

WEEK END TOUR of HOMES in the Sanford - Seminole Area

Tour Of Homes Features New Designs

Unless Hurricane "Ginny" reverses her field and makes a rapid return, the weather this weekend should be fine for your tour of homes. Anything less than a hurricane has little effect on the home developments featured, since they have paved streets, curbs, and excellent drainage.

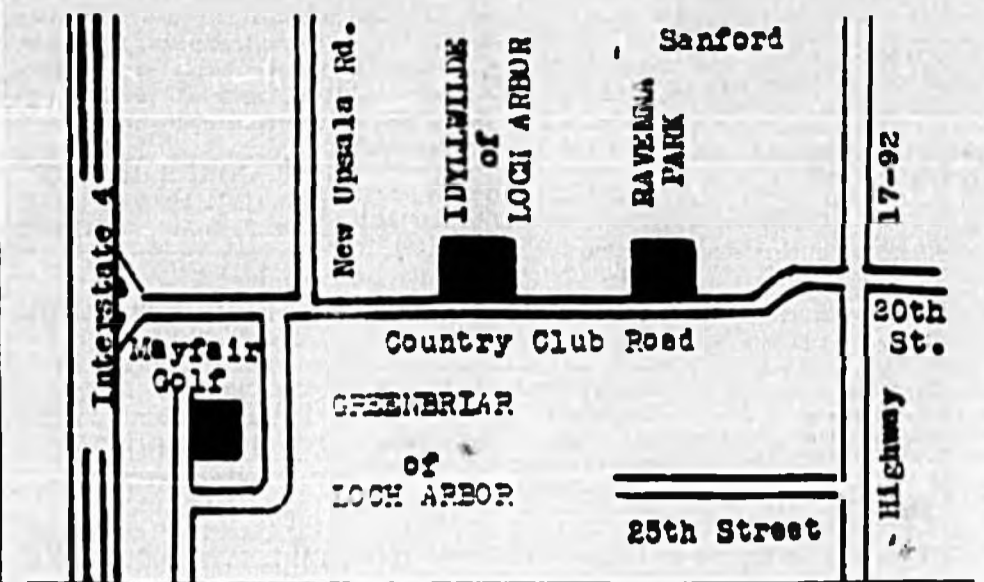

Today the black walnut kitchen cabinets are being installed in the four-bedroom, two-bath colonial home in Greenbriar of Loch Arbor. This, according to Byron Leach, of Kingswood Builders, is a sign that the construction is almost finished and ready for the final touch, landscaping. This roomy home has many convenience extras, such as double lavatories in the master bathroom.

Be sure to drive in at Ravenna Park. The new Third Section has homes for the average budget. Two are ready for occupancy, and several more at the stage of building where a buyer can select his own colors in paint and tile. Most of them include central duct heating and air conditioning.

Another community to see is Idyllwilde of Loch Arbor. The homes here are of the larger and more luxurious type, and all have the custom built appearance. The last available model was sold lately, but Shoemaker Construction Company specializes in custom building, particularly in this prestige area. Sales are handled by Stenstrom Realty.

While you are out driving this week-end, take this page with you. The map above will assist you in locating some of Sanford and Seminole County's outstanding real estate. Take a circle tour and see them all, you may find just what you are looking for in the way of a home.

As future projects the Boosters hope to buy sweatshirts for the basketball players and uniforms for the baseball team.

Adams Sees Only 500,000 Votes

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Secretary of State Tom Adams says less than 500,000 of more than two million eligible Floridians will cast ballots in the special Nov. 5 general election.

Adams recalled Tuesday that in the last special election involving a constitutional change, less than 10 per cent of the eligible voters defeated the measure.

Unless voter interest picks up, Adams said less than 500,000 of the 2,136,800 registered voters will show up at the polls.

The special election was called to get approval of three proposed changes in the state Constitution.

Decorating As Easy As ABC, Expert Proves In New Book

"Decorating can be as easy as ABC," according to noted designer Ving Smith. He not only makes the statement, but proves his point in a new guide to room planning and interior decoration.

The famous New York decorating authority, a consultant in the home furnishings field, shows homeowners how to use their own ideas to achieve professional results in the 24-page booklet. Full color illustrations are used throughout this bright, interesting guide.

"How can you plan your own room design and interior decoration? Most families who come to me don't really know where to start. They ask the questions. I try to supply the answers. In this booklet, I turn the tables and ask a few questions myself," Smith comments.

"I hope to show that you have good decorating ideas, and when applied creatively, your own ideas often are the best. In the process of helping you find your own answers, I hope to show that decorating can be as easy as ABC."

Smith and his wife, Charlotte, an experienced fashion stylist and illustrator, combine their talents in this new book to suggest simple and effective solutions to decorating problems.

Every room setting in the booklet combines good looks and easy maintenance. Plastic surfaced paneling, which comes in a wide variety of colors, woodgrains and patterns, is used for walls and ceilings in all rooms. It is washable; never needs painting or refinishing.

"From years of helping people create beautiful home interiors, I know that American women want charming rooms to please their families. And because each family and each woman is different, no cut-and-dried decorating rules can answer every problem. Instead, the professional designer listens to the individual homemaker's ideas, and she tells us what will best suit her and her family."

In his decorating booklet, Smith shows how a basic plan can be altered to fit available space. He provides interesting decorating ideas for kitchens, living rooms, bathrooms, dining rooms, recreation rooms and bedrooms.

A copy of Ving Smith's professional guide to room planning and interior decoration may be obtained by sending 25 cents to Home Service Bureau, P. O. Box 652, Dover, Ohio.

Fully Finished Panels Available

A fully-finished paneling for remodeling outmoded walls and ceilings is available at local lumber dealers in a wide variety of modern colors, high-fidelity wood-grains and interesting patterns.

The paneling has an extremely durable plastic surface, which is permanently fused at high temperatures to a sturdy base of tempered hardboard. Easy to maintain, the paneling can be cleaned with a damp cloth. It does not require painting or refinishing.

It comes in four-foot wide panels, 19" x 8" planks, and 16" square blocks for ceilings.

Rudolph Leads In Fig Match

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — Steady Mason Rudolph, out of the money only once in 29 previous tournaments this year, carried a two-stroke lead over Tommy Aaron today into the second round of the $25,000 Fig Garden Village Open golf tournament.

Rudolph, playing some of his best golf of the year, carded six birdies in Thursday's opening round for a six-under-par 64. Aaron, who hit all but three greens in regulation figures, had an opening round 68.

Castro 'Not Indispensable'

CHATHAM, Ont. (UPI) — Fidel Castro is not indispensable to the Cuban people, Cuban Ambassador to Canada Americo Cruz said Tuesday night.

Cruz, speaking at a Chatham Kiwanis Club meeting, made the statement in replying to a newsman who asked what would develop should Cuba lose Castro as nearly occurred during the aftermath of hurricane Flora.

"Now that the revolution has been established, Dr. Castro is not indispensable," Cruz said.

Castro's brother, Raoul, is next in line for the leadership of the Cuban government and after him comes economics minister Che Guevara, the Cuban envoy added.

Cruz used the occasion to deliver a bitter attack against the United States which he charged, was trying to "starve the Cuban people."

He said Cuba turned down a U. S. offer of aid after Flora hit because it did not believe in the sincerity of the offer.

He also charged the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of involvement in a Nicaragua-based plot to overthrow the Castro regime.

WITH A HEAVY FOOT

On the accelerator the driver of this 1961 model automobile, Samuel N. Whitaker of Sanford, wrapped the rear bumper almost around this power pole Saturday night on Main Street east of Spies. He was arrested by Constable Bob Carroll and charged with failure to have his car under control. Whitaker's bond was set at $100.

Among other real estate transactions newly on file at the courthouse is a $45,000 transfer from Ruby Ginder to FGI Investments. This is the M & B bar on Highway 17-92. City Commission passed over a request for license transfer at its Oct. 14 meeting until Nov. 1. But the transfer later was approved and a license issued Oct. 16.

