PLANNING ALREADY—W. Scott Burns, newly-elected chairman of the Committee of 100, and George Touhy, vice-chairman, make plans for the success of the new industrial committee in Seminole County. (Herald Staff Photo)

Campaign Set By Committee

W. Scott Burns, manager of the Florida Power and Light Co., was elected chairman of the Seminole County Committee of 100 last night. Elected to serve as vice-chairman was George Touhy, executive vice-president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The slate offered by a nominating committee appointed at a previous meeting was unanimously accepted by the group. Mack Cleveland Jr., temporary chairman, congratulated the new officers, and turned the chair briefly over to Burns, who said, "I believe the people of Seminole County are behind this Committee. I can be called 24 hours a day, and if any of you have any suggestions as to how we may run this committee, I will be glad to hear from you."

Committee Of 100 Announces Slate

After election of officers last night by the Committee of 100, Mack Cleveland Jr. said that the executive committee would act as a guiding and counseling force.

It is composed of W. Scott Burns, George Touhy, T. E. Tucker, Francis Roushilt Jr., and another member to be appointed by the chairman.

Other committees accepted from the slate presented by Gen. J. C. Hutchison were finance. T. E. Tucker, chairman; H. J. Nauman, John Fitzpatrick, Jack Greene, George Touhy.

Membership, Francis Roushilt Jr., chairman; Robert Carline, Morgan Deas, George Morgan, Earl Toney; advertising, Marion Harman, chairman; Walter Gielow, A. B. Peterson Jr., Myron A. Reek.

Local industries, Clifford McKinnis Jr., chairman; Ralph C. Coan, Herman Jacobson, Sam Lawson, Bob Sheiden; target industries, Bralley Odham, chairman; Mack Cleveland Jr., Bob Crumley, Sam Levy, Dr. Bill Nitzner, Tom McDonald, W. A. Patrick.

The management board will be appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, president for staggered terms of 5, 4, 3, 2, and 1 year terms. The chairman and vice chairman will act as ex-officio members of all committees.

Southern Bell Pays County, City Tax

Taxpayers can save four percent by paying their taxes before Dec. 1. This can be an important figure when taxes reach big proportions.

Taking advantage of the savings is the Southern Bell Telephone Co. This morning, manager Bob Sheiden presented County Tax Collector John Galloway with a check for $28,470.04 and City Tax Collector Ellen How with $18,360.22.

Filling the tax cutoffers and buildings owned by the telephone company in Sanford and Seminole County.

Seminole Approved For $45,000 Grant

Seminole County has been approved for a $45,000 grant for a health center.

The money will be available to the county if it is matched by the county.

John Krider, county commission chairman, today said he had been notified of the Hill-Burton grant, but that no appropriation had been made by the county. He added that he thought it "to early for discussion," preferring to wait for the new county commission to take action in January.

Krider said he did not know if a time limit was set on use of the funds.

Committee Picks 4 Local Growers

New committee appointments for the 1958-59 season, announced by Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association president Roy Vandegriff, Jr., Tallahassee, include four local growers.

From this area appointed were Randall Chase, Sydney O. Chase Jr., M. L. Colman and Harold Kattner, all of Sanford.

Dulles Says U. S. To Use All Means To Stay In Berlin

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States will use all means, including force if necessary, to keep open the road, rail and air communications to Communist-encircled West Berlin.

Dulles was asked at a news conference whether the Western Big Three had ruled out the use of force if the Russians or East Germans tried to blockade the city. He said the Allies have not ruled out any of their rights at all.

He declared, however, that he thinks the question is still academic because, according to his interpretation, the Russians and East German Communists have not threatened Allied access to the city.

Dulles said the only issue raised by the Reds so far, as he sees it, is whether the Soviet Union can turn East Berlin over to the German Communists and wangle out of its responsibilities and obligations to the Allies.

Dulles said, in fact, that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be having some second thoughts on the wisdom of his declaration earlier this month that Russia was ready to turn its Berlin sector over to the German Communists.

He said the Russian leader obviously spoke without consulting his legal advisers and may be reviewing the situation now that he has found his legal position unsound.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerly announced that Speaker of the House Charles G. Stautitz, a Democrat who served with Sen. Eisenhower Sunday on the Berlin situation and other foreign policy matters.

A. R. Timberman of Tampa was unable to come.

Stautitz was introduced by John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. In introducing Stautitz, Krider said that "it is a known fact that 40 to 50 percent of our money goes to Russia."

Stautitz pointed out that working on the committee would take more energy than money. "Each of you has your own responsibility in making money new business," he said. "It isn't industry that you bring in from outside that makes your town. You cannot succeed if you leave the work to chairman."

The merchandising expert outlined several reasons for the loss of money, stressing that the same would apply to almost any town.

He said "the presentation of your town is a very important factor in selection by new industry; independent businessmen have no one to check up on them; if he hasn't washed his windows since he moved in, if his store needs paint, or if his parking lot is discolored, it is a reflection on the whole town."

Stautitz stressed the need for adequate stock supplies to stop the flow to another city.

"You need a city-wide population effort from school children on up to improve the looks of Sanford," Stautitz continued. "When everyone becomes conscious of working together, then those who do not improve will feel guilty. Take your time, pick your people, if you must instead of want, you never will be doing anything about improvement."

Turkey For Firemen

Sanford firemen and their families will have a big Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow at Fire Station No. 1. The dinner is set for 12:30 p. m. Time depends on how many residents burn up their turkeys.

Inspection Delayed

Bicycle inspection at the Lake Mary school will be postponed until after the first of the year.

Mrs. L. E. Robert, safety chairman for the PTA said that materials for the inspection had not arrived. The children were to have had the inspection immediately after Thanksgiving.

Services Planned For Thanksgiving

A service of Thanksgiving will be held in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 103 West 15th Place, Sanford, at 9:30 a. m. on Thanksgiving Day, to which the public is invited.

