To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Orange County, Florida: I hereby most respectfully acknowledge the appropriation of $225 given me for the purpose of paying the actual costs of revising the map of Orange county, I for my part giving my time without any charge. I agree to repay the county this sum in case I should fail to furnish a corrected drawing of said county map to be published by your honorable board.

The expenses necessary for revising this map is principally for triangulating and surveying St. Johns river from Lake Boinsett to Lake Monroe where the U. S. plats are either missing or very incorrect. This will take about two or three weeks' time at a cost of about $5 per day for boat hire and assistance. Also Wekiwa river, about one week at same price. Also mapping and locating all the new roads built in this county since the time, over twenty years, since the first edition of this map was made. It will take going over nearly 300 miles of new or changed roads.

It will also be necessary to re-examine and plat several townships in the south part of the county where time and circumstances did not allow me to get such accurate topography as ought to have been taken.

I expect to be busy with this work fully three months, whereafter I will at once draw the map; this will take about 4-6 weeks, and thereafter turn over to the Board the original copy with copyright to publish the same.

Very respectfully,
J. O. FRIES CO., Surveyor.

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Fleeting For Hurried Readers

With the special examination of candidates for appointment this year to the United States military academy less than a month distant the war department is distressed over the absence of any applicants for forty vacancies in congressional and senatorial districts. In addition there are nearly 100 vacancies with no applicants in the class to enter in 1912.

An indemnity of 12,000,000 pesos, the equivalent of $6,000,000 gold, will be demanded of Mexico by the Chinese government for the slaughter of Chinese subjects in Torreon. The demand will be backed up by a cruiser which is already on the way to Mexican west coast ports.

Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon smasher, died at Leavenworth Kansas on last Saturday. Pareola was the cause of death. For several months Mrs. Carrie had been in poor health and on January 22, she entered the local sanitarium in which she died, hoping to recover from a nervous breakdown.

Four railroad presidents, two Interstate Commerce Commissioners, a former cabinet officer, bankers, manufacturer, college professors, lawyers and labor leaders to the number of two score will meet here on June 23, to frame a model law for uniform public utilities legislation throughout the States, according to an announcement made by Seth Low, president of the National Civil Federation. The committee will be known as the national committee on the regulation of railroads and public utilities.

Forty seven additional postal savings bank depositories in various parts of the country were opened for business today making a total of 176 to date. Fifty more banks will be inaugurated on June 27 and by the first of July it is expected that more than 300 will be in operation. The postmaster general still adheres to his policy of designating only second class postoffices believing that it is better to try the scheme "on the dog" so to speak, before tackling the big cities.

Sweeping out of the southwest with cyclonic velocity, a wind and hail and electrical storm struck the lower end of the Virginia peninsula Tuesday and left a trail of death and ruin in its wake. At this hour it is impossible to estimate the number of dead, for many small crafts with their human freight went down in the storm at various points along the James River and in Hampton Roads. Conservative estimates to-night place the dead at not more than 15. None of the bodies have been recovered and their identity is unknown.

The Houston Cotton Exchange will be opened to all business men tomorrow morning, regardless of whether or not they are members of the exchange, when the first bale of cotton produced this year will be auctioned at nine o'clock. The bale was grown at San Benito, Cameron county, by Ernest Matz, on a 100 acre farm leased from Alfonso Hicks. It was rushed into San Benito Saturday by automobile, glared and rushed to this city on a special train.

During the two weeks beginning Philadelphia will be the scene of what will probably be the greatest denominational demonstrations the world has ever known. Three great conventions of Baptists will attract representatives of the church from every country under the sun.

The United States navy soon will need a large number of sailors. Orders have been sent out by the Navy Department to begin recruiting at the new office in Chicago in July. Crews for the new battleships Utah and Florida and at the expiration soon of terms of enlistment of many sailors make it necessary for the navy recruiting officers to enlist all available competent men.

Spain and Italy can not teach the United States anything in the growing and handling of oranges, lemons and other citrus fruits. G. Harold Powell, until recently assistant chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, makes this assertion upon his return from Spain and Italy.

ADVERTISING CERTAINLY PAYS

Public Sale At Mettingers Had a Record Breaking Crowd

The Doubting Thomas who contends that advertising does not pay has been silenced since the crowd broke down the doors to Mettinger store last Wednesday and crowded the store all day on opening day and every day since. The first ten ladies and first 10 men in this store got a dress and hat free and when Manager Cole announced that the store was about to open the street was crowded and in the rush to get several were suffocated and were obliged to seek the open air to get their breath. Mettingers used printers ink unsparingly and the results have justified the wisdom of such a course. Advertising brought the crowd and the bargains held them and people from miles around came to Sanford this week to take advantage of the wonderful bargains offered. Dozens of clerks had been engaged to take care of the customers but the force was entirely inadequate to attend to the enormous crowd of buyers that thronged the store and on the first day many were turned away as enough clerks could not be secured. The sale will last for ten days and those who have not taken advantage of the sale should do so as never again will such a bunch of bargains be offered in this section. Mr. J. H. Cole the manager of this sale guaranteed that he would have the largest crowd at this sale that had ever congregated at one store in the city and he has made good his assertion. He is a hustler and a firm believer in the efficacy of printers ink which means that he knows how to attract the attention of the public.

Locomotive Engineers Memorial

Memorial Service for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers brought out a large audience at the Congregational Church Sunday afternoon. The sermon was under the auspices of the Sanford Division and about thirty engineers from outside of Sanford were with their families. Local engineers and their friends were also there in numbers. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers in memory of the departed engineers of this Division. From the pulpit hung the American flag. This is the first memorial service of the kind ever held in Sanford and the occasion will be long remembered by the congregation. Rev. George B. Waldron, pastor of the church was the speaker.

Sanford's New Directory

The new city directory recently compiled by Polk & Co. has been completed and was distributed among the business concerns this week. The new directory is a good one, giving a description of Sanford and the number of inhabitants, the rural routes and people living adjacent to the city. There is also tables and statistics and much information concerning Florida in general.

The new directory gives Sanford a population of 6,378 which is a much better figure than the incomplete census given by the enumerator.

The directory is a great help to the merchants and shows the thorough methods of Polk & Co.

The Orange County Fair

Seth Woodruff was re-elected president of the Orange County Fair Association at the annual meeting held in Orlando a few days ago. The organization is making great plans for the next fair and will have it far surpass all previous efforts. A splendid board of directors has been chosen and under the capable direction of the president and other officers the affairs of the association are certain to prosper. —Times-Union.

May Have State League

Tampa is again getting the base ball fever and there is talk of organizing a four-team Florida State League with Jacksonville, Tampa and Pensacola in it for a certainty and the fourth city yet to be selected. Ocala, which is a sporty and growing city, looks to be logical, as it would make the jumps from Tampa to Jacksonville and Pensacola and vice versa less like a flight across the continent. A low salary limit and the enforcement of the rule to make it stringent, would make it a paying proposition, but there is always present that disposition to cheat a little at horse trades and this would break up the league. —Tampa Times.

