

NEWS LOCATE BODIES OF 59 MINE BLAST

Rescue Squads Strive To Make Deeper Into Shaft Where It Is Hoped Some Live

Total Of Deaths Mounts To 198

Experts Who Hurried To Explosion Abandon Hope For Men

MATHER, Pa., May 21.—(INS)—With fifty-nine bodies removed from the Mather explosion Saturday, weary rescue squads are now working to make a deeper search for the 138 men believed still to be in the workings.

Virtually all hope that any of the men will be found alive has been abandoned. Fourteen men were rescued from the mine, but one of these died today in Wayne hospital, bringing the total to 198. Officials believed 211 men were in the mine when the explosion, apparently caused by gas, took place.

While rescue teams from all parts of Western Pennsylvania are working frantically to reach the mine in the forlorn hope that some of them may have been able to breathe themselves in from the choking face of the mine and so escape the deadly gas, the veterans of the coal and federal and company officials alike saw no hope for the entombed men. Deadly "black damp"—which swept the workings in the wake of the terrific explosion, was feared to have taken its toll.

Meanwhile, in the mine covered area of this model mining village, forty mangled bodies, first of the 211 victims to be rescued from the blast, were taken from the blast wreckage in the hope that if the rescue work of whom are in Wayne and Brantley hospitals, rescue workers are digging around the mine, the hope that if the rescue work can get behind the spot where the full force of the blast struck away in the canvas rooms which could have checked the spread of the gas.

Experts who hurried here at first news of the explosion, however, have abandoned hope, because of the way in which gas has spread over the mine in the minutes after the explosion. While the majority of the expert's opinion was that the reason for the blast was an explosion of gas, it is now believed that the gas was ignited by a spark from a miner's trolley, caused the explosion.

Developing in chances to save any men who may have been able to breathe themselves in from the gas, thousands of cubic feet of pure air were being forced into the workings today. A picture of the force of the blast was given by Marcus Cobb, leader of the first seven-man rescue team to reach the base of the shaft after the explosion.

He said the bodies of three men, badly mangled, were found almost at the foot of the shaft—5,000 feet from the center of the explosion. A few feet further on they came upon three injured men. As far as they dared advance in the face of the gas they found bodies, many mangled beyond identification.

Church Session In Atlanta Prepares To Check Divorces

ATLANTA, May 21.—(INS)—Cutting divorces, proposed sessions from the Federal Council of Churches and centralization of headquarters claimed the attention of the assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church today.

Striving to limit divorces were expected with strong arguments forecast in favor of the plan to have the church strike out desertion as a recognized cause for separations.

The report of Dr. Robert F. Campbell, of Asheville, N. C., chairman of the committee to which the divorce problem has been referred for study, will bring the question up for debate. Only two causes for divorce, infidelity and desertion are now recognized by the church, and abandonment of desertion, as a means of decreasing separations is proposed in an overture by the presbytery of Enore, S. C.

With all past records eclipsed by a good margin, poll tax payments for the approaching Democratic primary election reached a total of 3,011 by the time the books closed Saturday afternoon according to an announcement today by John D. Jinkins, county tax collector.

Added to this figure are approximately 1,000 other persons who for one reason or another, are exempt from the payment of poll taxes. This total tallies with the approximate figure given out by Supervisor of Registration H. C. DuBose as the number of registered voters for Seminole County.

With the list of qualified voters set at approximately 4,000, Seminole County registration has far surpassed its registration for previous elections, according to Mr. DuBose. Four years ago the qualified list was between 2,700 and 2,800, showing an increase of between 1,200 and 1,300 names.

In view of the record registration, local political observers today were voicing predictions of a heavy poll on June 5. That the number of ballots cast in the primary will be several hundred in excess of the 3,000 mark was the forecast made on every hand. Unusual interest in the nomination of state officers coupled with the fact that it is the presidential election year are given as contributing factors to the increased registration.

BOAT LINE WILL EXTEND SERVICE HERE TO JULY 30

Clyde Steamship Company To Run Boats To Sanford For Another Month In Accordance With Recent Request

The Clyde Line has decided to continue the St. Johns river service for another 30 days, according to word received here today from Jacksonville where the information was made public by H. G. White, general agent for the company's main offices in New York.

By virtue of the new extension, the Clyde Line plans to continue the service, which was to have been terminated May 31, to June 30.

The boat line made the extension, it was announced, in accordance with a request of a group of representatives of the chambers of commerce of the cities along the St. Johns River. The additional time will permit the trade bodies to make a more thorough investigation of the freight and passenger situation with a view to improving the movement, it was stated here today.

The various chambers of commerce hope to present a report, showing statistics that will convince the Clyde Line of the future possibilities of the line. For the time being, the local chamber, expressed satisfaction today over the announcement and declared his belief that the report being planned for submission to the Clyde Line would be such as to warrant continuance of the service for an indefinite period.

The general agent at Jacksonville is quoted as saying that "the Clyde Line would like to keep both the Ocoola and City of Jacksonville on the run if the freight and passenger movement is made large enough to warrant this act."