Under the direction of Mrs. James Harrison, the choir will sing three anthems: "O Give Thanks," "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come," and "We Gather Together." Mr. G. Hult will sing a solo "Thanks Be To Thee." The Sunday School children will also bring an anthem. The Rev. Herbert W. Goetz will bring a message on "Recognizing the Source of All We Need For a Complete Thanksgiving service will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow in the Christian Science Church.

Food will bank the altar at Holy Cross Episcopal Church in the traditional Thanksgiving manner. The food, donated by the congregation, will be taken to Bishop Gray Inn for older people.

The Junior and senior choirs will sing at the 9 a. m. Choral Eucharist service on Thanksgiving.

Cars Crash, Couple Taken To Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Alonso V. McCauley, Delray, are patients in the Seminole Memorial Hospital today following a collision at 9:30 last night one mile north of Sanford on 13522.

Officers said the accident occurred when Ellsworth L. Fuller, 60, Santa Barbara Drive, failed to attempt to pass the car ahead. A head on collision was averted by both drivers as they swerved to miss each other. Fuller's automobile hit the left side of the McCauley car. Fuller was uninjured.

Highway Patrol Trooper J. L. Sikes said that Mrs. McCauley suffered a severe scalp wound and possible internal injuries. Her husband sustained cuts, bruises and broken ribs.

Jack Lieberman, of the Highway Patrol Auxiliary, and an unidentified shore patrolman were credited by Sikes with keeping the traffic flowing while an investigation was made. Fuller was charged with driving on the wrong side of the road.

Porch 'Shattered,' Car Driver Jailed

George Simmons, West First St., surveyed the damage today with a lacerated eye after his glassed-in porch was moved eighteen inches by the impact of an automobile at 9:45 p. m. yesterday.

The car driven by Joe McDowell Spivey, Rt. 1, Box 51, came to rest against the porch after uprooting three concrete posts over a culvert and twice penetrating a barbed wire fence. The car entered the fence by the culvert, bounded over a field, through the fence again and into the house, a distance of 180 feet from where it left the road, according to officials. The accident occurred two miles west of Sanford on State Road 46.

State Trooper J. L. Sikes said Spivey jumped from his car and ran into the woods. He was found by Sikes and Sheriff's Deputy L. J. Kriz an hour later. A bloodhound could not pick up the scent because a can of gasoline had spilled on the fugitive's shoes during the accident, Sikes said.

Sikes estimated the speed of the car "at a conservative 60 miles per hour in a 40 m.p.h. speed zone." The car was a total loss. Damage to Simmons' porch was estimated at $200.

Spivey, who was uninjured in the accident, was charged with driving while intoxicated. He was taken to the county jail, where he was released on bond this morning.

Farmers Credited With $64 Million

Seminole County farmers are responsible, directly and indirectly, for $64 million of the county's economy each year.

Agriculture in the county is a $12 million plus industry annually. The $64 million figure was cited by Dr. Ralph Eastwood, agricultural economist of the Florida Extension Service, in an address today at the Sanford Kiwanis Club.

Dr. Eastwood arrived at the $64 million by counting the number of times that a dollar "turns over" in the economy. He said the $12, 800,000 from Seminole farm turns over five times.

His speech in Kiwanis today closed out the local observance of National Farm City Week. Yesterday, he spoke to the Lions Club. He was introduced to Seminole residents last night at the meeting of the Committee of 100.

Dr. Eastwood said that farmers should put more emphasis on marketing their products, pointing out that farmers in the past had been content to grow their produce and do little to achieve good markets.

As examples of the importance of marketing, Dr. Eastwood said that Seminole County receives 42 cents of every dollar that New York pays for locally grown celery, about 30 cents of every true dollar returns to the local farmer.

He traced the citrus dollar to its various points for Kiwanis and illustrated the various stops for citrus between tree and table.

Two-County Chase Ends In Leesburg; 8 Persons Nabbed

Ocala, Fla. (UPI)—An alert road patrolman intercepted an auto convoy of arms for Cuban rebels early today, and eight persons, including a Miami soldier of fortune, were arrested after a two-county chase.

Seminole County Deputy Sheriff Glenn Smith seized one car heavily laden with machine guns, rifles and ammunition near here. Two other vehicles were stopped a short time later at a roadblock in the outskirts of Leesburg, Fla.

Marion Sheriff F. L. McGhee said later that apparently there was a fourth car in the convoy that managed to elude searches. He said Smith noticed one of the three cars was a green and white Chevrolet station wagon, either 1957 or 1958 model.

When authorities here learned that two cars had been stopped in Leesburg, they assumed all three vehicles in the convoy had been accounted for. A later check showed both cars in Leesburg were seizes.

Officers were making a statewide check for the missing station wagon, which had a "12" license plate designation, no title and was a vehicle rented in world county.

Arrested in the first does to Charles Hornell, 43, an exporter with a long gun-running charge, Garcia, a Havana woman, 30s. Smith said the car two 50 caliber anti-air machine guns, 20 various makes, and 15 rounds of ammunition for all. Also seized was a race of easily used to tune in out-frequencies.

Found for Cuban reporters the weapons were not for Fidel Castro, leader of the major rebel bands. Leesburg police arrested at Ocala, 35, a naturalized Cuban national. Both gave Miami addresses. Police found 30 rounds of 30 caliber ammunition in the trunk of their car.

Democrats Leading For Alaska Posts
ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—Democrats today appeared the winners of at least three of the four major offices on the ballot in Tuesday's history-making Alaska election.

At the halfway mark in the job of counting ballots from distant Shemya at the far end of the Alaskan chain to Point Barrow on the Arctic Ocean, each territory-wide reap counted more convincingly to a Democratic sweep. Democrats also were headed toward strong control of both houses of the state legislature.

The closest race was between two former Alaska governors, Democrat Ernest Gruening, at 72 a veteran of many years in politics, and Mike Stepovich, 39-year-old Fairbanks attorney appointed governor by President Eisenhower in 1957.

