MIAMI SHORES

A Better Buy Today Than Was Miami a Few Years Ago

You Must See Miami! Do not make the mistake of leaving Florida without having seen the modern miracle of city building—Miami by Biscayne Bay; the city which is growing faster than any other in America. Be our guest on a free inspection trip. Telephone our office, or call to make reservations.

Britt-Chittenden Realty Company, Inc.

210 East First St., Sanford, Fla.

THIS IS A RATHER strong statement but it is nevertheless a conservative statement of fact.

A FEW YEARS ago there was no definite assurance that Miami would be a great seaport city. A few years ago there was no assurance that Miami would attract the centers of finance. A few years ago Miami was more or less a question mark in the minds of the investing public. A few years ago no one knew that the inheritance tax amendment would become a reality. A few years ago Miami was just a delightful winter resort town.

Miami is attracting the centers of finance. Today Miami is not a question mark, but reality in the minds of the investing public. Today the inheritance tax amendment is a reality. Today Miami is much more than just a delightful winter resort city.

AND, THEREFORE, Miami Shores, an integral part of greater Miami, situated as ideally as is Miami—and more so from a residential standpoint—with its new causeway to the ocean, its wide, paved boulevards—none less than 70 feet in width—with its complete city plan and with the absolute elimination of all unfavorable commercial development—inasmuch as the municipal causeway prevents forever the expansion of shipping docks north of 13th Street—therefore Miami Shores is a more perfect investment opportunity than was Miami a few years ago.

EARTH'S WEARIEST By Theodosia Garrison. Twan God in heaven who spake to Death 1

Who stood beside His knee, 'Oh, lover of all men that live, Whose arms chasp land and sea, Find thou on earth the weariest

And hear it swift to me."

It was God's messenger who went Swift-footed on his way; Like flome he crossed the rim o night. Like shadow crossed the day,

And as he passed the glad dead wniled As soothed children may.

It was God's messenger who sped [

Like blown wind through the spheres, Across the little paths of earth, With feet that no man hears.

He reached the portal of that place That is the House of Tears. It was God's messenger who stood which collected there.

And watched with pitying eyes

Who heard the broken sighs Of men who cried aloud their griefs And mourned their miseries.

It was God's messenger who spake: "Not theirs the gift I bring. Behold, the sorrow that is said Becomes a little thing; And there is soluce in man's tears

That is God's comforting. It was God's messenger who went The little ways of earth. The red moon smouldered in the

Like fire upon a hearth, And lo! he came unto that place

That is the House of Mirth. It was God's messenger who heard

The laughter and the cheer. The wine was red upon the board, The lights burned high and clear, And one laugh rang above the rest That joyed men's hearts to hear.

It was God's messenger who heard One voice above the rest-She who was gayest in the song And quickest with the jest,

That ached within ber breast. It was God's messenger who bent

And touched her tenderly; "Great is the anguish of a smile That shows where grief should)

And awful are the unshed tears That never man may see."

It was God's messenger who spalar The word that man saith; It was the poor soul in his arms That smiled in her last breath,

"Strove I not well how did t thou I was so weary, Death?"

Another "Florida Realty Flyer"

William Jennings Bryan has spent ten years in Florida and swears by all that is good and holy that he hasn't made a million dollars. Well, may be he hasn't, but Thomas Meighan, who has made remarkable love to Lila Lee in any number of good motion pictures, cleaned up a half million in three months in a realty "flyer" over in Ocala recently.
