

POPE TRIAL DRAGS ON JURY BOX FILLED AGAIN JUDGE HOLDS DECISION

Question of Culpability of Pope in Connection With Killing

AS ALL THAT INDICTED POPE AND STATE STICKS TO THE GUILT OF POPE.

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 27.—Judge Gibbs today at the opening of court pronounced he would withhold his decision on the question of possible culpability of Pope in connection with the killing of Hickman by Rawlins.

Rawlins' alleged statement said Pope planned the attempted robbery during which Hickman was killed and related in Pope's indictment. Counsel for Pope yesterday argued that Pope was not equally culpable with Rawlins while state argued he was.

Chicago Police Are Not All Guilty and Arrests Have Stopped

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 27.—Federal officials today questioned a score of policemen and private citizens in the investigation resulting from statements by Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris that 2,500 members of Chicago's police force were bootleggers last night, however, with six persons under arrest, Charles F. Clynne, United States district attorney, announced there would be no more arrests until "had time to determine if he had a case."

The arrests today resulted in two separate lines of investigation. In one instance, three officers of the force were held by federal authorities on charges of illegally confiscating whiskey. In the second, one officer and two private citizens were arrested on charges of extortion in connection with whiskey deals.

Reports to Mr. Clynne that one police station was the home of a nest of bootleggers who delivered whiskey in the patrol wagon, charging an extra $5 if a uniformed guard accompanied the delivery resulted in fifteen members of the force being called before the district attorney, but one of them was held.

In another case, a policeman arrested told Mr. Clynne that he had not arrested a person he saw delivering whiskey because he had been told that his bootlegger was backed by eleven patrolmen and that he did not want to get his fellow members of the force "in bad." Another patrolman mentioned by Mr. Clynne told him that Chief Fitzmorris' statements that 25 per cent of the force was engaged in illicitly handling liquor were conservative, for the figure really should be 55 per cent.

MORE RIOTS IN BELFAST AND MANY KILLED

HEAVY REINFORCEMENTS RUSHED TO ULSTER TO AID.

BELFAST, Sept. 27.—The riot act was read here yesterday afternoon following the terrific outbreak of the week-end rioting in which five persons were killed and sixty wounded.

Following a conference between the chief of police and the commander of the garrison additional troops and armored cars were sent into the city to reinforce the patrols.

Among the five persons wounded by one bomb Sunday night were two young children.

BELFAST, Sept. 27.—Fierce, sporadic fighting between Catholic and Protestant mobs continued throughout the night and early yesterday, the military were still trying to disperse the battling factions.

Volleys and revolver and rifle fire, pouring down York street, by opposing gunmen shortly after midnight, brought out the armored cars, and repeated bursts of machine gun fire cleared the battle area of rioters. No sooner had the crown forces left the scene than the mobs again came together.

Eight deaths, four resulting from a bomb explosion earlier in the night's fighting, and 70 wounded was the toll of casualties for the week end. Two young girls and a boy were wounded by rifle fire early yesterday.

Early last night a bomb was thrown into the midst of a Catholic mob, which was drawn up opposite a crowd of Unionists in Seaford street, failed to explode and some one hurled it into the Protestant crowd, where it burst with terrible effect, killing four and wounding at least 57.

(By The Associated Press) BELFAST, Nov. 27.—Two men who were wounded during scattered shooting here last night but in section of city where serious riots occurred yesterday. The night passed quietly.

MISS HANAN DIES WITHOUT TELLING SHOOTING MOTIVE

RELAPSE SETS IN AND END CAME AT 4 O'CLOCK IN MORNING

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Miss Mildred Hanan, daughter of the late Alfred P. Hanan, shoe manufacturer, died in the Long Island College hospital early yesterday without having advanced any explanation as to why she had been shot Friday morning by her erstwhile chum, Mrs. Grace Lawes, who later committed suicide.

John S. Borland, importer and Dartmouth college graduate, who was in her company when the shooting took place outside the apartment of a mutual friend on Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn, was at her bedside when the end came at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Clara M. Hanan, her mother, and several other relatives also were present, but the girl, who had lapsed into unconsciousness shortly after midnight, died not recognizing any of them.

An autopsy performed by Dr. Carl Boettiger, assistant medical examiner, showed that a bullet pierced the thorax and the abdomen and lodged under the ninth rib on the right side. A blood transfusion, made Friday, seemed to give the girl additional strength, but a relapse set in Saturday evening.

The real motive for the shooting may never be publicly known. Police expressed the theory that jealousy was a contributing factor, but they were unable to determine whether it was because of Borland or because of the severance of Mrs. Lawes' friendly relations with Miss Hanan. Borland told the police that he believed Mrs. Lawes was driven to the act as a result of having lost the friendship and financial assistance of Miss Hanan. He also expressed the belief that this was followed by excessive drinking, which Mrs. Lawes admitted in a letter to her sister in San Francisco, found among her possessions after her death.

Mrs. Lawes had lived with the Hanans until about two weeks ago, when a quarrel between her and Mildred at

NATIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT CONFERENCE CALLED BY HARDING TO SOLVE LABOR PROBLEMS

Shoreham, Long Island, resulted in Mrs. Lawes taking rooms at a hotel not far from the Hanan home on Park avenue. On the evening preceding the shooting, Miss Dorothy Gottschalk, a friend, had dined with Miss Hanan and Borland at the Hanan home. Miss Hanan and Borland had later decided to accompany Miss Gottschalk to her home in Brooklyn, and it was while they were emerging from her apartment that the shooting occurred.

