r Robert King High, repeating his 1964 victory, rode a surge of Dade County votes early today into a runoff for governor of Florida against incumbent Haydon Burns and planned to seek the help of the man he beat out, Scott Kelly. "I hope to get Mr. Kelly's upport," said High, who deeated the former Lakeland mayor in the 1964 first primary but lost to Burns in the runoff for a two-year term as governor. This time, a fouryear term is at stake. There was talk of a visit by High to Kelly in Lakeland today, but High said he would not be sure of his plans until he had a few hours sleep and confered with his campaign advisors. He promised to begin campaigning today for the May 24 run-off, and so did any "protracted" period of The resolution points out what administration officials readily admit - oversees investment is how U. S. business gets its foot in the door abroad and keeps it there. In addition, the proposed policy statement notes that in the long run, foreign investment brings home more money than it sends abroad. But, according to the administration, the balance of payments situation is so crit ical that it is worth secrificing some long run return to end the dollar outflow right President Johnson's "voluntary" restraints on oversees ending and investing were due to end by close of 1966. But Fowler said recently that they might have to remain in force to offset government spending in Vietnam.

Versatile Meat Loaf Is Tasty you please, that's this recipe for Versatile Meat Loaf! Bake it in a ring and serve with creamed vegetables in the center or tuck it into muffin cups to bake as individual servings, says meat expert These are but two ways it can be prepared. Make individual loaves to wrap in bacan or make a single large one. Like patties? It makes twelve 1-inch thick patties. Salt, popper and onion are elassic in seasoning a meat loaf mixture, but this one also uses whole wheat bread this very flexible recipe. If the retailer grinds the meat to your order, he may combine

Shaped to Please 1% pounds ground beef 16 pound ground pork 1 teaspoon salt 14 teaspoon pepper

1 tablespoon Worcester 16 cup grated carrots 34 cup chopped onion 11/2 cups soft whole wheat bread crumbs 1/2 eup milk 2 eggs, slightly beaten mix thoroughly. Shape into individual loaves or pack well into desired-shaped pans. This recipe will yield twelve meat muffins, using 2%-inch muffin pans; twelve 1-inch thick patsix loaves, 31/2 x3x11/2 inches; a 1¼-quart ring or a 9 x 5-inch loaf. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) the following lengths of time: mufloaves, 25 to 30 minutes; ring 40 minutes; and 9 x 5-inch loaf, 1 hour. shaped individual loaves may be wrapped in bacon, if desired. 6 to 8 servings.
