Tex Rickard Is Alleged To Have Smarted Tunney Out Of Huge Sum Before Fight

By Davis J. Walsh
 International News Service

 NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Just how Tex Rickard was alleged to have "smarted" Gene Tunney out of $115,000 by a midnight telephone call four days before the first Dempsey fight in Philadelphia was revealed today for the first time. The alleged revelation was aired by Bill McCabe, personal caretaker of the heavyweight champion, and it was offered in the way of evidence that purported to support Tunney's claim that Rickard wasn't disposed to treat him in the manner his position in life demanded.

The $115,000 it seems, represented a kick-back from the original contract. Tunney is supposed to have held with Rickard, calling, it is alleged, for 17 1/2 per cent of the receipts. What the champion admits he actually received was a flat guarantee of $200,000, whereas McCabe claims Tunney could have got some $315,000 if he had insisted upon the promoter carrying out the terms of the contract to the letter.

That he did not insist was due to the goodness of his heart or something, according to McCabe. For Rickard, keeping Tunney standing by a drafty telephone for upward of an hour, is said to have pleased the fighter that he, Rickard, was "in a bad hole" with the directors of the Madison Square Corporation because they thought he was spending too much on the fight and that, therefore, it was up to Tunney to help him out. This, says McCabe, Tunney ultimately agreed to do.

"And," that gentleman added, "all this time Rickard had a virtual sell out. Is it any wonder that we want more assurance now from Rickard that he will produce a contender for a little bout next summer, under the terms of our contract?"

Front Tunney himself have come frequent intimations that he was far from satisfied with the way Rickard took care of him in Philadelphia but this is the first time that any member of the entourage has outlined details as to what might have been the cause of the champion's displeasure. The latter merely signified that the displeasure was all his, particularly around the time last winter when he was conferring with Humbert Fugazy in what proved to be a successful effort to forego Rickard into the open.

The object of all this hocus pocus was to get a contract so favorable that the alleged Philadelphia incident would be wiped out of all memory and it might be said, off-hand, that Tunney succeeded. Anyhow, he got a contract that might have netted him $1,200,000 for his bit, so called, at Chicago but the understanding later was that Tunney was persuaded to accept only a piffling million for all that trouble.

This naturally distressed him greatly and what with one thing and another, mostly both, he feels that all has not been Jacob. This, in any case, is McCabe's story. He says that Tunney has come out as avowed proponent of the kick-in, having had an ample sufficiency of the kick-back.

GODALE FIGHTS MEL MANING IN DRAW BATTLE

Headline Scrappers Exhibit Some Clever Boxing Skill But Do No Damage To Each Other In Last Night's Bout

Semi-Final Battle Results In Draw

Four Other Preliminaries Go Four Rounds Each With Decision Given In Three

Mel Maning of California and Henry Godale of Orlando fought a 10-round draw last night at the Municipal Athletic Field as the feature attraction of the weekly boxing program staged under the auspices of the American Legion drum and bugle corps. The weights were announced as Maning, 130 and Godale 136. Only a fair-sized crowd witnessed the exhibition.

Both Maning and Godale demonstrated their cleverness but neither did any damage to the other. They fought fast and furiously on one or two occasions but for the most part they were content to trade punches on an even basis with neither extending himself. Maning displayed some good footwork, making him especially elusive at times. The first round saw the pair spar a round, neither putting across a telling blow. The round was even, telling blow. The round was even, telling blow. The round was even, telling blow.

The second was even but there was plenty of action. Maning landed a hard left to the jaw but it phased Godale only for a second. The third round was a repetition of the second. The Californian waded into Godale in the fourth to take the round. Maning captured the fifth by rushing into Godale's corner and pushing the fight.

Godale battled the westerner in his corner in the sixth but Maning managed to get loose. It was the Orlando boy's round. Maning came back and landed several hard blows in the seventh. The eighth was also his. Maning punching Godale at will. In the ninth Godale with a savage blow to the jaw sent Maning down but the latter came back for more. It was Godale's round but the tenth was even.

Referee Brown called the semi-final a draw and the referee for the final between Godale and Maning.

The first four rounds of the Levitt-Penden scrawl were even. The fifth went to Levitt, and the sixth to Penden. Penden roughed

Sebring Fails To Place Any Gators On Mythical Team

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, GAINESVILLE, Dec. 1.—(AP) The News Bureau thought "Pop" Sebring, head coach of football at the University of Florida, shares the same belief of A. A. Stange concerning all-star teams, the Gator agent has accumulated to numerous magazines and today announced the line-up for All-Southern that he has dispatched to the Associated Press.