Except to state that Mrs. Lawes had shot her and that Borland had nothing to do with it, Miss Hanan had declined to answer the inquiries of police seeking to establish a motive for Mrs. Lawes' act.

TAVARES WILL CELEBRATE.

TAVARES, Fla., Sept. 26.—The Armistice Day celebration here planned by the local post of the American Legion, will take place as scheduled and the program will include a street dance in the evening—a feature to which ministers and certain members of their churches objected and which resulted last week in the calling off of the celebration.

The Legion had been preparing for the event for several weeks and recently announced that a street dance would be included in the program. The ministers immediately objected and after the controversy had become the main topic of interest, the Legion called off the entire program. The Legion, however, decided this week that the day should be fittingly observed and called a mass meeting of citizens to discuss the street dance feature. Those who objected to the proposed dance were on hand and urged against it, but when the citizens were asked to express themselves, they voted about eight to one in favor of it. The Legion thereupon announced that the celebration would be held as originally planned.

Hope to Put Involuntary Idle Back to Work

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—A National Unemployment Conference, in which the administration hopes will evolve means of putting nation's involuntary idle back to work was formally opened today by President Harding. Addressing half a hundred industrial, economic and labor leaders the president described the present industrial depression as "A war inheritance throughout the world" for which as applied to the United States he added "He would have little enthusiasm for any proposed relief which seeks either palliation or tonic from the public treasury." The belief was expressed by the president that the results of the conference would extend beyond the borders of the United States and that delegates in their deliberations would be performing service to the world. President declared "It would open a sure and onward way" to rid the nation of war's aftermath of depression involved "liquidation, reorganization, readjustment, reestablishment, taking account of things done and sober contemplation of things to be done."

SANFORD C. OF C. GO TO ORLANDO TOMORROW EVE.

SECRETARY ADVISED OF ELABORATE PLANS FOR THEIR ENTERTAINMENT

The last call is now made to those who have not advised the secretary of their intentions of being with those members who will visit Orlando tomorrow evening.

The entertainment features of the evening were not disclosed by the secretary of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce but it will suffice to say that the entertainment will be up to the usual Orlando standard, and consequently those members from Sanford who do not go will be missing something worth while.

With the many important projects facing Sanford, it is indeed gratifying to know that in assisting to put them over we can count upon the support of our beautiful sister city.

The lives wires in Orlando are growing numerically and enthusiastically stronger. Each year they seem to grow more "peppy" and the same can now be said of Sanford. The boosting spirit here has become infectious and the former croakings of the dead ones is hardly, now, an audible chirp.

These get-together meetings are the best things possible to keep up this commendable enthusiasm, and even to a greater extent on this occasion, as it is cementing a strong feeling of co-operation and friendship between the two most important cities of this section of Florida.

Those members of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce who have not signified their intention of accepting the invitation of Orlando should immediately notify the secretary that go with the Sanford delegation tomorrow evening.

SANFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HERE ON TUESDAY NIGHT.

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock the Sanford Chamber of Commerce will arrive in the City Beautiful and will be guests of the local Chamber at a dinner in the Chamber's headquarters on Oak street. A short time ago about sixty Orlando boosters journeyed to Sanford where they were royally entertained. At that time the Sanford Chamber was invited to Orlando, and having accepted the invitation, the date was set for September 27.

Secretary Cox said yesterday that extensive plans were being made for the entertainment of the visitors, including the dinner, a sight-seeing trip through the City Beautiful, and a special musical entertainment.

Tickets for the dinner will be placed on sale Monday at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. They will sell for $2 each, this amount including a plate for one Orlandoan and one Sanford guest.

Members of the local body are expected to turn out in full as the affair is expected to prove one of the most enjoyable of its kind ever held in this city. Since only a limited number of tickets will be offered it is imperative that reservations be made some time Monday.—Orlando Sentinel.

City of Chicago Argues its Suit Against Tribune

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Disclaiming any intention to attempt suppression of the Chicago Tribune, and declaring that the city administration of Chicago had stood for free speech when it was dangerous to do so, Chester E. Cleveland, special counsel for the city, yesterday began his answer to the arguments by which counsel for the Chicago Tribune sought to have thrown out of court the city's $10,000,000 libel suit against that paper.

Earlier in the day Weymouth Kirkland, of counsel for the Tribune, had ended an eight-hour argument, in which he asserted that a city had no right to sue for libel, that to grant it such right would jeopardize liberty of expression and be against public policy.

Mr. Cleveland's answer asserted that the only question before the court was whether the city was entitled to recover damages, and that it would be the province of the trial judge and jury to determine whether the full $10,000,000 should be assessed or only part of it.

The city council refused to answer what he termed the political portions of Mr. Kirkland's address.

"This suit," said Mr. Cleveland, "is not by nor on behalf of any political organization, but is by the city of Chicago and its three million citizens. They are not asking the suppression of any publication of truth, fair comment or criticism. But they maintain that this defendant newspaper should not have the right deliberately, falsely and maliciously to tell lies."