Many comments have been received here in asking a permit to take the boats from the river run and asking that action be urged to keep them in operation.

The City of Jacksonville already has been taken off for the summer season, but the Ocoola will continue its run to Sanford and Clyde line every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday until June 30, Mr. White said.

Bremen Is Wrecked In Taking Off From Labrador Runway

HALIFAX, N. C., May 21.—(INS)—Wrecked almost beyond repair in attempting to take off from Blanc Sablon, Labrador, the Trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen will have to remain there indefinitely until a boat arrives to bring it to New York, advices from Point Amour, Labrador stated today.

With Fred Melchior, the Junker expert, at the controls, and Dr. Cuisinier at the mechanic, the biplane rose about thirty feet after a short dash down the runway and suddenly dropped to the ground.

Neither Melchior nor his companions were hurt, but the entire left side of the plane was badly damaged as it fell sideways. The reason for its sudden fall has not been ascertained.

Melchior reached the Bremen by dropping in a parachute from one of the army amphibian planes which were to escort the German ship to New York. Cuisinier and the mechanic had been working on the plane for some time.

The army planes were unable to land on the straits of Belle Isle, because of floating ice. They are at Fictou, N. S.

CENSUS OFFICE SMITH, HOOVER RECORDS SHOW SPENT LITTLE DIVORCE GAINS IN CAROLINAS

Bureau Report Reveals That When Man Or Woman Gets Married Today It Is A15 To 100 Shot It Won't Last Long

Figures Prove Odds Are Getting Higher

Most Marriages Dissolved By Divorce In Any Year Were Contracted In Early Youth

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(INS)—When a man or woman marries it is a 15 to 100 shot that it won't last long. And the odds, the Census Bureau revealed today, are getting higher that the marriage will go on to locks of infidelity, poverty, innate meanness or just incompatibility.

Final figures for 1926—the last available—showed that there were 180,853 divorces against 1,202,574 marriages. The divorce ratio was 1.54 and marriage 10.27 per 1,000 population.

"Most marriages dissolved by divorce in any one year were contracted naturally in earlier years," the bureau's analysis said. "If the divorce rate continues to increase the ratio between divorces and marriages of a given year will be somewhat understated the probability of divorce for the marriages of that year."

The principal causes of divorce in 1926 were: cruelty 69,005, desertion 57,003, infidelity 16,710 and drunkenness 2,774. More than 90 per cent of the drunkenness divorces went to women. The percentages of separations for this cause has increased steadily since 1922.

In the period from 1887 to 1906, 33 per cent of the divorces were granted because of drunkenness, and in 1916, 24 per cent. Of the total divorces 126,561 were granted to women and 52,287 to men. A few were unclassified.

The chief complaints against wives were that they were unfaithful, or were guilty of cruelty or desertion. Husbands were guilty of all these things and in addition they inhibited too freely or had a failure to provide complex.

"It may be that husbands, more often than wives, give occasion for divorce, but the much larger proportion of divorces granted to the wife, in general, due to the fact that for her there are no legal grounds for separation," the bureau said.

"When each party wants the divorce it is probable that the wife, more often than the husband, makes the application." Men's minds apparently are improving slightly, the bureau observed, that there has been a general decrease in the number of infidelity divorces to wives in the last few years. On the other hand cruelty is a more frequent complaint than in years past.

The increase in divorces in 1926 was especially large in the states of Vermont, New Jersey, North Dakota, Kansas, Maryland, Florida, Kentucky, and California. The largest declines were in New Hampshire, South Dakota, and the District of Columbia.

Striking contrast is disclosed by the variations in cases of divorce among the different states. For infidelity 9.3 per cent of the divorces were granted in Nevada. Of New York divorces 35.0 per cent were for this cause. For cruelty 6.2 per cent in Virginia and 6.9 per cent in Michigan. For desertion 5.2 per cent in New York and 9.2 per cent in New Mexico. For drunkenness less than one-tenth of one per cent in Michigan and 2.6 per cent in Rhode Island.

General Noble Will Hop Off On Pole Trip

OSLO, Norway, May 21.—(INS)—Gen. Umberto Nobile, Italian Arctic explorer, plans to hop off at Kings Bay tonight in the dirigible Italia, for a direct flight to the North Pole, according to a radiogram from Spitzbergen today.

Gen. Noble intends to lift the two hours directly over the Pole, according to the plan, to enable two scientists—Prof. Malmgren and Prof. Crojani—to leave the ship. The scientists will be landed upon the ice with rope ladders to make scientific studies.

It is learned that Gen. Noble received a letter from his wife warning against dropping the paper across at the North Pole for fear that "the consequences might prove fatal." Before his departure from Italy Pope Pius XI presented Gen. Noble a wooden cross.