Many visitors from Leesburg took in the ball game on Tuesday.

THE FALL OF TROY

The Star Will Give Sanford People Fine Production

The Star Theatre will give a $30,000 production next Monday night in the great spectacular price, "The Fall of Troy". Two thousand armored Greeks appear in the scene. Following is the synopsis of this beautiful story:

Helen of Troy, as she is called, was the wife of the Greek king, Menelaus. Her father was Jove, the King of Gods, and her mother was a mortal woman. She was the most beautiful woman the world had ever seen. She was so beautiful that all the Greeks looked upon her as a national treasure.

Menelaus, the king, takes leave of his wife in the beautiful garden back of his palace and, mounting his two-wheeled chariot, drives away to pay a visit. We see him, in the next scene, driving through the beech-tree bordered lanes of Sparta. Then comes Paris, as an ambassador and Helen, the mistress of the house in the absence of her husband, receives him in the great marble hall. It is lined with fluted Doric columns and thronged with attendants, her own house servants and those who have followed Paris bearing rich gifts.

Paris is smitten by a shaft of love at first sight of beautiful Helen. In the garden she repulses him, but later, as the two stand together, on the lawn beside the palace, a lonely place bathed in silver moonlight, Venus, the Goddess of Love, appears. Venus favors Paris. Was it possible for a mortal woman, though she were wholly lovely, to hold out against the power of a goddess? Helen falls into Paris' arms and Venus throws her veil over them. She disappears. We catch a glimpse of them as they are wafted away to Troy in Venus' magic sea-shell chariot, accompanied by all the flying Loves.

Menelaus won't believe the news at first. We see him thunderstruck by it, as he sits feasting in another beautiful room. Home again, we see him gathering together the heroes of Greece who swear to revenge him.

By this time Paris had reached Troy with his beautiful paramour and we have a picture of a luxurious feast in a gorgeous palace of the Phrygian city. Paris brings Helen a golden cup of wine and they drink from it by turns. Then the Greek ships appear outside the harbor, a far glimpse of which can be seen from the palace. Helen looks out and sees her former friends and seems much disturbed.

Now follow some of the most remarkable scenes ever produced. One is an attack on the walls of a great city by an innumerable army. A movable tower is wheeled slowly up against the battlements and scaling ladders are brought, but great stones are hurled against the tower and down on the thick crowds of the besiegers. The Greeks lose too many men and have to retreat. Now they resort to strategy.

The next picture is magnificent. We see the great wooden horse on a hillside and Troy in the distance. The Greeks retreat and the rejoicing Trojans break a passage in the wall of their city and draw in the horse. They suppose it an offering to the gods. A Grecian spy takes the news to the hiding fleet. Night comes. The hiding heroes come from the horse and set the city in flames. The rest of the Greek army appears. Now, as the flames spread through the city, we catch glimpses of turmoil and confusion. Parties of inhabitants fleeing in terror, caught by Greeks and turning at bay only to be cut down.

Paris and Helen are asleep. They awake and throw open the casement. Troy, the glorious, is now a nest of flames. They rush into the palace. In its great columned hall they meet Menelaus and the Greeks. Menelaus kills Paris and has Helen led away. Now, looking back, we see a sad vision of a ruined city and its smouldering, red-hot walls.

Remember that the Star Theatre will give this magnificent production next Monday night. Don't fail to see this beautiful story of Homer.

Elks to Play Ball

For the benefit of the Hospital Association, Local ball fans and Elks are looking forward to the ball game which they have scheduled for June 27th between the Elks of Orlando and Sanford. This promises to be an event of unusual interest as the Elks do not do things by halves. The proceeds are to go to the Hospital Association. We expect to have the lineup next week.

"THE DEESTRICT SKULE"

Will be Given for Benefit of Sanford Library.

At the School Auditorium next Friday evening, a most entertaining and amusing play, will be given for the benefit of the Sanford Library.

A number of our public spirited citizens who are willing to do almost anything in their power to aid and promote the progress of this valuable adjunct to the pleasure, improvement and upbuilding of our community, have consented to enter as pupils for one brief term the celebrated "Deestrick School At Bluberry Corners." The summer term will be opened next Friday morning June 23rd at the High School Auditorium under the management of Hezekiah Pendergrass.

This entertainment will be for a most worthy cause as our Library is, or should be, close to the heart of each and every citizen, and every man, woman, girl and boy in Sanford and all the adjacent communities; should be present next Friday evening; to encourage by their patronage and good will, these friends who so willingly lend themselves to this effort to make fun for others and in behalf of the Library.

Let everybody come and enjoy with these grown up peoples the pleasure of renewing their dear old school days, and the novel sensation, of demanding that "Time" should win back ward in its flight and make each one of them a child again, just for that night.

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of "The Land of Flowers."

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The party of home-seekers that reached Jacksonville Thursday came at the time when they will be able to learn for themselves things that they ought to know. The winter climate of Florida is well known and one coming here in the winter season would learn nothing about the climate of the state. The summer climate, however, has been misunderstood and any man, thinking of coming here to live should visit the state in summer and decide for himself whether he can live here in comfort the year around.

Before the time comes when it will be needed, a new packing house will be erected by the Manatee Citrus Growers' Association. The packing house will be large and modernly equipped for the careful and expeditious handling of oranges and grapefruit. It will be located near the Seaboard Air Line tracks and a choice of routes will be accorded shippers. The site for the new packing house was furnished by the railroad.

Lee county puts the county on notice that it will have a big Fair next February, which will give its industries and resources the widest possible publicity. The enterprise is in the hands of energetic citizens and if it is not a success it will not be for lack of the right sort of effort. The Lee county exhibits at the State Fairs held at Tampa, on account of their semitropical character and luxuriance, attracted much attention and a fair devoted to these products would be a great drawing card.

Who Was It?

A resident of Sanford went over to Daytona Beach in his automobile to spend a few days. While bowling along the beach on a spin, the machine ran into a soft place in the sand and stuck. The chauffeur got out to "crank her over" but the machine was stuck so fast that it could not be budged. A pair of mules were sent for and by the time they reached the scene the tide had begun to come in and the sand got softer and the machine gradually settled. The pair of mules were unable to budge the burden and four more mules were sent for. These were hitched to the machine with two automobiles, but by this time the machine was four feet deep in sand and water and the work of rescue had to be given up until the tide went out. This was done and when the machine was finally hauled out of the sand, every part was filled with grit, the salt water had damaged the paint and fittings, the general appearance of the new pleasure vehicle being all but handsome. —Times-Union Cor.

