Collins Says Would Hold Probe For Ex-Employees Proposal Offers Suspended Men Chance For Jobs

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—One of his first acts as governor, says State Sen. Lelley Collins, democratic nominee, will be to hold hearings for 16 McCarthy appointees suspended by Acting Gov. Charley Johns.

DR. HAROLD UREY tells a U.C.L.A. audience that "if the hydrogen bomb can be harnessed as a source of power, the world will have the energy equivalent of all the oceans of the earth turned into gasoline."

Collins told newsmen yesterday he will reinstate the men if Johns' charges are not sustained but then will expect their immediate resignation "thereby giving me a completely free hand to make such appointments as I feel are proper to carry out our program."

The action, he said, would be to clear their names "of the stigma of the suspensions."

Johns, defeated by Collins Tuesday, ousted the appointees soon after taking over the duties of governor upon the death of Gov. Dan McCarthy in September.

He accused some of them of misfeasance and malfeasance in office. Johns' critics said the charges were trumped up.

The suspended appointees include five state road board members, five state racing commissioners, five members of the state public utility authority and the hotel commissioner.

Collins said he would expect resignations from State Motor Vehicle Commissioner E. V. Fisher and Conservation Supervisor Charles Bevis, both appointed by McCarthy. They offered to resign after Johns took over, but the acting governor refused.

Barring an unlikely Republican upset in the November general election, Collins will take office in January to serve out the remaining two years of McCarthy's term. Tom Watson of Tampa, former state attorney general, is his Republican opponent.

Collins said he has nothing to announce on an appointment in top positions "except they're going to be fine, able and determined men and women who will be a credit to the state."

SRD Head Says Plan Continues

MIAMI (AP)—Chairman Fred Webb today told the State Road Department is going right ahead with the $100 million road building program promised by Acting Gov. Johns.

He said the board expects to let contracts for the entire program before next January, when a new governor takes office. LeRoy Collins defeated Johns for the Democratic nomination Tuesday.

"We don't propose to involve any administration," Webb said. "The road board is composed of five businessmen who are much interested in the state and its welfare. We propose to build the roads we started out to build."

Webb said the board had let more than $20 million dollars in contracts during the brief Johns administration and would do so also rapidly with others.

There will be another contract letting in Tallahassee on June 15," he said.

Cohn Speaks Against Stevens, Counselor Says Did Not Want Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Roy M. Cohn swore today Secretary Stevens and Army counselor John G. Adams tried to block the McCarthy subcommittee's probe for Communists in the Army, and quoted Adams as saying it would be "a feather in his cap" if no hearings were held.

Under oath, the 27-year-old chief of staff to Sen. McCarthy also said Adams had been in the McCarthy camp during the Army's investigation of Stevens.

Cohn said Adams had not asked for a hearing, but he had been in the McCarthy camp during the Army's investigation of Stevens.

Search Is Made Of French Ship By Customs Agents

PANAMA (AP)—Tensions increased in the Gulf of Panama today as U.S. customs inspectors at the Atlantic mouth of the Panama Canal ransacked the cargo of a French freighter—presumably for Communist arms.

An agent of the French Line at Cristobal said a search of its 8,600-ton freighter Wyoming began last night "in connection with the business of the U.S. charges that leftist Communists recently received a large arms shipment from behind the Iron Curtain."

Navy Counts 91 Dead, 201 Injured In Blasts

FOUR-MAN BOARD OF INQUIRY NAMED TO PROBE BENNINGTON CATASTROPHE

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (AP)—The Navy counted 91 known dead today and 201 injured, many of them critically, in the devastating explosion-fires aboard the aircraft carrier Bennington 75 miles at sea.

The 32,000-ton carrier, a proud bearer of numerous battle honors in World War II, was rocked by the disaster early yesterday off New England.

A violent blast on the second or third deck below the flight deck was followed by searing flames which roared through many forward compartments. Then came at least one more explosion.

Scores were trapped in sleeping quarters. Many suffocated. Many perished in the flames.

The disaster, one of the worst in peacetime U.S. naval history, was the second aboard a carrier in New England waters in less than a year. Last October, 37 died in an explosion and fire on the carrier Lexington while she was docked in Boston.

A four-man court of inquiry, headed by Rear Adm. John M. Jenkins, commander of the Quonset Naval Air Station, was named to begin investigating today.

Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas, who flew to Quonset for a quick inspection, and Capt. William E. Raborn, Jr., Bennington skipper for only a month, said there was no indication of sabotage.

Senator Collins Observes Road Board Meeting

MIAMI (AP)—Lelley Collins was an interested observer from afar today as the State Road Board met in Miami to receive bids on 21 road construction and resurfacing projects.

"I hope the board will not make commitments which will hamper or involve my administration," Collins said in Tallahassee.

Collins won the Democratic nomination for governor in Tuesday's runoff primary, defeating Acting Gov. Charley Johns.

Between now and the time of his inauguration, Collins said he would keep a "cautious eye" on the progress of Johns' program. He promised $10 million dollar road building program.

Strong Winds Blow Down Circus Tent In Kansas

STOCKTON, Kan. (AP)—Strong winds blew down a circus tent last night but approximately 1,500 spectators and the performers escaped serious injury.

Employees of the A. G. Kelly and Russell Brothers Circus and townspeople on the grounds outside the big tent helped free those trapped under the billowing canvas.

The most serious injury reported was a broken ankle although a number of persons received cuts and bruises.

Pershing Brady, editor of the Rooks County Record, who was attending the circus, said that six girl acrobats had come up ropes to fasten their performance when the wind hit.

Visiting Lion

America always welcomes distinguished visitors; it is one way of telling the people in the lands from which the visitors come that Americans hold them in high esteem. In the case of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, however, the welcome will be especially warm and affectionate.

Americans will remember the dark days of 1935 when totalitarianism was cutting wide swaths throughout the world. When the Emperor of Ethiopia, short of stature but long on dignity, addressed the League of Nations. He pleaded for the free nations of the world to come to his assistance. He warned that if they ignored the invasion of his country by the Fascists of Benito Mussolini they would in time become victims themselves. His warning was disregarded; there are many who believe that if it had been heeded World War II could have been prevented.

Once again totalitarianism, this time under the name of Communism threatens to engulf the earth. Once more free men everywhere are faced with the question of what action they must take in common defense. The visit to America of Haile Selassie can be a timely reminder of the price that must inevitably be paid for procrastination or turning one's back on responsibility.

These are happier days for the Lion of Judah. May his visit be a pleasant one and may he return to his people with the re-

Time Will Tell If Move Correct

WASHINGTON (AP)—Time will show whether H. Stuyvesant Hensel was smart in letting the Senate subcommittee which is investigating the Army-McCarthy case dismiss him as a principal in the case.

That relieves Hensel, 6-foot-4 assistant secretary of defense, from having to testify and be cross-examined by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) unless he is called back because of an unexpected turn in the hearing. But if Hensel had insisted on remaining in the case and testifying as a principal, he and his attorney, Frederick Bryan, would in turn have been able to put McCarthy through cross-examination. Now, once these hearings are over and McCarthy resumes his role as chairman of the subcommittee, he can call Hensel before him and quiz him to his heart's content.

In that situation Hensel couldn't cross-examine McCarthy. So one can cross-examine a committee chairman. If Hensel had insisted on testifying, he would have brought his attorney along to such a session. McCarthy could forbid the lawyer to ask a single question or make a statement. He has done that before with others.

And if McCarthy, when he resumes the chairmanship, doesn't call Hensel on before him, reports are sure to ask him why in view of what he already has said about the assistant secretary.

On April 21, the day before the hearings began, McCarthy issued a 46-point bill of particulars answering charges made against him and his staff by Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams.

Stevens, Adams and Hensel were — until the subcommittee dismissed Hensel yesterday — the principals in the case against McCarthy, his counsel Roy (John and Francis) Carr, chief of his investigating staff. In points 6 through 9 McCarthy explained he was looking for motives behind the Army charges. He fastened on Hensel as the man behind and said Hensel had a motive to discredit McCarthy's committee.

McCarthy said his staff had been investigating Hensel himself and had "confirmed" a "serious allegation" against the assistant secretary of defense. The senator said that Hensel, in the top secretarial post of the Navy during World War II, drew large sums of money from a ship's supply firm which was operating with government priorities. Hensel vigorously denied any wrongdoing.

Yesterday Sen. Dan Rostenkowski (Ill.) suggested that senators investigating the McCarthy-Army dismiss charges involving Hensel and McCarthy's staff director Carr.

After some wrangling the four subcommittee Republicans voted to do it and the three Democrats opposed. Democrat Frank Lautner said not enough evidence had been produced at the hearings so far to sustain the charges against the two men.

Bryan, attorney for Hensel, said he was in favor of Hensel's inclusion in the top secretarial post of the Navy during World War II, drew large sums of money from a ship's supply firm which was operating with government priorities. Hensel vigorously denied any wrongdoing.

Posts And Milestones

Once common and little regarded, they have now become rare. This is the case with old milestones and hitching posts, now sought after by the southernmost, Long Island, Historical Museum. A few survive, but many have been lost or moved. The Museum would like to get as many as possible, to give present-day visitors a glimpse of a life that is past.