CHARLES D. ROWLEY and William Walsh, both of Sanford Naval Air Station, were hospitalized Saturday evening when the automobile in which they were riding left Old Lake Mary Road and turned turtle.

Traffic Accidents Keep Police Busy

A series of automobile accidents kept law officers busy over the weekend.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby reported this morning that Charles D. Rowley, the driver, and William Walsh, a passenger, both of Sanford Naval Air Station, are being treated at Semmole Memorial Hospital for injuries suffered Saturday evening in an accident on Old Lake Mary Road, near 25th Street. Rowley lost control, the Sheriff said, and the car knocked down a fence and mail box, hit a utility pole, hit a utility pole and turned upside down. The car was damaged.

Everett Hodgkins, Sorrento, and his passenger, Frank Clark, Umatilla, suffered minor injuries when their car left Orange Boulevard and turned over. Sheriff Hobby said Hodgkins was charged with failure to have his car under control.

Anthony Houston, 215 Palm Place, was charged with driving too fast. Sheriff Hobby also reported, when his car flipped over on a turn near the drug strip. Three-year-old Michael McCardle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCardle, 104 West 20th Street, was reported by his mother to have been injured in a car accident on Saturday afternoon on 20th Street.

Border Fight Rages Despite Truce Plans

ALGERIA (UPI) — Fighting continued today along the Moroccan-Algerian border, although both nations have agreed to meet for truce talks. Moroccan military sources in Marrakech said Moroccan troops defending the Sahara Desert outpost of Hassi Beida killed 60 Algerians and captured 100 others Sunday in repulsing an unsuccessful Algerian attack.

There was no confirmation of the report from Algerian sources. It was the highest one-day casualty toll announced so far in the three-week-old conflict. The Moroccan sources said Moroccan troops "routed" the Algerians and drove them back 18 miles southeast of Hassi Beida toward Tinouchi, where indecisive fighting was reported Saturday.

Big Lift Brings 1,500 GIs Home

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — The United States shipped home 1,500 combat troops on return flights of Operation Big Lift planes but kept the movement secret to avoid arousing European concern, it was learned today.

Big Lift, which brought more than 15,000 combat troops from bases in Texas to Germany for maneuvers, caused fears here that the number of U. S. troops permanently stationed in Europe would be cut. The 1,500-man battle group was being returned to the United States in a normal rotation move and its withdrawal had nothing to do with reducing the strength of the six U. S. divisions here.

'Big If' Raised At Home, Abroad By 'Big Lift'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — While chalking up smashing successes for Operation Big Lift, U. S. defense leaders are concerned about misleading impressions it has created at home and abroad.

The long and hard preparation that went into the lift apparently has been obscured by the dramatic aspects of flying 16,000 men, including the 14,500 troops of the reinforced 2nd Armored Division, from Texas to Germany in only slightly more than 63 hours last week.

As a result, the impression in some quarters is that an entire armored division with all its equipment can be packed up on short notice and flown to Europe when a crisis develops. "This is far from accurate," one official said. "The 16,000 men and their light equipment altogether weighed something like 1,500 tons, the 200 tanks of an armored division alone would weigh ten times as much — roughly 15,000 tons, or 50 tons each."

"An attempt to transport by air across the Atlantic all the heavy equipment of such a division—all the vehicles, artillery, ammunition, etc.—would stagger the imagination of any present-day logistic command."

The chief urged the public to cooperate in helping eliminate the practice of unauthorized burning of leaves, pine needles and grass.

Full GOP House Slate In South Seen By Miller

HOUSTON (UPI) — Rep. William E. Miller, Republican national chairman, predicted Sunday night that the GOP would have candidates in every congressional election in the South.

The New York Congressman said "we may elect the governor in Kentucky and Mississippi — what do you think of that?" Miller told the Texas Federation of Republican Women's Clubs the GOP never has been stronger "from the grassroots up" than it is today.

Burglars Make 4 Tries; 3 Fail

Burglars were successful in only one of four break-ins and entering attempts over the weekend. Police Chief Roy Williams reported today. Thieves crawled to the roof of Sanford Furniture, forced a skylight and entered, to steal a television set. Chief Williams said thieves were unsuccessful in attempts to break into Robson's Sporting Goods, Hunt Lincoln-Mercury and Sanford Naval Academy.

True Bills In Gun Slaying, Auto Death

Two indictments charging second degree murder and manslaughter were returned by the county grand jury late Friday. It was reported today by Court Clerk Arthur H. Beckwith Jr.

Fred W. Burdette Jr., 37, of Little Lake Howell, near Oviedo, was charged with second degree murder in the fatal shooting of his uncle, Charles R. Strickland, 35, last Sept. 15.

At the time Sheriff J. L. Hobby said Burdette had been shooting from inside his home toward a neighbor's house and that Strickland was shot and killed in attempting to disassemble Burdette.

Originally charged with first degree murder, Burdette has been free under $10,000 bond.

A true bill charging manslaughter was returned against Dan Owens Clause, 23, of 207 Mellonsville Avenue, as the result of an automobile accident last April 28 on SR 40 when John Charles Chaplin, 21, of Paula, was fatally injured.

No indictment was returned against Nelson Moore, Negro, of 194 1/2 Locust Avenue, who was charged with first degree murder June 30 in the fatal beating of Lula Gaines, Negro, 75, of the same address.

Permit Needed To Burn Trash

Sanford Fire Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. today reminded local residents that persons desiring to burn grass or trash must have permits from the fire department.

Calling attention to the particularly dry conditions, Chief Cleveland cited the danger of flying sparks from burning leaves and grass. He pointed out that windy gusts blow the sparks atop rooftops of houses and buildings, creating a hazard with which the fire department continually has to cope.

The chief urged the public to cooperate in helping eliminate the practice of unauthorized burning of leaves, pine needles and grass.

Reappraisal In Sanford Begins

Field work is being started this week by the County Assessor's office on the reappraisal of commercial property in Sanford as requested and authorized by the County Commission for the 1964 tax roll.

Special training to personnel of the Assessor's office has been given in methods used in determining valuations. Structural data will be gathered first after which income data, where necessary, will be obtained to complete the information needed in determining valuations.

The cooperation of owners and operators of the business establishments of Sanford in carrying out this program will be deeply appreciated.

LEON V. McLAURIN, who retired as superintendent of mails Jan. 2 after 30 years of service at Sanford post office, today was presented with a cash incentive award by the Post Office Department for a suggestion which eliminated rain leakage into mail collection boxes. Profumo-Like Scandal In U. S. Capital?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate investigation is expected to unfold at a closed hearing Tuesday a Profumo-like story of a German beauty's relations with prominent Washington figures.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., was reported today to give details of the affair at a session of the Senate Rules Committee called to investigate the outside business activities of Senate members.

Williams would not discuss the case with reporters, but one published report said that the woman, who has returned to Germany, had friends both in Congress and the administration.

The party girl was described as the 27-year-old brunette wife of a West German army sergeant who had been assigned to the German military mission here.

The woman, called a "ravishing beauty" by an embassy spokesman, was whisked back to Germany with her husband on Aug. 21 at the urging of the FBI, which had investigated her behavior.

She attracted the attention of the FBI because of the expensive clothes she wore and the high standard of living she and her husband maintained in the country club section of nearby Arlington, Va.

The woman also had a habit of dropping the names of prominent persons, according to reports.

Former Senator Connolly Dies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Sen. Tom Connolly of Texas died early today at his home here of pneumonia. He was 86. Connolly's family said he had been ill for some time. He had been living in retirement here since he left the Senate in 1953 after 36 years in the chamber.

The silver-haired Texas Democrat had been chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Royal Birds

KING'S LYNN, Eng. (UPI) — A local shop today put on sale pheasants shot by Prince Philip at a nearby royal estate for 30 shillings a pair, or $4.20.

Couple Seized Here As Bolita Suspects

A Negro couple has been arrested in Sanford and charged in connection with a bolita operation here, the sheriff's office reported today.