Scout Car Arrives

Ernest Metcalf of the Jacksonville Metropolitan, J. F. Phillips of the Jacksonville Board of Trade and Gus Walker the well known auto driver arrived in the city on Tuesday on their pathfinding trip. These gentlemen are looking out a suitable continuation of the National highway, over which a tour inaugurated by the Jacksonville Board of Trade, will be made by twenty-five to thirty cars of representative citizens of the metropolis, the party leaving that city on the morning of June 20th, arriving in Sanford at noon on June 21st, when an open air meeting will be arranged at the band stand. The gentlemen were taken over the city by W. D. Holden and given all the information possible regarding the different routes. To a Herald man they stated that Orange county had the best stretch of good roads in the state and when our drawbridge is finished there will be nothing lacking in a good highway from Orlando to the East Coast via Sanford. The people of Sanford should give the visitors a rousing welcome on June 21st and show them our sentiments on good roads.

A Child is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em'— So Says Saunterer.

Special Correspondence in The Herald.

Now is the time to keep your lawn sprinkled and clipped and made beautiful. I understand the Welaka Club has offered a prize for the best kept lawn and from present appearances the task of the committee will be a difficult one for Sanford is waking up and the yards are improving. Keep it up! There is nothing so nice as the fine homes and well kept yards.

In the fight against the deadly house fly the public should understand the odds against which it contends to rid cities of this pest and the vigilance necessary to obtain a modicum of safety where the insects exist.

Each female fly lays 120 eggs, which hatch in eight hours. Ten days later the new generation is in flight, carrying on the work of death. It is estimated that the progeny of a single pair in one season is one sextillion, or, in figures 1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000.

Manure, garbage, and other filth are breeding spots of flies. The department of agriculture in its experiments has found larvae and puparia enough in a pound of horse manure to produce 1,200 house flies. A single ill kept stable will supply house flies for a large territory.

There is hope of greatly lessening the pest in cities if the authorities will enforce good ordinances on the subject of removing manure and garbage promptly. The increase in automobiles and auto trucks has already aided in exterminating flies. Horse owners can help the crusade by mixing chloride of lime with the ratio of a quarter of a pound of the former to eight quarts of the latter. A still cheaper and more effective destroyer of the larvae is kerosene, a pint of which sprayed upon every eight quarts of manure will kill the maggots.

So far as the dwelling house is concerned there are a number of effective ways of destroying the flies. Carbolic acid is one. Twenty drops of this on a heated shovel or anything of the kind will kill the insects by its vapor. But as this is a dangerous thing to have in the house where young children are, it would be better to get something harmless and yet effective.

Buy one dram of dichromate of potassium at a drug store. Dissolve it in two quarts of water, add a little sugar and place the mixture in shallow dishes about the house.

Another good remedy is for maedhyde. A spoonful of this in a quart of a pint of water will kill all the flies. As this is a poison, it must be placed where children cannot reach it.

When a room is full of flies they may all be instantly destroyed by the use of pyrethrum powder. Close the doors and windows and pull down the shades except one, which leave up about a foot. Take into the room a tablespoonful of the powder on a hot shovel. The fumes will drive the flies in their death struggle toward the foot of light at the window. They will fall dead and may be easily swept out.

Lastly, there are various kinds of sticky fly paper, traps, etc. The papers should be burned when they have done their work.

Don't dine at a hotel, boarding house or restaurant where flies are tolerated.

Don't allow flies in your house.

Don't permit them near your food especially milk.

Don't buy food where flies are permitted.

Don't allow them in a sickroom.

Don't let them crawl over the baby or the nipple of its nursing bottle.

Screen every window and door of your house and keep the screens on until you start up your furnace.

Have separate screen covers for food which must be exposed in pantry or kitchen.

Let Cleanliness, and Cleanliness, and yet more Cleanliness be your motto all summer long.

Several citizens have spoken to me about that home insurance company plan and many of the prominent merchants have signified their intention of forming a home society if the insurance rates are not lowered. The new fire truck is a fine buzz wagon and looks good as it dashes down the street but the city council shows poor judgment to buy such an expensive wagon if the insurance rate is allowed to remain as it is now. I understand that the insurance companies take $50,000 a year in business out of Sanford and this amount has not been destroyed by fire in this city in ten years. Regarding one of what the insurance agents may think. I wish to state that the business men of Sanford are being robbed along this line and that if the rates are not lowered a home insurance plan will solve the question. The insurance companies even state that a concrete building is not fire proof and in a year or two a brick building will not be fire proof and if we sit calmly down and let them ride us there will be no limit to the toll exacted. The merchants of Sanford have offered to give liberally to a fire department in order that the rate on insurance could be cut in two. Now I claim that if no other plan prevails the merchants can form their own fire department for much less money than they spend annually on fire insurance. Between the different mill-stones it looks like the Sanford-business man is bound to be ground to death unless he forms a mutual benefit association for his own protection.

The city council is taking steps to force property owners to cut the grass and weeds on their property. Our streets at present are not very inviting. Take Magnolia for instance from First street to Third street and the weeds are very unsightly to the eye of the stranger. It seems that heretofore the city council could not force the issue but now all this will be changed and our streets will be cleaned within the next few weeks. Our streets are too pretty to be allowed to grow up in weeds and every bit of work done on them will add to the appearance. Where Nature has done so much man ought to assist just a little.

Now that Sanford Heights has been forced into the city and properly set upon it is none too early for Sanford to begin putting in a water works system, gas, electric lights, good streets and other improvements. The council was very profuse in offers of aid and assistance a few months ago and it is up to them to make good. Those people out there are entitled to water at once and ought to have fire protection now. The assertion was made by the residents of Sanford Heights that they could not expect any improvements and the city should show them the error of their ways by making these improvements at once.

Some Observations On Florida Lands

DO Not come to Florida if you have not made up your mind to stay, to stick at it, to achieve something. The temporary pioneer is not desirable. There is nothing so damaging to this splendid section, and to Florida in general, as the reports of the merely tentative settlers who come here in the expectation of making a large fortune within a year, and, failing, return to their old homes depleted in purse, disgusted with the soil and the unaccustomed methods necessary to secure crops, with the climate,—disgusted with everything, in fact,—and who use all their eloquence to dissuade others from investing or undertaking to establish their homes here.

There is Always a Reason for a Man's Failure. Before you are influenced by what a returning settler says about Florida, investigate why he failed to make good.

We do not encourage the tentative settler. It is not the kind of pioneering that benefits us or our section. It never promotes the best interests and progress of any country and never will in Florida.

Don't expect to get rich quick here in a day or two. Dollars do not grow on trees; and do not come here without money. The more accustomed you have been in making a dollar go a long way, the easier will be your first months on Volusia Farms.

