big things in store for Sanford. And they will make this city the best in the state.

Those things that the Herald has been talking about for ten years. Well, we are to have those houses built. Only a few each month but if enough people start it will mean something.

The Campbell-Lossing Post will wake them up here on Armistice Day. We should all turn in and help the boys celebrate this big day.

The tourists need a recreation place and Sanford is just about to start one where they will be most comfortable this winter and it will be equipped with everything needed for amusements.

While the Southern Utilities Co. are fixing up their electric lighting plant we wish they would get busy on the gas plant.

The many new firms starting in Sanford this season shows the way the wind is blowing. They know that Sanford is offering and will offer more in the business line in the next ten years than any other city in the state.

Our many good friends think we should send them the Daily Herald whether they order it or not. We know they want the paper but we cannot anticipate their wants by sending it without orders.

Fordson TRADE MARK. It is a habit of Henry Ford to thoroughly try out and test any product he manufactures before he puts it on the market. He personally must know it will do all he wants it to do before he will allow anybody else to buy it. For thirty-five years he worked on this Fordson Tractor. He kept buying land until he had something like eight thousand acres in order that he might get a great variety of soil conditions containing the plowing problems that meet the farmers of the world, and then the Fordson Tractor was put to work and made to take all sorts of practical tests for years before Mr. Ford put it on the market. And, therefore, when it came on the market it was right, it was reliable, it would do the work he said it would do. People have bought it, have tried it out, have tested it, and it has proven to be all that Mr. Ford claims it to be, and this is why that while farm Tractors have been on the American market more than twenty years and while three hundred thousand have been sold one hundred thousand of that three hundred thousand are Fordson Tractors, and yet the Fordson has only been on the market two years. It has sold rapidly because when one farmer bought one, he practically converted the neighborhood to the desirability and profit of the Fordson Tractor on the farm. The Fordson is made small, compact, flexible, dependable. It is made to be much more convenient to handle than a horse. It was made so that anybody of ordinary common sense could operate and take care of it. We wanted to make it so that a mechanic would not have to be sold with every Tractor. It was made by a farmer for a farmer, and it has the endorsement of the farmers—the little farmer and the big farmer. Some farmers have one, some farmers have ten and fifteen, and one farmer we know has fifty-six. It works just as well in the West as it does in the East. It is just as flexible in the North as it is in the South. It is just as profitable in the wheat fields as it is in the sugar and ricefields. It is just as flexible and useful on the fruit ranch as it is among the fields of oats and barley. It is just as useful and profitable in the lumber camp, railroad yard, coal mine, as it is in the oil fields or any other commercial line. But especially designed for the farmer, it is especially his necessity. Because it increases the production of every acre by enabling the farmer to cultivate his ground to better advantage than he can with mule or horse-power. It takes the sting out of farm work. It is a great conservator of labor and expense. Oh, it has so many money-saving advantages that the farmer can't do without it and be progressive and make money. So we ask every farmer to come in and let us tell him more about this Fordson Tractor. Let us make a demonstration for him on his own farm. Let us test it out to his soil conditions. Let's show him. Don't delay because there are only so many Fordson Tractors to come to this territory. Get your order in now and remember that the Fordson after service is prompt and sure. We are supplied with everything necessary to keep your Fordson going every day in the year.

STATE ROAD DEPARTMENT IN POLITICS

TIMES-UNION SAYS THERE IS NO DENYING THE FACT.

The Jacksonville Times-Union says:

The Metropolis of Monday contained two news items that were uninteresting, appearing as they did on different pages but that became interesting when brought together. One was the comment of M. M. Smith, chairman of the state road department of the report that Gov. Catts would not reappoint him when his term expired as it will next month. Mr. Smith said that politics and not his own record was the ruling factor and added:

"It will be a sad day for the people of Florida whenever the road department is dragged into the mire of politics. There hasn't been one scratch of politics in the department since its existence. The present board has studiously avoided getting into it."

On another page was a statement of what another member of this board, that according to the chairman has studiously avoided getting into politics, was up to. The story says:

"No better investment can be made by the men and women of this state than to vote in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment for good roads at the November election," said E. J. Scott of Arcadia, a member of the state road department, while in Jacksonville Friday. Mr. Scott held a conference with F. O. Miller, chairman of the Florida State Highway Bonding Campaign Committee, H. H. Richardson, campaign manager of that organization, and other good roads enthusiasts, declaring that he came to Jacksonville as a citizen of Florida to help the cause along.

Mr. Scott should have kept out of politics at least for one day while Mr. Smith was making this statement of the non-political status of the board. But we will have to go outside the columns of the Metropolis to take another peep at Mr. Smith. We find him a little less than two months ago at St. Augustine presiding over the Constitutional amendment convention and the Florida Motorist says of his opening address:

"Mr. Smith stressed the necessity for the meeting and further emphasized the fact that it was not a call made by the legislative committee of the Florida State Automobile Association, primarily, but a call of the legislature of Florida to the people of Florida of the state to vote for the amendment and provide funds to meet federal aid."