Arrested Saturday but later released on $200 bonds each were Willie (Honey) Dubose and Emily Dubose, of 819 East 7th Street. Both were charged with possession of Cuba bolita lottery tickets.

The Dubose woman was arrested around 11 a. m. Saturday after investigating officers raided her home and confiscated a large quantity of bolita tickets, record books, other bolita paraphernalia, and a small mountain of coins, including four boxes of assorted change.

Exact amount of the money, believed to be receipts from sale of bolita tickets, was undetermined this morning. The cache included at least 25 silver dollars, a fishing tackle box almost full of pennies, another tackle box bulging with silver dollars, half dollars, nickels, dimes and quarters, and three other boxes containing assorted coins.

Willie Dubose was picked up late Saturday at a local tavern by Police Officer Carl Dubson, special investigator for the Sanford Police Department. He was later turned over to the county.

Participating in the raid Saturday were Sheriff's Deputy Charles Fagan, C. R. Trulock, special agent for the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, in Orlando and Dalton. An officer said the Dubose home had been under surveillance for some time.

The money and bolita paraphernalia were "scattered about the house," they said, "some stashed under a bed and the rest in other nooks and crannies about the place."

Trapped Miners Play Cards

PEINE, Germany (UPI) — Three brave men played cards in an air pocket beneath the earth today while rescuers worked to free them from the flooded iron mine where they have been trapped four days.

The three miners reported jubilantly Sunday night that rising flood waters, which earlier threatened them with slow death, were receding.

But rescuers trying to sink a shaft through which a rescue capsule can be lowered faced a ticklish job. Engineers said the boring could break the air pocket and release the air pressure, engulfing the three men in the water which fills the rest of the mine. Drilling was a proceeding carefully through shields to prevent a loss of pressure.

Auto Damaged Here By Fire

Sanford Fire Department answered a call late Friday to a burning automobile at 2472 Sanford Ave., the fire department reported.

The automobile, a 1954 Buick sedan belonging to Glenn Goember, caught fire around 7:16 p. m. due to a defective carburetor, firemen said. Damage was heavy.

Methodists To Build In Lake Mary

Plans to build a Methodist Church within the next two years to serve the Lake Mary-Loch Arbor areas were announced locally today by Rev. John T. Adams Jr., of the First Methodist Church of Sanford.

Building site for the new plant, purchased recently from Sheriff J. L. Hobby by the church's Board of Extension, DeLand District, is located across from Greenbriar on property fronted by County Club Road and backed by the canal running from Lake Mary's Crystal Lake.

Containing slightly more than 12 acres, the new property offers ample space for building and parking as well as a site for a future parsonage. For the present time Methodist churches of the area have been invited by the district to use the site as a picnic and playground area.

Russian Withdrawal May Hurt U. S. Moon Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia's withdrawal from the moon race provided new ammunition for opponents of the U. S. lunar program today and caused apprehension among its supporters.

Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said they planned to go ahead with the next step in the U. S. program, Project Gemini to orbit two astronauts in one space capsule. They said the moon program would continue on schedule.

But both Republican and Democratic legislators voiced belief that the announcement by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow Saturday night ultimately delay the U. S. lunar program.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., who has supported former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's view that the U. S. moon program should be delayed until the nation is in sounder financial shape, said:

"I am sure that Russia's plans will generate pressure against our present moon programs."

Senate Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., said that "we shouldn't let Khrushchev's words govern our actions. We should continue with our moon program as planned."

Rep. Glen Teague, D-Tex., second ranking member of the House Space Committee, voiced concern about the future of the U. S. program. "I'm afraid this will hurt our moon program — maybe not this year in Congress—but next year," Teague said. "I wouldn't be surprised if Khrushchev is just trying to make us drop our guard."

However, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said he supported withdrawal of the United States from the moon race. He said that "the money can be used for a number of better things, including aid to education."

Humphrey said Khrushchev's announcement underscored "the serious economic problems the Soviet Union is encountering. They just can't afford all these programs."

NAVY WARFARE, especially as it pertains to the Sanford Naval Air Station, was outlined to Navy League members at a dinner-meeting Friday at SNAS by Vice Admiral Fitzhugh Lee.

Navy Warfare Outlined To League

By Frank McArdle
The top man in the U. S. Navy's aviation training program said here Friday night that the best nuclear weapons defense system in event of a limited war would be through mobile air base operations of aircraft carriers.

Vice Adm. Fitzhugh Lee, chief of naval air training, Pensacola, told a large gathering of Navy League members and officials at a Sanford NAS banquet that the carrier-based operations are more desirable than a shore-based system because: (1) They are more economical to the taxpayer and government; (2) They are less vulnerable to enemy attack than land-based aircraft because they are continually in motion; (3) They are more practical in view of the time, effort, cost and insecurity in-involved in constructing and maintaining air bases on foreign soil.

Admiral Lee, a 1928 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, who has held several important Pentagon jobs, urged the support of members of the Central Florida Council of Navy League in changing a prevailing public opinion in which "the aircraft weapon system (among Americans) is not properly appreciated."

The high Navy official told League members and top brass at Sanford NAS American must decide which type of weapon system the U. S. must have to exert nuclear strength with the utmost effectiveness.

"In Sanford, the Navy is engaged in a particular form of Navy warfare which may have grave consequences for the future," the Admiral said. "Washington is now engaged in a game similar to 'musical chairs' — debating whether carriers should be nuclear-powered or oil-powered, whether the carrier system should be used, how much it will cost . . ."

Admiral Lee served aboard battleships as well as carriers in the Pacific and was stationed aboard the USS Essex, a battle-scarred veteran flat-top, when it was commissioned in 1942.

Admiral Lee further declared that the "floating air bases" contain all the facilities and advantages of stationary shore bases: Runways and maintenance facilities, fuel and ammunition storage space, adequate communication systems, and built-in barracks and mess halls.

Pentagon officials and military experts are in agreement, the Admiral said, that "we must have manned airplanes to exert full strength of the nation . . ." And, in conclusion, "A cost analysis to the United States of the carrier weapon system is heavily loaded on the side of effectiveness. People who are against carriers (as a nuclear striking force) don't realize how effective the system can be."

Meanwhile, honorary memberships in the League were presented to the following League boosters: Ruby DeFolson, Winter Park; Joe Antik, secretary of the Central Florida Council, and Ed Granger, professor of creative writing at Rollins College and script writer for syndicated comic strips, "Buz Sawyer."

Council President Thomas Fuller, who presided over the banquet meeting, presented plaques to the group and praised the recipients for their work in the League program.

Other dignitaries present at the reception and banquet were Capt. Robert M. Ware, commanding officer of the air station; Capt. James O. Mayo, commander of Heavy Attack Wing One, and Cdr. J. G. McShane, commanding officer of the Orlando Reserve Training Unit.

The Navy League is a nationwide civilian organization dedicated to keeping the public informed on issues of national seapower.

Rights Benefit GOP

One of the genuine puzzles for 1964 is the extent to which President Kennedy and the Democratic party may suffer defections from among the minority groups which have helped provide smashing big city Democratic victories for 80 years.

At this stage, short of any election test, the threat of some defection seems real. Reports multiply that considerable elements of the white urban — and occasionally suburban — population are angry over the Negroes' big civil rights push in 1963.

Up to now this has been most often heard with respect to Polish descendants in such cities as Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Pittsburgh. In Philadelphia, Irish and Italian elements — checked in surveys — are said to be complaining bitterly.

Generally speaking, the resentment is found to be sharpest among those people who are closest to Negroes in the economic scale. The competition for jobs, and job preference, is recognized as growing keener as efforts are made to advance the Negroes' lot.

The Irish, of course, have been with the Democratic party for long decades. The big new increment to the party in the 1930s came from the Poles and other Slavic peoples. Second generation families, coming of age as voting citizens for the first time, formed a key part of the fabled "Roosevelt coalition" of that era.

For nearly 20 years that allegiance was generally unwavering. The Italians, the Negroes (in 1936 and thereafter) and other minorities swelled the frequently irresistible Democratic urban vote totals.

