Legion Honors Past Commander

Representatives of department, district and local posts of the 8th district, American Legion, joined Deltona Post 255 for the recent "Cora Buckles Day" to pay tribute to the immediate past district commander. Tribute from the Deltona Post was read by Mrs. Helen K. Bacon, post adjutant. It stated, "On behalf of the members, past, present and future, of Post 255, it is my great privilege to present to you a token of esteem, gratitude and thanks. You, as past commander of the 8th district, adjutant of your own local post in Bunnell, wife, mother, judge and legal secretary, are a shining example of the true spirit of the American Legion and all it stands for. With all the duties of your office, your home, your family and your profession, you found time to literally 'nurture' this 'baby' post of the 8th district through the agony and growing pains of its first year to its present state of activity. Again, on behalf of this post, to you... the example, the spirit, the dedication to the cause of the American Legion... our heartfelt thanks. It is only due to the fact that it is impossible to name a post after a living person that this post is not known as 'Cora Buckles Post 255.'" In closing, Mrs. Buckles was presented with a corsage in red, white and blue with a small envelope attached containing a monetary gift from the Deltona post. Others paying tribute to the honoree were John Peeney, commander of the Department of Florida, American Legion; Mrs. Paula Granger, senior vice commander; and B. A. Bliss of Deland, present 8th district commander. Mrs. Buckles, judge of the county and legal secretary to the prosecutor in Bunnell, is the wife of Victor Buckles and is the mother of three sons, Commander and Mrs. Manuel

A Bow To Young People In Or Out Of School

Editorial Comment

Fair warning is hereby given that this editorial comment comes from a personal experience but has, we hope, much more than personal meaning.

It is also to wag our editorial tail at the note from the Lyman High, Greyhound Growl, with a most fraternal swing—for they and we are members of the Fourth Estate.

The event, which took place in connection with the annual observance of Newspaper Week. We were there to address the school on the role of The Sanford Herald in Seminole County.

Into the gymnasium ran, walked and wiggled the sophomore class. What memories surged as we watched. Here, in most active and vocal flesh and blood were the teenagers.

Over more decades than it is necessary to mention we had been part of such groups, then met with such groups, then counseled with such groups.

To fall in with the popular concept we should add that they were noisy and full of their own interests—in short, rude! But we do not. We recognize that the gymnasium with its vast athletic floor, its resounding and echoing acoustics, was not a spot to encourage rapt attention.

Rather we would state two conclusions: 1. Our audience quieted and paid attention and applauded. 2. The good taste, the courtesy of those in charge and the very unexpected and welcome note from our fellow journalists on the Greyhound Growl makes a point we would emphasize and expand upon.

Seminole County is no different from other areas in the United States where population growth and the increased demands of modern education has posed a challenge which had not been met.

But we are on the road to meeting it. If during this process we find our young people impatient with physical conditions and confused by the climate of unrest so prevalent, let it be noted that it is the noisy minority, those who have not realized what education means to them and their future that grab the headlines and revel in the spotlight.

The vast majority, the solid core of every student body is sound in content and produces every year and in every area of human endeavor those fine youngsters who will have to cope with and surmount the problems which every vigorous society produces.

These conclusions are not wishful thinking. They are supported by facts and events that should be familiar to all of our readers and recalled with more than a passing glow of approval.

Take, for example, what the young people of our city and of our county have done in the important area of political action.

True this is a year when any young man or woman with political instincts would have a hard time to muffle them. But it is apparent in both parties, and especially in the emerging organization of a Republic can party with candidates and campaigns on the local level, that our recent graduates (and some under-graduates) are lively and not to be ignored.

This is welcome. This is the true democratic with a small d) process. This is something which is witness to the health of our high school body. It is also an experience which is chastening and useful to those involved.

At the risk of being charged with being too classical, too "square," we would recall the historic saying so often quoted that the "battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton" and apply it to our own educational institutions here in Seminole County.

The challenge of tomorrow must be met by those in the schools of today. We believe that they will be and are grateful for our experience at Lyman and sign off with a "thirty" and thanks to the Greyhound Growl!

Read The Bible!

Today we note the start of another "week" in the parade of those which are designated to honor some special endeavor or, at times, some noted personality.

This time it is something so basic, so honored, so enveloped in the religious and daily needs of mankind that a special week should not be necessary. But it is.

Thus we are happy to comment on the start of "Bible Week" and point to some situations which make this week in 1968 different from others both in the time it is being observed and the breadth of its observance.

Does any one think that these are days when Bible reading should not be emphasized? Surely not any thoughtful person would subscribe to this concept.

Certainly Wallace E. Johnson, national chairman of the observance and president of Holiday Inns of America, has no such illusion.

We agree with his statement: "Our founding and our success as a nation and a people go back to the greatest book in the world—the Bible. Our goal in 1968 is to persuade as many Americans as possible to become daily readers of the Bible."

