

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

CLUB CALENDAR

Monday—Call meeting of the Club at 7:30 o'clock. Tuesday—Reception for the Club members.

Wednesday—Welfare Department meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon preceding the bridge party there was a short business meeting of the Social Department.

Reports were read by the treasurer, and other reports made. Several matters of importance were discussed, among them being the annual bridge luncheon.

Next Thursday there will be a sectional conference of Section Seven, at the Sorosis Club in Orlando.

Mrs. Edith Jane was the charming hostess Tuesday afternoon for the bridge party given for the Social Department members.

After several spirited games of bridge, series were counted and the prize for high score, bridge pencils and markers, was won by Mrs. J. B. Coleman.

Next Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 will be the annual club reception at the Club house.

MUSICAL NOTES. The regular monthly meeting of the Music Department of the Woman's Club was held in the club house Wednesday afternoon, January 10th at 3:30 o'clock.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. As decided upon at the last meeting the afternoon was given over to business and chorus recitals.

It is based throughout on the great Passion Play of Oberammergau and carries in a beautiful manner the complete life of the Saviour, including the Annunciation, His boyhood days, His work and miracles on earth, the agony and death, the resurrection and His ascent into heaven.

The Life of Christ has been presented in churches throughout the world and carries the endorsement of well-known clergymen who have witnessed it and have been deeply impressed with its splendor.

There will be appropriate music accompanying the production. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to be present to avail themselves of this unusual opportunity to witness a masterpiece of universal interest.

If the coal miners stay out, there will be a slate shingle shortage. The plan was unanimously approved.

PREST LANDS IN HERD OF CARIBOU

Aviator Is Forced by Engine Trouble to Descend to Earth in Far North.

KILLS ONE FOR FOOD

Set Up Movie Camera to Get Picture of Wild Herd, but Changed Mind When Hundreds of Animals Have in Sight.

Dawson, Y. T.—Like a chapter from dramatic fiction reads the story of the experience of Clarence O. Prest, the aviator, while trying a flight across Yukon territory and Alaska.

When Miss Farrar's suit was called for trial before supreme court justice Colahan today, Arthur Schwartz, counsel for Tellegen, moved that the case be sent to a referee for hearing.

Lands in Herd of Caribou.

Lands which normally lack across the region near Dawson and Eagle. Prest had been in a transformation way from San Bernardino, Cal., to the Far North.

Prest's own story of his experience is told in the following dispatch from Eagle to the Dawson Daily News.

"Thirty minutes out of Eagle my engine balked. I looked for a landing place and picked what looked like a level spot. It was Nigobrook flat at the head of Deer creek, eight miles south of Seven Mile river.

Killed a Caribou. I had been debating about killing one of the caribou, but the debate ended when the pointer broke. I killed one with my .32-caliber pistol and butchered him with a pocket knife.

I was overhauling the motor when a puff of wind finished the job by turning the ship over on her back and breaking the radiator. So I deserted the ship, stripped off the instruments and magnets, and started to pack down to the river.

Colored Man Falls Dead in Crap Game. Raeford, N. C.—Spurred by the dice when he "shot it all" at the end of a crap game, Jim Suggs, colored, fell dead as the dice betrayed him.

Baby Has Six Living Grandmothers. Concord, N. H.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Roger Stroug, has six living grandmothers. They include one great-great-grandmother, three great-grandmothers, and two grandmothers.

TO GIVE EVIDENCE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Rev. Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, who charged in the house recently that the Volstead act was violated by members of congress and high government officials, said today that evidence in his possession would be turned over tomorrow to Commissioner Haynes.

MAY NEVER KNOW

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The inside story of the marital differences between Geraldine Farrar, motion picture actress and her actor husband, Lou Tellegen, that caused the former to institute proceedings for divorce, probably never will become public.

TALLAHASSEE MAN HAS COTTON TREE FOURTEEN FEET HIGH. TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 11.—Loe Moody, local merchant and his famous cotton "tree" are all prepared for any frost that might come this winter.