Other communities would do well to safeguard any treasures it may have. Some day they will be desirable and hard to find.

COUNT — If you do not yet have a hobby, and want one, get an aphid and keep a set of books on its progeny. If they all live, you should get 1,560,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 young in a single season. (This figure in words is 1 septillion 56 sextillion.)

BUGS — Insects are stronger than people. Man has less than 500 muscles and insects have as many as 4000.

PLOW — A deep plowing will break the roots of corn, it is advisable to practice only shallow cultivation of this crop to control weeds.

ANTS — Application of 5 percent chloroform dust to the nests and on the ground within a radius of 2 feet of the nests will control ants in gardens and lawns.

It's Up To You

By Howard E. Kibben, LL.M.
Some say America is an old nation and speak discouragingly of our future. They yearn for the opportunities of the pioneers to exploit the frontier. Actually America is young and is still in the formative period. "We are Early Americans," says Conrad Hilton.

The years from 1776 to 1954 add up to one hundred and seventy-eight. When France was a hundred and seventy-eight years old, Charlemagne was not yet born; when England was a hundred and seventy-eight years old, Julius Caesar had not yet crossed the Channel to swallow it into his empire. As pioneers in a young nation, we are still one with Washington, Adams, Jefferson and Madison.

We should never forget that these United States were founded and molded by Christian people, firmly convinced of the reality of the spiritual. The closer we stay to these great ideals the better our prospect for happiness as a nation of free men. Why? Because these founding fathers of ours are one with the great Christian tradition of human freedom under God.

The history of two world wars and more than two billion years of United Nations policing gives a merciless proof that any country which makes ready for material defense only, is preparing for defeat. It is not upon the stockpiles of atom bombs, but upon the character of American youth that the future of America depends. It was not their fire-power, but their unflinching faith that gave our early Americans stature, poise and character. We desperately need the same ability.

We are the Early Americans. We have before us the most glorious era of American growth. As a nation and as Christians we have made mistakes but we can correct them if we make the most of our vigor and our youth. We can keep America free and hold a mighty and glorious heritage. We can lay the foundation, laid by the God-fearing, stalwart founding fathers, upon which we can build a great and glorious future for our children. We can correct them if we make the most of our vigor and our youth. We can keep America free and hold a mighty and glorious heritage. We can lay the foundation, laid by the God-fearing, stalwart founding fathers, upon which we can build a great and glorious future for our children.

Women Good Travelers

NEW YORK (AP)—If you are planning to go abroad this summer, why not take along something useful? Your wife, for example.

A good woman is a wonderful performer. She makes a fine traveling companion. She makes a fine talking partner. She is a fine little negotiator. She is a fine little negotiator. She is a fine little negotiator.

Women really do stand up better under travel than men, generally speaking," said Horace Sutton, who has written seven books on business, folk and armchair travel.

"I think the real reason is that a man usually goes on a trip for a rest," said Sutton. "He starts tired. But his wife is looking for fun, and she starts fresh and strong."

Under these circumstances a man often becomes short-tempered at travel hardships, whereas a woman, accustomed to getting her own way under all conditions, can negotiate any difficulties with her firm charm.

"A husband will do well to take his wife on his travels, even business trips abroad," said Sutton. "American women hold a fascination today for foreigners, who are not only interested in their power over men, they want to meet and talk to them. An American wife right now makes a much better social asset than the average husband."

Horace, who is 35, red-haired and married, served as an Army counter-intelligence agent in the last war. He is travel editor of The Saturday Review. To get material for his latest book "Sutton's Places," he tramped 100,000 miles through some 30 states and 22 foreign countries, ranging from Finland to Japan. Whenever possible he took his wife, Nancy, along.

"She travels better than I do," he admitted proudly. "When we went on a hike through a snowfield in the Arctic Circle, it was a mountain peak in Sweden that she skinned and danced around. I was panting and dizzy. You know the altitude."

Horace dutifully samples the local dishes wherever he goes, including cactus early in Arizona, eel omelets in Italy, dried reindeer and smoked coffee in Swedish Lardal, boiled asparagus in Japan.

"Actually, I have a loose stomach," he admitted, "and I think anybody traveling purely for enjoyment can overdo this exploring of foreign foods."

Here are a few Sutton tips to travelers who want to go abroad, have a good time, and return in reasonable shape.

"Don't start off drinking wine three times a day unless you are used to it. It costs you money to be sick abroad."

"Don't eat three rich heavy meals every day in a foreign country. They limit the number of foods you can carry without strain."

"Don't use ice cubes in drinks in countries where you must drink only bottled water. Bottled beer is usually all right."

"Travel light. At some railway terminals it is impossible to get porters. The best rule is never to take about more baggage than you can carry yourself without strain."

"Don't try to bring your own civilization along and isolate yourself from the country you're visiting."

PAIN SURVIVE: DEACT THOMPSON, Ga. — For the second time in 13 months, two Thompson seamen wired their parents they had survived a blast aboard the Carrier Bennington.

The two, both former school mates at Thomson High School and now stationed aboard the carrier, are Gunner's Mate 3rd, William T. Neal Jr., 26, and Seaman Charles Cameron Jr., 21.

Neal and Cameron also were aboard the Bennington in April 1953 when 11 crewmen were killed in a boiler explosion.

Best Known Jap Christian Traveled

By JIM BECKER
TOKYO (AP)—Japan's best known Christian is a small, cheerful man who, at 68, still spends half of every month traveling and preaching among farmers.

Toyohiro Kagawa, whose near-sighted eyes sparkle behind his big, round spectacles, travels in a baggy, black suit, preaching Christianity—and better farming methods. He has been a Christian 51 years.

Age and the changing scene have not dulled Kagawa's activities. Behind him is a remarkable career of writing, lecturing, converting, work in labor union, city slums and on the nation's farms, where families scratch out living on tiny plots often smaller than an acre.

But Kagawa still packs a small, black bag every month and takes off for the farms for two weeks to talk to the men and women who feed Japan.

He says he teaches "love of God, love of neighbor, love of self." He calls his a "home missionary, self-taught."

Church groups here estimate there are about 90,000 Christians in Japan. Kagawa says one of the reasons for the slow growth of Christianity here is the large number of sects—43.

Kagawa operates a publishing company in Tokyo that turns out religious pamphlets, books and a weekly Christian newspaper with 30,000 circulation.

He preaches frequently and is generally rated the top drawing card among Christian preachers in Japan.

Kagawa has no church of his own. He organizes them, and tries to find a good leader. Then I give them away," he says. He adds he has organized about 250 churches, mostly in rural areas, since the war. The little preacher also is active in organizing cooperative unions to help farmers.

"Seventy-five per cent of the farmers in Japan are very poor," he says. They must have something to do to improve their living conditions. The cooperative movement has been a big Kagawa project for 20 years. A great admirer of similar movements in Sweden and Denmark, he says "there is no other way out for a country as land-poor as Japan."

Kagawa credits these cooperatives with helping to defeat Communism among farmers.

The Japanese Christian movement is very active in labor unions. Kagawa organized a school for labor leaders 20 years ago and was active in organizing dock workers and miners.

He continues as an advisor to the right Socialist Party, one of Japan's leading political parties. He is striving within the party for "Christian socialism," he says. "The Communists teach class consciousness. Without God there can be no democracy."

He was born the son of an important government minister and his wife's cousin. His parents died when he was 4. At 15, a Presbyterian missionary converted him.

Kagawa went into the slums of the city of Kobe and worked and preached for 14 years. Once rural slums beat him up and knocked every tooth out of his mouth.

Kagawa came out of the slums convinced that the role of a Christian in Japan lay in improving the wretched living standards.

He came to America and Princeton University in 1914 and stayed to collect three degrees.

Then he returned to Japan and plunged into social welfare work and the labor union movement. He organized insurance, cooperative and established loan agencies—which are still operating—to "break the grip of the money loan sharks." He plumped for farm clearance and farmers' rights.

Kagawa said he was in trouble with the notorious Japanese thought police several times before the war for his ideas and activities.

He says he was "branded as a peace worker" during the war and spent time in Tokyo's Sagami prison. "Some of my sailors asked to become Christians," he says.

Kagawa has written more than 70 books, including more than 20 works of fiction. "All my books have a Christian theme," he says. He has not written a book in many years but is now working on his philosophy of life. He says this is "the creative force of God applied to the remaining of mankind."

Kagawa will return to the United States in August for the first time in three years to attend the assembly of the World Council of Churches at Evanston, Ill.

Kagawa says he is a "Heavenly America" with the "Hell America" in the big cities, where, he says, there is "too much selfishness and greed."

Kagawa, who has one daughter, in Yale's divinity school and an other practicing medicine here, along with a doctor son, says he hopes the advancing Christian spirit will defeat "materialism and corruption in Japan."

Miss Barbara Harriett Weds R. Johnson At Parents' Home

Miss Barbara Harriett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harriett of this city, and Robert Gordon Johnson of Haverhill, Mass. were married recently at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. S. L. Whalley officiating.

The living room where the couple spoke their vows before the fireplace was decorated with white gladioli and fern. On each side of the fireplace were tall baskets of gladioli and the mantel held pale pink blossoms interspersed with fern creating a beautiful setting.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a pink fitted gingham suit trimmed with navy blue piping. Her accessories were white and her corsage was composed of white roses.