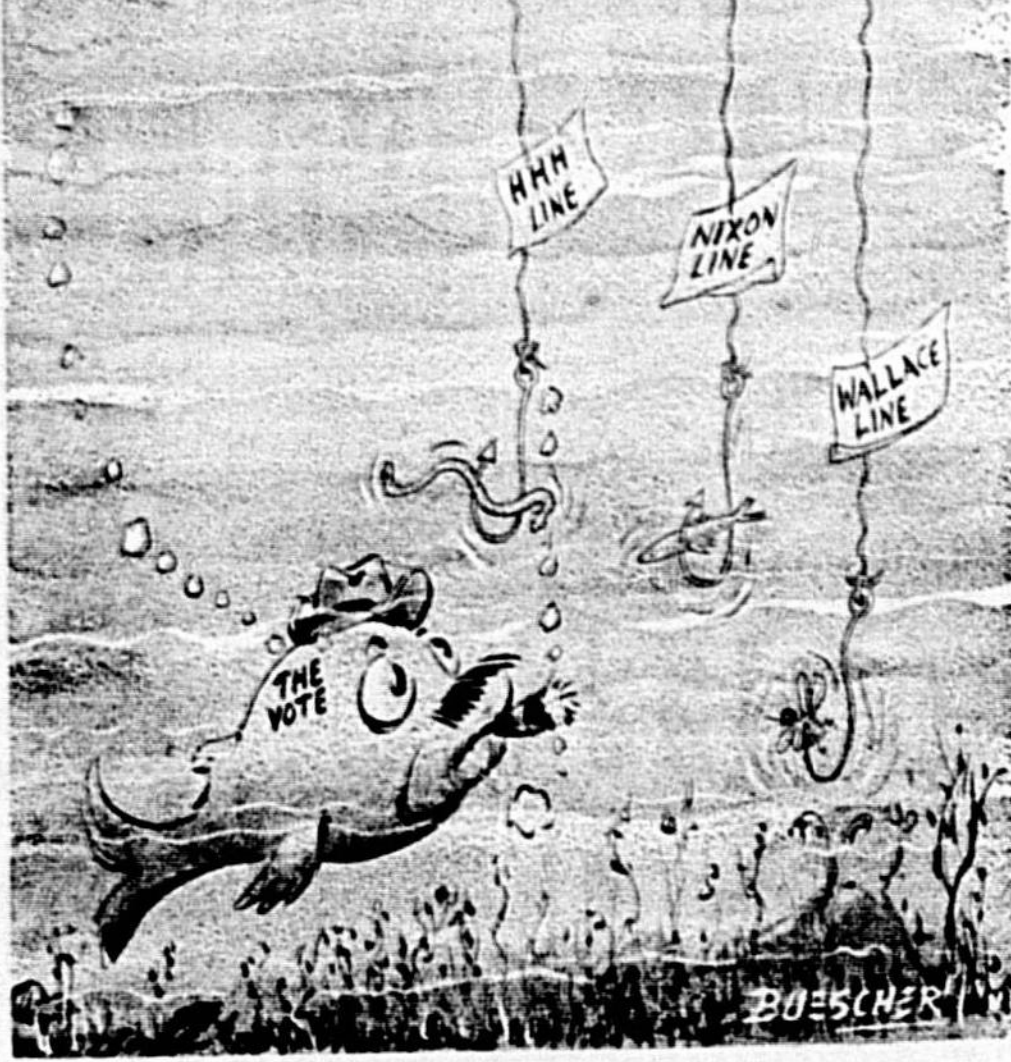

Another distinctive feature of the 1968 Bible Week is the support of the week by the US Roman Catholic Bishop's Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs.

Heretofore, this observance has been a Protestant enterprise, co-sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee and the American Bible Society.

Ward is that in 1969 the Catholic Biblical Association will join with the American Bible Society for next year's observance of the World-wide Reading Program.

So much for comment. Now join in with the observance and open your Bible and read!

Cities Must Find Answers

By RICHARD WILSON
NEW YORK, N.Y.—What a frightful mess New York City is in! The traveling reporter who is looking for political trends finds himself enmeshed in the swirling vortex of a city beset itself with agencies which a new president of the United States will not be able to do much to relieve.

The public schools are closed, interrupting the education of a million children, ever issues now so complicated by charges of anti-Semitism and racism that the average New Yorker is completely befuddled on what it is all about. Twenty-three thousand policemen threaten a kind of slowdown in enforcing the law, in lieu of a strike, over pay increases in a new labor contract with the city.

The federal government has had to move in on the reeling mess of the city's welfare and relief scandals. Clattered with new immigrants from the American South and Puerto Rico, the city is paying out welfare to more than a million clients, thousands of them illegible or overpaid.

The city's college and university campuses seethe with revolt, the latest a "mill-in" jamming the lobby and elevators of the main building of New York University in Washington Square.

On top of all this a gas explosion in 42nd street a block from crowded Times Square injured eight persons and emptied nearby buildings. One senses that the whole city may blow up in a domino rear of shattering glass, steel and concrete and if there ever is to be a solution to the city's problems this is it.

All the glib mouthings of the presidential candidates on solving the problems of our cities come into proper perspective in this superheated city with problems which will require decades for solution, if they are ever solved. New York has rebuilt itself since the end of World War II into

Impact Of Ridicule Noted

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—When Abbie Hoffman of the yippies stands up before the House Un-American Activities Committee and solemnly asks special leave to go to the bathroom, when Jerry Rubin appears naked to the waist bearing a toy M-16 rifle or when Chicago rioters spread the rumor they're dumping LSD into the water supply to send all Democratic convention delegates on a "trip," they're following a "book" insurgents have used for 500 years.

Few Americans understand the role ridicule has played in revolts.

The lesson was brought home to this reporter by an old Vietnamese song writer Ho Chi Minh sent into the hamlets of North and South Vietnam in the early 1950s, singing and teaching duties that mocked the French with biting effect.

The current revolt against Mao Tse-tung was spearheaded by historical novels which parodied Mao and his government.

Much of the Mother Goose we read as children, make people grow less confident in its worth and its strength. Sincere citizens then begin to reject it. Weakened opponents gain the courage to resist.

Part of the task of making a man nor an Establishment—look pumpkin-headed is to egg him (or her) into reactions that appear silly or "stupid" to the public (or television audiences). Thus the foul language, the use of urtic bombs and some the vague "threats" to assassinate high officials.

A police force everyone laughs at isn't effective. Neither is a candidate or legislative body made to appear bumbling.

