FORMER SANFORD MAN WRITES ABOUT DUTIES OF REAL CITIZENSHIP

Should Support Board of Trade To The Fullest

REAL ADVERTISING

SHOULD BE SENT BROADCAST TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT SANFORD

Mr. R. J. Holly,
Sanford, Fla.

Dear Holly:
I have been reading with a great deal of interest, recently, unkind things our friends, a few miles South, have been saying about one another. It may give those who are engaged in this unfortunate controversy much satisfaction when the system is entirely relieved of the thoughts developed by their recent local difficulties.

It is fair to say that our friends live in one of the most beautiful little cities in the country, they have worked together for many years; they have become prosperous and they should be happy. If they are not happy it is to be regretted that the many able men there, of even temperament, cannot bring the opposing forces together, either for a settlement or for an agreement to keep the matter out of the newspapers. If prospective residents have been reading the papers regularly, it is a foregone conclusion that outsiders will not wish to locate in a quarrelsome community. Of course, we have nothing to do with the matter, and an expression from us would be properly looked upon as impertinence. I am referring to it, however, in our own interest.

Sanford has reorganized its trade association, and a man has been selected for secretary who seems to have had some experience in that line, he can be successful if he has the support of the community, and there is no reason why it should not be forthcoming. If any local differences should arise, business, political or otherwise, I hope your personal influence and the influence of your paper will be used to keep the quarrel away from the outside world and patch up the disagreement. I do not know of a city in Florida having better future than Sanford. If you will, but for a few moments, look ten years back, and then go out and look up and down the street, I am sure you will be amazed at the wonderful growth during that period under the many difficulties our people encountered. I think we had great difficulties to overcome, but you have been very patient through the period of acrimonious ridicule and jealous political intrigues of outside and neighboring influence, the result of that patience and perseverance is present today. I noticed often times I am sorry my occupation keeps me so far away from home, because I would like to be there to help you make the beautiful and prosperous city I have pictured in my mind.

If you will go away and stay three or four years, and then go back to Sanford, it will be easy for you to appreciate how men feel who must be away permanently. I hope you will keep the streets clean, particularly in the section where the railroads run, and that you will maintain your public parks, and the people living on the avenues will keep the lawns and the flowers looking as fresh and attractive. Cultivate all that is good in the outside world, and above all things, have your committee be careful that the new advertising matter does not verify a statement that cannot be made, because if you will stick to the facts about the city of Sanford, and about Seminole county, you will have enough to say in a convincing way without resorting to visionary things. It is ordinary knowledge that when people try to draw pictures advertising themselves, they are not satisfied with the natural beauty and the possibilities of their surroundings, it will follow that the purchaser will discover his mistake to our injury and mortification.

Yours sincerely,
WELL WISHER.

Chili Wants Peace From Neighbors

BUT CANNOT OBTAIN RIGHTS FROM PERU AND BOLIVIA

(By The Associated Press.)
SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 23.—Chile desires peace and tranquility on the South American continent and has earnestly tried to obtain a friendly solution of her questions with Peru and Bolivia, Senator Eliodoro Yanez, one of the nation's leading statesmen told The Associated Press correspondent today. The dispute between Chile and Peru over Tacna and Arica and Bolivia's aspirations for an outlet to the sea has been widely debated by the public and in the press here since the military revolt at La Paz, Bolivia, in July when a political party, said to be hostile to Chile, assumed power. Speaking of the controversy with Peru, Senator Yanez said:

"To push her policy of hostility and repeal of international good faith, Peru has entered into a great program of armaments and believes she can count on the support of the United States and the League of Nations. Chile on several occasions has tried to reach an agreement for holding the plebiscite and, with the exception of the unratified agreement of 1912, Peru always has resisted an understanding proposing clauses or expressing expressions unacceptable or depreciable to Chile."

Referring to the Bolivian question Senator Yanez said the treaty of 1904 under which the latter ceded Antofagasta, lost by Bolivia in the Pacific war. Until recently, cordial relations had been maintained between the two countries. In July, a military revolution broke out in La Paz; President Gutierrez Guerra was deposed and banished and a Junto de Gobierno was organized. This new order raised as a slogan the non-recognition of the treaty of 1904 and the reclamation of the territories which by this pact were recognized as Chile's. They were annexed 40 years ago and a great Chilean population is in them. "Chile has manifested more than once her purpose of adopting an economic policy in agreement with Bolivia to meet that country's desire for a port. Peru's resistance to the plebiscite and her support of Bolivian aspirations have hindered or retarded this agreement and the Bolivian revolt has made it impossible for the moment."

The provinces of Tacna and Arica are governed by Chile as territories under the direction of the Foreign Department with no representation in parliament.

Famine Stalks Now In China

TWENTY MILLION PEOPLE IN DANGER OF STARVING TO DEATH

(By The Associated Press.)
PEKING, Oct. 23.—Famine conditions in Chihli, Shansi, Shantung and Honan provinces, due to repeated light crops followed by almost complete failure this summer, are reported by investigators to be the worst in years. It is estimated that 20,000,000 people are in peril of death from starvation and disease during the coming winter unless help on a large scale is afforded.

Thousands of families are already afoot making their way northward in the hope of finding food and employment. Others are selling their belongings piecemeal to procure food at greatly advanced prices. Farm and draught animals are being disposed of for a lack of fodder to keep them and fuel to cook them if slaughtered.

Dr. E. F. Tucker, of Tchow, Shantung province, and Dr. E. J. Pell of Siaoehang, also in Shantung, report that being without food and unable to buy it, people are living on weeds and the leaves of trees, cotton seed and bran. Children, especially girls, are being sold or given away, they say.

John Griffith of the Canadian Presbyterian Mission, Changtso, North Hohan, writes: "The last fading hope was that at least a crop of quick maturing buckwheat might be secured after a late rain. But no rain has come and that hope is now entirely forgotten. Every road northward swarms with the hunger-stricken and pinched humanity. The Peking-Hankow railway is generously allowing refugees to travel free on all trains bound for South Hohan and Hupoh, and these are crowded with families having many little children or old people who cannot face the trek over the mountain roads to Shansi and Shensi."

TO THE PATRONS OF SCHOOL BUSES

TO PATRONS
If transportation of pupils to the Sanford schools is to be maintained it is essential that you co-operate with the board of trustees and the county school board. These two boards, after careful thought and deliberation, determined to institute a plan that would distribute the burden of this expense equitably among those receiving the benefits therefrom. The boards are fully aware of the fact that no law exists authorizing the forcible collection of fares on school buses, but are of the opinion that a great majority of the patrons are in favor of assisting in the payment of one-fourth of the cost of such transportation by the purchase of tickets each month. We are also cognizant of the fact that there is no existing law whereby the furnishing of transportation is obligatory. And although this has been the custom for the past several years, the shrinking value of a dollar will render the continuance of the custom impossible without material assistance from those benefitted.

