

Bookcapped

By June Casberry
The bookcapped made by the students of the Lyman School and the exceptional children of Howard Junior High School in Orlando is being displayed by one of Cassberry's shops in the Cassberry Shopping Plaza.

A variety of items such as soap, stationery, bathroom necessities, books, abstracts, dolls and many other gift items are being offered.

The sale of these crafts proves a great deal to the children, particularly the older students as this is their only means of earning any money.

Band Presents PTA Program

By June Casberry
The Lyman High School PTA met Tuesday night in the school auditorium. Ralph Brewer gave the devotional and President Burton Ferrell presided over a brief business meeting.

The Lyman Band presented a program of band numbers with the conducting honors shared by Bandmaster Michael Fisher and Head Drum Major Austin Seville.

During one of the more modern selections, band members Barbara Ferrell and David House demonstrated the twist.

Following the meeting and program, teachers were in their rooms to visit with parents.

Build Nursing Home, Avery To Tell Board

A proposal will be made by County Commissioner James P. Avery Jr., that the county build a nursing home and lease it to a private operator with the county as a favored client.

Avery pointed out that under the present Federal and State welfare programs it won't be long before every aged person has income of some sort, and he says the time when the elderly will appeal to the county for care because of complete indigence is almost a thing of the past.

He pointed out that a year ago he submitted a proposal containing four suggestions for the county home. One was that the present facility be repaired and brought up to the minimum standard for such facilities in the state. Another suggestion was that a new facility be built to provide the same care as the present installation provides.

His third suggestion was that an agreement be entered into with two adjoining counties to build a tri-county home to serve the cooperating areas, and the fourth was the present plan.

Avery emphasized that this was to be only a last resort in planning. He said, "I have the highest respect and admiration for the present Courthouse committee, and would seriously consider anything they would suggest as a practical solution to the problem of indigent care for Seminole County."

The district 3 commissioner added, "I feel this county is extremely fortunate to have individuals of the calibre and capability of the Van Roy committee willing to donate their time and services to improve our county and its facilities."

Indian Army Front Quiet

NEW DELHI (UPI)—The Indian army is still patrolling and still "in contact" with the Chinese along the cease-fire line established by the Communists on the northeast frontier, a Defense Ministry spokesman said today.

The spokesman refused to say whether there was any shooting by the Indian patrol, continuing the policy of not revealing the Indian stand on the cease-fire.

But it was apparent that the uneasy truce put into effect by Peking Wednesday still stood as United States and British fact-finding missions arranged defense aid talks with Indian officials.

Communist China, in a Peking Radio broadcast heard in Tokyo, charged that two Indian air force planes took "provocative action" over Communist positions Thursday in the western sector of the border, but said the Chinese did not fire on the planes "in accordance with their orders to cease fire."

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru avoided taking a stand on the Chinese cease-fire offer of talks, but it was apparent that India as well as Chinese troops were observing the truce. Nehru warned in a speech Thursday night, however, that "the war with China will be a long, drawn-out affair and it may take years."

Nehru today told parliament there had been no firing and no movement, either to retreat or advance, by Chinese forces since the proclamation of the cease-fire. But he still left unanswered whether Indian forces have been ordered to hold their fire.

Kennedy Calls In Key Advisors On Cuba Woes

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—President Kennedy gathered his top diplomatic and military advisers today for a broad re-examination of the Cuban situation.

He called into session the executive committee of the National Security Council, a group which has consulted with him almost daily since the discovery of a Soviet nuclear threat was discovered in Cuba.

The White House said "no new crisis" moved the Chief Executive to call his key consultants to Cape Cod on a blustery, cold holiday weekend. Acting Press Secretary Andrew T. Hatch said Kennedy wanted "a general review of the Cuban situation."

Later in the day the President also planned another important meeting—with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Budget Director David E. Bell—to discuss the large defense budget for fiscal 1964. Military spending is expected to hit another peak this year when the President must submit to Congress in January.

Bell continued to figure prominently in speculation about Kennedy's choice of a successor to Fowler Hamilton as head of the foreign aid program. Announcement of a successor is expected shortly. Hatch was unaware of any connection between the recent speculation and Bell's presence in Hyannis Port today.

Called in for the Cuban conference were McNamara, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai E. Stevenson; John J. McCloy, head of a special Cuban crisis coordinating team; the undersecretaries of state and defense, plus McGee Bundy, Kennedy's special assistant for national security matters.

Lockheed, Union Talks Back On

BURBANK, Calif. (UPI)—Lockheed Aircraft Corp. and the International Association of Machinists resumed negotiations today in a last-ditch effort to avert a strike scheduled for Wednesday.

However, each side held little hope for a settlement since neither appeared ready to concede to the other on the key issue of the contract talks—a union shop clause.

Robert R. Simpson, I.A.M. coordinator in the negotiations, warned "the strikes will not be postponed" against the giant aerospace firm, prime contractor for the Polaris submarine missile.

Some 35,000 workers of two of the company's divisions—Lockheed—California Co. and Lockheed Missiles and Space Co.—are involved in the threatened strike.

Beverage Agents Crack Down On 2 Distributors

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Beverage Director Thomas Lee Jr., removed the licenses of two of the state's largest wholesale liquor distributors Thursday and told the firms they couldn't reply for the permits.

The two firms—both in Jacksonville—are Jax Southern Liquors Co. and Atlas Wholesale Liquors Inc.

The move against the two companies becomes effective Jan. 2, 1963. It is the latest in a series of punishments ordered for the Jacksonville firms.

Game Ends In Fist-Swinging Brawl

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A high school football championship game in the nation's capital, witnessed by a record crowd, ended Thursday in a fist-swinging brawl between players, fans, and police.

Police said at least 33 persons were injured and nine others were arrested.

With a crowd of 12,000 persons jammed into the new District of Columbia stadium, the brawl erupted during a game between St. John's of the Catholic League and Eastern High School. St. John's won the game 20-7. An on-field fight among the players set the stage for a battle between the fans.

When the game ended, thousands of students poured out of the Eastern stands and crossed to the St. John's side of the stadium. Fights broke out and spread outside the stadium to the parking lots, police said.

One hundred policemen were called out to handle the disorder, but it took more than an hour to restore calm.

One policeman was struck on the head and dazed while trying to disperse a crowd of 1,000.

Police said chair legs as well as pipes were used in the fights outside the stadium.

The game was a routine battle between two traditional rivals until six minutes before the end, when an Eastern tackle, ejected for roughness, ran back on to the field and began pummeling St. John's players.

When the game ended, fights between spectators began in the ramps leading to the exits and then spread to the grounds outside.

Home Builders Up-In-Arms Over Kennedy Ruling

A survey of Sanford and county homebuilders and realtors revealed today that the local arm of the industry is in an uproar over the recent ruling by President Kennedy that there will be no more discrimination in the sale of homes and multiple dwelling units financed or guaranteed by Federal funds.

One realtor who has over three dozen homes currently on the market under FHA financing says that under the new ruling they are powerless to interfere with the integration of new-home communities.

The indication given by most of the builders interviewed was that there would have to be a serious cutback in the construction of new single family developments and multiple dwelling units in Seminole County.

It was pointed out that the ruling affects any home financing agency that depends on any kind of Federal aid, whether in the form of direct loans or guarantees or backing of any kind. This applies to the currently building luxury apartment structures and cooperative apartment units.

Another realtor said Seminole County is in a particularly precarious situation because of the mushrooming developments in the area which are affected. It will, he declared, call for a great deal of care in handling the negotiations, but actually the builder is powerless if he depends on government funds for his construction.

All agreed that this will do much for the non-government backed conventional mortgage companies operating without Federal guarantees.

Bandits Grab Over $50,000 In KC Holdup

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI)—A gang of bandits wearing black hoods obtained $50,770 in cash in a daylight holdup today at the Armour meat packing plant here.

Police said the apparently well-planned robbery required only a few minutes.

The money was to be used by the Armour credit union in its operations today.

William M. Gilliam, credit union manager, and a Pinkerton guard, Louis Lelmen, obtained the cash at the nearby Kaw Valley State Bank. Gilliam said they left the front door of the bank and walked about 100 feet to a side door at the Armour plant. As they entered, they noticed another Pinkerton guard, John Holsappel, lying on the floor.

When they started toward the prostrate guard, they were surrounded by three or four hooded men, Gilliam said. One of them threatened him with a pistol and whispered, "Let's have it."