Crane's Worry Clinic:

Aids For Education Of Deaf

By GEORGE W. CRANE
PH. D. M. D.
CASE G-512: Prof. Roy K. Holcomb is a leading authority on the education of the deaf.

A couple of years ago he invited me to talk to the national convention of teachers of the deaf.

"Dr. Crane," he mentioned recently, "it might interest you to know that Gallaudet College now has an enrollment of 500 students—a far cry from when you and I went there."

Gallaudet College is for deaf students. It is educational. And maintains excellent athletic teams, which compete with those of nearby colleges.

The deaf athletes signal with their fingers when calling their plays, both in football and basketball.

And the students cheer enthusiastically in sign language but then stamp their feet for the "rah-rah-rah."

Prof. Holcomb mentioned a number of inconveniences that the deaf experience, which I'll enumerate as follows:

(1) You start your car but don't feel the vibration, if it's brand new, so you often use realize that fact, since you don't hear the sound.

(2) You see a motor die at a stop light but you don't know it till the green light comes on and impatient drivers wave at you in fire for holding up traffic.

(3) The cashier or sales clerk says $2.50 but you read her lips as saying $3.19, or it's $2.15 when you thought she said $2.50.

(4) At the doctor's office, you watch to see your name called. But momentarily you glance at a magazine and that's sure to be the time the nurse then calls your name.

(5) Since you don't hear it, she must come over and lead you, like a little child, as if you didn't want to face the doctor.

These are just a few of the many daily hazards of being deaf, which often produce embarrassment, says Prof. Holcomb.

H. L. Hunt Says:

Truly Letters To The People

It is good business being a strong advocate of patriots writing letters to the editor on freedom topics, and the business of writing such letters is gaining in popularity.

The value of letters to the editor is twofold in that they are simultaneously letters to the editor and letters to the people who read his paper.

A good editor with his finger on the pulse of his readers can do much to be influenced by letters from them expressing their views on matters that involve the preservation of freedom in America.

The readers' views are almost certain to be reflected, to some extent at least, in the editor's own expressions of editorial opinion. If he finds that they like pro-freedom editorials he is apt to provide more of them.

The writer of letters to the editor has the opportunity to reach thousands, in some cases hundreds of thousands or millions of readers with his freedom message. Surveys have shown that "Voice of the People" departments in newspapers are more widely read than anything else except the front-page news. The opportunity to reach such an audience is one that no freedomist should neglect.

To receive favorable consideration letters should be short, no longer than 150 words, confined to one subject, and typed or written legibly in ink. Truth side letters to the editor are among the very best weapons available to patriots. They are available to reappraise 15 minutes, 15 days or 15 months later. It is evident that citizens are in the mood to listen to the right side in the fight to save freedom.

Thoughts

For thou didst give me with strength for the battle; thou didst make my assailants sink under me.—Psalms 18:39.

Gurney And Collins Tangle On TV Again

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Rep. Ed Gurney accused Lally Collins of being ignorant about congressional workings and Collins slammed Gurney for practically "suggesting we declare war on the Soviet Union" Sunday night.

The two U.S. Senate candidates carried old and worn fights in a new battleground, moving into Miami to tangle in their fourth television debate. A television rally featuring both candidates was to be videotaped today for play later on LIBERTY's show called Miami Press Conference.

"That's certainly not true," Gurney retorted when Collins said his Republican opponent's stance on Vietnam is "almost the point of suggesting we declare war on the Soviet Union."

Gurney, responding to a question, said the United States' Vietnam's most important port even if it means taking over a Red Chinese island and capturing Hanoi.

Gurney said this nation should serve notice of the blockade and then it to U.S. efforts to keep missiles out of Cuba.

"That was quite a different situation," Collins said. He explained that involved an over-territory here and I think the country was ready to take that step if necessary."

Gurney said Collins "shows ignorance of the workings of Congress" when he challenged Gurney to say where he stood on the creation of a national park around Florida.

Collins said Gurney "didn't to Miami.

Gurney said the late President John F. Kennedy and President Johnson had pledged to rid Cuba of Communism. Gurney said this could be accomplished through re-establishment of the Monroe Doctrine, economic sanctions, boycotts and ending American interference with refugees seeking to make guerrilla raids on their homeland.

In another of the frequent agreements both said they favored continuation of Freedom Flights bringing Cuban refugees to a greater rate than murder.

Surplus Food Chief Appointed

Volusia County Commissioner has appointed Mrs. Julie Vinson, director of the county welfare department, to supervise the federally subsidized surplus commodities food distribution program slated to begin operations by Nov. 1.

Welfare offices will be moved to the warehouse on Carwell Street in Daytona Beach as an economic measure.

Mrs. Vinson's salary will be raised from $7,920 to $9,720 a year. Wage increases also were authorized for two deputy welfare directors, Marie Altman and Carol Cardwell, from $5,500 to $6,500 a year, and a new social worker for the surplus food program will be hired at annual wage of $4,200.

Malvin Sluder of Daytona Beach, a retired Navy chief commissaryman, was hired as director of the warehouse and will be paid $5,200 a year.

Certification of eligibility for participation in the food distribution will begin as soon as proper forms are received, hopefully by Dec. 15.

A kitchen will be opened at the warehouse and Mrs. Edna Ely, home economics agent, will instruct and demonstrate preparation of foods available through the program.

It is expected that some 20,000 persons will benefit from distribution of the surplus foods. Last year, 19,000 were assisted by the county and these will be among the number to qualify for participation.

Those receiving state welfare also will be eligible as well as those who do not receive assistance but whose incomes are low.