Most of you are acquainted with the fact that a meeting of protest against the collection of school bus fares has been held, and that some have flatly refused to co-operate by purchasing tickets for their children, and one, at least, of that number, has made open and public threats on the buses in case a pass or ticket was demanded. Now the boards are unwilling to jeopardize the lives of these drivers by insisting that they require passes or tickets, from the pupils. As a result of this attitude, the whole matter of transportation will rest with the patrons, and the question resolves itself to this—will you permit the protest of a minority of the patrons to force the boards to

American Legion Makes Arrangements

FOR BIG DAY NOVEMBER 11, WILL HAVE KISSIMMEE BAND ALL DAY

At a meeting of the various committees in charge of the arrangements for the Armistice Day Celebration held last night, most of the features of the program were definitely settled—and it will be no fault of the Legion if Seminole county doesn't have the biggest celebration she's ever witnessed.

Here are some of the announcements which may be of particular interest:
A contract has been made with Kissimmee's 18-piece band to furnish music during the day, while Zell's famous jazz quintette will have charge of the symposium at the masquerade ball. The county is to be congratulated in having such an aggregation of musicians for the day.

C. M. Hand will be in charge of the tournament and he promises us some sure enough exhibitions of riding. The prizes to be offered will be on display sometime next week. Watch for them!

The biggest event of the day will be the parade, coming at 10 a. m. Here are a few of the organizations in the line of march led by a color guard from the Legion:
The American Legion in uniform.
The Kissimmee band.
The local Red Cross chapter.
Uniformed Red Cross girls from the H. S. A. R. G. A. R. and Confederate veterans.
The tournament riders.
School children.
City officials, police and fire departments.

The decorated floats will be scattered between the various sections, and prizes will be offered for the three best floats.

Watch for the tanks—they will be in the parade.

The Herald will contain new announcements every day, so keep your eyes on the Legion column.

MADE IN GERMANY STILL LOOKS GOOD TO KAISER BILL

(By The Associated Press.)
AMERONGEN, Oct. 23.—The "Made in Germany" sign is still a fetish to the former emperor. BISHOP SAYS IRELAND IN FOR TROUBLE

(By The Associated Press.)

BELFAST, Ireland, Oct. 21.—Bishop Foley declared the other day in Kilgare and Leighlin Roman Catholic Cathedral that it was not improbable that before long parts of Ireland would be plunged into a sea of bloodshed and slaughter unless something in the line of moral miracle were performed. He could not see by what means the Irish people were to be preserved from the dreadful evils which threatened them; the destruction of life and property on such a scale as would fall little short of that which befell Northern France at the hands of the Germans. Their duty as Christians and Catholics was clear, he said. They must have no hand in act or part in murders and they must not give the slightest encouragement to them.

AMERICAN BUSINESS MEN MUST GET AWAY FROM ENORMOUS PROFITS

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—American business must purge itself of its own "misdemeanors" before it can hope to exert the fullest influence in the affairs of the nation, Joseph H. DeForest, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, declared in an address today before the American Bankers' Association.

"One of the most fruitful sources of the unrest in this country at the present time," said Mr. DeForest, "is the belief on the part of a great number, that business in many instances is securing an inordinate profit. It is the theme of the agitator, and is used as justification for various unfair exactions which are put upon business. We are quite ready to complain in the public interest, about excess profit taxes and inadequate production for a fair wage. Let us do all we can to correct our own misdemeanors and then our voice of protest will have a larger influence in correcting those of others."

Mr. DeForest told the delegates that business should adopt an "advisory" position rather than a dictatorial attitude in dealing with the government. He said most members of Congress were willing to receive information gathered by organizations which had made a study of particular questions, but that they deeply resented action by anybody which savored of a demand. The average legislator, he said, will no longer yield to demands, but is anxious to render a service where he is shown that beneficial results may be obtained.

"Few legislators will heed such de-

THE CITY MARKET

Contributions Still Continue To Come In

LOYAL DEMOCRATS ARE HELPING TO WIN GREATEST VICTORY OF MODERN TIMES

The loyal Democrats are contributing to the campaign fund very generously indeed, and every day sees new ones coming across and many of them have sent their contributions direct to headquarters having been solicited by the headquarters before the fund was started and by the way the fund has been swelled chiefly through the untiring efforts of C. H. Leffler, who is making a canvass of the business houses and homes of Sanford and is meeting with great success. It is thought now that Seminole county will be at the head of all the counties in the state in the matter of contributions when our small population is taken into consideration. In a letter to the editor of the Herald this morning Wilbur W. Marsh the treasurer of the National Committee in New York urges us to keep up the good work all this week and that he must have the remainder of the money before the 25th in order to place it where it will do the most good. We are doing the work and all the good people here need to do is to contribute the dollar or as much more as they feel they can contribute to the campaign of the Democratic party and help put James M. Cox over for president. The following contributions were received to-day:

DUAL MURDER IN BAKER COUNTY COMMITTED BY WHITES, SAYS SHERIFF

MacLENNY, Oct. 23.—Frank H. Conner, aged forty-five, and Frank Daily, aged fifty-nine, white residents near Sanderson, found dead late Wednesday near the Chalker branch bridge, were killed by unidentified white men seeking revenge for the death of John Harvey, white, who was killed October 14 last, according to a statement made today by Sheriff L. F. Sweat of Baker county.

This startling disclosure was made after a rigid investigation started when news of the double murder was brought to this city Wednesday night. Sheriff Sweat stated that he expected to make arrests shortly.

ON THE CEMETERY ROAD

Mr. Editor: Thank you for the memorial you wrote to the city paper in honor to Mr. J. D. Parker.

How did you reach the Silent City you never said, you surely never went by the road that I went by the same day, you must have went by aeroplane although you did not come home that way.

I wonder if you could be instrumental to work a good turn for those that are moved by their friends to that City—Mr. Parker worked without ceasing till his desire was accomplished in getting that pavilion, the occupants there have thanked him many times, your words of praise to him is the first I have read.

Now I want to tell you a serious thing; the whole city will testify to the truth of the words that follow:

Fabulous sums of money has been spent for good roads in Seminole county leading in every direction but to our Silent City where our loved ones rest. Now listen to what a northerner told me, she said, she had lost her little girl upon a visit here to Florida the day of the funeral to ease the pain in her heart.

She and another had the little coffin rest on their laps on the way to the cemetery, the road was in such a rough condition that the car was so shaken she felt the body hit the side of the coffin.

Others have told me they had seen their loved ones so shaken that the coffin had moved in the hearse, they thought if a city ever wished to prosper they should first pave a road to the cemetery.

Just a few days ago a body was brought here for burial one of the relatives thought they were on the wrong road never having seen such a way to a cemetery before.

The advertisement of this is not to Sanford's credit many a one will think and remember this road should have been paved long ago. And then built roads for our visitors ourselves. SANFORD LADY

COWS DONATED TO GER-MANY NOT ALLOWED

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Food Controller Hermes' opposition to the admission into Germany of the 5,000 cows donated by American farmers and against the importation of flour from America said to have been offered by New York bakers has aroused the wrath of some of the Liberal newspapers of Berlin.