Volusia Farms needs sturdy men and women, mentally and physically able to conduct farming as it is done here under Florida's sunny skies. Volusia Farms needs the permanent settler with small capital, large determination and who will not beat a retreat at the first disappointment. To such people Volusia Farms offers opportunities practically without limit.

WE Have never advocated the purchase of any of our lands sight unseen. While we have sold hundreds of acres to people who never saw the land before purchasing and have always given satisfaction, yet we prefer not to sell an acre without the purchaser personally makes a selection. The excursions running to Sanford from northern and central western states every first and third Tuesday of every month during the summer, afford every facility for coming to Sanford and Volusia Farms and making personal selection of a tract of this rich agricultural land.

See What You are Buying. Come here and investigate, what we are offering you. Talk with the many people we have been instrumental in bringing here from all over the United States. The larger the number of people we can induce to come here on a tour of inspection, the more quickly we shall close out our Volusia Farms, for the closer you know this tract the better it becomes.

HAS It ever occurred to you that there must be some sound fundamental reasons for Florida lands to be priced so low compared with lands in the north and west and even in the deserts where irrigation companies plan to supply water AT A PRICE!

The principal reason is, I take it, that Florida is only just beginning to come into her own. For many, many years she has been neglected. Development has just about begun, and developing a State as large as Florida, whose shore line is long enough to extend from Jacksonville to Boston, takes time. It takes people, too, and money. Development could not take place were our lands priced on a basis of their earning capacity to start with, but that time is coming. In the development of any country there must be inducements for people to come in and cultivate the soil.

Florida's Inducement to You Today is the Low Price of Her Good Lands

The development of the past three years has been wonderful. Immense wealth has been taken from the soil—TAKEN, mind you, not WRESTED. As you wrest with the hard, heavy soils up north—and now the natural tendency and the natural law of supply and demand is toward higher prices for these income bearing lands.

For years lands were almost given away simply because the Floridian HAD NO IDEA OF THEIR PRODUCING POSSIBILITIES; diversified farming was unknown. Witness now, the transformation of a few years. Even the day of twenty dollars an acre land has passed, and the time of thirty dollars an acre land is passing everywhere. If I am any judge of the Florida land situation and the purchase of large tracts consummated during this Spring are any criterion of coming events, I believe the coming fall and winter will see Florida lands retailing for $50 an acre and upward according to locality and transportation.

Volusia Farms is worth every cent of $50 an acre today and those who invest in the development stage are the people who will make the best turn-over. We have sold quite a large number of farms and the territory is opening up in an immensely satisfactory way to our settlers and to us.

S EVERAL times in these columns I have spoken of the apparent hindering of the development of Florida by the large financial interests, and the reasons why the Howard-Packard lands are good investments. I have just been reading an article in "Moody's Magazine" (a financial authority) relative to the large earnings of banks and trust companies who hoodwink the small depositor by ever saying 4 per cent is the utmost dividend to be expected consistent with safety.

In the face of this legend, the banks themselves are declaring dividends as high as 40 per cent made with YOUR money. Compilation of the profits of sixty-seven banks in the borough of Manhattan, New York city, after showing earnings of 17.19 per cent, declared dividends of 10.33 per cent. The dividends of the Liberty National amounted to 25 per cent for the year, the Chase National 20 per cent., the First National 40 per cent., the Mercantile Trust Company 25 per cent, and so on, these figures being for the fiscal year ending last June, according to Moody's.

Unquestionably to influence a depositor not to draw from the savings bank for wild speculation is sound advice—very sound and commendable advice, but an investment in Volusia Farms at present price is NOT a speculation. Not one of the tracts of land offered by this Company has ever been a speculation. The VALUE was there in the beginning and higher value is there today. There has been more speculation in the stocks of the Northern Pacific and other railroads by the financiers than there ever can be with our lands, because our lands and prices are RIGHT. Our methods of doing business are RIGHT. We invite the strictest investigation of ourselves and of our lands. Our business has a better non-speculative foundation than thousands of business you yourself could mention.

Investigate for yourself the advisability of your Volusia farm investment remembering that good real estate in an advancing country is the basis of wealth.

The several services at the Baptist church closed last Saturday. The pastor, Rev. E. Lee Smith, was assisted by Rev. B. T. Green of Grandin, Fla. earnestness of this young man was deep and sincere. He recently graduated from Columbia college, is pastor at New Smyrna and yet finds time to do much good work at other places. Mr. Green will enter the theological seminary at Louisville, Ky., in September and with his descriptive powers and oratory ability we predict a bright future for him.

On last Thursday Geneva was saddened by the death of one of her best citizens, Mr. H. B. Coffee. Tho having been in feeble health for some time his friends little thought the end was so near. Being of a genial, retiring disposition, one would hardly know his true value unless intimate with him. For many years he has lived near Geneva on his farm. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church, was ever kind and true; such men will be missed. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hendry of Sanford and Rev. Brook of Oviedo. He left a wife and four children, three sons and a daughter, to whom the sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Governor Vetoes Liquor Bills

Governor Gilchrist vetoed three liquor bills and approved two. The veto axe fell upon the bill prohibiting screens, partitions, tables, chairs and music in saloons, on account of defective title, the word "chairs" having been omitted therefrom, and because it would be unreasonable to require hotels and restaurants to have no chairs or tables; upon the bill requiring saloons to close at 9 o'clock, on account of defective title, the words "barter, exchange and give away", being omitted therefrom, and because of its unreasonableness, the act seeking to go even so far as to prevent the giving away of wine in communion; and upon the act prohibiting the soliciting of orders in dry territory on the ground of a discrimination against newspapers, to the extent that they would be denied all liquor advertisements.

The governor approved the bill requiring county solicitors and states attorneys to secure copies of revenue licenses and to proceed against the holders thereof where they have no license; also the bill relating to wet and dry elections.

Medal For Frank Pounds
 According to the Orlando Reporter-Star of a few days ago, Frank Pounds, a prominent young man of that city, deserves a medal for bravery and mention for performing a good deed. It seems that a woman, more interested perhaps in bargains than in babies, left her young child in a buggy, the horse standing unhitched. Something frightened the animal and he started off—home, perhaps, but at a gait that threatened the 2-year-old occupant of the vehicle with destruction. Mr. Pounds was coming along in his automobile, and swinging into pursuit, overtook the runaway, jumped from car to buggy, and gathering up the lines, checked the horse and returned team and baby to the then distracted mother. It was a pretty good trick and Mr. Pounds certainly deserved the enthusiastic thanks of the parent and the applause of those who witnessed the act.—Times-Union.

