JUNE

- 2 — President Reagan arrives in France to begin nine-day series of summit meetings.
- 6 — Israel invades Lebanon.
- 14 — Argentine forces in the Falklands surrender to the British.
- 19 — The nation's largest anti-nuclear protest, estimated at one-half million, held in New York City.
- 21 — John W. Hinckley Jr. found not guilty by reason of insanity of 13 charges of shooting President Reagan and others on March 30, 1981.
- 21 — Royal heir, Prince William, born to Prince and Princess of Wales.
- 25 — Alexander M. Haig resigns as secretary of state.
- 30 — Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution fails, three short of 35 states needed for ratification.

(Tomorrow, we'll recall the tragic, the crash of a jetliner in New Orleans which killed 153 people; the titillating, a sex and drugs scandal involving congressmen and teenage pages; and the frightening, an outbreak of poisonings by cyanide-filled Tylenol capsules in the Chicago area. And it will all be accompanied by some of the most amusing and provocative editorial cartoons which graced the pages of newspapers nationwide in 1982.)

Overtown A Frightening Reminder Of Liberty City

MIAMI (UPI) — The night of rioting in the black Overtown ghetto Tuesday was a frightening reminder of the bloody disturbances two years ago in nearby Liberty City.

In three days and two nights of racial rioting in May 1980, 18 people died and 116 businesses were looted and burned. The final price tag in property damage surpassed $100 million.

'Even now, two years after the violent civil disturbances, that sense of powerlessness remains. In the booming local economy, as the memory of the civil disorders recedes, the interest, activities and concern for the black community fades away.'

—Civil Rights Commission report

The Liberty City riots, like the rioting just 2 miles away in Overtown Tuesday, were sparked by what some people in the black community perceived as brutality against a black by white police officers.

On May 17, 1980, four white policemen were acquitted by an all-white jury in Tampa of the beating death of black businessman Arthur McDuffie. McDuffie was killed four months before when the patrolmen caught him after a high-speed chase through Miami streets.

McDuffie had been speeding on a motorcycle.

Just hours after news of the acquittal hit the airwaves, hundreds of blacks flooded Liberty City streets, randomly attacking businesses and white motorists passing through the area.

The riots were blamed specifically on the McDuffie acquittal, but civic leaders said the 30 percent-plus unemployment rate among blacks in Miami's ghettos was the real cause.

The Overtown violence was triggered by what police described as an accidental shooting of a young black man in a video arcade.

While the scope of Tuesday night's disturbance was far smaller than the Liberty City riots — 35-square blocks versus 9-square miles — a U.S. Civil Rights Commission report issued earlier this year said the social causes underlying the unrest remained.

The study, released in June, blamed the Liberty City riots on the failure of every level of government and civic establishment to meet the needs of local blacks.

The report noted a lack of opportunities for vocational training, that nearby highway renewal had pushed aside black housing and that federal funds were misused to build sewers and streets instead of stimulating the development of black business — all leading to a feeling of "powerlessness" among blacks.

"Even now, two years after the violent civil disturbances, that sense of powerlessness remains," the report said. "In the booming local economy, as the memory of the civil disorders recedes, the interest, activities and concern for the black community fades away."

Floridians Happier Now Than This Time Last Year

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Floridians are happier about their personal lives now than they were at the beginning of the year, but they are not as pleased with President Reagan, according to an opinion poll released Tuesday.

The poll, released by MGT of America Inc. following interviews with 652 Floridians between Dec. 11 and Dec. 16, said 39 percent of the people questioned said they were "very satisfied" with their personal lives.

In March, when the poll began, only 34 percent said they were "very satisfied." Another 48 percent in the December poll said they were "more or less satisfied" while only 13 percent said they were "not at all satisfied."

People with annual incomes of more than $25,000 were more likely to say they were "very satisfied" than people with incomes below $15,000, the poll said.

The poll said people who describe themselves as liberal are the most dissatisfied group, with 25 percent saying they were "not at all satisfied."

A near majority, 47 percent, said they are optimistic that the national economy will improve next year, and 55 percent said believe the state economy will improve.