CHURCH VISITATION

Next Sunday is rally day at the Sunday school and it is expected that every department of the church will assume full winter activities October 1.

This is part of the activity of the Presbyterian Progressive program. All members of the congregation are asked to remain at home Wednesday night.

ALLEN-BROTHERSON

Among the home weddings solemnized this season, one of the most interesting was the marriage of Miss Anna Francis Allen to Ernest Augustus Brotherson, which took place this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lott Allen. Dr. S. W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. In the living room where the marriage ceremony was performed, a pleasing color note of green and white was effectively carried out with quantities of vines and fern and the lovely flower of the white Clematis. In the Northwest corner of the room a large white arch had been erected, over which trailed graceful asparagus fern, suspended from the center a big white bell fringed with clusters of Clematis was charming against the back ground of banked greenery that formed a pretty setting for the wedding group. The piano and mantel was covered with the exquisite flower nestling in its bed of green.

In the entrance hall the stairway was entwined with the wedding bell vine while back of it an effective fresco against the wall was formed of the same flower in graceful profusion. The wedding music was played by Mrs. S. W. Walker using the bridal chorus from Lohengrin for the entrance of the bride and Mendelssohn's wedding march at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of Harding blue satin with tunic of richly embroidered brown net. Waist and tunic were made in one-piece effect fashioned in straight lines and finished with a sash girde of wide brown silk ribbon. With this charming frock was worn a stylish off-the-face hat in harmonizing color with unbrothered up-turned brim and soft cheville crown. Her bouquet was of bride's roses and orchids.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception after which Mr. and Mrs. Brotherson left in their car for a wedding trip down the East Coast which will include West Palm Beach and Miami. The bride wore a travelling dress of blue linen ratine embroidered in white, with accessories to match.

Mrs. Brotherson, who is a petite and dainty blonde, is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lott Allen. She has a charm of manner and winsomeness that makes her very popular.

The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Loretta Brotherson and a Sanford boy making good in the business world. Both young people have many friends to wish them a long life of happiness together.

A charming bit of sentiment attaches to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Brotherson, the father and mother of the groom having been married and Mr. Brotherson born in the residence formerly the Tolar home, where the wedding of this morning was solemnized.

Upon their return they will reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen on Second street, west. They will be at home after October first.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. J. E. Motes, of Plant City, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Matthews and Harry Baxter, of Ocala.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Miss Mell Whitner entertained most delightfully yesterday afternoon at a bridge party at her home on Magnolia avenue, there were six tables of players.

The pretty color scheme of pink and green was beautifully carried out in the decorations. Quantities of pink vine and ferns being used.

A very absorbing game of bridge was played during the afternoon, high score being made by Mrs. Archie Betts, who was awarded a wicker basket filled with pink roses, the handle tied with pink and green tulle. The cut prize, also a basket of roses, was won by Mrs. La Verno Hurt.

At the conclusion of the card game Miss Whitner served a delicious salad course.

There were about twenty-five guests who enjoyed Miss Whitner's charming hospitality.

BRIDGE PARTY AND LINEN SHOWER.

Mrs. C. R. Kirtly was the charming hostess at a bridge party and linen "shower" in compliment to Mrs. Dick Brown, a recent bride.

The rooms where the card tables were arranged, were artistically decorated. Quantities of cut flowers being used.

Of exceptional interest was the card game. Mrs. J. G. Sharon, making high score, was awarded a box of powder.

Following the game the hostess brought in a large tray filled with lovely pieces of linen which she presented to the honoree. Refreshments of frozen custard and angel food cake were served by the hostess.

Among the guests were, Mrs. Dick Brown, Mrs. J. G. Sharon, Mrs. Ralph Wight, Miss Norma Herndon, Mrs. John Meisch, Mrs. Robt. Hines, Mrs. Fred Wdight, Mrs. Henry Wight, Miss Frances Dutton, Mrs. Joo Chittenden, Misses Daphne Wimblish and Agnes Dumas and Mrs. J. G. Ball.

WESTMINSTER CLUB ENTERTAINED.

The members of the Westminster Club were very delightfully entertained last evening by Mrs. H. H. McCaslin at her home on Magnolia avenue.

The house was effectively decorated with red roses and hibiscus and ferns. On the porch quantities of pink vine in baskets were used.

About thirty members were present.

MRS. J. M. DRESSNER BACK FROM THE EAST AND THE BIG MARKETS.

With the arrival of Mrs. J. M. Dressner in Sanford, just back from all the big markets of the east and north-east, the ladies can be assured of a fall showing of the very latest creations in millinery and ladies ready to wear. Mrs. Dressner has spent a busy summer scouring the markets, not only for the very latest things for "millady," but also delving for the most reasonable in prices, and Mrs. Dressner states that wearing apparel will be more reasonable in price this season than in many years, and she wishes to prove the truth of this assertion by asking your inspection of the prices on the new goods. In hats, dresses, coat suits, waists, underwear—in fact, everything for the ladies wardrobe—Dressner's have the styles and prices, and they will have something of interest for their many patrons in tomorrow's Daily Herald. Dressner's are the Russeks of New York, and when you buy anything from this up to date shop, you can rest assured they have the very latest models that are in the markets.

THE TEMPLE PIPE ORGAN CLUB.