Mrs. Harriett chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue tulle dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony for the many friends and relatives who attended. The punch and wedding cake were served by Mrs. James Wilson and Mrs. Allen Wilson who were assisted by Mrs. R. L. Vaughn and Mrs. F. A. Wilson.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are now at home at 1500 1/2 Sanford Avenue.

Save Dollars By Carefully Choosing Fresh Vegetables

Mrs. Home-maker can stretch or save fresh dollars by selecting fresh vegetables carefully. For best buys she will want to keep informed about the kinds and varieties of vegetables that are most plentiful in local markets, says Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent.

Cabbage and corn head the plentiful list. Cabbage is one of the vegetables offering vitamin C. Young green cabbage is the best choice. Select heads of cabbage that are solid; are heavy for their size; lack damaged leaves, are white, green or red (avoid yellow leaves); have base of leaves firmly attached to stem.

Use often. One pound provides 7.8 half-cup servings of shredded raw cabbage or 1.3 half-cup servings of cooked cabbage. Store covered in the refrigerator. Use raw for most food value. Use salads, cut or shred, just before serving.

What is more delicious than juicy tender corn on the cob? One can be an "expert" on selecting delicious corn if he looks for ears of corn that have a cob well filled with bright, plump, soft, milky kernels; crisp brown silk; fresh green husks; color—either yellow or yellow, depending on the variety; kept refrigerated or cool.

Number of servings—1 dozen medium size ears measures approximately three cups corn cut from the cob and cooked.

Avoid corn that has: dry, yellowed or straw-colored husks as this is an indication of age or damage; very small and very soft kernels as this is too immature and when cooked lack flavor.

Worm injury is not serious when confined to the tips, since the injured portion usually can be removed with little waste. Quality can best be determined by pulling back the husk and examining the kernel.

If your pet bird molting out of season, then you have probably been keeping your bird in an overheated room, or in a cage too near a sunny window.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffin of Lake Mary announce the birth of a 5 lb., 2 oz. daughter. The young one has been named Elizabeth Corrine. Mrs. Griffin is the former Lillian Humphrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Graham are the proud parents of a 5 lb., 8 oz. daughter who was born Monday night. The new Miss Graham has been named Deborah Ann. Mrs. Graham is the former Miss Mary Ann Wilke.

Breakfasts need to be picture-pretty to tempt lachrymose appetites that often go with summertime. But that's really no trick at all—what with the food's eyes beauty of the season's fruit, the intriguing variety of shapes, textures, and flavors of ready-to-eat cold cereals, and the endless possibilities of serving them up.

Give your salad bowl double duty and let it house a help-yourself breakfast. Arrange fresh fruits, such as strawberries and sliced bananas, in the center of the bowl, with a cold cereal on each side—one for neat little doughnut-shapes of ready-to-eat cereal and shredded wheat, and another morning, try a mixture of cereals tossed together with salad fork and spoon, as you would mixed greens—a good way to use up near-empty packages. Top with fresh fruit if you like. Have a tall pitcher of icy-cold milk, cereal or individual salad bowls, and salad servers alongside. With the toaster, sliced bread and butter, and trays nearby, this breakfast is easy-getting and easy-eating, time-saving and fuel-saving—no small items anytime.

Remember: breakfast is just as important as when winter winds often blow an icy blanket over an ordinary meal and you know it. So, when you get up in the morning, try a breakfast that supplies 10 to 15 of daily food needs, with the best breakfast of fruit or fruit juice, cereal and milk, and salad servers alongside. With the toaster, sliced bread and butter, and trays nearby, this breakfast is easy-getting and easy-eating, time-saving and fuel-saving—no small items anytime.

Fresh Sweet Corn May Be Prepared In Different Ways

Sweet corn is at its best when picked at the peak of maturity, cooked, and served immediately, says Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent. No other vegetable flavor is so rapidly as corn after it has been picked from the stalk. If it must be kept a while before cooking, be sure to keep it in the refrigerator. Remove the husks before cooking.

Corn is an all round good source of vitamins and minerals. Yellow corn has particularly high amounts of Vitamin A and B. White corn contains only a trace. It is lower in calories than potatoes but higher than the leafy vegetables.

To cook corn, remove the outer husks. Then remove clinging corn silk strands. A small vegetable brush simplifies the removal of corn silk. Cut out any bad or wormy corn part. Wash and break off extreme tip of the ear.

Corn on the cob is a favorite way of serving the young tender corn. Remove the husks and wash off silks of corn into rapidly boiling salted water. Bring the water to a boil again and cook covered about 15 minutes or until done. Serve immediately with butter.

Corn off the cob is delicious as cooked sweet corn or corn pudding. Cook 1 1/2 cups shelled about 15 minutes or until done. Season 1 tablespoon melted fat, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup corn, eggs, fat and milk season with salt and pepper. Pour into greased baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake at 350 F. moderate oven until set, 30 to 60 minutes. 4 servings.

Note: 1 egg and 2 1/2 cup oil bread crumbs may be used instead of 2 eggs. With cream-style corn use 1/2 cup corn and reduce milk to 1/4 cup.

Tired sweet corn, 1 ears corn, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 cup corn off cob, 1/4 cup butter, 1/4 cup corn, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup butter and serve as soon as hot. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 5.

MRS. HENRY CRAWFORD

Corine Singletary, Henry Crawford Are Wed On Lawn At Bride's Home

Corine Singletary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Singletary, and Henry Crawford, son of Mrs. W. F. Crawford of Marion, Ga., were wed on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. J. K. Kelly performing the double ceremony.

The couple exchanged nuptial vows in front of an arch of white gardenias around which stood baskets of pink and white gladioli.

The bride wore a ballroom-length dress of egg shell brocade with white and pink stripes. Her accessories, including her pearl necklace, were of the same material as the bride's collar and the high lace collar. The dress was covered with pearls and the shoes were of a matching color. She wore a small white hat trimmed with artificial feathers and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a crimson carnation.

Miss Ann I. Singletary, maid of honor, wore a dress of pale blue nylon material with white stripes and flowers. Her bouquet consisted of pink and white gladioli and roses.

Acting as best man for the groom was George G. Crawford, brother of the bride.

For the bride's wedding, Mrs. Crawford chose a sheer orchid dress and white accessories with a corsage of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Canada home where the bride's table had a corsage of white gardenias and floral punch bowl held a hour before wedding cake topped with a bride and groom.

The reception, Mrs. Crawford stated, was held at 7:30 p.m.

Tca Given Feting Jeanne L. Miller, SHS June Graduate

The rooms of the Woodruff home were profusely decorated with arrangements of fragrant gardenias, pink and white pinks, and yellow day lilies. A beautiful arrangement of white gladioli, the class flower, centered the dining room table and was flanked on each side by three-branched silver candelabra bearing tall green tapers. The table was laid with an Italian cut-work cloth and silver appointments were used for the table. Open-faced sandwiches and party cakes. The cakes were tied in pastel green and bore frosted white ribbons with a darker shade of green. Mrs. Nelson Fox presided at the punch bowl.

During the afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Woodruff kept the graduates busy with autographs. Her guests as they arrived, Miss Miller was presented with a gift from the hostess, and Miss Joni Saunders received a pair of unique earrings for looking the marked cup.

Assisting Mrs. Woodruff with the party were Mrs. Nelson Fox, Mrs. Eugene Primm, Mrs. W. L. Stinson, Mrs. Frank E. Cooper, Woodruff Sr., Mrs. John I. Miller and Miss Elizabeth Woodruff.

Those invited were Miss Jeanne L. Miller, the Misses Patsy Collins, Barbara Collins, Beverly Cooper, Vera Graham, Florida Colvin, Polly Graham, Rosemary Garner, Grace Marie Stimpfner, Joyce Jones, Carrie Redfield, Patty Bell, Joni Saunders, Paulette Cason, Patty Walker, Martha Owen, Ellen Lyon, Peggy Wright, Jeanette Cleveland, Ann Brooks, Sheila Browning, Ann Bitters, Jeanette Kinlaw and Carol Loechel. Also Miss Ruth Collette, Miss Ollie Beece Whittle and the Senior class—Mrs. Rebecca Stevens and Mrs. Boyd Coleman.

Johnny Weissmuller Has Profited From Jungle Experiences

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—"I went into the jungle with a bunch of medals and came out with gold."

That was Johnny Weissmuller's reflection on his 22 years in the movie business. Now well fixed because of his earnings in African movies, the one-time swimming champion says he may retire in another two years.

"I've had it," he says. "In an un, the jungle life and retire."

"Don't worry about me finding something to keep me busy. I'm a guy who likes his leisure. I'd be perfectly content to spend my time skin-diving, playing golf and just relaxing."

There's only one element that might upset his plans—TV. Being now a deal for a series is being whipped up. His agents and business managers are hot for it, but Johnny isn't enthusiastic. He doesn't like to work that hard.

That's understandable. He probably does less work for more money than any other performer in Hollywood. For the past eight years, he has been doing the Jungle Jim series, in which he plays the profits. He does three a year, for an estimated return of $100,000. Not bad, considering the films take a mere nine days apiece.