Chamber Makes Plans At Luncheon Meeting Today For Conducting Election

Meeting today at the Valdez Cafe, directors of the Chamber of Commerce made plans for the annual election of officers. According to their decision, ballots will be in the mails Thursday morning of this week. The polls will be conducted, one this week for selecting eight nominees to fill four places on the board, and another next week for the purpose of electing the four directors.

Secretary E. J. Trotter announced this afternoon that the ballots mailed out Thursday morning will contain the name of every member in good standing. The members will register their choice for the four places and will send in their marked ballots by Monday morning when the tabulation will take place.

The eight men receiving the highest number of votes will be declared nominees and their names will be placed on a new ballot for all mailing on Tuesday morning. All votes must be in by the following Friday morning when the results will be announced and the four new directors will take office.

With the announcement of election plans, Mr. Trotter stated that next week officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce will conduct an informal solicitation of new members, planning to interview every business man who is not already a member. In connection with this plan, S. O. Shiholter, president of the organization, said:

"As we near the end of our fiscal year, officers of the Chamber of Commerce are especially desirous of that we clean our slate for the incoming board. We have operated during the past year under (Continued on page 4)

SMITH'S BACKERS ARE RELATED OVER CAROLINA RESULT

Supporters of New York Governor For Democratic Nomination Display Optimism Over Defeat Of Hull Force

Raleigh, N. C., May 21.—(INS)—Sky high optimism, extending to a claim of the entire State Democratic Delegation, was exuded today by North Carolina supporters of Governor Al Smith as they looked back upon their defeat of the forces of Rep. Correll Hull, of Tennessee, in their attempt to obtain a preferential primary in this state.

The movement to order a preferential primary, launched by Z. V. Turbinton, Hull's state manager, was defeated by a 79 to 30, thus leaving the expressed desire of Senator Simmons of North Carolina, arch Smith foe and recognized head of the North Carolina Democratic "machine."

Another party stalwart, Joseph Daniels, ex-secretary of the navy, favored the primary plan and made a speech for it before the committee.

Instead of passing the Turbinton resolution for a primary, which was abolished by the 1927 session of the legislature, the committee adopted a substitute drawn by three nominal members, ordering that the preferential primary not be held.

The Smith-Hull issue was clearly drawn in the committee meeting and each time the name of the New York Governor was mentioned, a deafening applause shook the legislative halls. On another occasion applause was provoked when Walter Murphy, state manager for Senator James A. Reed, remarked that "Mr. Hull has more chance of being nominated than I have of being nominated as private secretary to the arch angel Gabriel."

Forest City Will Be Host Tonight To County Candidates

With indications that new developments in the local political situation will come in for considerable discussion, candidates for county offices will address the citizens of Forest City tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Fosgate building.

With the election only two weeks away, there are only three more political meetings on the program for tonight. Tomorrow night the office seekers will speak to the citizens of Ocoola and on the night of May 29 will gather at Padua for a presentation of their claims.

The campaign will come to a close with a big mass meeting in Sanford on Saturday night just preceding the election.

Tonight's session will be presided over by R. J. Holly Sr., secretary of the county committee. The order of speaking was not announced this morning.

Stormy Petrel States He Is Amazed That Former Food Administrator Would Run

Attacks Cabinet Man's War Acts

Declares Hoover Was Serving Interests Of England In War

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(INS)—In another attack on Herbert Hoover, leading Republican candidate, Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, candidate for presidential nomination charged in the Senate today that during the war the Commerce Secretary, as food administrator, undermined agriculture by "fixing a ruinous price on wheat."

Reed expressed amazement that Hoover, "who lived abroad for twenty years and who never voted in America, would have the temerity to offer himself as a candidate for president of the United States."

He said Hoover was named food administrator at the suggestion of Lord Balfour of England, and that Hoover returned to America for the purpose of curbing American prices on food products sold to the Allies.

Reed said two men were sent to America during the war to add British interests. One was Lord Northcliffe, he added, who came over to keep down the price on copper.

"The other man was Herbert Hoover, who before he came told the European powers that they could control the price of wheat by combining and refusing to buy unless their price was accepted," Reed said.

"There was one difference in the character of their efforts. Lord Northcliffe came as a British gentleman, put his cards on the table and talked in the open. Hoover came ostensibly as an American citizen, who patriotically sought to serve his country, but he came here with a scheme that meant the control of the price of wheat through a combination of European interests."

Junior Boys Leave For Camp Winona On Week's Outing

Under the supervision of C. D. Wolfe, secretary of the Seminole County Y. M. C. A., 35 boys between the ages of nine and twelve left Sanford this morning for Lake Winona, where they will enjoy a week's outing as part of the regular summer program of the organization.

Besides Mr. Wolfe there were several assistants to the Y. M. C. A. leader, making about 40 in the party. Most of the boys were transported to the camp in the motor bus, loaned by the Sanford Baseball Club.

A busy week of sports is in store for the boys. On Thursday afternoon a special program will be given in honor of the parents, who will be guests of honor. After viewing the various races and contests, the parents will be served supper. Mr. Wolfe requested today that parents planning to be present are urged to notify him as soon as possible so that the camp will be prepared to take care of all the visitors. The secretary may be reached by mail at DeLeon Springs.

