CHANGING A VISION INTO A REALITY If you are not in the telephone business, such factors in mod-ern long distance telephone communication as vacuum tube repeaters, permalloy loading coils, echo suppressors, attenua-

tion equalizers, CLR toll operating method, and others, are terms from a language you may not understand. But, as a user of long distance telephone service, you do understand that many improvements in the service have been made. The greater speed with which you are connected with another city, the clearness with which your voice is transmitted, the extension of service to pountries all over the facts you are familiar with. To make these improvements possible, someone had to have the vision to know what had to be done. Someone had to finance the research. Someone had to successfully conclude the research. Someone had to standardize the new equipment and operating methods. Someone had to put the equipment and methods in effect on a nationwide basis. The Bell System does it. Research, by the Bell Laboratories. Standardized manufacture, by the Western Electric Company. Standardized and nationwide operation, by the Bell regional operating companies. The result is the long distance telephone service you use, a service that grows better each year. Use "long distance" to keep friendships alive-to save time and money in your business. The cost is small wherever you call.

To Mr. Wilholte, constitutional amendment seems too slow a process, or one which, in the circumstances, would be unavail-President Rooscycli save he is ing. In Mr. Wilholte's opinion, the President's plan is an not going to ask Congress for effort to translate into law the stated will of the people.

"It may be, as Mr. Wilhoite contends, that the laws bea if they don't pass his which the Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional, and which President Rossevelt seeks to reinstate, are the which the Supreme Court mas declared to reinstate, are the stated will of a majority of the people of the United States.

One of our exchanges is help for some early action on the stated will of a majority of the people of the United States.

On the other hand, it is true, as Dr. Guerry contends, that referendum on a constitutional amendment is the best way to determine the sentiment of the people concerning a matter of fundamental importance. The people have the instrument to make their will effective when they desire to go heyond the present limits of the Constitution itself.

Big shots in the Democratic Party paid a hundred bucks a piece for that dinner last week.

What is here said with respect to the Rolary Club is piece for that dinner last week.

There must have been some mighty good pork somewhere.

And another funny thing about democracy where the majority rules.

When is here said with respect to the Rolary Club is mighty good pork somewhere.

And another funny thing about democracy where the majority rules.

When is here said with respect to the Rolary Club is dependent to gether. Everywhere men and women are having their say. That is the way of all another funny thing about democracy where the majority rules.

When the Supreme Court continuers is said of a majority of the people of the United States.