Stepovich virtually even in their contest for one U. S. Senate seat. But as returns poured in from this area's large voting districts and those in Fairbanks, Gruening's lead increased steadily.

A certain winner of the other Senate seat was E. I. (Bob) Hartlett, for 14 years a voteless territorial delegate to Congress. Hartlett, 54, was getting more than six times the vote given his Republican opponent, R. E. Robertson, 73 of Juneau.

Baptists Schedule Mobilization Night
More than 400 Baptist Training Union members are expected to attend "Mobilization Night" services Dec. 1 at the First Baptist Church in Sanford.

The annual meeting is sponsored by the Seminole County and DeLand. According to R. Hugh Hawkins, director of the Association, the program committee has planned an interesting session. He urged all members to be present.

There will be a special mass program. The address will be given by Dr. Henry Alan Parker, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Orlando.

The service will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Two Dances Slated At Center Tonight
Square dancing at the Sanford Civic Center will begin early tonight due to the homecoming dance scheduled in the main auditorium after the football game. Square dancers are invited to attend at 7:30 p. m.

Nick Pietrafesa and the Starlighters will play tonight at the homecoming dance. The dance is sponsored by the Seminole High School Student Council and the Sanford Recreation Department.

FINAL PLANS TALKED—Capt. Ljonel A. Arthur (left), NAS Sanford commanding officer, and Capt. James D. Hangan, commander of Heavy Attack Wing One, discuss final plans for the Wing's Sixth Bombing Derby, to be held at Sanford, Dec. 8-12. Capt. Arthur announced that in conjunction with the Derby a public open house will be held on Dec. 12.

Station Completes Bomb Derby Plans

The most comprehensive bombing derby ever held by the Navy will draw state and national figures and high ranking Naval officers to Sanford, Dec. 8-12.

Final plans for the derby, Heavy Attack Wing One's sixth, have been revealed by Capt. James D. Hangan, Wing One Commander. Competing crews, composed of select squadron members, will fly the Douglas A3D "Sky Warrior", a 25-ton carrier-based twin jet nuclear bomber.

The competition will stress the ability of each squadron's maintenance personnel, ordnance specialists and flight crews.

Rules of the derby have been designed to simulate carrier operations for the jet aircraft. The planes will fly in all weather conditions, during hours of darkness, and over a range of thousands of miles. Crews will be graded on each phase of the operation as they perform their derby missions. The targets will be new to the crews.

The Bombing Derby will climax Dec. 12 with the Carrier Attack competition and the presentation of awards to winning squadrons and individuals. A public open house will follow at the Air Station.

Editorials

Committee Is Ready As Seminole Booster

The Seminole County Committee of 100 held its second meeting last night. One of the more newsworthy notes about the meeting was the absence of the featured speaker, A. R. Timmerman Jr.

Timmerman, manager of the Tampa Committee of 100, was scheduled to tell Seminole committee members how the organization could operate successfully. He was unable to attend, however, because he was busy trying to locate a new plant in Tampa.

In his absence, the local committee heard Charles H. Staubitz of DeBary, who worked with Sears, Roebuck & Co. for 30 years, 17 of which were spent in field research and merchandising in the southern division.

The Seminole Committee of 100 is patterned after that of Tampa. John Krider, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said committee organizers had decided to use the Tampa plan because it is the most successful that the committee had found.

Local folk now know just how successful it is. Maybe Seminole County can achieve some of the same type success.

With officers elected and committees chosen, the local committee now may start on its projects. The Committee of 100 was organized for long-range purposes. Persons working on the projects adopted by the committee may "hit the jackpot" early; they might find that success will come slowly, but surely.

We agree with those who have pointed out the many benefits that this organization can bring to Seminole County. We agree, too, with those who feel that "things just won't happen" because Seminole now has a Committee of 100.

The success of this group, as in the case of all other types of endeavor, can be measured in direct proportion to the work that is done. Work should not be limited to members of the committee. It should be done on a county-wide basis.

Navy Prefers Sanford

"At or West, we like Sanford best." These were the words attached to a banner on buses which returned Detachment VII-7 to the Sanford Naval Air Station after an absence.

As we think, vividly demonstrates the feeling of personnel for Sanford. The banner made the trip support to Sanford. It was the finest kind of "plug" community. Displayed so that the world might see, no doubt, attracted a great deal of attention. Considering the many "ports of call" made by Detachment VII-7, this was a broad statement. The Detachment visit of the world's famous cities during the 11 months it was away.

The group, naturally, was happy to be coming home. It has made the trip minus the banners. This enthusiasm displayed on the part of returning Navy personnel provides food for thought.

Jew Hampshire 'Unknown Soldier'

Both coffins were opened. The second contained the body of Stevens. The occupant of the first coffin never was identified. This body also was buried in the family lot.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — To put a new player into the tricky game of diplomatic give-and-take with the Russians is more often than not to draw a blank. But the other day it paid off in a very promising way.

Senator Albert Gore of Tennessee is not a newcomer to the complicated and difficult business of nuclear testing and nuclear weapons. For four years he has been a member of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy and before that, during his earlier career in the House, he had an important role in appropriating funds for atomic development. But when he was named a member of the American delegation to the conference on nuclear testing in Geneva, he was a green hand at the savage kind of chess match played with the Soviets in one international conference after another since the end of the war.

What Gore did after sitting in on that game in Switzerland for two weeks was to come up with a proposal that illustrates what common sense and boldness can do when applied to a seemingly insoluble diplomatic deadlock. The Senator flew back to Washington, got an appointment with President Eisenhower and found him receptive to the new approach.

In essence, this is what Gore proposed: Put up to the Russians an agreement to end all testing — excepting those conducted underground — for three years. If they turn this proposal down, then the blame for failure of the conference will be on them. And Gore felt after two weeks at Geneva that there was a good chance they would accept it.