He removed the canvas bag from Gilliam's shoulder. Then one of the bandits fired from eight feet at Lelmen, but missed. Police said the gun may have contained a blank cartridge, as there was no evidence of a bullet.

Although the two guards ran outside a few seconds behind the bandits, they did not see how they escaped.

Christmas Boost For War Vets

WASHINGTON (UPI)—More than five million war veterans will get their government insurance dividends in January under a plan designed to help them with the Christmas bills and at the same time give the economy a needed boost.

President Kennedy announced the plan Thursday.

He said the Veterans Administration had been ordered to pay $327.6 million worth of dividends in advance, instead of spreading them out over the whole year.

The sum includes $222 million in the regular 1963 dividend for World War II policy holders, a special dividend of $96 million to the same group, and $10.6 million in dividends to World War I veterans who hold government life insurance policies.

Kennedy said the early payment was being made "because of its nearness to the Christmas season . . . and at the same time to provide a needed boost to the economy."

Board Lays Down Tests Guidelines

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission has laid down guidelines for the development of nuclear energy as the nation's industrial fuel by the 1980s.

Calling for an intensive 12-year-long program, the AEC said "nuclear power is believed to be on or near the threshold of competitiveness with conventional power" in areas where conventional fuel costs are high.

In a "new and hard look" report submitted to President Kennedy Thursday, the AEC said further reductions in the cost of nuclear fuel are definitely in sight, "provided an aggressive program is continued."

Hitler's Plan Coming True?

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A West German rabbi predicts that Hitler's plan for a Germany without Jews will be virtually true within the next two or three decades.

The prediction was based on the age division of the Jewish population in Germany and the "adamant refusal of a large majority of German Jews to accept Judaism as a way of life."

The forecast was made by Rabbi Hans I. Grunewald, spiritual leader of the Jewish community in Hamburg, at the biennial convention of the Union of Orthodox Congregations of America.

Kidder To Take Over A. C. Allyn

A. M. Kidder Co., a New York investment firm will take over the offices of A. C. Allyn Co., here effective December 1, according to a statement by Lee P. Moore, regional manager for the Kidder organization.

The new office will be staffed by Charles M. Barley, Sam Meyer and Gerardo J. The biggest change that will be made in the local operation will be an increase in the library resources.

According to Moore, the Kidder organization has enjoyed extraordinary success in establishing successful offices in small and medium size sites all over the country and he hopes the pattern holds good here.

The company is a member of both the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange.

Cuba Navy Base Kin May Return

GUANTANAMO BAY (UPI)—Navy Secretary Fred Korth said Thursday it may be possible to return the wives and families of servicemen to the base at the outset of the Cuba crisis.

Korth said just before he left for Washington that he would confer with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara today about the prospect for an early return of servicemen's families to the base.

18 Killed As Portuguese Plane Explodes

SAO TOMÉ, Portuguese West Africa (UPI)—A Portuguese air force transport exploded shortly after taking off from this equatorial island off West Africa today, killing 18 of the 22 persons aboard.

Authorities said the dead included servicemen and six women entertainers who apparently were on service leave for scores in Portuguese Angola farther to the south of the mainland.

Airport authorities said the U. S.-built C-54 transport took off shortly before 3 a. m. on the next leg of its long flight from the Angola capital of Luanda to Lisbon.

Fourteen survived, including a badly injured policeman whose young daughter was among the victims.

UN Protests Yank Killing

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—The United Nations Commission (UN) will probably lodge a formal protest early next week over the killing of an American soldier at the edge of the Korean demilitarized zone, an informed source said today.

The UNO has charged that North Korea's Communist troops tossed the grenade which killed Spc. James A. Johnson, 18, of Paris, Ky. Tuesday night at a UNO observation post overlooking the demilitarized zone.

Pvt. Buzz Olivio, 24, of Santerre, Puerto Rico, was injured in the attack. He was reported making satisfactory progress today after surgery in which numerous grenade fragments were removed from his hands and feet.

Let Us Finish Job

Something as I was reading of a general that planned to finish a job that he had started in the past. According to the article that I read, this general thought that the job he had started was not to be put into practice and as he got the job done he was to finish it. There is one big lesson and that is that they had the job done and that which could have been of great benefit to the world.

Back To Normal!

By United Press International
Americans settled down to normal routines and meals again today following the celebration of Thanksgiving, 1963, which was marred only by a heavy traffic death toll.
The menu in millions of homes, however, may not differ much from that of Thursday. Leftover turkey, ham, pumpkin pie and other fare from traditional feasts filled pantries and refrigerators.
Aside from big dinners, the centuries-old pilgrim holiday was marked by special church services, parades in many cities, family outings, parties, and football games.
For most—even the servicemen and women stationed around the world, the underprivileged, the shut-ins—it was a festive occasion. For a few, it was tragic.
The United Press International count showed that 182 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the 30-hour holiday period, which began at 6 p. m. Wednesday and ended last midnight.

Thirteen others died in fires and 31 lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents for an overall fatality toll of 196.
The death rate on the roads was better than five an hour. California led the carnage with 19 deaths, followed by Texas with 14 and New York with 12.
Judging from a normal period of the same length last November, the National Safety Council had said 123 persons could be expected to perish in auto accidents.
Five persons, including three sailors returning to Houston for the holiday, were killed in the nation's worst crash—a two-car, head-on collision near Livingston, Tex.

Congress Donnybrook Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Wallace E. Bennett, (R-Utah), today predicted a "real donnybrook" in Congress if President Kennedy proposes new programs of federal spending as well as an overall tax cut.
Such a battle could even delay action until 1964 on tax revision, he said.

Bennett, a high-ranking GOP member of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee, said he "might vote against any" tax reduction unless "there is also some evidence of a willingness" by the administration to cut federal spending.
The administration is putting the finishing touches on its plan for 1963 tax cut and reform proposals.
So far no "final" decision has been made by President Kennedy but some key features of the plan have emerged with considerable clarity.
The main share of tax relief is to go to individuals, particularly those in the low and middle income brackets.
A cut in the 52 per cent corporate tax rate is in prospect, but it is not likely to be more than five percentage points, or $2.5 billion and it could be even less.

form, some decisions have been made, but they hinge on Kennedy's approval.
Under present thinking there is a strong likelihood the administration will ask Congress to:
—Repeat or drastically restrict the exemption of sick pay from taxable income.
—Tighten up on capital gains tax. One way would be to lengthen the period of time an asset must be held before profit from its sale could be treated as a capital gain.
—Tighten up on taxation of oil and gas producers. There is a strong feeling among many administration officials that the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance for oil and natural gas is unwarranted.
—Repeat the $50 exclusion and 4 per cent tax credit for dividend income. Government experts feel the exclusion and credit discriminates in favor of high income individuals.

British Open 'Thalidomide' Investigation

LONDON (UPI) — British doctors are investigating "one or two" drugs other than Thalidomide which may have deformed 10,000 British babies between 1964 and 1966, it was learned today.
The College of General Practitioners said it has told the health ministry of suspicions that the drugs, taken by mothers during early pregnancy, may be responsible for the deformations.
A spokesman for the college said the drugs could not be identified until the suspicions were substantiated, but the manufacturers had been informed.

Record Mail Volume Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Post Office will handle a record volume of Christmas mail this year with 70,000 fewer holiday helpers than it did last year.
Postmaster General J. Edward Day said Thursday the expected 18 billion pieces of mail—up a half billion from 1961—will be processed and distributed by 100,000 extra workers. The total last year was 220,000.
Day said the saving in manpower was made possible by several factors, among them the use of regular employees on an overtime basis and public cooperation in the department's "mail early" campaign. In addition, he said, the department will be making once-a-day large deliveries rather than several deliveries of a few pieces of mail.

Sunshine Road Bids Awarded

ORLANDO (UPI) — The State Turnpike Authority awarded bids Wednesday on the final two paving contracts of the 135-mile extension of the Sunshine State Parkway.
The Authority at the same time raised the speed limit on the present Miami-to-Orlando stretch from 65 to 70 miles an hour, effective Jan. 1, and also set 70 as the limit for the new northward extension, to open in January of 1964.
Cone Bros. of Tampa submitted low bid of $2,250,044 for 3.25 miles of work on the extension in Sumter County, including two bridges.
The Authority also awarded a $486,000 contract to J. S. Stephens and Sons of Tampa for construction of six toll plazas on the tollway.