Reagan did not fare as well. His approval rating for December dropped to 55 percent, his lowest mark of the year. Forty-five percent disapproved of the way he has done his job. Reagan reached his high in the MGT poll in June with an approval rating of 65 percent. The poll noted sharp differences in the way women and minorities grade his job performance. Only 44 percent of the blacks, hispanics and other minorities questioned in December approved of Reagan while 56 percent disapproved. Among women, 51 percent approved and 49 percent disapproved. Reagan's marks were higher among men, who gave him a 60 percent approval rating.

Mountaineers Seek Prominence Against Florida State Tonight

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Coach Don Nehlen says his West Virginia Mountaineers, ranked ninth in the nation and owners of a shiny 9-2 record, still have a ways to go before reaching the land of national prominence.

Nehlen hopes his club can take a giant step toward that end against 20th-ranked Florida State, 8-3, in the 38th annual Gator Bowl Thursday night.

"I think we need the game more," said Nehlen, in his third year at West Virginia. "I could see us moving up as high as No. 6-7-8 in the polls if we win."

"But even though we're ranked ninth, I don't feel comfortable about our program," said Nehlen, whose Mountaineers whipped the Seminoles' cross-state rival Florida 26-6 in last year's Peach Bowl.

"We need to get better on the little things. The teams who are up there in the rankings every year do all the little things well. We're improving, but we're nowhere near home free."

Florida State Coach Bobby Bowden served as West Virginia's head coach for six years and will be coaching against his old team for the first time since going to Tallahassee in 1976.

College Football

"I suppose West Virginia has more to play for being that they're in the Top 10, and we couldn't get that high even if we won," said Bowden. "The main thing for us is that we just need to win. Not for any particular reason than just to get a win."

Bowden classifies the Gator Bowl foes as "two hungry teams, not rich in football tradition but making strides ... two teams on the verge who want the status of the Oklahomas, Alabamas, Nebraskas and Notre Dames."

West Virginia, which opened the season with a stunning 41-27 victory at Oklahoma and lost only to sixth-ranked Pittsburgh and second-ranked Penn State, features quarterback Jeff Hosteller and a staunch defense led by a pair of senior linebackers — All-America Darryl Talley and Dennis Fowlkes.

The 6-foot-4, 220-pound Talley is affectionately called "Mr. Outside" by West Virginia faithful. He holds the school record for career tackles. Fowlkes, a 6-2, 230-pounder, was second to Talley in tackles this season and is nicknamed "Mr. Inside." The two anchored a Mountaineer defense that limited opponents to an average of 13 points a game.

The Seminoles, losers of their last two regular-season games, are trying to avoid the fate that befell them last year: three consecutive losses at the end of the season.

"That doesn't bother me because we came back from last year's three losses by winning eight of our first nine this year," said Bowden, whose club was clubbed 55-21 by 13th-ranked Louisiana State and then lost 13-10 to Florida to end the regular season.

Bowden will be counting on the stars of the Seminoles' bigplay offense against his old team: quarterbacks Kelly Lowrey and Blair Williams and running backs Greg Allen and Ricky Williams.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Bluebonnet Victory Could Salve Wounds, Says Wilber

HOUSTON (UPI) — Florida defensive end Wilber Marshall says winning will salve recent wounds — many to his pride.

Arkansas quarterback Tom Jones, the brother of pro quarterback Bert Jones, says a victory would give him a needed personal boost.

Running back Gary Anderson of Arkansas said he would like to quiet vocal Razorback fans who think the team is a choker.

There is no national championship or any other title at stake in the 24th Bluebonnet Bowl Friday night, but the outcome is important to a variety of people for almost as many reasons.

Arkansas, 12th-ranked, is less than a touchdown favorite to beat the 19th-ranked Gators.

All-America defensive end Marshall on Wednesday said Florida needed to regain its image as one of the top teams.

That image slipped away in an embarrassing 26-6 Peach Bowl loss to West Virginia last year and in a mid-season collapse this year. Between the two, the Gators were touted as national championship material and their quarterback was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated.

"Our minds are set on what we are doing here," Marshall said. "You look back at that (Peach Bowl) and remember it."

Marshall also was stung recently by comments of Florida State coach Bobby Bowden that he was not a true All-America-caliber player.

"I don't listen to Bobby Bowden," Marshall said. "I listen to the opinion of my coaches."

Sixers Top Mavericks in OT

United Press International

The 76ers' Texas trip lasted a bit longer than expected, but Philadelphia left the Lone Star State happy.