While in camp the party will be accommodated in eight screened buildings, which have been used in previous years. The boys will return home on Saturday afternoon.

John Tripp was hit freely by the celery-feds, who lunched their blows in the fourth to score three runs and clinch the game. The feature of the game was Wycoll's diving catch of Friable's drive in the eighth. Friable led the hitting with four singles out of five times up. Score: SANFORD

Seventy Thousand Crowd Louisville To See Derby Run In Ankle Deep Slush

By Davis J. Walsh
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19. (INS)—Staid, old Louisville, at most aloof in its atmosphere of Southern dignity of 361 days a year, awoke with a well bred yawn this morning, and—presto! Louisville no longer was Louisville. It was a city that frothed and foamed and glibbered with the vulgar emotion of a big moment, a city that uttered a community beat at the crack of dawn, leaped high in the air—and— The fatal 50th day had arrived. The annual madness was on. The Kentucky Derby, great classic of the American turf, was back again for another giddy kaleidoscope, to be whirled before the eyes of 70,000 sportsmen, here to bend the knee in homage before the shrine of the thoroughbred. The day was not appropriate for knee-bending. Churchill Downs was rock deep in mud and, while early weather conditions today were disposed to be favorable, the track had reached saturation point from recent rains and only a course in sun baths could reclaim it from its seamy mud. But a little rain a little mud might mean an ordinary season. They proved only a circumstance in the carnival of color and gaiety that comes to make the derby what it is and always must be. I think it was mostly the raff that made its reservations with the park commission. The night slept fitfully with its feet cocked

Postponement Of Battle Until Tonight Unmoves Sammy Mandell, McLarnin

Hertz's Reigh Count, the horse that was backed down to 4 to 1 in the winter books and which can hardly escape going to the post this afternoon as a reigning favorite. The Count put over the great "convincer" last Monday when he won the Mammoth Cave in a breeze and then went the derby distance in 2:05-1/5 without being raced. Still, a favorite of long standing seldom retains complete public confidence to the end and this morning the reaction against the Count was beginning to set in. One man said he liked Toro, which was beaten by a nostril in the Preknexes last week; another declared for Typhoon, the Kenton Farms entry, but was too much of a gentleman to explain the matter in detail. However, only a form turn-over, such as no derby has known in a dozen years, can bring a horse other than Reigh Count down to the pay off.

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, May 19. (INS)—Neither Sammy Mandell nor Jimmy McLarnin showed any indications today that they were upset by the two postponements of their fight for the lightweight championship of the world. They will strut their stuff tonight at the Polo Grounds if the weather man doesn't clip Mr. Tex Rickard another one on the chin. Both fighters must weigh in again at two o'clock this afternoon to prove that they have not grown into light heavyweights since they stepped on the scales Thursday. Then Mandell weighed 135, the lightweight limit, and McLarnin 134-1/2. The champion, much to his annoyance, was a trifling overweight, scaling 135-1/4, when he was first weighed but he was allowed time off to work it in ten minutes. Thinking the weight question was disposed of, both batters proceeded to fatten up a bit so as to go into the ring as strong as possible. Had they fought last night, they would not have had to weigh in again, but a second postponement altered the situation and they've got to do it all over again. Whether it will hurt them to execute a sudden right-about-face and get down to 135 is problematical. Such delays often disconnect fighters, particularly the nervous high-strung type. In the case of Paul Berlenbach, when his fight with Jack Delaney was postponed twenty-four hours at Ebbets Field in 1926, the effects on Berlenbach were serious. He became physically unsteady and lost his title to Joe French Canadian. Mandell is somewhat high-strung. At least he seemed so when he weighed in Thursday. It is unlikely, however, that he will permit the forty-eight hour delay to destroy his poise. He is a seasoned campaigner and lacks the impatience which characterizes many athletes. "Baby-Faced" McLarnin is as cold as ice almost under any conditions. The only thing that seems to shake his temperament is a stiff punch. Then he has a tendency to sweep science aside and slug. And how? The odds remain at 7 to 5 with Mandell the favorite. By ringtime there probably will be plenty of even money bets laid. As the McLarnin adherents seem to have sockfuls of coin, it is proving the biggest betting fight in years. Good weather tonight will induce more than 50,000 fans to trek to the Polo Grounds. The gate receipts, it is estimated, will run from $250,000 to $300,000. The battle itself is expected to be the most sensational lightweight fracas in years.