Underground tests do not pollute the atmosphere and yet with such tests the military would be able to continue to carry out work on adaptation of nuclear explosives to small arms. The world, and above all those nations that do not have and therefore do not test atomic weapons, would be assured that for a long period no additional poison would be blown into the air men breathe and the seas they live around.

With the common sense that is grounded in his Tennessee background Gore had seen the weakness of the official American position at Geneva. Any agreement to stop testing must be preceded, in the American view, by a worldwide system of control and inspection. But such a system, as Gore perceived, is in practical fact an impossibility.

Therefore, the avowed American objective is an unattainable one. It is merely another piece moved on the chessboard to achieve a stalemate without seeming to want a stalemate. The inspection system would cost several billion dollars. Thousands of experts would have to be stationed at some 37 posts in Asia, 24 in North America, seven in Europe, many more in Australia and South America and on 10 ships permanently at sea. To be really effective the system also would have to include inspection posts in Communist China.

By constantly pushing their proposal for a permanent end of all testing with the propaganda skill they have repeatedly shown, the Russians, Gore felt at Geneva, were likely to come out of a stalemate conference with a propaganda victory. They would have convinced the neutrals and such nations as Japan where the fear of nuclear pollution is great that they wanted to do something and the United States stood on an impossible demand.

The Gore proposal is not, of course, new. An agreement to end tests for two years or three years or perhaps longer has repeatedly been put forward. But it was the Senator's timing, together with his obvious integrity and conviction, that carried weight. The new player had come up with a new move to break through the old rigid maneuvers.

That has been characteristic of Gore ever since he came to the House from the back country of Tennessee in 1930 at the age of 32. He plays the game by the dictates of his own conscience. When the Democrats in his first year in the House refused to grant him time to speak against an Administration appropriation that he thought was wrong, Gore got permission from the Republicans and made a stirring speech that resulted in defeat of his party's bill. Gore's hero is a Tennesseean, the late Cordell Hull, and he has about him something of Hull's toughness of character and mind.

Fred Othman Says

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

CHARLOTTE, AMALIE, St. Thomas, V. I. — I never thought when Hilda and I came to the Virgin Islands for a vacation that I'd have to get up on my feet before an audience and defend myself for writing a story more than 20 years ago about the terrible-tempered Mr. Bang, the late Harold Ickes, and his back-firing dogoodism in the tropics.

But there I found myself addressing the local Rotary Club, by request, on the terrace of the beautiful Blue Beard Castle Hotel, scene of the original crime. This was the tale I had to tell the leading citizens:

In the long ago, when I was a Washington reporter covering the Interior Department then headed by Honest Harold, his first idea to help the poverty-ridden Virgin Islands was to build a hotel de luxe to attract tourists. This he did.

He built it around the ruins of Pirate Blue Beard's lookout tower on a hill overlooking the harbor. Ickes' architects, who spent their lives designing government buildings, built a truly handsome structure on a foundation blasted from solid rock.

When they'd finished it and had the grand opening, they discovered they'd overlooked installation of a boiler to provide the guests with hot water. This was doubly serious because there was no place available in the rock beneath the hotel to put a hot-water plant.

Ickes' hotel managers tried to remedy this by using makeshift electric water heaters, but the paying customers more often than not had to take their baths cold. They received a further feeling of being pioneers in the wilderness when they discovered the government architects had put no closets in any of the bedrooms. This still wasn't all.

This new hotel, owned and operated by the U. S. government, including a barroom, featuring a horrid fluid known as Government House rum, which was manufactured by another Ickes-inspired outfit called the Virgin Islands Corp. This circumstance roused — and rightly so — the ladies of the WCTU, the members of the Methodist Board of Temperance and Moral, and all the other dry organizations in America. They said in words somewhat more heated than these that they did not care to have their tax money spent distilling and serving at retail the demon rum. Here the word, demon, truly fitted.

I never heard of Government House rum ever killing anybody; it merely made the visitors at the Blue Beard Castle Hotel feel a little sick at the stomach. Ickes by now was in the well-known political soup; my story, based upon the word of officials whom I trusted, didn't help.

When Honest Harold read it, he ranted and he also raved. He charged that I lied in print and he got word down to the Virgin Islands that I was a no-goodnik. My only recourse was to catch the first plane south and see for myself who was telling the truth.

I shaved in the Blue Beard's cold water; in vain I looked for a clothes closet. I also tried some of Honest Harold's rum and the memory of it still gives me the shudders. So I did another piece about my personal inquiry, and this time the terrible-tempered one kept his mouth shut.

Now he's gone and the years have passed and, as I suggested to the Rotarians, if it hadn't been for Ickes, there probably wouldn't be a Blue Beard Castle Hotel today. The government sold it at a tremendous loss to private enterprise, which had to spend most of its money rebuilding the place to eliminate termites, include proper hot water, and install closets in the bedrooms.

It is a going concern today. Its success has attracted other top-flight hotels, such as the Virgin Isle, Casel Bay Plantation, and Estate Good Hope, and Ickes deserves full credit for first seeing these beautiful islands as a tourist attraction.

Eventually he also went out of the rum business. The government poured the last 50,000 gallons of its production into the sea as being unfit for human consumption and sold its distillery to private enterprise, again at a large loss.

It now is making a salubrious, sunbathing rum under a new label. The Virgin Islands Corporation still is in business, but it has settled down to operations more appropriate to government enterprise, and I trust this is the last time I'll have occasion to mention Honest Harold. Beating a dead politician isn't exactly my idea of fun.

Recipe For Chocolate Mint Cake Is Told

Chocolate mint angel food cake is the kind of birthday treat you can be certain will please any young celebrator who requests ice cream, cake and candy on his natal day. For it combines all three in one big, glamorous delight.

If you have a light hand with angel cake, you'll want to bake your own. Otherwise order a ten-inch size from your baker. You'll need two puns of chocolate ice cream, a half pint of whipping cream and a cup of pastel mints.