"All I know is, it's nice to leave Texas with three wins," said Philadelphia Coach Billy Cunningham, after his 76ers' 126-116 overtime victory over the Mavericks Wednesday night in Dallas.

Andrew Toney helped the 76ers improve their NBA-leading record to 24-5 with 36 points and center Moses Malone added 30 points and 24 rebounds.

But after Dallas' Brad Davis sent the game into overtime with a 3-point jump shot at the buzzer of regulation, Philadelphia's defense went to work. Philadelphia scored the first 10 points in overtime and the Mavericks hit just 2-of-11 shots.

In other games, New Jersey trimmed Atlanta, 104-99, Washington clipped Milwaukee, 94-87, New York nipped Cleveland, 91-87, San Antonio trimmed San Diego, 124-115, Seattle clubbed Utah, 109-92, and Los Angeles topped Golden State, 120-110.

Canadians, Maple Leafs Tie

United Press International

Overconfidence, in the words of Montreal Canadiens Coach Bob Berry is "just stupid." Especially when the team hasn't won in its last five times out.

The Canadiens came out of a home-and-home series with the lowly Toronto Maple Leafs without a victory. The teams skated to a 4-4 tie at the Montreal Forum Tuesday night and the Maple Leafs scored a 6-5 win in Toronto Wednesday night to extend the Canadiens' winless streak to five games.

Rick Vaive and left wing Walt Poddubny each scored two goals to give the Maple Leafs only their sixth win of the season. Montreal, 20-10-8, has slipped two points behind firstplace Boston in the Adams Division.

"Anyone that was overconfident in our dressing room before the game was just stupid," said Berry. "We are struggling and I really don't know what the answer is. Obviously I am worried."

Toronto Coach Mike Nykoluk said the return of injured defenseman Borje Salming two days ago has lifted the club.

In other games, St. Louis nipped Pittsburgh, 6-5, Minnesota and Detroit tied, 5-5, Chicago topped Edmonton, 6-4, and Winnipeg edged Los Angeles, 4-3.

Carr Leads Tip Top Win

Tip-Top Supermarket got a 25 point performance from Tarance Carr en route to a 61-8 trouncing of First Federal in Sanford Recreation Department Junior League Basketball action.

Sammy Edwards added 18 points and Ronald Colfield chipped in 13 for Tip-Top whose record now stands at 3-1. First Federal was led by Derrick Hagen's six points and its record fell to 0-3.

In other action, Anthony Harris tossed in 13 points to lead Atlantic Bank over McCoy's Cleaners, 24-18. Dwight Brinson had 12 points for McCoy's. Atlantic Bank now stands at 3-1 while McCoy's is also 3-1.

There will be an international potluck dinner starting at 6:30 p.m. followed by a business meeting at 7:30. The program will include a speaker from an emerging Third World nation.

Each person attending should bring one international dish and table service for one. Members, prospective members and guests are encouraged to attend. For information call 862-8661 or 869-7364.

Cheerleading Competition

The 1983 Florida State Fair Championship Cheerleading contest will be held on Sunday, Feb. 6, beginning at 9:30 a.m. The contest is open to students graduating in 1983 or after and contestants can be male or female. High Schools are encouraged to enter their varsity units consisting of at least four members.

There is no entry fee, and forms can be obtained by writing to the Florida State Fair, Box 11766, Tampa, Fla. 33680 or by calling 813-621-7821 for details.

Merritt Island High School Mustangs were the 1982 Florida State Fair Champions. Entry deadline for 1983 is Jan. 7.

Longwood Club To Meet

The Longwood Women's Club will take a trip to Lake Buena Vista for the January meeting. Members are asked to meet at the club building, 150 W. Church Ave., at 9:30 a.m. on Jan. 4. There will be transportation available for those who need a ride.

Marion Giannini, retiring principal of Sterling Park Elementary School, is surrounded by students who helped produce and enact a skit honoring "Ms. G." before she assumes her new position as Director of Elementary Education of Seminole County.

'This Is Your Life'

By DEE GATRELL
Herald Correspondent

"I cried like a baby," said Marion Giannini after having been honored with a skit of "This Is Your Life, Ms. G." by the Student Council of Sterling Park Elementary School.

Ms. G., as she is known to students and faculty at Sterling Park where she was principal, has accepted the position of Director of Elementary Education of Seminole County and says, "It's nice to get a new position, but it's awfully hard to leave the old one."