Movie making takes only 27 days out of his year. He does the rest of the time? Occasionally he takes out a water show, as he did in Las Vegas last year. But most of the time he simply enjoys life.

I must say that it agrees with him. I saw Johnny on the set of his latest Jungle Jim episode, "The Moon Men." He was up to his thighs in moon men—all the midgets and dwarfs in this area had been recruited for film. He'll be 47 next Wednesday, but he has the build and face of a much younger man.

I asked him how he does it.

"Swimming," he replied with the obvious answer. "I keep my pool at home at 80 degrees the year around. Every day I swim about a half-mile. I do it with my feet in a rubber tube, so I'm pulling dead water. That way I get the exercise without having to make so many turns. The pool is only 20 by 40 feet, and I'd get dizzy if I swam without something to hold me back."

The daily workouts keeps him at a trim 205-210 pounds, which is par for a man who is 6 feet 3. He was only 10 or 15 pounds lighter when he was breaking all the swimming records in sight.

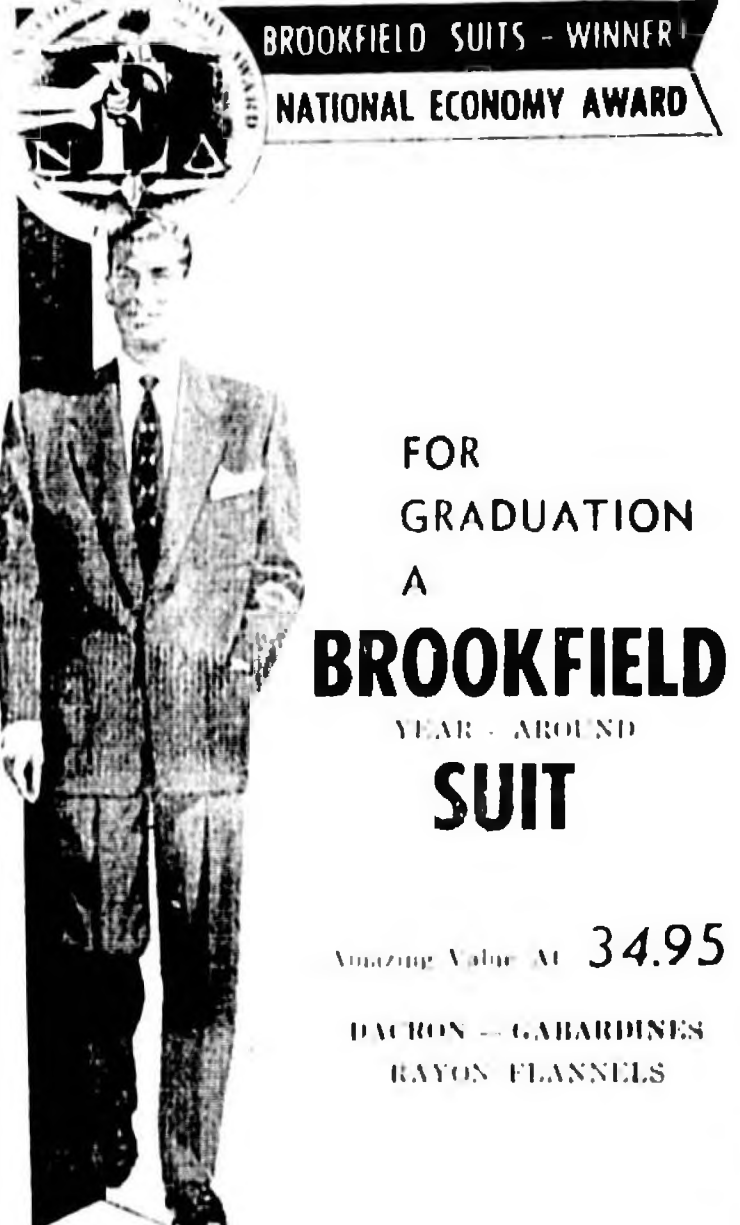

SOFT BURRICE-FOLDS AND BLACK VELVET TRIM—Focus attention at the top of Helena Taylor's costume dress from her collection for spring, 1954. The fabric is white with a subtle pattern of black fern trees.

FILES IN DIVORCE LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Irene Hervey has filed for a divorce from singer Leon Leon. The two were wed in 1936. She said she separated from Leon last May 18 because of his "intolerant cruelty." Wash your children's overcoats or ordinary clothing soon after they are soiled. Allow the soiled clothes to hang in a ventilated room so they will have to be ironed. If steam gets into semi-sweet chocolate when you are melting it, the chocolate may become lumpy. So when you melt this chocolate, do so in a double boiler over hot pot boiling water and you will not have steam getting into the chocolate.

Cardinals Defeat Clermont 8-7 For 4th Win

Bisbee, Carlton, Thomas Help In Last Inning Rally

By TOMMY KUHN
Charley Thomas singled in the bottom of the tenth inning and drove in the winning run from second base, as the Sanford Cardinals won their third straight Central Florida League baseball contest by a score of 8-7 yesterday.

Hubba Bisbee Handy Reynolds game up and went ahead, but Clermont rallied to even matters up and again take the lead. Going into the bottom of the tenth inning Clermont led by a 7-6 score, but they blew up and Sanford won.

Sanford took a brief 5-0 lead and finally worked the score to 4-1. Then Clermont scored four runs and took the lead. Sanford tied the score in the bottom of the ninth.

The next three innings were quite fascinating as neither team was able to score. In the top of the fourth Charley Thomas watched his bid for a shutout go down the drain when Clermont scored one run off one hit. The first batter reached first on a walk. He then went to second with a stolen base. The next Clermont hitter doubled and the run scored from second. The side was then retired.

Bill Crabtree doubled and reached home when the next two batters made outs. The Cardinals still maintained the lead in the lead. Neither team scored in the next inning.

Clermont combined two hits, two walks, and two errors to score four runs and take the lead in the top of the seventh. R. C. Foot and Ivey Elliot were the two men that got hits.

Sanford got down to business in the bottom of the seventh. They scored two runs and took the lead again. The first Cardinal batter reached base on an infield hit. He went all the way to third on a lead throw by the catcher, who was trying to throw him out at first.

The Clermont strategy now started to work as George Kenis was walked. Fulton Haxley hit a hard ball to the second baseman. The runner from third scored, but Haxley was thrown out at first. Kenis went to second on the play. Bubba Bisbee, making his first start with the Cardinals came through in great fashion. He singled and Kenis scored from second. The team was finally retired.

The score still remained 6-5 going into the top of the ninth inning. In the bottom of the ninth, Clermont batter grounded out, but the second reached first on a hit and went to second with a stolen base. The next batter grounded out. Then it happened. A batter was hit with a wild pitch. The next hitter singled and the tying run scored from second. The side was then retired.

Sanford could not score any runs in the bottom of the ninth and the game went into extra innings with the score being 6-5.

Giants, Red Wings To Meet Sunday

Sanford Giants will meet the Daytona Beach Red Wings in Memorial Stadium at 3 p.m. Sunday. The Red Wings, who are in first place in the Florida State Negro League, will take on the Giants because Daytona does not have a regular season game scheduled for Sunday.

The Giants are not in the league but have posted for themselves a superb 7-1 record. Oscar Robert will take the starting assignment of the Sunday afternoon tilt. The Giants' only loss was to the Sanford Navy club. The Giants attracted more than 250 fans in their game with Haines City in the Stadium last Sunday.

Bucs Manager Is Optimistic

NEW YORK (AP)—Pittsburgh Manager Fred Haney peeked out of the National League cellar today and saw what many observers didn't think existed for the Pirates—a ray of sunshine.

"I know we haven't looked like much so far," he observed, "but some of our kids have come along even better than I expected."

"Take Bob Skinner. He's sure to be one of the best hitters in the game in a year or two. He takes a beautiful cut and doesn't get fooled by the same pitch twice. Bob's only had a year of pro experience and that was in Class D."

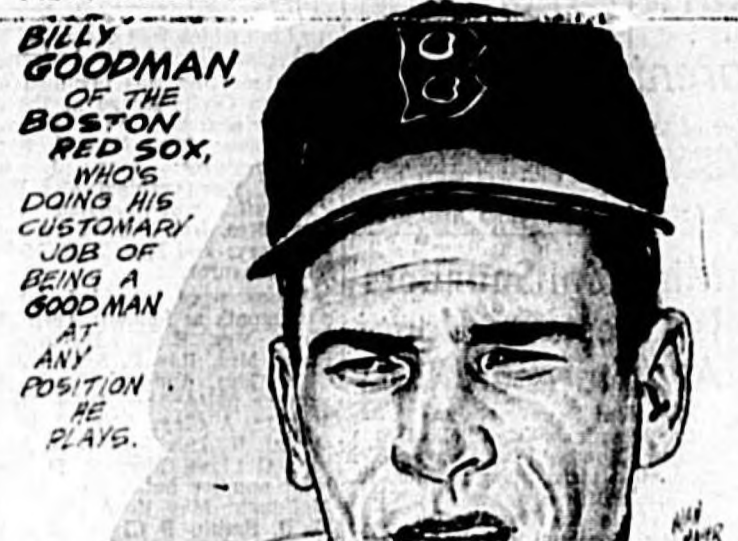

"Then there's our new second baseman, Curt Roberts, one of the best hitters around and a good leader man. (Catchers) Jack Sheppard and Jim Mangon also look impressive and (shortstop) Gair Allie is doing all right too."