Mitchell Rites Set For Saturday

FREDERICK Russell Mitchell Sr., 63, died at his home here Wednesday.
A retired landscape gardener, the deceased is survived by his wife and three sons, Frederick Russell Mitchell Jr., Daytona Beach, Edward C., St. Dora and George S., Palatka. He also had a half brother, Arthur E. Hiller, of Marion, Mass., four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.
Mitchell was born in New Bedford, Mass., on Feb. 5, 1874, and came to Sanford in 1919.
He was a member of the First Methodist Church.
Private services will be held at St. Francis Memorial Chapel in Palatka at 3:00 p.m. Saturday and interment will be at the West View Cemetery, here.

Mrs. L. McCrum Dead At 87

Mrs. Louise M. McCrum, 87, died Wednesday morning at the Halifax Hospital in Daytona Beach after a short illness.
She was born in Mount Vernon, Ohio, formerly lived in Sanford but has lived in Daytona Beach for the past 12 years.
She was the wife of the late George McCrum and survivors are one son, Gwynne McCrum, and one grandson of Daytona Beach.
Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday at the Baggett and McIntosh Funeral Home in Port Orange with burial in Evergreen Cemetery at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Runaway Choir Girl Says She Wants To Marry Pastor

HENDERSON, Tex. (UPI) — A pretty 16-year-old choir girl who ran away with her minister and shared a basement apartment with him for three weeks said today she wants to marry the clergyman as soon as he can get a divorce.
"I love him very much," said petite Flora Jean Cole of the Rev. Leroy Daniels, 38, a Baptist minister.
The two disappeared Nov. 3 after a high school football game and were found in Wichita, Kan., Wednesday.
The Rev. Mr. Daniels was jailed Thursday on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. When located by police, he was working in a liquor warehouse in Wichita.
Flora Jean told newsmen Thursday she and the Rev. Mr. Daniels, pastor of the Crystal Farms Baptist Church near Talum, Tex., plan to be married as soon as the clergyman is divorced by his bride of four months. Mrs. Daniels already has filed suit for the divorce.
The blonde, brown-eyed girl wept when she and the minister were taken into custody. "I won't stay home," she cried. "I'll run away."
Flora Jean's parents said they went to the Rev. Mr. Daniels' home after their daughter disappeared and learned that the clergyman also was missing. They fled charges against the Rev. Mr. Daniels later.
Flora Jean said her parents knew she and the Rev. Mr. Daniels were leaving Talum, which has a population of 542. She said the night she and the Rev. Mr. Daniels left her father had seen her in the minister's parked car in a rural lover's lane.

Conservatives Handed Selback

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservatives today were handed two defeats by the opposition Labor party in returns from three of five parliamentary by-elections held Thursday.
In the third election, the Conservatives won, but with a sharply reduced majority. Results of the other two contests were expected later in the day. The Conservatives held all five seats previously.
The defeats appeared to be a rebuff to Macmillan's policy of pushing for British membership in the Common Market as well as his new cabinet lineup, which he installed last summer after a series of other by-election defeats.

Crisis Talk By Adenauer

BERLIN (UPI)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer wound up a trip to West Berlin today and prepared for a national televised report on the crisis that nearly toppled his government this week.

Adenauer planned to confer with West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt early today before flying back to Bonn in a United States Air Force plane to make the address tonight.
The 68-year-old chancellor told a cheering rally of his Christian Democratic Union (CDU) Thursday that West German troops will be in the front line of any battle for West Berlin.
He made only a passing reference to the arrests of editors of the news magazine Der Spiegel during his 35-minute speech, referring to the crisis it provoked in his coalition cabinet as "super-fluora."
Adenauer said he did not think the Soviet Union would use force against isolated Berlin.
"If, nevertheless, it comes to the use of force, our troops will stand in the very first line," he said.
This statement appeared to reverse his government's previous stand that West German troops were assigned to NATO and could not be pledged in advance to fight for Berlin.
It was believed the change resulted from his recent talks with President Kennedy in Washington. The United States has urged such a commitment.
Tonight's address was expected to deal with foreign policy and to explain Adenauer's stand on the crisis in which the Free Democratic party (FDP) pulled its five ministers out of his cabinet over the controversial police raid on the news magazine.
The magazine's publisher and four editors were arrested on suspicion of bribery and treason for a military article in the magazine. Opponents of the government called the action a throwback to the days of the Gestapo.
The Free Democrats and the opposition Social Democrats—Brandt's party—both blamed Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss for the raid and demanded that he be fired from the cabinet. Der Spiegel had long been critical of Strauss.
The FDP announced that its ministers would not participate in any cabinet which included Strauss. The 18 CDU ministers also offered their resignations, apparently clearing the way for Adenauer to drop Strauss.

Doctor Denies FDR Suffered 'Little Strokes'

CHICAGO (UPI) — FDR physician son-in-law the late Franklin D. Roosevelt had branded as false reports that the President suffered a series of "little strokes" before his death in 1945.
Dr. James A. Haled, a specialist in internal medicine and husband of Roosevelt's daughter, Anna, said Thursday there is no evidence the four-term President had cerebral seizures before the massive stroke which took his life.
He reported his findings in the current issue of the magazine, "Today's Health," a publication of the American Medical Association.
After one such mythical seizure, Haled said, the supposedly ailing President was well enough to go deep sea fishing off the Galapagos Islands and win a prize for catching the biggest fish, a 235-pound shark.
"Recently, my wife and I asked her mother (the late Eleanor Roosevelt) if she had any knowledge of strokes suffered by her husband prior to April 12, 1945. Her answer was an emphatic 'no' with the additional comment that no physician had ever mentioned such a thing to her," Haled wrote.
Haled's article also pointed out that reports of Roosevelt suffering a series of strokes were denied in books written by Dr. Ross T. McIntire, the presidential physician, and Grace Tully, the late President's secretary.

Who's The Big Fish?

The arrest of five persons charged with operating an illegal lottery in Duval County only underscores a crime problem we've had with us for long.

For those readers who aren't familiar with the game, lotta is a lottery conducted outside the law and on a huge scale through most of Florida's 67 counties. Lotta is the Spanish word for "lot"; the game draws its name from a system of pulling one numbered ball from a bag of 100, and making the drawn number the winning number for that week. Those lucky enough to "hit" get a payoff of 70-1. Assuming, that is, the game is conducted honestly.

Lotta and kindred rackets are a curse to the economic well-being of any community. Badly needed money is siphoned from the purses of these least able to pay and channelled into the racketeers' moneybags. The racketeers upon those who are supposed to be the law.

It is unfortunate but true that lotta is able to flourish here because the "good people" of Duval and Duval County laugh it off and refuse to take it seriously. Even when complaints are made, the racketeers have the cash stuffed in their fever. Evidence is hard to get because of the lotta operators' clever bookkeeping. And you can bet on another thing; the lotta racketeer will show up in court with the best and highest-priced available lawyers!

The federal authorities have served notice they aren't going to tolerate lotta. We can only hope that their investigation is a searching one, and reaches up into the very highest echelon of the racket, netting the "big fish" as well as the little ones.

No Bargain For USSR

The fact that Fidel Castro still seems to be head man in Cuba is of nagging concern to Americans.

Despite the removal of the Russian missile, the most serious danger to our security, Castro is well armed and belligerent. Russian prestige and influence in Cuba show few signs of having suffered from the missile-flanking movement.

We are impatient. We want Castro and all the Reds out — now. We don't like to remember how our policies toward Cuba since the Spanish-American War helped prepare the ground for the Communist take over.

Having won the missile showdown, some of us have tended to minimize the extent of that victory and to maximize the standing threat of Cuba as a spearhead of communism in the Western Hemisphere.

Communism in Cuba and in this part of the world is certainly far from being solved. Short of an overthrow of Castro or an actual invasion of the island, which may be dismissed for a variety of reasons, the situation likely will remain much as it is for a long time.

Yet it would be foolish to feel that our only alternatives are either armed intervention or helpless bitterness. For the missile affair was not only morally costly to the Russians but their virtual subsidizing of the Cuban economy is a serious drain on their own nose-toe-aficionado economy and that of their European satellites.

Rather than a wedge splitting the Western Hemisphere, Cuba may in the end leave irreparable cracks in the Communist monolith in Europe.