America's Greatest Turf Classic Will Be Enacted Today At Louisville Track

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19.—America's great romance of the turf, laid in the stud Old World setting of chivalrous Kentucky, will be enacted again this afternoon with the annual running of the Derby, old in years but ever new, even to the most hardened eye. A score of the nation's greatest thoroughbreds of the three-year-old division will leave the barrier at the head of the stretch in the twilight softness of late afternoon and for a mile and a quarter of deathless struggle, will claim the undivided attention of the country and almost of the world itself. For the Derby provides an all absorbing topic wherever the horse is king. Turf addicts, unable to make the annual pilgrimage to the shine of the thoroughbred, will set on the end of telephone or telegraph wires and will be listening in on the radio, paging newspaper offices or avidly watching bulletin boards. In The Paddock At the classic Downs, these fortunate enough to be a part of the scene will stand on tiptoe in paddock, betting ring, grandstand and infield and raise that polyglot call of the race crowd to the thoroughbred in action. Probably as many as 70,000, culled from all sections and every walk of life, will be present. For the first time since the immortal Zev came out of the East to win the Derby and break

COOKS SPOIL PLANS
Competition in brilliancy of lighting of business streets in Cannes, France, met its limitations recently. When the rue d'Antibes flashed forth with a new air lighting system, merchants of other streets vied with terror the crowds that visited the street. Other thoroughbreds soon blazed with light, and eventually merchants of the narrow and crooked streets became enthusiastic. In one day they directed 7,000 frames for an ornamental lighting equipment. Then it was found that the many lights were taxing the local electric light plant so that at times all the illuminations of Cannes grow dim or go out altogether especially at tea time when housewives are preparing the meals. Most of them, in fact, were regarded as colts that could run their race in any going, which, of course, is what an entry that expects to see a mile and a quarter in a 50,000 stake race should be prepared to do. That, anyhow, was the data in the report card of Mrs. J. D.

... I couldn't find anything that stacks up with today's Chandler

THAT'S the way it goes. The more that people look around, the more they recognize, appreciate and want the exclusive features and qualities of today's Chandler.

New Sixes and new Royal Eights of magnificent smartness—and chock-full of mighty Pike's Peak power.

More Power than Ever
Power that's absolutely remarkable. High-velocity power. Performance that has everything within hundreds of the price tagging behind in traffic and on the hills.

And with its new Westinghouse Vacuum Brakes, today's Chandler has them all stopped for stopping!

Real Safety Brakes
In modern driving, especially in traffic, there's a crying need for these quick-acting engine-power brakes.

Just a light, tinny touch on the pedal brings today's Chandler to a quick, even, "cushioned" stop—three times easier and safer than is possible with mechanical or hydraulic brakes that depend entirely upon a driver's physical strength.

And another wonderful thing about Chandler is its "One Shot" centralized lubricating system. Push a plunger with your foot—and quicker than saying it, the chassis lubricates itself from end to end, automatically.

Last Word in Lubrication
No uncertainty. No fuss. No bother. No time out. No expense.

It's some automobile—in set-up, in get-up—in beauty, in behavior—in quality features, everything.

A new Special Six Sedan, $995; a new Invincible Six Sedan, $1085; a new Big Six Metropolitan Sedan, $1525; a new Royal Eight Sedan, $1995—all prices f. o. b. factory. A total of thirty fashionable models. Come see, come drive, compare.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

A FAT SOUL.—The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.—Prov. 11:25.

PRAYER.—Give us, O Thou Giver of all good, a liberality like unto Thine.

Dead men may tell no lies, but down in Tampa they can vote.

There are rings and rings, wedding rings and political rings, and they both cost the people money.

No, Doyle Carlton hasn't a very glowing war record, but for that matter neither has Fons Hathaway.

Some of these West Florida weeklies are as loaded down with advertising as the Sunday editions of the big city dailies.

Another re-funding bond issue is being advertised. We suggest that this issue be called the "Spirit of Sanford".

Al Smith has just made a sachem in Tammany Hall. This is an honor he will have to live down in the South.

"Amos is an incompetent," says a headline in the Palm Beach Independent. True, brother, true, and so's your old Stewart.

Sportsmen are thinking the present fishing laws are not so bad after all. They are bringing in some pretty good catches these days.

The Tampa Tribune refers to former Governor Catts as "Six Gun Sid", but we doubt if a man as blind as Catts is could hit the broad side of a barn.

Hon. James Carson is no coward. In his gubernatorial race he trains his guns on the big game, he neither fears Catts nor the "Big Chief."—Orlando Reporter-Star.

The League of Nations needs a good husky umpire to handle that China-Japan game.—Dade City Banner. In a fight of that kind, it is best to turn it over to the bleachers.

In the nearly seven years the editor has lived in Clermont, no speaker has been applauded as frequently or as enthusiastically as was John W. Martin.—Clermont Press.

We'll wager that if Fons Hathaway had actually filed a true report of his "slush fund", someone would have accused him of being a Republican.

Judge Darlington of Tampa condemns Carlton as an assassin of character. Some characters, Judge, couldn't be hurt much by a little friendly assassination.

Joe Earman of the Palm Beach Independent has come out for Jim Carson. People are beginning to realize that Sid Catts and Fons Hathaway are not the only candidates in this race.

Sheriffs Hand and Brady have been running around together so much lately attending these political meetings they ought to be real good friends by June 5.