The commission voted to implement the program for one year and has budgeted $25,000 for this purpose. Those on the distribution committee, in addition to Mrs. Vinson, are Commissioner Richard Fellows, who will serve as chairman; Commissioner Dean Smith, and Robert Summers, deputy auditor for the board.

County Receives Voting Machines

Arrival of 50 new voting machines ordered to handle what is expected to be a record vote Nov. 5, brings the total number of machines in the county to 269. Supervisor of Elections Katherine Ofsam reports.

Rental for the machines, which were ordered under an emergency measure, will be $150 per machine for the first year which will apply on the total purchase price of $27,500 come out of the next budget year.

We voting citizens of Central Florida support the candidacy of Hubert H. Humphrey for President and Senator Edmund Muskie for Vice President in the Democratic Party ballot.

We feel strongly that in these days of strong feelings... that as reasonable and responsible citizens of Central Florida... we must recognize the realities of our local, state, national and international problems, and not seek simplistic solutions, scapegoats, or so-called miracle workers to meet the challenges of our times.

We feel that in the heat and emotion of this political campaign, we speak for a vast group of silent electorate who prefer to solve problems with intelligence and realism.

We challenge those who offer chaos, dictatorships, realignments, platitudes and meaningless campaign promises to achieve the presidency of our nation.

We stand ready to dedicate ourselves to elect Hubert H. Humphrey as President of the United States and will support him wholeheartedly with our energy, our combined efforts, and funds to achieve this objective in the interest of all citizens and in the best interest of our nation.

We invite all citizens in Central Florida to assert their own support of Hubert H. Humphrey for President, individually and collectively, with this volunteer group of responsible citizens.

Astronauts Ready To Splash Down

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP) — Calmed down after a day of bitter disagreement with ground controllers, the Apollo 7 astronauts kidded their way through their final television show today as they raced through their final hours in space, eager for homecoming Tuesday.

The seventh telecast from the orbiting studio ended with Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. deciding they are happy to be heading home.

A crudely drawn picture of the Apollo ship floating on the water was accompanied by these words: "Everybody out to the Pool."

"This is Apollo 7 signing off," he said as the excellent picture faded after a nine-minute production.

Schirra, Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and civilian Walter Cunningham had one new sign for the audience today which indicated they are happy to be heading home.

Clearly visible as the camera panned around the cabin were pictures of the three wives of the spacemen, pasted above their duty stations.

They also used the camera to zero in on the heavy beard grown by all three.

"I will not admit to the fact that there is any gray in this beard," Schirra said. "My hairdresser's the only one that knows."

The astronauts passed the camera around, Schirra equipped. "You've got three professional cameramen up here now, so when we get back we expect to get our union to it as citizens."

After passing out of camera range, Schirra told the center that they float around in their weightless cabin like monkeys in a cage, using hands and feet to get around.

"We've really become efficient at it like we've gone apes," he laughed.

After the telecast, the astronauts began a busy day of preparing for re-entry and splash-down in the Atlantic Ocean Tuesday.

They are to trigger their spacecraft engine over Hawaii and streak through the atmosphere to a landing southeast of Bermuda at 7:12 a.m. EDT.

The aircraft carrier USS Intrepid stands by to retrieve the astronauts as they complete their 11-day space mission that has put the United States firmly on course in the moon.

"I'm looking happily to Tuesday," Schirra said Sunday night. "The astronauts exchanged lighthearted banter with ground controllers and tension and complaints were gone."

Earlier in the day Schirra held a running verbal battle with Mission Control center in Houston.

President Nguyen Van Thieu has met four times in five days with U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker to discuss the American peace initiative. Government sources said Thieu is seeking firm assurances that the United States will not de-escalate the war without some major concession from North Vietnam.

A senior Vietnamese source said it was feared that Washington would agree to a "kimmick" solution, a de-escalation of the war from which would not really affect the Communist's war stance. The fear is that such a deal would put the allies at a permanent disadvantage in bargaining with Hanoi and vastly lessen the chances of a permanent solution acceptable to Saigon.

One senior official said any unilateral de-escalation would amount to a betrayal of the American fighting men who have died in the war.

Should South Vietnam consider its interests undermined by any bombing halt package, a wave of anti-Americanism would probably sweep the South, demonstrations and rioting, possibly with tacit government approval, could be expected.

Saigon Scores U.S. Peace Try

SAIGON (AP) — High circles from the Catholics who are well organized as a political group, expressed their sharp criticism of Washington's new peace initiative and its proposal to halt the bombing of North Vietnam.

"The Americans are fighting a political campaign at home, not the war here," said one senior official.

The South Vietnamese government is deeply concerned that in its negotiations with Hanoi, Washington may settle for less than it would if the presidential campaign were not on.

Many in the Saigon government believe that because Hanoi realizes the importance of the Johnson administration of some pre-emption break in peace negotiations, the allied bargaining position is vastly weakened.

"For the first time we're winning really winning," said one government minister. "For the first time in five years there is real popular support for the government." He said that the U.S. overtures to Hanoi "shattering" all that has been accomplished.

Rumors Rife For Peace

SAIGON (AP) — The United States and North Vietnam declared a 36-hour cease-fire in 288 square miles along the North Vietnam coast for the second day today, 14 North Vietnamese seamen captured more than two years ago.

The cease-fire and release of the prisoners, coupled with the withdrawal of the battleship North Jersey from off the coast of North Vietnam and the trouble in one engine and crashed in the central high lands. There were no survivors.

The dead included 30 Air Force men, two Army men and two civilians.

Information on today's raids over North Vietnam was announced today Tuesday.

American pilots on Sunday logged 116 missions over North Vietnam. An Air Force F-4 Phantom fighter-bomber was downed by ground fire 20 miles north of the demilitarized zone, and a big HH-3J Super Javelin helicopter that tried to rescue the two pilots also was shot down.