TALKING OF SANFORD

Mrs. Barbour Writes Entertainingly on Celery Delta

OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE PEOPLE

Sanford and Vicinity Offer Great Inducements to the Prospective Home-seekers

The following article by Mrs. M. L. Barber in the Florida Review is reproduced for the Herald:

Sanford is situated on the shores of Lake Monroe, which is only a widening of the St. Johns river. There is a beauty spot in the way of a park facing the water, and here the stately palmettos stand like sentinels on guard and the live oaks offer cooling shade and the seats invite the stranger to rest and enjoy the invigorating breeze which always prevails.

There are four docks built well into the water, and the steamers "City of Jacksonville" and "Frederick DeBary" make the trip alternately from Jacksonville.

The Sanford Hotel occupies a conspicuous place and adds much to the beauty of the city, as well as to the comfort of the traveling public.

The business houses are mostly of brick and cement, substantial, fresh, clean, sanitary and an air of thrift prevailing.

The schools, churches and library show that the mental and moral features have not been neglected.

A glance at the stocks carried by the merchants assures us that they cater to refinement. Did it ever occur to you to judge a community by its merchant? Go where you see a predominance of third and fourth rate dealers, displaying junk goods, and doing a fine business you may know that they are selling to third rate customers, who have not reached the stage of prosperity sufficient to buy first class goods.

Sanford has some fine stores, both grocery and dry goods, and we feel safe in asserting that they are serving a class who are refined, and are being educated in culture.

Centrally located is a beautiful park, well kept, with pavilion to accommodate the music loving public. A well organized band discourses sweet music and adds to the social features of the town.

It was discovered what could be done by intensive farming, and the facts were recorded, and the secretary of the Commercial Club spared no expense in putting out a special edition, which fringed all these facts in gold and illuminated the punctuation marks with forty candle power. It is a gem of literature and a rare collection of photography. The facts are there—they cannot be denied, and there are no extra charges for the opinions, the sealings around the edges, and the big white satin bow tied on the stems.

Results—This brought people to Sanford who had never heard of it before. Investors, who were long headed enough to manage their celery farms on a paying basis, and who had sufficient means to carry them through, if their first or even their second effort failed; but along the side of him, and on both sides of him came the struggling farmer, who fancied that the only reason he had struggled all his life was for lack of some golden opportunity, some mystic wand to wave—and presto—he awakes some morning to find himself rich.

He sees in this invitation the magic wand; he spends his last dollar to get here, or at least to start his first crop; a failure or two don't count to the man who has the surplus, but to the man on his uppers it spells nothing short of disaster.

Besides the celery farms there are fisheries and the car shops, employing a good many, also a fine fertilizer factory, a good size plant.

The Belt Line, operated by traction cars, makes a sixteen mile circuit to Cameron City, Mocco, Palm, Beck Hammock, which passes through some of the richest celery farms of the community.

The lovers of this delectable relish, who have never known anything but to pay fifteen cents, or two for a quarter, will be delighted at the sight of acres and acres of celery, such a delicate green, boxed up in its bleaching process.

The seeds are sown in the hotbeds and transplanted to the fields at the proper time, and allowed to grow to full maturity. The bleaching takes about ten days, it being done by placing boards on both sides, allowing the tops to continue to grow.

Orange county seems to be over a vast reservoir of sulphur water, so that all that is needed is to perforate the ground and you have artesian water, which is the power problem of irrigation, and irrigation is king in the celery industry.

The Sanford system of irrigation is distinctive and unique, it originated there. The well is placed upon the highest part of the farm and the piping carries the water to all parts, it flowing by natural gravitation. They control the surplus water so as to carry off the heavy rains and assure the farm of just the amount needed.

To condense our impressions and opinions of Sanford, we would say to the homeseeker that the natural advantages offered, for all makes life a pleasure, are way above the average town, and the social and commercial side will afford all that makes life desirable.

What with the climate where your house is a convenience, not a necessity, with soil that is productive under all conditions and with the questions of droughts and floods under full control, is not the problem of living solved with the ceaseless struggle eliminated?

What with eight hours of sleep, you can use the remaining eight hours to absorb more of the pleasures of this world than many other places we have seen.

The writer was taken over most of the celery delta in a big touring car, and it was certainly a sight well worth describing. It is easy to tell a story as one has gleaned facts from reading what others saw, but as no two people see things alike, impressions play an important part.

The genial chauffeur had facts and figures, names and dates spinning right off the reel, but as these details do not concern our story at this time and place, we will not repeat them, sufficient to say that it makes one's head reel with figures to listen to the celery story in its short life.

It reminded me of the spindle-top days in Beaumont, Texas, and might well be called the Klondyke of Florida.

Eat Tomatoes

If all understood the value of the tomato, and the comparative ease with which it may be grown, no garden would be without, and every family would eat them three times a day from early June till frost. Their acids and mineral salts are valuable, especially in warm climates. A cool, crisp, fresh tomato eaten for breakfast all through the summer, is both an appetizer and corrective that helps to keep the system in order, thereby maintaining health, saving suffering and doctor's bills.—Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW

AS TOLD TO
Hugh S. Fullerton

BY JAKE DAUBERT.

First Baseman Brooklyn National League Club, and Regarded as the Sensational Baseball Discovery of the Last Two Seasons.

It seems to me that the great plays that are made in baseball are the ones that come in the critical instants. The players rise to the occasion in the climax of games, or of series, and perform feats that under ordinary circumstances they could not do at all. I have seen men, when keyed up to the highest pitch, do things that would be impossible ordinarily—and I think the greatest was a play by which McElveen, who now is playing with me on the Brooklyn club, won the pennant in the Southern league for Nashville, where we also played together.

The play was made on the last day of the season of 1908. We had been fighting with New Orleans for the pennant, and the race still was undecided on the last day. There was one game to settle the whole year's results.

The score was tied up in the seventh inning and New Orleans was hitting, and it looked as if they certainly would count. McElveen was playing third base, and I don't think I ever saw a man play as hard and as desperately to save the game as he did that day. In the seventh inning New Orleans got a man on second base, with no one out, and the batter, instead of bunting, took a swing at the ball, hit it on top and rolled it down the third base line slower than if he had bunted it purposely. It looked as if the game was going away right there, but McElveen came sprinting forward as fast as he could run, scooped the ball with one hand and swung as if he was going to throw to first base. There wasn't a chance for him to catch the runner at first base; he was fast, and the hit was so slow it could not be handled unless the baseman had been waiting for it. The runner had come from second at top speed, and was turning third when he saw Mac's arm swing as if to throw to first. It looked as if he could walk home on the throw before I could catch the ball and heave it back to the plate, so he turned third and sprinted for home with the run that seemed to give New Orleans the pennant.

Instead of throwing, Mac swung his arm to the full limit and hung to the ball. He made the play so realistic that I was fooled and was on top of first expecting to catch the ball, when I saw what had happened. The runner was half way home when he discovered Mac hadn't thrown the ball at all and that he was trapped. McElveen ran him up near to the plate, tossed the ball to the catcher, who touched the runner out, and shot down to second, driving the other runner back to first, and they failed to score. The play won the championship for Nashville, as we scored in the next inning, and beat them out of the game.