If "Uncle Joe" Sears will gracefully retire from the congressional race in favor of the accomplished daughter of the "Great Commoner" his name will become historic.—Ocala Banner.

Sanford Herald heads an editorial "About Deadbeats." The story is alright but it can't be told in so short a space, there are too many of them, and the newspaper man hears from them often more than any other class.—Clay County Times

The Sanford Herald says it has never heard anyone say anything against Senator Taylor who is running for governor. If you haven't the candidate is not qualified.—Deland News. We believe it true that if he had a chance, thousands would be saying unpleasant things about him.

Jim 'N Joe

The Herald is not trying to dictate to the people of Seminole County how they shall vote in this gubernatorial race. We believe that they are fully competent themselves to name their next governor. Our only interest in the race consists of informing the people of what facts we are able to ascertain concerning the various candidates. That done, our job is finished. We are not running for office ourselves and there is nothing in Tallahassee we want or would have if it were offered to us.

Of all the candidates in the race, only one is a personal friend of ours. That's Jim Carson. We have known him for years and like him. We think he would make as good a governor as any man in the race. He's smart and all man and that's more than a lot of them can say. He's given Sid Catts seven different kind of fits and he fought him when all the other candidates were very carefully laying off of him. We think the people of Florida owe Jim Carson a great deal for showing up that old hypocrite.

Naturally enough we are pleased when we see favorable comment on Jim's race. The latest to come to Jim's help is Joe Earman, publisher of the Palm Beach Independent. Everybody in Palm Beach county knows Joe, and almost everybody likes him even after they have had the hide taken off. When Joe says he is going to vote for anybody, usually a lot of other Palm Beach county folks vote the same way. Among other things this is what Joe says about Jim:

"Five men are seeking the Democratic nomination for governor of Florida in the primary of June 5th.

"Palm Beach County has approximately twenty and a half million dollars tied up in "BUSTED" banks.

"Of the five candidates—

"NO ONE of them has made a DEFINITE STATEMENT as to his intentions concerning revision and the addition of TEETH to the PRESENT BANKING LAWS OF FLORIDA, wherein citizens of the state will have protection for their money on deposit in state banks.

"That one man is JIM CARSON.

"I expect Jim has drank enough liquor in his day to float the ROYAL POINCIANA HOTEL.

"He informed me that he has had SEVENTEEN drinks in the past four years and NONE within the past two years.

"No one can gainsay the statement that Jim Carson is one of Florida's OUTSTANDING lawyers.

"He is a red headed CRACKER with an ELEPHANTS HIDE.

"No one would ever put him in a BEAUTY SHOW.

"If he is elected governor and with his DECIDED opinions and Joe Earman's WAY OF THINKING

"It will be a very short time before Jim and Joe will probably CLASH.

"Jim is not going to appoint Josephus to any office for the good reason that he does not think he is suitable timber for public office in his administration.

"Another very good reason is that Joe Earman DOES NOT WANT PUBLIC OFFICE.

"THAT'S THAT!

"Jim Carson and his CRACKER family ELIMINATED HORSE RACING FROM FLORIDA.

"In doing so he demonstrated his ability as a lawyer and he kept the faith of his kin and their CONSISTENCY as to the morals of Florida.

"With the thought in mind for a BETTER GOVERNMENT and the PROTECTION TO HELPLESS PEOPLE, ESPECIALLY WIDOWS AND DEFENSELESS LITTLE CHILDREN, as pertaining to their BANK DEPOSITS.

"I am going to VOTE FOR JIM CARSON and my second choice vote will go to Doyle Carlton.

Gifts Of The Rockefellers

When John D. Rockefeller, now fast approaching eighty-nine, was only sixty years of age, he is said by Time to have said, "I believe it is a religious duty to get all the money you can, fairly and honestly; to keep all you can, and to give away all you can."

At first thought that strikes us as a trifle paradoxical. To say the least, money grabbing is a peculiar doctrine for any religious sect, and we believe Mr. Rockefeller is a Christian, a Baptist in fact. We wonder how he could reconcile his statement with the Bible's "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven."

But we read on, and Time gives figures representing Rockefeller's philanthropies. Huge, puzzling, incomprehensible figures, but we reproduce them below for our readers to see. Perhaps it is a "religious duty" if one spends as Rockefeller spends.

ROADS NOT AN ISSUE

KEY WEST CITIZEN

Press dispatches from Ocala reported Senator John S. Taylor as having said, in his speech in that city in the interest of his candidacy for the governorship, that "good roads do not constitute an issue in Florida today. The state is so thoroughly committed to the construction of a system of good roads that this work will go forward regardless of who is elected governor."

The senator is altogether correct in regard to this. It is past thinking that Florida will at this stage of the game call a halt in her road building.