The two Phantom pilots and the four helicopter crewmen were pulled from the Gulf of Tonkin by two other helicopters after bombing on the storm-tossed sea for an hour and a half.

The aircraft lost were the 690th American warplane announced downed in combat over North Vietnam and the 10th helicopter downed in the North.

The U.S. Mission said in a statement announcing the return of the 14 seamen to North Vietnam that their release "is intended as an act of good will."

"We hope it will lead to further releases of prisoners," it added.

A U.S. Mission spokesman said that a 36-hour "local cease-fire" was declared beginning at midnight Sunday and running until noon Tuesday in an area 12 miles off the coast of North Vietnam and 12 1/2 miles north and south of the city of Vinh, on the coast 145 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The U.S. Navy transport DuBoque took the 14 seamen from Da Nang, where they had been prisoners since July 1, 1966, to a point 12 miles off Vinh. There they went ashore in a motor whaler from the DuBoque. Two American helicopters accompanied the boat "and watched the seamen safely return to shore," a spokesman said.

5 Persons In Family Murdered

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Five bodies were found today in a burning home apparently set afire, police said, in an attempt to wipe out evidence of a preliminary investigation has produced evidence that this is an arson homicide case.

Police Chief Harry Wilkinson said.

The bodies of Mrs. Katherine Lovette, 49, her three children and a grandson were found in the ruins. Four had been shot.

Mrs. Lovette's husband, James, was hospitalized in critical condition from burns and smoke inhalation. He was unable to talk to police.

The others who had been shot by a .38 caliber revolver were Mrs. Lovette's daughter, Sandra, 18, a son, Todd, 8, and Sandra's son, Scott, 1.

Another daughter, Kary, 16, was dead of undetermined causes.

"Four of the five bodies recovered from the fire had bullet wounds that could possibly have caused their deaths," Wilkinson said in a statement. "Further evidence has been uncovered that the fire was deliberately set. This will be confirmed or denied after investigation by the state fire marshal."

FRANK ANSWERS TO IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

"Can't the same people a funeral home has on call around the clock also be used to answer ambulance calls, thereby keeping costs down?"

CREATIVE IDEAS FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas may be two months away but it seems just around the corner for today's busy homemaker. In an effort to eliminate some of the Christmas rush, the Seminole County Homemakers' Council has planned a program on creative Christmas ideas. This is the Open Council Meeting for the Homemakers, which will be held on Wednesday at the Agricultural Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The activity will begin at 10 o'clock with the Seminole County Homemakers' Council meeting. The main item of this meeting will be the election of County Council officers. From 11 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. a demonstration of Christmas desserts will be given by Miss Louise Long, Seminole County Extension Home Economics Agent. From 11:45 to 12 noon, the art of making Christmas corsages will be shown by Mrs. John A. Chartowich.

From 12 until 1 p.m. will be lunch time. Each person attending the meeting is asked to bring a sandwich. Dessert and beverage will be furnished.

At one o'clock Mrs. T. J. Chalfant Sr. will give a "show and tell" on her serpentine art objects. From 1:10 to 2 p.m. each of the seven Homemakers' Clubs of Seminole County will present a "Show and Tell" on Christmas decorations and gifts. Each club will take approximately seven minutes for their presentation.

At 2 p.m. a sincere demonstration will be given by Mrs. J. L. Wallin, of Osteen, Florida.

All Homemakers' Club members, guests and interested persons are invited to attend this Open Council Meeting on Creative Christmas Ideas on Wednesday. This should prove to be an extremely interesting meeting, from which many new ideas can be obtained to enrich the coming Christmas season.

Little Wekiva River Flood Survey Slated

Army Engineers are scheduled to start work in the next few days on an intensive flood plain information study along the Little Wekiva River in Orange County.

Understand at the request of the Orange County Commission, the study will be a part of the St. Johns River Basin urban areas, according to Col. John F. McElhenny, district engineer for the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

The primary purpose of the engineering study is to provide the Orange County government agencies and private citizens the flood hazard information needed in order to obtain the best use of flood-prone land areas.

When completed in about a year, the report will include maps showing areas subject to flooding along the Little Wekiva River, flood profiles, flood height and duration data and other information pertaining to past floods. A part of the same study will project the frequency of future floods, based on historical records.

Colonel McElhenny said the report will not contain recommendations for structural solutions to the flood problems since the study is designed to provide information on which local governments can establish county or area regulations to guide development and protect the public interest.

ROBERT G. PETREE COUNTY AND JUVENILE JUDGE

I believe that the decent, tapping, hard-working citizens of this community have the right to see. I believe the law must be enforced in such a manner as to make every person aware that he is responsible for his own actions. Public lectures from the bench are not enough. We have already had too much participation from some of the judiciary. No offender will respect the law if he expects and receives no penalty for its breach.

I pledge you a firm but fair administration of the law.

I pledge you an active program of court cooperation with law enforcement officials and civic organizations to develop an effective juvenile educational program on the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse.

I pledge you an active pursuit of proper juvenile correctional and holding facilities.

I pledge you a mature and understanding attitude by the court toward juvenile offenders.

I currently seek your support of my candidacy on the basis of qualifications and experience cited.

A Star-Spangled Day... Americans Continue The Olympic Domination

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEMPHIS (AP) — The Star Spangled Banner is being played in a grand style at the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City.

And all indications are that the Yanks are coming, that they've just gotten started. They've won nine of the 11 swimming events on the 33 event schedule and are expected to continue to win. And, too, they clinched at least two gold medals in sailing. In the Star and Dragon classes, with one race yet to go at Acapulco to date, Russia has one clinched there, as has Sweden.