Haney is highly pleased with the pitching of his veteran right-hander Max Surkont, who has won four of the Bucs' 11 games.

"Max is really going good. He's dropped a lot of weight and has made by the same pitching aim at every time out. They say he doesn't go so well once the hot weather sets in, but I don't think that's a possibility. He won't continue to win for us."

Volusia Kennel Club Seeks Record Crowd

DAYTONA BEACH—It looks as though the Volusia County Kennel Club may be heading toward a fourth straight record-breaking season.

A strong indication of this came out with the opening of schooling races at the popular Daytona Beach track Monday night when an all-time record pre-season crowd estimated at over 3,000 enthusiastic fans poured into the stands. It was the same thing all over again Tuesday night with another overflow throng on hand.

Track officials were amazed and happy over the turnout which far exceeded attendance for schooling races in past years.

This season, Ample Time appears to be the dog to beat for top honors at the VCKC. Right now, it appears that M. R. Ostlund's brilliant young speedster is headed for recognition as the number one greyhound in the United States for 1954.

Ample Time has had a brilliant winter and spring season in Miami, earning a tie in the rugged Medley before running away with the Derby at West Flagler. The handsome son of Mixed Harmony-Vigorelle has bagged eight out of his last 11 starts at Biscayne against terrific opposition, trimming Another Janice, winner of the All-Florida championship, and five other stars in the match race for his latest conquest.

Volusia track officials are proud to point out that both Ample Time and However broke in at Daytona Beach. They are among the many greyhounds who have launched spectacular careers at the resort oval, quite properly called the summer home of champions.

The VCKC's grand opening is set for June 4 with the seventh annual campaign extending through Sept. 17. Schooling races are now in progress at the popular racing strip and they will wind up June 2.

State High School Baseball Tourney Will Start June 8
GAINESVILLE (AP)—Immokalee and St. Augustine Ketterlings will open the state high school baseball tournaments at Fort Pierce at 1 p.m. June 8.

Cardinals Meet Seminole's Friday

Sanford Cardinals will face the Seminole High School team Friday night in the Memorial Stadium. The game should be one of the best contests played in the town. The Seminole are the East Florida Conference baseball champions. The Cardinals are the local amateur team in the Central Florida League.

DeLand Cuts Jax Lead To 4 Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Second-place DeLand cut Jacksonville Beach's Florida State League lead to four games last night as the Red Hats whipped the Sea Birds 5-1 behind Frenchy LeBlanc's four-hitter.

The Birds led momentarily when they garnered three hits, including doubles by Russ Nixon and Roy Chambers in the second inning. From there, the DeLand right-hander was tough, striking out 10 and issuing only four bases on balls.

Other action saw Lakeland defeat Daytona Beach 7-5 and Orlando win its fourth straight 8-5 with last-place Coxa the victim. Jesus Jenks led the 15-hit Orlando attack with five hits for as many times up. His collection included two singles, two doubles and a triple. Lou Tell went all the way for the CB's for his fourth victory.

Lakeland spotted Daytona Beach four runs in the first inning, then starter Dick Donnelly settled down to take his sixth victory in 12 decisions. He fanned 19 and walked three.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

of the coolest receptions in history from this country's boxing fraternity. Max Schmeling, the former world's heavyweight champion, is on his way back to Germany. The man who held the big title for almost exactly two years, from June 12 in 1930 to June 21 in 1932, may never be seen on these shores again.

The Black Union's return to the scene of his fame triumphantly must have been a disheartening experience, even for a man who never was noted for his delicate sensibilities. Before he left he fully realized the trip had been a mistake, that he could not roll back the years.

Schmeling refereed a fight in Milwaukee, and it drew next to nothing. He was to have stayed on and refereed a series of exciting shows, but the promoter counted the Milwaukee house and thought better of it. Finally, as a part of crowning rejection, the athletic union finished in Hitler's day was firmly advised not to try to visit the training camp of Rocky Marciano and Ernie Charles in the Catskills.

Tampa he protested to the last that he never had been a member of the Nazi party, he took the hint and said good-bye.

If it is rumored the ballplayers are planning to meet through their attorney, J. Norman Lewis, that the club owners cease employing private detectives to check upon their after hours activities, you may look for them to get turned down hard.

The owners feel that there is a very special relationship with their young employees, and that for the kind of salaries they pay they have every right to protect their investments by any means possible. The only alternative, they say, would be for the players themselves to form a police force within their own ranks that would be guaranteed to keep its charges in line.

Actually, the owners do more worrying than their employees might fall among evil companions — being, themselves, largely on the innocent side — than they do that they might stay out late on occasion. It has been a constant fear of the game since the Black Sox scandal.

$100,000 MARKET — A view is shown of part of the huge grocery department of Sanford's new independent "Food Mart" which opened today at Park Ave. and 25th St. The ultra-modern supermarket is owned and operated by Ted Williams and Charles "Chuck" Atkinson, who say because of its size they will buy in quantity, thus saving on prices which will be passed on to the store's customers. craft and helicopters were summoned by radio.

Four Navy and four Coast Guard helicopters met the carrier 20 miles from port and evacuated scores of seriously injured to the Newport Naval Hospital. They picked up injured on the deck of the carrier, by to Newport, then return to base. They continued until the carrier docked slightly more than six hours after the blast.

Although the exact location of the blast could not be determined immediately, it was in the forward part of the ship near the officers' wardroom.

Capt. Talbot had highest praise for all personnel aboard the carrier, which carries a normal complement of 2,800.

"I am very proud to be commanding officer of such a heroic, unselfish crew of American seamen," he said.

Ensign Robert Grant of Brooklyn, N.Y., his hair and eyebrows singed and raw bleeding cuts on his ankles, refused medical attention to aid in the evacuation of other wounded.

He told of "five guys" literally vanishing when a hatch was blown in by the terrific blast. He said he formed a hand chain with some men who worked their way to the starboard side forward. On the way, he apparently lost consciousness and was pulled out.

Francis Toth, an aviation machinist's mate from Philadelphia, Pa., volunteered for the fire control crew. He said: "I just couldn't stand there. I had to help."

James F. William, 21, of Somerville, Mass., a quartermaster, said the escape hatch from his compartment was cluttered with bundles of unrolled and dyed maps.

"We couldn't open the escape hatch to help them and the heat was terrible," he said.

Sergeant Edward Cushman of Milford, Conn., and two companions said they "listened" to their trapped buddies die from suffocation as shipmates tried to reach them.

Cushman was able to talk with the trapped men by phone. Still stunned, he told newsmen:

"I talked with those guys for an hour and three quarters. They were pleading to hurry up and get to them before they ran out of air."

"We told them to lie face down with wet rags over their faces, but it didn't help much. The last words I heard were 'This is my last breath.'"

George Vega, 25, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a fireman who also talked with the men by phone, said: "Everybody worked hard but we were too late. I think only one of those guys was still alive by the time we got there."

City Court Tries 169 Cases In April

Sanford's monthly report for April showed that the City Court had tried 169 cases ranging from reckless driving to petty larceny. Fines to the extent of $2,634 dollars went into the City's coffers.

The City fire department answered 13 fire alarms, but no figure of the extent of damage to property is available at this time. Building permits stopped slightly in number this month, but rose in construction costs with a total of $20,200 set in valuation for 41 permits, as compared with $24,897 for 46 permits the month before.

Valuations on 79 electrical permits amounted to $127. Plumbing valuations amounted to $50.50.

Takes Up Ministry When 40 Years Old

LINCOLN, Neb. — At 40 Walter Westrom, father of three, decided he wanted to be a minister. So he gave up a steady job and entered Nebraska Wesleyan University while Mrs. Westrom returned to work as a nurse.

Now, four years later, he is ready for graduation from Wesleyan and enrollment for three years in Bethany Seminary at Chicago.

Colonial Golf Tourney Starts

FORT WORTH, Tex. — Ben Hogan, Bob Toski, Cary Middlecott and a terrific amateur, Ernie Vossler, were given the longest look today as the eighth $25,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament rolled into its first round.

Mid eyes were on Hogan, the little Texan who has won about everything golf has to offer and wants to make five colonial titles. The one-eighty-two of Colonial Country Club's 7,035 yards has proved of little concern to the mighty lieutenant, who has shot two 68's and a 69 in tournament rounds.

The hottest of the "shadow boxers," however, has been Vossler, the Fort Worth amateur who's known mostly in Texas. Ernie did a 63 to the Hogan's competitive course record and then turned in a 66, although missing two birdie putts, in his final practice swing yesterday.

Middlecott, the Memphis doctor, who won the Colonial title in 1951, breezed through a 68 in his only round. Toski, the little man from Livingston, N.J., who is the year's top dollar money winner with $10,000, didn't arrive in time for more than one practice round. He did an easy 71.

GREAT ATHLETE: OTTAWA — Lionel Conacher, Canada's greatest athlete of the half-century, died last night in familiar surroundings — on a playing field. He was 32.

The "Big Train," member of the family that made athletic history in Canada, collapsed at third base after hitting a triple in the sixth inning of the annual softball game between members of Parliament and the parliamentary press gallery.