Crush the mints coarsely on paper toweling, using your rolling pin, advise Richardson home economists, so that chunky pieces of confection can be strewn atop the cake.

Chocolate Mint Angel Cake
Fill center of angel cake with softened chocolate ice cream, packing it in firmly. Frost top and sides of cake with whipped cream flavored with a 1/2 teaspoon peppermint flavoring. Sprinkle top and sides with crushed pastel mints. Place in freezer or freezing compartment of refrigerator until firm. Makes eight to ten servings.

The Woman's Angle

BY ELIZABETH ASHBY

Mrs. Raymond Ball is a sweet, kind person who is more willing to speak of other accomplishments and talents than her own. She and her husband, who sells real estate and insurance, have a home out in Lake Mary, overlooking Crystal Lake. The house is built colored, of Spanish architectural design. The interior is decorated in shades of soft rose. The rooms are well kept and present a cozy, attractive appearance.

The Balls came to Lake Mary in 1923. They always intended to move into Sanford but as years went by they gave up that idea and settled permanently on the lake. The location was ideal for rearing children and now is ideal for visiting grandchildren. The Balls used to rise early in the morning and fish but now the view and cool breeze from the lake are the main charms for them.

In the past two years this setting has been the scene of a bring-your-own-steak party for members of the Sanford Pilot Club. The supper was cooked over charcoal grills and Mrs. Ball furnished the trimmings. She is first vice president of the Pilot Club and next year will be the president.

At the present time she is working on decorations for the Pilot Club Christmas banquet. She has created several lovely articles to be used in the decorations but these must remain secret until the night of the banquet. Other members of the committee will carry out her ideas.

Mrs. Ball likes to keep busy. She has been chairman of the Good Citizen Committee of the DAR for the past three years. She is a member of Holy Cross Episcopal Church. Just last year she resigned from a position of secretary to the principal of Sanford Junior High School. This is a position which she had held for the past 15 years, serving under three different men. She enjoys people and loves children. This year she is substituting occasionally at the Junior High at Pinecrest School.

Mrs. Ball declared that she loves anything pretty and everything that tastes good. She bakes fruit cakes and in the past few weeks has baked about 30 pounds of that sweet. Occasionally she caters for parties and receptions for friends. She likes to decorate party cakes

Christmas is a happy time in the Ball home. Mrs. Ball makes Christmas cookies of all designs. Host and various candies and other delicacies. This year she is planning an open house for relatives and friends.

The Balls have two children. The daughter, Betty, is now Miss Tyler Dodman. Lester Dodman is with V.H.S. which is now deployed in the Mediterranean. A son, Raymond Jr., lives with his family in New Jersey. He is an engineer for RCA. The Balls are a close family and visit with each other whenever possible.

Serve Petite Cafe

The pre-dinner festivities on Thanksgiving Day can be almost as much fun as the big feast itself. For those who don't serve cocktails, there's a marvelous way to fill that sociable hour before dinner with light refreshment. In French, it's called Petit Cafe—which means hot, black coffee in your demitasse, delicate cups. Your guests will love the idea, for they not only get a little stimulation, but lively conversation as well.

You'll want something to serve with Petit Cafe—perhaps in lieu of an appetizer at dinner. Along with crisp carrot curls and celery, why not serve simple homemade hors d'oeuvres? Pickled Mushrooms and hot Cheddar 'n' Peas are just right for the occasion. The mushrooms require little preparation; they're marinated for twenty-four hours and served on cocktail sticks. The 'n' Peas are fancy cheese wafers, served hot and crumbly, a perfect complement to the coffee.

To make American-style demitasse, use your favorite coffee pot with half again as much coffee as usual to the regular amount of water. Once you've served Petit Cafe before dinner, you'll make it a tradition during the holiday season. Just be sure to make the coffee very strong and — don't forget — you'll want plenty more.

When the feast is over! Pickled Mushrooms
2 cans (4 oz. each) bottled mushrooms
1/2 cup tarragon vinegar
1/2 cup dark brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon peppercorns
1 bay leaf
1 garlic clove, sliced
Drain mushrooms, saving broth. Combine 1/2 cup broth with remaining ingredients in small saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring until sugar dissolves. Pour over mushrooms. Cover tightly and chill for at least 24 hours. Drain. Serve with cocktail sticks.

Cheddar 'n' Peas
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 lb sharp cheddar cheese, grated
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons dry onion soup mix, finely crushed

Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Shape into rolls about 1 inch in diameter. Wrap in foil and freeze. When ready to bake, slice crosswise 1/8 inch thick. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degree, about 10 minutes or until golden brown. Serve hot. Makes about 6 1/2 dozen.

Color Telephones Becoming Popular
NEW YORK — (UPI) — Now that the idea of two cars in every garage has been accepted as a symbol of success, the Bell System is pressing for a new way to expand the economy.

Color telephones may help do the trick. Bell System officials believe, Housewives and businessmen have been ordering phones in decorator hues ranging from white to cherry red at such a rate that 40,000 of them are hanging away in homes, hotels and offices.

Not only are they pleasant to look at, a spokesman said, but they encourage the use of the gift of cash.

Something seems to come over a person when his eye lights on a colored phone, whether in home, hotel or office. He just can't resist picking up the receiver and ringing someone up.

This is just as true of men as women.

A recent survey was made in a hotel in which some rooms had traditional black phones and others, colored. Guests made nearly 20 per cent more calls on the colored phones.

"Color has helped take the phone out of its hiding place," a Bell spokesman said. The result is that the phone is in view more readily, more often, and we are stimulated to make more calls."

The National Society of Interior Designers was so impressed with colored phones that it gave the Bell Telephone System its 1938 award for the most outstanding contribution to interior decorating of the year.

Decorators match phones to draperies, chairs, lampshades, and other furnishings. Eventually, telephone wires will be hidden as electric wiring is.