SANFORD, FLA.

Remarkable Success

The famous Specialists who will be here on above date are having most remarkable success. This is the third visit the Doctors have made. Each time they seem to be busier than on the previous date. This can only be due to their marvelous success. They select the cases they accept for treatment. They do not care to devote their time to the incurable diseases.

If you call upon them they will examine you carefully. If they find your disease to be a curable one, they will tell you the exact cost and probable length of time required to effect a cure. Should you be so unfortunate as to be suffering from a hopeless disease they will be frank with you and tell you so.

They make no charge for consultation and examination.

We Never Use the Knife

The chief Consulting Physician is eminently successful in Chronic Diseases; as is proved by the many cures effected in chronic cases which had baffled the skill of all other physicians.

His hospital experience and extensive practice has made him so proficient that he will pay $50 forfeit for any case that he cannot name and locate the disease in five minutes.

No matter what your trouble may be, we would suggest that you call upon the United Specialist and have a friendly talk with them, as their opinion in your case might be the reason of saving you a great deal of suffering. Hundreds of people have found health and happiness in taking their treatment, and so can you.

Hundreds of ladies have been cured and saved from surgical operations by the United Specialists.

Men by the scores have been cured after trying worthless remedies and appliances.

SANFORD FLORIDA

Sweet Potatoes

(By C. K. McQuarris of the Experimental Station)
The sweet is in evidence in small patches everywhere in the State. Considering its importance on the farm, one feels surprised that it is not grown on a much larger scale than it is. It is certainly one of the most profitable of the farm crops that we have, and is suitable to all sections of Florida.

Land on which has been grown a winter or spring crop of small grains (such as oats or rye), or a truck crop (such as beans, cucumbers, or melons), can be utilized to good advantage by growing a sweet potato crop, if the proper methods are practiced in the necessary preparation of the soil.

The disk plow will give the most satisfactory results, as it pulverizes and mixes the top and bottom soils, so that the air so necessary for the best crop production may diffuse into the soil. Following a disk, we want a heavy two-horse plow, taking care to plow all the residue of the previous crop completely under, and using a disk harrow to finish the pulverization of the soil that a turning plow cannot well do. It is advisable to do this preparatory breaking as early as possible, plowing from six to ten inches deep, and after every rain run a weeder or harrow over the plowed land to make a dust mulch to prevent evaporation of the moisture. Sweet potatoes yield best planted on beds about four feet wide from center to center, the size of the bed depending on the kind of land. On flat lands, where drainage is deficient in rainy weather, very high beds should be made (say about three feet vertical height between the top and base of the bed), so as to ensure the crop having its roots above water-level in wet weather. On high lands, where the drainage is good, large rounded-top beds should be made, not exceeding fifteen inches in height between crown and base of bed.

This is a crop on which all available lot and stable manure can be used to good advantage, either by applying in the furrow and bedding over it, or by broadcasting and mixing well the soil when bedding. Following a sufficient supply of any of this, an application of from six to eight hundred pounds per acre of a commercial fertilizer (analyzing about 3 per cent ammonia, 7 per cent phosphoric acid, and 8 per cent potash) should be applied broadcast at bedding time so as to get it completely mixed with the soil. In sections of the state where plenty of cattle are available for the purpose, what is known as "cowpenning" is done successfully.

Draws or slips do not produce so good a crop as vine cutting. Therefore, we want to plant just enough draws early in April to ensure a full supply of vines for the main planting in June when the rainy season sets in. No more beds than we have vines ready for, should be made up at any one time. Vines should be cut in about twelve-inch lengths, and the ends inserted in the top of the bed by means of a lath to a depth of about four inches, at fifteen inches apart. Some extensive growers prefer to cut vines twenty inches long, place lath at middle of vine and push into the soil.

After a rain is a good time to plant; but if the vines are ready and the soil has been properly prepared, there will be enough moisture in the soil at any time to ensure a good stand on freshly made beds, as the packing back of the loose soil will cause the vines to take root right away. A single watering may be necessary in very dry weather in the driest years.

Woman's Champion

Nashville golfers rejoiced greatly last night at the telegram announcing that Mrs. Roger Smith of Nashville had won yesterday afternoon in Atlanta the Woman's Southern Golf Championship. She had won all former matches, and the finals were played yesterday afternoon.

This was the first Woman's Southern Golf Tournament, and it was indeed a great honor for the Nashville golfer to carry off first honors, from many contestants, many more experienced.

The fact that it was the first tournament in which Mrs. Smith had ever played, added to her triumph, and the steadiness and brilliance of her playing elicited many admiring comments.

The cup is a foot high, of massive silver, of chaste and beautiful design and it has two handles. Mrs. Smith will take it out to the local Golf and County Club this afternoon so that it can be exhibited at the dinner dance this evening—Nashville Banner.

Mrs. Roger Smith is the niece of our fellow townsman, Capt. A. H. Crippen, and was here visiting her Uncle and family a few years ago.

Moonlight Lawn Party.

It was left to Mrs. Dr. Davis Forster to think of the original and unique idea of having a lawn party by moonlight and taking advantage of the brilliant and beautiful moonlight prevailing Mrs. Forster invited a number of her friends to meet at her home on Myrtle avenue last Saturday evening. The rufulence of the moon was enhanced by the Japanese lanterns hanging everywhere and the guests were escorted to seats upon the lawn where the ladies indulged in conversation and the men were allowed to indulge in cigars—a blessing seldom given at the formal affairs—Dr. and Mrs. Forster seemed to appreciate the fact that the men expected to enjoy this affair and did everything in their power to make the poor men comfortable. The ladies of course were at ease for receptions and parties are as the breath of life to the gentler sex. After several hours spent in pleasant conversation the guests were served with delicious punch, ice cream and cake. The affair was most delightful and informal and the idea could be used to advantage by those contemplating receptions and social affairs during the summer and especially where the men are expected to attend. The guests are indebted to Dr. and Mrs. Forster for one of the nicest and most enjoyable affairs of the mid-summer season.

Those present were Mrs. Anno, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Brady, Russel Brady, O. L. Chase, Mrs. H. P. Driver, Mrs. DeForrest, Norman DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. Fernald, Mr. and Mrs. Holly, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Forest Lake, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keely, Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Milteer, Mr. and Mrs. E. VanDeventer Smith, Mrs. F. A. Schumpert, Miss Bessie Schumpert.