SCORING IS HIGH

The 661 faithful Florida International League baseball fans who paid to see last night's games got plenty of action. The two games produced 36 runs, 42 hits and 11 errors.

St. Petersburg's smallest crowd — 289 — saw the Saints stagger to a 12-10 decision over West Palm Beach and 772 Tallahassee fans watched their Rebels lose their 40th contest in 46 games as the Miami Flamingos triumphed 14-2.

Charge With Theft Of Display Money

JACKSONVILLE, Pa. — Charges of stealing U. S. Secret Service specimen display of money from the Miami Police Academy were placed yesterday against a Negro here.

While Patr. alias Clifford Eugene Louis, II, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner E. V. Casben on charges of theft of government property and passing counterfeit money, bond was set at $3,000.

Secret Service agents said the money display, loaned to Miami police for instructing recruits, was stolen Feb. 7. The display contained $1, $5, two $10, two $20, a $50 and a $100 bill in both genuine and counterfeit money.

Part of the counterfeit money was passed, the agents said, while the good money was buried behind a church in Miami and recovered.

COURT RULES ON MONEY

DETHOPE — Mrs. Sylvester Shaw will be given $25 by the law, even though she is charged with the slaying of her husband.

She had posted a $25 bond to insure her husband's appearance in court in connection with an auto collision that was April 19.

Three days earlier, April 16, her husband died of a stab wound, and a Traffic Court referee yesterday ruled.

Under the law the case against Shaw was dismissed automatically. Mrs. Shaw is entitled to the return of her $25 even though she is in jail, charged with his murder.

Mallard Costs Kind Contractor

SEAFORD, N.Y. — A mallard duck is hatching a nest of seven eggs in this Long Island community at a cost of $200 a day. Builder Louis Hirsch, who is putting up 25 new homes here, is losing some $300 a day because he ordered a bulldozer driver not to uproot the tree where the nest is until the eggs are hatched. It takes about 25 days for a mallard egg to hatch, but Hirsch thinks he saw a crack in one of the eggs and hopes the mother mallard is near the end of her sitting. "I'm not sure," he said, "how long I can afford to wait for her to become a mother."

Sons of Freedom members have refused to send their children to school on the ground that Christian institutions teach militarism. They frequently use nudism as a means of protest.

Sailor Sleeps Through Blast

CINCINNATI — A Cincinnati man aboard the aircraft carrier Bennington slept right through the explosion. Thomas J. Lorenz, 23, told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Lorenz, by telephone that he was "missing" when his squadron held muster after the explosion. But he wasn't a casualty. He was asleep. The parents said their son told them he worked late last night in the explosion area and then had permission to sleep late. "I didn't wake up when the explosion came," he said, "because I sleep as far away from that area as it's possible to get." He was awakened by shipmates and joined in the rescue work.

PHILADELPHIA — Postman John McKelvey always had time to stop for a friendly chat with Mrs. Lydia Wood Bailey, an 80-year-old widow whose mansion was located on his route. His friendly smile meant a lot to the lonely old lady from the time he started delivering mail to the $125,000, 15-room home in suburban Wayne eight years ago. McKelvey brought his wife to meet, sit and chat with and read to Mrs. Bailey. In 1932 they moved in temporarily with her in care for her after she suffered a heart attack. She died earlier this month. When her will was probated, it left the home to the McKelveys.

Only two other blind and deaf persons have ever completed college. They were Helen Keller and Robert Smithdas.

LT. F. E. MOY

LT. J. C. VOGEL JR.

LT. W. E. MADDEN

LT. W. L. HACKETT

Cdr. H. S. Klenk, commanding officer of Photographic Squadron VJ-62, had the privilege of notifying five of his junior officers that they had been selected for promotion from lieutenant (junior grade) to lieutenant, U. S. Navy. The five officers promoted were Lt. Frank E. Moy, Lt. William E. Madden, Lt. John C. Vogel Jr., Lt. William L. Hackett and Lt. Edward S. Dishrow Jr.

Four of the five lieutenants, who will now wear the railroad tracks or double silver bars in place of their single silver bars, are absent from Sanford as they are assigned to Photolon 62's Detachment Fox, which recently departed on its photographic mission overseas to the Mediterranean area.

The one officer who is present at Photolon 62's home port is Lt. Moy. He is attached to the operations department and his duties are those of the squadron's survival officer, which includes instruction of personnel in the methods of how to survive if an aircraft is forced to land at sea, in a jungle or in any part of the world where civilization is not found. Lt. Moy has a total of 17 years of Naval service, nine as an enlisted man, and received his commission as an officer in April, 1946. He is a Naval aviator and commenced his flight training in November, 1943. New York is his home state but at present is living in Orlando while attached to the squadron.

Lt. Hackett follows closely in number of years of Naval service. He entered the Navy in February, 1941, and after completing flight training, he was designated as a Naval aviator. But he is presently serving as an aviation ground officer and is the photographic officer of Detachment Fox. He is a native of Atlanta, Ga. Lt. Hackett and his wife, Elvren, have their residence here in Sanford at 2605 Laurel Ave.

Lt. Vogel and Lt. Dishrow are attached to the Photographic Interpretation Department of VJ-62 and are serving in that capacity with the detachment. Lt. ### Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to three questions of interest to former servicemen and their families.

Q. My husband, a World War One veteran who did not have any GI life insurance, left me a $10,000 commercial life insurance policy when he died. He stipulated in the policy that the proceeds be paid to me in a lump sum, but I was permitted to change that so I would receive regular monthly payments. In computing my annual income for VA pension purposes, am I supposed to count these monthly insurance payments as income?

A. So long as the original option was for a lump sum payment, you must declare the $10,000 face value of the policy as income for the calendar year in which your husband died. Then you do not have to report the monthly payments as income until they total $10,000. After the monthly payments aggregate $10,000, however, you must report any monthly payments over that amount as income for VA pension purposes.

Q. I am receiving disability compensation payments from VA, but lately my service-connected disability seems to be getting worse. Could I get a statement from my private physician, certifying that my disability has increased? Would that be sufficient to entitle me to higher compensation?

A. A statement by your private physician would serve to reopen your case, but your condition would have to be ascertained by an official VA examination, and then a comparison of the finding would have to be made with the requirements for increased compensation payments.

Q. Since I was discharged before August 20, 1952, my deadline for starting training under the Korean GI Bill is this coming August 20. Must I actually be in school on that date, in order to continue afterwards?

A. Not necessarily. You must, under the law, begin your training before that date, in order to continue later. So long as you start in time, you won't be required to be in training on the date itself.

(Veterans living in Central Florida who wish further information about their benefits should write the VA office at 42 E. Central Ave., Orlando, Fla.)

THE WINNING WAY... COURTESY!

See how THE OUT WHO GIVES PROPS SIGNALS FOR TURNS AND STOPS. The driver who wins everybody's respect is the motorist who MAKES COURTESY HIS CODE OF THE ROAD.

NEW YORK (AP) — The fight of family, finance and tradition took the present fight for control of the mighty New York Central System with the Erie railway 227 years of American history.

Two descendants of the profane old warrior who founded the Central, "Commodore" Cornelius Vanderbilt, sit on the Central board today.

And J. Pierpont Morgan the elder, no stranger to railway feuds, still is represented in Central affairs through J. P. Morgan & Co., the modern scion of Morgan's ancient power.

Physical violence, wild stock market gyrations and bitter melodrama punctuated the old-time power struggles. Today's fight is more civilized. Yet something of the old spirit remains.

Fishes' by baiting—spent long in the past faintly sounded when Texas-born Robert H. Young challenged the Central leadership in January and got from Central President William White a hot promise of "a barefisted fight."

Memory fitfully stirred again only recently as Young accused the central board of "high-handed" arbitrary renunciation of Fisk and Drew.

These are names which once were household words, names with top billing in a kind of Greek tragedy by baiting and a chorus from Tammany Hall—which is known to history as the "Erie war."

It was America's first great railroad war fought between 1868 and 1869. James Fisk Jr., Daniel Drew and Jay Gould, "the Memphis boys of Wall Street," were arrayed against Vanderbilt.

Vanderbilt had earned the title "commodore"—a newspaperman's compliment—through his work in the shipping business. When prices fell, he was made hazardous by the Civil War. Vanderbilt rocked his cradle eye toward railroads.

In 1862 he fought his first rail battle. He rammed down the stock of the New York and Harlem Railroad until it touched bottom, then bought control. Next he acquired control of the Hudson River Railroad, a line paralleling the Harlem on the east side of the Hudson River running to Albany.

Then in 1868 he captured the New York Central Railroad which plus the Erie and Buffalo, N. Y., laying the foundation for the present vast Central system. Vanderbilt acquired the old Central by breaking connections between it and his own lines, an action which manouevred Central passengers and freight at Albany.

When Central stock went down far enough, Vanderbilt bought it and took control.

Out of his victory the commodore snatched a quick six million bucks and 20 million more in Central stock.

Legislature asked some questions but Vanderbilt had an answer.

"What do I care about the law?" he said. "Hain't I got the money?"