The economy of Eastern Europe is being increasingly tied with Cuba. Poland, which did $75,000 worth of trade before Castro, now does $47 million. Cuban-Czech trade increased from $3 million in 1965 to $90 million in 1967. Eastern Europe's share of Cuba's total trade has risen from 2 percent pre-Castro to 80 percent today.

Although sugar is surplus in the satellites, all have been forced to take sugar from Cuba. Hungary is short of onions but must export them to Cuba. Czechoslovakia, furnishing in its five year plan, has loaned Castro $40 million, built eight factories and six power stations and supplied great quantities of arms.

The Communists are not, of course, making these things known to their peoples. But agencies like Radio Free Europe are constantly piercing the Iron Curtain with such facts, documenting the Kremlin's manipulation of its satellites.

America has nothing to lose by watchful waiting regarding Cuba; we have already gained much in increased solidarity with other Latin nations. This can be strengthened by a continuing exposure of what it means to become an ally of Russia.

The Russians may have made a very poor investment in Cuba.

Dick West Says Sometimes You Can't Win

WASHINGTON (UPI) — When I received an invitation to join the Epicurean Club at a $50 pre-Thanksgiving dinner, I was at first feeling pretty set up about it.

Then two things happened that rather dampened my spirits. The first blow came from the press agent at the Sheraton Hotel, where the epicurean feast was held.

"I suppose," I told her, "that I was added to the guest list because you felt that my reputation as a connoisseur of cuisine would lend prestige to the assembly."

"No," she replied. "We were just hoping that you would mention the name of the hotel."

The other deflation came when I learned that one of my colleagues, whom I shall identify here as Sam Freeloader, also had been invited.

Freeloader is not a gourmet at all. He is more of a glutton.

Freeloader's conception of a perfect repast is four beers and a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. His palate is about as sensitive as the hide of a rhinoceros.

When I asked him if he would know how to conduct himself at the dinner, he said, "Certainly! You just sprinkle everything with salt before you taste it."

The Epicurean Club has a rule against smoking during the reception and dinner,

OUT OUR WAY

HELP! I'M BEING PULLED IN SEVERAL DIRECTIONS!

FORGET ME! I NEED YOU!

FORGET ME! I NEED YOU!

FORGET ME! I NEED YOU!

FORGET ME! I NEED YOU!

which lasted more than four hours. One mustn't deflower one's taste buds, you know.

It didn't bother me because I had quit smoking, but poor Freeloader was soon biting his nails. As a matter of fact, he claimed that they had a better flavor than the "coeur de filet de boeuf rennaissance."

As each dish and wine was served, club members and guests were at liberty to arise and comment upon its virtues or demerits. Freeloader, thank heavens, confined himself to mutterings that were mostly inaudible.

Our white wine was a 1969 Liebfraumilch which one guest characterized as "charming."

"It's charming," Freeloader whispered, "but its insinuations. I prefer a beverage that is trustworthy, like kraut juice."

Near the end of the meal, the kitchen and serving staffs paraded into the dining room and were accorded a standing ovation. Freeloader said it was the first time he had ever seen "a curtain call for cooks."

Frankly, his boorishness made it difficult for me to savor the viands to the fullest. He even had to ask who Ecoffier was. I thought everyone knew that Ecoffier was a Notre Dame quarterback.

RELAPSE IN THE JUNGLE FEVER WARD

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Norman needs jobs by which to earn spending money. So scrubbook this case. And never offer an "allowance" to a child, for that method builds up the psychology of the debt and produces dependent personalities instead of the self-reliant type.

CASE N-498: Norman K., aged 13, is a smart 8th grader.

"But, Dr. Crane," his mother protested, "you have urged us parents not to offer our children an allowance."

"But where can Norman earn his spending money? We live in a city apartment, so what jobs are available for him?"

Then he will not gripe or verbally knife you in the back for being a skinflint who refuses to raise his allowance.

For when a child earns his own money, he can blame nobody but himself if he has only $1 per week instead of $2.

Many college youths thus criticize their parents for not doubling their allowance when there is no law that says a parent must give his child any spending money at all.

Then those same "allowance" boys go into politics and thus demonstrate a sly, insidious knowledge of business methods at Washington, D. C.

Another splendid method for teaching a boy business judgment is to let him do the family grocery buying.

Use the price scale of your neighborhood store as a standard. Then if he wishes to purchase at the chain store farther down the street, let him pocket the 2 cents per pound difference in price for his groceries.

Butter or the 7 cents for peanut butter, etc.

This will teach your boy or girl to watch the Friday grocery ads and make a shrewd shopper of them. Then they'll be far more likely to live on a budget when they later grow up and marry.

Send for my booklet on "How To Earn Spending Money," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 25 cents. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Peter Edson Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NSA) — Preliminary totals on the 1962 election vote count reveal a few new political trends which may have some effect on the campaigns for 1964 and beyond. These estimates are based on unofficial figures which may be revised slightly when all the returns are in and fully tabulated.

The total vote for the 55 states will be close to 115 million, maybe a little over. This would be a 4.5 million increase over 1958. But the increase didn't come where they were expected.

Nearly complete returns indicate a total Democratic vote of 71.5 million. This is 2.5 million more than the 1958 total, but only half a million more than was expected.

The Republican vote amounted to nearly 44 million, however, from a nearly static 39 million average for the midterm elections of 1958, 1964 and 1968 to nearly 36 million.

Part of the Democratic shortfall is accounted for in states like Virginia and Mississippi which did not elect a U. S. senator or governor this year, and in nearly half of the southern states' congressional GOP candidates. There was no GOP candidate here was no incentive for Democrats to get out and vote.

On the other hand, over half of the Republican gains in the election were in the southern states where there was some change-over of former Democratic voters to Republican candidates.

This resulted in the election of four more Republican congressmen from the southern states, but the GOP did not make corresponding gains in the North or West.

In the governorship races the Democrats made gains in New England, elected their candidates early in Connecticut and Vermont but with extremely close races in Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. In the great plains states which traditionally have been Republican farm belt strongholds, Democrats elected governors in Iowa, Nebraska, Montana and North Dakota.

In the Southwest, however, Republicans made a equally striking gains, electing Henry Ballou an Oklahoma's first GOP governor. And in Texas, where the Democrats used to get 70 to 80 per cent of the vote, Democratic Governor-elect John R. Connally had to be content with only 54 per cent of the vote.

Political analysts see in these developments the beginning of a trend towards a real two-party South. But it is by no means fully developed.

In the North and West and the industrial Midwest, Democrats continued to make gains with considerable support from organized labor. Of 28 Senate candidates endorsed by all union political action groups, 23 won for a 72 per cent record. Of 287 candidates for the House endorsed by all union political action groups, 215 won for a 69 per cent record.

Ballou in political cycles in the United States have their own on a footing that in this century the shifts of power from one major party to the other average 10 to 15 years.

Woodrow Wilson, 8 Democratic years.

Woodrow Wilson, 8 Democratic years.

Franklin Roosevelt, 12 Republican years.

Benjamin Franklin, 8 Republican years.

Kennedy, at least four Democratic years seemed.

This adds up to 26 Republican years and 28 Democratic years of White House control up to the end of Kennedy's present term. With six "extra" in the 69 years, the average will be 12 years even at its end. The question is: how long will the present Democratic cycle begin by Kennedy last?

Wills Gets MVP Award

BOSTON (UPI) — Quick-moving Maury Wills made it again today but he had to hustle to beat out Willie Mays for the National League's Most Valuable Player award of 1962.

It was close, Wills barely edging home in front with a total of 209 points to 203 for Mays.

The speedy, 30-year-old Los Angeles Dodger shortstop virtually lapped his way to the award by stealing 104 bases last season to break Ty Cobb's all-time major league record.

Wills, who once was rejected by the Detroit Tigers because they felt he couldn't hit, polled eight first place votes among the 20 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who did the balloting while Mays, the San Francisco Giants' brilliant centerfielder, collected seven.

Both men were named on every ballot as was Tommy Davis of the Dodgers, who finished third with 171 points, and last year's MVP winner, Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, who finished fourth with 164 points.

Dodger right-hander Don Drysdale, recently voted the Cy Young Award as the outstanding pitcher in the majors, polled 85 points to wind up in fifth place.

Only minutes after the Longhorns completed their first unbeaten season in 20 years, Arkansas accepted a bid to the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, where the Razorbacks dropped a 10-3 decision to Alabama last Jan. 1.

Texas also will be making its second straight appearance in the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns beat Mississippi last New Year's Day.