The Temple Pipe Organ club had its regular weekly meeting Monday afternoon in connection with a lake party at Crystal Lake with Mrs. Sinah Bray and Miss Clara Millen as hostesses.

Twenty members met at the church promptly at 3:30 and motored to the lake where they enjoyed a delightful swim after which the meeting was called to order and one new member, Mrs. Field, was initiated and as there was no unfinished business to come up and the absence of the new president (Mrs. Ryan) the club spent the remainder of the afternoon in social chattering until 5:10 when Miss Millen announced that plates had been laid for refreshments which consisted of cherry cream and pound cake.

At 6:00 the club adjourned, each assuring the hostess that they had never spent a more delightful meeting. As no definite place for the next meeting could be made, we left hoping it might be just as enjoyable as this.—Contributed.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS has an atmosphere, and so have other places in Seminole County, but Altamonte's atmosphere has the peculiar quality of a Lodestone—it's inhabitants may remove to other places in other climes, but they always return or have a very strong desire to do so, and of course there is that—not very mysterious reason—Altamonte's beauty—for all humanity is drawn to beauty.

Altamonte Springs is placed in such a favorable location, that her man-made beauty, combined with the natural beauty, forms the Alta-Monte that we know today. The Altamonte of George Frost of Boston, of Herman Westinghouse of the great Westinghouse Electrical Company—who were among its founders—is not the Altamonte of today. Founded as the home of rich men only, we now reach out for residents of humbler means also, as we realize that riches alone do not make a town livable.

It stands to reason that the state was scoured by these wealthy men to find their ideal before founding their town. Therefore Altamonte's location is the pick of the state.

Altamonte Springs has an altitude of 220 feet—thus getting pine filtered sea air from the Atlantic Ocean 30 miles to the East, and the Gulf of Mexico to the West, forming that wonderful ozone known as the "Atmosphere of Altamonte" and when combined with the odor of orange blossoms and jassamine in season, and this combination comes breezing into one's window 24 hours a day, it is bound to give the ailing their health, and the healthy more health and joy of living.

Altamonte Springs has in its territory hundreds of acres of orange and grapefruit groves in high state of cultivation, and has within her boundaries five beautiful lakes with clean, sandy shores, no marshy borders. Lake Orienta (upon which is located the "Altamonte Hotel", famous among tourists all over the country for its wonderful cuisine and excellent management of its owners, George E. Bates & Son) is the largest of these lakes and is noted for its black bass fishing, which is jealously guarded by the owners of the land surrounding the lake, who welcome the true fisherman with sporting ideals.

The "Altamonte Hotel" is located at the east end of this lake, upon a bluff overlooking the full length of its waters. Lake "Adelaide" is across a park to the rear of the hotel, and upon this lake is the "Altamonte Spring" of absolutely pure water.

The paved highway from Jacksonville to Tampa and all South Florida passes through Altamonte. A day's ride in an automobile may encompass two hundred miles in any direction without leaving a fine paved road, making Altamonte an admirable location for automobilists, a fine large garage is under construction and will be open for business in a few weeks, two stores with filling stations are handy and every advantage enjoyed in a city at hand.

Altamonte Springs is located on the Tampa and Jacksonville Division of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and gives fine service, Western Union Telegraph office, Express and Third Class Postoffice, Electric Lights, beautiful shady streets of large oaks, within 14 miles on brick highway of Sanford, and 9 miles on brick highway to Orlando. Winter Park, with Rollins College, is on the same road just five miles to the South.

The hotel is the center of social life with card parties, dances, etc., and Altamonte's winter residents and home-folks are of a superior order and of a prosperous, enlightened class. Our surrounding country and neighboring towns of Longwood and Maitland are of the same order and are fine neighbors, and are only two miles away to the North and South.

The practical side of Altamonte Springs is not to be slighted in this article, for, aside from her fruit industry, Altamonte is noted as having 40 acres in covered conservatories devoted to raising the beautiful Asparagus Plumosis fern used by florists. This is shipped in season mostly to the north, and the industry represents an investment of over a quarter of a million dollars and a payroll of hundreds of dollars a week. Hon. Charles D. Haines, ex-congressman from New York, heads the largest of these conservatories, The Royal Extension Fernery, Incorporated.

Mr. B. L. Maltbie, of the Maltbie Chemical Works, of Newark, N. J., is one of Altamonte's latest developers, and is planning a great future for us this winter.

Altamonte has a Chamber of Commerce, whose Secretary, W. B. Ballard, is always glad to give information upon request. Altamonte Springs has just recently been incorporated and is officered by unsalaried men of progressive ideas, but within keeping with a low millage.

George E. Bates and Son are men to whom Altamonte Springs owes much, as many coming as their guests buy property here and stay as residents.

Palm Springs, a noted resort, is only two and one-half miles through the pine woods to the Northwest of Altamonte. Here Mr. Lester Beeman has spent thousands of dollars to give a pleasure resort for the free use of the public, and one that is greatly appreciated. Mr. Beeman has a pretty little cottage at the Spring as have others from Sanford and Longwood.

Altamonte Springs has never been boomed or exploited, but is now on the verge of a growth that will not be sporadic, but steady and substantial.

A peculiar circumstance is the fact that there is only one "Altamonte Springs" in the world, and we are "IT". Numbers of "Altamontes" appear in the Postal Guide, but only one "Altamonte Springs."