The year 1962 produced a substantial though not severe break in the ranks. The Korean war falling heavily on large Italian and Slavic families with many sons of draft age, was deeply unpopular with these groups. They turned in important numbers to support Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Many stayed with him — and others joined the turn — in 1956. He was viewed as a guarantor of peace.

But 1960 was another story. Eisenhower was gone from the ballot. Luring these heavily Catholic peoples back to the Democratic fold was a Catholic party nominee, John F. Kennedy. He won 26 of the 40 biggest cities, sweeping wide through the minorities. Republicans quickly undertook a sober study to figure how to woo at least some of them back.

The question now is whether the great civil rights struggle of 1963 may not have done more for the GOP in this regard than they could ever have done for themselves.

The rumblings of white "national minority" discontent are real enough. But their size and depth have not been measured.

The first major test of any consequence comes next month in Philadelphia's mayoralty election, when Democratic Mayor James Tate runs up against young, personable James McDermott, Republican. Defeat or even a fairly close squeak for Tate in a city which can produce massive Democratic majorities would be a powerful indicator of trouble ahead for the President in 1964.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Has Rocky Struck Out?

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller quit the Republican presidential nomination contest four years ago when the chill and had breaks to which he was subjected were not much worse than they are today. Rockefeller was contesting Richard M. Nixon for the nomination when he decided to quit. He bowed out with a statement implying that the Republican National Party convention already had been rigged for Nixon. This implied a rebuke of Democratic complaints that the Republican nominating convention was fixed.

Anyway you slice it, Rockefeller's implication of a fix was in some degree damaging to the Republican party and a great many practical politicians resented then and remember now that Rocky said what he said.

So, the lasting damage of that statement of four years ago proves now to have been to Rockefeller's political future. If he quit once he might quit again. That is a thought which lends just now to discouraging local politicians from endorsing him.

When and if the governor announces he is a candidate for the 1964 nomination and, in effect, puts up bond to stay in the race, some local polls are likely to leap for his bandwagon. But they will want to be sure that Rocky is in the contest to stay.

Among Rockefeller's bad breaks was an ill-considered 1962 campaign promise not to raise taxes if he were re-elected governor of New York. On that promise, he probably will not make good, and that is bad. And, of course, the governor's domestic arrangements seem to weigh heavily against him.

Rockefeller's receptions on his frequent movements around the United States have varied from chill to warm but never match the enthusiastic whoopla with which Sen. Barry Goldwater generally is greeted.

What hurts Rocky helps Barry, and the senator has had some other good luck, to boot. He has made his peace with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, like told a dinner audience of Republicans last week — with Goldwater present — that he could support any of the persons now being mentioned for the 1964 nomination. That would seem to remove like from the stop-

Goldwater camp where he had been setting up shop.

In contrast to Rockefeller's campaign manager problems, Goldwater is having his pick in most key states of powerful allies. There are branch managers all over the place and more separate Goldwater-for-President clubs, no doubt, than the senator would be able to identify by name.

The political impact of all of this might be measured by the subburst of Richard M. Nixon stories observed in the past fortnight. It is becoming obvious that a lot of Republicans believe Rocky has struck out and, further, believe Nixon must head-up the stop - Goldwater movement. Mere repetition lends substance to the Nixon story. Don't bet against it.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Diane has been an abject slave to a phobia that began when she was in grammar school. Her terrifying experience at that time left its emotional scar so Diane has been tormented by fears of closed spaces ever since. Scrapbook this case to help yourself or some friend in need.

CASE Q-463: Diane G., aged 18, is a college coed. "But, Dr. Crane," she protested, "I have a terrible phobia."

"For I got panicky if I am in a closed room. So I must have the windows open, even in zero winter weather. My roommate thinks I am crazy, but I just go all to pieces if I enter the clothes closet and she shuts the door on me."

"In fact, I can't even use a public telephone booth unless I leave the door wide open. And I never ride in an elevator. Sometimes I must climb 10 flights of stairs just because I dare not take the elevator."

"So what is wrong with me, Dr. Crane, and can I ever get over this phobia?"

Yes, Diane can get over this phobia if she digs out the original cause of her trouble and then resolutely follows the psychological prescription for eliminating it. Millions of people are victims of phobias. Diane's is called claustrophobia, meaning abnormal dread of a closed space.

But others suffered from agoraphobia, which indicates terror of large open spaces. Acrophobia (high places), hemophobia (blood), microphobia (germs), talophobia (stuttering) and allorophobia (cats) are some of the many abnormal terrors that afflict mankind.

The first step in trying to free yourself from such an abnormal fear is to try to date its onset. "Diane," I asked, "did you have this fear while in high school?" And she nodded assent.

So I started backward into grammar school, asking her if she definitely recalled having it in 8th grade, and she did. Finally, however, we found that when she was in the earlier grades, she didn't have this phobia. At last we pinned it down to the 5th grade. That's when it started.

"Think carefully," I urged Diane, "for something must have occurred that year which caused your terrible fright of closed spaces."

Diane wrinkled her brow and concentrated. Under hypnosis I could have brought out the specific incident, but in hypnosis, the doctor does the work. So in most cases it is better to have the patient remain awake and fully conscious so she can be aware as she probes around and thus digs up the incident that launched the phobia.

Soon Diane came up with the answer. During the winter vacation when she was a 5th grader, she and some playmates burrowed into a deep snowbank. But while Diane was inside, the snow caved in and covered her so she couldn't see light. She was overwhelmed with panic and gasping for air.

Fortunately, her playmates ran for help and some men dug her out. But when they found her, she was unconscious, possibly due to the terror or lack of oxygen.

She recovered without any organic ill effects, but the psychic trauma (emotional injury) thus left its scar on Diane thereafter by making her terrified of closed spaces. See tomorrow's follow-up.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The biggest trouble about a debate between New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater would be shutting it off.

It is charged that Goldwater sounds off every hour on the hour, but Rockefeller is right behind him on the half-hour. Both of them have been making speeches, issuing statements, subjecting themselves to interviews at such a clip that they're already struck needles. They're already beginning to bore their audiences, a full year before the election.

The fact that neither is yet a declared candidate bothers no one. They're off and running. But neither seems to have a friend good enough to tell him to stop talking too much.

Goldwater's opinions have been subjected to closer scrutiny so far because he is the more controversial character.

Like Gen. Eisenhower, Rockefeller professes to be confused about what Goldwater really stands for, but the governor has been no less prolific and he can be subjected to the same criticism.

Rocky is against the Kennedy administration on just as many counts as Barry. A debate between them would be a contest to determine who could denounce Democrats the most.

Rockefeller opened up on the President with a New Year's resolution that the administration had not reduced unemployment or improved the economy.

In February the governor took off on Kennedy foreign policy, saying it hadn't achieved its goals. Then he proposed a three-part foreign policy of his own — easier said than done.

Establish a nuclear defense partnership with Europe. Make a trade pact with Britain and the Commonwealth. Establish an Atlantic Alliance political organization.

Rockefeller is just as critical as Goldwater of Kennedy's handling of the Cuba situation, but the governor does not go as far as the senator in how to get the Russians out.

When Rockefeller criticized the Kennedy fiscal program, it was to criticize the President's $11 billion tax cut while proposing a $10 billion tax cut of his own.

The governor then fell in with the GOP congressional line on holding federal expenditures to last year's level and forgetting all about tax reforms.

In April, Rockefeller opposed Kennedy's accelerated public works program. In June the governor accelerated $4 billion worth of state construction to create more jobs.

Rockefeller and Goldwater apparently have real differences on civil rights. The senator would leave most of the corrective action to the states and limit federal programs.

At the Governors' Conference in Miami Beach, Rockefeller took the lead for a resolution to work with the President in establishing a meaningful civil rights program.

What came out was a watered-down resolution asking the executive committee to give the subject high priority. Though Rockefeller followers can claim that the governor won on principle, it was a bad political defeat in a fight that Goldwater was able to stay out of.