In multiple-phone homes, the bedroom is the favorite site for the second phone. Plug-in phones, which can be moved from room to room also are becoming popular.

Try Eggnog Pumpkin Pie

It's pumpkin pie time again! Of the myriad, versions most cooks have tried, few are as fluffy and rich as the ones that use dairy eggnog in the filling.

Dairy eggnog replaces the milk at the same time it increases the usual amount of eggs, point out Meadow Gold home economists. Their version of this popular dessert includes cottage cheese, too, creating a doubly nourishing pumpkin pie.

Eggnog Pumpkin Pie
1 9-inch graham cracker crumb crust
1 cup cottage cheese, sieved
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 tablespoons cornstarch
2 1/2 cup eggnog
2 egg whites, beaten stiff
1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs

Combine cottage cheese, pumpkin, egg yolks, sugar, nutmeg, lemon rind and juice. Beat egg whites stiff and fold into mixture. Bake in preheated oven at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Cool in pan 5 minutes. Turn out on platter and serve with whipped cream.

Seminole Homecoming Tonight

By Jerry Castigan
The OBC champion Sanford Seminoles will host Deland here tonight in the annual homecoming game.

One of the highlights of the night will be the introduction of former captains of the "Celery Feds", known now as the Seminole Athletic director Fred Gans as has done a great deal of research and has extended invitations to all captains in the history of the school. Duck Metts, Lyman coach, represents the '53 squad, on which he made a great record.

An unusual combination will be the presence of the three Bass brothers who have been captains in recent years. Richard, Buddy, and Gene all have held the honor at Seminole and are slated to be on hand. There is one father-son combination represented here tonight. Glenn Lingle Sr. was captain in 1929. Glenn Jr. captained the 1943 squad. These are just a few who will attend this homecoming.

Coach Jim Piggott has put his championship squad through light work since the contest Friday night with Lakeview. He feels that the youngsters should be in top form. The aerial-minded Seminoles are a good bet to put on a passing show as they close out the regular season.
The passing of Cecil Dandridge has been among the best in the state. In the receiving department, there are no finer ends than Gerald Jones and Alan Swain. This phase of the game should be at its peak.
The running attack should also be at full speed with the arrival of junior halfback Ray Lundquist. Lundquist didn't break into

Cannon Top All-American, Heckman On Second Unit

NEW YORK (UPI)—Billy Cannon, the big offensive threat in Louisiana State's climb to the No. 1 national ranking, and versatile Pete Dawkins of Army were the most popular choices on the 1958 United Press International All-America football team announced today.

Reyer, his only repeater from the 1957 United Press All-American, barely edged Guzik as the outstanding line selection in the voting by 278 sports writers and radio and television broadcasters from all over the country.

Cannon and Dawkins headed a perfectly balanced backfield that included quarterback Randy Duncan of Iowa and fullback Bob White of Ohio State.
The All-America line was made up of Buddy Dial of Rice and Sam Williams of Michigan State at ends; Ted Bates of Oregon State and Brock Strom of Air Force Academy at tackles; John Guzik at Pittsburgh and Al Eruyer of Notre Dame at guards, and Bob Harrison of Oklahoma at center.

The closest contest is the 1958 All-America voting was at end, where Williams barely beat out Stony Stickle of Notre Dame for a first team position.
In addition to Anderson, the second-team backs were Dick Bass of California and Don Meredith of Southern Methodist. The second-team line was made up of Stickle and Rich Kreiting of Illinois at ends; Val Heckman of Florida and Ron Luciano of Syracuse at tackles; George Deidrich of Vanderbilt and Zeke Smith of Auburn at guards, and Max Fugler of LSU at center.

Dietzel Is Chosen Week's Top Coach

By BRYCE MILLER
BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—He was a student of three of the most famous coaches in football—

Academies Facing Games Stalemate
NEW YORK (UPI)—The superintendents of the Army, Navy and Air Force academies got together Tuesday and admitted they have reached a stalemate on their future football relations.

He found a way to make boys proud of the fact they're on the third team rather than the first team, and he credits their spirit with helping carry the squad to a berth in the Sugar Bowl.
He is Paul Dietzel of Louisiana State, honored today as the United Press International "Coach of the Week" in the wake of State's 63-0 rout of Tulane to cap a perfect 10-0 campaign and nail down the bowl berth.

Woodruff ran the first three units on quick opening plays, long passes and double reverses. The season lasted about two hours.
Auburn and Alabama, to meet in the annual battle of Alabama Saturday, began taking it easy today. Both squads worked in pads for the last time Tuesday.

Dietzel, 34-year-old native of Mansfield, Ohio, brought Louisiana State to the pignic pinnacle in his fourth year at the helm, the first in which he could call on experienced players (juniors) that were his.

Longhorns Hoping For New Tradition
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Coach Darrell Royal's Texas Longhorns hope to start a new tradition when they meet Texas A&M in their historic Thanksgiving Day grid game before a national television audience.

And skipper Paul commands a crew especially high-spirited because of the way he has assembled them. Dietzel doesn't have first, second and third teams. His best players are on the "white" team; of the 22 squad members left, the 11 best at offense play on the "go, go, go" team; the remaining 11 become defensive specialists nicknamed "the Chinese bandits," because Dietzel once heard that Chinese bandits are ferocious. Dietzel drills 'em hard, and doesn't hesitate to shoot 'em into the game.
Dietzel's tactics and field maneuvers can't be traced directly to the three great coaches under whom he served as assistant—Earl Blaik at Army, Sid Gillman at Cincinnati, and Paul (Bear) Bryant at Kentucky.

Ernie Banks Wins '58 Player Award
BOSTON (UPI)—Shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, a rawboned home run specialist, today won the National League's Most Valuable Player award.
The 27-year-old Banks did it in grand style, winning the annual in-runaway exhibition.
Banks pulled 283 points, highest total in four years. Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants was 98 points behind in second place. Hank Aaron of the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves, was third with 184 points.