Notwithstanding this, considerable effort is being made to impress Floridians that unless Chairman Hathaway is named governor the building of Florida's road system will be stopped. That is poppycock, of course, it will hardly decease anybody. What is an issue in the present gubernatorial campaign, so far as roads are concerned, is whether or not our road building work is to be pursued to the accompaniment of extravagance and wastefulness—as the records show that it has been under Chairman Hathaway's direction—or to be carried on in a businesslike manner, with contracts let to the lowest responsible bidders, no favoritism shown and in such manner that portions of them will not cost approximately 50 per cent more to maintain for 15 months than they did to construct, as in the case of those 2 1/2 miles west of Arcadia.

Should it be, as it certainly seems that it will not, that Chairman Hathaway is elevated to the governorship it is safe to presume that the policy which has obtained in the state road department under his direction will be continued. That policy has, provenly, been unbusinesslike—to say the least of it.

That is the only issue in the gubernatorial campaign, so far as roads are involved.

The main issue in this campaign hinges around whether or not Sidney J. Catts shall again be governor of Florida. The other issues are more or less secondary. Senator Taylor ought to be able to see this as clearly as he has seen in reference to good roads not being an issue. Seeing it, as we think he must, he ought to realize that every candidate in the race whose candidacy tends to divide the vote that is opposed to Catts is adding to the chance that the former governor will be nominated. And it ought to be apparent to the senator, as it is to everybody else, that the present race is between Doyle Carlton, Sidney J. Catts and Fons A. Hathaway—with Carlton way out in the lead. Such is the tenor of reports coming from every part of the state.

That being the case, the thing for all who do not want to see the continuance of the operation of the state road department as it has been operated under Chairman Hathaway and who much less desire to have the former governor again in the chief executive's office to do is to vote for Carlton.

For a number of reasons, the Times wishes that John S. Taylor might have made the race for governor under other circumstances. As it is, he got into a contest which had drifted down to one between three men before he entered it, and got into it with there still hanging over his candidacy a question mark as to his eligibility for the governorship, should he be elected—the supreme court having only decided that he is eligible for the democratic nomination and having refused to pass upon the other phase of the matter. Under the status of affairs now existing, it is apparent that a vote for Senator Taylor is either a vote wasted, or one of doubtful value if all the signs point to the impossibility of his nomination should prove misleading.

Today it is safe to say that a vote for any other save Doyle Carlton on June 5 will be, in effect, a vote for Sidney J. Catts. What anyone may desire relative to the state of affairs cannot alter that state as it exists.

Mr. Catts appears to have a speech for each section of the state.—Tampa Tribune. Each section? He can speak to a church crowd on one side of the street and to a race track crowd on the other, and make equally sincere promises to both.—Palm Beach Independent.

Tampa tops up again, this time as the home of a curious individual who actually resigned a good job to be a candidate for something or other.—St. Petersburg Independent.

The Chicago Shine delegation upon arrival in Miami was greeted with a bomb. Wanted to make a feel perfectly at home.—Miami Herald.

Scores Of Runners Pound Road Daily In Race From Los Angeles To New York

BY COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service
Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, May 21.—Pounding the pavement en route to New York, where they expect to arrive the latter part of May, there are a score of more Los Angeles-New York runners—Promoter C. C. Pyle's procession of bunion derbyists.

And behind them, scattered across the Mojave desert, the plains of Texas and Kansas and the dunes of Indiana are piled thousands of pairs of shoes, hundreds of torn and tattered running trunks, millions of crushed atoms of flesh and nerves and whole world's of ambition and shattered promises of great prosperity.

Annual Affair
And that's not the worse of it. Promoter Pyle has announced he plans to make the cross-country endurance run an annual affair, with future total prizes exceeding the 1928 awards of more than 40,000, which includes $25,000 to the winner.

When the race started more than 10 weeks ago at Los Angeles on the 3,400 mile jog to New York, there were 247 runners entered. When the corn collectors reached Chicago there were still 24 runners going and at least 25 are expected to finish the long grind.

Touted as a likely winner of the Pyle pilgrimage is little Pete Gavuzzi the French-Italian-English steward, late of the steamship Majestic, who is entered as from Southampton, England.

John Salo, a 24-year-old Finnish runner of Passaic, N. J., is another likely candidate for the bunion honors, believes Gavuzzi will crack before New York is reached and that he himself will trot in first at the end of the long trail in Gotham. Salo has lost almost 20 pounds in the race and now weighs only 143 pounds.

A Hard Stretch
The hardest stretch in the entire grind, according to Salo, was in Texas, where clay stuck to the runners' shoes, weighing them down like lead. Before he reached Texas Salo wore out six pairs of shoes and between Texas and Chicago he went through a dozen more.

Salo is one of the unique runners in the marathon. He does not follow strict training methods and unlike many of the other contestants foregoes showers and rub-downs.

At end of a day's long run of from 30 to 50 miles he merely takes a coffee or roadside stand and fills his "hot dogs" and lemonade. He has eaten as many as 20 "hot dogs" following a day on the road.

Editor's Daughters Die In Blaze Which Destroys His Home

NEW ALBANY, Miss., May 21.—(INS)—Three daughters of J. S. Owens, editor of the New Albany Gazette, were burned to death early today while Mr. and Mrs. Owens narrowly escaped with their lives as their home was destroyed by fire.