The skit began with Ms. G.'s birth in New York, represented by a baby doll, and a suitcase with "Florida Or Bust" imprinted on it, representing the fact that she arrived by train in Florida when she was 5 years old.

The program moved on to her graduation at Winter Park High School where she was a cheerleader, and then to St. Leo College and Florida Technological University, (now University of Central Florida) where she earned her Master's degree.

Every phase of the principal's life up to the present was depicted in the skit.

Resides being honored by the students, Ms. G. was also given a farewell party by the faculty.

From the remarks overheard at the school, Ms. G. is one Sterling Park Eagle that will be missed when she leaves the nest.

Lord, Make A Regular Man (Or Woman) Out Of Me

DEAR ABBY: When I was in grade school many years ago back in Roswell, N.M., a teacher read a poem to us. It was in the form of a prayer, and the thrust of it was, "Dear God, make a man out of me."

Dear Abby

NOSTALGIC IN PORTALES, N.M.
DEAR NOSTALGIC: The author was Edgar A. Guest. And what a timely piece with which to usher in the New Year. The poem:
LORD, MAKE A REGULAR MAN OUT OF ME
This I would like to be — braver and bolder, Just a bit wiser because I am older,
Just a bit kinder to those I may meet,
Just a bit manlier taking defeat;

This for the New Year my wish and my plea —
Lord, make a regular man out of me.
This I would like to be —
just a bit fiercer,
More of a smiler and less of a whiner,
Just a bit quicker to stretch out my hand,
Helping another who's struggling to stand,
This is my prayer for the New Year to be,
Lord, make a regular man out of me.

This I would like to be —
just a bit fairer,
Just a bit better, and just a bit squarer,
Not quite so ready to censure and blame,
Quicker to help every man in the game,
Not quite so eager men's fallings to see,
Lord, make a regular man out of me.

This I would like to be —
just a bit truer,
Less of the wisher and more of the doer,
Broader and bigger, more willing to give,
Living and helping my neighbor to live!
This for the New Year my prayer and my plea —
Lord, make a regular man out of me.

DEAR READERS: Apropos the above: The expression "regular man" need not apply to males only. Edgar Guest meant it to describe a person of character and dignity. In Yiddish the word is "mensch." And a woman can also be a "mensch." No one defined a "mensch" better than Leo Rosten in his book, "The Joys of Yiddish" (Simon & Schuster):

"MENSCH, MENCH. Rhymes with 'bench.' From German: Mensch: 'person.'"

Plural: menshen.

"1. A human being. 'After all, he is a mensch, not an animal.'"

"2. An upright, honorable, decent person. 'Come on, act like a mensch!'"

"3. Someone of consequence; someone to admire and emulate; someone of noble character. 'Now, there is a real mensch!'"

"It is hard to convey the special sense of respect, dignity, approbation, that can be conveyed by calling someone 'a real mensch!'"

"As a child, I often heard it said: 'The finest thing you can say about a man is that he is a mensch!' Jewish children often hear the admonition: 'Behave like a mensch!' or 'Be a mensch!' This use of the word is uniquely Yiddish in its overtones.

"The most withering comment one might make on someone's character or conduct is: 'He is not (did not act like) a mensch.'"

"To be a mensch has nothing to do with success, wealth, status. A judge can be a zkhob; a millionaire can be a momzer; a professor can be a shlemiel, a doctor a klutz, a lawyer a buivon. The key to being 'a real mensch' is nothing less than — character: rectitude, dignity, a sense of what is right, responsible, decorous. Many a poor man, many an ignorant man, is a mensch."

Some New Ideas On Kidney Stones

DEAR DR. LAMB - Is there a medicine to dissolve kidney stones? A urologist told my son that the stones he has could not be removed by surgery. That was three years ago.

If a new treatment for this condition is available I will urge him to get further medical attention. He is 33 years old and works in a highly skilled job and has been in good health otherwise, as far as I know.

DEAR READER - Yes, there are several medicines that either stop the progressive enlargement of stones, prevent new stones or will dissolve stones that are present. It depends a lot on the type of stone a person has. Stones are made up of many different minerals.

It is fair to say the treatment of kidney stones is in a state of flux. I don't know why the surgeon didn't want to operate on your son but it may be that the stones were in a location in the kidney that would not create a problem - that is, dislodge and start to pass or obstruct the urine flow. In other words, he may have thought surgery wasn't necessary.