They charge the Food Controller with interposing objections which have complicated the negotiations with the American company which is assembling the cows donated by the American farmers and declare that the ministerial pedantry which threatened for a time to deprive Germany of the American gift of cows will be made the object of interpellation in the Reichstag.

The Food Controller demurred to accepting the cows on the ground that their transportation across the Atlantic was not feasible and that there was a shortage of fodder for them here.

His critics say that if the Americans could send across the ocean 1,500,000 soldiers with fighting equipment and food, they ought to be able to move 5,000 cows across. They add that the cows will only take the place of those delivered to France and Belgium which would have been fed in Germany.

The food controller's opposition to uncontrolled importation of American flour was based on fear that it would disrupt arrangements already made to ration the people. The Berlin bakers are anxious to have the American flour sent here in the hope that it will break the monopoly now held by German farmers.

COX MAKES 'EM WOBBLE.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 23.—A one-day campaign in New Jersey was opened here yesterday by Gov. Cox with a noon theatre meeting at which the Democratic presidential candidate asked for a "mandate" of ballots to "overturn the greatest conspiracy in all the ages." This, he said, was against world peace, proposed under the league of nations.

The league, Gov. Cox said, "was inspired by God as much as the declaration of independence itself."

Like other recent audiences of Gov. Cox, his Trenton crowd hissed the name of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, when the speaker repeated his charges of conspiracy by means of the "round robin."

Gov. Cox named Senators Brandegee, of Connecticut and Moses, of

New Hampshire; Smoot, of Utah, and Watson of Indiana, as signers of the "round robin," who would, he predicted, "stay home as a result of the election."

"And Senator Harding, he'll stay home, too, I believe," the governor added, and the crowd laughed and cheered.

"When a baby's crying competed with the governor's voice, he said to the mother: 'That baby's crying doesn't bother me at all. Whenever I see a baby I grow stronger in this fight for it's a fight for the babies of the future generations; to save them from the horrors of war.'"

Gov. Cox was introduced as the "man who makes the wobbler wobble," by Gov. Edwards. He said Gov. Cox "is the greatest asset the democratic party ever had."

Gov. Cox motored 10 miles from here to Princeton, accompanied by a long caravan of automobiles.

The September report of the U. S. bureau of crop estimates is that Florida's production of cotton for 1920 will be about 23,500 bales, compared with 15,925 bales in 1919, and 29,415 bales in 1918.

The American Red Cross has appropriated $500,000 for the famine sufferers in China and Japan has promised a large amount of rice.

PLAN OF MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT TO BE DECIDED BY ELECTION

Presenting a "Commission-Manager Plan" charter, the charter board elected at the regular city election in July to prepare a new charter or amendments to the present charter for the city of New Smyrna, has completed its work and is ready to present the proposed new charter to the electors of the city for its adoption or rejection.

A special election on the question of adoption or rejection of the proposed new charter will be called for November 23rd. If adopted, the charter provides for the new plan of municipal government to go into effect the first day of January, 1921, and a special election for commissioners will be held in December.

The charter prepared by the charter board is similar in many respects to the commission-manager plan charters in effect in St. Augustine, Tallahassee and Sanford, where the municipal governments are said to be operating satisfactorily, and where the residents declare they would under no circumstances return to the old councilmanic form of city government. It is similar in many respects to the commission-manager plan charter prepared by a former charter board and submitted to the voters of New Smyrna, but eliminating the features to which objections were made at that time.

The charter board has labored faithfully and well in the preparation of the proposed charter and in presenting it to the people believe they have proposed a plan of municipal government by which the taxpayers will receive one hundred cents in value for every dollar paid in city taxes.

The general plan of government under the proposed charter is for all municipal affairs to be handled by a board of three commissioners to serve without pay, one of whom is to be elected each year, and these commissioners employ a city manager to be the administrative head of the city. The city manager is responsible to the commissioners, who are responsible to the electors.

The charter contains the initiative and referendum and the recall, by which a commissioner may be recalled from office and another elected in his place if it is shown that the affairs of the city are suffering at his hands.—New Smyrna News.

GEORGE DeCOTTES TALKS TO WOMEN

George A. DeCottes, of Sanford, who will be the next state attorney for this district, having been nominated in the primary last June, will be the speaker to the women at their weekly meeting for instruction in voting and civics to be held at the public school building at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. DeCottes is a splendid speaker and capable of telling the women many things they wish to learn before the coming election and answering questions that may be propounded by the women.

Congressman W. J. Sears, of Kissimmee will be the speaker at the meeting next Friday afternoon and the women will have the opportunity to learn about national legislative affairs from a member of congress.

All white women of voting age are invited and urged to attend the meeting at the school building this afternoon.—New Smyrna News.

Baptist Temple will be interesting on next Sunday. Congregational singing for which the church is noted and a solo by Mrs. Rub-Phillips will be the music. The pastor, Dr. Hyman, will speak on the subject: "The Chief of Police Consults the Preacher." The church has arranged for about 100 chairs to help in seating the large audiences.

A CHURCH DEACON MOBBED

The story of the mobbing of a Deacon will be told as a basis of the sermon to be delivered by Dr. George Hyman at the Baptist Temple on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The speaker is good in relating dramatic events and this story is one of the most dramatic in history.

The sextette will render, "The Lord is My Shepherd."

This club is one of the active organizations of the city. Hon Schelle Maines is the president. There are now about seventy-five members. The Club meets each Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Baptist Temple. The subject of discussion Sunday will be, "Preparing for a Three Years Career."

The men of the city are invited to this club.

KISSIMMEE WANTS CURB MARKET

"Curb Markets" have proved so advantageous in other cities both larger and smaller than Kissimmee that the vegetable-growers and farmers in the district contiguous to this city have become insistent that such an institution be established here, and, to thoroughly consider the matter, there will be a mass meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Tuesday evening next. This meeting will be attended by many growers of this vicinity who have become enthusiastic over the success of like institutions in other cities, and there is a desire that every progressive citizen shall attend this gathering.

There will be those present who have seen such markets instituted in other small cities who will be glad to give all the information sought, and it is essential that the Chamber of Commerce rooms be thronged with those who are urging for this city all that will be of general benefit. There seems to be a feeling that such an innovation will prove beneficial to the residents of the city—and will at the same time work no hardships on the various establishments now carrying a line of such goods.

Just what restrictions shall be placed by the city upon those who shall offer goods for sale at the curb market, or where the same shall be located, or any of the numerous details which will be necessary if the project is carried through, will be matters which will be thoroughly discussed at the coming meeting.—Kissimmee Gazette.