If this sort of thing is studiously avoided politics the students must be very dull for they do not learn anything, and, by the way, Mr. Smith has a queer idea as to the effect of the submission by the legislature to the people of a proposed constitutional amendment. When the legislature submits it it is through. It is then up to the people and it would be grossly presumptuous and grossly improper in the legislature to tell the people what to do.

But as a matter of fact the state road department is in politics up to the neck. It is fighting for this bond amendment and snarling like a dog gnawing a bone at anyone who interferes with its plans. If this bond amendment is defeated the state in the long run will raise more money for roads than if it is adopted for it will pay out nothing for interest, but future boards will handle the money and get credit for what is done. If the state planks down five million dollars a year to this board, without any directions as to the interest the bond shall bear, without any command to sell them for not less than par, this board will be able to do as it pleases. It reports biennially so it is under no restraint except the fact that it is required to tell the people what it had done not less than two years after it did it.

This board was created to build roads and see that in their construction the people get their money's worth. It was not created to tell the people how much to spend on roads or how to get the money and when it does this it plunges into politics in such a way as to deserve to lose the confidence of the people.

THE DUTY OF DEMOCRATS IN FLORIDA

The idea that Florida can be separated from the solid south as the result of the present campaign, is an ignis fatuus which may have taken possession of a few hopeful republican politicians, but had no foundation in fact. It is a rainbow chasing dream which will not be realized. The most that can be hoped for, is a vote that will entitle the party to a place and standing on the ticket in future years. Even that can, and should be prevented, and will be if the democrats of Florida, stand loyally behind their ticket, and vote their full strength.

The main element of uncertainty lies in the vote of the women, but that is not so uncertain as it may seem. The white women of Florida have imbibed from birth the democratic doctrines held so firmly by their fathers and sons and husbands, and so far as they vote at all, will vote in that faith. It is inconceivable that they should do otherwise. They will stand as a unit for white supremacy, and all that it implies. If they all vote, as they should, it will simply double the white democratic vote. The voting negro woman will of course vote the republican ticket, because that party freed them from slavery fifty years ago, but the numbers voting, except in a few isolated instances, will be negligible, and will have little influence on the general result.

At the same time it behooves the democratic party of Florida to get out its full voting strength. It will not do to assume, as it has in years past, that a primary nomination is equivalent to an election, and let it go at that. We are facing today a vigorous and determined enemy who will scruple at nothing to insure success. Every white democrat owes it to his party and his country to get out and cast his vote for white supremacy and good government.—Tampa Times.

In filing the budget at $124,844 for the coming fiscal year, Miami Beach increased its expenditures $76,422, its millage from 18 to 31 mills. At the same time the city's real estate valuation was increased from $2,251,000 to $3,933,700 a gain of nearly $1,750,000 in valuation.

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science
Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida
Private Laboratory of Rollins College
Winter Park, Fla., Nov. 5th, 1919

Mr. T. O. Charles
Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir:
I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Color	Clear	Chlorine	1.25 parts per million
Reaction	Neutral	Total solids	6.00 parts per million
Free Ammonia	00 parts per million	Hardness	23.03 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia	Trace	Nitrites	Trace

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natural aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent, and in finding no coliform or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."

Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) THOMAS D. BAKER

Long Ballots Will Confuse Many Voters

YOU SHOULD STUDY NAMES OF THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

The ballot to be voted at the general election in November will be lengthy because there will be a full Democratic ticket, and practically full Republican ticket for national and state officers, and an almost full national and state ticket offered by the Socialist party.

There will be nothing on the ballot to show to which party these nominees belong; therefore it will be wise for voters to study the list below and memorize the names of the party which offers them, so when the election comes they can vote intelligently. This is especially important to the women voters, who will vote the first time. It must be borne in mind that to vote for James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for president, you must place an X mark before the names of the SIX DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. Memorize these six names thoroughly. There will be at least eighteen names under the presidential electors part of the ballot at the November election, but only six of them are representing the Democratic party. The other names under that heading will be representatives of the Republican and Socialist parties, and possibly other parties. Florida is normally Democratic by from 60,000 to 70,000 majorities, but with so many new voters, the Republican party busy as it is this year, it is possible that unless the Democrats turn out and vote solidly for their presidential electors, there could be a split ticket.

Study the following list and memorize the Democratic nominees:

- Democrats
- Presidential Electors—Martin Carroll, P. W. Carr, Charles E. Jones, W. V. Knott, J. G. Sharon, G. B. Wells.
- United States Senate—Duncan U. Fletcher.

In the face of many shops making "open shops" on account of labor troubles, the Herald Printing Co. has come to the conclusion that union men are the most desirable in the printing business and we print the union label on our paper and job work hereafter firm in the determination that with a union shop we can get the best results. The Herald has always paid above union wages but did not have a union or organized shop heretofore and we take this step with the belief and the trust that the union men who are working for us now and will work for us in the future will give us the best they have in eight hours labor and that hereafter we can bank on the men who believe with us in the principles of organized labor. There have been mistakes made by employer and by employee in the past but the Herald believes that a better day is dawning for labor and capital under the plan of better co-operation and a better understanding.