The one thing most specialists agree on is that it is important to drink enough water to keep your urine dilute, 24 hours a day. Some physicians instruct their patients to measure the specific gravity (concentration) of their urine with instructions to drink enough water to keep it dilute.

Today medical kidney specialists are more likely to let a person use milk and milk products in moderation and reduce the calcium intake only if it is excessive. Urologists still tend to restrict calcium for calcium kidney stones.

Some diuretics (hydrochlorothiazide) prevent the loss of lots of calcium in the urine. By decreasing the amount of urinary calcium you decrease the chances of forming calcium stones. And whether the urine is acid or alkaline affects the stones.

You'll learn some of the new ideas about treating stones in The Health Letter 11-2, Kidney Stones: Treatment Has Changed, which I am sending you. Others can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB - What would you consider to be the best and safest treatment of a hormonal imbalance in a 21-year-old woman that is resulting in an increased and noticeable hair growth on the face, chest and arms? Do you recommend some sort of estrogen treatment, nutritional treatment or electrolysis?

DEAR READER - My first recommendation would be to find out what kind of hormone imbalance, if any, exists. If it is caused by a hormone imbalance problem then it should be corrected.

You may be interested to learn that in women who produce an excess of androgens (such as testosterone) a diuretic, spironolactone (Aldactone) has proved to be remarkably successful. Your doctor may want a reference which is the Journal of The American Medical Association, volume 247, page 1295, 1982.

This particular diuretic has an anti-androgen action. Of course, if there is a different type of hormone imbalance or no hormone imbalance at all, then this treatment will be of no value.

HOROSCOPE

For Friday, December 31, 1982

YOUR BIRTHDAY Dec. 31, 1982

Allies who have been helpful to you in the past are likely to be even more so this coming year. You have several staunch supporters who will figure in your successes.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You'll probably have more fun today if you spend time with a few select friends, rather than involve yourself with a large group. Be discriminating. Predictions for Capricorns in 1983 are now ready. Send $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date. Send an additional $2 for the NEW Astro-Graph Matchmaker wheel and booklet. Reveals romantic combinations and compatibilities for all signs.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) This is one of those days when you're not likely to have everything go your way. However, you'll still have a good time if you're prepared to make compromises.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This is not a good day to try to mix business and pleasure. If you're socializing, don't bring along your workday contacts.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Social graces are extremely important today, so take pains to be polite to all. If you make a bad impression, it won't be easily erased.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be complimentary to those who warrant it, but don't try to use flattery today in order to butter up another. This play won't work.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Try to live within your means today. If you don't have the cash, subdue temptations to charge anything. Don't begin the new year in debt.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Try to get in the spirit of things today. If you're moody you'll put a damper on your enjoyment as well as on that of others. Smile and let go.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Use common sense today regarding good health habits. If there are things which you know you shouldn't eat or drink, give them a wide berth.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If your companions are in a fun-loving mood today, let go and get in the swing of things. Try not to introduce serious topics into lighthearted repartee.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Have fun and enjoy yourself today, but try to do so as inexpensively as possible. You'll later regret it if you pay too much to have a good time.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Others admire your determination and strength of character, but be careful today not to throw your weight around and insist that all do things your way - or else.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Try to be very selective regarding companions today. You'll want to pal around with persons who are as generous as yourself. Stingy types will bug you.

By Oswald Jacoby and James Jacoby
If you are one of those readers who look at the cards and the bidding first, you will wonder why we have used this hand. North and South have 30 high card points plus all four 10s and at least two stoppers in every suit.

Declarer was our old friend Pessimistic Pete. He didn't wonder if he could make six. He wanted to make sure of three.

He was sorry that North wasn't declarer. No lead could worry North. Anyone else would take the heart finesse at trick one and go after everything not nailed down.

If they did they would find out that 30 points would not bring in nine tricks. The defense would wind up with three hearts, one diamond and one club.

Pete started with dummy's ace of hearts, cashed the ace of clubs to see if the queen would drop, came to his hand with ace of spades and then led and finessed the jack of clubs.

East took his queen and could do nothing better than lead his last club.

Pete won, knocked out the ace of diamonds and was sure of two spades, two hearts, two diamonds and three clubs. Actually, Pete made an overtrick. He finally refused the spade finesse and end played East in hearts. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)