TO COMBINE ORLANDO HOSPITAL WITH DELAND

"Shall DeLand seize the opportunity to secure an endowment of $150,000 for developing a hospital which may ultimately make her the medical and surgical center of the state?" was the subject which engaged the attention of the Board of Trustees of DeLand Memorial Hospital at a special meeting held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Commercial Club. That this can be done the board is assured, provided the citizens of DeLand give it their hearty support in the effort it is now making to bring about a merger between the St. Luke's Hospital of Orlando and the DeLand Memorial Hospital. Not to mention the large and complete equipment of the present St. Luke's which would be at the disposal of the new institution, the sale of the St. Luke's property together with its invested funds would provide an endowment fund conservatively estimated at over $150,000. With this magnificent sum as a nucleus for future gifts and bequests, and with DeLand's unexcelled natural advantages of pure water, healthful climate, and high location of hospital grounds, in course of time there might well be developed here one of the leading hospitals in the country, certainly the finest in the state.—DeLand News.

CHARGE ARMOURS PROFITTEERED IN

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Federal grand jury yesterday, as the result of a recent investigation conducted by an assistant of the attorney-general's office, returned an indictment against Armour & Co., Chicago packers, and against the officers of the company individually, charging them with profiteering in violation of the Lever act.

The company officers indicted include: J. Ogden Armour, president; S. Elson White, vice-president; Herbert A. Phillips, manager of the dressed sheep department, in Chicago; Arthur H. Van Pelt, district superintendent in New York. Indictments also were returned against Charles A. Neyer, an assistant in the office of vice-president White, and William A. Netsch, another employe in this city.

The indictment contains 137 counts New Zealand lamb at an alleged unlawful and unreasonable rate during April, May and June. The meat, it is charged, cost Armour & Co., $18.40 per 100 pounds; that the lowest it was sold for was $23 and the highest $35. All the sales were made to customers in Manhattan and Bronx.

AMERICAN EMBASSY IN EVERY CAPITAL THROUGHOUT EUROPE

PEKIN, Oct. 22.—Americans traveling abroad would one day have the gratification of seeing a reproduction of the White House in every capital housing the American legation or embassy, if the dream of Representative Stephen G. Porter, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house foreign relations committee ever came true.

It was with this in mind, he said, on his recent visit to Peking, that he put through the measure raising passport vice fees from $2 to $10 on the theory that those who travel and thus avail themselves of our diplomatic establishment in foreign parts should pay for the privilege.

The representative further proposed to build the White Houses by employment of American labor. It was suggested that such a plan might involve needless expense, especially in China where the American would compete with native labor, but Mr. Porter contended that in a matter where settlement was concerned the additional expense was not worth considering.

RED CROSS TO THE RESCUE OF POLAND

WARSAW, Oct. 23.—Major E. S. Webster, of Bethlehem, Pa., has arrived in Warsaw from Armenia to direct the attack of the American Red Cross on Poland's 250,000 known cases of typhus. Dr. Webster made a special study of sanitation and diseases for the American government mission in Armenia.

"It will take 10 years at the present rate of progress," Dr. Webster said, "to wipe out typhus in Poland. The fever has become an epidemic through six years of almost continuous fighting. We must have disinfectants, soaps, clean linen, and clothing in great quantities if we are to make any impression against the scourge."

A railway, 1,000 miles long, is to be built to connect Adelaide on the south coast of Australia, with Port Darwin on the north coast. This will open up a vast new territory.

ONE MAN WHO SUCCEEDED.

David T. Howard, a negro 71 years old, born a slave but now a wealthy man, celebrated his golden wedding anniversary in Atlanta day before yesterday. The Associated Press story says that beginning with a legacy of $150 left by his former master he now owns a business rated as the fourth largest of its kind in Atlanta and that the banks there are "in his name."

"I never wasted time, never went in for wild cats, never saw a baseball game and never danced a step—but always attended to business. No social equality for me; no sane thinking negro wants better justice in courts, better accommodations on railroad trains and more schools for his children. Too many silk shirts and too much good time are the cause of racial unrest."

This man started out to accomplish something and has accomplished it. Naturally he is pleased. He wanted to buy independence and he bought it. He had to pay for it, of course. Every man, black or white, must pay for what he gets. He never went to a baseball game and never danced a step. Evidently he missed a good deal of fun, but he had a purpose in missing it and he accomplished his purpose and, looking back over his life, is satisfied.

There is no color line to financial success. The black man and the white man have to do the very same things to attain it. In the South there is no color line in business. The black man or the white man is employed or patronized according to the value of the work he does or of the commodities he sells.

An old saying is: "You can't eat your cake and have it, too." The man who eats his cake as he goes does not have any saved up. The man who spends his money as he goes never accumulates any. There is also a great difference in earnings. He who wastes time wastes money, for time, properly applied, brings in money. This man always attended to business, which is only another way of saying that he always marched steadily towards wealth. White men can attain wealth in the same way. Anyone who makes more than he spends is on the road to wealth. To do this it is generally necessary to do without many things one would enjoy but is it not worth it?

As for justice in the courts, better schools and good accommodations on the railroads, there are things that the negro deserves and should have. As for social equality, what is it and where is it? Is there any such thing? Are there not separate circles of society among the white people? The white man who cannot run with the richest because he cannot spend with the richest need not feel inferior to the richest on that account. He can have his own circle and be as happy in it as the richest. The black man can also make a society of his own, and is doing it, and need not feel offended with the separateness which prevails wherever races inhabit the same country in nearly equal numbers.—Times-Union.

SPARKS FROM THE SANCTUM

A good citizen wants our opinion, editorially expressed, as to the most practical method of stimulating a greater interest in local affairs on the part of the public.

Years ago, when the present adult generation were children, the attraction that brought out regularly the greatest number of people was the weekly meeting of the old fashioned debating society.

The members of the society would select a subject to be discussed, both affirmatively and negatively.

"JIMMY SHORT AND I STARTED OUT TOGETHER IN LIFE. I AM WEALTHY AND JIM IS ON THE SAME OLD JOB, WORKING AS HARD AS EVER. JIM HAD HIS GOOD TIME WHEN I WAS SAVING AND INVESTING; I HAVE RETIRED. JIMMY IS A GREAT DEAL OLDER THAN I AM AND IS STILL WORKING. I WOULD THEREFORE SAY TO THE YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN OF TODAY, 'BEGIN TO ACCUMULATE NOW FOR THE FUTURE BY INVESTING IN THE 8 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK OF THE SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY. THERE IS NONE BETTER."

Then from their membership, by vote, they would select the speakers who were to argue the pros and cons of the subject. Two taking the affirmative and two the negative. Of course a time limit was placed upon each speech.

A jury of five or seven people would be selected to render a decision at the close of the speaking, and the contestants would go to it, their partisans rooting with lavish applause at every telling point made.

More vital issues would be brought out in these public debates in one night than would crop out in a year of the ordinary routine of life.

And incidentally we might remark that some of the most brilliant orators this country has ever produced received their early training in public speaking in the old time debating society.

Its revival would be a reminder to the older heads among us, and a blessing to the younger generation that is springing up.

The good citizen has our humble opinion.

Would you feel aggrieved if we were to tell you that you are chasing death every day in the year?

But you are—we all are—for this is a death chasing age in which we live.

We are rushing through life at top rapid a speed in our efforts to keep pace with a galloping world.