Elizabeth Owens, 18, one of the victims, was to have graduated from New Albany High School next week. Her two sisters, Blake Owens, 16, and Helen Owens, 10, also perished in the flames. The three bodies were recovered. One month ago today, Owens' son, William Owens, 28, died suddenly from acute indigestion. He was stricken while driving with his wife and died before reaching home.

Cause of this morning's fire was not known. At 3 A. M., the home suddenly burst into flames. Mr. and Mrs. Owens were awakened by the roar of the fire and fled to the street barely in time to save their lives. Efforts to rescue their daughters were in vain.

Fighting Candidate Declares He Was First One To Make Real Concrete Charge Of Graft Against Road Head

MELBOURNE, May 19.—Waiving in one hand Tuesday's Tampa Tribune in the other Thursday's Ft. Lauderdale Daily News, James M. Carson, candidate for governor spoke at Cocoa this afternoon and in Melbourne tonight. "This Tampa Tribune," Mr. Carson said "carries the first definite charge of graft, corruption and extortion of the State Road Department." "While this Ft. Lauderdale News," he shouted "carries confirmation of the charges by Will Marshall and G. M. Hopkins of Ft. Lauderdale."

"I am informed," he continued "that tonight's Ft. Lauderdale paper will give the full details of the Briarhill Quarries transaction showing official corruption in all its nakedness."

Carson took up one at a time Catts and Hathaway and Carlton, and apparently, disposed of each to the satisfaction of enthusiastic audiences in both Brevard County cities.

He told on Catts, the bad and dangerous, the story of the Osceola County cowboy who rode the panther and drank carbolic acid and on Carlton and Hathaway the story of the wreck of the Titanic and the man who, after that adopted a policy of "safety first" and wore pink ribbons in his night-gown.

Then he compared the effort of some of the people of Tampa, who defeated Carlton for mayor, to sell him to the people of Florida on account of his oratorical ability to the effort of the man to sell another a room door.

"He's sure to be a good room dog," the man said, "because he's found to be good for something, and he's got a beautiful voice."

Mr. Carson's Uncle, John Bryan of Dania, who has been ill attended the Melbourne meeting and will campaign the East Coast for the Miami candidate from now until June fifth, Mr. Carson speaks next at Ft. Lauderdale on Saturday night.

Chamber Plans To Hold Election For Officers Of Year

Having chosen officers and directors, the Chamber of Commerce, we have elected out a new and progressive. We have practical and is an long but because financial support has not been in for a number of years, we have incurred obligation amounting to about five hundred dollars. Again, this we have full receivable amounting to more than $2,000, which if collected, will be enough to meet the obligation, and take care of expenses that are to come.

"The incoming board should have a clean slate to begin with for this reason we hope that those members who are in arrears with their dues will pay them up to date, and we also urge business and professional men who are not already affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce to take out memberships at once and help in this civic work."

Vanderbilt Romance Goes On Rocks Again

NEWPORT, R. I., May 21.—(INS)—The society romance of William H. Vanderbilt, of New York and Oakland, Pa., Portsmouth, and his charming bride of five years ago, the former Miss Emily O'Neill Fairfax, went on the rocks again today when Mrs. Vanderbilt filed a divorce action in Newport superior court.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, who charged neglect to provide, left with the court the matter of custody of their three year old daughter, Emily. Hearing was set for the first week of June.

Last July Mrs. Vanderbilt brought a divorce action in the Tribunal of the Seine in Paris. Through the intercession of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt, the action was withdrawn. Subsequently, she came to live with her husband and her daughter at palatial Oakland Farm. She is now in New York.

Sibley Answers Durant

While I wish to thank Mr. Durant for his courtesy in replying to my question in The Sanford Herald of May 17, I must also inform Mr. Durant that there must be a goodly number of large taxpayers in District No. 3 whom he did not interview with regard to a Taxpayers Committee, which through a misprint in The Herald was wrongly named "Lake Mary Taxpayers Committee," as a meeting was held in District No. 3 where Lake Mary, Longwood, Altamonte, Bear Lake and Lake Monroe taxpayers were represented, there were men present who pay as large a tax, and have lived in the County fully as long as you. I was chosen one of a committee at that meeting.

What's Inside?

The Woman who started out to fill her library only with books with red bindings, or books whose names suggest red -- "Red Pepper Burns," "The Song of the Cardinals," "The Scarlet Letter" -- made a whim the basis of her choice. She wasn't particularly interested in the merits of those books. Her aim was to fill up space.

Yet when you buy books, you are concerned with what's inside them. And when you buy a flashlight, a refrigerator, a radio--you want wiser than whimsy buys. You want to know the inside goodness of those products, know it before you buy them, be persuaded by what's inside. You may hesitate between two flashlights. You can't tell by the appearance which is good, or which is better. Advertisements could tell you. Read the advertisements. Then you can know a product to its center--to its last chapter of service--before you buy.