Not a single member of Florida 1927 football squad was picked by Coach Sebring for his first All-Southern team. It is understood, however, that he has selected 11 players from the 1927 squad. They were: "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center; "Babe" Ruth, center.

The eleven as selected by Coach Sebring in the seventh and the final round. The fight was Levitt's by a good margin.

Four other scraps were on the program. Kid Jerry and Second Mike fought a draw in four rounds. They were 125-pounders. Young English and Steve Dunn met in another four-round affair with no decision but English had the better of the argument. Harry Hill had an edge on Douglas Echols in another four-round bout. H. O. Dwyer and Pewee Avery fought a draw in the curtain raiser.

Pop Warner States Pittsburgh Is Best Team He Has Seen

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Glen "Pop" Warner, whose Stanford Cardinals meet Pittsburgh in a post season game at Pasadena on Jan. 2, was back from the East today where he watched the Panthers in action against Penn State. Warner said that After watching a few pitiful attempts to halt the Omlets, Mentor Bedenk sent the boys around the field two laps in hopes that they would come back and stop the Maryland plays. But the tonic did not relieve the situation, and the Omlets ripped through in even more dashing abandon. This morning all is gloom in Gatorland. The Maryland game sizes up as the toughest of all Florida battles. Coaches Sebring and Bedenk were in the stands at Nashville two weeks ago when Maryland gave Vanderbilt the sensational 39 to 20 ball game. The Old Liners made 22 first downs on Vandy and displayed great power. The Florida tators are thoroughly familiar with the strength of Maryland's attack and defense, and with the way things turned out Tuesday there was apparently much room for pessimism. Florida looked badly in the workout.

Business Men Are Addressed By Ohio Expert Last Night

Declaring that 75 per cent of all the merchandise sold in the United States is sold by 25 per cent of the total number of retail merchandising establishments, L. H. Buisch, a member of the Merchants Service Bureau, maintained by The National Cash Register Company of Dayton, Ohio spoke before a large number of business men last night in the City Hall.

Through a series of charts, drawings and statistical reports, coupled with his own wide observations, Mr. Buisch demonstrated the reasons behind this uneven distribution of retail sales, and gave his hearers advice on many points in salesmanship and store management to aid them in being listed in the 25 per cent group.

Advertising and scientific salesmanship were stressed by the speaker. Spasmodic advertising is of little value for the retail merchant, the speaker said, and declared that the retailer's great need is to appreciate the value of consistent advertising. The merchant who advertises in the so-called "slack seasons" is the one who gets ahead, he declares.

Reliance on absolute facts in making sales, and a code of courtesy for store workers, were urged. Every statement by a salesperson that distorts the true worth of an article, or claims of the benefits to be gained from articles which cannot give these benefits, invariably results in damage to the store's good name, the speaker warned.

Showing graphically that modern stores, through their careful systems of merchandising and management, are making steady inroads in the business of the retailer who operates without a carefully thought out business program, made in advance, Mr. Buisch urged that the individual store owner make his business justify its exist-ence through better trade gained by a plan carefully laid out a full year ahead. Setting a quota of business for every year, every month and every week, was advocated. The speaker's points were illustrated clearly by means of drawings and charts which made his meaning clear at every stage of the interesting discussion.

CUMMIN'S CITY REPORT MADE AT FORD HOME TO PUBLIC TODAY Get Description

(Continued from Page 1) of any kind," the report charges, "and this constitutes a violation of the most basic principles of handling or controlling public funds." This procedure, Mr. Cummin adds, "cost the citizens of Sanford over $900,000."

The report outlines three fundamentals necessary to the City's rehabilitation and enumerates them as follows:

1. A thoroughly competent city manager with initiative, imagination and technical ability in actual charge of administration.

2. A modern and adequate accounting system operated by a competent accountant and subject to an independent audit at intervals not in excess of one year (preferably a "continuous" audit).

3. A dollar for dollar protection of all city funds on deposit anywhere.

In connection with the last named recommendation, the report says, "the city authorities are trustees for public funds and they should insist that all deposits be adequately protected. If this fundamental precaution had been taken, there would have been no loss by the City of funds deposited in the bank."