Officials of the Gator Bowl and the Gotham Bowl reportedly are seeking Miami for their post-season assignments. However, these bids rest on the Hurricanes beating Northwestern tonight.

Northwestern, which tumbled from the No. 1 spot to 20th in the UPI ratings after suffering successive defeats by Wisconsin and Michigan State, is a one-point pick for the game in the Orange Bowl.

Penn State and Duke also are leading candidates for the Gator Bowl. The Nittany Lions are eight-point favorites for their regular-season finale against arch-rival Pittsburgh Saturday and Duke is a 13-point choice to down North Carolina and win the Atlantic Coast Conference crown for the third straight year.

Here is how the other bowls shape up: Rose Bowl — Top-ranked Southern California and third-ranked Wisconsin have clinched berths.

Las Vegas and Mexico covered the total of 7,500 miles. The dispatch on the trip closed this way:

"Doc says he's ready to settle back down in Sanford for another 11 months at hard labor until once more the call of the wild has him cranking up the bucket of bolts and flying back to join old Doc."

Gene Meadors, president of the St. Johns River Outdoor Marathon Assn. said Tuesday that the organization is looking for a way to live up to the annual race.

Association members, and anybody else who has a good idea are asked to suggest ways of making the Sanford to Jacksonville and return race more interesting for boat drivers and the public.

Meadors previously had said that he thought it might be a good plan to make some changes in the race which would open it up to all classes of boaters as well as outboard and have a real free for all.

Another idea would be to make the run to Jacksonville and back then continue racing on a Lake Monroe course to fill out a six or nine hour marathon.

That certainly would add to the interest of spectators here.

People in this section also should realize that this has become primarily a Sanford area production and should pitch in and give the association some backing in making it an outstanding event.

If you have any ideas, get in touch with Meadors on French Ave. or the association secretary, D. H. MacGillis, on Forest Dr.

1962 All-American

Regardless of what many professional-minded buffs may believe, football is still a college game.

And the 1962 Newspaper Enterprise Association All-American is a college team, not a draft list for the pros. Let the money men take their hard-earned brulwers from Gopher Gulch A. and M., Tundra Tech, Underwater U. and schools like that where combatants can qualify scholastically by taking courses in kite flying or Christmas bundle wrapping.

Members of the NEA All-American met scholastic requirements, and too many people overlook the fact that abnormally stupid young men are no longer admitted to superior seats of higher learning just because they can play football. Not that a good share of them would not make it big with the mercenary, but the selection of NEA All-Americans was not based on what was predicted for them as pros. They were picked because they helped their college teams the most.

As I have written many times in the past, hundreds of knights in armor with similar physical skills played superlatively. Then how can anyone single out 11 as an All-American team? What separates them from the pack? The answer is that it is something built in: overwhelming desire. Their one idea was perfection and the tremendous urge to repeat the performance for nine consecutive Saturday afternoons in the roughest, toughest and most intricate team game ever invented. There was inspired excellence giving them the indelible stamp of usefulness achievement.

So again it is a privilege to name the extraordinary players adjudged the most formidable in the college game at their respective positions and elected by the nation's coaches and football writers to the 1962 Newspaper Enterprise Association All-American team:

ENDS—Hal Bedsole, Southern California, junior, 20, 6-5 225 (Reseda, Calif.) and Dave Robinson, Penn State, senior, 21, 6-3, 220 (Coopers-town, N. J.)

TACKLES—Bobby Bell, Lisbon Is Winner

Miami Hosts Northwestern

ATLANTA (UPI) — That air defense net around South Florida would be kept busy tonight if it were switched to the Orange Bowl in Miami — expected to be the scene of the wildest aerial show of the college football season.

The contestants will be the host Miami Hurricanes (6-3) and the visiting Northwestern Wildcats (4-2) — two of the passiest teams in the nation.

The game is expected to feature a wideopen passing duel between Miami Junior George Mira and Northwestern Sopomore Tom Myers.

Two weeks ago, everybody would have bet a bundle on the then top-ranked Northwestern which appeared headed for the national championship and the Rose Bowl. But lipped back-to-back losses to Wisconsin and Michigan State has dropped Northwestern to No. 20 nationally and turned tonight's battle into a tossup.

This will be a light weekend for the Southeastern Conference with most members taking an extra week to prepare for their traditional intrastate finales.

It's Mira Vs. Myers Tonight

Only three games involving SEC teams are lined up for tomorrow—Louisiana State at Tulane, Kentucky at Tennessee and Florida State at Auburn.

The eighth-ranked LSU Bengals (7-1-1) will be out to impress the bowl scouts in their finale with wireless Tulane (0-9). The Bengals, beaten only by second-ranked Mississippi this fall, appear far too strong for the Green Wave which has now lost 10 straight and ended Vanderbilt's 16-game losing streak by bowing to the Commodores last week, 20-0.

LSU, with all-America candidate Jerry Stovall leading the way, showed its power last week with a 28-0 victory over Mississippi State. But although the Bengals should romp tomorrow, no one expects them to win by their 1958 and 1961 margins over Tulane—42-0.

Tennessee (3-5) should have too much depth for the manpower shy Kentucky Wildcats (3-5) who really showed their weakness in last week's loss to Xavier. But Kentucky's "Thin 30" has battled some of the top teams in the south on almost even terms this fall and could be up again. This will be Kentucky's last game but Tennessee still has Vanderbilt ahead.

Auburn (4-3) is on the rebound after back-to-back losses to Florida and Georgia. The Tigers have one of the south's most impressive offenses but questionable defense. Florida State (4-3-1) is a tough independent seeking membership in the SEC. Until last week's loss to Florida, the Seminoles had a win (Georgia) and two ties (Kentucky and Georgia Tech) to show for three attacks on the SEC.

Packers Still Team To Beat In West Loop

DETROIT (UPI)—The bubble of perfection guarded so dearly by the mighty Green Bay Packers finally has burst. But don't count Vince Lombardi's charges out yet.

If, as Lombardi suggests, their 26-14 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Lions Thursday was good medicine, they could make short work of the dwindling National Football League season.

"I don't think anyone expected us to go undefeated, including me," Lombardi said after the nationally televised beating.

"But I think this loss will make us a better team. We're still in first place. The object in this league is not to win them all, but to finish first."

The Packers, riding an 18-game winning streak that included six exhibitions, hoped to clinch a share of their third straight Western Division title before an overflow Tiger Stadium crowd of 57,386—second largest Detroit football throng in history. It wasn't that easy, and the defense-minded Lions still feel it is possible to creep in through the back door.

The defeat left the Packers with a 10-1 record and only three games left—two with the Los Angeles Rams and one with the San Francisco Forty-Niners. The Lions are 6-2 and must meet the Baltimore Colts, Chicago Bears and Minnesota Vikings.

Patriots Rated AFL Favorite

By United Press International

The Boston Patriots, still involved in a tight race for the championship of the Eastern Division, are four-point favorites to down the Buffalo Bills in their American Football League clash Friday night.

In Sunday's games, Houston (7-3), which paces the division, plays the San Diego Chargers (3-7) at Houston and Dallas (4-3) entertains Oakland (0-10). The San Diego-Houston Oiler game will be televised (ABC) nationally.

Dallas is a 20-point favorite and Houston is a 13-point favorite.

Boston (6-3-1) is handicapped by the loss of quarterback Babe Parilli for the remainder of the season.

Pilot District Officer Honored At Dinner Meeting

Miss Betty Joan Boone of Daytona Beach, first assistant and governor of District Four, paid an official visit to the Pilot Club of Sanford when she was at the Capt. restaurant.

In addition to members attending the dinner two Anchor Club members were invited to meet the Lt. Governor. They were Linda Williams, Anchor Club president, and Jerry District.

Pilots attending the dinner were Mrs. John Lamberton, club president; Miss Janet Smith, Mrs. David Gatchel, Mrs. P. J. Westgate, Mrs. Joan Field, Mrs. R. M. Bell, Miss Bonnie Stecher, Mrs. H. W. Boone, Mrs. Richard Elam, Mrs. M. E. Ferguson, Mrs. J. H. Hodge, Mrs. G. A. Stine, Mrs. Jerry Ferguson, Mrs. H. A. Swanson, Miss Etile Farley and Mrs. E. K. Chapman.

Following the dinner, the regular meeting was held in the Florida State Bank Building. Mrs. Boone gave an interesting and inspiring talk stressing the fact that a club can always do a little more for the community.