ALLEN-BROTHERSON

Among the home weddings solemnized this season, one of the most interesting was the marriage of Miss Anna Francis Allen to Ernest Augustus Brotherson, which took place this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lott Allen. Dr. S. W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. In the living room where the marriage ceremony was performed, a pleasing color note of green and white was effectively carried out with quantities of vines and fern and the lovely flower of the white Clematis. In the Northwest corner of the room a large white arch had been erected, over which trailed graceful asparagus fern, suspended from the center a big white bell fringed with clusters of Clematis was charming against the back ground of banked greenery that formed a pretty setting for the wedding group. The piano and mantel was covered with the exquisite flower nestling in its bed of green.

In the entrance hall the stairway was entwined with the wedding bell vine while back of it an effective fresco against the wall was formed of the same flower in graceful profusion.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. S. W. Walker using the bridal chorus from Lohengrinn for the entrance of the bride and Mendelssohn's wedding march at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of Harding blue satin with tunic of richly embroidered brown net. Waist and tunic were made in one-piece effect fashioned in straight lines and finished with a sash girdle of wide brown silk ribbon. With this charming frock was worn a stylish off-the-face hat in harmonizing color with unembroidered un-turned brim and soft cheville crown. Her bouquet was of bride's roses and orchids.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception after which Mr. and Mrs. Brotherson left in their car for a wedding trip down the East Coast which will include West Palm Beach and Miami. The bride wore a travelling dress of blue linen ratine embroidered in white, with accessories to match.

Mrs. Brotherson, who is a petite and dainty blonde, is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lott Allen. She has a charm of manner and winsomeness that makes her very popular.

The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Loretta Brotherson and a Sanford boy making good in the business world. Both young people have many friends to wish them a long life of happiness together.

A charming bit of sentiment attaches to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Brotherson, the father and mother of the groom having been married and Mr. Brotherson born in the residence formerly the Tolmar home, where the wedding of this morning was solemnized.

Upon their return they will reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen on Second street, west. They will be at home after October first.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS has an atmosphere, and so have other places in Seminole County, but Altamonte's atmosphere has the peculiar quality of a Lodestone—it's inhabitants may remove to other places in other climes, but they always return or have a very strong desire to do so, and of course there is that—not very mysterious reason—Altamonte's beauty—for all humanity is drawn to beauty.

Altamonte Springs is placed in such a favorable location, that her man-made beauty, combined with the natural beauty, forms the Alta-Monte that we know today. The Altamonte of George Frost of Boston, of Herman Westinghouse of the great Westinghouse Electrical Company—who were among its founders—is not the Altamonte of today. Founded as the home of rich men only, we now reach out for residents of humbler means also, as we realize that riches alone do not make a town livable.

It stands to reason that the state was scoured by these wealthy men to find their ideal before founding their town. Therefore Altamonte's location is the pick of the state.

Altamonte Springs has an altitude of 220 feet—thus getting pine filtered sea air from the Atlantic Ocean 30 miles to the East, and the Gulf of Mexico to the West, forming that wonderful ozone known as the "Atmosphere of Altamonte" and when combined with the odor of orange blossoms and jassamine in season, and this combination comes breezing into one's window 24 hours a day, it is bound to give the ailing their health, and the healthy more health and joy of living.

Altamonte Springs has in its territory hundreds of acres of orange and grapefruit groves in high state of cultivation, and has within her boundaries five beautiful lakes with clean, sandy shores, no marshy borders. Lake Orienta (upon which is located the "Altamonte Hotel", famous among tourists all over the country for its wonderful cuisine and excellent management of its owners, George E. Bates & Son) is the largest of these lakes and is noted for its black bass fishing, which is jealously guarded by the owners of the land surrounding the lake, who welcome the true fisherman with sporting ideals.

The "Altamonte Hotel" is located at the east end of this lake, upon a bluff overlooking the full length of its waters. Lake "Adelaide" is across a park to the rear of the hotel, and upon this lake is the "Altamonte Spring" of absolutely pure water.

The paved highway from Jacksonville to Tampa and all South Florida passes through Altamonte. A day's ride in an automobile may encompass two hundred miles in any direction without leaving a fine paved road, making Altamonte an admirable location for automobilists, a fine large garage is under construction and will be open for business in a few weeks, two stores with filling stations are handy and every advantage enjoyed in a city at hand.

Altamonte Springs is located on the Tampa and Jacksonville Division of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and gives fine service, Western Union Telegraph office, Express and Third Class Postoffice, Electric Lights, beautiful shady streets of large oaks, within 14 miles on brick highway of Sanford, and 9 miles on brick highway to Orlando. Winter Park, with Rollins College, is on the same road just five miles to the South.

The hotel is the center of social life with card parties, dances, etc., and Altamonte's winter residents and home-folks are of a superior order and of a prosperous, enlightened class. Our surrounding country and neighboring towns of Longwood and Maitland are of the same order and are fine neighbors, and are only two miles away to the North and South.

The practical side of Altamonte Springs is not to be slighted in this article, for, aside from her fruit industry, Altamonte is noted as having 40 acres in covered conservatories devoted to raising the beautiful Asparagus Plumosis fern used by florists. This is shipped in season mostly to the north, and the industry represents an investment of over a quarter of a million dollars and a payroll of hundreds of dollars a week. Hon. Charles D. Haines, ex-congressman from New York, heads the largest of these conservatories, The Royal Extension Fernery, Incorporated.