At Mrs. Chase's Thursday afternoon, at her hospitable home Mrs. S. O. Chase entertained most delightfully at bridge, in honor of her two guests, Miss C. W. Goodrich of Orlando and Miss Hallie Brown of New York. Apropos of the warm weather the pretty affair was a fan party, the invitations being on tiny fans, and the tally card were attached to lovely little souvenir fans. The color-scheme was yellow and was prettily carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The spacious rooms were made very pretty with quantities of cut flowers, sunflowers and "yellow balls" a wild flower, being used in profusion. Top score was made by Mrs. Cruse Barnes to whom was awarded the prize, a lovely gauze fan. Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin captured the consolation prize, which was a gold pin. The one making the lowest score was awarded a palm leaf fan, ornamented with a bow of yellow ribbon.

Delicious refreshments were served on the card tables.

Sanford society contingent has enjoyed some beautiful bridge parties of late, none of which have been more enjoyable than that given by Mrs. G. H. Fernald Friday afternoon at her elegant home on Oak Ave. The spacious, lovely room furnished an ideal place for entertaining and the guests so fortunate to be invited thoroughly enjoyed the pretty affair. A spirited game of bridge was played. Top score was made by Mrs. Forrest Lake, to whom was awarded the prize, a very pretty vase and to Mrs. Homrighous was awarded the prize for making the lowest score. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Frank L. Miller entertained the Ladies Auxillary of the Presbyterian church last Monday afternoon, which was a very delightful occasion for the ladies who attended.

Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin entertained the Magnolia Bridge Club, charmingly, on Wednesday afternoon. Delicious fruit punch was served during the pleasant game. Highest score was made by Mrs. O. W. Brady, who is now wearing the pretty club pin.

Friday afternoon, little Miss Martha Driver celebrated her eight birthday with a very pretty party. The little guests were entertained at the moving picture show after which they repaired to the Sanford House grounds where refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the pleasant afternoon were Sereta Lake, Maud Lake, Elizabeth Puleston, Olive Newman, Margaret Neal, Sara Wight, Margaret Yancey, Davis Forster, Martha Chappell, Carroll Smith, Bettie Holst, Bernice Clark and Billie Holden.

Wooden wedding

Dr and Mrs T. A. Neal entertained a large number of their friends on Monday evening in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. It was their wooden wedding and celebrated in proper style. The number of gifts with which this popular couple were showered attested to their popularity. Their friends wish them many more anniversaries.

The W. C. T. U. of this place held a most interesting meeting at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Waldron led the opening service after which the president, Mrs. W. J. Wildman proceeded with the meeting. "Parity of Literature in our Homes," was the subject for the afternoon and there was an interesting open discussion in regard to the importance of giving children the proper instructions in the vital question of life. This is the closing meeting of the W. C. T. U. for the summer, but the work will be carried on in other ways. Arrangements have been made by a committee to have some one tell stories for the children every Saturday afternoon at the Park. Mrs. R. Homrighous will entertain the children next Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with some very interesting stories.

Seized Some Liquor

The largest seizure of liquor yet recorded in this section was made at Hendersonville, when the police raided a store room on the main business thoroughfare and seized 10,000 gallons of liquor. The alleged proprietor of the place, O. N. Carson, was arrested and placed under bond to appear in the mayor's court Friday morning. Carson, it is said, is but the agent for the real owners of the "wet goods."

Railroad Again.

Dear Editor:

Could you prevail on the Railroad Company to furnish tired pedestrians who have to cross at Second and Third streets, with some sort of bench or seat to rest on, while waiting for their long freight train to pull out, as we are kept waiting for over half an hour especially at night, and it seems longer standing up.

SANFORD BALL SEASON OPENED

Enthusiastic Fans Will Have Some Good Baseball

Manager Spencer took a large load upon his shoulders when he assumed the responsibility of giving Sanford a good ball team. The new men are coming in and ere another week the game will be in full swing. Lack of space forbids a detailed report of the game with Leesburg last Tuesday. The game was rather slow and neither side exhibited much snap and go. The playing was ragged in spots and did not exhibit any spectacular pieces. Bagwell tried the heaving for Sanford but retired at the end of the first inning, not being in condition. Biddy Gore finished the game in very good form although he was batted freely, Doc Stout was our back stop and while stopping several bad ones with his body, managed to stay in the game and did good work.

Doc Stout kept the crowd in good humor

The game was played well by the visitors but really they were not in our class, and our boys toyed with them in a manner that made the game extremely slow. Yesterday the boys played Orlando and today Orlando plays here. Accounts of the games will be given in next week's issue.

It begins to look like Sanford will be obliged to entertain the visitors on the

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

(The General News of "The Land of Flowers.")

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

On of the best evidences of the progress and prosperity of Florida is that the federal government has granted an increase of salary, based on increase in business, to the postoffices at thirty-five Florida cities and towns and has raised two others from the fourth to the presidential class. And the development of Florida is yet in its infancy.

Sweet potatoes are selling at $1 to $1.50 a bushel, and the Florida Experimental Station says we can raise 625 bushels to the acre.

H. D. Wood of Evinston shipped 125 cars of the Tom Watson variety of water-melons. He had some melons in the lot which weighed as much as 100 pounds.

Wm. Richman of Bradentown, made the second crop of celery from the same land in one season. The crop brought $4 per crate and gross receipts were $1,329, with net receipts $986.

The Manatee Citrus Growers Association has elected Joe Gates as President. The location for a packing house has been secured and operations for the building will soon commence.

Miami shipped this season 702,290 packages of vegetables, worth $864,750; 1,552 cars of citrus fruits, 3000 crates of pineapples and 103 cars of other fruits. The soil yielded to the Miami section over $1,000,000.

Those in Florida interested in encyclopaedia can get further information by writing to U. S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, Washington, D. C., and ask for bulletin 87, devoted to "Eucalyptus in Florida."

Crescent City shipped about 5,000 crates of peaches. The peach industry is becoming larger each year in this state. The local consumption is much larger than the amount shipped as most of the articles will not stand packing.

With the intention of colonizing the lands with German and Hungarian farmers, known over the entire world for their thriftiness and scientific farming methods, Sigmund Leiser, representing an immense Hungarian syndicate, has purchased about 60,000 acres of fine land in Duval and St. Johns counties and will at once begin his colonization work in Germany and Hungary. The deal is the largest of the kind ever consummated in this section of the State, and means much to Jacksonville.

In the most unique and humorous political document ever issued in this state, Representative Harry B. Floyd of Apalachicola today set forth his platform and announced his candidacy for congress. He says: "I enter the race as an attorney representing a special interest, namely, and Ten Commandments." As to Griggs, Kehoe, Parkhill, Hayes and Lewis, who also are candidates, he says: "Bak! They could not meet me in debate, for it would be like Caruso singing against a frog."

Rev. Eugene Pendleton, pastor of the First Baptist church, yesterday preached upon Sunday baseball and the defeat of the library proposition at the recent election. He severely criticized the Pensacola Journal for declaring, he alleged, editorially, that Sunday baseball and band concerts are more needed in Pensacola and now than a public library. He also paid his respects to the legislature for passing acts without the knowledge of the general public.