Double Metzer of Sacramento, Calif., who led a 1.2 U.S. finish in the women's 400-meter freestyle Sunday, in Olympic record time 4:21.4, said U.S. girls are just getting warmed up, since they had to reach a peak for the trials, now they are trying for a second peak.

"We all pointed for the Olympic trials because making the team is so difficult with so many great swimmers we have," Sherman Chavoor, our coach, has been trying to get us mentally for the Games.

The United States now has a total of 55 medals, 24 of them gold, and Russia has 25, including 11 gold.

The Oviedo Lions took another lead mark on their record Friday night as the Oviedo Cardinals took advantage of a series of Oviedo mistakes by overrunning the Lions, 19-7.

There was a major trick play Sunday, sweeping the five swimming and diving golds up for grabs, track and field golds on the last day of that sport's competition.

Lyman Trounces Evans 13-6

Lyman weathered well Friday night against Class Double-A Evans in the Oviedo first home game playing in rain from passing Hurricane Gladys' Jordan broke through the Trojan defense and scored on a 17 yard run. The PAT attempt failed because of a quick Trojan defensive rush.

In the second period Evans fumbled on the Lyman 13 yard line and Mark Meyers who was the outstanding lineman of the night managed to recover the fumble.

Lyman moved the ball up the field and then Charlie Miller accepted a handoff from quarterback Mark Dowell and ran for a 23 yard gain. Evans' defense was unable to stop Lyman's offense.

The Paul Nicholas PAT was good and the home team was ahead 13-0. The second half witnessed a general change from Dick advanced the ball 11 yards further into Greyhound territory and early in the fourth quarter pushed even further to the Lyman 12. Evans had a fourth and five with only 12 short yards to score. Trojan signal caller Kenny Horton passed to Jim Bayley in the endzone and scored. The PAT was no good and the Lions were leading 13-0.

He Packs A Mighty Wallop

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — For a little guy who stands stretched out 5-foot-7 and weighs 125 pounds, Juan "Chi Chi" Rodriguez packs a mighty wallop on a golf course.

Chi Chi came on in the last round of the 120,000 Sahara Invitational Tournament Sunday. The 23-year-old pro from Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico, had such fellows as Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Julius Boros, all former National Open Champions, and the current King, Lee Trevino, on the ropes.

Then he finished off Dale Douglass, the Denver pro had never a major tournament, on the first hole of the sudden death playoff. Douglass, who led or shared the lead since things started here last Thursday, tied with a 70 for 270 with Chi Chi and his spectators.

Steve Lukert, 200-pound junior football coach, was advised by doctors to pass up football because of a serious leg injury. He will help coach the school's freshman team instead.

Those interested in Florida's coastal waters, particularly in the Gulf, despite the periodic onslaughts of the Red Tide, a phenomenon that has been known since Biblical days. A red tide exists when two conditions are present: (1) physical factors favorable to the rapid reproduction of dinoflagellates; and (2) a temporary reduction in the number of predators or enemies of the first organism. To us laymen, dinoflagellates are one-celled organisms with characteristics of both plants and animals. Although less than a thousandth of an inch in size, they reproduce so rapidly that a quart of sea water may contain 100 million. The organism clogs the water, kills fish by the million. More than 30 million were reported destroyed by this lethal red plankton in 1967. Millions of fish have been killed since then. To eliminate the disastrous tide is a problem scientists have not yet solved.

Substitute Caller, Unitas Stunned

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Substitute callerbacks in pro football often have a difficult time. And that's just what happened to a Baltimore sub named Unitas.

Johnny Unitas, one of the truly awesome figures in the National Football League, was sent into the game Sunday to spark Baltimore's sagging offense. Instead, he turned in a performance that was anything but awe inspiring as the Colts were upset 20-20 by the Cleveland Browns.

Baltimore's first loss in six games dropped the Colts into second place in the tough Coastal Division behind the Los Angeles Rams who got past stubborn Atlanta 27-14. The Rams and Colts collide next Sunday in a game that will be a real test.

Palatka Hands Crooms Fourth Loss, 18-6

By BOB THOMAS
Herald Sports Staff
The Central Academy High School Bulldogs by a score of 18-6.

The playing field was a quagmire; and intermittent rain fell throughout the game. Crooms' running game was affected by the muddy field; but the Bulldogs seemed to be right at home as their passing and running combined to carry them to victory.

The Panthers only score came on a screen pass from Moses Hays to David Howard that covered approximately 45 yards. After receiving the pass, Howard did a fine piece of running to reach paydirt. Coach Holt's chargers were alert and very aggressive as they gobble up at least three fumbles; but was unable to cash in on them. The Palatka team had a good defense as they stopped Crooms some three times inside the 10 yard strips.

The Sanford Seminoles proved a point Saturday night and proved it well as they nipped the Auburndale Bloodhounds, 20-13 in an action packed free for all. The Seminoles, led by quarterback Skip Senkarik, halfback Bob Lindquist and Bill Bracken bruised the Auburndale defense, while the Seminoles defense led by Rick Fordham and Tom Sandage ganged the Bloodhounds offense. Also playing an outstanding game for the Seminoles was fullback John Nieman.

Well, after the first week of football picks, I find myself at an even 500 clip. Two games which I picked on the tee was the one touchdown victory by the Lyons Greyhounds and the one touchdown win by the Oviedo Cardinals over our Oviedo Lions.

The Greyhounds now stand 5-2 but lost one of their most prized possessions as the Evans Trojans managed to finally pull across the Lyman goal stripe for a touchdown. Lyman alone all through the contest except for the fourth quarter and has proved that they only need one or two touchdowns due to their exceptional defense.