Discussing claims that are outstanding against the City, the financial expert makes this comment relative to a certain warrant held by the Hutton Construction Company: "There seems to be a special question about a warrant for $98,528.35 held by the Hutton Construction Company and this should not be paid until investigation clearly shows it to be a legal obligation of the city. If there seems to be any doubt, a court determination of the City's liability should be sought."

The proposed financing scheme as outlined by the Cummin report contemplates the issuance of bonds for $1,273,338.66, the amount needed to pay all outstanding obligations and those maturing for the next 12 months. The refinancing bonds added to the present gross bonded indebtedness will amount to $7,280,365.00 on Jan. 1, 1928, the survey further stated.

The 1928-29 budget recently adopted by the City Commission was declared to have been reduced as far as is safe for the community. The report notes that the fire department especially is seriously undermanned and recommends the organization of a volunteer corps among the citizens who would answer all alarms where the fire is of a serious nature.

The assessed valuation of the City for the next year has been placed at $21,638,882, according to the report which further notes that the millage is 25. Commenting upon this, Mr. Cummin says "the total tax burden, while high, is exceeded by the tax burdens of many places in the United States which carry them without distress."

With reference to the gas utility plant, which has been operated at a considerable loss since its acquisition by the city, the report says it is doubtful whether under the best of municipal operation "it can hope to pay its way for many years." With this in view, Mr. Cummin recommends its sale if it can be effected without too great a loss.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

SUNDAY RAIN.
By Edwin Morgan
—In The American Caravan—

Lill, like chilly beetles let us crawl Out from the sallow bud of our boudoir
And greyly look out at the long wan rain
That God in all his potency let fall
To ruin our one holiday again.
We'll toss no silver words at Fontainebleau Or lie like warm fruit fallen from the tree
Watching the swans like clear thoughts softly ride Against the water-blossoms' tracery
The shaken subtle skies where we might hide
A moment in its peace, finding renewal so.

Lill, we'll lean upon the bitten window sill
And watch the bourgeois plash to traveller
Hearing dead Sundays thundering afar:
We'll beat last like all the rear withdrawn
Hearing the moments spluttering till dawn.

Doesn't Lindy look as if he were having a wonderful time in that picture with Ruth Elder?

The Christmas Savings Funds

No, there is no truth in the rumor that John Hilton has won the popularity contest at Longwood.

poisoned by them.

What, with a city election coming on, and a regular grand jury session, the trial of the injunction suit, and one or two other little trials scheduled for this month, business ought to be picking up.

The people will be watching Herald ads for Christmas bargains this year more than ever. When times are good, they buy what they please, but when money is scarce they look to see what the other fellow is selling and for how much.

The head on a certain local story in Wednesday's Herald read as follows:
"Brady Flings Hat in Sheriff's but a typographical error almost rendered the public this injustice.

Says Will Rogers as you may believe the voters are dry, watch them vote: if you don't believe they are wet, watch them drink: but votes count. You can't tabulate a man's vote in the wet column because his breath smells that way."

there are a good many cranks left,

Warfare In Chicago

Imagine this. In federal court in Chicago a United States district attorney quietly made the following remark: "Your honor, I cannot prosecute this man. My two star government witnesses have been murdered." He then told Judge Wilkerson that more than a dozen men, former gangsters and alcohol racketeers who were to have testified in behalf of the federal government, had been "taken for a ride."

We are moved to wonder how such a condition of affairs can be tolerated in a civilized and progressive country. For months the deafening roar of bursting bombs, and the crack of automatic pistols and machine guns have been vividly reminiscent of Meuse-Argonne days and have proved the inspiration for many a philippic from "The Front at Chicago."

To the unsophisticated outsider, it would appear that citizens of Chicago must carry forty-four Colt revolvers suspended from their hips, bowie knives, and sword canes when they venture forth upon the streets. We can imagine them creeping on their stomachs down outlying streets, dodging behind cornices, steps, and ash cans, as bullets whistle overhead. We can see the ambulances dashing hither and yonder and Red Cross nurses patching the scalp or shattered bones of some "innocent bystander."

How do they get this way? Can't they put a stop to it? Of course they can if they want to. Perhaps Mayor Thompson is getting something out of it. Perhaps he is the representative of the bootlegger, gangster element. Or possibly he is merely maintaining a position of strict neutrality in the gangland warfare in the hope that his own life will be longer and pleasanter and that eventually the various gangs will have annihilated each other and peace once more will be restored.