William Richman of Bradentown made the second crop of celery from the same land in one season. The crop brought $4 per crate and gross receipts were $1,329, with net receipts $986.

Rabun-Badger

On Tuesday, June 20th, at noon at the home of Mr. D. H. C. Rabun, out First street, a quiet but pretty marriage took place, when Miss Lillie M. Rabun bride of Mr. John G. Badger. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends by Rev. J. W. Wildman. After an enjoyable repast the happy pair took the train for Tampa, their future home. Mr. Badger is connected with the Atlantic Coast Line Railway.

GOOD ROADS BOOSTERS

SANFORD FAVORS GOOD ROADS

Party Had a Hard Struggle to Escape the Tentacles of Volusia County Mud at the Ferry

The Good Roads Around the State Tour from Jacksonville arrived in Sanford Wednesday about four o'clock after a strenuous pull over the new road being constructed by Volusia county near the Osteen Ferry. The party left DeLand at one o'clock and had a good run until they struck the road being built near the ferry, where the cars bogged down to the hubs, and had it not been for the assistance of the road gang sent over by Commissioner Woodruff and Mr. A. T. Rosetter and others who assisted the good roads enthusiasts would have been there yet and sinking fast. About twenty-five cars of Sanford people journeyed to the ferry to meet the travellers and as soon as a new car arrived they were given the glad hand by Mayor Lake and Aldermen Thrasher and Holden and many prominent citizens and made to feel at home. When the last car was over the procession started to the city, and at Witherington's store the new auto fire truck joined the procession and the long line of autos wended its way to the Sanford House, where a Dutch luncheon was served to the visitors and Manager Driver made them comfortable as only he knows how. After a pleasant hour spent here the party was shown over the city and left at five o'clock for Orlando.

Those in the party were:

Mrs. M. A. Petsch

Mrs. Maude A. Petsch died last Sunday after a short illness. Mrs. Petsch was given the alternative undergoing an operation to save her life but the disease had gone too far and the skill of the surgeons could not prevail. Born in Halton, Kansas, Maude Messenger moved to Sanford with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Messenger and passed her early girlhood here where she married Mr. Petsch and afterward removed to Tampa to make her home.

Stricken with a serious illness Mrs. Petsch wished to be home where she could receive the watchful and tender care of her parents and early girlhood friends. She leaves fond parents, sisters and brothers to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted on Monday by Rev. Waldron of the Congregational church interment being made in Lakeview cemetery.

Made a Good Selection

Mr. Minor Berry, formerly a resident of Orlando but now conducting a large truck garden in Sanford, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. T. E. F. Hoskins. He was recently elected to the responsible position as secretary of the Florida Vegetable Growers' Association and has been looking after their interests among the truck gardeners here. He claims the association controls over his hundred acres of truck land around Sanford at the present time, and new members are being added daily. Since the organization was perfected it has secured a new freight rate for its members which is only about one-half for the former rate.—Reporter Star.

ON THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Sanford Invites The World To Come And Spend The Day

At a meeting held this week it was decided to have a celebration in this city on July 4th and while not going into the affair on a large scale we shall provide for our visitors in a fitting manner. There will be a ball game with Orlando in the morning, a grand parade and merchants display, a grand fish fry at noon, a ball game with Orlando and field sports for the afternoon and a grand ball and display of fire works at night. The barbecue feature will be eliminated on account of the expense and our country friends will probably enjoy the fish fry and basket picnic more because they can spread their baskets in the shade of the West Side Park and flank the chicken and other good things with hot fish and cool lemonade and discuss the questions of the day during the interim.

In all Sanford expects to treat the visitors to a royal good time and Sanford has always done this upon all occasions. Along the line of contributions the people of Sanford will not be held up but each one is expected to give as much as they can. Every cent of this money is left here in your city and like the bread upon the waters will return to you after many days.

Every man is expected to do his duty and assist in arranging for the celebration.

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

One Colonel Garrard, commanding a cavalry post, refuses to recommend a young man who is ambitious to rise from the ranks of an officer, because of the fact that the applicant is "of Jewish persuasion," and for that reason "not a desirable social associate." This is about the worst case of snobbishness that has emanated from army quarters, and President Taft did well to criticize such narrow prejudices.

The condition of Mrs. Luke Lea, wife of United States Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, continues to improve. In all probability the transfusion of the vigorous blood of the young senator to the veins of his wife yesterday will result in restoring her to health. Mrs. Lea is at Georgetown hospital. On a cot a few feet from her bedside the junior senator from Tennessee lies, weak from the giving up of more than a quart of life fluid, but happy in the knowledge that his act meant the saving of his wife's life. It is not believed the weakening effect on the senator will have any permanent result in his case.

On the recommendation of Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, Secretary of War Stimson has directed that the anti-typhoid vaccination which for more than a year has been voluntary in the army shall hereafter be administered to all recruits except those over thirty-five years of age. The treatment will be given as soon as practicable after enlistment. This is the first step taken by the army to make the treatment obligatory. When the maneuver camp was established at San Antonio early in March all officers and men there took the treatment and there has been no typhoid in the maneuver division.

Secretary of the Navy Meyer today discussed his plans for concentrating navy yard work and abandoning plants that would not be needed in time of war, before the House Committee on Expenditures in the Navy department. The Secretary will recommend the abandonment of the yards at Portsmouth, N. H., Philadelphia and Charleston, S. C., and have those at Boston, New York and Norfolk prepared for handling all constructing and repair work done by the government on the Atlantic Coast.

With the first discovery this morning of some human fragments, the work of exploring the hull of the Maine for the primary purpose of recovering and giving honorable sepulchre to the bodies of her crew was at least begun after many months of preliminary work. While workmen were clearing the spar deck between the after and engine room superstructure they found several blackened bones. Further exploration in that portion of the ship did not reveal anything which might assist in identification. The water is at a level of fourteen feet making visible the engine room and upper structure on the port side. The latter deck is badly bulged and apparently the side of the ship under this, including the armor belt, was blown outwards which probably resulted in the explosion of the main magazine.

Exports of iron and steel from the United States in the fiscal year about to end will probably be 235 million dollars in value, against 184 million in the former high record year, 1908. The total for the ten months ending with April, the latest period for which details have been compiled by the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor, is in round terms, 190 million dollars, and, if the May and June exports approximate in each case those of April the total for the year will be fully 235 million dollars. Ten years ago, in 1901, the total was 117 million, or one-half the estimated figure for the current year; twenty years ago, in 1891, it was 29 million and 30 years ago, 17 million. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in 1911 will probably exceed by more than 50 million that of the immediately preceding year, thus showing a growth of approximately 30 per cent.