On July 4 the governor lit the firecracker that exploded the principal difference between him and the senator. Rockefeller repudiated the reactionary right and challenged Goldwater to disown it too. The senator's refusal sets him on a course of getting into every Republican vote there is — conservative or liberal.

Goldwater's refusal to debate the issue formally now doesn't end the matter. It is the big issue in every primary fight they both get into. They'll be debating it right up to national convention nominating time.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Enmity In Africa

Southward from Casablanca, the mountains take on a moul-brown hue, deeply slashed by the erosion of centuries and sloping gradually into the Sahara.

Even from the air, it is a picture of desolation broken only occasionally by the green of an oasis.

Such an oasis is Hindouf, 100 miles south of Casablanca on an ancient caravan route. Such also are Tinnjoub and Colomb-Bachar. All lie along the ill-defined desert borders of Morocco and Algeria in an area claimed by both sides, frequent scene of armed clashes between the two.

Morocco describes them as "Moroccan lands under Algerian control." Included are areas rich in oil, natural gas and other resources.

The Moroccans claim they were "annexed" by France when she controlled Algeria. Scenes of the most recent clashes has been Tinnjoub, of little value except as a bargaining point.

Of perhaps greater moment than the real estate in immediate contest is the increasing enmity between King Hassan II of Morocco, the young constitutional monarch, and President Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria, the dedicated revolutionary.

Hassan is the son of Mohammed V, whose foreign policy linked Morocco firmly with the emerging independent countries of black Africa.

But Hassan, himself, for better or for worse for his future in Africa, has been linked with the West. And, like President Habib Bourguiba, of Tunisia, which flanks Algeria on the other side, frequently has found himself a target of Ben Bella.

Ben Bella is a proclaimed socialist whose views lean toward President Gamal Abdel Nasser, of the United Arab Republic and his sympathies toward Fidel Castro.

Hassan has tried to follow a course of enlightened reform. A year ago he set up Morocco's first constitution, and, through a popular referendum, proclaimed Morocco a "democratic social monarchy."

The designation, itself, is one of vague proportions. The king names the premier and his cabinet ministers, he also must approve all legislation. He can, if he wishes, refer legislation to a popular referendum.

But the new constitution also provides for a popularly elected parliament with rights for women. Tax reforms have been instituted and an agrarian reform program in distributing land to landless peasants.

Democracy in Morocco is a far cry from democracy as it is understood in the United States. But a start has been made.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a junior in high school, but quite mature for my age. A good friend of the family, who is 40 and married, has taken an interest in me. He said, "If there is anything you want to know about the facts of life or anything you want to confide, come to me because you wouldn't want to go to your parents with things like that, would you?" He's right. There are some things I wouldn't go to my parents with. He said when he was my age, he developed a close friendship with a woman teacher and he learned a lot. He thinks every young person should develop a close friendship with someone older of the opposite sex. There are a few things I would like to know more about. Should I confide in him?

man and yourself is distance. . . .

DEAR ABBY: My son is in Germany and has been there for five months. He got a "Dear John letter" from this girl in our home town who had promised him she'd wait "forever." We, being in the same town, knew she was writing our son this letter and we worried for fear he would take it very hard. We worried in vain. We heard that he put her picture up on the bulletin board with her name and address under it, and across the top he printed AVAILABLE. Now she is mad at all of us because she got six letters from soldiers in his outfit.

Yours truly,
CASEVILLE, ILLINOIS

DEAR ABBY: Would you kindly inform me as to how soon a bride is expected to get her thank-you notes out for her wedding gifts? I was married three months ago. Over 700 people attended our wedding. We went on a two-week honeymoon,

DEAR BUSY: Very! You should have started writing your thank-you notes the day after you returned from your wedding trip — if you had to burn the midnight oil while doing it.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

DEAR LOTS: No. In my opinion this family friend is out of line. A REAL friend would encourage a young girl to confide in her parents. The best thing you can develop between this

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Every bid in bridge is in the nature of a bet. In my newest book, "Oswald Jacoby on Gambling," the bridge chapter discusses the odds for and against various bids. In discussing fourth hand bids it points out that any time you think you have the best hand at the table it is a good bet to open the bidding in fourth position. You won't win every one of these bets, but you will win more than you lose.

When you have a doubtful fourth hand opening a most frequent consideration is the spade suit. If you have spades you have the top suit and it is going to be hard for your op-opening is a good bet because he has spades. North's jump to four spades is not a good bid as the cards lie. East and West can take the first four tricks, but West has to make some opening lead and this West to choose to open his singleton diamond. This enabled South to run off 10 tricks and make his contract.

South's bet would have been worse if East and West had found a way to get into the bidding. They can make five odd in either hearts or clubs, but West did not feel like sticking his neck out at the two level and East surely couldn't afford to act after the four spade bid.

Thus, South's fourth hand

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

"A person who allows his skills and experience to go into disuse upon his retirement is as much a dropout as a teenager who quits school before graduation."

That's what Dr. Howard A. Carter of Winnetka told those attending a recent meeting of the Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

That would seem to indicate that the American woman has still one more thing to worry about.

She not only has to make sure that she and her husband become school dropouts somewhere along the line, but once she has them safely through school, she has to start thinking about how to keep her husband from becoming a dropout when he reaches the age of retirement.

It would seem from Dr. Carter's view—and it is probably a very sensible one—that a woman can no longer just encourage her husband to look forward to years of loafing and easy living once he reaches retirement age.

That easy dream is out if a man who thinks of retirement as just fishing and loafing and sleeping late in the mornings is going to be considered a dropout in tomorrow's world.

Now wives will have to get busy trying to encourage their husbands to make more ambitious plans for the retirement years, plans that will let them use at least some of their skills and all of their experience for the enrichment of their later years or the good of their own communities.

Helping a man to make that kind of plan won't be as easy as encouraging him to dream of the day when he can loaf to his heart's content, but it ought to be worth it. Many a man who retires with no plan but to take it easy is bored to death in no time.

And if he is bored and unhappy in his retirement, his wife isn't going to be very happy, either.

"Happier Wives (hints for husbands)" has some thoughtful observations on the subject by Ruth Millett. Send 25 cents to Ruth Millett, Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Evans Family Returns From Vacation

By Jane Casselberry
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Evans and Miller Evans of Casselberry have returned from a month's vacation. They left Sept. 18 for Kentucky and Indiana where they visited relatives in Madisonville and Evansville. They then drove to Denver, Colo., and visited Mr. and Mrs. Evans' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Evans and children, Helen Elizabeth and three months old Ben R. Evans III.

From there the travelers went to Tucson, Ariz., where they stayed with the Evans' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Hulte, and children Betsy, David, and Laurie.

While there they had the pleasure of watching David play in a Junior High football game and made a side trip into Mexico.

Among places of interest that they visited on the trip were the Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest.

Seminoles At Half-Way Point Still Unbeaten

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Writer

Head Coach Jim Pigott's Seminoles completed the mid-way point in this season's gridiron campaign with a perfect record of five victories in five engagements when they blasted a scrappy Winter Park High School eleven Friday night by a score of 22 to 0.

Ronnie Hinson and halfback Earl Black got the performance off to a thrilling start on the game's initial play from scrimmage. The Tribe's polished quarterback faked a handoff, backed into the passing pocket and lofted a long aerial to Black who sped the remaining distance for a 78-yard touchdown pass play.

Oviedo Outplays Clermont But Loses 13 To 7

By Joe Warden
Herald Sports Writer

Doused yet unaffected by a typical Florida downpour, the Oviedo Lions dropped a 13-7 verdict to Clermont. Although the Lions came out on the short end of the score, they dominated the football game on the ground and in the air, exhibiting a total offensive yardage of 263 compared to Clermont's 201.

Clermont dominated the first quarter by posting the first tally of the evening which came on a 7 yard run by 190 pound fullback Don Canova. Canova ran the conversion. The Highlander's score was set up by a 65 yard march down field, directed by tautled quarterback Bill Westburg.