Mr. B. L. Maltbie, of the Maltbie Chemical Works, of Newark, N. J., is one of Altamonte's latest developers, and is planning a great future for us this winter.

Altamonte has a Chamber of Commerce, whose Secretary, W. B. Ballard, is always glad to give information upon request. Altamonte Springs has just recently been incorporated and is officered by unsalaried men of progressive ideas, but within keeping with a low millage.

George E. Bates and Son are men to whom Altamonte Springs owes much, as many coming as their guests buy property here and stay as residents.

Palm Springs, a noted resort, is only two and one-half miles through the pine woods to the Northwest of Altamonte. Here Mr. Lester Beeman has spent thousands of dollars to give a pleasure resort for the free use of the public, and one that is greatly appreciated. Mr. Beeman has a pretty little cottage at the Spring as have others from Sanford and Longwood.

Altamonte Springs has never been boomed or exploited, but is now on the verge of a growth that will not be sporadic, but steady and substantial.

A peculiar circumstance is the fact that there is only one "Altamonte Springs" in the world, and we are "IT". Numbers of "Altamontes" appear in the Postal Guide, but only one "Altamonte Springs."

We march on to Orlando tonight.

But when they hold up the city we will not be there to take part in it.

Having a bad attack of smears on the liver it behooves us to watch our step for the next few days.

Well, 'twas ever thus. When the fun commences we are hardly ever able to go. If it is hard work somewhere we can always go.

There is no place in the world like Orlando for a big time unless it is Sanford and when the Orlando folks entertain Sanford tonight you can bank on having a real evening.

And we hope that with all the fun and frolic there will be the deeper note of real friendship, the helping hand, the standing together of the two cities for the betterment of both counties in the future.

We are standing behind the Clyde Line and the Clyde Line will stand behind the shippers right on. What we should remember always is that the Clyde Line came to our rescue when we needed a friend and we should stand by the Clyde Line even after the railroads reduce their rates.

And about November first the Clyde Line will put on another boat and take care of all the traffic each way. Keep up the "ship by water" campaign. It is the greatest thing that Sanford ever started. It means not only cheaper rates but it means more improvements on the river by the government. More traffic means greater improvements every time. Show the government that the St. Johns river is taking care of double the former traffic and the government will do something.

THE VALUE OF TOURISTS.

More than a million of people from other States and Canada, and even from Europe, South America, Cuba and many other countries, visit Florida each year.

Climate is the prime attraction; but, as the number of visitors has steadily increased each year for a quarter of a century, wonderful cities and ocean and gulf beach resorts have been built and developed to a state and stage that makes Florida now the most attractive and interesting resort State in this country.

Probably half of the people who come to Florida have visited other sections of this country and Europe in search of the ideal climate, both from the standpoint of comfort and health, and all are unanimous that Florida is unexcelled for winter climate anywhere in the world, and of late years many are learning that the summer climate is more equable and healthful than most other sections.

Think what an asset this is for Florida. With more than a million people telling their friends that there is no better climate in the world than Florida, what better advertising could a State have? It is worth millions of dollars and so it behooves us to devote some attention to our guests and make their stay as pleasant and interesting as possible.

This free advertising that is done by our visitors is the best kind of advertising, and I is acting like an endless chain, as every new visitor who is pleased and satisfied brings a dozen of his or her friends the next year, and so it goes, on and on, until at least one-fourth of all the people in the United States will come to Florida for a visit of from two weeks to six months every year, and many will stay here permanently and at least one-third of all these will invest in Florida real estate, and now just figure up what that will amount to in the next quarter of a century.

To take care of the million visitors and winter residents now, Florida has more than 1,000 hotels, hundreds of apartment houses and many thousands of new homes that have been built in the past few years, and this number is being added to in an astonishing manner every year, and still capacity is always reached, and last winter not less than 10,000 people camped out for lack of accommodations, although some of them probably did it from choice, finding the climate so desirable for camping.

It is estimated that close to a hundred million dollars' worth of real estate changes hands annually in Florida, and this year there will be at least fifty million dollars worth of new construction in the State and still by next February everything will be crowded, as the regular visitors will all be here and thousands of new people will come on the recommendation of those who have been here and enjoyed the remarkable climate and wonderful beauties of Florida—the peerless resort State of America.—The Tourist News.

WHICH DO THE RAILROAD MANAGERS PREFER?

The transportation facilities of the country are wholly unequal to the demand which will come upon them whenever freight rates have been adequately reduced and business once more resumes its wonted activity. If railroad managers are wise enough to promptly bring about a general decrease in freight and passenger rates which will be forced upon them if they do not voluntarily take the lead and do it themselves, they will soon find every locomotive and every car working to full capacity and they will have business to justify crowding every carshop and every locomotive plant with new orders. The utmost producing capacity of all the locomotives and car plants in the country is not equal to supplying locomotives and cars that will be needed whenever the railroads are in financial shape to order the rolling stock, without which they cannot possibly handle the rise of business just ahead of us.