Meanwhile, Drew, a notorious cattle dealer who inspired the term "watered stock" by selling his cattle head and tail before selling them live-weight, had made enough money as a loan shark to buy control of the Erie. This was a "sawed line" between New York and Buffalo hailed as "the wonder of the age."

Vanderbilt saw the Erie as a possible threat to his rail chain to Buffalo. The commodore bought up enough of its stock tooust Drew, who practically grappled before the victor and implored Vanderbilt to save him from ruin.

The hard-swinging commodore was successful. But it was a great mistake. He allowed Drew to keep his directorship.

Soon Drew persuaded Vanderbilt to let him install two young men, Fisk and Gould, as additional dining directors.

Drew, Fisk and Gould were good boys for awhile, then vanked the rug out from under Vanderbilt. They knew the commodore was still buying Erie stock so they soldly his position. So the unshifty three secretly flooded the market with newly printed stock, converted under a trick clause from Erie bonds.

Vanderbilt kept on buying as the printing press turned out new Erie stock. Then he caught on, saw a mighty oaf and got an injunction against the traitors and their conversions.

By chicanery, however, the trio threw even more crisp, new stock on the market. This time Vanderbilt got warlike for them, arrested on contempt charges. When six million dollars, they fled out of the court's jurisdiction to Jersey City. A rear guard of Erie thugs slugged it out with Braswell, Charles Crocker, Le Land Stanford, Mark Hopkins and Gail B. Huntington. They had been inspired by the vision of a one-continental railroad.

The golden spike was driven at Promontory Point, Utah, on May 10, 1869 after five years of an epic track laying race joining the east bound tracks of the Central Pacific and the west-bound tracks of the Union Pacific. The heroic saga of the first transcontinental road was accompanied by terrific loss of public funds immobilized by the vast hoard of credit moblized, the holding company for Union Pacific.

Intention between two opposing groups without credit holder thought to light the fact that had been distributed secretly among congressmen, both Democrats and Republicans, in a long time, was muddled by the fact it was one of the greatest explosions in continental history.

Soon after and followed the railroad wars of the Southwest.

The big boys of California, Crocker, Stanford, Hopkins and Huntington battled off attempts of railroads from the midwest to land through to the Pacific shore by a railroad across the mountain passes. They bought up what was originally a "paper" railroad which later became an empire the Southern Pacific. They struck the Colorado River and eventually reached New Orleans.

After the panic of 1873, Gould, heavy with lead from the Erie, bought control of the midwest and started the Union Pacific. In the same year Gould bought a large interest in the Texas & Pacific Railroad.

But that was only the first of many wars.

The Albany Gould then launched a series of combats that included a merger and three feuds which were to create the 10,000-mile Gould System.

The highest of these gambits came when Gould picked up Gould's railroad across the Kansas Pacific and Denver Pacific which controlled the Union Pacific.

The Union Pacific managers looked before superior force and Morgan had led for a European capital. The Kansas Pacific was not a railroad but a playboy who had surprised Fisk in the affection of Louis Manfield. It was one of New York's grandest scandals.

It took a martial stockholders committee headed by Gen. Daniel S. Dickinson to force the removal of Gould from the Erie after Fisk's death. But the road had been built so badly it didn't pay dividends on common stock, but only on preferred.

In California, two rail lines were merged.

men and having Northern Pacific stock secretly and needed only 100 shares to turn the tables on his rivals. By a Duke Harriman's order to buy 100 shares of the stock of the Northern Pacific to issue orders from France for a volume of buying orders. The price rose from 111 to 100 causing a general stock market implosion, the ghastly "Northern Pacific panic" which shook the financial capitals of the world.

Hill and Morgan retained control but Harriman's already acquired a representation on the Northern Pacific board.

Charles Jones of the Detroit office of the sales and distribution division of the railroad.

Edward H. Harriman, a brilliant stockbroker who looked like a bookkeeper, took over the Illinois central in 1886. Following the collapse of Union Pacific in the depression of 1893, Harriman took over the Southern Pacific and others.

Harriman was with James H. Morgan and the last great saga of personal railroading.

John Hill was a rugged power and empire builder who has been both collected and XXXX for about half of the Northeast and West of the United States. He had a streak of rail. The St. Paul & Northern Pacific was a 2 that he picked up in the system. He was to become the great Northern from the Twin Cities to coast bound by 1888. He did it without government aid, but with a financial achievement.

The Hill-Harriman fight began in 1901 and lasted about 30 years, even after the death of the two principals. The highlight occurred in 1901 when Northern Pacific stock fell on the market. It could be Hill and in 1911 Morgan bought the stock from the Hill in the battle. Hill became almost broke before superior force and Morgan had led for a European capital. The Kansas Pacific was not a railroad but a playboy who had surprised Fisk in the affection of Louis Manfield. It was one of New York's grandest scandals.

It took a martial stockholders committee headed by Gen. Daniel S. Dickinson to force the removal of Gould from the Erie after Fisk's death. But the road had been built so badly it didn't pay dividends on common stock, but only on preferred.

In California, two rail lines were merged.

Rebel Fire Pounds Garrison

Reds Use Same Tactics That Won Dien Bien Phu

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Vietminh mole squads burrowed closer to the battered Red River Delta post of Yen Phu today as rebel mortars continued to pound the little French Union Garrison.

Following the same tactics that won them Dien Bien Phu, the rebels kept the thinly manned defenses pinned down with mortar and machine gun fire while the attackers dug in around the mud-raked fortress, only 30 miles south of Hanoi.

The French Union defenders lobbed mortar shells at the encircling rebels as fast as they could load and fire.

At Dien Bien Phu, the Vietminh are expected to strike with overwhelming thousands when the rebel command believes the post is sufficiently "softened up." Some 12 Vietminh battalions already have raked Yen Phu for two weeks.

French War planes pounded the rebels, scattering bombs and dropping incendiary bombs along the approach to Yen Phu. The bombs are used to go off at night when the Vietminh usually attack.

Yen Phu lies six miles south of Phu Ly, western prong of a defense area stretching through Nam Linh and the vital rice center of Thai Binh.

If the rebels take Phu Ly, they will win vast rice supplies, gain control of a vital road system, and move into a commanding position to attack Hanoi itself. They also will be in an excellent spot to cut the vital railway road link bringing American supplies from the port of Haiphong to Hanoi.

In view of this, the French have bolstered their units along the Phu Ly front. French troops and aircraft mopped up scattered rebel units around Phu Ly, killing or wounding 500 of the enemy. French armor engaged a rebel company halfway between Phu Ly and Hanoi last night, killing 20 Vietminh.

Admiral Says Finds 'Freakish, Unique' Effects Of Blasts

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (AP)—Admiral Robert B. Carney, chief of naval operations, says he found "freakish and unique" effects from the blasts and fire that claimed the lives of 20 men of the big aircraft carrier Bennington.

The Navy's highest ranking officer flew in last night from New York, checking the blistered and blackened compartments of the 32,000-ton vessel, victim of a series of explosions Wednesday.

Carney said that characteristics of the blasts were "freakish and very unique from anything I have seen," but he said there is "no basis" for assuming they may have been caused by sabotage.

He said he saw "blistered and structural objects near one another, some showing effects of heat and others no heat at all."

In other places, he said, there was evidence of "tremendous pressures and other signs of complete vacuum."

He said the explosions were "the worst I have seen in all my naval service."

He declined to speculate on the cause, explaining that a host of technical experts from the Bureau of Ships is combing the ship for clues.

The Navy court of inquiry announced it will open its investigation tomorrow.

International Experts Study Plans To Bring Cease-Fire In Indochina

Officials Query Captain, Crew Of Swedish Ship

KEY WEST (AP)—U.S. State Department officials today questioned the captain and crew of the Swedish freighter Alfhem about delivery of 10 million dollars' worth of Communist-made arms to Guatemala.

The 1,600-ton freighter was escorted to an anchorage in Key West harbor opposite Ft. Taylor by the Coast Guard. The U.S. destroyer escort Laefer stood by a few hundred yards away.

U.S. authorities flown here from Washington went aboard at 8 a. m. to obtain information about the delivery of arms and ammunition at Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, from the Communist port of Sieton in Poland.

A State Department statement confirmed the questioning of Capt. John Henry Lind and other members of the crew and said in part: "Secretary of State Dulles stated in his recent press conference the shipment of arms cargo by the ship to Guatemala was effected under conditions considered far from normal."

Because of these conditions and the complete secrecy surrounding the arrival and unloading of the ship at Puerto Barrios, it has not been possible at present to obtain the desired information from the officers of the vessel concerning the transaction.

The officers and crew members who are being questioned are cooperating on a purely voluntary basis.

The Alfhem had been scheduled to dock at the Port of Antilla, in Cuba's north coast, to take on a cargo of sugar. Instead she put in at Key West. No guests were allowed to go aboard.

Lincoln White, State Department Press officer in Washington, issued a brief statement there confirming the explained that crew were being questioned by U.S. officials.

The statement said the owners ordered the Alfhem to put in at Key West.

Plans Are Made For Various SHS Graduation Activities

Seminole High School seniors are today making final plans for their graduating activities, including commencement and baccalaureate, according to Herman Morris, principal.

It was reported by Morris that the Rev. W. P. Brooks Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church, has been selected to present the main address at the school's baccalaureate exercises, to be held Sunday at 8 p. m. in the school's auditorium.