Oviedo came back in the second period with a 30 yard assist drive of 30 yards to the Clermont 9, but the running of backs, Gouge and Brooks, and the passing combination of Courier, Fox, and Bellhorn came to naught as the clock ran out, ending the first half.

Half-time entertainment was provided by the Marching Highlander Band, with the Oviedo cheerleaders presenting a routine for the Clermont crowd.

The third chapter developed into a seesaw battle between the two contestants, with neither side managing to get a sustained drive started.

Oviedo bounced back in the fourth period briefly to tie Clermont. Courier rolled out and flipped a 12 yard aerial to right end Ted Bellhorn, who fell across the goal line for the marker. Tim Colbert split the uprights for the conversion. A 15 yard gallop by Courier and a 17 yard pass from Courier to Fox proved to be big plays in the Lion's drive for the tally.

Clermont's leading scorer Don Canova crashed two yards through the Oviedo line, six minutes later for the winning tally. Clermont's reserve field general, Hal Turville, who replaced aerial artist Westburg after Westburg was injured picked up 37 yards on 3 carries to move the ball into scoring position.

Oviedo again surprised the Highlanders in the closing moments of the game by moving the pigskin down to the Clermont 10 yard line, but a fourth down play was short and Clermont took over. Oviedo's hopes were shattered. Clermont was unable to move and the clock ran out.

Next week Oviedo meets Melbourne Central Catholic at Oviedo in the Lion's Annual Homecoming tilt.

plots a 68-yard scoring play — a long aerial.

The affair turned into a defensive duel with tackle Mike Glad and linebacker Joe Farless leading the Seminoles' defensive unit — the Headhunters.

However, before the half closed, Lawson suddenly broke loose on a 47-yard jaunt to put the locals within striking distance. Hinson picked up four, Sparkman six. Hinson went for nine before Lawson completed the last two yards for the second Seminole score.

Just before the half ended, the Wildcats came to life and a 32-yard pass from Johnson to Bias carried to Seminole's nine yard line. But the drive was stopped with Mike Fordham intercepting a deflected Parker pass.

Late in the third stanza Lawson brought the capacity audience to its feet with a brilliant 60-yard gallop to again put the Warriors within range of the Wildcat goal line. Finally the Seminoles posted their third score when Sparkman rumbled over from the two.

Seconds later Johnny Ray came up with the Sanford club's defensive gem of the evening. Ray plunged skyward to snare a Winter Park pass on the Wildcat 35-yard line. Almost before Ray descended he was half way to the twin-strips for another tally for the Indians.

But the Seminoles were still hungry. The fact that Winter Park had whipped the tautled Orlando Edgewater eleven the week before perhaps affected the locals' appetite. With four minutes and six seconds left in the contest halfback Earl Black went off tackle, threaded his way past the Winter Park secondary and posted a 51-yard touchdown trip.

Lloyd Freeman, Seminole's PAT specialist, had one of his less spectacular evenings. He was able to split the uprights only twice in five attempts. But it was the first time this season that Freeman failed to cash in on better than half of his attempts.

Lawson took the individual ground yardage honors when he racked up 133. Sparkman and Black followed with 99 and 71, respectively.

The Tribe's offensive program was good for a total of 290 yards — 78 of them by air on the game's initial play. Winter Park, on the other hand, could not penetrate the Seminole defense and was held to only 22 yards net on the ground. So the Parkers did the only thing they could do, try the airwaves. They were successful to the tune of 118 yards.

WGA Handicap Tourney Begins On Wednesday

The first matches of the handicap tournament will get underway Wednesday at the Mayfair Country Club. This marks the fourth season that the Florida State Bank has sponsored the Women's Golf Association in a match play, 9 handicap tournament.

The bank will present a new kind of prize to the association — a silver punch bowl. Each year a silver cup is to be presented to the tournament winner with the name and year engraved on it.

The bowl and cup will be retained by the Association, but they will be made available to members for their use on special occasions.

In addition to the bowl and cup the bank will present the winner of the tournament a silver sandwich tray and the runner-up a silver luncheon dish, both of which will become the property of the winners.

Giant, Packer Wins Tighten Up NFL Race

By United Press International

The New York Giants found a way of living with Jimmy Brown and the Green Bay Packers found a way of winning without Bart Starr. And suddenly the National Football League race is tighter than a pair of 85 shoes.

The Giants brought Jimmy and the Browns crashing to the earth—in more ways than one—with a 33-6 beating Sunday, while the Starr-less Packers had to score two touchdowns in the final period for a 34-20 triumph over the Baltimore Colts. It was Cleveland's first defeat in seven games.

This was one of the most miserable afternoons Jimmy Brown has spent in seven NFL seasons. He fumbled on the third play of the game to set up New York's first score; gained only 40 rushing yards in nine carries; and wound up being ejected for the first time in his career after a pummeling and wrestling with linebacker Tom Scott of the Giants during the final minute. Scott also was ejected.

By winning, the Packers managed to remain tied for the Western Division lead with the Chicago Bears, who defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 16-7. Both Green Bay and Chicago have 6-1 records. The Giants' surprise win narrowed Cleveland's Eastern Division lead to one game and also permitted the St. Louis Cardinals to get back into close contention with a 21-7 victory over the Washington Redskins. Cleveland has a 6-1 record; New York and St. Louis are 5-2.

In Sunday's other games, the Pittsburgh Steelers clung to their long-shot hopes for the title with a thrilling 27-20 victory over the Dallas Cowboys; the Detroit Lions beat the Minnesota Vikings, 28-10; and the Los Angeles Rams made it two-in-a-row by edging the San Francisco Forty Niners, 25-21.

Guerin Stars For St. Louis

United Press International

Richie Guerin, St. Louis' new dead-eye Dick, is providing the music for the sixth man theme that put the side of the ledger.

Guerin, recently acquired from the New York Knickerbockers, sank seven of seven foul shots Sunday night and deposited five baskets as St. Louis defeated the Baltimore Bullets, 123-112, in the only National Basketball action.

All five Hawk starters hit in double figures and Guerin, as a sub, made it six to bring St. Louis a 3-3 mark in Western Division competition.

Bob Pettit led St. Louis with 31 points and Zelmo Beaty netted 18.

About Sports Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Jim Pigott of Seminole High hit it on the head again. During a pre-game interview Jim said that in meeting Winter Park the Seminoles would run into the most aggressive team they'd meet all season. Then the Seminole head coach went on to say he told his kids that to beat the Wildcats they'd have to out hustle the Parkers. That's what the Seminoles did.

Seminole's three-unit system is paying big dividends. It's not often that a coaching staff can depend on 33 kids. Pigott and his two aides — backfield coach Dick Williams and line coach Jim McCoy — are using these three teams effectively.

The opening play of Friday's affair reminded us of some of the old Seminole clubs who used to run what Leonard McClucas' s quads called the long 47. It also reminded us of the opening play of the 1947 (we think) game between the University of Miami and the University of Florida.

Art Beckwith, his dad, Pee Wee Tilla and your reporter had just sat down at Florida Field after the opening kickoff when Miami uncorked a 71 yard pass on the first play. In those days this was as rare as a Montana cowboy's steak.

A tip of the hat to coaches Ralph Stumpf and John Colbert for leading their Seminole junior varsity eleven to another undefeated season. The Jayvees played six tilts, won five of them and played one scoreless tie in their opener. It looked as though they'd close the same way. But with two minutes and a few seconds remaining in last Thursday's contest they tallied twice against the Junior Ocala Wildcats. They whitewashed all of their opponents.

It looks as if the Seminoles' big test of the season will come when they tangle in their homecoming affair with Wildwood. The Wildcats last Friday night exploded for 60 points against the Apopka Blue Darters. Seminole defeated the Darters 59 to 6.

However, it must be remembered Seminole caught the Apopkans at top physical strength. But Apopka, in the Seminole tilt, sustained injuries from which the Blue Darters never have recovered.

Watching the Seminoles perform in those black and white uniforms reminded us of the first attempt at semi-professional football in Central Florida back in the late thirties.