It is essentially important that far-seeing railroad managers who appreciate these facts shall lower their rates voluntarily instead of waiting until public clamor compels them to lower them, and prepare at once for enlarged traffic. Railroad managers may rest absolutely certain that they will not be allowed to hold the present passenger and freight rates. If they care to invite a contest with the country they will find themselves absolutely overwhelmed by public sentiment and legislation will be invoked, which will prove disastrous to the roads and to the country. For the sake of the railroads and the country alike, for the good-will which should exist between the public and all transportation interests, we trust that such a contest will not be provoked by shortsightedness on the part of railroad managers, but we warn them that unless they act of their own accord the public will act and with even more power than it has ever used before. When once public sentiment is thoroughly aroused, as it is now being aroused to the injustice of railroad rates, there is no possible power which can stand against it. Moreover, the part of wisdom for railroad managers, viewing the subject from the welfare of their holders, demands that they reduce their rates and thus increase volumes of traffic and at the same time win public favor. They can win the public or they can arouse the bitter hatred of the public; the former would add to their prosperity, the latter would mean a vast destruction of values of railroad securities. If railroad managers are wise, they will promptly recognize the situation, even though they honestly believe that they cannot afford lower freight rates, and will test the question of freight rates and save themselves and save the situation.

If the railroads will make this move of their own volition, and do it promptly, it will be but a few months before every locomotive and car will be crowded to capacity, and the roads will be in a position to crowd every railroad material shop in the country with orders, which will keep them busy for twelve months or more to come.—Manufacturers' Record.

A headline speaks of a "big ovation." Did anybody ever receive a little one?—New York Post.

THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE AT ELECTIONS NEXT YEAR.

William Jennings Bryan, citizen of Miami, Fla., has given five reasons why he thinks the wheel of fortune is turning toward a Democratic victory next year. They are:

1. The revenue bill relieves less than five thousand men with big incomes and makes the burden relatively heavier on the rest of the people. It also repeals the excess profits tax for the benefit of a few corporations and relatively adds to the taxes of the rest. It will please few and displease a great many.
 2. The farmers have suffered. They are selling their products at half price and buying at high prices. There is revolt among them.
 3. Wages are falling and wage earners will not be in a happy frame of mind next year.
 4. The ex-service men are not pleased with the treatment they have received.
 5. The small merchant will be taking his loss by next year and it will not make him especially enthusiastic.
- Add these together and you have a formidable complaint which will be registered at the polls next year.
- In different language Mr. Bryan has said that the Republicans have not lived up to their campaign promises, having resolved themselves into a pork-grabbing organization after triumph at the polls last November, and as the pendulum swing in their favor at the polls then, so will the pendulum swing from them if they continue to legislate only in favor of the interests and permit the rank and file to work out their own salvation. Thus far they have thought in terms of classes, not in terms of the American people.—Florida Metropolis.

SOUTHEAST TO BENEFIT FROM LOWERED RATES.

Reduction in freight rates from Pacific coast points to the southeast of from $100 to $400 per car on certain classes of non-perishable commodities were announced Saturday afternoon by T. D. Guthrie, traffic manager for the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, with headquarters in Jacksonville.

Efforts are being made to have the new rate become effective October 1. Articles to be affected by the new rates include canned goods, dried beans and peas and other such commodities.

The reduction to southeast points is the same as that made August 25, from intermountain territory to the east and Virginia cities on dried beans and peas, canned goods, dried or evaporated fruits, berries, and vegetables, including figs, prunes, raisins, etc.

In a bulletin to members of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, Traffic Manager Guthrie says: "Application has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to make publication of the reduced rates to become effective on short notice.

"As the new rates will carry very substantial reductions on the above named commodities from and to the territory involved—ranging, for instance, on canned goods and dried beans from $100 to over $400 per car of the prescribed 60,000 pounds minimum weight—you will no doubt desire to give consideration to requesting shippers with whom you have placed orders to withhold shipment of the goods pending the effective date of the new rates."—Jacksonville Metropolis.

ALCOHOL AS FUEL.

Alcohol is a fuel and has been noted as such for as long back as anybody can remember. It has been tried out successfully in many instances as a motor power. It is being used, successfully, also, in other countries than this. If we are even seriously considering it here we have not heard of it, and we rise to say: "Why not?" The gasoline power so very prevalent is good—but it is expensive, and the prices are subject to jugglery at times that seem to hit us pretty hard in the pocketbook, as long as this is a motor age. Kerosene is being used with more or less success, too. The supply of both gasoline and kerosene is limited, as is everything that comes out of the earth. Why not alcohol? It is in just about everything that grows. We consume it every day in practically every spoonful or fork full we put into our systems. It is here with us, about us, easily obtainable—and cheap, now that liquor making no longer makes huge drains on our supply. It is a fuel for motors, so again we ask: "Why not?" In Hawaii it is made from the cheaper grades of sugar and from poor, very poor, sorghum. It is there a demonstrated success as a motor fuel and can be furnished to the consumer at 12 cents a gallon at a good profit. By our methods it can be made much cheaper.

Palatka Should Be at "Ship by Water" Meet at Orlando

Tuesday night a meeting will be held in Orlando at which time definite plans for the development of a campaign of "ship by water" will be submitted and, perhaps, passed. Palatka is the head of deep water navigation on the St. Johns river. Sanford, DeLand, Orlando and all other points who propose to take advantage of water rates are interesting themselves in developing a sufficient volume of river traffic to secure more frequent arrivals and departures of boats.