The beacon light which we follow is glaring, blinding and blighting. It is the light of gold—and more gold.

It fascinates, and charms, and demoralizes its victims until manly resistance to its sinister influences vanishes in our craving for the inordinate pleasures which wealth alone can give.

We stunt our bodies, stultify our minds and peril our souls in our insatiable greed for more.

The pace we travel is one of madness, and the beacon we follow is lighted by the hand of premature death.

Life and the power to think and act were given to us for a purpose but that purpose was not one destructive to mind, body, and soul.

The vitality within our human frames is limited, and when we strain it beyond the point of wisdom we pass the pinnacle of existence and enter upon the decline of life.

By defying the laws of nature we bring death immeasurably nearer by acts wholly our own.

The beacon light is golden, but it draws us steadily onward and downward.

NOT MONEY ALONE

It isn't big wages in the city alone that akes the young men away from the farms. The unending routine of work and the absence of any form of have more to do with it than anything else.

One of these days farmers will see the wisdom of maintaining a community center, where young men and women can hold frequent gatherings and enjoy the clean forms of amusement which today are too seldom found in the country districts.

A club house in a farming district for such a purpose would not cost a fortune, but its practical value of the community would be beyond estimation.

Some of us are content to go through life noting the mistakes of others, blissfully indifferent to the fact that they see us as we see them.

People think of us only as our own conduct and actions deserve that we be thought of.

A few may be short sighted and unobserving, but the majority of people are wise and quick to note the idio-syncrasies of human nature.

Why it is that some people are universally admired and respected through life, although they have their faults as do the rest of us.

It is not because those faults are hidden from the world—far from it. It is because such people have hearts that prompt the mind to recognize the good qualities of others rather than to be continually seeking out the weaker points.

It is because they see the better side of others that the world thinks so much of them.

All people have their faults, but some, unfortunately, are only able to distinguish those which exist in the other fellow.

$5,000 FOR MOSQUITO BITE

Demand is Made by Sailor in Suit Brought in Brooklyn Supreme Court.

New York.—The tale of a ship beset by swarms of mosquitoes during a voyage along the south Atlantic coast was unfolded in a complaint filed in the Brooklyn supreme court in a suit for $5,000 damages brought by Hendricus De Raay, a sailor.

De Raay alleges that after he had been bitten severely, officers of the steamship Gulfcoast, belonging to the Gulf Refining company, refused to give ointment to him.

The company has asked for a bill of particulars, denying that the officers refused the ointment, and declaring that mosquito bites were part of the assumed risk of employment.

ITALY MAKES OYSTERS SAFE

Removes Impurities by Keeping Them in Sterilized Sea Water for a Week.

Washington.—An Italian company has perfected a process for removing impurities from oysters, according to a report to the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

On being taken from beds along the Venetian coast the oysters are shipped to Rome, the shells carefully washed and thrown into great tanks filled with sterilized sea water. The tanks are constantly replenished and the flowing water has been found to wash all impurities from the oysters which, after a week's "treatment" are shipped to the retailers.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKING AT HOME

Production of Sound American Citizenship the First Aim, Says Dr. Farrand.

On the badge of every member of the Junior Red Cross are the words "I Serve." That tells the story of the school children's branch of the American Red Cross and its efforts to bring happiness to children throughout the world.

Realizing that the time never was so propitious as right now for teaching the highest ideals of citizenship, the entire present program of the Junior Red Cross has been framed under the very inclusive phrase, "Training for Citizenship Through Service" for others. Since the Junior Red Cross is the agency through which the American Red Cross reaches the schoolboys and the schoolgirls, all its activities are designed to come within the regular school program, and without creating new courses or increasing the number of studies to lend its aid in vitalizing the work of the schools.

"The thing that is needed," says Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the American Red Cross Central Committee, "is not a perpetuation of the Junior Red Cross, but the training and breeding of sound American citizenship inspired by the true, fundamental ideals of sound democracy. One of the great conceptions in making the Red Cross a contributor to better citizenship in our American democracy is the realization that after all the sole hope of any nation is with the children of the country."

The plan of organization of the Junior Red Cross makes the school—public, parochial and private—the unit, not the individual pupils. Mutual service, helpful community work such as clean-up campaigns, care of the sick, promotion of health regulations, participation in civic and patriotic movements—all these creative agencies designed to translate into life and action the regular school program are parts of the machinery which the Junior Red Cross places at the disposal of the school authorities.

Graded study courses giving practical methods of civic training, supplemented by pamphlets and helpful suggestions, are supplied to the local schools by the Junior Red Cross. An elaborate plan for promoting an interchange of correspondence between children in different sections of the United States as well as with children in foreign lands is being devised and will take a prominent place in the established classroom program.

In promoting the general cause of child welfare, Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick, first aid, and dieting may be established in all Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries.

The ideals and the objective of the Junior Red Cross are embodied in the pledge of service which the pupil takes when he signs the membership roll and pins on his coat the Junior's badge. The pledge which binds together service and citizenship reads:

"We will seek in all ways to live up to the ideals of the Junior Red Cross and devote ourselves to its service."

"We will strive never to bring discredit to this, our country, by any unworthy act."

"We will reverse and obey our country's laws and do our best to inspire a like reverence and obedience in those about us."

"We will endeavor in all these ways, as good citizens, to transmit America greater, better and more beautiful than she was transmitted to us."

At the foundation of this school program of the Junior Red Cross is a great love for America's children.

MISS KATHERINE WILKIE
WILL BE SOCIETY EDITOR

Miss Katherine Wilkie has consented to take the society column of the Daily Sanford Herald and starting from next Monday will have that department in charge. This is only one of the many items that the Herald expects to inaugurate to improve the paper and make it a real daily. With the constantly increasing price in newsprint paper and everything that goes into the making of a daily the Herald will not stand back on the expense but will endeavor to have every part of the news department covered in full and in making the Daily a better paper the public can help immeasurably by sending in all the local and society news to the society editor.

Miss Wilkie is no stranger to Sanford, having resided here for several years and having been connected with the city schools and other work and comes to the Herald with a comprehensive knowledge of the city and city affairs, being connected with the many women's organizations of the city and taking a deep interest in all that pertains to the city's welfare. Miss Wilkie will endeavor to chronicle all the various happenings in the social circles and will also collect all the local news of the city and in this she asks the help and co-operation of the people for only by this wholehearted support can this news be gathered and printed each day. If you have any local or social news, phone Miss Wilkie at the home of W. J. Thigpen, 801 Park avenue. Phone No. 428. We want all the news.

INSTRUCTIONS HOW TO VOTE THE TICKET NOVEMBER SECOND

There will be at the end of the ticket two paragraphs, each containing a part of the constitutional amendment to give the legislature power to assess the state indefinitely to build roads and bridges. One paragraph will be marked "No" or "Against"; the other "Yes" or "For."