Seminoles Smash Auburndale Attack

By SCOTT KIRK
HERALD SPORTS STAFF
"It was a tremendous first half," commented Fighting Seminole Head Coach Ralph Stumpf. And indeed it was. On the very first kickoff, the Seminole defense was on the path thrusting and tearing chunks of yardage through Auburndale's highly vaunted defensive line all the way to the Bloodhounds eight yard line.

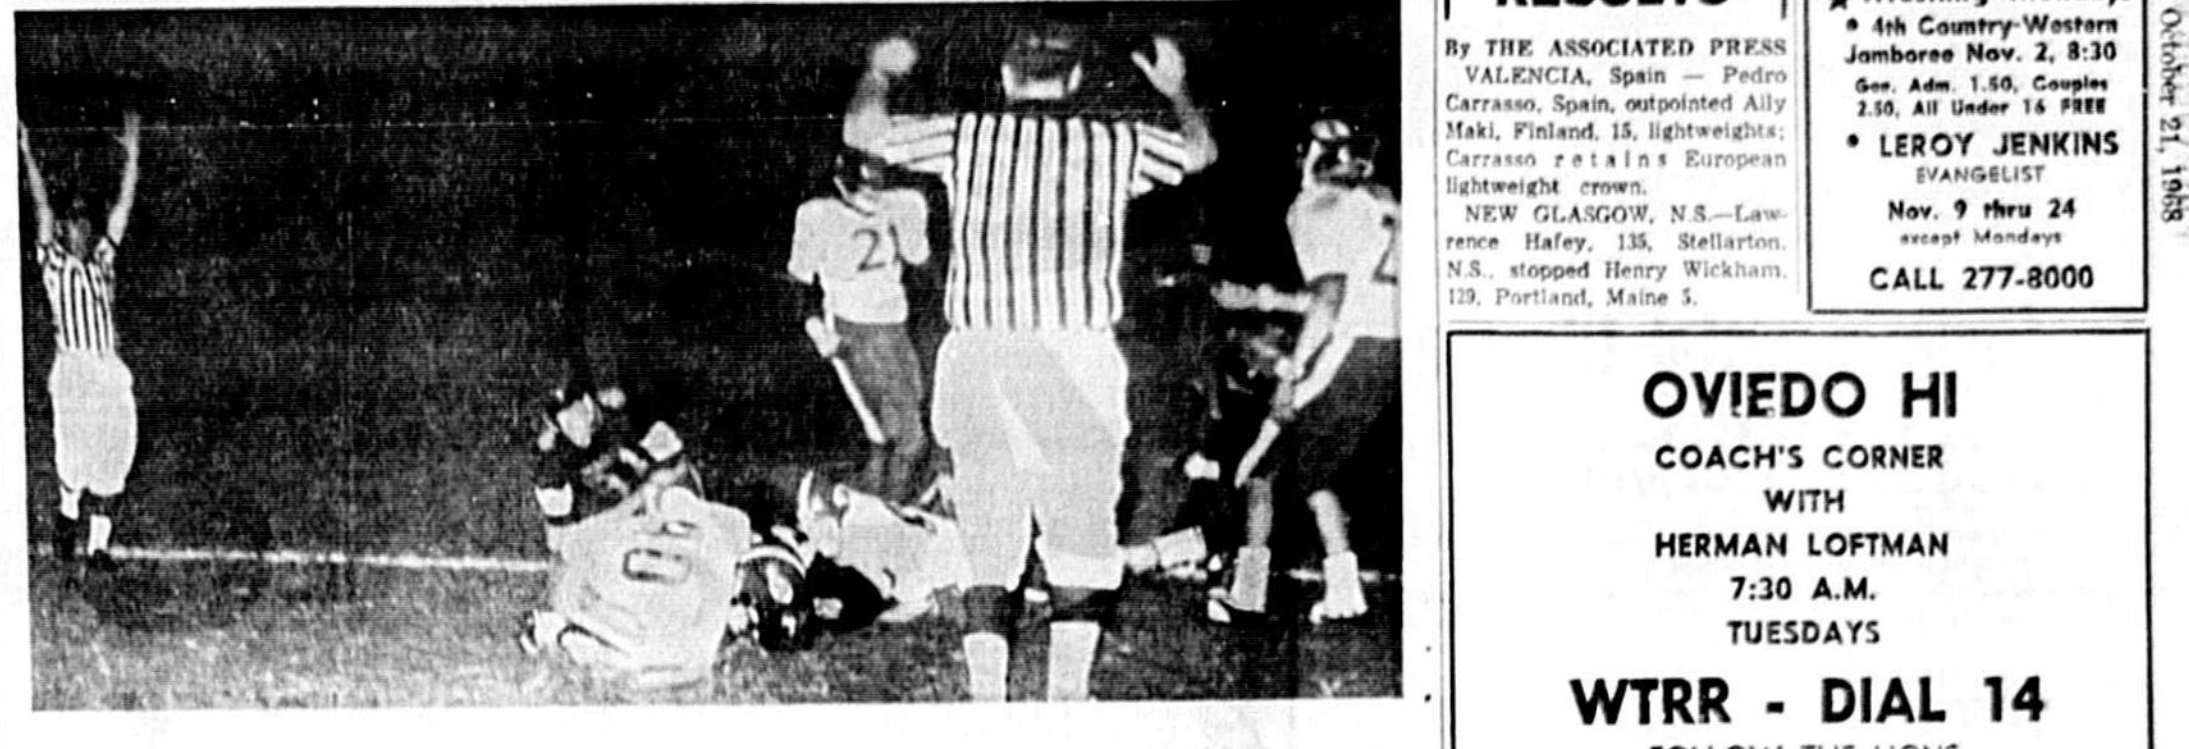

The Seminoles were halted by penalties and had to give the ball up on the 18 yard line. However, Seminole's defense had something to say when on the first play, fullback Rick Fordham and linebacker Tom Sandage thwarted every Auburndale move.