In the opinion of many competitive boat lines are a necessity, and this is where Palatka's interest, it is pointed out, lies. If the situation is left as it now is, and the volume of traffic is increased for the benefit of the Clyde Line, a sudden raise in rates could be effected, judging from past experiences, and there would no longer be an advantage in shipping by water.

Secretary J. W. Hart, of the Palatka Chamber of Commerce, is on the committee to propose plans for the permanent organization of a ship by water association, but he should be backed up by as many Palatkans as can possibly make the trip.—Palatka News.

BIG CUT IN WAGES NAVY YARD EMPLOYEES ADMINISTRATION IN DOUBT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27.—Wages must come down. The Harding administration faced with an issue of continuing the present wages scales in the navy yard here, resisted the appeals of organized labor and made a drastic cut. The controversy was carried up from the navy department to the cabinet, where President Harding himself took a hand. Although private industry has been struggling with this question for months, the government has avoided giving any moral support to either side. When the navy yard dispute arose, the issue was inescapable and now the word has gone forth from the administration that the quickest way to normalcy hereabouts is by wage cuts.

The White House halls have been full of letters from tax payers urging a diminution of government expenditures. The administration has felt that wage cuts, especially in government enterprises, is an inevitable and logical answer to the demand for economy. Curiously enough the business men of the nation and capital pleaded for labor in the sense that the government was asked not to make the wage cuts so drastic. The Washington merchants were led to take this action by the argument that a cut in wages meant a curtailment of buying power, labor headquarters admit that they have consistently urged the relationship between the retail community and wage scales, but nowhere has that theory been so conspicuously championed as here in the national capital.

The plea, however, was unavailing. The Harding administration stood pat. Politically speaking, the endorsement by an administration of any issue that relates to wages always has its dangers. The Wilson administration granted practically every demand for wage increases and while earning the friendship of organized labor, it lost the support of many employers who insisted that the government was setting an uncomfortable precedent. It is realized by administration officials that every thing the government says on the subject of wages will be the basis of discussion by both sides, fortunately, for the Harding administration. The railroad problem has been passed over to the railroad labor board, a separate institution, and the roads were in private hands so that the bonus for wage reductions did not fall on the administration.

REDUCED RATES TO GAINESVILLE

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Sept. 27.—Reduced railroad fares will be in effect for those attending the citrus seminar, live stock round-up and beekeepers meeting to be held at the University of Florida here October 4 to 7, according to Director Wilmon Newell, of the Florida Agricultural Extension Division. Purchasers of tickets to Gainesville between October 1 and 8 for the purpose of attending the meetings should obtain certificates of their local ticket agents, he says, and when the certificates are validated at Gainesville the holder will be entitled to half fare on the return trip.

Indications are that the attendance will greatly exceed 350 persons, the number required for the issuance of the reduced rates, according to Mr. Newell.

The chief fault of our immigration policy is that it makes no effort to distinguish between common stock and preferred stock.

HOLY CROSS WHITE WAY.

One of the most progressive and biggest things done recently in Sanford is the establishment of the Holy Cross White Way, a series of the modern up-to-date posts stretching along the church's property on Park avenue, the whole block on Fourth street and around on Magnolia avenue. It thus lights most effectively Holy Cross Parish house, Holy Cross church at Saint Andrew's brotherhood house, Holy Cross rectory and the Parish bowling alleys. Outside of the business section of First street, it is the most brilliantly illuminated part of our city. The White Way is the immediate results of the Men's Club of Holy Cross, which is a very large, wide-awake and progressive club. The first regular meeting of this club for the season will be the 2d Wednesday night in October, 12th, 8 p. m., in the Parish House.

The White Way was first lighted last Sunday night, 18th Sunday after Trinity.

There are still larger and greater changes and improvements under way at Holy Cross, making it one of the very largest and most complete institutional plants in the whole south. All are invited to come and join in this big work.

LEADERS SAY RAIL UNIONS' VOTE HAS BEEN FOR STRIKE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 27.—Leaders of the big four brotherhoods and affiliated unions last night declared they had little doubt that the railway employes had voted for a general strike rather than accept a wage reduction. But announced that the conservative counsel of the leaders might prevail against a walkout.

General chairman of the Brotherhood of allway Trainmen began counting the 186,000 strike ballots of their men, but admitted before the first envelope was opened that, judging from the known temper of the men, the result will be overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. Giving an estimated majority, Vice-president James Murdock said:

"Our past experience has been that 98 per cent of the men will always vote to strike."

Next Monday officials of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America will meet here to count the strike votes of their 259,000 members.

Railroad union leaders here expect all the brotherhoods and the switchmen's union to cast substantial majorities for a strike. The affiliated shop crafts have already voted, by a majority of approximately 325,000 to 48,000 to walk out, and are only waiting to see what action the other unions will take and for the United States Railroad Labor Board to dispose of the pending working rules agreements.

Reports of the general chairman of the trainmen when they assembled today, were plainly disappointing to the union leaders. The trainmen had voted on a separate ballot because their leaders did not approve of the joint ballot prepared by the other unions. On September 12, President W. G. Lee addressed a circular letter to the men in which he pointed out five reasons why he thought a strike would be unwise at this time, and why the men might expect to accept some wage reduction.