The ticket will be printed in parallel columns. It will have a stub at the top. The voter enters the polling place when the officers give him or her permission, goes to the table where the clerk and inspectors sit and waits while they look up his or her name on the registration book. If the name is there the voter receives a ticket, which is marked with a number by the inspector giving it. The voter then goes into the nearest voting booth and marks the ticket. The booth is a little portable closet with a shelf to lay the ticket on and a pencil to mark it. The voter had better always use his or her own pencil, as the one in the booth is likely to be of little account. There is a curtain on the booth, which a voter may draw, but there is not much use in pulling it down, because no one can see from the outside how the ballot is marked. The voter has only five minutes in the booth, though if there are few others waiting the inspectors seldom press the point. The ticket marked, the voter folds it so only the stub will show, returns to the table and hands the ticket to one of the inspectors, who tears off the stub and puts it in a file, and hands the ticket back to the voter, who puts it in the ballot

box. Then the voter leaves as quickly and as quietly as possible, and must not approach the polling place again closely enough to be of inconvenience to other voters or the officers until the election is over and the ballots are counted.

ADVENTURE IN RUGGED WEST

The Star Theatre presents today, Saturday, the long anticipated Edgar Lewis-Pathe feature, "Lahoma." Mr. Lewis' specialty is the outdoor picture, because he is a lover of nature and believes that the greatest adventures, the greatest romances, are those enacted in the vast open spaces where God's work is most magnificent.

"Lahoma" is a story of the West—of those early days when man left their comfortable homes in the East and took their wives and their children across thousand of miles of rough, hard roads to a young and new land filled with dangers and hardships—adventure and romance. The action of the story revolves around Lahoma and a tender-hearted outlaw who adopts her after rescuing her from death by the outlaws, of whose band he was a member. The cast, a large one, was picked with the care that characterizes all Edgar Lewis casts.

WOULD CONNECT VALDOSTA AND JAX

Jacksonville Man of State Road Department Will Make Such Suggestion.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 23.—From Valdosta to Jacksonville, via Jasper, White Springs and Lake City, will be the route of the first state highway from the Georgia line if C. A. Tutewiler from Jacksonville, newly appointed member of the state road department, succeeds in carrying out his plans when the department holds its next session at Tampa.

Mr. Tutewiler said Wednesday morning that he intends immediately to enlist the support of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, the chamber of commerce, the Jacksonville Automobile club and other organizations in support of the movement.

"The people of Florida want a road into the state from the Georgia line. Of this there is no question. Then it is up to us to find the quickest and best means for bringing this about. Lowndes county, Georgia, is now building 17 miles of brick road from Valdosta to the Florida line in the direction of Jasper. This road will soon be complete. If the state road department will concentrate its efforts in connecting up this link with Lake City, a distance of 40 miles, by way of Jasper and White Springs, it will not be long before we shall hear no more of the complaints of motorists that they cannot find a decent way into the state of Florida.

The road department is already building a road from Jacksonville to Lake City. This will be completed before long. Motorists reaching the state by way of Lake City will then have two or three routes into the state over good and passable roads. They will have a way to the west coast, another down the center of the state and a third to the east coast by way of Jacksonville.

START MOVE TO CLOSE EVERY GIN FOR MONTH

Say Will Jump Cotton to 30 Cents Per Pound

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—A movement was inaugurated here today involving the closing of every cotton gin in the south for a period of thirty days, beginning November 1, as a means to revive confidence in the demoralized cotton market.

W. B. Thompson, president of the Louisiana division of the American Cotton Association, and one of the leading cotton factors of the south, has forwarded recommendations to the president of the association to begin the work of organizing the cotton men at once with this purpose in view. This move on the part of Mr. Thompson is in accordance with the plan set forth by the officials of the Louisiana Ginner's Association and other prominent ginners of the state. In the event that the movement proves successful, it is estimated that 25,000 gins throughout the south will be affected and would make it impossible for the cotton planters to market their crop before December 1. The promoters of this movement express their belief that if all the cotton ginneries will enter into the agreement to close down for thirty days, cotton will reach thirty cents a pound by the end of the period.

It is stated that the ginners of Louisiana will proceed at once with the organization and that practically all the gin operators in this state will adopt the proposed plan irrespective of whether the other states join them or not. The Texas division of the cotton association has been asked to co-operate with the movement.

LETTER TELLS OF I. W. W. PLANS TO BLOW UP "COAST"

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 22.—An anonymous letter telling of a purported plan by Industrial Workers of the World to destroy simultaneously last night public and other buildings in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles, was received at the office of Gov. W. D. Stephens.

There are five well defined districts in California where the Japanese have gained some ascendancy in farming over the white population. The value of the products raised by them last year is estimated at about $87,000,000. About one-fourth of the fishermen are Japanese. The Australians also have a Japanese question and the people are much irritated over the action of the Paris peace conference giving possession of the Marshall and Caroline Islands to Japan. Australia is enacting legislation excluding all races except the white.

Many former members of the Russian nobility are now working for a living. Several are driving taxicabs in Paris, and others are working in factories and on farms. The same facts apply to former noblemen in various European countries.

THAT STARTED IN BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA TODAY IN TROPHY CONTEST

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 23.—Foundations will be represented by the seven balloon entered in the Gordon-Bennett International Trophy race starting today for this city. The United States has three entrants. Italy two and France and Belgium one each.

It will be the ninth competition for the trophy, and the first since 1913 when the war precluded international aero contests. The trophy, hung up in 1906 by James Gordon Bennett, came into possession of America that year and has been won three times since by United States pilots. Germany captured the cup twice, while France and Switzerland each were victors once. The race is held from the country winning the previous contest.

Ralph H. Upson, who won the cup in 1913 when he outdistanced all his rivals by crossing the English Channel and landing near the Yorkshire coast in the race from Paris, will compete for it again this month with the balloon "Goodyear II". Two other Thompson in an army bag and H. E. Honeywell in "Kansas City II" also are entered. These three lead all the rest in the elimination races last month.

Flying the colors of European countries will be four other balloons. Captain Hirschauer is to represent France, with Lieutenant Ernest Demeyer in the "Belgica" from Belgium. Italian entrants are Major Chevalier Joseph Valle with "Audens" and Major Hugo Madori in the basket of "Triumpale VI."

The race is won by the balloon which travels the farthest distance from the starting point. The record flight was made in 1912 from Stuttgart, Germany, when a French pilot, Maurice Bienaimé, flew 1,361 miles. The only Gordon-Bennett race which resulted in a trip of more than 1,000 miles was held in 1910 from St. Louis the victor, Alan R. Hawley of the Aero Club of America, going 1,172 miles. This still stands as the American record.

What direction the bags take after rising off the ground depends on the wind, the balloons being of the "free" type. In 1908 the victor landed in the sea in a flight from Berlin, and was rescued off the coast of Norway by a passing ship.

BOLSHEVIK IS SPREADING AMONG POLES

BUDAPEST, Oct. 22.—Bolshevik doctrines are spreading among the Russian, Polish and Magyar workmen in the United States, says Chas. Huszar, former Premier of Hungary, who recently returned from America, which he visited to induce his countrymen there to contribute toward the repatriation of Hungarian war prisoners still suffering in Siberia.