During the business session, it was voted to have a float in the Christmas parade and to ring the bells one day, during the Christmas season, for the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Gatchel gave a report on the Holiday dance, the club is sponsoring Nov. 25 at the Mayfair Inn. Music for dancing will be provided by Tommy Allen and his New York Band. Tickets are available from any member of the club, the Florida State Bank, Roumilat and Anderson's or at the door.

The middle-aged only make themselves ridiculous when they try a dance like the twist.

Pilot Club Sponsoring Benefit Dance

Mrs. David Gatchel, chairman of the Holiday-Time Dance, which the Pilot Club is sponsoring, announced that final plans are being made for the event for Wednesday night, at the Mayfair Inn.

The dance which scheduled from 9 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. will feature melodies for dancing by Tommy Allen's New York Orchestra. Star vocalist will be Jeanne Carroll.

Proceeds from the dance will be added to the Pilot Club's milk fund. The club is now donating milk to four elementary schools for needy children as well as to various families in the area. Mrs. B. E. Chapman is chairman of the milk fund.

Tickets for the pre-holiday dance, the first rule season social to be held in the city, are currently on sale at the Mayfair Inn, The Florida State Bank, Touchtons and Roumilat and Anderson's. Dress is optional and reservations are not necessary.

Home Club Hears Program

Twenty-five members attended the November meeting of the Sanford Home Demonstration Club, when they met at the home of Mrs. E. C. Wright on Melonville Ave.

Guest speaker for the day was Elmer Wotensay from Yowell's, using as his topic "Selection of Clothing." He suggested that buying reliable brands of garments was the best policy. Seam allowances should be checked in ready made clothes and instructions should be read on how to care for them.

Woolite or other water soap was suggested as a great help in laundering garments. He also reminded the group that it was more economical to have one good looking dress than two poorly fitting ones.

Tenth Birthday Celebrated At Party With Playmates

Miss Janice Kay Baggerly celebrated her tenth birthday with a party Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baggerly, 216 Virginia Ave.

Her mother and older sister, Caroline, were co-hostesses for the fun filled afternoon with a group of friends. The guests began arriving early in the afternoon and enjoyed playing records and indoor and outdoor games. Cheryl Scudder won the award for pinning the tail on the donkey.

Color slides of the festivities were made and after singing "Happy Birthday" to Janice, the guests helped her open her gifts.

A color scheme of pink and silver was carried out in decorations. The dining table was overlaid with a white cut-work linen cloth over pink linen and centered with a pink and silver birthday cake, topped with 10 pink candles and asparagus fern and pink swans. Pink lemonade was served with the cake.

Others joining in the celebration were Geri Green, Susan and Pam Swain, David Wall, Marilyn Rudd, Pam King, Mary Ellen Van Dyne, Janet and Susan Gallagher, Kathy Ross and Edith Walker. Cindy Stringfield, Lee Wilkinson, Roy Wright, Lynn Stanley, Susan and Krisay Spotts and Kay's brother, Tommy, and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grineger.

Mrs. White Honored At Birthday Dinner

Mrs. J. St. Clair White was guest of honor recently when her family arranged a dinner and party at the MQ Ranch in celebration of her birthday.

Mrs. White, wearing a pink and white carnation corsage, a gift from the group, enjoyed a dinner including a special birthday cake adorned with candles and cowboys on the top.

Those enjoying the event with the honoree were Dr. and Mrs. W. W. White and children, Kay, Anne, Tripp, Kathy and Marmee; Mrs. R. E. Pearce, Steve and Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair White Jr. and Johnny, Janie and David, and a guest, Shirley Stump.

Following the dinner, the guests toured the ranch, rode the horses down the trails and visited with each other.

DeBary Couple Visits Hawaii

By Mrs. Adam Muller

Mr. and Mrs. William Reich who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home on Hibiscus Drive, in DeBary, have returned from an interesting trip to Hawaii.

They went to San Francisco, stopping at Atlanta, Chicago and Des Moines to visit friends enroute to the coast. Before boarding the beautiful Lurline they went through Donner Pass and toured points of interest in Salt Lake City.

They had dinner on the ship with two women from Orlando and Winter Park. The Reichs were surprised with a large anniversary cake while attending the Captain's party, aboard ship.

Touring the islands, they lunched at the Surf and Sand and enjoyed a buffet luncheon Hawaiian style. During a plane ride, the pilot flew inside a crater. Other places visited included the National Memorial Cemetery and Ernie Pyle's grave.

At the Fern Gratio, Hawaiian entertainers played the wedding march and sang songs for their party. On the return trip they flew to Los Angeles and took a bus back to DeBary.

Theta Epsilon Sorority Members Observe Pledge And Jewel Rituals

Sorority Working On Parade Float

Mrs. Bob Morris and Miss Grace Marie Kinschper were co-hostesses for the regular meeting of the Theta Xi Chapter of Theta Sigma Phi at the Morris home, in Ocoon.

Mrs. Gary Hudgins reported that the busy season of the year was well underway and asked that votes should be paid for in cash, no checks please.

Members brought home for a Thanksgiving basket to be given to a family that the sorority assists from time to time. Mrs. Jim Lyons reported that final plans are being made for the Christmas parade float and a work night has been scheduled for this Saturday. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Morris presented the program on the "Art of Dress." An open discussion was held on the psychology of dress, followed by a question and answer period.

Others attending were Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. Ernie Morris, Mrs. S. O. Dorminy, Mrs. Alvin Kipstrick, Mrs. Robert Reeves and Mrs. Bob Wass.

Theta Epsilon Sorority Members Observe Pledge And Jewel Rituals

Members of the Theta Epsilon Sorority observed the Pledge Ritual and Jewel Ritual at the Capt. Restaurant for the November social. The south dining room was reserved for the group and the head table was decorated with a floral arrangement of fall flowers.

A delicious steak dinner was served, after which the couples enjoyed dancing during the evening. Couples attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cahill.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Al Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Art Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Houghton.

Proceeding the dinner, the Pledge Ritual was given for Mrs. Cahill and Mrs. Peacock and the Ritual of Jewels was held for Mrs. Davis, following the dinner.

At a previous business meeting at the home of Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. Stuart Nelson was appointed treasurer and Mrs. Lee was named corresponding secretary. Both offices were to replace vacancies by resignations of Mrs. Burt Revels and Mrs. Cameron Lawrence, who are now on the inactive list.

Food was brought to the meeting for Thanksgiving baskets to be given to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy families. An interesting program was presented on the "art of dress," by Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Houghton. Sketches, drawn by Mrs. Houghton, were displayed illustrating the various types of dress worn down through the ages.

Does To Elect New Officers Monday Night

The Sanford Drove 160 BPO Does will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at the Elks Club. Members are urged to make a special effort to attend as new officers will be elected for the coming year. Following the business session, a social hour will be held.

Garden Circles

By Mrs. James Traut Of The Rose Circle

Because of the current interest in rock gardens, it seems a good time to discuss cacti and succulents — those ideal rock garden plants.

All cacti are succulents, but not all succulents are cacti. Succulents are divided into two distinct classes of plants that have different ways of overcoming a water deficiency.

The first group is the water storing succulent — the cacti. They vary in growth habits from small globular growths in the ground, and climbing vines, to erect tree-like plants. Some bear edible fruit and others produce beautiful flowers, both night blooming and day blooming. No plant demands as much light as cacti. If grown indoors keep them away from any room where gas is used, as they are extremely sensitive to gas fumes.

The second group is the drought-resistant succulents. This group has become adapted to the lack of water by reduction of leaf surface, and sometimes even leaflessness. Some look as though they had been waxed and polished, while others are covered with a powdery substance to protect them from the sun. The yucca and agave are of this group. These drought-resistant plants are best used as accent plants in rock gardens or landscaping, as most of them need a good deal of space to grow.

Perfect drainage is a must for the successful growing of cacti and succulents. They must not be over-watered, especially in winter, their dormant period. Propagation of most cacti and succulents is from seeds, cuttings, grafting, and self-offs.

Do have an aloe plant in the house near your kitchen stove. The "juice" from a piece of this succulent is a wonderful healing agent for burns.

REMEROCALLIS CIRCLE The Remerocallis Circle met at the home of Mrs. Watson Reel for the November meeting with Mrs. Carl Moss as co-hostess.