A group of old Seminole High players and a group of former Leesburg High players got together and formed clubs. George Miller, the former Rollins star and performer for the Chicago Bears, led the Leesburg outfit while the late Judge S. A. B. Wilkinson coached the Sanford club — known as the Blackcats.

Rudolph Wins First Match In Four Years

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — Easy-going Mason Rudolph, playing by far the best golf of his career, tucked away his first tournament victory in four years Sunday with a steady one-under-par 71 that wrapped up the $25,000 Fig Garden Village Open.

The bespectacled Rudolph, of Lehigh Acres, Fla., started the final round with a three-stroke edge over Tommy Aaron and finished with a 273 total and the same three stroke margin over Aaron and Al Geiberger, who dropped an 18-foot putt on the last hole to move into a second place tie at 278.

The victory was worth $1,500 to Rudolph and moved him up from 10th to 7th place in the current earnings list with $35,495.14. Aaron and Geiberger each collected $2,050 for their second place finish.

Tied for third, five strokes behind Aaron and Geiberger were Randy Glover, Buster Cupit and George Knudson at 283. Third place was good for $1,333.33 for each of the three.

this tourney, which drew two-man teams from 33 golf playing nations.

There is only one thousand dollars first place money for the individual championship and two thousand dollars for the top team.

Howard Clark, president of the International Golf Association, favored a sudden death playoff, even if the fog hangs on.

Paris Golf Matches Befogged

PARIS (UPI) — Delayed by a day by fog, the cream of the world's golfers from 33 nations hoped to play the fourth and final round in the Canada Cup and International Trophy matches today with Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player of South Africa deadlocked for the individual lead and the U. S. and Spain tied for the team lead.

In case another postponement is necessary — and the chance of the fog lifting were reported slim — the probability will be a sudden death playoff involving both the individual and team leaders. Fore caddies, automobile headlights and officials stationed along the fairways would be used to combat the fog.

Because of the commitments of most of the participating golfers, the tournament must be concluded today. Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer are scheduled to leave tonight along with a dozen other golfers for Australia to compete in the Australian Open starting Thursday.

Many of the others, including Canadians Al Hahling and Stan Leonard, leave tonight for Barcelona to play in the Spanish Open, also starting Thursday. Still others are going to a tournament in Brazil.

Passless Tigers Claw Gators

By United Press International
Louisiana State has violated one of the cardinal concepts of football. Everyone knows that a team that can't pass, can't win. But the Bengals have thrown the forward pass out of their offensive repertoire—and keep on winning anyway.

LSU, which has always preferred moving the ball on the ground, just about discarded the pass completely after sophomore quarterback Pat Screen suffered a dislocated shoulder.

Even before Screen was injured, the Bengals completed only two of six passes for a miserly 14 yards against the high-ranked Georgia Tech—yet won 7-6. The next week, against Miami, Screen was hurt and LSU's passing record was only three of six for 44 yards in a 3-0 victory.

Then came a 28-7 victory over Kentucky in which the Bengals, minus Screen, tried only one unsuccessful pass.

Saturday, in a 14-0 upset over Florida, LSU threw one pass for seven yards and spent the rest of the afternoon on the ground.

After six games, of which LSU has won five, the Bengals have completed only 23 of 45 passes for 201 yards—and average of only 33.8 yards per game.

This coming Saturday LSU will be host to sixth-ranked Mississippi which takes the exact opposite view about the forward pass. The aerial-minded Rebels gained 237 yards on passes Saturday in a 27-7 victory over Vanderbilt to give the unbeaten Rebels an average of 185.4 yards per game through the air.

LSU and Mississippi moved into a tie for first place in the Southeastern Conference with idle 8th-ranked Auburn this past weekend. Auburn will be host to Florida this coming Saturday.

In other games:

Fifth-ranked Alabama, led by the passing of Joe Namath and the running of Benny Nelson, had more trouble than expected before downing winless Houston 21-13.

Larry Rakestraw gained a total of 209 yards and out-dueled Kentucky's Rick Norton as Georgia edged the Wildcats 17-14.

Billy Lothridge ran for one touchdown, passed for the other and kicked two extra points and the 16th field goal of his collegiate career as Georgia Tech, down 3-0 at halftime, gave Tulane its 17th straight loss 17-3.

Memphis State, toughest independent in the Southeast, Mississippi State its first defeat of the season 17-10; Tennessee tested the formation in a 49-7 walk over little Chattanooga; Florida State bowed to Virginia Tech 31-23 and Southern Mississippi beat Arkansas State 25-0.

Haynie Takes T-Bird Title

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Twenty-year-old Sandra Haynie, in front from start to finish, warded off the threats of bigger and more experienced women pro golfers and captured the $11,000 Thunderbird Tournament Sunday.

Miss Haynie, an 106 pounder from Fort Worth, Tex., started the 72-hole tourney with a course record 68, followed with a one-under-par 71, slipped to a 76, but shot a 71 again on the final round to claim the $1,350 top prize money.

Defending tournament champion Kathy Whitworth, Jal, N. M., the second leading money earner on the ladies' tour this year, fired a 70 in the final round to wind up second, four strokes behind at 290. Miss Whitworth won $1,070.

All-time record money winner Mickey Wright of Dallas finished in a third-place tie with Shirley Englehorn, Los Angeles, at 291—good for $800 each.

From Kansas wheatfields to New England forests, the story was the same: No rain, Indian summer on the war-path.

Another spell of unseasonable heat scared the East Sunday Boston, Mass. — 85 degrees—an all-time record. Washington, D. C.—83 degrees—hottest ever for the date.

Eight In Family Die In Head-On Traffic Crash

GALLUP, N. M. (UPI) — A migrant farm worker and seven of his 10 children were killed in a head-on collision of a car and truck on U. S. Highway 66 about 36 miles north of Gallup, N. M., Sunday. Five others were injured.

State police said the family was on its way to Alamo, Tex., from the Idaho potato harvest. They planned to visit relatives at Alamo.

The truck driver told officers he saw the car approaching him across a narrow bridge in the wrong lane. He locked his brakes, hoping to avoid the collision, skidded 30 feet and hit.

'Information Cover-Up' By U. S. Agencies Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA) charged today that some federal agencies try to "cover up their own maladministration" by refusing to disclose information about their activities.

Ginny Relieves Dry East, Puts To Sea Again

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unpredictable Hurricane Ginny lashed the Northeast coast with gales today then suddenly veered out into the Atlantic.

The hurricane, which had picked up strength and speed early in the morning, pounded sections of the southern New England coast with winds of up to 60 miles an hour and 12-foot tides.

The seventh tropical storm of the season sent ships scurrying for cover from Cape Hatteras, N. C., to Maine.

However, the center started heading away from the mainland about 7 a. m. and the U. S. Weather Bureau said a hurricane watch had been withdrawn in the threatened areas of Long Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

The storm brought heavy rain to New England, posing a flood threat but also helping relieve a drought which had become serious in some sections.

At 8 a. m., the center of the hurricane, with winds of up to 95 miles per hour, was located about 180 miles east of Nantucket Island, near the Massachusetts coast. The island was raked by 60-mile winds.

Chinese Red Talks Peace

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Chinese Communist, in a marked departure from the usual Peking line, told 6,000 applauding Russians and others today the Chinese favor peaceful coexistence and continued friendship with the Soviet Union.

Chao Kuo-chiang, secretary of the All China Federation of Trade Unions, spoke of mutual solidarity in a speech to the 13th Soviet trade union congress.

His brief address, in moderate tones, followed a week-end appeal by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev for an end to the bitter propaganda exchanges that have poisoned party and governmental relations between Peking and Moscow during the past year.

Chao, leader of the Chinese observers among 80 foreign groups attending the convention, was all sweetness today except in his reference to "aggressive American imperialism" as the alleged cause of all the world's troubles.

Mayors Elect Miami's High

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Miami Mayor Robert King High was unanimously elected chairman of the mayor's council on fair apportionment Monday night, to replace former Tampa mayor Julian Lane.