Fraleley's Predictions

By OSCAR FRALELEY
MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Fraleley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — straight from the burro's mouth.

Colorado State over Denver — Just as last year.
Utah over Utah State — More and more indignation.

Game of the Week
Army over Navy — Navy always comes up for this one sky high and full of tricks and surprises. But an explosive Army team which this season for a change has some new tricks of its own should pull out the service classic — and rather handily.

The Southwest
Texas over Texas A&M — They're crazy for football in Mexico.
TCU over SMU — Some games draw 110,000 fans.
Rice over Baylor — The "ole's" are drafting.
Texas Tech over Houston — Plus the "buenos."

The East
Penn over Cornell — Taking the home way home from the Canada Cup golf.
Brown over Colgate — Sort of puttering around.
Pitt over Penn State — And driving even shorter than usual.

Plus the "buenos."

The South
Auburn over Alabama — Like Corrie took the Attecs.
Mississippi over Mississippi State — And for the same reason.
Florida over Miami — Meaning foot.

Beats over Steelers — Mucho gusto.
Cardinals over Rams — Muy bueno.
Giants over Eagles — Grandísimo hombre.
Colts over 49ers — Bravo burros.
Browns over Redskins — Indians don't have much chance down here.

Clemson over Furman — But the process is less painful.
South Carolina over Wake Forest — The Attecs paid through the nose.
Richmond over W & M — You may lose.
VPI over VMI — But your only bruises are on the wallet.

Beats over Redskins — Indians don't have much chance down here.

All Vero over Colorado — Higher than a Mexican burrito.
Notre Dame over USC — And taking as long as France State — Not for than families.

Florida Favorite, Coach Is Cautious

United Press International
The odds-makers have Florida figured as a solid choice to defeat Miami, but the Gators won't be taking any chances.

"We have a tremendous job ahead of us," commented Auburn Coach Ralph Jordan. "Alabama has the toughest defense that we will have faced all year."

Coach Bob Woodruff warned the Florida squad at Tuesday's practice session that the hurricanes are likely to be tough this weekend, despite their six consecutive losses.
Woodruff ran the first three units on quick opening plays, long passes and double reverses. The season lasted about two hours.
Auburn and Alabama, to meet in the annual battle of Alabama Saturday, began taking it easy today. Both squads worked in pads for the last time Tuesday.

Paul Bryant reported that sophomores Tommy White and Duff Morrison have been showing up well at halfback. Both worked with the first unit Tuesday.
Mississippi worked on goal line plays Tuesday, polishing both the offense and defense. Part of the session was devoted to the forward pass, expected to be the Rebels' big gun against Mississippi State Saturday.
The Maroons continued mopping strategy and also took some of the practice preface off today.
Vanderbilt held an overall workout, offensive units working in the field and defensive units rehearsing their roles Saturday by watching films of the Tennessee single wing attack.

Longhorns Hoping For New Tradition

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Coach Darrell Royal's Texas Longhorns hope to start a new tradition when they meet Texas A&M in their historic Thanksgiving Day grid game before a national television audience.

The Georgia Bulldogs announced hopefully that Bobby Joe Galbreath was recovering rapidly from an injury and could be in his fullback spot Saturday against Georgia Tech.
The Yellow Jackets worked on defense Tuesday and reported Mike Cammark, second-line center and linebacker, was back into harness.

Bad Years For Phils

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia Phillies had only one first division finish in the 35-year period between 1918 and 1942, when they finished fourth in 1922.

Nuclear Stockpile Could Destroy All

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Every person in the world could be wiped out by the nuclear bomb now in the possession of the United States, Britain and Russia, the Federation of American Scientists said Monday night.

The scientists called for the United States to end atomic tests forever as a first step toward placing nuclear weapons under international control.

This country, they said in a statement, should call off its test with a single condition that a detection system be set up within a specified time.

The federation describes itself as "a nationwide organization of over 2,200 scientists and engineers of all fields concerned with the interrelations of science and world affairs."

The scientists said "recent calculations based on official information" indicated the three atomic powers had enough nuclear explosives in their stockpiles to destroy the human race.

Research Animals

BOSTON (UPI)—The Jimmy Fund Research Laboratories, just opened here to further cancer research, have accommodations for 17,000 animals for experimental use.

Cornell Gets Papers

ITHACA, N. Y. (UPI)—The personal and business papers of the late Frank Gannett have been presented in Cornell University, the famed publisher's alma mater.

The file covers 50 years and includes films, tape recordings, medals, memoirs and scrapbooks.

Six U. S. Presidents had Scots-Irish ancestry: Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Arthur, McKinley and Wilson.

True Thanksgiving

By Capt. Marcela Reynolds
The Salvation Army
COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS

When we stop to count our blessings we cannot help but be a thankful people.

God, through the psalmist David, commands us to be thankful. In Psalm 100:4 we read, "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and bless his name." Sometimes we are very thankful for the large blessings, but I wonder how many of us stop long enough to thank God for the small ones. It may be the smile from a friend, the simple "I Love you" from a child, the meals prepared for us each day, the beauty of nature around us, health and freedom to worship the way we please, or the warm hand shake from the minister which does more to mold our character and shape our life, and yet, we take all these blessings for granted.

Paul says, in I Thessalonians 5:18 "In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ concerning you." True thankfulness must come from the heart, and if it does, we will count no blessing too small to be thankful. Which reminds me of a saying I heard, "I grumbled about having to get up so early in the morning, until one morning I could not get up."

We should be thankful to God each day for our Christian Heritage. The reason South America is begging for missionaries today is the fact the men who settled in South America came seeking Gold.

The men who settled North America came seeking God. Our forefathers had courage and stopped to thank God for their small blessings that first Thanksgiving day. Although most of the men had lost their wives during the cold hard winter, yet they were thankful to God for their freedom to worship. Our American heritage cost a tremendous price and I wonder how many of us stop long enough to thank our Blessings and thank God that we are an American.