"The American workers seem to be largely free from the Bolshevik infection," said Mr. Huszar, "but there is a certain influx of dangerous bolsheviks from Prague and Vienna. On board the ship in which I crossed the Atlantic, I met some notorious reds going over to the United States. I saw indications that there will be trouble from immigrant workmen but I believe the American government will be able to localize and suppress it."

Discussing the reports in foreign newspapers that Hungary was making warlike preparations, the former premier characterized this as nonsense and said that "whoever gets a true glimpse into the feeling of the population knows it to be entirely pacific. The Petite Entente (Czechoslovakia, Jugo-Slovakia and Rumania) is working in being or pretending to be anxious about Magyar invasion. They are much more haunted by the dawning knowledge that they are too weak to retain their newly-won territories."

The British government has made an appropriation of $20,000 a year for five years to the Cotton Growing Association, which agrees to impose a levy of 12 cents a bale on all cotton imported into the United Kingdom. The funds thus obtained will be used to develop cotton growing in the British empire. The first step will be to strengthen the staffs of the agricultural departments in colonies and protectorates where cotton may be produced, by supplying the departments with trained men who will devote their attention mainly to the growing of that staple.

Prices are dropping in most commodities, due to a new attitude. Not long ago it was, "I'll take it; what's the price?" The signs point to a gradual return to something like normal prices, not a general collapse, nor a return to the costs of days before the war, but a downward trend and away from freak bounds that irritated in the near past. We have passed the peak.

PACKAGE LEAKED BOOZE

MIAMI, Oct. 22.—If the person who shipped a packing box to a northern address last Friday had marked it "Glass, Handle With Care," instead of "Tools," the negro drayman who hauled it to the express depot would not have given it a reckless heave from his wagon to the platform, the "tools" within it would not have commenced leaking, and George Manning would not have been arrested by Federal authorities yesterday, charged with violation of the national prohibition law.

But "the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley," and the leaky tool-box conclusively proves that Mr. Burns was right when he said it. Two cases of Haig & Haig's extra special Scotch whiskey, which were the contents of the box, were taken by E. L. Howe, department of justice agent here, who noticed the leak at the express depot, and the tracing of the stuff from the platform back to its alleged starting place in Fort Dallas Park was speedily carried out. The drayman was located and showed Howe the building from which he had gotten the shipment, and the man who had it loaded aboard the wagon was also pointed out.

Consequently a warrant was issued for Manning and served through the office of the United States Deputy Marshal John A. Moritz yesterday morning. Bart A. Riley appeared at the Federal building voluntarily to surrender himself, after having received unofficial notification that he was wanted.

Attorney Riley waived preliminary hearing for his client before Commissioner J. M. Graham and bond in the sum of $500 was furnished for his appearance at the April term of the United States District Court, 1921. Julian Prewitte and M. H. F. Koch, local real estate men, being bondsmen.

The big box, which might easily have passed for a tool-box had it not been for its tendency to leak, was consigned by "C. B. Wallace," and a value of $50 placed on it. It is understood that $50 for two cases of Haig & Haig whiskey is a rather low valuation at present market prices for that commodity.

It was stated at the Federal building that the shipper of the consignment still has $9.50 change coming to him from the negro drayman, who he handed a $10 bill in advance, saying he would get his change at the depot later.

NEITHER BUY NOR SELL 'TILL MANUFACTURERS GET DOWNWARD TREND, TOO

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 22.—Four hundred planters from eleven counties of the Piedmont section of Virginia, in session here yesterday, adopted resolutions that it is "unwise for growers" to buy or sell any commodities of any character whatever until there has been a readjustment of prices.

The resolutions set forth that manufacturers will not reduce prices until they have disposed of all articles manufactured from raw materials purchased when prices were higher, thus compelling the producers to stand all the loss of the process of deflation of prices. An organization was formed to affiliate with the Virginia-Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association.

FLORIDA WILL TACKLE SOUTHERN COLLEGE AT GAINESVILLE SATURDAY

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 22.—The University of Florida, expecting formidable opposition from Southern College, which will do battle with them for football honors tomorrow, are hard at work in preparation for the struggle. Several shifts have taken place and the coaches are drilling the men in signal and "skull" practice. Every member of the local aggregation is confident of victory, but lesser lights than Southern have "spilled the beans," for instance Boston College has muzzled the "bulldog" of New Haven twice in the last two seasons, much to the hurt surprise of the Elis.

With Georgia game but a week away any closely followed by Tulane, at Tampa, the Orange and Blue has a task worthy of their steel to face in the next fortnight.

The students are having great expectations for this year's grid carnival, and some promising new material, added to last year's staunch machine, are the chief cause of aforementioned "expectations."

It is announced that a disruption of passenger schedules was said by steamship men to be threatened by the flood of immigrants flowing into New York so swiftly that Ellis Island can not accommodate them, making it necessary for hundreds to remain in steerage of vessels several days. More than 20,000 aliens were brought in last week, but 10,000 of them have not yet been inspected because of inadequate facilities.

"GREATEST MOTHER IN THE WORLD" IN FOURTH RED CROSS ROLL CALL

PUBLIC MEN AND WOMEN BY THOUSANDS LAY PLANS TO BREAK ALL MEMBERSHIP RECORDS

SOUTHERN DIVISION WORKERS ARE ACTIVE

Review of What Red Cross Has Done and Now is Doing on Peace Working Basis

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Public spirited men and women by thousands in the five states of the Southern Division of the American Red Cross, are laying their plans to break all membership records for the Red Cross when the Fourth Annual Roll Call is held from November 11 to November 25.

From every part of Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee comes the report that community after community is organized for the Roll Call, and that many are only awaiting the word "Go!" to get their quota of members on the very first day.

The Roll Call is expected to be started by the renewal of memberships by every chapter worker in the division. There are 128 chapters organized for the Roll Call, and many more that are expected to complete their organization before Armistice Day, when the Roll Call opens.

The Roll Call Opens
Memberships in the Red Cross are of five different classes, the annual $1; the contributing, $5; the sustaining, $10; the life, $50; and the patron, $100. Any one can join under any one of these different classes in the Fourth Roll Call.

Basis of Quotas
Quotas for the Fourth Roll Call have been based not on population, but on the plans of the different chapters for the coming year and their actual financial needs. The money, too, will be spent largely right where it is subscribed.

Of the annual memberships of $1, fifty cents is kept by the chapter; of the contributing membership of $5, $1 is kept by the chapter; of the sustaining membership of $10, $3 is kept by the chapter; of the life membership of $50, the chapter sends the entire returns to Washington, where the interest is used to carry on the national work of the Red Cross.

To those who are not as familiar as others with the work of the Red Cross since the war, a brief review will give an idea of what the Red Cross has done in the past two years and what it expects to accomplish for America in the next few years to come.