St. Petersburg Mayor Herman Goldner was named vice chairman of the council. Formed to press for more equal representation of populous areas in the state Legislature.

Atlas Goes Berserk, Stages Spectacular In Space

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Ocean-spanning rockets have been flying for seven years, but they still occasionally run afoul of accidents — some of them bordering on the unforgettable.

An advanced model Atlas missile that started off on a rather "routine" flight suddenly went haywire at the edge of space Monday night, and ruined a multi-million-dollar test for a new nose available only to "persons properly and directly concerned."

Blast Wrecks Dade's Demo Headquarters

MIAMI (UPI) — A tremendous explosion demolished the headquarters of the Dade County Democratic Executive Committee like a house of cards late last night and a fire marshal said there was no doubt it was an intentional bombing.

Police estimates of the explosives used ranged up to 100 sticks of dynamite, apparently planted in the basement of the huge warehouse-type steel and concrete building.

Two walls were crumbled by the blast which blew the roof off and littered the area with bits of concrete and glass.

Deputy State Fire Marshal A. M. Willis made a preliminary check of the scene today and reported the explosion was obviously deliberate.

Willis said he was unsure of the explosive used but it definitely was not caused by gas. "A gas explosion tends to push a building apart," he said. "This just tore the building to shreds. The force was up and down."

Except for the Democratic committee offices in the front, the building apparently was vacant.

Home To U. S. Controversial Trials Open

PRETORIA, South Africa (UPI) — Eleven men—Africans, whites, and an Indian—today faced sabotage charges that carry a possible death penalty in a trial condemned by the United Nations.

They include two former leading officials of the banned African National Congress (ANC) and the son of a former member of parliament.

They are charged with organizing or committing 222 acts of sabotage, including bomb attacks and raids on jails and police stations, in the two years before their capture last summer.

The state accuses the group of trying to prepare for guerrilla warfare within South Africa and armed invasion from without to overthrow the government of Premier Hendrik Verwoerd.

The United Nations urged earlier this month that South Africa stop the trial and free the prisoners. It was apparent from speeches supporting the UN action that most delegates regarded the 11 men as political prisoners and not saboteurs.

Accidental Justice

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—Police officer A. L. Lambdin, running after a motorist who had fled from his car when stopped for a traffic violation, tripped on the street Monday and fell with a jolt that discharged his pistol.

The bullet wounded the fleeing man in the heel and he was captured a short time later.

Extremes Hit

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, in a sharp attack on both the Kennedy administration and ultra-Conservatives, said Monday that voters in the 1964 presidential elections should not "be compelled to choose between extremes."

He said that what it came down to is that the decision is left to the individual agency "which becomes both judge and jury" on what should or should not be disclosed.

Burglars Take Sanford Firm's Safe, $1,400

Thieves broke into a Sanford supply firm sometime during the night Monday and escaped with a small safe containing $1,400, police said.

Police Chief Roy Williams said burglars entered Home Builders Supply Co., 801 West Seminole Boulevard, ransacked the office and carried away the small safe. The empty container was found in a field adjacent to the firm Tuesday morning, the chief said.

Police officers Don Brumley, John Rumbley and Larry Hamerick investigated both incidents.

YOU'LL BE SEEING HER — March of Dimes Child for 1964 is Mary Lou Graves, 5, of Flint, Mich. You'll be seeing her on posters all year long as a reminder that a quarter-million children are born each year with significant birth defects. Mary Lou, born with a spinal defect, has been aided through March of Dimes-supported medical and treatment efforts.

Cancer Kills Girl Treated With Krebiozen

ROCKFORD, Ill. (UPI) — Diane Lindstrom, 18, who sprang a leg amputation to stave her life on the controversial drug krebiozen, died Monday night of bone cancer.

Miss Lindstrom lost her year-long battle against a malignant tumor of the right thigh at Rockford Memorial Hospital. She had been in the hospital about six weeks.

Last March, the pretty high school coed faced a terrifying decision—either have her leg amputated or face the risk of dying before she reached her 23rd birthday.

Two days before the scheduled amputation, Diane called it off. She said she would rather die than have her leg amputated.

Haitians Go On Hunger Strike

MIAMI (UPI) — Twenty-two Haitian refugees have gone on a hunger strike to protest their detention by federal authorities. The group has refused food since Saturday.

The Haitians, along with two infants, arrived here in a small boat six weeks ago and sought asylum, but they have been detained while federal officers investigate their right to asylum.

Backs Burns

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Tampa Mayor Nick Nuccio said Monday he would support Jacksonville Mayor Hayden Burns in the 1964 race for governor.

Three Oviedo Camp Escapees Captured

Three striking Negro convicts who escaped from the state prison camp at Oviedo Monday morning were back in custody today and face additional charges of escape.

Camp attaches identified the convicts as Johnny R. King Jr., Edgar Thomas, Howard County, and Thomas L. Brimfield, Dade County, all transferred to Oviedo from Rockford Prison.

Camp officers said the convicts had been confined to punitive segregation for refusing to work. They had been taken to the bathroom to bathe and shave and were being returned to their barracks when they ran. All wore pajamas and were barefooted.

King was captured within 10 minutes near the road camp. Brimfield surrendered a half hour later. Thomas was captured this morning near Eatonville, a Negro community near Maitland.

The three convicts were to be brought to Seminole County jail this afternoon to face charges of escape before County Judge Vernon Mize.

Strong Rights Bill Rejected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today won his battle to block a civil rights bill he felt was too strong to pass Congress. The House Judiciary Committee rejected the measure by a vote of 19-15.

After the long-delayed showdown vote, the committee turned to consideration of a less sweeping civil rights bill which, like the strong bill it replaces, would touch on nearly every area of racial tension, including voting, use of public accommodations, desegregation of schools and job discrimination.

The vote on the strong bill was the first order of committee business when it met behind closed doors. Members who left the room after the balloting disclosed the vote.

Bits and pieces of the errant rocket tumbled into the Atlantic Ocean off Florida's east coast, well short of its planned target area near Ascension Island, off the west coast of Africa.

The Air Force was at a loss to explain what happened. The mishap cost scientists and technicians the nose cone and the packages of measuring devices, all of which they had intended to recover.

Report Given On Atlanta Meeting

A "population explosion" development of the two counties "but only if we can offer a good planning program."

This planning program, he emphasized, must picture needed roads, land use, recreation, housing and allied building for the next 20 years. "We must be in a position to tell the federal people," he said, "what roads will be needed 20 years from now, how big they should be, how many people will use them, where these people are coming from and where they are going to . . . and these roads must fit in with overall federal road plans."

Avery reported that HIFA envisioned Greater Orlando growing into Southern Seminole County to a much greater extent than at present, due to space-age expansion in that city and at Cape Canaveral.

He emphasized this by pointing out at present there are plans for building a main highway between Orlando and Cape Canaveral. The Federal Bureau of Roads, he said, favors a new belt highway bypassing Orlando and Sanford by extending north from the new Orlando-Cape through-way into Seminole County, passing south of Sanford, crossing Interstate 4 and bending southwest to connect with Sunshine Parkway.

However, Avery stressed the point that these federal agencies require that a comprehensive overall long-range plan be drawn up before they will co-operate with matching funds.

Graham Takes Poke At Big Government

HOUSTON (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham, who says he has no political ambitions, Monday took a swipe at the bigness of government.

Graham, on a three day speaking tour before Houston religious and civic groups, said "our people look to the government instead of to God."

He said "it will destroy the moral fiber of our nation when our people look to the government for everything to fill our needs."

Graham was emphatic when he said he has no political ambitions because "I am not qualified and besides, nobody would vote for me."

University Site Announcement Due In December

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Board of Control said today that it won't announce a site for a new state university in east-central Florida until its December meeting in Boca Raton.

A spokesman for the board said a site selection team has completed inspecting 23 sites in Brevard, Orange, Volusia, Seminole, Indian River and Lake counties.

A research team is now busy working on population trends in the area and examining brochures of the various sites.