The 10-man selection committee of coaches, sports writers and broadcasters gave Buffalo (8-1) 93 out of a maximum possible total of 100 points in its final halcyon. Coach Dick Offenbender's buffalo squad led the weekly Lambert ratings most of the season and clinched the award by ending its campaign with a 36-0 triumph over Bucknell.

Hike In Bus Fare Expected Dec. 6

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Passenger fares on major interstate buses east of the Mississippi River are expected to go up 4 percent Dec. 1, an Interstate Commerce Commission spokesman indicated today.

Two protests against the fare increases have been rejected, the spokesman said, and the deadline for filing further protests has passed.

He said the commission normally does not hold up a fare increase in the absence of protests and it was a "pretty fair assumption the increases would go into effect Dec. 1."

Thor Is Launched; Test Is Success

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—The Air Force sent an intercontinental range Thor on a scheduled 1,500-mile flight early today in the 20th test of the versatile combat rocket.

The blunt-nosed, 63-foot weapon lifted off its launching pad at 1:09 a.m. east, and its glow reflected from a long hanging harp, lighted the missile test center for 160 seconds.

Its powerful engine generating a force equivalent of 1,500 sticks of dynamite every second, the Douglas-made weapon roared out toward the edge of the earth at 4,000 m.p.h. and it started the coasting phase which was to end with separation of the nose cone.

In a combat situation, the nose cone would be equipped with a hydrogen warhead, the Air Force said.

Oviedo Cage Team Gets Second Win

OVIEDO—The Oviedo Lions defeated Seville, 69-29, here last night for their second basketball victory in two outings.

Leading the Lions was Jimmy Brookshire with 25 points, 20 of them on field goals from long distances. Paul Smith had 12, Mike Iuda and Fred Aiford 10 each. Other scoring came from Wallace Kelsey (4), Bonnie Willis (1), Jack Briggs (2) and John Teskinsky (2).

Also playing, but not scoring, were Hennie Wainwright and Frank Starks. Smith broke into the starting lineup due to the illness of Joe Iuda.

In a preliminary game, the Oviedo girls also won their second of the season, 49-17. Mary Ann Slayton had 23, Eleanor Iuda 10 and Katherine Iuda 8 to lead the attack. Oviedo had a 25-9 lead at the half and substituted freely.

In the boys' game, Oviedo led 25-8 at the end of the first quarter and 38-11 at intermission.

Economy Continues To Make Advance

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Commerce Department said today the nation's economy was continuing its comeback from the recession.

"Production, employment and income continued strong" in the first month of the final quarter of 1958, the department said, and rising demand generated an increase in new factory orders.

The department noted, in an article in the November issue of "Survey of Current Business," that the business upturn has been accompanied by relative stability of retail and wholesale prices.

It said consumer spending was maintained at a high rate in September and October. Except for autos, sales of both soft and durable goods topped last year's levels.

Nip In The Air, But Florida Warm

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Weather Bureau says Thanksgiving Day will have a nip in the air over much of the nation.

The bureau said blustery winds across the Great Lakes would carry snow through the Appalachians as far south as Virginia. The winds will chill the East as far south as northern Florida. Southern Florida will be warm with showers. It will be partly cloudy from the Gulf Coast to southern Florida.

Most of the northwest and the heart of the nation will have fair weather.

Hearing Scheduled On Juice Dilution

WINTER HAVEN (UPI)—A hearing is scheduled Dec. 11 for Osceola Fruit Distributors charged with adding water, sugar, and artificial coloring to chilled orange juice.

The state Agriculture Department ordered the hearing Tuesday after the Connecticut Food and Drug Commission charged that the Kissimmee company's shipment of juice had been "watered down."

If found guilty, the company's license to operate in Florida could be revoked, forcing it out of business in Florida.

Leater Ivey, plant owner, said, "We deny it all."

Ivey said the company makes other products, such as "juice drinks" to which both sugar and water are legally added, but said neither sugar nor water was added to its chilled orange juice.

A special committee of the Florida Citrus Commission was named two weeks ago to investigate the case. It has not yet reported.

Russia Requests Big Four Withdrawal From Berlin

East Germans Say Note 'Ultimatum'

Western officials said six months of negotiations — including

3 Children Dead, 3 Others Missing In Hospital Fire

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—Three children were burned to death and three more were unaccounted for today in a fire at a suburban convalescent home for children here. Seventeen youngsters were rescued and several were injured.

The fire was discovered at 11 a. m. in the Mary Fluke Home. Most of the children were helpless and had to be carried from the two-story brick and frame building.

Fire departments from Warren, the municipality in which the home was located, and Bethany, a nearby suburb, answered the call. Firemen were unable to check several of the upstairs rooms for more than half an hour while fighting a dense fire in the attic.

The private hospital is operated by Mrs. Fluke and her sister, Mrs. Harvey Prince.

Six ambulances were rushed to the scene, and while flames still shot from the roof, one youngster was carried unconscious from one of the second-floor rooms.

Voter Take Heed: Advice Still Good

In 1908 there were 348 registered voters in the city of Sanford and 501 of these voted in the election that year.

A quote from The Sanford Herald of Dec. 1908 states: "A number failed to get to the poll in time."

In November, 1958 there were 3700 registered voters in the city of Sanford. About 1,200 of these, or 33 per cent, voted in the election. Tomorrow is the last day for absentee ballots in the Dec. 2 election. Five have been cast in date.

The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Tuesday at the City Hall. No write-in votes will be accepted, as this is a runoff between Joe Baker and M. L. Itaborn Jr. for city commissioner.

Fifty years ago, political interest appeared to be much higher, and yet, the Dec. 1908 of The Sanford Herald had this to say: "Citizens who take the least interest in local politics now, and profess not to care who is elected next week will be the loudest in their wails a few months hence if it should be discovered that our offices are filled with obstructionists. People who shirk their responsibilities as citizens must not expect that public affairs will be well administered."