The invocation at the annual ceremonies will be given by the Rev. Milton H. Wyatt, the invocation by the Rev. S. L. Whittles and scripture by the Rev. W. A. Stover.

The exercises will be opened by the "Pomp and Circumstances" march, played by the high school band, and will be followed by the address by the audience. The high school girls' chorus will sing two numbers and the audience will join in singing "The Lord Is the Father of the Poor." The recessional march will be from "Aria" according to Morris.

The date of the exercises is completed today and the school is preparing to receive guests and plans to turn in books and check final bills.

Mr. Phil Marx will hold a reception for the graduating students immediately after the Sunday exercises. The seniors will be further hosted Monday, May 31, at a picnic to be given by the students at Daytona Beach. Mrs. Earl Toney is serving as chairman of the affair.

Tuesday will mark the semi-annual class day and an annual program for the graduating students in the school's auditorium. Immediately following the program, there will be a picnic at Sandhills Springs.

Commencement exercises are scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday, June 4, at the school. It will be followed at 10:30 p. m. by a reception to be given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stimpinger.

There will be a party for the graduating class at the Mayfair Inn Country Club at midnight. The party is being given by the parents of the seniors.

Parley Is Awaiting Outcome

Nine Delegations Are Represented

GENEVA (AP)—A group of experts sought today to find how much common ground there is in Communist and non-Communist proposals for an Indochina cease-fire.

The committee of constitutional and legal specialists, including one from each of the nine delegations in the Indochina conference, was set up late yesterday after the main parley bogged down in a series of overlapping and conflicting plans.

The nine-party conference itself was in a lull, awaiting one of the chief Paris talks on the subject of the Indochina cease-fire.

While the first round of the afternoon off, the Paris talks fell into a lull, the Geneva delegates were expected to speak, including U. S. Under Secretary of State Walter Dole and Secretary of State Walter Dulles.

The Indochina experts had before them records of 10 meetings, including all proposals made to date on all matters of the proposed cease-fire. It was found enough in common to form a framework of a cease-fire.

The proposals include the present day of cease-fire, the present day of cease-fire, the present day of cease-fire, the present day of cease-fire.

Vast Sea Search Made For Two Suspect Ships

U. S. Customs Officials Said Done With Search Of French Line Vessel

PANAMA (AP)—French Line representatives say U.S. customs men on the hunt for contraband arms wound up their search of the freighter Wyoming last night without finding "anything abnormal."

While the Wyoming was held at the Atlantic mouth of the Panama Canal, officials in Washington said a vast sea search is under way for two ships suspected of carrying more Communist arms to leftist Guatemala. The Caribbean republic already has received a 2,000-ton arms shipment loaded at the Polish port of Stettin.

Customs men halted the Wyoming Wednesday as she headed for the canal en route to El Salvador and Guatemala with a cargo from London and Antwerp.

U.S. officials said the search was conducted with the full cooperation of the ship's owners and the French government.

There was no official announcement as to the result of the hunt, but the Panama Canal press office said last night the freighter's manifest listed six boxes of small arms, including one case of Browning automatic rifles consigned to El Salvador. The BAH is a combat weapon.

A French Line spokesman at Cristobal said the Guatemalan cargo was being reloaded but that no orders had been received yet to reload the El Salvador cargo.

It could not be learned whether this had any connection with the box of brownings.

A shipment official said he expected the Wyoming would remain in port until the El Salvador cargo had been unloaded.

Other developments in Central America included: Guatemala, still nervous over a mystery plane which swooped over the capital Wednesday dropping anti-Communist leaflets, was scheduled to sign a bilateral non-aggression pact with Honduras.

The step appeared designed to remove danger of border incidents between the two lands.

Guatemalan Foreign Minister Guillermo Torrella announced Wednesday his government has offered to sign a bilateral non-aggression pact with Honduras.

Building Permits Total About 130

Five building permit applications were made at the City Hall yesterday and today bringing the month's total to approximately 130.

C. K. Ellis, owner of a Negro theatre located on S. Third St., received a permit to close and remove the theater from the lot.

M. L. Nichols has applied for a permit to erect a concrete block building in Fairview subdivision.

The building, which will be located at 405 San Carlos St., will cost approximately $6,000.

James Thomas plans to erect a frame garage on his property, 120 W. Seventh St., at an approximate cost of $200. He will do the work himself.

Hazel C. Flynn has made an application to reside her home with aluminum siding. Work on the home located at 207 W. 18th St. will be done by the Aluminum Products Co. at a cost of $1,175, according to City records.

George Palmer, who owns a home in the San Lania subdivision, plans to erect an added room to his home at an approximate cost of $1,500. He will do the work himself.

Jaycee Officers Are Installed

New officers of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce for the group's 1954-55 year were formally installed at ceremonies held at the Mayfair Inn Country Club last night.

Herb Roller, manager of the Ritz Theater, installed as president; Don Ruler, first vice-president; George Speer, second vice-president; Thomas Stringer, secretary; and Robert Cushing, treasurer.

Club directors for the coming year are E. C. Harper Jr., M. J. Nabors Jr., Clarence McKee Jr., H. Peterson Jr., and Chandler Vail.

Approximately 100 persons attended the Sanford organization's annual installation party at which the newly elected district president, William Whipple, introduced the new state president, Charley Johnson, Jacksonville, who took part in the ceremonies.

Revolt Staged By Monkeys At Local Zoo

Disaffection probably isn't confined to human beings—monkeys are taking them up.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hood, zoo keepers, Jiggles, a resident of monkey land who has definite theatrical leanings, got together with two other monkeys with the same thought process, forming three man - a I mean monkey gang, and seized control by capturing the food rack and bullying the other residents.

Things went on like this for more than a week. Then came the revolution. Banding together some 20 strong, the monkeys attacked the threesome and took over the government.

Jiggles in the meantime was ostracized from the island when the mob threw him in the moat. Zoo keeper Hood immediately tossed him into the moat again.

Today Jiggles is the sole ruler of a separate cage far from polite society, according to Hood. The two buddies were forgiven and accepted back to the fold.

Strolling In Sanford

"WANTED"—a few minutes time to help save a child. Remove doors or latches, or drill holes in discarded iceboxes, refrigerators and freezers."

J. H. Parramore is in fair condition at the Orange Memorial Hospital after undergoing surgery yesterday, according to a member of the family.

The May issue of "Florida Grower and Rancher," a state-wide publication, carried a two page write-up on Sanford Farming, entitled "Sanford Farming: Miracle Is Undergoing Irrigation," by Thomas J. Hughes. The article traces the history of the area's farming and subtropical fruit industries. Anyone interested in the article can see the publication at the Chamber of Commerce.

A picture and short article on a recent Sanford Kiwanis Club Program at which local amateur radio men set up and demonstrated their equipment, were run in a national radio monthly, QST, which is now on the newsstands. The picture shows Forrest Beck, Keanledge, operating the set, surrounded by Kiwanians Ralph Smith, secretary; Jim Grant, program chairman at the time; Rupert Strickland, first vice-president, and A. L. Wilson, second vice-president. Strickland is now president elect of the group and Wilson, first vice-president elect. The publication can be seen at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Mayfair Inn swimming pool for the use of the members of the Sanford Bath and Tennis Club will start another season at 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. Practically all former members have signed up for the current season but, according to Charles G. Marlan, general manager of the hotel, (Continued on Page Four)

Canadian Mounties Attacked By Stone-Throwing Cult Women

GRAND FORKS, B. C. (AP)—Fifteen Royal Canadian Mounted policemen escorting a tourist officer were attacked by 50 stone-throwing Sons of Freedom Doukhobor women near here yesterday.

The fracas occurred at Gilpin, a Freedomite settlement, when the Mounties accompanied Ralph McIntosh to the town so he could read a proclamation.

McIntosh lost an encounter with 30 nude women who scratched and clawed him Wednesday when he attempted alone to read his proclamation ordering the villagers to send their children to school.

The Sons of Freedom sect objects to sending children to Canadian schools on the grounds the schools teach militarism.

DELIVERING PLACE CHANGED SARANAC LAKE, N.Y.

Lee Gillespie will walk next door for her growing newspaper because of a family of birds.

Some of the birds, of unknown species, have built a nest in the Gillespie's rose garden newspaper tube. Mrs. Gillespie has asked that her paper be delivered with a neighbor's until the baby birds are raised.

Most Of Pittsburg Taking Transportation Strike Well

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A port block, busily chewing gum, smiles brightly and cheerfully raises her thumb to hitch a ride to work.

An elderly steelworker, a lunch box tucked under his arm, stands on the corner waiting for a fellow worker to come by in his auto.

Two teenage boys, whistling snatches of the latest Hit Parade tunes, stroll block after block toward school.

Almost everyone is taking the deep in stride. If they can't find other means of transportation, so-idents walk or hitchhike.

Commuter trains, independent bus lines, taxicabs and private autos are taking up the transportation slack. That's a pretty big job in the nation—which is the center of a metropolitan area with more than two million population.

Some 2,700 trolley and bus operators struck Pittsburgh Railway Co. May 8 to enforce demands for a 30-cent hourly wage increase and other benefits. The company said it just can't afford to grant any economic gains this year under the ailing fare structure.