Mrs. Robert Martin, president, discussed plans for the bazaar and appointed workers from the circle. Mrs. Robert Zitrower gave a short talk on horticulture and Mrs. Ralph Jarvis reported on the junior gardening work.

A workshop was conducted with Mrs. Moss displaying some interesting Christmas decorations made from materials found in and around the home. Mrs. Martin demonstrated how to make a Christmas tree from nylon net. A wreath was also made from a coat hanger and nylon net.

Mrs. Michael Csolo gave a demonstration on flower arranging. At the close of the workshop, a social hour was enjoyed and a plant sale held among the members.

IVY CIRCLE Ivy Circle members of the Sanford Garden Club held the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Osborne Dorminey, on Forest Drive, with Mrs. Wendell Hirt as co-hostess.

The program entitled "Christmas Workshop of 1962" was presented by Mrs. J. P. Cullen. She displayed several original holiday arrangements and explained the construction. Included in the display was a marshmallow Christmas tree and a gold framed Madonnas.

The December meeting will meet with Mrs. W. L. Meredith, 408 Beth Drive, and a special program on orchids will be presented.

It is better to confess that you can't remember a person's name than to neglect to make an introduction when one is called for.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of an arrangement like this? I am in my seventies and I have a lady friend who is in her fifties. She agreed to marry me if I signed over my insurance policies to her. But she will live with her married daughter and I will live with my married son. What do you think?

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow (40) and I go with a very respectable man (44). We are in love and have been for three years. His wife has been in an institution for nearly ten years. She is incurable. He can get a divorce but he isn't sure it would be right. There are no children involved as his are married (I don't approve of me) and I have none. Neither of us is pushing, for we both understand the situation. What should we do?

DEAR PATIENCE: I happen to believe that marriage is forever. He took his wife in sickness and in health. This is sickness, and what is "incurable" today may be "curable" tomorrow. This is a decision YOU will have to make yourselves.

DEAR UNSETTLED: I think your "lady friend" is fishing for security with some pretty old bait. I don't advise teen-agers to "go steady," but in your case I recommend it.

DEAR ABBY: I am an 11-year-old girl. My mother is very good to me and I love her very much. But there's one problem. She likes to sleep late on Saturday mornings. Whenever one of my friends calls me on the phone before 9:00 a.m., my mother has a fit. She yells at me and tells me to tell my friends not to call so early. Recently my best friend called at 8:30 and woke my mother up. She really got mad and told me if that girl ever called that early again I could have nothing to do with her. I never told my friend that because I don't want rumors going around that my mother is mean. But I am afraid my friend will call early again. Then what will I do?

DEAR NEEDS: Tell your friend what you think of an arrangement like this? I am in my seventies and I have a lady friend who is in her fifties. She agreed to marry me if I signed over my insurance policies to her. But she will live with her married daughter and I will live with my married son. What do you think?

LETTIE BARLEY

STOP

WAAH

HOW DID YOU GET THE STOP SIGN WHEN HE BACKED INTO YOU, GENERAL?

MONTY MEEKLE

OH, BOY! TODAY'S THE DAY WE GET CHIPS BACK FROM THE OCCURRENCE SCHOOL.

HES BEEN THERE A WHOLE WEEK. THINK HE LEARNED A LOT, POP?

WELL, SOON FIND OUT, SON.

LET'S FACE IT... SOME MANS IT AND SOME DONT.

PRICILLA POP

COME IN, PRICILLA! I'VE GOT GOOD NEWS!

SEE? I'VE BEEN BEATIFIED IN A CONCERTO!

HE ONLY WROTE ONE, CU!

THAT IS GOOD NEWS!

BLONDIE

HERE - HOLD HARRIET WHILE I STIR THE STEW.

I HOPE HARRIET'S HUSBAND WON'T HEAR ABOUT ME HOLDING HER.

CAPTAIN EASY

WHY? YOU AND MRS. GIBBY ARE THE ONLY TWO IN ALABAMA WHO ARE HANGING ON FOR PROGRESS AND FOR PROGRESS TO THE ROSS!

JUST WHAT DO YOU DO ON THE STRIP?

WELL, I READ UP THE STRIP... LATER THE STRIP... SOME OF THE STRIP... PUT ON COPIES...

HOW DO YOU... I'VE GOT TO GO... I'VE GOT TO GO... I'VE GOT TO GO...

WE'VE FOUND NOTHING YET, BUT DON'T LEAVE TOWN TILL WE STUDY THIS CLOSER - AND CHECK ON YOU BOTH.

FRECKLES AND FRIENDS

LARD THOUGHT HE HAD A GOOD IDEA FOR EXTRA PROTECTION DURING PRACTICE!

YEAR!

I GUESS HE DIDNT FIGURE ON THIS RAIN!

OTHERWISE IT MIGHTVE WORKED.

PUTTING SPONGES UNDER HIS SHOULDER PADS!

ALLEY OOP

WELL, THERE GOES TH LITTLE OL KITTY CAT I ALMOST HAD FOR BREAKFAST.

BUT NO MATTER! I COULDNT GET A LITTLE OL KITTEN CAT NOWHW!

AT LEAST NOT ONE AS PRETTY AS HE WAS!

BEN CASEY

BEGINS MONDAY, NOV. 26

WATCH FOR OUR NEW STORY STRIP IN THIS SPACE

DR. MAGGIE GRAHAM

YEAH, MAN... YOU'RE A STRONG ONE, DOC! WHAT WEIGHT YOU FIGHT IN?

THE PHANTOM

AS THE STRANGE FIGURE LEAPS UPON THEM--

HE HAS A MOMENT OF HELP--

THEY NAVIGATE THE THREE SOLDIERS HIMSELF!

WHO IS THAT GUY? I DONT KNOW, BUT I'M GLAD HE'S ON OUR SIDE! WOW!

TANKS, COOKS, HES!

IS IT STILL RAINING OUT?

I TANK SO, SIR, HES!

WERE ASSIGNING YOU BACK TO THE FOOT TROOP ZERO

TAKE A DEEP BREATH AND HOLD IT.

CHAS. A. CROWN M.D.

RAISE THOSE ARMS HIGHER-- FLEX THAT LEFT KNEE A BIT.

CHAS. A. CROWN M.D.

FINE, FINE! OKAY, THAT DOES IT.

CHAS. A. CROWN M.D.

WORK ON THOSE POINTERS I GAVE YOU, DOC, AND I THINK YOU'LL SEE A BIG IMPROVEMENT IN YOUR GOLF SWING.

NO KIDDING!

THAT'S WHAT IT SAYS.

EVERY YEAR WE EAT ENGLISH HOT DOGS TO REACH FROM HERE TO THE MOON!

THEN WHY IS IT SO HARD TO PUT A MAN UP THERE?

DAGWOOD-- WHY DID YOU SET THE ALARM FOR ONE A.M.?

WHO'D EVER THINK TO TURN OUT TO BE A TELEVISION WIDOW?

RIGHT, THE FBI GARS THEY GAINED TO RECEIVE THE DATA AT THE RATE OF ABOUT THREE HUNDREDS BACK DAY!

BASH, DIDNT YOU SAY THE COB WAS USED BY THE SPES WAS A SERIES OF NUMBERS?

LOOK AT TODAY'S STRIP. THE ONLY NUMBER IN IT IS THE DATE UNDER MY SIGNATURE!

YEAH, I DONT SEE HOW ANYONE COULD HOPE THOSE 3 AND 4 DIGIT NUMBERS IN A STRIP EACH DAY AS THE FBI SUSPECTS!

NO, THEY'RE PLAIN LOCAL! ABOUT IT, BUT PROBLEMS PEO INTO A COMPUTER? I WANTA SHOW IT IN THIS STRIP!

DUMMO MACE ABOUT IT, BUT I'LL SHOW YOU HOW DEVELOPP ONCE EXPLAINED IT TO ME!

DADDY SAYS HE'S NEVER GOING TO THROW YOU OUT THE FRONT DOOR AGAIN!

GREAT!

NO MATTER HOW LATE YOU STAY!

SWELL!

BUT WHAT ABOUT THE BACK DOOR?

THATS A GOOD QUESTION!

WELL, THERE GOES TH LITTLE OL KITTY CAT I ALMOST HAD FOR BREAKFAST.

BUT HE DONT WANT ANY PART OF ME, THAT'S FOR SURE!

PURRRRRRRRRRR

WHAT TH...?