As Others See Us

The St. Petersburg Times notes that there is a growing confidence in the future of Florida as indicated by the increasing number of favorable comments received from all over the country. The Chicago Banker is among the latest to laud Florida and the basis for its praise is a recent statistical survey made by the state Chamber of Commerce. The Chicago publication has this to say:

"Generally regarded as a playground and resort, Florida's commercial and industrial potentialities are overlooked until one comes face to face with the prominence the state has attained as an economic factor.

"Few consider Florida as a mineral producing state, or as a state of seaports which vessels of all nations enter and from which they clear, bringing raw commodities to her factories and carrying her products to practically all parts of the world.

"Florida is a world leader in the production of phosphate, Fuller's earth, sponges, grapefruit, fish, cigars and raw materials such as diatomite, rutile, zircon and ilmenite.

"Florida is one of the most important producers of naval stores, lumber, citrus and foodstuffs. She must be reckoned with as a commercial factor."

"The fact that Clarence Geist originally of Indiana, now of Philadelphia, and owner of Sea View and several piers at Atlantic City, has paid seven millions cash for Florida resort property, now in trouble, ought to tip it off to investors that this is about the big day of the bargain counter in Florida.

"Mr. Geist has assured purchasers in his development that they need fear nothing from the underlying mortgages as he is buying them as presented. Mr. Geist is of the Carl Fisher type and has won every game he ever entered. Keep this in mind in the period when "offers" may come your way unexpectedly."

GAME HOGS

JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL.

The hunting season has now been underway for several days and from all parts of the state come reports of a plentiful supply of game, of splendid hunting conditions and, unfortunately, a sickening disregard of the new state game laws and the regulations which are intended to allow the hunter a reasonably generous but consistent with intelligent game conservation.

If the reports of many Jacksonville gunners are indicative of the attitude of many who call themselves sportsmen throughout the state, then the efforts of those who are genuinely interested in hunting and in conservation of game may be perpetuated by those who kill in a large measure by those who kill everything they can see and carry away despite the fact most of their bags are wasted.

Those who ignore the bag limits defined in the new state game law are nothing more or less than game hogs and the term "game hog" is the most odious one in the lexicon of the true sportsman.

The man who goes afield solely to kill and kill and kill is not deserving of the privilege of hunting. He should be deprived of his license and his gun and should be forever forbidden to hunt.

It is sad that many men who regard themselves as sportsmen should feel that the state has no right to limit the amount of game they may take during a day or a season and that they should be permitted to hunt without payment of a license fee.

Such men cannot by any stretch of the imagination be called true sportsmen and, if they disregard

WHY EDITORS PLAY GOLF

LEESBURGH COMMERCIAL.

"How in the world do you get time to play golf so many afternoons?" has been asked the Commercial editor several times.

Well, it's this way. Golf beats liquor all to pieces when it comes to taking your mind off your troubles. Sometimes it brings its own troubles when you get in the rough or in a sand trap or have a day when your putts simply won't fall in the cup, but at that it has no hangover like the liquor habit and it doesn't stupefy you during the process.

So that's the secret. We play golf to get our mind off our troubles. Of course, we have to make up the time by studying, reading and writing

As Brisbane Sees It

Four Years? Too Short. Little Ticker Tape. Ford Teaches Thinking. Some Did Not Marry.

By Arthur Brisbane
Copyright 1927 by Star.

"RUSSIA STARTLES the league at Geneva, proposing to wipe out warfare, junk all armies, navies and armaments absolutely in four years.

Revolution is enthusiastic. Russia believes that in a few years it can change an uneducated proletariat, transform 150 million uneducated, unthinking human beings into mental and moral equals of the world's best. They thought but it can't be done. To change a man you must change the shape of his forehead, the kind and size of his brain and deepen its convolutions. That takes generations some time thousands of them, not four years.

MR. HALDEMAN JULIUS of Kansas, whose daughter is just trying a "romantic marriage experiment," tells the world that his daughter was born before he, Halde-man-Julius, his father, was married. The girl has money to set up housekeeping but the dear little girl was born anyhow.

THEY, IS interesting, not unusual. Vincent, second of greater amount, all artists was born outside of marriage, his father and mother never married. He supported his legitimate, respectable but born half brothers and set.