The Man in Uniform.
It has held, course, as its first and most sacred duty its obligation to the man in uniform and to the men who fought and served for America in the world war. Red Cross has continued to serve the American Expeditionary Forces in Germany. Red Cross has continued to keep up its service to the 35,000 men at American military posts, at all of which it maintains a personnel to help out the boys in difficulties of bonus and back pay and transportation and the like, to help in family problems, to assist them in recreation and entertainment, to be, in short, the same "great mother" to them that the Red Cross was to the man overseas in 1917 and 1918.

Besides such service, Red Cross has given its care and attention to 53,000 former service men taking treatment in United States public health hospitals. It has put practically every man blinded in the world war into the Red Cross Institute for the blind at Baltimore. It has kept in touch with 30,000 returned soldiers and their families to give them help when it was most needed. For the fiscal year ending last June 30, it spent $8,400,000 in military relief in the United States, exclusive of money spent by chapters in similar service.

That much for Red Cross work with the military. To other citizens—the afflicted, the diseased, the disaster-stricken—Red Cross has been the friend, the shield, the helper.

Red Cross health work has been one of the prime factors in its peace program, and will continue to be pushed on an even greater and more universally beneficial scale. One has but to mention the 15,000 Red Cross nurses who wore on duty during the influenza epidemic last year, to inspire the people to rejoin the Red Cross, if only to carry on such splendid work as this.

15,000 Health Centers
Then there are the health centers the Red Cross has inaugurated in about 15,000 communities, through which health education has been spread, disease checked and many of the 750,000 annual deaths in the United States from remedial causes prevented. More than one thousand Red Cross nurses are working in the rural communities of America, where their services are most in demand. More of this work than ever will be done by the Red Cross next year, and it is hoped to put a public health nurse in every county where the need is great and the people sufficiently interested.

Much other splendid work has been done and will continue to be done by the Red Cross in teaching people how to get well and keep well. There are First Aid classes of the Red Cross, which taught more than a million Americans last year what to do before the doctor comes. The toll of deaths in America from accidents each year is more than 100,000, of whom 7,000 are drowned. The Red Cross has been particularly active in the South in organizing Life Saving corps to stop such lamentable and preventable loss of life as this. Many Southern papers in the past year have carried accounts of rescues at beaches and lakes where life was saved by Red Cross first aiders. Other classes of this character that have accomplished splendid work are the classes in home hygiene and care of the sick, and classes in home dietetics, in which last year more than 90,000 women and girls of America learned how to care for the sick people in their homes and what is best for the family to eat in order for the members to keep well and strong.

Right On The Job
Disaster relief has been the job of Red Cross for many years past. During the Wall street explosion not so long ago, Red Cross was on the job with doctors and nurses almost as soon as the police and as a result a number of lives were saved outright and many wounded people kept from being invalids and cripples for life. People in the South will recall the numbers of times when Red Cross has been the only relief and helper in time of flood and fire in several communities. In the 39 years of its existence Red Cross has given relief in 350 floods, fires, tornadoes and other disasters and last year alone it gave aid to more than 30,000 unfortunates in 150 different communities.

While so much has been done by Red Cross in America in the last two years, it has not stopped administering wise, economical but unstinted aid to starving peoples in other lands. By fighting typhus, cholera, tuberculosis and other horrible diseases in fever-ridden European countries, Red Cross has saved thousands of lives, particularly those of women and children who had no one else to turn to save the "greatest mother in the world."

This is the sort of work the Red Cross has been doing. This is the sort of work it will continue to do, if the people of America will join "one hundred per cent" in the forthcoming Roll Call.

FLORIDA LEADS UNITED STATES IN LIFE SAVING

American Red Cross Report Praises Work Done by Local Chapters.

OTHER WORK OF RED CROSS

Notable Beginning Made in Social Service

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Because of the splendid record made by Red Cross in Florida in life-saving and in other ways during the past year, Florida Red Cross chapters are planning to break all records for membership during the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call, November 11-25, according to letters received at division headquarters of Red Cross from Florida chapter workers.

"Florida led the nation in Red Cross life-saving work last year," writes one chapter chairman. "We are going to lead the nation in the Roll Call, too."

Florida's record work in life-saving can be attributed to the number of fine Red Cross corps organized at various points throughout the state. The Jacksonville Red Cross Corps set the pace for corps the country over with ten rescues and thirteen "assists" to its credit at Pablo Beach. Other corps did splendid work at Miami, Fort Lauderdale, West Palm Beach, Daytona, University of Florida and Pensacola, while corps are being organized at St. Petersburg, Fort Myers, Winter Haven and other places.

Not alone has life-saving been a major activity in Florida. On its record in health work, social service work and other activities, the Red Cross asks support of Florida people.

The Red Cross has 67 chapters in Florida and 26 branches, with a total of about 50,000 members. Thirty-seven chapters have been most active in Red Cross work since the war.

In military work the Red Cross has given service to thousands of soldiers and sailors at such posts as Fort Barrancas, Fort Pickens, Fort McRae, the Pensacola Naval Hospital and Air Station, Carlstrom Field, Door Field, Fort Dade, the Key West Naval Station and Air Station, Submarine Base and Naval hospital, and the Atlantic Fleet when it touched port. Red Cross workers were at all these posts, besides serving the transients with comfort kits, magazines, newspapers and the like.

Public health nursing done by the Red Cross in Florida is illustrated by the Apalachicola, Pensacola, Tampa and West Palm Beach chapters, each of which has had public health nurses, engaged in organizing clinics, seeing to medical inspection for school children, co-operating with the Anti-Tuberculosis association and other health authorities, delivering talks on health and hygiene and in other ways, improving health and standards of health throughout Florida. The Red Cross has conducted classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick at Weirsdale, East Lake, Lake City, Fort Meade, Tiger Bay, Cedar Keys and St. Petersburg.

Home Service Work.
Reviewing Home Service work of Red Cross in Florida, reports state that, from January, 1920, through July, Red Cross dealt with 1,251 civilian families and 1,848 soldiers' families; rendered services to 7,555 soldiers' families and to 324 civilian families; gave information to 1,394 soldiers' families and to 354 civilian families; gave financial service to the sum of $47,057 to soldiers' families, and $9,353 to civilian families.

Red Cross disaster relief in Florida in the last two years, says the report, has been confined to assistance to time in furnishing relief and relief station during the Key West at of September, 1919.

BIG DROP IN FREIGHT IN ENGLAND

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 23.—There has been a big drop in freights during the last few months, a shipping authority has informed the Liverpool Post. Taking the market all round he said, freights have fallen by about 50 per cent since the beginning of the year. This situation is attributed to the increase in the world's shipping tonnage and the general scarcity of goods to export. Ships are leaving London and other United Kingdom ports with part cargoes.

"Before the war the United Kingdom was the carrier for half the goods of the world", said the shipping man. "Our share is no about one-third. The United States which before the war owned a nominal amount of tonnage is now our chief competitor and swallows much freight that would otherwise be carried in British holds. Operating costs are tremendously high, the coal item being one of the biggest factors."