The Seminoles offense pushed the ball up the field on the first quarter and most of the second quarter was dominated by Seminole's defense as middle linebacker Rick Fordham and Tom Sandage thwarted every Auburndale move.

back Skipper Senkarik then took matters in his own right. He was a 15 yard aerial fall into the hands of halfback Bobby Lindquist who galloped ten more to score. The half ended with the Seminoles ahead 14-0, but ended 20-13 in favor of Sanford.

Achieve Director and Head Football Coach Ralph Stumpf advised the Herald this morning that the away game with Seabreeze has been changed from Thursday, Oct. 24 to Friday, Oct. 25. The Bloodhounds came back from the half with a different view of things. A 60 yard punt to the 10 yard line by speed merchant John Coleman, after a 20 yard pass, let the fans know it wasn't going to be a dull day.

A 10 yard T. D. strike by Coleman on the next series set down put Auburndale back into the contest.

THE NIEMAN EXPRESS collected six points for the Fighting Seminoles. The hard-running back, John Nieman, also booted the PATs. Seminole defeated Auburndale 20-13. (Herald Sports Photo)

NEEDS for a change in leadership was stressed by William F. Herlong, candidate for the fourth Congressional seat, in a talk before the Greater Oviedo Jaycees.

Governmental Change Needed—Herlong

By PAT BRATTON

Disatisfaction with present government administration is the reason William F. (Bill) Herlong is running for the fourth Congressional seat, Oviedo Jaycees were told when the candidate addressed a recent meeting of the group.

"I am involved in this campaign for one basic reason and that is that I am fed up with things in Washington. Government control has been getting tighter and tighter. I'm a conservative and I feel we need a change.

"Fifteen years ago you would have believed that in 1968 it would be unsafe to walk the streets at night in some of the cities or that we would be involved in a war with another fourth rate power that has lasted for over five years? Also, that the educational process has been disrupted by demonstrators who really don't care about getting an education?

"These are just a few of the things that disturb me about our country and nation."

Herlong went on to say "in order to make the changes needed, we need new leadership in the White House right on in Congress is the body that passes the laws."

"The Vietnam war has got to stop and I feel that it is time to do a little arm twisting."

"We need the leadership at the top to stop our lawlessness. We can't go in and buy peace through welfare programs. We need to help people help themselves."

"I think that we have a great opportunity this year to make some changes in the right direction and to bring respect for America in the world and to bring sanity back to the country—to restore law and order."

"In order to do this, we have got to change leadership—let's just that simple," he concluded.

Weather Mars Honeymoon Of Jackie And Telis

SCORPIOS ISLAND, Greece (AP) — Jacqueline Bouvier married John Fitzgerald Kennedy at a Roman Catholic ceremony on the island of Scorpis Sunday night, the man who rose from teen-age poverty in Turkey to a fortune estimated at $200 million to $300 million dollars and he and his bride hadn't decided where they would go.

The wedding ceremony in the simple, freshly whitewashed Chapel of the Little Virgin on Scorpis was a far cry from the lavish affair in Newport 15 years ago when Jacqueline Bouvier married John Fitzgerald Kennedy at a Roman Catholic ceremony on the island of Scorpis.

For her second wedding, Mrs. Kennedy wore a beige chiffon and lace overblouse with turtle neck collar and a pleated skirt ending at the knee. It was designed by Valentino, her favorite Roman couturier. A beige ribbon was atop her head and she wore low-heeled shoes matching her dress.

The glamorous former first lady and her bronzed, silver-haired husband retired on their wedding night aboard the yacht Onassis' luxurious yacht, the Christina, rocked at its moorings alongside his private island, fueled and ready to weigh anchor for a Mediterranean honeymoon.

But all through the night and into the morning, the winds and rains raged across the inlet in the Ionian Sea that Onassis bought six years ago and made into a paradise.

The glamorous former first lady and her bronzed, silver-haired husband retired on their wedding night aboard the yacht Onassis' luxurious yacht, the Christina, rocked at its moorings alongside his private island, fueled and ready to weigh anchor for a Mediterranean honeymoon.

Without revealing their travel plans, Mrs. Kennedy's two children, John F. Jr., 1, and Caroline, 10, and the bridegroom's two, Alexander Onassis, 21, and Christina, 19, stood beside the couple's father, Polykarpus Athanasiou, who performed the ceremony. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Alexander Garofalidou, was the official witness.

As a small choir chanted hymns, twin white wedding crosses were crossed over the couple's heads. The priest exchanged two gold rings to symbolize the unity of the couple "in the eyes of God."

Unlike the Catholic wedding ceremony, there was no "I do" for any pledge to love, honor or obey. The priest placed a New Testament encased in gold before the couple and each kissed it.

Wreaths of orange blossoms were then placed on their heads and they did the Dance of Isaiah, a kind of prance in which each tries to step on the other's partner first, says Greek tradition, will be the dominant partner. In the crowded chapel, however, it was impossible for most to tell who won, and the couple was not saying.

Her dark eyes brimming with tears, the new Mrs. Onassis was radiant. Many of the 40 relatives and friends in the little chapel wept with her, including her mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss.

The quiet, of the ceremony was punctuated by cries from thousands of Greeks who tried to lead on the beach 30 yards away. Coast guardsmen kept them at bay.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Onassis rode in a small beach car to the yacht moored nearby. Onassis drove, Caroline sat on her mother's lap, and the bride's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, sat in the back with her two children, Anthony and Anne Catherine.