William the Conqueror was born before his father married. The interesting part when he first saw washing clothes in a brook as he rode past with his warriors.

GET ALL that doesn't change the fact that marriage is better than back of marriage. Marriage will not go out of fashion. It will a rest and men become worthy of an institution at present too good for many of them.

HENRY FORD introduces a new line of school which he maintains near his famous Wayside Inn. He says the main object of the school is "to teach thinking."

That is the only education worth while, and the kind of education most generally neglected, especially in the big universities. They teach not thinking.

The value of what you eat depends on what you digest. The value of your mind depends on what you think. Ford's educational system teaches the hands with teaching the mind. Our public schools should try and look into the Ford method.

WALL STREET tape, the little piece of white paper that runs through the ticker, was 20 minutes behind yesterday, could not keep up with the extraordinary speculation.

Stocks sailed up again, steel, motors etc. Three million shares were bought by somebody who evidently believes the time for that "necessary slump" has not yet come.

JAMES SPEYER'S statement, that prosperity is our normal condition, just as health is the normal condition of a healthy man, as long as he abstains from food, is the best description of this fortunate land.

SEBURY, IN good Massachusetts, and its town council mean it when they demand President Coolidge for a second elective term. In fact, they go further, voting six to one to double his salary and make him president for life. Irving A. Priest, Boston banker, head of Sudbury town committee, says the real Uncle Sam has come to life in President Coolidge, who is "thin, sharp featured, grim, deliberate cool, firm, patient, sacracious, tolerant, kind, Christian."

MR. COOLIDGE is all those things and some others, but he agrees with George Washington that the people don't want any president for life, not even if the angel Gabriel came down and offered to take the job.

A PSYCHIATRIST from Chicago credited with having saved Leopold and Loeb from the gallows, is here to see what he can do to save Mrs. Ruth Snyder, who helped kill her husband.

No psychiatrist should be necessary to convince the people of New York that it would be a disgrace to drag a screaming, defenseless woman to the electric chair, strap her down and kill her, in the name of civilization. Such brutality should be impossible in a civilized country.

Benefit Party Given Tuesday Evening By Church Truth Club

A delightful affair of this week was the benefit party given Tues- day evening by the members of the Truth Seekers class at the Meth- odist Parsonage. Proceeds realized were applied on the pledge made by this class to the fund for Sun- day School literature. An appreci- able sum was thus added to the amount raised.

A splendid program of music, readings and concerts were en-joyed including a piano solo, "Hark, Hark, the Lark," by Miss Elizabeth Clark. Claude Herndon Jr., played a number of violin selections ac- companied by Mrs. C. P. Herndon; Little Cornelie Rea in her usu- al charming manner gave several readings. Mrs. George Harden and Mrs. Roy Lingo sang a duet, and Mrs. Burke sang "Grand Valse de Concert."

After the program a beautifully decorated holiday cake was brought in to receive the pennies contributed by those present each giving a penny a year for their age. Refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, and coffee were served later.

Those present were: Mesdames: Bessie Hartman, J. D. Parker, J. E. Pearson, C. C. Penst, W. E. Clark, L. Gray, J. E. Hickson, J. M. Noyes, M. E. Jover, J. D. Hart, W. A. Rossner, W. I. Huchey, G. E. Milane Will Show Today Exciting Film Of Gangster Fights

Thomas Meighan's new Para- mount picture "The City Gone Wild" coming to the Milane Thea- tre today is described by Manager Marinette as an underworld melo- drama, the story of a gangster metropolis.

The part affords Meighan an op- portunity for a powerful charac- terization as a criminal lawyer who turns prosecuting attorney because of the love of a beautiful girl.

James Cruze, director of "Old Ironsides," "The Covered Wagon" and other spectacular productions, directed.

"The City Gone Wild" is an origi- nal story by Charles and Jules Farthman, Jules being responsible for the screen adaptation. It is a well drawn tale, written as only a former Chicago newspaperman could write it. Jules Farthman has made a careful study of the pre- sent crime wave, and is said to have embodied some of his own feelings in this new production.

Paramount has surrounded Meighan with an excellent cast, headed by Minnie Miller, Louise Brooks and Fred Kohler. The others are Dale Markin, late of vaudeville; Sanny Phillips, Wyndham Stand- ings, Charles Hill, Madras, King Zany and "Gunboat" Smith.