DR. BEN CASEY-- BRIGHT YOUNG NEUROLOGIST WHOSE IDEALISTIC INDIVIDUALISM OFTEN TOUCHES OFF CONTROVERSY.

DR. MAGGIE GRAHAM-- A PRETTY AMBETHIST WHOSE LOVE FOR BEN MUST TAKE SECOND PLACE TO THE YOUNG SURGEON'S DEDICATION TO HIS MEDICAL CAREER.

DR. DAVID ZORBA-- CHIEF OF NEUROLOGICAL SERVICES, TAKES A FATHERLY INTEREST IN BEN'S PROFESSIONAL AND PERSONAL LIFE.

DR. TED HOFFMAN-- RESIDENT IN NEUROLOGY AT COUNTY GENERAL HOSPITAL, AND BEN'S CLOSE FRIEND.

THESE MEN WERE AFTER US?

SASABU'S MEN, THEY SHOT DOWN YOUR COPTER! THEY WERE TRYING TO FINISH THE JOB-- YOU!

ER-- WHO ARE YOU?

A FRIEND OF THE U.S. MEDICAL TEAM YOU CAME TO RESCUE.

DO YOU SEE OUR COPTER?

WE'RE A GREAT RESCUE TEAM. NOW WHAT?

FINISH YOUR MISSION.

WITH THAT?

Kennedy Asked To Make Cold War Concessions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Communist diplomats here are busy spreading the word that President Kennedy should make some cold war concessions in return for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's withdrawal from Cuba.

They took to talks with their counterparts and envoys of that Khrushchev's removal of offensive weapons from Cuba was a contribution to world peace which calls for some similar action somewhere by the United States.

"This has been, but parallel campaign is assumed by authorities here to be the beginning of an all-out 'peace offensive' which Khrushchev is expected to launch as soon as the current Communist Party Central Committee meeting in Moscow has reviewed the world situation period.

Such an offensive presumably would be designed to regain some of the neutralist support Khrushchev lost in the Cuban affair and possibly new some discord among Western Allies who differ in varying degrees on just how far to go in trying to negotiate diplomatic settlements of critical East-West issues.

The public diplomatic campaign by Communist envoys here overlooks the fact that there would have been no threat of nuclear war over Cuba in the first place if Khrushchev had not placed long-range missiles and bombers in the heart of the Western hemisphere just off the American coast.

Nevertheless, it is on the record that Kennedy agreed in his October exchange of letters with Khrushchev to intensify efforts on disarmament and other major issues if the Russians ended the nuclear threat from Cuba. The President reaffirmed the hope at his Tuesday news conference that settlement of the Cuban issue would open the way for progress on other problems.

Anything else he may have suggested in communications to the Soviet leader which are as yet unpublished is not known.

CUBAN SUGAR
One planting of sugar cane in Cuba yields between four and eight crops a year, while a set of canes will yield only one crop annually in other parts of the world.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VRESHEL
A FEW SHOTS IN THE DARK...

Francis Scummitt Jr. will probably be the next president of the Chamber of Commerce... Hunt Co. plant will be finished by Jan. 15... Further plans call for a shopping center as well as 60 unit apartment house development... New phone books coming out in February... will be green covered and twice as big... The post office has received a letter going to Santa. It was embroidered with the prettiest ribbon you ever did see.

The County Home committee will ask the County Commission tomorrow to farm out those old folks at the county home. Will throw on construction of any nursing home facility... Emphasis will be that nursing home regulations are so strict most counties can't cope with them.

LETTER CARRIERS, formerly working from the post office annex on Second St. are now operating out of the new post office on the lakefront. The men, working voluntarily over the weekend, moved equipment to be ready for today's delivery, with some of the carrier's wives also lending a helping hand. It is expected that all other postal equipment will be moved in next weekend. Photo shows Carriers Clifford Wynn and Gordon Honeycutt putting names on letter boxes. (Herald Photos)

Knowles To Ask First St. Library

City Manager W. E. Knowles will ask the City Commission tonight to take over the vacant post office building on First St. and utilize it for a new Municipal Library.

Knowles stressed the space at the library is being used at the ultimate now. If the city doesn't acquire the facility, the General Services Administration reported it would be turned over to the school board to use for administrative purposes.

Municipal Vote Deadline Ends

The weekend deadline for candidates to qualify for next week's municipal elections in Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Longwood and Oviedo brought only one last minute entry as incumbent Mayor Carl Stoddard of Casselberry filed for re-election just under Friday's closing date.

Elections will be set and dried affairs in Altamonte and Oviedo where none of the candidates have opposition. Running for council in Altamonte are Gene R. Stephenson for ward three and Stuart D. Fritch for ward four. In Oviedo incumbents Ben Jones, W. R. Clonta and W. H. Martin were the only men to come out.

Jeep Overturns; Four Escape

Five local youngsters were involved in an accident Friday afternoon about 2:30 when the jeep in which they were riding overturned at the corner of Mellonville and Cornwall Rds. The boys had been hunting and were returning to their homes when Kenneth Gustavson, 18, 2422 Holly Ave., who was driving the vehicle, attempted to negotiate the corner.

Cordell Honored By JFK

President John F. Kennedy honored the memory of the late Capt. Terry Cordell when he sent a personal letter to Cordell's widow, Susan, last week.

The letter: The White House Washington Dear Mrs. Cordell: It was with deep regret that I learned of the death of your husband, Captain Terry D. Cordell, United States Army, who died in a combat operation in Viet Nam when the aircraft he was aboard was shot down by hostile fire.

From the time that he was designated a "Distinguished Military Student" at The Citadel to his recent assignment with the 1st Special Forces he exhibited outstanding professional skill, leadership and devotion to duty. His many fine qualities won for him the respect and admiration of both his brother officers and the soldiers with whom he served.

I realize words cannot lessen the heartache suffered by you in the loss of your husband. It is my hope that the knowledge of your husband's devoted service to our country will be a source of comfort and pride to you and, in later years, to your daughter. His noble sacrifice is attested to by the award of the Purple Heart from a grateful nation.

Mrs. Kennedy joins me in extending our heartfelt sympathy to you and Judith in your tragic loss. Sincerely, J. F. Kennedy

2 Oil Companies May Locate Here

Murray Hey, vice president of the Hunt Oil Co., Dallas, told the Herald today that two of the world's largest petroleum companies are interested in securing sites at the Hunt Industrial park, and said there are two other, nationally known concerns that have expressed an interest in locations here.

In a telephone conversation today Hey said his company was very disappointed and surprised, that the Frito-Lay people made the decision on the Orange County site.

Hey feels that the possible choice had narrowed down to Orlando or Sanford and the Orange County location was selected because of the existing facilities there, rather than having to depend on the construction and installation of suitable equipment here.

However, Hey does not expect any building in the immediate future and he is not sure that the deal has been closed as yet for the Orlando industrial site.

Frito Official Explains Move

The decision of Frito-Lay not to locate in the Sanford area was based in part that the company was "not confident future Sanford officials would be in a position to honor commitments made by the present board," W. E. Freeman, vice president of the company said today.

"The decision to locate our plant in Orlando was based on future growth requirements of the company. We are not confident future Sanford City officials would be in a position to honor commitments made by the present Board," Freeman said.

"The Frito-Lay Company does not want to be a burden on any community. In the opinion of the officials of my company, Frito-Lay would be more secure in Orlando," he added.

Freeman continued by expressing his sincere thanks and appreciation to the Sanford City officials for their interest and fine cooperation in all negotiations, and regrets that the decision did not favor the Sanford location.

Shocked, City Official Says

The decision of the Frito-Lay Corp., of Dallas, Texas, to purchase an industrial site at an Orange County industrial park for their proposed new plant, came as a surprise and a "disappointment" to Sanford city officials who had been trying to influence the potato chip firm in a Sanford location.

Sanford Mayor Jimmy Crapps said, "We had been given to understand by W.E. Freeman, vice president of Frito-Lay, that the company would make no decision on a future Central Florida location before next year, and for that reason we decided to lay low and not run them in to the ground. We were very disappointed to learn that the company had made a decision without any further conversations with us."

Deputies Hunt Negro Assailant

Deputies today are hunting for a Hookertown Negro in connection with a series of stabbings in the area Sunday night, the Sheriff's office said.

The Negro was identified as George Fisher. He is accused of stabbing W. Campbell in the chest after an argument and also knifing Campbell's sister.

Campbell is reported in satisfactory condition at Seminole Memorial Hospital today.
